CONSTITUTION

OF THE

STATE OF WASHINGTON.

[This constitution was framed by a convention of seventy-five delegates, chosen by the people of the territory of Washington at an election held May 14, 1889, under § 3 of the Enabling Act. The convention met at Olympia on the fourth day of July, 1889, and adjourned on the twenty-second day of August, 1889. The constitution was ratified by the people at an election held on October 1, 1889, and on November 11, 1889, in accordance with § 8 of the Enabling Act, the President of the United States proclaimed the admission of the state of Washington into the Union.]

PREAMBLE.

We the people of the state of Washington, grateful to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for our liberties, do ordain this constitution.

ARTICLE I.

Bill of Rights.

Cited in 53 Wash. 2; 84 Wash. 62.

§ 1. Political Power.—All political power is inherent in the people, and governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and are established to protect and maintain individual rights.

Cited in 30 Wash. 443.

§ 2. Supreme Law of the Land.—The constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land.

Cited in 1 Wash. 386.

§ 3. Personal Rights.—No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law.

Cited in 5 Wash. 304; 13 Wash. 159; 16 Wash. 415; 17 Wash. 450; 18 Wash. 78, 595; 19 Wash. 208, 337; 29 Wash. 604; 35 Wash. 512; 36 Wash. 312, 453; 39 Wash. 164; 41 Wash. 178; 42 Wash. 240; 44 Wash. 352, 354; 45 Wash. 252; 46 Wash. 302; 54 Wash. 153; 60 Wash. 112; 63 Wash. 468; 65 Wash. 175, 213; 67 Wash. 40, 641; 75 Wash. 582, 587; 77 Wash. 535; 78 Wash. 55; 79 Wash. 609; 80 Wash. 700; 81 Wash. 671; 86 Wash. 24, 434; 87 Wash. 655.

§ 4. Right of Petition and Assemblage.—The right of petition and of the people peaceably to assemble for the common good shall never be abridged.

Cited in 70 Wash. 602; 75 Wash. 582.

§ 5. Freedom of Speech.—Every person may freely speak, write, and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right.

Cited in 19 Wash. 242; 82 Wash. 88.

§ 6. Oaths—Mode of Administering.—The mode of administering an oath or affirmation shall be such as may be most consistent with and binding upon the conscience of the person to whom such oath or affirmation may be administered.

§ 7. Invasion of Private Affairs or Home Prohibited.—No person shall be disturbed in his private affairs, or his home invaded, without authority of law.

Cited in 36 Wash. 454; 75 Wash. 582; 86 Wash. 24.

§ 8. Irrevocable Privilege, Franchise or Immunity Prohibited.—No law granting irrevocably any privilege, franchise, or immunity shall be passed by the legislature.

Cited in 21 Wash. 522; 83 Wash. 13.

§ 9. Rights of Accused Persons.—No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to give evidence against himself, or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

Cited in 7 Wash. 338; 14 Wash. 666; 18 Wash. 484; 36 Wash. 488; 40 Wash. 219; 56 Wash. 132; 81 Wash. 391; 83 Wash. 517; 86 Wash. 24; 87 Wash. 471.

§ 10. Administration of Justice.—Justice in all cases shall be administered openly and without unnecessary delay.

Cited in 16 Wash. 575.

§ 11. Religious Freedom.—Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief, and worship shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion, but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise, or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony.

This section is amended: See 4th Amendment, infra.

§ 12. Special Privileges and Immunities Prohibited.—No law shall be passed granting to any citizen, class of citizens, or corporation, other than municipal, privileges or immunities which, upon the same terms, shall not equally belong to all citizens or corporations.

§ 13. Habeas Corpus.—The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety requires it.

Cited in 84 Wash. 62.

§ 14. Excessive Bail, Fines and Punishments.—Excessive bail shall not be required, excessive fines imposed, nor cruel punishment inflicted.

Cited in 70 Wash. 67; 79 Wash. 609; 80 Wash. 700.

§ 15. Convictions, Effect of.—No conviction shall work corruption of blood nor forfeiture of estate.

§ 16. Eminent Domain.—Private property shall not be taken for private use, except for private ways of necessity, and for drains, flumes, or ditches on or across the lands of others for agricultural, domestic, or sanitary purposes. No private property shall be taken or damaged for public or private use without just compensation having been first made, or paid into court for the owner, and no right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation other than municipal until full compensation therefor be first made in money, or ascertained and paid into court for the owner, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury, unless a jury be waived, as in other civil cases in courts of record, in the manner prescribed by law. Whenever an attempt is made to take private property for a use alleged to be public, the question whether the contemplated use be really public shall be a judicial question, and determined as such, without regard to any legislative assertion that the use is public.

ARTICLE II.

Legislative Department.

§ 1. Legislative Powers, Where Vested.—The legislative powers shall be vested in a senate and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of the state of Washington.

Cited in 13 Wash. 20; 35 Wash. 132; 64 Wash. 79; 70 Wash. 300; 80 Wash. 693; 81 Wash. 632; 82 Wash. 648; 84 Wash. 309, 323; 85 Wash. 263, 272, 284, 299.

This section is amended: See 7th Amendment.

§ 2. House of Representatives and Senate.—The house of representatives shall be composed of not less than sixty-three nor more than ninety-nine members. The number of senators shall not be more than one-half nor less than one-third of the number of members of the house of representatives. The first legislature shall be composed of seventy members of the house of representatives and thirty-five senators.

Cited in 85 Wash. 263.

§ 3. The Census.—The legislature shall provide by law for an enumeration of the inhabitants of the state in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and every ten years thereafter; and at the first session after such enumeration, and also after each enumeration, made by the authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the members of the senate and house of representatives, according to the number of inhabitants, excluding Indians not taxed, soldiers, sailors, and officers of the United States army and navy in active service.

Cited in 15 Wash. 50.

§ 4. Election of Representatives and Term of Office.—Members of the house of representatives shall be elected in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine at the time and in the manner provided by this constitution, and shall hold their offices for the term of one year and until their successors shall be elected.

Cited in 49 Wash. 72.

§ 5. Elections, When to be Held.—The next election of the members of the house of representatives after the adoption of this constitution shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, eighteen hundred and ninety, and thereafter members of the house of representatives shall be elected biennially, and their term of office shall be two years; and each election shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, unless otherwise changed by law.

§ 6. Election and Term of Office of Senators.—After the first election the senators shall be elected by single districts of convenient and contiguous territory at the same time and in the same manner as members of the house of representatives are required to be elected, and no representative district shall be divided in the formation of a senatorial district. They shall be elected for the term of four years, one-half of their number retiring every two years. The senatorial districts shall be numbered consecutively, and the senators chosen at the first election had by virtue of this constitution, in odd-numbered districts, shall go out of office at the end of the first year, and the senators elected in the even-numbered districts shall go out of office at the end of the third year.

Cited in 4 Wash. 14.

§ 7. Qualifications of Legislators.—No person shall be eligible to the legislature who shall not be a citizen of the United States and a qualified voter in the district for which he is chosen.

Cited in 54 Wash. 463.

§ 8. Judges of Their Own Election and Qualification—Quorum.—Each house shall be the judge of the election, returns, and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Cited in 60 Wash. 423.

§ 9. Rules of Procedure.—Each house may determine the rules of its own proceedings, punish for contempt and disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected, expel a member, but no member shall be expelled a second time for the same offense.

§ 10. Election of Officers.—Each house shall elect its own officers, and when the lieutenant-governor shall not attend as president, or shall act as governor, the senate shall choose a temporary president. When presiding, the lieutenant-governor shall have the deciding vote in case of an equal division of the senate.

Cited in 29 Wash. 340.

§ 11. Journal, Publicity of Meetings—Adjournments.—Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings and publish the same, except such parts as require secrecy. The doors of each house shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy. Neither house shall adjourn for more than three days, nor to any place other than that in which they may be sitting, without the consent of the other.

§ 12. Sessions, When—Duration.—The first legislature shall meet on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1889. The second legislature shall meet on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January, A. D. 1891, and sessions of the legislature shall be held biennially thereafter, unless specially convened by the governor, but the times of meeting of subsequent sessions may be changed by the legislature. After the first legislature the sessions shall not be more than sixty days.

§ 13. Limitation on Members Holding Office in the State.—No member of the legislature during the term for which he is elected shall be appointed or elected to any civil office in the state which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which shall have been increased, during the term for which he was elected.

§ 14. Same, Federal or Other Office.—No person being a member of congress, or holding any civil or military office under the United States or any other power, shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature; and if any person after his election as a member of the legislature shall be elected to congress or be appointed to any other office, civil or military, under the government of the United States, or any other power, his acceptance thereof shall vacate his seat: Provided, that officers in the militia of the state who receive no annual salary, local officers, and postmasters, whose compensation does not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, shall not be ineligible.

§ 15. Writs of Election to Fill Vacancies.—The governor shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies as may occur in either house of the legislature.

§ 16. Privileges from Arrest.—Members of the legislature shall be privileged from arrest in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace; they shall not be subject to any civil process during the session of the legislature, nor for fifteen days next before the commencement of each session.

§ 17. Freedom of Debate.—No member of the legislature shall be liable in any civil action or criminal prosecution whatever for words spoken in debate.

§ 18. Style of Laws.—The style of the laws of the state shall be: "Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Washington"; and no laws shall be enacted except by bill.

§ 19. Bill to Contain One Subject.—No bill shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.

§ 2. Governor, Term of Office.—The supreme executive power of this state shall be vested in a governor, who shall hold his office for a term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Cited in 28 Wash. 16, 498; 29 Wash. 337.

§ 3. Other Executive Officers, Terms of Office.—The lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, and commissioner of public lands shall hold their offices for four years respectively, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Cited in 4 Wash. 26; 28 Wash. 16; 29 Wash. 338; 59 Wash. 494.

§ 4. Returns of Elections, Canvass, etc.—The returns of every election for the officers named in the first section of this article shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government by the returning officers, directed to the secretary of state, who shall deliver the same to the speaker of the house of representatives at the first meeting of the house thereafter, who shall open, publish, and declare the result thereof in the presence of a majority of the members of both houses. The person having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected, and a certificate thereof shall be given to such person, signed by the presiding officers of both houses; but if any two or more shall be highest and equal in votes for the same office, one of them shall be chosen by the joint vote of both houses. Contested elections for such officers shall be decided by the legislature in such manner as shall be decided by law. The terms of all officers named in section one of this article shall commence on the second Monday in January after their election, until otherwise provided by law.

§ 5. General Duties of Governor.—The governor may require information in writing from the officers of the state upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and shall see that the laws are faithfully executed.

§ 12. Veto Power.—Every act which shall have passed the legislature shall be, before it becomes a law, presented to the governor. If he approves, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon the journal, and proceed to reconsider. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members present shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of the members present, it shall become a law; but in all such cases the vote of both houses shall be determined by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for or against the bill shall be entered upon the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the governor within five days, Sundays excepted, after it shall be presented to him, it shall become a law without his signature, unless the general adjournment shall prevent its return, in which case it shall become a law unless the governor, within ten days next after the adjournment, Sundays excepted, shall file such bill, with his objections thereto, in the office of the secretary of state, who shall lay the same before the legislature at its next session, in like manner as if it had been returned by the governor. If any bill presented to the governor contain several sections or items, he may object to one or more sections or items while approving other portions of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the section or sections, item or items, to which he objects, and the reasons therefor, and the section or sections, item or items, so objected to, shall not take effect unless passed over the governor's objection, as hereinbefore provided.

ARTICLE IV.

The Judiciary.

§ 1. Judicial Power, Where Vested.—The judicial power of the state shall be vested in the supreme court, superior courts, justices of the peace, and such inferior courts as the legislature may provide.

Cited in 3 Wash. 611; 7 Wash. 224; 19 Wash. 21, 310; 20 Wash. 56; 23 Wash. 702; 71 Wash. 594; 82 Wash. 625, 626.

§ 2. Supreme Court.—The supreme court shall consist of five judges, a majority of whom shall be necessary to form a quorum and pronounce a decision. The said court shall always be open for the transaction of business except on nonjudicial days. In the determination of causes, all decisions of the court shall be given in writing, and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. The legislature may increase the number of judges of the supreme court from time to time, and may provide for separate departments of said court.

Cited in 29 Wash. 342; 53 Wash. 553, 554; 55 Wash. 286.

§ 3. Election and Terms of Supreme Judges.—The judges of the supreme court shall be elected by the qualified electors of the state at large, at the general state election, at the times and places at which state officers are elected, unless some other time be provided by the legislature. The first election of judges of the supreme court shall be at the election which shall be held upon the adoption of this constitution, and the judges elected thereat shall be classified by lot, so that two shall hold their office for the term of three years, two for the term of five years, and one for the term of seven years. The lot shall be drawn by the judges who shall for that purpose assemble at the seat of government, and they shall cause the result thereof to be certified to the secretary of state, and filed in his office. The judge having the shortest term to serve, not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the chief justice, and shall preside at all sessions of the supreme court, and in case there shall be two judges having in like manner the same short term, the other judges of the supreme court shall determine which of them shall be chief justice. In case of the absence of the chief justice, the judge having in like manner the shortest or next shortest term to serve shall preside. After the first election the terms of judges elected shall be six years from and after the second Monday in January next succeeding their election. If a vacancy occur in the office of a judge of the supreme court, the governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a judge to fill the vacancy, which election shall take place at the next succeeding general election, and the judge so elected shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term. The term of office of the judges of the supreme court first elected shall commence as soon as the state shall have been admitted into the Union, and continue for the term herein provided, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The sessions of the supreme court shall be held at the seat of government until otherwise provided by law.

§ 4. Jurisdiction.—The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in habeas corpus and quo warranto and mandamus as to all state officers, and appellate jurisdiction in all actions and proceedings, excepting that its appellate jurisdiction shall not extend to civil actions at law for the recovery of money or personal property when the original amount in controversy or the value of the property does not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, unless the action involves the legality of a tax, impost, assessment, toll, municipal fine, or the validity of a statute. The supreme court shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus, review, prohibition, habeas corpus, certiorari, and all other writs necessary and proper to the complete exercise of its appellate and revisory jurisdiction. Each of the judges shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself, or before the supreme court, or before any superior court of the state, or any judge thereof.

§ 5. Superior Court—Election of Judges, Terms of, etc.—There shall be in each of the organized counties of this state a superior court, for which at least one judge shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county at the general election: Provided, that until otherwise directed by the legislature one judge only shall be elected for the counties of Spokane and Stevens; one judge for the county of Whitman; one judge for the counties of Lincoln, Okanogan, Douglas, and Adams; one judge for the counties of Walla Walla and Franklin; one judge for the counties of Columbia, Garfield, and Asotin; one judge for the counties of Kittitas, Yakima, and Klickitat; one judge for the counties of Clark, Skamania, Pacific, Cowlitz, and Wahkiakum; one judge for the counties of Thurston, Chehalis, Mason, and Lewis; one judge for the county of Pierce; one judge for the county of King; one judge for the counties of Jefferson, Island, Kitsap, San Juan, and Clallam; and one judge for the counties of Whatcom, Skagit, and Snohomish. In any county where there shall be more than one superior judge, there may be as many sessions of the superior court at the same time as there are judges thereof, and whenever the governor shall direct a superior judge to hold court in any county other than that for which he has been elected, there may be as many sessions of the superior court in said county at the same time as there are judges therein or assigned to duty therein by the governor, and the business of the court shall be so distributed and assigned by law, or, in the absence of legislation therefor, by such rules and orders of court as shall best promote and secure the convenient and expeditious transaction thereof. The judgments, decrees, orders, and proceedings of any session of the superior court held by any one or more of the judges of such court shall be equally effectual as if all the judges of said court presided at such session. The first superior judges elected under this constitution shall hold their offices for the period of three years, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and thereafter the term of office of all superior judges in this state shall be for four years from the second Monday in January next succeeding their election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The first election of judges of the superior court shall be at the election held for the adoption of this constitution. If a vacancy occurs in the office of judge of the superior court, the governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a judge to fill the vacancy, which election shall be at the next succeeding general election, and the judge so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

§ 6. Jurisdiction of Superior Courts.—The superior court shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand or the value of the property in controversy amounts to one hundred dollars, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and in all cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for by law; of actions of forcible entry and detainer; of proceedings in insolvency; of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; of all matters of probate, of divorce, and for annulment of marriage; and for such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for. The superior court shall also have original jurisdiction in all cases and of all proceedings in which jurisdiction shall not have been by law vested exclusively in some other court; and said court shall have the power of naturalization and to issue papers therefor. They shall have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. They shall always be open, except on nonjudicial days, and their process shall extend to all parts of the state. Said courts and their judges shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, quo warranto, review, certiorari, prohibition, and writs of habeas corpus, on petition by or on behalf of any person in actual custody in their respective counties. Injunctions and writs of prohibition and of habeas corpus may be issued and served on legal holidays and nonjudicial days.

§ 8. Absence of Judicial Officer.—Any judicial officer who shall absent himself from the state for more than sixty consecutive days shall be deemed to have forfeited his office: Provided, that in cases of extreme necessity the governor may extend the leave of absence such time as the necessity therefor shall exist.

§ 9. Removal of Judges, Attorney General, etc.—Any judge of any court of record, the attorney general, or any prosecuting attorney may be removed from office by joint resolution of the legislature, in which three-fourths of the members elected to each house shall concur, for incompetency, corruption, malfeasance, or delinquency in office, or other sufficient cause stated in such resolution. But no removal shall be made unless the officer complained of shall have been served with a copy of the charges against him as the ground of removal, and shall have an opportunity of being heard in his defense. Such resolution shall be entered at length on the journal of both houses, and on the question of removal the ayes and nays shall also be entered on the journal.

§ 10. Justices of the Peace.—The legislature shall determine the number of justices of the peace to be elected in incorporated cities or towns and in precincts, and shall prescribe by law the powers, duties and jurisdiction of justices of the peace: Provided, that such jurisdiction granted by the legislature shall not trench upon the jurisdiction of superior or other courts of record, except that justices of the peace may be made police justices of incorporated cities and towns. In incorporated cities or towns having more than five thousand inhabitants, the justices of the peace shall receive such salary as may be provided by law, and shall receive no fees for their own use.

§ 13. Salaries of Judicial Officers—How Paid, etc.—No judicial officer, except court commissioners and unsalaried justices of the peace, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office. The judges of the supreme court and judges of the superior courts shall severally, at stated times, during their continuance in office, receive for their services the salaries prescribed by law therefor, which shall not be increased after their election, nor during the term for which they shall have been elected. The salaries of the judges of the supreme court shall be paid by the state. One-half of the salary of each of the superior court judges shall be paid by the state, and the other one-half by the county or counties for which he is elected. In cases where a judge is provided for more than one county, that portion of his salary which is to be paid by the counties shall be apportioned between or among them according to the assessed value of their taxable property, to be determined by the assessment next preceding the time for which such salary is to be paid.

§ 17. Eligibility of Judges.—No person shall be eligible to the office of judge of the supreme court or judge of a superior court unless he shall have been admitted to practice in the courts of record of this state or of the territory of Washington.

§ 18. Supreme Court Reporter.—The judges of the supreme court shall appoint a reporter for the decisions of that court, who shall be removable at their pleasure. He shall receive such annual salary as shall be prescribed by law.

Cited in 64 Wash. 329.

§ 19. Judges may not Practice Law.—No judge of a court of record shall practice law in any court of this state during his continuance in office.

§ 20. Decisions, When to be Made.—Every case submitted to a judge of a superior court for his decision shall be decided by him within ninety days from the submission thereof: Provided, that if within said period of ninety days a rehearing shall have been ordered, then the period within which he is to decide shall commence at the time the cause is submitted upon such a rehearing.

Cited in 33 Wash. 202.

§ 21. Publication of Opinions.—The legislature shall provide for the speedy publication of opinions of the supreme court, and all opinions shall be free for publication by any person.

§ 22. Clerk of Supreme Court.—The judges of the supreme court shall appoint a clerk of that court, who shall be removable at their pleasure, but the legislature may provide for the election of the clerk of the supreme court and prescribe the term of his office. The clerk of the supreme court shall receive such compensation by salary only as shall be provided by law.

§ 23. Court Commissioners.—There may be appointed in each county, by the judge of the superior court having jurisdiction therein, one or more court commissioners, not exceeding three in number, who shall have authority to perform like duties as a judge of the superior court at chambers, subject to revision by such judge, to take depositions and to perform such other business connected with the administration of justice as may be prescribed by law.

Cited in 27 Wash. 83; 44 Wash. 616; 49 Wash. 317.

§ 24. Rules for Superior Courts.—The judges of the superior courts shall, from time to time, establish uniform rules for the government of the superior courts.

§ 25. Reports of Superior Court Judges.—Superior judges shall, on or before the first day of November in each year, report in writing to the judges of the supreme court such defects and omissions in the laws as their experience may suggest, and the judges of the supreme court shall, on or before the first day of January in each year, report in writing to the governor such defects and omissions in the laws as they may believe to exist.

§ 26. Clerk of the Superior Court.—The county clerk shall be, by virtue of his office, clerk of the superior court.

§ 27. Style of Process.—The style of all process shall be "The State of Washington," and all prosecutions shall be conducted in its name and by its authority.

Cited in 14 Wash. 240; 19 Wash. 41; 20 Wash. 491.

§ 28. Oath of Judges.—Every judge of the supreme court, and every judge of a superior court shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe an oath that he will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Washington, and will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of judge to the best of his ability, which oath shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

ARTICLE V.

Impeachment.

§ 1. Impeachment—Power of and Procedure.—The house of representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment. The concurrence of a majority of all the members shall be necessary to an impeachment. All impeachments shall be tried by the senate, and when sitting for that purpose, the senators shall be upon oath or affirmation to do justice according to law and evidence. When the governor or lieutenant-governor is on trial, the chief justice of the supreme court shall preside. No person shall be convicted without a concurrence of two-thirds of the senators elected.

§ 2. Officers Liable to.—The governor and other state and judicial officers, except judges and justices of courts not of record, shall be liable to impeachment for high crimes or misdemeanors, or malfeasance in office, but judgment in such cases shall extend only to removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit in the state. The party, whether convicted or acquitted, shall, nevertheless, be liable to prosecution, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law.

Cited in 6 Wash. 497.

§ 3. Removal from Office.—All officers not liable to impeachment shall be subject to removal for misconduct or malfeasance in office, in such manner as may be provided by law.

§ 5. Voter—When Privileged from Arrest.—Voters shall, in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at elections and going to and returning therefrom. No elector shall be required to do military duty on the day of any election except in time of war or public danger.

Cited in 28 Wash. 16.

§ 6. Ballot.—All elections shall be by ballot. The legislature shall provide for such method of voting as will secure to every elector absolute secrecy in preparing and depositing his ballot.

Cited in 12 Wash. 382; 60 Wash. 373; 78 Wash. 84, 85.

§ 7. Registration.—The legislature shall enact a registration law, and shall require a compliance with such law before any elector shall be allowed to vote: Provided, that this provision is not compulsory upon the legislature, except as to cities and towns having a population of over five hundred inhabitants. In all other cases the legislature may or may not require registration as a prerequisite to the right to vote, and the same system of registration need not be adopted for both classes.

Cited in 13 Wash. 145.

§ 8. Elections, Time of Holding.—The first election of county and district officers not otherwise provided for in this constitution, shall be on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety, and thereafter all elections for such officers shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November. The first election of all state officers not otherwise provided for in this constitution, after the election held for the adoption of this constitution, shall be on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and the elections for such state officers shall be held in every fourth year thereafter on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November.

Revenue and Taxation.

Cited in 74 Wash. 279; 84 Wash. 536, 538.

§ 1. Annual State Tax.—All property in the state not exempt under the laws of the United States, or under this constitution, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law. The legislature shall provide by law for an annual tax sufficient, with other sources of revenue, to defray the estimated ordinary expenses of the state for each fiscal year. And for the purpose of paying the state debt, if there be any, the legislature shall provide for levying a tax annually, sufficient to pay the annual interest and principal of such debt within twenty years from the final passage of the law creating the debt.

§ 6. Taxes, How Paid.—All taxes levied and collected for state purposes shall be paid in money only into the state treasury.

Cited in 65 Wash. 532.

§ 7. Annual Statement.—An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public moneys shall be published annually in such manner as the legislature may provide.

§ 8. Tax to Cover Deficiencies.—Whenever the expenses of any fiscal year shall exceed the income, the legislature may provide for levying a tax for the ensuing fiscal year, sufficient, with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency, as well as the estimated expenses of the ensuing fiscal year.

§ 9. Special Assessments or Taxation for Local Improvements.—The legislature may vest the corporate authorities of cities, towns, and villages with power to make local improvements by special assessment, or by special taxation of property benefited. For all corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to assess and collect taxes, and such taxes shall be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body levying the same.

ARTICLE VIII.

Public Indebtedness.

Cited in 74 Wash. 16.

§ 1. Limitation on State Debt.—The state may, to meet casual deficits or failure in revenues or for expenses not provided for, contract debts, but such debts, direct and contingent, singly or in the aggregate, shall not at any time exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000), and the moneys arising from the loans creating such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Cited in 12 Wash. 542; 16 Wash. 572; 21 Wash. 208; 74 Wash. 19-21.

§ 2. Powers Extended in Certain Cases.—In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to defend the state in war, but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, and to no other purpose whatever.

Cited in 12 Wash. 542; 74 Wash. 19-21.

§ 3. Special Indebtedness, How Authorized.—Except the debt specified in sections one and two of this article, no debts shall hereafter be contracted by or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by law for some single work or object to be distinctly specified therein, which law shall provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within twenty years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect, until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election, and all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county, if one be published therein, throughout the state, for three months next preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people.

§ 4. Moneys Disbursed Only by Appropriations.—No moneys shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this state, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within two years from the first day of May next after the passage of such appropriation act, and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum.

Cited in 3 Wash. 137; 7 Wash. 192; 13 Wash. 322; 19 Wash. 661; 51 Wash. 556; 52 Wash. 689; 74 Wash. 26, 27.

§ 5. Credit not to be Loaned.—The credit of the state shall not, in any manner, be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association, company, or corporation.

Cited in 35 Wash. 513.

§ 6. Limitations upon Municipal Indebtedness.—No county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation, without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness, except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes: Provided, that no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly county, city, town, school district, or other municipal purposes: Provided further, that any city or town, with such assent, may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipality.

ARTICLE IX.

Education.

§ 1. Preamble.—It is the paramount duty of the state to make ample provision for the education of all children residing within its borders, without distinction or preference on account of race, color, caste, or sex.

Cited in 13 Wash. 699; 16 Wash. 576; 17 Wash. 139; 40 Wash. 105.

§ 2. Public School System.—The legislature shall provide for a general and uniform system of public schools. The public school system shall include common schools, and such high schools, normal schools, and technical schools as may hereafter be established. But the entire revenue derived from the common school fund, and the state tax for common schools, shall be exclusively applied to the support of the common schools.

§ 3. Funds for Support of.—The principal of the common school fund shall remain permanent and irreducible. The said fund shall be derived from the following named sources, to wit: Appropriations and donations by the state to this fund; donations and bequests by individuals to the state or public for common schools; the proceeds of lands and other property which revert to the state by escheat and forfeiture; the proceeds of all property granted to the state, when the purpose of the grant is not specified or is uncertain; funds accumulated in the treasury of the state for the disbursement of which provision has not been made by law; the proceeds of the sale of timber, stone, minerals, or other property from school and state lands, other than those granted for specific purposes; all moneys received from persons appropriating timber, stone, minerals, or other property from school and state lands other than those granted for specific purposes, and all moneys other than rental recovered from persons trespassing on said lands; five per centum of the proceeds of the sale of public lands lying within the state which shall be sold by the United States subsequent to the admission of the state into the Union, as approved by section thirteen of the act of congress enabling the admission of the state into the Union; the principal of all funds arising from the sale of lands and other property which have been and hereafter may be granted to the state for the support of common schools. The legislature may make further provisions for enlarging said fund. The interest accruing on said fund, together with all rentals and other revenues derived therefrom, and from lands and other property devoted to the common school fund, shall be exclusively applied to the current use of the common schools.

Cited in 51 Wash. 501.

§ 4. Sectarian Control or Influence Prohibited.—All schools maintained or supported wholly or in part by the public funds shall be forever free from sectarian control or influence.

§ 5. Loss of Permanent Fund to Become State Debt.—All losses to the permanent common school or any other state educational fund which shall be occasioned by defalcation, mismanagement, or fraud of the agents or officers controlling or managing the same shall be audited by the proper authorities of the state. The amount so audited shall be a permanent funded debt against the state in favor of the particular fund sustaining such loss, upon which not less than six per cent annual interest shall be paid. The amount of liability so created shall not be counted as a part of the indebtedness authorized and limited elsewhere in this constitution.

ARTICLE X.

Militia.

§ 1. Who Liable to Military Duty.—All able-bodied male citizens of this state between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, except such as are exempt by laws of the United States or by the laws of this state, shall be liable to military duty.

§ 2. Organization—Discipline—Officers—Power to Call Out.—The legislature shall provide by law for organizing and disciplining the militia in such manner as it may deem expedient, not incompatible with the constitution and laws of the United States. Officers of the militia shall be elected or appointed in such manner as the legislature shall from time to time direct, and shall be commissioned by the governor. The governor shall have power to call forth the militia to execute the laws of the state to suppress insurrections and repel invasions.

Cited in 3 Wash. 397.

§ 3. Soldiers' Home.—The legislature shall provide by law for the maintenance of a soldiers' home for honorably discharged Union soldiers, sailors, marines and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and who are bona fide citizens of the state.

§ 4. Public Arms.—The legislature shall provide by law for the protection and safe keeping of the public arms.

§ 5. Privilege from Arrest.—The militia shall, in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the attendance at musters and elections of officers, and in going to and returning from the same.

§ 6. Exemption from Military Duty.—No person or persons having conscientious scruples against bearing arms shall be compelled to do militia duty in time of peace: Provided, such person or persons shall pay an equivalent for such exemption.

ARTICLE XI.

County, City and Township Organization.

§ 1. Existing Counties Recognized.—The several counties of the territory of Washington existing at the time of the adoption of this constitution are hereby recognized as legal subdivisions of this state.

§ 2. County Seats—Location and Removal.—No county seat shall be removed unless three-fifths of the qualified electors of the county voting on the proposition at a general election shall vote in favor of such removal, and three-fifths of all votes cast on the proposition shall be required to relocate a county seat. A proposition of removal shall not be submitted in the same county more than once in four years.

Cited in 1 Wash. 301; 8 Wash. 65; 12 Wash. 435; 25 Wash. 583; 49 Wash. 74.

§ 3. New Counties.—No new county shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population less than four thousand, nor shall a new county be formed containing a less population than two thousand. There shall be no territory stricken from any county unless a majority of the voters living in such territory shall petition therefor, and then only under such other conditions as may be prescribed by a general law applicable to the whole state. Every county which shall be enlarged or created from territory taken from any other county or counties shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts and liabilities of the county or counties from which such territory shall be taken: Provided, that in such accounting neither county shall be charged with any debt or liability then existing, incurred in the purchase of any county property or in the purchase or construction of any county buildings then in use or under construction which shall fall within and be retained by the county: Provided further, that this shall not be construed to affect the rights of creditors.

§ 4. County Government and Township Organization.—The legislature shall establish a system of county government, which shall be uniform throughout the state, and by general laws shall provide for township organization, under which any county may organize whenever a majority of the qualified electors of such county voting at a general election shall so determine; and whenever a county shall adopt township organization the assessment and collection of the revenue shall be made, and the business of such county and the local affairs of the several townships therein, shall be managed and transacted in the manner prescribed by such general law.

§ 9. State Taxes not to be Released or Commuted.—No county, nor the inhabitants thereof, nor the property therein, shall be released or discharged from its or their proportionate share of taxes to be levied for state purposes, nor shall commutation for such taxes be authorized in any form whatever.

Cited in 35 Wash. 38.

§ 10. Incorporation of Municipalities.—Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws; but the legislature, by general laws, shall provide for the incorporation, organization, and classification, in proportion to population, of cities and towns, which laws may be altered, amended, or repealed. Cities and towns heretofore organized or incorporated may become organized under such general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election shall so determine, and shall organize in conformity therewith; and cities or towns heretofore or hereafter organized and all charters thereof framed or adopted by authority of this constitution shall be subject to and controlled by general laws. Any city containing a population of twenty thousand inhabitants or more shall be permitted to frame a charter for its own government consistent with and subject to the constitution and laws of this state, and for such purpose the legislative authority of such city may cause an election to be had, at which election there shall be chosen by the qualified electors of said city fifteen freeholders thereof, who shall have been residents of said city for a period of at least two years preceding their election, and qualified electors, whose duty it shall be to convene within ten days after their election, and prepare and propose a charter for such city. Such proposed charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon ratify the same, it shall become the charter of said city, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter, including amendments thereto, and all special laws inconsistent with such charter. Said proposed charter shall be published in two daily newspapers published in said city for at least thirty days prior to the day of submitting the same to the electors for their approval, as above provided. All elections in this section authorized shall only be had upon notice, which notice shall specify the object of calling such election, and shall be given for at least ten days before the day of election in all election districts of said city. Said elections may be general or special elections, and, except as herein provided, shall be governed by the law regulating and controlling general or special elections in said city. Such charter may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the legislative authority of such city to the electors thereof at any general election, after notice of said submission published as above specified, and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto, any alternate article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

Corporations Other Than Municipal.

§ 1. Corporations, how Formed.—Corporations may be formed under general laws, but shall not be created by special acts. All laws relating to corporations may be altered, amended, or repealed by the legislature at any time, and all corporations doing business in this state may, as to such business, be regulated, limited, or restrained by law.

Cited in 19 Wash. 498; 51 Wash. 390; 67 Wash. 44, 383; 80 Wash. 171.

§ 2. Existing Charters.—All existing charters, franchises, special or exclusive privileges, under which an actual and bona fide organization shall not have taken place, and business been commenced in good faith, at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall thereafter have no validity.

§ 3. Existing Charters not to be Extended nor Forfeiture Remitted.—The legislature shall not extend any franchise or charter, nor remit the forfeiture of any franchise or charter of any corporation now existing, or, which shall hereafter exist under the laws of this state.

Cited in 67 Wash. 383.

§ 4. Liability of Stockholders.—Each stockholder in all incorporated companies, except corporations organized for banking or insurance purposes, shall be liable for the debts of the corporation to the amount of his unpaid stock, and no more, and one or more stockholders may be joined as parties defendant in suits to recover upon this liability.

Cited in 64 Wash. 299, 300; 78 Wash. 609; 80 Wash. 389.

§ 5. Term "Corporation," Defined—Right to Sue and be Sued.—The term "corporations," as used in this article, shall be construed to include all associations and joint stock companies having any powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships, and all corporations shall have the right to sue and shall be subject to be sued in all courts in like cases as natural persons.

§ 6. Limitations upon Issuance of Stock.—Corporations shall not issue stock, except to bona fide subscribers therefor, or their assignees; nor shall any corporation issue any bond or other obligation for the payment of money, except for money or property received or labor done. The stock of corporations shall not be increased, except in pursuance of a general law, nor shall any law authorize the increase of stock, without the consent of the person or persons holding the larger amount in value of the stock, nor without due notice of the proposed increase having been previously given in such manner as may be prescribed by law. All fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

ARTICLE XIV.

Seat of Government.

§ 1. State Capital, Location of.—The legislature shall have no power to change or to locate the seat of government of this state; but the question of the permanent location of the seat of government of the state shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the territory, at the election to be held for the adoption of this constitution. A majority of all the votes cast at said election, upon said question, shall be necessary to determine the permanent location of the seat of government for the state; and no place shall ever be the seat of government which shall not receive a majority of the votes cast on that matter. In case there shall be no choice of location at said first election, the legislature shall, at its first regular session after the adoption of this constitution, provide for submitting to the qualified electors of the state, at the next succeeding general election, thereafter, the question of choice of location between the three places for which the highest number of votes shall have been cast at the said first election. Said legislature shall provide further, that in case there shall be no choice of location at said second election, the question of choice between the two places for which the highest number of votes shall have been cast shall be submitted in like manner to the qualified electors of the state at the next ensuing general election: Provided, that until the seat of government shall have been permanently located as herein provided the temporary location shall remain at the city of Olympia.

ARTICLE XV.

Harbors and Tide Waters.

§ 1. Harbor Line Commission and Restraint on Disposition of Certain Tide-lands.—The legislature shall provide for the appointment of a commission whose duty it shall be to locate and establish harbor lines in the navigable waters of all harbors, estuaries, bays, and inlets of this state, wherever such navigable waters lie within or in front of the corporate limits of any city, or within one mile thereof on either side. The state shall never give, sell, or lease to any private person, corporation, or association any rights whatever in the waters beyond such harbor lines, nor shall any of the area lying between any harbor line and the line of ordinary high tide, and within not less than fifty feet nor more than six hundred feet of such harbor line (as the commission shall determine) be sold or granted by the state, nor its rights to control the same relinquished, but such area shall be forever reserved for landings, wharves, streets, and other conveniences of navigation and commerce.

§ 2. Constitutional Conventions.—Whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the legislature shall deem it necessary to call a convention to revise or amend this constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote at the next general election for or against a convention; and if a majority of all the electors voting at said election shall have voted for a convention, the legislature shall at the next session provide by law for calling the same; and such convention shall consist of a number of members, not less than that of the most numerous branch of the legislature.

Cited in 1 Wash. 301; 49 Wash. 75.

§ 3. Submission to the People.—Any constitution adopted by such convention shall have no validity until it has been submitted to and adopted by the people.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Boundaries.

§ 1. State Boundaries.—The boundaries of the state of Washington shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the Pacific Ocean one marine league due west of and opposite the middle of the mouth of the north ship channel of the Columbia River, thence running easterly to and up the middle channel of said river and where it is divided by islands up the middle of the widest channel thereof to where the forty-sixth parallel of north latitude crosses said river, near the mouth of the Walla Walla River; thence east on said forty-sixth parallel of latitude to the middle of the main channel of the Shoshone or Snake River; thence follow down the middle of the main channel of Snake River to a point opposite the mouth of the Kooskooskia or Clear Water River; thence due north to the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude; thence west along said forty-ninth parallel of north latitude to the middle of the channel which separates Vancouver's Island from the continent, that is to say to a point in longitude one hundred and twenty-three degrees, nineteen minutes, and fifteen seconds west; thence following the boundary line between the United States and British possessions through the channel which separates Vancouver's Island from the continent to the termination of the boundary line between the United States and British possessions at a point in the Pacific Ocean equidistant between Bonnilla Point, on Vancouver's Island, and Tatoosh Island lighthouse; thence running in a southerly course and parallel with the coast line, keeping one marine league off shore, to place of beginning.

ARTICLE XXV.

Jurisdiction.

§ 1. Authority of the United States.—The consent of the state of Washington is hereby given to the exercise by the congress of the United States of exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever over such tract or parcels of land as are now held or reserved by the government of the United States for the purpose of erecting or maintaining thereon forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, lighthouses, and other needful buildings, in accordance with the provisions of the seventeenth paragraph of the eighth section of the first article of the constitution of the United States: Provided, that a sufficient description by metes and bounds, and an accurate plat or map of each such tract or parcel of land be filed in the proper office of record in the county in which the same is situated, together with copies of the orders, deeds, patents, or other evidences in writing of the title of the United States: And provided, that all civil process issued from the courts of this state, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of this state, against any person charged with crime in cases arising outside of such reservations, may be served and executed thereon in the same mode and manner and by the same officers as if the consent herein given had not been made.

ARTICLE XXVI.

Compact With the United States.

The following ordinance shall be irrevocable without the consent of the United States and the people of this state:—

First. That perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured, and that no inhabitant of this state shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship.

Second. That the people inhabiting this state do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries of this state, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribes; and that until the title thereto shall have been extinguished by the United States, the same shall be and remain subject to the disposition of the United States, and said Indian lands shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the congress of the United States, and that the lands belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the limits of this state shall never be taxed at a higher rate than the lands belonging to residents thereof, and that no taxes shall be imposed by the state on lands or property therein belonging to or which may be hereafter purchased by the United States or reserved for use: Provided, that nothing in this ordinance shall preclude the state from taxing, as other lands are taxed, any lands owned or held by any Indian who has severed his tribal relations, and has obtained from the United States or from any person a title thereto by patent or other grant, save and except such lands as have been or may be granted to any Indian or Indians under any act of congress containing a provision exempting the lands thus granted from taxation, which exemption shall continue so long and to such an extent as such act of congress may prescribe.

Third. The debts and liabilities of the territory of Washington, and payment of the same, are hereby assumed by this state.

Fourth. Provision shall be made for the establishment and maintenance of systems of public schools free from sectarian control, which shall be open to all the children of said state.

ARTICLE XXVII.

Schedule.

In order that no inconvenience may arise by reason of a change from a territorial to a state government, it is hereby declared and ordained as follows:—

§ 1. Existing Rights, Actions and Contracts Saved.—No existing rights, actions, suits, proceedings, contracts, or claims shall be affected by a change in the form of government, but all shall continue as if no such change had taken place; and all process which may have been issued under the authority of the territory of Washington previous to its admission into the Union shall be as valid as if issued in the name of the state.

§ 2. Laws in Force Continued.—All laws now in force in the territory of Washington which are not repugnant to this constitution shall remain in force until they expire by their own limitation, or are altered or repealed by the legislature: Provided, that this section shall not be so construed as to validate any act of the legislature of Washington Territory granting shore or tide-lands to any person, company, or any municipal or private corporation.

Cited in 2 Wash. 258; 4 Wash. 26; 8 Wash. 472; 11 Wash. 233; 13 Wash. 362; 14 Wash. 310; 22 Wash. 132, 548; 28 Wash. 498; 43 Wash. 182; 47 Wash. 206; 51 Wash. 56.

§ 3. Debts, Fines, etc., to Inure to the State.—All debts, fines, penalties, and forfeitures which have accrued or may hereafter accrue to the territory of Washington shall inure to the state of Washington.

§ 4. Recognizances. — All recognizances heretofore taken or which may be taken before the change from a territorial to a state government shall remain valid, and shall pass to and may be prosecuted in the name of the state, and all bonds executed to the territory of Washington, or to any county or municipal corporation, or to any officer or court in his or its official capacity, shall pass to the state authorities and their successors in office, for the uses therein expressed, and may be sued for and recovered accordingly; and all the estate, real, personal, and mixed, and all judgments, decrees, bonds, specialties, choses in action, and claims or debts, of whatever description belonging to the territory of Washington shall inure to and vest in the state of Washington, and may be sued for and recovered in the same manner and to the same extent by the state of Washington as the same could have been by the territory of Washington.

§ 5. Criminal Prosecutions and Penal Actions. — All criminal prosecutions and penal actions which may have arisen, or which may arise, before the change from a territorial to a state government, and which shall then be pending, shall be prosecuted to judgment and execution in the name of the state. All offenses committed against the laws of the territory of Washington, before the change from a territorial to state government, and which shall not be prosecuted before such change, may be prosecuted in the name and by the authority of the state of Washington, with like effect as though such change had not taken place; and all penalties incurred shall remain the same as if this constitution had not been adopted. All actions at law and suits in equity which may be pending in any of the courts of the territory of Washington at the time of a change from a territorial to a state government shall be continued and transferred to the court of the state having jurisdiction of the subject matter thereof.

Cited in 2 Wash. 3; 6 Wash. 159.

§ 6. Retention of Territorial Officers.—All officers now holding their office under the authority of the United States, or of the territory of Washington, shall continue to hold and exercise their respective offices until they shall be superseded by the authority of the state.

Cited in 6 Wash. 161, 163; 8 Wash. 472; 28 Wash. 16, 498.

§ 7. Constitutional Officers, When Elected.—All officers provided for in this constitution, including a county clerk for each county, when no other time is fixed for their election, shall be elected at the election to be held for the adoption of this constitution on the first Tuesday of October, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

§ 8. Change of Courts—Transfer of Causes.—Whenever the judge of the superior court of any county, elected or appointed under the provisions of this constitution, shall have qualified, the several causes then pending in the district court of the territory, except such causes as would have been within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States district court, had such court existed at the time of the commencement of such causes within such county, and the records, papers, and proceedings of said district court, and the seal and other property pertaining thereto, shall pass into the jurisdiction and possession of the superior court of such county. And where the same judge is elected for two or more counties, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court having custody of such papers and records to transmit to the clerk of such county or counties other than that in which such records are kept the original papers in all cases pending in such district court and belonging to the jurisdiction of such county or counties, together with transcript of so much of the records of said district court as relate to the same; and until the district courts of the territory shall be superseded in manner aforesaid, the said district courts and the judges thereof shall continue with the same jurisdiction and powers, to be exercised in the same judicial districts respectively, as heretofore constituted under the laws of the territory. Whenever a quorum of the judges of the supreme court of the state shall have been elected and qualified, the causes then pending in the supreme court of the territory, except such causes as would have been within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States circuit court had such court existed at the time of the commencement of such causes, and the papers, records, and proceedings of said court, and the seal and other property pertaining thereto, shall pass into the jurisdiction and possession of the supreme court of the state, and until so superseded the supreme court of the territory and the judges thereof shall continue with like powers and jurisdiction as if this constitution had not been adopted.

§ 9. Seals of Courts and Municipalities.—Until otherwise provided by law, the seal now in use in the supreme court of the territory shall be the seal of the supreme court of the state. The seal of the superior courts of the several counties of the state shall be, until otherwise provided by law, the vignette of General George Washington, with the words "Seal of the superior court of —— county" surrounding the vignette. The seal of municipalities and of all county officers of the territory shall be the seals of such municipalities and county officers, respectively, under the state, until otherwise provided by law.

§ 10. Probate Court, Transfer of.—When the state is admitted into the Union, and the superior courts in their respective counties organized, the books, records, papers, and proceedings of the probate court in each county, and all causes and matters of administration pending therein shall, upon the expiration of the term of office of the probate judges, on the second Monday in January, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, pass into the jurisdiction and possession of the superior court of the same county created by this constitution, and the said court shall proceed to final judgment or decree, order, or other determination in the several matters and causes as the territorial probate court might have done if this constitution had not been adopted. And until the expiration of the term of office of the probate judges, such probate judges shall perform the duties now imposed upon them by the laws of the territory. The superior courts shall have appellate and revisory jurisdiction over the decisions of the probate courts as now provided by law until such latter courts expire by limitation.

Cited in 34 Wash. 308.

§ 11. Duties of First Legislature.—The legislature, at its first session, shall provide for the election of all officers whose election is not provided for elsewhere in this constitution, and fix the time for the commencement and duration of their term.

§ 12. Election Contests for Superior Judges, How Decided.—In case of a contest of election between candidates at the first general election under this constitution for judges of the superior courts, the evidence shall be taken in the manner prescribed by the territorial laws, and the testimony so taken shall be certified to the secretary of state, and said officer together with the governor and treasurer of state, shall review the evidence and determine who is entitled to the certificate of election.

§ 13. Representation in Congress.—One representative in the congress of the United States shall be elected from the state at large at the first election provided for in this constitution, and thereafter at such times and places and in such manner as may be prescribed by law. When a new apportionment shall be made by congress, the legislature shall divide the state into congressional districts, in accordance with such apportionment. The vote cast for representative in congress at the first election shall be canvassed and the result determined in the manner provided for by the laws of the territory for the canvass of the vote for delegate in congress.

§ 14. Duration of Term of Certain Officers.—All district, county, and precinct officers who may be in office at the time of the adoption of this constitution, and the county clerk of each county elected at the first election, shall hold their respective offices until the second Monday of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and until such time as their successors may be elected and qualified, in accordance with the provisions of this constitution; and the official bonds of all such officers shall continue in full force and effect as though this constitution had not been adopted, and such officers shall continue to receive the compensation now provided until the same be changed by law.

Cited in 5 Wash. 459, 460.

§ 15. Election on Adoption of Constitution, How to be Conducted.—The election held at the time of the adoption of this constitution shall be held and conducted in all respects according to the laws of the territory; and the votes cast at said election for all officers (where no other provisions are made in this constitution), and for the adoption of this constitution, and the several separate articles, and the location of the state capital, shall be canvassed and returned in the several counties in the manner provided by territorial laws, and shall be returned to the secretary of the territory in the manner provided by the Enabling Act.

§ 16. When Constitution to Take Effect.—The provisions of this constitution shall be in force from the day on which the president of the United States shall issue his proclamation declaring the state of Washington admitted into the Union, and the terms of all officers elected at the first election under the provisions of this constitution shall commence on the Monday next succeeding the issue of said proclamation, unless otherwise provided herein.

Cited in 2 Wash. 3.

§ 17. Separate Articles.—The following separate articles shall be submitted to the people for adoption or rejection at the election for the adoption of this constitution:—

Separate article No. 1. "All persons, male and female, of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the qualifications provided by this constitution, shall be entitled to vote at all elections."

Separate article No. 2. "It shall not be lawful for any individual, company, or corporation, within the limits of this state, to manufacture, or cause to be manufactured, or to sell, or offer for sale, or in any manner dispose of any alcoholic, malt, or spirituous liquors, except for medicinal, sacramental, or scientific purposes."

If a majority of the ballots cast at said election on said separate articles be in favor of the adoption of either of said separate articles, then such separate article so receiving a majority shall become a part of this constitution, and shall govern and control any provision of the constitution in conflict therewith.

§ 18. Ballot.—The form of ballot to be used in voting for or against this constitution, or for or against the separate articles, or for the permanent location of the seat of government, shall be,—

1. For the constitution, ——.
   Against the constitution, ——.
2. For woman suffrage article, ——.
   Against woman suffrage article, ——.
3. For prohibition article,——.
   Against prohibition article, ——.

[The result of the election was against both woman suffrage and prohibition.]

4. For the permanent location of the seat of government. [Name of place voted for.]

§ 19. Appropriation.—The legislature is hereby authorized to appropriate from the state treasury sufficient money to pay any of the expenses of this convention not provided for by the Enabling Act of congress.

CERTIFICATE.

We, the undersigned, members of the convention to form a constitution for the state of Washington, which is to be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection, do hereby declare this to be the constitution formed by us, and in testimony thereof, do hereunto set our hands, this the twenty-second day of August, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

AMENDMENT 1.

Article 16. Section 5. Investment of School Fund.—None of the permanent school fund of this state shall ever be loaned to private persons or corporations, but it may be invested in national, state, county, municipal, or school district bonds.

AMENDMENT 2.

Article 6. Section 1. Qualifications of Voters.—All male persons of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States; they shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward, or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote; they shall be able to read and speak the English language: Provided, that Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the elective franchise. And further provided, that this amendment shall not affect the right of franchise of any person who is now a qualified elector of this state. The legislature shall enact laws defining the manner of ascertaining the qualifications of voters as to their ability to read and speak the English language, and providing for punishment of persons voting or registering in violation of the provisions of this section.

Approved November, 1896.

AMENDMENT 3.

Article 7, Section 2, was amended by adding the following proviso: "And provided further, that the legislature shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to exempt personal property to the amount of $300 for each head of a family liable to assessment and taxation under the provisions of the laws of this state of which the individual is the actual bona fide owner."

Article 1. Section 11. Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or be disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship, exercise, or instruction, or support of any religious establishment. Provided, however, that this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the state of a chaplain for the state penitentiary, and for such of the state reformatories as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious belief to affect the weight of his testimony.

Article Six (VI) was amended by striking from said article all of sections one (1) and two (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following, to be known as section one (1):

Section 1. All persons of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States; they shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote; they shall be able to read and speak the English language, Provided, that Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the elective franchise. And further provided, that this amendment shall not affect the rights of franchise of any person who is now a qualified elector of this state. The legislative authority shall enact laws defining the manner of ascertaining the qualifications of voters as to their ability to read and speak the English language, and providing for punishment of persons voting or registering in violation of the provision of this section. There shall be no denial of the elective franchise at any election on account of sex. [L. 1909, p. 26, § 1.]

AMENDMENT 6.

Article III, Section 10. In case of the removal, resignation, death or disability of the governor, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the lieutenant-governor; and in case of a vacancy in both the offices of governor and lieutenant-governor, the duties of the governor shall devolve upon the secretary of state. In addition to the line of succession to the office and duties of governor as hereinabove indicated, if the necessity shall arise, in order to fill the vacancy in the office of governor, the following state officers shall succeed to the duties of governor, and in the order named, viz.: Treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of public lands. In case of the death, disability, failure or refusal of the person regularly elected to the office of governor to qualify at the time provided by law, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the person regularly elected to and qualified for the office of lieutenant-governor who shall act as governor until the disability be removed, or a governor be elected; and in case of the death, disability, failure or refusal of both the governor and the lieutenant-governor elect to qualify, the duties of the governor shall devolve upon the secretary of state; and in addition to the line of succession to the office and duties of governor as hereinabove indicated, if there shall be the failure or refusal of any officer named above to qualify, and if the necessity shall arise by reason thereof, then in that event in order to fill the vacancy in the office of governor, the following state officers shall succeed to the duties of governor in the order named, viz: Treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of public lands. Any person succeeding to the office of governor as in this section provided, shall perform the duties of such office until the disability be removed, or a governor be elected and qualified; and if a vacancy occur more than thirty days before the next general election occurring within two years after the commencement of the term, a person shall be elected at such election to fill the office of governor for the remainder of the unexpired term. [L. 1909, p. 642, § 1.]

AMENDMENT 7.

Article II, Section 1. Legislative Powers, Where Vested.—The legislative authority of the state of Washington shall be vested in the legislature, consisting of a senate and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of the state of Washington, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose bills, laws, and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at their own option, to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, section or part of any bill, act or law passed by the legislature.

(a) Initiative. The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Ten per centum, but in no case more than fifty thousand, of the legal voters shall be required to propose any measure by such petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure as proposed. Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, or not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature. If filed at least four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon, he shall submit the same to the vote of the people at the said election. If such petitions are filed not less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature, he shall transmit the same to the legislature as soon as it convenes and organizes. Such initiative measure shall take precedence over all other measures in the legislature except appropriation bills and shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the legislature before the end of such regular session. If any such initiative measure shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to the referendum petition, or it may be enacted and referred by the legislature to the people for approval or rejection at the next regular election. If it is rejected or if no action is taken upon it by the legislature before the end of such regular session, the secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one dealing with the same subject, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. When conflicting measures are submitted to the people the ballots shall be so printed that a voter can express separately by making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, as between either measure and neither, and secondly, as between one and the other. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is for neither, both fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue shall nevertheless be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the first issue is for either, then the measure receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue shall be law.

(b) Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the referendum, and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law, or any part thereof passed by the legislature, except such laws as may be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions, either by petition signed by the required percentage of the legal voters, or by the legislature as other bills are enacted. Six per centum, but in no case more than thirty thousand, of the legal voters shall be required to sign and make a valid referendum petition.

(c) No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law, or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within a period of two years following such enactment. But such enactment may be amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the people thereon.

(d) The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of any act, law or bill shall not delay the remainder of the measure from becoming operative. Referendum petitions against measures passed by the legislature shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the measure on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures initiated by or referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be had at the biennial regular elections, except when the legislature shall order a special election. Any measure initiated by the people or referred to the people as herein provided shall take effect and become the law if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon: Provided, that the vote cast upon such question or measure shall equal one-third of the total votes cast at such election and not otherwise. Such measure shall be in operation on and after the thirtieth day after the election at which it is approved. The style of all bills proposed by initiative petition shall be: "Be it enacted by the people of the state of Washington." This section shall not be construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to introduce any measure. The whole number of electors who voted for governor at the regular gubernatorial election last preceding the filing of any petition for the initiative or for the referendum shall be the basis on which the number of legal voters necessary to sign such petition shall be counted. All such petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall be guided by the general laws in submitting the same to the people until additional legislation shall especially provide therefor. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted especially to facilitate its operation.

The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the constitution referred to the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so referred, so that each voter of the state shall receive the publication at least fifty days before the election at which they are to be voted upon. [L. '11, p. 136, § 1.]

AMENDMENT 8.

Article One (I) was amended by adding the two following sections:

Section 33. Recall of Elective Officers.—Every elective public officer in the state of Washington except judges of courts of record is subject to recall and discharge by the legal voters of the state, or of the political subdivision of the state, from which he was elected whenever a petition demanding his recall, reciting that such officer has committed some act or acts of malfeasance or misfeasance while in office, or has violated his oath of office, stating the matters complained of, signed by the percentages of the qualified electors thereof, hereinafter provided, the percentage required to be computed from the total number of votes cast for all candidates for his said office to which he was elected at the preceding election, is filed with the officer with whom a petition for nomination, or certificate for nomination, to such office must be filed under the laws of this state, and the same officer shall call a special election as provided by the general election laws of this state, and the result determined as therein provided.

Section 34. Same.—The legislature shall pass the necessary laws to carry out the provisions of section thirty-three (33) of this article, and to facilitate its operation and effect without delay; Provided, that the authority hereby conferred upon the legislature shall not be construed to grant to the legislature any exclusive power of lawmaking nor in any way limit the initiative and referendum powers reserved by the people. The percentages required shall be state officers, other than judges, senators and representatives, city officers of cities of the first class, school district boards in cities of the first class; county officers of counties of the first, second and third classes, twenty-five per cent. Officers of all other political subdivisions, cities, towns, townships, precincts and school districts not herein mentioned, and state senators and representatives, thirty-five per cent. [L. '11, p. 504, § 1.]

Approved November, 1912.

CHAPTER I.

The Supreme Court.

Judges of: See "State Officers," § 9040 et seq., infra.
Clerk, reporter, etc.: See "State Officers," § 9057 et seq., infra.

§ 1. Jurisdiction.—The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in habeas corpus and quo warranto and mandamus as to all state officers, and appellate jurisdiction in all actions and proceedings, excepting that its appellate jurisdiction shall not extend to civil actions at law for the recovery of money or personal property, when the original amount in controversy or the value of the property does not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, unless the action involves the legality of a tax, impost, assessment, toll, municipal fine, or the validity of a statute. The supreme court shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus, review, prohibition, habeas corpus, certiorari, and all other writs necessary and proper to the complete exercise of its appellate and revisory jurisdiction. Each of the judges shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state, upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or before the supreme court, or before any superior court of the state, or any judge thereof. [L. '90, p. 322, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1; Const., Art. IV, § 4.]

§ 2. Is a Court of Record—General Powers.—The supreme court shall be a court of record, and shall be vested with all power and authority necessary to carry into complete execution all its judgments, decrees, and determinations in all matters within its jurisdiction, according to the rules and principles of the common law, and the constitution and laws of this state. [L. '90, p. 323, § 10; 2 H. C., § 2; Const., Art. IV, § 11.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 159.

§ 3. Court House and Rooms—Furnishing.—If proper rooms in which to hold the court, for the accommodation of the officers thereof, are not provided by the state, together with attendants, furniture, fuel, lights, record books and stationery, suitable and sufficient for the transaction of business, the court, or any three justices thereof, may direct the clerk of the supreme court to provide the same; and the expense thereof, certified by any three justices to be correct, shall be paid out of the state treasury, out of any funds therein not otherwise appropriated. Such moneys shall be subject to the order of the clerk of the supreme court, and be by him disbursed on proper vouchers, and accounted for by him in annual settlements with the state auditor. [L. '90, p. 322, § 4; 2 H. C., § 3; Const., Art. IV, § 2.]

The first part of this section is omitted, as it is covered by the next section.

§ 4. Is Always Open—Sessions.—The supreme court shall always be open for the transaction of business except on nonjudicial days. It shall hold regular sessions for the hearing of causes en banc, and in each of its departments, at the capital of the state [on the second Mondays of January, May, and October of each year]. Special sessions at the same place may be held at such other times as may be prescribed by the judges of such court. [L. '09, p. 36, § 7.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 268; 2 Wash. 369; 44 Wash. 148.

See infra, § 64, business authorized to be transacted on nonjudicial days.

§ 6. Style of Process.—Its process shall run in the name of the "state of Washington," bear test in the name of the chief justice, be signed by the clerk of the court, dated when issued, sealed with the seal of the court, and made returnable according to law, or such rule or orders as may be prescribed by the court. [L. '90, p. 323, § 11; 2 H. C., § 7.]

§ 8. Two Departments—Assignment of Judges—Quorum.—There shall be two departments of the supreme court, denominated respectively department one and department two. The chief justice shall assign four of the associate judges to each department and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time: Provided, that the associate judges shall be competent to sit in either department and may interchange with one another by agreement among themselves, or if no such agreement be made, as ordered by the chief justice. The chief justice may sit in either department and shall preside when so sitting, but the judges assigned to each department shall select one of their number as presiding judge. Each of the departments shall have the power to hear and determine causes, and all questions arising therein, subject to the provisions in relation to the court en banc. The presence of three judges shall be necessary to transact any business in either of the departments, except such as may be done at chambers, but one or more of the judges may from time to time adjourn to the same effect as if all were present, and a concurrence of three judges shall be necessary to pronounce a decision in each department: Provided, that if three do not concur, the cause shall be reheard in the same department or transmitted to the other department, or to the court en banc. [L. '09, p. 34, § 3. For former laws relating to quorum, see L. '90, p. 322, § 5; 2 H. C., § 5; Bal. Code, § 4654; L. '05, p. 14, § 2. See, also, Const., Art. IV, § 2.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 554, 555.

§ 9. Apportionment of Business—Order for Hearings en Banc.—The chief justice shall from time to time apportion the business to the departments, and may, in his discretion, before a decision is pronounced, order any cause pending before the court to be heard and determined by the court en banc. When a cause has been allotted to one of the departments and a decision pronounced therein, the chief justice, together with any two associate judges, may order such cause to be heard and decided by the court en banc. Any four judges may, either before or after decision by a department, order a cause to be heard en banc. [L. '09, p. 34, § 4.]

§ 10. Decisions of Department—Finality—Rehearings.—The decision of a department, except in cases otherwise ordered as hereinafter provided, shall not become final until thirty days after the filing thereof, during which period a petition for rehearing, or for a hearing en banc, may be filed, the filing of either of which, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall have the effect of suspending such decision until the same shall have been disposed of. If no such petition be filed the decision of a department shall become final thirty days from the date of its filing, unless during such thirty-day period an order for a hearing en banc shall have been made: Provided, that if for any cause the chief justice or a majority of the department rendering any decision shall be of the opinion that such decision should go into effect prior to thirty days after its filing, it shall go into effect, and a judgment issue thereon, any time after its filing and prior to such thirty-day period, upon being in writing approved by the chief justice and any two associate judges who took no part in rendering such decision. The effect of granting a petition for a rehearing, or of ordering a cause once decided by department to be heard en banc, shall be to vacate and set aside the decision. Whenever a decision shall become final, as herein provided, a judgment shall issue thereon. [L. '09, p. 35, § 4.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 554, 555.

§ 11. Hearings en Banc—Quorum—Finality of Decision.—The chief justice, or any four judges, may convene the court en banc at any time, and the chief justice shall be the presiding judge of the court when so convened. The presence of five judges shall be necessary to transact any business, and a concurrence of five judges present at the argument shall be necessary to pronounce a decision in the court en banc: Provided, that if five of the judges so present do not concur in a decision, then reargument shall be ordered and all the judges qualified to sit in the cause shall hear the argument, but to render a decision a concurrence of five judges shall be necessary; and every decision of the court en banc shall be final except in cases in which no previous decision has been rendered in one of the departments, and in such cases the decision of the court en banc shall become final thirty days after its filing, unless during such period a petition for rehearing be filed. The filing of such petition within such period shall have the effect of suspending the decision until disposed of by the concurrence of five judges: Provided, that if for any cause five judges shall be of the opinion that such decision should go into effect prior to thirty days after its filing, it shall go into effect any time after its filing and prior to such thirty-day period upon being in writing approved by six judges of such court. Whenever a decision shall become final as herein provided, a judgment shall issue thereon. [L. '09, p. 35, § 5.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 554, 555.

§ 12. Acting Chief Justice.—In case of the absence of the chief justice, or his inability to act, the judge having the shortest term to serve, not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the chief justice during such absence or inability to act. In case there shall be two or more judges having in like manner the same short term, the other judges of the supreme court shall determine which of them shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the chief justice during such absence or inability to act. [L. '09, p. 36, § 6.]

§ 13. Rules of Practice and Form of Process. The supreme court may from time to time institute such rules of practice and prescribe such forms of process to be used in such court and in the court en banc and each of its departments, and for the keeping of the dockets, records and proceedings, and for the regulation of such court, including the court en banc and in departments, as may be deemed most conducive to the due administration of justice. [L. '09, p. 36, § 8. Cf. L. '90, p. 323, § 12; 2 H. C., § 6; Bal. Code, § 4655.]

§ 14. Effect of Judgment.—The judgments and decrees of the supreme court shall be final and conclusive upon all the parties properly before the court. [L. '90, p. 323, § 8; 2 H. C., § 9.]

CHAPTER II.

Superior Courts.

§ 15. Original Jurisdiction of Superior Courts.—The superior courts shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity, and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand or the value of the property in controversy amounts to one hundred dollars, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and in all cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for by law; of actions of forcible entry and detainer; of proceedings in insolvency; of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; of all matters of probate, of divorce, and for annulment of marriage, and for such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for; and shall also have original jurisdiction in all cases and of all proceedings in which jurisdiction shall not have been by law vested exclusively in some other court, and shall have the power of naturalization, and to issue papers therefor. Said courts and their judges shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, quo warranto, review, certiorari, prohibition, and writs of habeas corpus, on petition by or on behalf of any person in actual custody in their respective counties. Injunctions and writs of prohibition and of habeas corpus may be issued on legal holidays and nonjudicial days. [L. '90, p. 342, § 5; 2 H. C., § 10; Const., Art. IV, § 6.]

§ 16. Naturalization of Aliens.—The superior courts of the several counties shall have jurisdiction, and it shall be their duty to hear applications and proofs by aliens to become citizens of the United States, and to grant certificates of citizenship to such applicants, in accordance with section 2165 of the Revised Statutes of the United States. [L. '86, p. 113, § 1; Const., Art. IV, § 6.]

§ 17. Appellate Jurisdiction.—The superior courts shall have such appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justices' and other inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. [L. '90, p. 343, § 6; 2 H. C., § 12; Const., Art. IV, § 6.]

Cited in 60 Wash. 548.

§ 18. Are Courts of Record—Always Open—Sessions.—The superior courts are courts of record, and shall be always open, except on nonjudicial days. They shall hold their sessions at the county seats of the several counties, respectively. They shall hold regular and special sessions in the several counties of this state at such times as may be prescribed by the judge or judges thereof. [L. '90, p. 343, § 7; 2 H. C., § 13. Cf. L. '91, p. 89, § 1; 2 H. C., § 41; Bal. Code, § 4708; Const., Art. IV, §§ 6, 11.]

Cited in 54 Wash. 392.

§ 27. Judge of Another County to Sit—Designation by Governor.—Whenever a judge of the superior court of any county in this state, or a majority of such judges in any county in which there is more than one judge of said court, shall request the governor of the state to direct a judge of the superior court of any other county to hold a session of the superior court of any such county as is first herein above mentioned, the governor shall thereupon request and direct a judge of the superior court of some other county, making such selection as the governor shall deem to be most consistent with the state of judicial business in other counties, to hold a session of the superior court in the county the judge shall have requested the governor as aforesaid. Such request and direction by the governor shall be made in writing, and shall specify the county in which he directs the superior judge to whom the same is addressed to hold such session of the superior court, and the period during which he is to hold such session. Thereupon it shall be the duty of the superior judge so requested, and he is hereby empowered, to hold a session of the superior court of the county specified by the governor, at the seat of judicial business thereof, during the period specified by the governor, and in such quarters as the county commissioners of said county may provide for the holding of such session. [L. '90, p. 343, § 10; 2 H. C., § 15; L. '93, p. 67, § 1; Const., Art. IV, § 7.]

§ 29. Number of Sessions at Same Time—Effect of Acts of Visiting Judge.—In any county where there shall be more than one superior judge, or in which a superior judge of another county may be holding a session of the superior court, as in this chapter provided, there may be as many sessions of the superior court at the same time as there are judges thereof, or assigned to duty therein by the governor, or responding to a request made as provided in the last preceding section. In such cases the business of the court shall be so distributed and assigned by law, or in the absence of legislation therefor, by such rules and orders of the court as shall best promote and secure the convenient and expeditious transaction thereof. Judgments, decrees, orders and proceedings of any session of the superior court held by one or more of the judges of said court, or by any judge of the superior court of another county pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be equally effectual as if all the judges of such court presided at such session. [L. '90, p. 341, § 2; 2 H. C., § 16; L. '93, p. 68, § 3.]

"Chapter" in this section, refers to §§ 27–30.

§ 30. Expenses of Judge Called to Another County.—Any judge of the superior court in any county in this state who shall hold a session of the superior court of any other county, in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, shall be entitled to receive from the county in which he shall hold such sessions the amount of his actual traveling expenses from his residence to the place where he shall hold such sessions, and on his return to his residence, and of the actual traveling expenses of his sojourn at the place where he shall hold such sessions during the continuance thereof. The county clerk of such county shall, upon the presentation to him by such judge of a statement of such expenses, verified by his affidavit, issue to such judge a certificate that he is entitled to the amount thereof; and upon presentation of such certificate to the auditor of such county he shall draw a warrant on the general fund of such county for the amount in favor of such judge. [L. '93, p. 69, § 4; Const., Art. IV, § 14.]

§ 32. Jurisdiction—Process—Venue.—The process of the superior courts shall extend to all parts of the state: Provided, that all actions for the recovery of the possession of, quieting the title to, or for the enforcement of liens upon real estate shall be commenced in the county in which the real estate, or any part thereof, affected by such action or actions is situated. [L. '90, p. 343, § 9; 2 H. C., § 17; Const., Art. IV, § 6.]

See Const., Art. IV, § 27, style of process.

§ 35. Process, to Whom Directed.—Unless otherwise provided by statute, all process issuing out of the [superior] court shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which it is to be served, and be by him executed according to law. [L. '91, p. 84, § 5; 2 H. C., § 795.]

§ 36. Judges to Establish Uniform Rules.—The judges of the superior courts shall, from time to time, establish uniform rules for the government of the superior courts. [L. '90, p. 344, § 13; 2 H. C., § 18; Const., Art. IV, § 24.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 461.

§ 38. Seal.—The seals of the superior courts of the several counties of the state shall be, until otherwise provided by law, the vignette of General George Washington, with the words, "Seal of the Superior Court of —— County, State of Washington," surrounding the vignette. [L. '90, p. 345, § 17; 2 H. C., § 19; Const., Art. XXVII, § 9.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 96.

§ 39. Limit of Time for Decision.—Every case submitted to a judge of a superior court for his decision shall be decided by him within ninety days from the submission thereof: Provided, that if within said period of ninety days a rehearing shall have been ordered, then the period within which he is to decide shall commence at the time the cause is submitted upon such rehearing, and upon willful failure of any judge so to do, he shall be deemed to have forfeited his office. [L. '90, p. 344, § 12; 2 H. C., § 20; Const., Art. IV, § 20.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 630.

§ 40. Judges Pro Tempore—Appointment—Oath—Compensation. A case in the superior court of any county may be tried by a judge pro tempore, who must be a member of the bar, agreed upon in writing by the parties litigant, or their attorneys of record, approved by the court, and sworn to try the case; and his action in the trial of such cause shall have the same effect as if he were the judge of such court. A judge pro tempore shall, before entering upon his duties in any cause, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:—

I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Washington, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of judge pro tempore in the cause wherein —— is plaintiff and —— defendant, according to the best of my ability.

He shall receive a compensation of ten dollars for each day engaged in said trial, to be paid in the same manner as the salary of the superior judge. [L. '90, p. 343, § 11; 2 H. C., § 21; Const., Art. IV, § 7.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 693; 25 Wash. 603.

§ 41. Powers of Judge in Other Counties of His District.—Any judge of the superior court of the state of Washington shall have power, in any county within his district: (1) To sign all necessary orders and papers in probate matters pending in any other county in his district; (2) to issue restraining orders, and to sign the necessary orders of continuance in actions or proceedings pending in any other county in his district; (3) to decide and rule upon all motions, demurrers, issues of fact or other matters that may have been submitted to him in any other county. All such rulings and decisions shall be in writing and shall be filed immediately with the clerk of the proper county: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the judge to hear any matter outside of the county wherein the cause or proceeding is pending, except by consent of the parties. [L. '01, p. 76, § 1.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 589.

§ 42. Decisions and Rulings Out of His Own District.—Any judge of the superior court of the state of Washington who shall have heard any cause, either upon motion, demurrer, issue of fact, or other matter in any county out of his district, may decide, rule upon, and determine the same in any county in this state, which decision, ruling and determination shall be in writing and shall be filed immediately with the clerk of the county where such cause is pending. [L. '01, p. 77, § 2.]

§ 42-1. Official Court Reporter—Appointment—Term.—It shall be the duty of each superior court judge in counties or judicial districts in the state of Washington having a population of over thirty thousand inhabitants to appoint a stenographer to be attached to the court holden by him, (except, for the sake of economy, where in counties or judicial districts having more than one judge there is not sufficient trial work to require the services of two or more official reporters, the judges of such courts may, provided their trial dockets can be satisfactorily arranged so as not to delay the trials of cases, appoint one official reporter jointly to act as official reporter for their respective courts), who shall have had at least three years' experience as a skilled, practical court reporter, or who upon examination shall be able to report and transcribe accurately one hundred fifty words per minute of the judge's charge or one hundred seventy-five words of testimony for five consecutive minutes; said test of efficiency, in the event of inability to meet the qualifications as to length of time of experience, to be given by a committee of three of the attorneys of the county or district in which the said stenographer is seeking to act as official reporter, and such stenographer shall thereupon become an officer of the court and shall be designated and known as the official reporter for the court or district for which he is appointed. Each official reporter so appointed shall hold office during the term of office of the judge appointing him, but may be removed for incompetency, misconduct or neglect of duty, and before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of his office, and file a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the faithful discharge of his duties. No person shall be appointed to the office of official reporter who is not a citizen of and a duly qualified elector in the state of Washington. [L. '13, p. 386, § 1.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 228–231; 84 Wash. 467.

§ 42–2. Duties of Reporter.—It shall be the duty of each official reporter appointed under this act to attend every term of the superior court in the county or judicial district for which he is appointed, at such times as the judge presiding may direct; and upon the trial of any cause in any court, if either party to the suit or action, or his attorney, request the services of the official reporter, the presiding judge shall grant such request, or upon his own motion such presiding judge may order a full report of the testimony, exceptions taken, and all other oral proceedings; in which case the official reporter shall cause accurate shorthand notes of the oral testimony, exceptions taken, and other oral proceedings had, to be taken, except when the judge and attorneys dispense with his services with respect to any portion of the proceedings therein, which notes shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court where such trial is had. [L. '13, p. 387, § 2.]

§ 42–3. Compensation of Reporter.—Each official reporter so appointed shall be paid a compensation at the rate of ten dollars ($10) per diem for every day that he is actually in attendance upon said court pursuant to the direction of the court, which compensation shall be paid out of the county treasury where such court is held, as other expenses of the court are paid; and the sworn statement of the official reporter as to the number of days' attendance upon the court, when certified as correct by the judge presiding, shall be a sufficient voucher to the county auditor, upon which he shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer of the county in favor of the official reporter. [L. '13, p. 387, § 3.]

§ 42–4. Additional Fees to be Paid Reporter.—In each civil action hereafter commenced the sum of one dollar ($1) shall be paid by the plaintiff at the time of the filing of the complaint to the clerk of the court, and at the time of the appearance of the defendant, or any defendant appearing separately, there shall be paid in to the clerk of the court one dollar ($1), and these sums so paid shall be taxed as costs in the case, and collected from the unsuccessful party in said action, and shall be known as stenographers' costs, and shall be paid by the clerk of said court into the county treasury of the county in which said action is commenced. [L. '13, p. 387, § 4.]

§ 42–5. Transcript of Notes—Fees.—When shorthand notes have been taken in any cause as in this act provided, if the court, or either party to the suit or action, or his attorney, requests a transcript of the notes into longhand, the official reporter shall make, or cause to be made, with reasonable diligence, full and accurate typewritten transcript of the testimony and other proceedings, which shall, when certified to, as hereinafter provided, be filed with the clerk of the court where such trial is had for the use of the court or parties to the action. The fees of the reporter for making such transcript shall be fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words for the original copy, and five cents per folio for each carbon copy ordered before the original is made, or made at the same time as the original, and when such transcript is ordered by any party to any such suit or action said fees shall be paid forthwith by the party ordering the same, and in all cases where a transcript is made as provided for under the provisions of this act the cost thereof shall be taxable as costs in the case, and shall be so taxed as other costs in the case are taxed: Provided, that when the defendant in any criminal cause shall present to the judge presiding satisfactory proof, by affidavit or otherwise, that he is unable to pay for such transcript, the presiding judge, if in his opinion justice will thereby be promoted, may order said transcript to be made by the official reporter, in which case the official reporter shall be paid for preparing said transcript ten cents per folio for the original copy and five cents per folio for each carbon copy ordered at the same time as the original or made at the same time as the original, which transcript fee shall be paid in like manner as the per diem fees are paid as specified in section 42–3. [L. '13, p. 388, § 5.]

§ 42–6. Transcript Accorded Verity.—The report of the official reporter, when transcribed and certified as being a correct transcript of the stenographic notes of the testimony, or other oral proceedings had in the matter, shall be prima facie a correct statement of such testimony or other oral proceedings had, and the same may thereafter, in any civil cause, be read in evidence as competent testimony, when satisfactory proof is offered to the judge presiding that the witness originally giving such testimony is then dead or without the jurisdiction of the court, subject, however, to all objections the same as though such witness were present and giving such testimony in person. [L. '13, p. 389, § 6.]

§ 42–7. Subsequent Transcript.—When the official reporter who has taken notes in any cause, shall thereafter cease to be such official reporter, any transcript thereafter made by him therefrom, or made by any competent person under the direction of the court, and duly certified to by the person making the same, under oath, as a full, true and correct transcript of said notes, the same shall have full force and effect the same as though certified by an official reporter of said court. [L. '13, p. 389, § 7.]

§ 42–8. Reporter Pro Tem.—In the event of the absence or inability of the official reporter to act, the presiding judge may appoint a competent stenographer to act pro tem, who shall perform the same duties as the official reporter, and whose report when certified to, shall have the same legal effect as the certified report of the official reporter. The reporter pro tem shall possess the qualifications and take the oath prescribed for the official reporter, and shall file a like bond, and shall receive the same compensation. [L. '13, p. 389, § 8.]

§ 42–9. Court Amanuensis.—In all counties or judicial districts, except counties of the first class, such official reporter shall act as amanuensis to the court where he is appointed, and the court may allow him per diem therefor, as provided in this act: Provided, that in no event shall the per diem for such work exceed ten days in any one calendar month. [L. '13, p. 389, § 9.]

§ 42–10. Court Files Accessible to Reporters.—Official reporters or reporters pro tem may, without order of court, upon giving a proper receipt therefor, procure at all reasonable hours from the office of the clerk of the court, any files or exhibits necessary for use in the preparation of statements of fact or transcribing portions of testimony or proceedings in any cause reported by them. [L. '13, p. 389, § 10.]

§ 42-11. Office Expenses.—Necessary supplies for reporting and for preparation of transcripts in criminal cases shall be furnished by the county. Typewriters and all other supplies in all other cases shall be furnished by the stenographers. In counties where arrangements can be made therefor, suitable office room shall be furnished the official reporter. [L. '13, p. 390, § 11.]

§ 42-12. Substituted Reporters.—At the request of either party to an action an official reporter from the same or any other district in the state may be substituted for the official reporter of the court in which the action is being tried for the purpose of reporting the trial of said action: Provided, that the party or parties to the action requesting such substitution pay or secure to be paid to the clerk of the court the necessary traveling and hotel expenses of the official reporters so substituted as aforesaid. [L. '13, p. 390, § 12.]

§ 42-13. Application of Act.—This act shall not apply to any county having a population of two hundred thousand, or over. [L. '13, p. 390, § 13.]

CHAPTER III.

Justices' Courts.

See "Justices of the Peace and Constables," § 6513 et seq., infra.
Justice Code: See infra, §§ 1755-1924.

§ 43. General Powers of Justices of the Peace.—Every justice of the peace elected in any precinct in this state is hereby authorized to hold a court for the trial of all actions in the next section enumerated, to hear, try, and determine the same according to law; and for that purpose, where no special provision is otherwise made by law, such court shall be vested with all the necessary powers which are possessed by courts of record in this state; and all laws of a general nature shall apply to such justice's court, as far as the same may be applicable, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. [L. '54, p. 226, § 22; Cd. '81, § 1709; 2 H. C., § 22; Const., Art. IV, § 10.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 14; 20 Wash. 96, 164.

§ 44. Jurisdiction in Civil Actions and Proceedings.—Every justice of the peace shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of the following civil actions and proceedings:—

1. Of an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only in which the sum claimed is less than one hundred dollars;

2. Of an action for damages for injuries to the person, or for taking or detaining personal property, or for injuring personal property, or for an injury to real property when no issue raised by the answer involves the plaintiff's title to or possession of the same, when the amount of damages claimed is less than one hundred dollars; also of actions to recover possession of personal property, when the value of such property, as alleged in the complaint, is less than one hundred dollars;

3. Of an action for a penalty less than one hundred dollars;

4. Of an action upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money, when the amount claimed is less than one hundred dollars, though the penalty of the bond exceed that sum, the judgment to be given for the sum actually due, not exceeding the amount claimed in the complaint;

5. Of an action on an undertaking or surety bond taken by him or his predecessor in office, when the amount claimed is less than one hundred dollars;

6. Of an action for damages for fraud in the sale, purchase, or exchange of personal property, when the damages claimed are less than one hundred dollars;

7. To take and enter judgment on confession of a defendant, when the amount of the judgment confessed is less than one hundred dollars;

8. To issue writs of attachment upon goods, chattels, moneys, and effects, when the amount is less than one hundred dollars;

9. Of all other actions and proceedings of which jurisdiction is specially confessed [conferred] by statute, when the amount involved is less than one hundred dollars, and the title to or right of possession of or to a lien upon real property is not involved. [L. '54, p. 226, § 23; L. '55, p. 11; L. '73, p. 333, § 17; L. '77, p. 199, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1710; L. '83, p. 44, § 1, subd. 4; L. '91, p. 137, § 1; 2 H. C., § 23; Const., Art. IV, § 10.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 96.

§ 45. Restrictions on Civil Jurisdiction.—The jurisdiction conferred by the last section shall not, however, extend to the following civil actions:—

1. In which the title to real property shall come in question;

2. Nor to an action for the foreclosure of a mortgage, or enforcement of a lien on real estate;

3. Nor to an action for false imprisonment, libel, slander, malicious prosecution, criminal conversation, or seduction;

4. Nor to any action against an executor or administrator as such. [L. '54, p. 227, § 24; Cd. 81, § 1711; 2 H. C., § 24; Const., Art. IV, §§ 6, 10.]

§ 46. Jurisdiction in Criminal Cases—Cities of First and Other Classes.—Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the superior courts of all misdemeanors and gross misdemeanors committed in or which may be tried in their respective counties: Provided, that justices of the peace in cities of the first class shall in no event impose greater punishment than a fine of five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for six months; and justices of the peace other than those elected in cities of the first class shall in no event impose greater punishment than a fine of one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days. [L. '09, p. 377, § 1. Cf. L. '60, p. 279, § 171; L. '73, p. 181, § 184; L. '75, p. 51, § 1; Cd. 81, § 1886; 2 H. C., § 25; L. '01, p. 34, § 1; Const., Art. IV, § 6, 10.]

See infra, § 1925, practice and trial in criminal actions in justices' courts.

§ 47. Territorial Jurisdiction of Justices—Residence.—The jurisdiction of justices of the peace elected in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be coextensive with the limits of the county in which they are elected or appointed, and no other or greater, but every justice of the peace shall continue to reside in the precinct for which he was elected or appointed, during his continuance in office. [L. '54, p. 224, § 9; Cd. '81, § 1702; 1 H. C., § 314; see 2 H. C., § 27.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 14; 23 Wash. 579.

§ 48. Office, Where Held—Process.—Every justice of the peace shall keep his office in the precinct for which he may be elected, and not elsewhere; but he may issue process in any place in his county. [L. '54, p. 226, § 20; Cd. '81, § 1707; 2 H. C., § 28.]

§ 49. Not to Office With an Attorney, Except.—No justice of the peace shall hold his office in the same room with a practicing attorney, unless such attorney shall be his law partner; and in that case, such partner shall not be permitted to appear or practice as an attorney in any case tried before such justice of the peace. [L. '54, p. 226, § 21; Cd. '81, §§ 1708, 3294; 2 H. C., § 29.]

CHAPTER IV.

Magistrates.

§ 50. Definition of Magistrate.—A magistrate is an officer having power to issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with the commission of a crime. [L. '91, p. 91, § 1; 2 H. C., § 30.]

§ 51. Who are Magistrates.—The following persons are magistrates:—

1. The justices of the supreme court;
2. The superior judges, and justices of the peace;
3. All municipal officers authorized to exercise the powers and perform the duties of a justice of the peace. [L. '91, p. 91, § 2; 2 H. C., § 31.]

CHAPTER V.

Powers and General Provisions.

§ 52. Powers of Courts Respecting Conduct of Judicial Proceedings.—Every court of justice has power,—

1. To preserve and enforce order in its immediate presence;
2. To enforce order in the proceedings before it, or before a person or body empowered to conduct a judicial investigation under its authority;
3. To provide for the orderly conduct of proceedings before it or its officers;
4. To compel obedience to its judgments, decrees, orders, and process, and to the orders of a judge out of court, in an action, suit, or proceeding pending therein;
5. To control, in furtherance of justice, the conduct of its ministerial officers, and of all other persons in any manner connected with a judicial proceeding before it, in every matter appertaining thereto;
6. To compel the attendance of persons to testify in an action, suit, or proceeding therein, in the cases and manner provided by this code;

7. To administer oaths in an action, suit, or proceeding pending therein, and in all other cases where it may be necessary in the exercise of its powers or the performance of its duties. [L. '91, p. 91, § 1; 2 H. C., § 32.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 578; 71 Wash. 496.

§ 53. Court may Punish for Contempt.—For the effectual exercise of the powers specified in the last section, the court may punish for contempt in the cases and the manner provided by law. [L. '91, p. 92, § 2; 2 H. C., § 33.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 497.

See infra, § 1049 et seq., and notes, relating to contempts in general.

See infra, § 58, punishment of contempts by "judicial officer."

§ 54. Judicial Officer Defined—When Disqualified.—A judicial officer is a person authorized to act as a judge in a court of justice. Such officer shall not act as such in a court of which he is a member in any of the following cases:—

1. In an action, suit or proceeding to which he is a party, or in which he is directly interested;

2. When he was not present and sitting as a member of the court at the hearing of a matter submitted for its decision;

3. When he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree. The degree shall be ascertained and computed by ascending from the judge to the common ancestor and descending to the party, counting a degree for each person in both lines, including the judge and party and excluding the common ancestor;

4. When he has been attorney in the action, suit or proceeding in question for either party; but this section does not apply to an application to change the place of trial, or the regulation of the order of business in court. In the cases specified in subdivisions three and four, the disqualification may be waived by the parties, and except in the supreme court shall be deemed to be waived unless an application for a change of the place of trial be made as provided by law. [Cf. L. '91, p. 92, § 3; 2 H. C., § 34; L. '95, p. 63, § 1.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 393.

§ 55. When may Act as Attorney.—Any judicial officer may act as an attorney in any action, suit, or proceeding to which he is a party or in which he is directly interested. A justice of the peace, otherwise authorized by law, may act as an attorney in any court other than the one in which he is judge, except in an action, suit, or proceeding removed therefrom to another court for review; but no judicial officer shall act as attorney in any court, except as in this section allowed. [L. '91, p. 92, § 4; 2 H. C., § 35; see Cd. '81, § 3293.]

See infra, this title, chapter X, attorneys, in general.

§ 56. Judge as Distinguished from a Court.—A judge may exercise, out of court, all the powers expressly conferred upon a judge as contradistinguished from a court, and not otherwise. [L. '91, p. 92, § 5; 2 H. C., § 36.]

Cited in 43 Wash. 22; 44 Wash. 617.

§ 57. Powers of Judicial Officers.—Every judicial officer has power,—

1. To preserve and enforce order in his immediate presence, and in the proceedings before him, when he is engaged in the performance of a duty imposed upon him by this code or other statute;

2. To compel obedience to his lawful orders, as provided in this code;

3. To compel the attendance of persons to testify in a proceeding pending before him in the cases and manner provided in this code;

4. To administer oaths to persons, in a proceeding pending before him, and in all other cases where it may be necessary, in the exercise of his powers and the performance of his duties. [L. '91, p. 92, § 6; 2 H. C., § 37.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 497.

§ 58. Judicial Officer may Punish for Contempt.—For the effectual exercise of the powers specified in the last preceding section, a judicial officer may punish for contempt in the cases and manner provided by law. [L. '91, p. 93, § 7; 2 H. C., § 38.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 497.

See supra, § 53, punishment of contempt by "court."

See infra, § 1049 et seq., and notes, relating to contempts in general.

§ 59. Judges may Exercise Certain Powers, Where.—The judges of the supreme and superior courts have power in any part of the state to take and certify,—

1. The proof and acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, or any other written instrument authorized or required to be proved or acknowledged;

2. The acknowledgment of satisfaction of a judgment in any court;

3. An affidavit or deposition to be used in any court of justice or other tribunal of this state;

4. To exercise any other power and perform any other duty conferred or imposed upon them by statute. [L. '91, p. 93, § 8; 2 H. C., § 30.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 203; 54 Wash. 155.

§ 60. When Inferior Judicial Officers may Act.—Every other judicial officer may, within the county, city, district, or precinct in which he is chosen,—

1. Exercise the powers mentioned in subdivisions one, two, and three of the last preceding section;

2. Exercise any other power and perform any other duty conferred or imposed upon him by other statute. [L. '91, p. 93, § 9; 2 H. C., § 40.]

§ 61. Legal Holidays.—The following days are legal holidays, namely: Sunday; the first day of January, commonly called New Year's Day; the fourth day of July; the twenty-second day of February; the twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas Day; and any day designated by public proclamation of the chief executive of the state as a legal holiday, or as a day of thanksgiving; the day known and observed as Memorial or Decoration Day; and the day on which a general election is held throughout the state. CHAPTER VI.

County Clerks—Clerk of Superior Court.

§ 70. Bond of Clerk—Conditions—When Filed, etc.—Every county clerk, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall enter into bond, payable to the state of Washington, with good and sufficient sureties, as provided by law for other county officers, the amount to be fixed and the bond to be approved by the judge or a majority of the judges presiding over the court of which he is clerk. The bond shall be conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office, and account for and pay over all moneys which may come into his hands by virtue of his office, and that he, his executors or administrators will deliver to his successor, safe and undefaced, all books, records, papers, seals, apparatus and furniture belonging to his office, and cause said bond to be filed in the office of the county treasurer of his said county, after it has been recorded in a book kept for that purpose by the county aduitor. [L. '95, p. 95, § 1.]

§ 71. Amount of Bond.—The bond of said county clerk shall in no case be in a penal sum less than double the amount of money which said judge or judges, or a majority of them, may, by order of said court entered on the records of said court, fix upon as liable to come into his hands as clerk; and it shall be the duty of the judge or judges of the court of which he is clerk to require that said bond be sufficient, and in a penal sum double the amount of moneys liable to come into the hands of said clerk. [L. '95, p. 96, § 2.]

§ 72. New Bond, When may be Required—Penalty for Failure to File.—When the judge or judges of any court, or a majority of them, shall believe that the clerk of said court has not a good and sufficient bond on file, or that said bond is not large enough in amount, as herein required, the said judge or judges shall enter an order requiring him, within such time as may be specified in said order, to execute and present to said judge or judges a good and sufficient bond, as hereinbefore described, in such sum as may be fixed by said order; and in case of his failure to make and file said bond within ten days from the expiration of the date fixed by said order for the making of the same, it shall be the duty of the judge or judges of said court to declare the office of said county clerk vacant. [L. '95, p. 96, § 3.]

§ 73. Office—Where Kept—When to be Open.—The office of the clerk of the superior court shall be kept at the county seat of the county of which he is clerk. Each clerk of a superior court shall keep his office open for the transaction of business on every judicial day from eight to twelve in the forenoon, and from one to five in the afternoon. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 2125; L. '91, p. 98, §§ 1, 2; 2 H. C., §§ 71, 72.]

§ 75. What Books to be Kept by County Clerk.—1. He shall, at the expense of the county, provide and keep a book, in which he shall enter all appearances and the time of filing all pleadings in any cause pending in said court;

2. He shall also keep a docket, in which he shall enter, before every session, the titles of all causes pending before said court at such session, in the order in which they were commenced, beginning with criminal cases, noting in separate columns the names of the attorneys, the character of the action, the pleadings upon which it stands at the commencement of the session, leaving a margin opposite each case for the court to enter a short minute of the orders of the session. One copy of this docket he shall furnish for the use of the court, and another for the use of the members of the bar;

3. He shall also provide and keep at each session a minute-book, in which he shall enter the names of witnesses and jurors, with time of attendance, distance of travel, and whatever else is necessary to enable him to make out a complete cost bill;

4. He shall also provide and keep a well-bound book, to be called the order book or journal, in which he shall record the daily proceedings of the court, and enter all verdicts, orders, judgments, and decisions thereof, from which every morning shall be read in open court the proceedings of the previous day, which shall be signed by the judge; but the court shall have full control of all entries in said journal at any time during the same term [session] in which they were made;

5. He shall also provide and keep well-bound books, one for an execution docket, one for a book of levies, and one for a final record, in which he shall make a full and perfect record of all criminal cases in which a final judgment is rendered, and all civil cases in which by any order or final judgment the title to real estate, or any interest therein, is any way affected, and such other final judgments, orders, or decisions as either party may require, and may pay him for recording;

6. He shall also provide and keep such other books as are prescribed by law and required in the discharge of the duties of his office. [Cf. L. '54, p. 366, § 6; L. '63, p. 317, § 6; Cd. '81, § 2179; 1 H. C., § 173.]

See infra, § 444, execution docket.

§ 76. Custody and Delivery of Books, etc.—He shall be responsible for the safe custody and delivery to his successor of all books and papers belonging to his office. [L. '54, p. 367, § 8; Cd. '81, § 2181; 1 H. C., § 175.]

§ 77. Powers and Duties of Clerks of Supreme and Superior Courts.—The clerk of the supreme court, and each clerk of a superior court, has power to take and certify the proof and acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property or any other written instrument, authorized or required to be proved or acknowledged, and to administer oaths in every case when authorized by law; and it is the duty of the clerk of the supreme court, and of each county clerk for each of the courts for which he is clerk,—

1. To keep the seal of the court, and affix it in all cases where he is required by law;

2. To record the proceedings of the court;

3. To keep the records, files and other books and papers appertaining to the court;

4. To file all papers delivered to him for that purpose, in any action or proceeding in the court;

5. To attend the court of which he is clerk, to administer oaths, and receive the verdict of a jury in any action or proceeding therein, in the presence and under the direction of the court;

6. To keep the journal of the proceedings of the court, and, under the direction of the court, to enter its orders, judgments, and decrees;

7. To authenticate, by certificate or transcript, as may be required, the records, files, or proceedings of the court, or any other paper appertaining thereto, and filed with him;

8. To exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon him elsewhere by statute;

9. In the performance of his duties, to conform to the direction of the court. [Cf. L. 58, p. 29, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2184; L. '91, p. 98, § 3; 2 H. C., § 73.]

Cited in 65 Wash. 540.

§ 78. Deputies, Appointment and Powers of.—The clerk of the supreme court, and each clerk of a superior court, may have one or more deputies, to be appointed by such clerk in writing, and to continue during his pleasure. Such deputies have the power to perform any act or duty relating to the clerk's office that their respective principals have, and their respective principals are responsible for their conduct. [L. '91, p. 98, § 4; 2 H. C., § 74.]

§ 81. Clerks not to Practice Law.—Each clerk of a court is prohibited during his continuance in office from acting, or having a partner who acts, as an attorney of the court of which he is clerk. [Cf. L. '54, p. 367, § 10; Cd. '81, § 2183; 1 H. C., § 177; L. '91, p. 99, § 5; 2 H. C., § 75.]

See infra, § 127, restrictions upon clerks practicing law.

CHAPTER VII.

Referees and Court Commissioners.

§ 82. Definition and Powers of.—A referee is a person appointed by the court or a judicial officer, with power,—

1. To try an issue of law or of fact in a civil action or proceeding, and report thereon;

2. To ascertain any other fact in a civil action or proceeding, when necessary for the information of the court, and report the fact, or to take and report the evidence in an action;

3. To execute an order, judgment, or decree, or to exercise any other power or perform any other duty expressly authorized by law. [L. '91, p. 41, § 1; 2 H. C., § 67.]

See infra, § 369 et seq., trial by referees.

§ 83. Appointment, Qualifications, etc., of Court Commissioners. There may be appointed in each county, by the judge of the superior court having jurisdiction therein, a court commissioner for said county. Such commissioner shall be a citizen of the United States and an elector of the county in which he may be appointed, and shall reside at the county seat of such county, and shall hold his office during the pleasure of the judge appointing him. [L. '95, p. 164, § 1; L. '09, p. 418, § 1; Const., Art. IV, § 23.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 616, 617.

§ 85. Powers of Commissioner—Fees.—Such court commissioner shall have power, authority and jurisdiction, concurrent with the superior court and the judge thereof, in the following particulars:

a. To hear and determine all matters in probate, to make and issue all proper orders therein, and to issue citations in all cases where same are authorized by the probate statutes of this state.

b. To grant and enter defaults and after ten days from the entry thereof, to enter judgment thereon.

c. To issue temporary restraining orders and temporary injunctions, and to fix and approve bonds thereon.

d. To act as referee in all matters and actions referred to him by the superior court as such, with all the powers now conferred upon referees by law.

e. To hear and determine all proceedings supplemental to execution, with all the powers conferred upon the judge of the superior court in such matters.

f. To hear and determine all petitions for the adoption of children, for the dissolution of incorporations, and to change the name of any person.

g. To hear and determine all applications for the commitment of any person to the hospital for the insane, with all the powers of the superior court in such matters: Provided, that in cases where a jury is demanded, same shall be referred to the superior court for trial.

h. To hear and determine all complaints for the commitment of minors to the state reform or industrial school, with all powers conferred upon the superior court in such matters.

i. To grant adjournments, administer oaths, preserve order, compel attendance of witnesses, and to punish for contempts in the refusal to obey or the neglect of his lawful orders made in any matter before him as fully as the judge of the superior court.

j. To take acknowledgments and proofs of deeds, mortgages and all other instruments requiring acknowledgment under the laws of this state, and to take affidavits and depositions in all cases.

k. To provide an official seal, upon which shall be engraved the words "Court Commissioner," and the name of the county for which he may be appointed, and to authenticate his official acts therewith in all cases where same is necessary.

l. To charge and collect, for his own use, the same fees for the official performance of official acts mentioned in subsections "d" and "j" herein as are provided by law for referees and notaries public. [L. '09, p. 419, § 2. Cf. L. '95, pp. 164, 165, §§ 2, 3; Const., Art. IV, § 23.]

See infra, § 8302, fees of notary.

§ 86. Revision by Superior Court.—All of the acts and proceedings of court commissioners hereunder shall be subject to revision by the superior court. Any party in interest may have such revision upon demand made by written motion, filed with the clerk of the superior court, within ten days after the entry of any order or judgment of the court commissioner. Such revision shall be upon the records of the case, and the findings of fact and conclusions of law entered by the court commissioner, and unless a demand for revision is made within ten days from the entry of the order or judgment of the court commissioner, his orders and judgments shall be and become the orders and judgments of the superior court, and from same an appeal may be taken to the supreme court in all cases where an appeal will lie from like orders and judgments entered by the judge. [L. '09, p. 420, § 3.]

§ 87. Salary.—Every court commissioner appointed hereunder shall be allowed a salary, in addition to the fees herein provided for, in such sum as the board of county commissioners may designate, said salary to be paid at the time and in the manner as the salary of other county officials. [L. '09, p. 420, § 4.]

§ 88. Oath.—Court commissioners appointed hereunder shall, before entering upon the duties of such office, take and subscribe an oath to support the constitution of the United States, the constitution of the state of Washington, and to perform the duties of such office fairly and impartially and to the best of his ability. [L. '09, p. 420, § 5.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Jurors.

Fees of: See "Counties," § 4084 et seq., infra.
Jury trials, challenges, etc.: See infra, § 322 et seq.

§ 89. Jury, Definition of.—A jury is a body of men temporarily selected from the qualified inhabitants of a particular district, and invested with power,—

1. To present or indict a person for a public offense;
2. To try a question of fact. [L. '91, p. 86, § 1; 2 H. C., § 50.]

Cited in 12 Wash. 55; 30 Wash. 142.

§ 90. Different Kinds of Juries.—There shall be three kinds of juries:—

1. A grand jury;
2. A petit jury;
3. A jury of inquest. [L. '91, p. 86, § 2; 2 H. C., § 51.]

§ 91. Grand Jury, Defined.—A grand jury is a body of men, not less than twelve nor more than seventeen in number, impaneled and sworn to inquire of public offenses committed or triable within the county. [L. '91, p. 86, § 3; 2 H. C., § 52.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 500.

§ 92. Petit Jury, Defined.—A petit jury is a body of men, twelve in number in the superior court, and six in number in the courts of justices of the peace, drawn in the superior court by lot from the jurors in attendance upon the court at a particular session, and sworn to try and determine a question of fact; but in justice's court the jury is drawn according to the mode specially provided for such court. [L. '91, p. 87, § 4; 2 H. C., § 53.]

Cited in 12 Wash. 55.

§ 93. Jury of Inquest, Defined.—A jury of inquest is a body of men, six in number, summoned from the qualified inhabitants of a particular district, before the coroner, or other ministerial officer, to inquire of particular facts. [L. '91, p. 87, § 5; 2 H. C., § 54.]

§ 94–1. Qualification of Jurors.—No person shall be competent to serve as a juror in the superior courts of the state of Washington unless he be (1) an elector and taxpayer of the state, (2) a resident of the county in which he is called for service for more than one year preceding such time, (3) over twenty-one years of age, (4) in full possession of his faculties and of sound mind, (5) able to read and write the English language. [L. '11, p. 314, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 131, § 1.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 619.

§ 94–2. Persons Exempt.—Officers of the United States and of the state, attorneys at law, school teachers, practicing physicians, licensed embalmers, active members of the fire and police departments of any municipality, women, and all persons over sixty years of age, shall not be compelled to serve as jurors; and in preparing jury lists, the names of such persons, other than women and persons over sixty years of age, shall, if it be known that they are entitled to be excused from jury service, be omitted from the jury list: Provided, however, that the right of any such person to be excused from jury service shall not be cause for challenge as to his competency if he desires to serve: Provided further, that any woman desiring to be excused from jury service may claim exemption by signing a written or printed notice thereof and returning same to the sheriff before the date for appearance, and if exemption is claimed by reason of sex, no fee shall be allowed for her appearance. And it shall be the duty of the person serving any summons for jury service to inform the person served of this provision. [L. '11, p. 314, § 2.]

§ 94–3. Jury List—Yearly Revision.—Upon the taking effect of this act, the judge or judges of the superior court of each county in this state shall divide the county into not less than three nor more than six jury districts, following the lines of voting precincts and arranging the districts in such manner that the population in each district shall be as nearly equal as may be, and the fixing of the boundaries of the district shall be evidenced by an order made by the court and entered upon its records. During the month of July of each year the county clerk of each county in the state shall make up a jury list containing the names of all the qualified jurors in the county, so far as he may be able to ascertain the same from the latest tax-rolls and poll-books of the county or from any other official sources of information and shall ascertain so far as possible the voting precinct and place of residence of each juror and if these cannot be ascertained, the school district in which he lives. He shall provide boxes sufficient in number to correspond with the number of jury districts fixed by the court, and numbered to correspond therewith, and having written the names of the jurors in each district upon slips of paper, which shall be similar in size, quality of paper, and writing, and shall deposit such slips in the jury-box of the proper district. The jury list shall be revised from year to year, new lists being made up each year, adding thereto the names of new residents, and omitting therefrom the names of persons who may have removed from the county, or who may have served as jurors within five years theretofore (unless they shall be necessary to make up a sufficient list) and the names of the new list shall be deposited in the box for service for that year, as hereinbefore provided. [L. '11, p. 314, § 3.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 618.

§ 94-4. Jury Terms—Jury, How Drawn.—Jury terms shall commence on the first Monday of each month, and shall end on the Saturday preceding the first Monday of each month, unless the day of commencing or ending said term be changed by order of the judge or judges of the superior court; but it shall not be necessary to call a jury for any term in any county unless the judge or judges of the superior court of that county shall consider that there is sufficient business to be submitted to a jury to require that one be called. When the judge or judges of the superior court of any county shall deem that the public business requires a jury term to be held, he or they shall require the county clerk to draw a jury to serve for the ensuing term, and the county clerk, on the second Saturday of the calendar month preceding the month in which the jury is to be called to serve, shall be blindfolded, and in the presence of the judge or judges or of a court commissioner of the superior court, shall draw from the jury-boxes such number of names as the judge or judges may have ordered to be summoned as jurors for the ensuing term. The names shall be drawn in equal numbers from each jury-box, and before the drawing is made the boxes shall be shaken up so that the slips bearing the names thereon may be thoroughly mixed, and the drawing of the slips shall depend purely upon chance. [L. '11, p. 315, § 4.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 17; 82 Wash. 285; 85 Wash. 385.

§ 94-5. Grand Jurors—How Drawn.—Whenever the judge or judges of the superior court of any county in the state shall desire to summon a grand jury, the names of persons to serve as grand jurors shall be drawn from the jury list, as hereinbefore provided: Provided, however, that the names of the persons who shall serve as grand jurors shall not be stricken from the jury list, and such service shall not excuse them from service upon petit juries, as though they had not been summoned upon the grand jury. [L. '11, p. 316, § 5.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 286.

§ 94-6. Additional Names—Open Venire.—If for any reason the jurors drawn for service upon a petit jury for any term shall not be sufficient to dispose of the pending jury business, or where no jury is in regular attendance and the business of the court may require the attendance of a jury before a regular term, the judge or judges of the superior court may draw from the jury list such additional names as they may consider necessary, and the persons whose names are so drawn shall thereupon be summoned to serve as jurors forthwith. The judge or judges drawing such additional names, may, in his or their discretion, order and direct that, of such additional jurors, only those living nearest to the county seat or most conveniently reached and found shall be at first summoned by the sheriff, and at any time when a sufficiency of such persons has been summoned and produced in court, such judge or judges may, in his or their discretion, order and direct the sheriff not to summon the remainder of the additional jurors so drawn. By stipulation or agreement made in open court as a part of the record, the parties to any action may agree that an open venire may be issued to make up a jury in that action, and upon order of the court approving such stipulation and directing the number of jurors to be drawn, the clerk shall issue an open venire, and the sheriff shall fill the same by summoning from the bystanders, or elsewhere, a sufficient number of persons to fill the open venire. [L. '11, p. 316, § 6.]

§ 94–7. Excused from Service.—A person summoned as a juror may be excused from acting as such on account of any of the reasons stated in section 94–2 hereof; when his own health requires, on account of death in his family, or of illness in his family of such character that he is required to be in attendance thereupon, or when his business interests would be seriously prejudiced by such service. No person, however, shall be excused from service as a juror on account of business reasons unless his service is such as would lead to the waste or destruction of his property; and unless it shall appear that after having been summoned as a juror he had made every reasonable effort to permit of his serving as a juror without causing waste or destruction of his property. When excused for any of the foregoing reasons, or for any reason deemed sufficient by the court, the name of the juror so excused shall remain upon the jury list from which jurors are drawn, and his name returned to the jury-box from which it was drawn. Any person applying to be excused from jury service for any of the causes herein specified, may be placed upon oath or affirmation to testify truly in all respects as to the cause for such excuse, and that he will answer truly any question put to him by the judge with respect thereto. [L. '11, p. 317, § 7.]

§ 94-8. Separation of Jury.—In no action or proceeding whatever, except felony cases shall the jury sworn to try the issues therein be kept together and in the custody of the officers of the court, save during the actual progress of the trial, until the case shall have been finally submitted to them for their decision. Whenever the jury are kept together in the custody of the officers when the trial is not in progress, they shall be supplied with meals at regular hours, and with comfortable sleeping and toilet accommodations. [L. '11, p. 317, § 8. Cf. 1 Rem. & Bal. Code, § 346, repealed by this act.]

§ 95. Felon not Competent.—A person who has been convicted of a felony is not competent to act as juror. [L. '99, p. 35, § 1; L. '91, p. 87, § 6; 2 H. C., § 55; see L. '88, p. 117, § 1.]

Superseded by 1 Rem. & Bal. Code, § 94, except as to subdivision 6, which is retained.

§ 97. Who are Exempt—Effect of Disqualification on Verdict.—Civil officers of the United States, civil and judicial officers of the state, attorneys at law, ministers of the gospel or priests, school teachers, practicing physicians, locomotive engineers, active members of the fire department of any city or village, all persons who have served twice as a juror within two years, and all persons over sixty years of age, shall not be compelled to serve as jurors; and in preparing jury lists the county commissioners shall omit the names of such persons; but no act of a grand or petit jury shall be invalid by reason of such person or persons aforesaid, qualified in other respects, serving thereon; nor shall any disqualification of any member of a grand or petit jury affect the indictment or verdict, unless the juror for that specific cause was challenged or excepted to before the finding of the indictment or rendition of the verdict, and the challenge or exception overruled, and error specifically assigned upon the overruling of such challenge or exception. § 100. Public Interest as an Excuse.—A person may be excused from acting as a juror when, for any reason, . . . interests . . . of the public will be materially injured by his attendance; but no person shall be excused on account of the causes in this section mentioned, unless it appear that after he was summoned he could not, by reasonable precaution, have provided against them. [L. '91, p. 87, § 7; 2 H. C., § 57.]

The above portions of § 7 of the act of 1891 are retained.

§ 105. Drawing in Certain Counties in Absence of Judge.—When, pursuant to any statute of this state, there is elected but one judge of the superior court in and for two or more counties, the superior court of any such county may by an order made and entered of record direct that until such order be altered or revoked, the drawing from such box of the names of persons to serve as jurors in that court shall take place in the courtroom in such county and not in open court and without the presence of the judge; and while such order remains in force the drawing shall be made accordingly; but the names of the persons drawn shall nevertheless be entered upon the journal of such court, together with the clerk's certificate prescribed in section 4 of this act, and the judge of the superior court for any such county may, while he is within or without such county, make in writing and sign the order prescribed in said section 4 for drawing persons to serve as jurors; but he shall then forward such order to the clerk of such court in time to reach such clerk on or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the last Saturday in the current month; and such drawing shall then take place at said hour on said Saturday. If at the time when the said judge would otherwise make said order, it appears to the judge of said court that no jury will be needed in the ensuing month, the judge may omit said order, and no jury need be drawn for such ensuing month. [L. '05, p. 275, § 14.]

It is doubtful if this section is in force. "Section 4" is repealed.

§ 106. Irregularities Do not Invalidate.—The failure on the part of any officer to perform the duties required within the time, or other irregularity in said drawing, shall in no way invalidate the selecting, summoning or drawing of said jurors. [Cf. L. '88, p. 116, § 4; L. '90, p. 332, § 2; 2 H. C., § 62.]

Cited in 12 Wash. 291.

§ 107. Proceedings When Venire Set Aside.—If for any cause the court shall see fit to set aside the venire for grand or petit jurors, returned as above provided, an open venire may thereupon issue to the sheriff, who shall thereupon complete the panel by such open venire as speedily as possible. [Cf. L. '90, p. 332, § 3; L. '91, p. 88, § 8; 2 H. C., § 63.]

Cited in 12 Wash. 295; 17 Wash. 550; 20 Wash. 558.

§ 108. Sheriff to Summon Jurors.—When a venire is delivered to the sheriff, he shall without delay proceed to summon the jurors as therein directed, and shall immediately thereafter make and file in the court a return of his doings thereon. [L. '91, p. 88, § 10; 2 H. C., § 65.]

§ 110. Venire to Fill Incomplete Panel.—If for any cause a sufficient number of grand or petit jurors are not returned by the sheriff in the manner first herein contemplated, or if a sufficient number of grand or petit jurors are not in attendance, the court may order the panel filled by summoning a sufficient number by an open venire issued and directed to the sheriff. [Cf. L. '90, p. 332, § 4; L. '91, p. 88, § 9; 2 H. C., § 64.]

§ 111. Juror not to be Summoned Twice in One Year.—No person shall be summoned as a petit juror in any superior court, upon an open venire, more than once in one year. [L. '91, p. 88, § 11; 2 H. C., § 66.]

CHAPTER IX.

Attorney General and Prosecuting Attorneys.

Duties of attorney general: See "State Officers," § 9035 et seq., infra.
Duties of prosecutors: See "Counties," § 3958 et seq., infra.

§ 112. Powers and Duties of Attorney General.—The powers and duties of the attorney general, in relation to actions and proceedings in the courts, shall be,—

1. To appear for and represent the state before the supreme court in all cases in which the state is interested;

2. To institute and prosecute all actions and proceedings for or for the use of the state, which may be necessary in the execution of the duties of any state officer;

3. To defend all actions and proceedings against any state officer in his official capacity, in any of the courts of this state or the United States;

4. To consult and advise the several prosecuting attorneys in matters relating to the duties of their office, and when, in his judgment, the interests of the state require, he shall attend the trial of any person accused of a crime, and assist in the prosecution. [L. '91, p. 95, § 2; 2 H. C., § 84.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 66; 21 Wash. 454; 28 Wash. 497.

§ 113. Prosecuting Attorneys Defined.—Prosecuting attorneys are attorneys authorized by law to appear for and represent the state and counties thereof in actions and proceedings before the courts and judicial officers. [L. '91, p. 95, § 3; 2 H. C., § 85.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 224; 21 Wash. 61; 28 Wash. 500.

§ 114. Appointment by the Court.—When from illness or other cause the prosecuting attorney is temporarily unable to perform his duties, the court or judge may appoint some qualified person to discharge the duties of such officer in court until such disability is removed. [L. '91, p. 95, § 5; 2 H. C., § 87.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 62.

§ 115. Deputy Prosecuting Attorneys—Appointment.—The prosecuting attorney of each county may appoint, by and with the consent of the county commissioners, one or more deputies who shall have the same power in all respects as their principal. Such appointment shall be in writing, signed by the prosecuting attorney and filed in the county auditor's office. Each deputy thus appointed shall have the same qualifications required of the prosecuting attorney, but his appointment may be revoked by the prosecuting attorney or county commissioners at will. The prosecuting attorney shall be responsible for the acts of his deputies. [L. '03, p. 7, § 1. Cf. L. '91, p. 96, § 6; 2 H. C., § 88; see L. '86, p. 63, § 17.]

CHAPTER X.

Attorneys and Counselors at Law.

Compensation of: See infra, § 474 et seq.

§ 118. Attorney and Counsel Defined.—An attorney is a person duly admitted to practice law and authorized to appear for and represent a party in the written proceedings in any action or proceeding in any stage thereof. An attorney other than the one who represents the party in the written proceedings may also appear for and represent a party in court or before a judicial officer, and then he is known in the particular action or proceeding as counsel only, and his authority is limited to the acts that are done in the court or before such officer at that time. [L. '91, p. 95, § 1; 2 H. C., § 90; L.'95, p. 178, § 1.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 234.

§ 119. Attorneys to be Admitted.—No person shall be permitted to practice as an attorney and counselor at law or to commence, conduct or defend any action or proceeding in which he is not a party concerned, in any of the courts of this state, either by using or subscribing his own name or the name of any other person, or to solicit business as, or to advertise, or represent himself, in any way, as an attorney or counselor at law, unless he has been previously admitted to practice law in this state. [L. '09, p. 533, § 1. Cf. L. 63, p. 403, § 1; L. '77, p. 321, § 1; Cd. '81, § 3275; L. '91, p. 96, §§ 8, 10; 2 H. C., §§ 91, 93; L. '95, p. 178, § 2; L. '03, p. 391, § 1.]

§ 120. General Qualifications for Admission—Fee.—No person shall hereafter be admitted to practice law in this state except by order of the supreme court, either on motion or by examination. Each applicant for admission shall show by his affidavit to the court that he is over twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state, or has come into this state for the purpose of making it his permanent residence, that he intends to actively engage in the practice of the law as a profession, and that he is not laboring under suspension or disbarment of any court whatsoever, and that he never was suspended or disbarred, by any court, or if so, in what courts and when, and giving the time of reinstatement, and shall also file a certificate of at least two members of the bar of the supreme court to the effect that he is of good moral character and recommending his admission: Provided, that attorneys living outside of this state may practice in the courts of this state on the same terms and conditions as attorneys of this state are permitted to practice in the courts of their respective states, territories or districts, and not otherwise. The fee for admission shall be twenty-five dollars, to be paid to the clerk of the court at the time of filing his application, and in case the court refuses to admit the applicant the fee shall be returned to him, otherwise to be accounted for as other court fees. It shall be competent for any person to present to the court any reason why an applicant should not be permitted as an attorney and counselor at law in this state. [L. '09, p. 533, § 2. Cf. Cd. '81, § 3276; L. '91, p. 96, § 9; 2 H. C., § 92; L. '95, p. 179, § 4. Cf. L. '97, p. 12, § 1.]

§ 121. Admissions on Motion—Law Graduates—Certificates.—The following applicants may be admitted on motion:

(a) Graduates of the law department of the state university;

(b) Graduates of the law department of Gonzaga University of Spokane: Provided, the entrance requirements are substantially the same and shall remain the same as those required for entrance to the law school of the state university: Provided further, that the course of instruction shall require not less than the same number of hours required for graduation by the said state university and that the course and requirements of study shall be such as to show that the graduates of said university are qualified for admission to practice as attorneys. The state board of bar examiners, appointed by the supreme court, shall be the judges of whether the aforementioned conditions are being complied with and a certificate of said board to that effect shall be conclusive.

(c) Members of the bar of other states having been entitled to practice in the highest courts of record in their respective states for at least two years immediately preceding their application for admission to practice in this state: Provided, that such applicant, upon showing the qualifications as provided in the next preceding section, the court, if satisfied of the applicant's fitness, shall enter an order permitting such applicant to practice law in this state for a period of one year, at the end of which time, the court being satisfied that such applicant is of good moral character and a fit and proper person to practice law in this state, an order shall be entered so admitting such applicant. [L. '15, p. 242, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 534, § 3; L. '03, p. 391, § 1.]

§ 122. Notice of Application for Examination—Fee.—All persons making application for admission to the bar as herein provided, shall file a notice of such application with the clerk of the supreme court at least one week before the date of such examination, as shall be fixed by rule of the supreme court, and shall pay to said clerk the sum of twenty-five dollars, in full for all fees, for filing his application, entering his admission and the issuing of a certificate therefor, and the fee so paid to the clerk shall be accounted for by him as other fees. [L. '95, p. 179, § 5; L. '03, p. 392, § 3; L. '07, p. 407, § 1.]

This section may be superseded. Twenty dollars changed to twenty-five dollars, by § 120, supra.

§ 123. Examinations—Qualifications.—Examinations for admission to the bar shall be held at the state capitol on the first Thursday and Friday after the second Monday in January, May and October, of each year, and shall be both oral and written as to the applicant's knowledge of law, general learning, fitness and qualifications. Nor shall any such applicant be examined unless he shall have filed with the clerk of the supreme court, two months before such examination, a statement in which the time he commenced the study of law is set forth: Provided, the time he applies for admission is at least two years after the time named in such statement. Every applicant shall also present an affidavit by some member of the bar of the supreme court, or a certificate from the dean or head of some law school of approved standing, to the effect that such applicant has regularly and attentively studied law under the direction of the affiant or dean or head of such law school as the case may be, for a period of two years: Provided, that thirty-five full weeks of study in a law school in any one year shall be equivalent to a year's study. [L. '11, p. 158, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 534, § 4; L. '95, p. 179, § 3.]

than five years immediately preceding his appointment, and no person shall be eligible to succeed himself on such board. Each member of said board shall be allowed ten dollars ($10) per day for each day actually spent in the performance of his duties, and five cents per mile for each mile actually and necessarily traveled in going to and returning from attendance on the court to conduct such examinations. The person having the shortest term to serve on said board shall be chairman thereof, and the clerk of the supreme court shall act as secretary thereof and shall keep the records, files and correspondence of the board. The board of examiners shall meet not later than two days before an examination is to be held to prepare the questions to be answered in writing by the applicants, which questions when prepared shall be kept in a sealed envelope or package and free from inspection in the office of the clerk of the supreme court until required for such examination, and, after the completion of such examination, said questions shall be made public. [L. '11, p. 158, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 535, § 5; L. '03, p. 391, § 1.]

I do solemnly swear:

(1) I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution and laws of the state of Washington;

(2) I will maintain the respect due to courts of justice and judicial officers;

(3) I will not counsel or maintain any suit or proceedings which shall appear to me to be illegal and unjust, nor any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land;

(4) I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the judge or jury by an artifice or false statement of facts or law;

(5) I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my client, and will accept no compensation in connection with his business except from him or with his knowledge and approval;

(6) I will abstain from all offensive personalities, and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a fellow attorney, party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged;

(7) I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed, or delay any man's cause for lucre or malice. So help me God. [L. '11, p. 159, § 3. Cf. L. '09, p. 535, § 6.]

§ 126. Revocation of License.—Upon the production of proof to the supreme court that any person admitted to practice law in this state, has been at the time of his admission to practice law, disbarred or suspended from practice in any state or territory of the United States, or that there was pending against such person any proceedings for disbarment or suspension in any such state or territory at the time of his admission to practice here laboring under any disability to practice in the courts, of any such state or territory, or that such person had ever been, at the time of his admission to practice here, convicted of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, then said supreme court shall revoke and cancel the certificate of admission granted to such person. The proceedings for the revocation and cancellation of such certificate may be taken by the court of its own motion, or may be taken upon the information of another, and in either case the party shall have the privilege of making his own defense; such proceedings shall be by motion and answer, and evidence may be examined on either side. [L. '09, p. 536, § 7.]

§ 127. Disqualifications.—No person shall practice as an attorney and counselor at law in any court of this state who does not reside in the state, or is not a citizen of the United States, or who holds a commission as judge of any court of record, or who is a sheriff, coroner or deputy sheriff; nor shall the clerk of the supreme court or of the superior court, or the deputy of either, practice in the particular court of which he is clerk or deputy clerk; but nothing herein contained shall prevent attorneys and counselors at law, who reside without this state, practicing in this state, unless the state or territory in which they reside prohibits attorneys and counselors at law residing in this state to practice therein, but nothing herein contained shall prevent any judge of any of the courts of this state from finishing any business by him undertaken in the district, circuit or supreme court of the United States prior to his election as judge. [L. '95, p. 179, § 6.]

§ 128. No Exclusion on the Ground of Sex.—No person shall be excluded from acting as an attorney at law and practicing in all the courts of this state on account of sex. [L. '95, p. 180, § 7.]

§ 129. Duties of Attorneys and Counselors.—It shall be the duty of an attorney and counselor,—

1. To support the constitution of the United States and the laws of the state;

2. To maintain the respect due to the courts of justice and judicial officers;

3. To counsel or maintain such actions, proceedings, or defenses only as appear to him legal and just, except the defense of a person charged with a public offense;

4. To employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to him, such means only as are consistent with truth, and never to seek to mislead the judge by any artifice or false statement of fact or law;

5. To maintain inviolate the confidence, and at every peril to himself to preserve the secrets, of his client;

6. To abstain from all offensive personality, and to advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which he is charged;

7. Never to reject, from any consideration personal to himself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed. [L. '63, p. 404, § 5; Cd. '81, § 3279; 2 H. C., § 94.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 332; 18 Wash. 480; 48 Wash. 158.

§ 130. Authority of Attorneys and Counselors.—An attorney and counselor has authority,—

1. To bind his client in any of the proceedings in an action or special proceeding by his agreement duly made, or entered upon the minutes of the court; but the court shall disregard all agreements and stipulations in relation to the conduct of or any of the proceedings in an action or special proceeding, unless such agreement or stipulation be made in open court, or in presence of the clerk, and entered in the minutes by him, or signed by the party against whom the same is alleged, or his attorney;

2. To receive money claimed by his client in an action or special proceeding during the pendency thereof, or after judgment upon the payment thereof, and not otherwise, to discharge the same or acknowledge satisfaction of the judgment;

3. This section shall not prevent a party employing a new attorney, or from issuing an execution upon a judgment, or from taking other proceedings prescribed by statute for its enforcement. [L. '63, p. 404, § 6; Cd. '81, § 3280; 2 H. C., § 95.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 213; 23 Wash. 251, 492; 34 Wash. 234; 41 Wash. 30; 46 Wash. 44; 55 Wash. 40; 57 Wash. 562.

§ 131. Proceedings When Attorney Appears Without Authority.—If it be alleged by a party for whom an attorney appears that he does so without authority, the court may at any stage of the proceedings relieve the party for whom the attorney has assumed to appear from the consequences of his act; it may also summarily, upon motion, compel the attorney to repair the injury to either party consequent upon his assumption of authority. [L. '69, p. 405, § 7; Cd. '81, § 3281; 2 H. C., § 96.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 436.

§ 132. Attorney may be Required to Show Authority.—The court or a judge may, on motion of either party, and on showing reasonable grounds therefor, require the attorney for the adverse party, or for any one of several adverse parties, to produce or prove the authority under which he appears, and until he does so, may stay all proceedings by him on behalf of the party for whom he assumes to appear. [L. '63, p. 405, § 8; Cd. '81, § 3282; 2 H. C., § 97.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 305; 27 Wash. 114, 255.

§ 133. Change of Attorneys.—The attorney in an action or special proceeding may be changed at any time before judgment or final determination as follows:—

1. Upon his own consent, filed with the clerk or entered upon the minutes; or

2. Upon the order of the court, or a judge thereof, on the application of the client, or for other sufficient cause; but no such change can be made until the charges of such attorney have been paid by the party asking such change to be made. [L. '63, p. 405, § 9; Cd. '81, § 3283; 2 H. C., § 98.]

Cited in 72 Wash. 519; 78 Wash. 473.

§ 134. Notice of Change and Substitution.—When an attorney is changed, as provided in the last section, written notice of the change, and of the substitution of a new attorney, or of the appearance of the party in person, must be given to the adverse party; until then, he shall be bound to recognize the former attorney. [L. '63, p. 405, § 10; Cd. '81, § 3284; 2 H. C., § 99.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 392; 27 Wash. 114.

§ 135. Proceedings on Death or Removal of Attorney.—When an attorney dies, or is removed or suspended, or ceases to act as such, a party to an action for whom he was acting as attorney must, at least twenty days before any further proceedings against him, be required by the adverse party, by written notice, to appoint another attorney, or to appear in person. [L. '63, p. 405, § 11; Cd. '81, § 3285; 2 H. C., § 100.]

Cited in 35 Wash. 387.

§ 136. 'Lien of Attorneys.—An attorney has a lien for his compensation, whether specially agreed upon or implied, as hereinafter provided,—

1. Upon the papers of his client, which have come into his possession in the course of his professional employment;

2. Upon money in his hands belonging to his client;

3. Upon money in the hands of the adverse party in an action or proceeding, in which the attorney was employed, from the time of giving notice of the lien to that party;

4. Upon a judgment to the extent of the value of any services performed by him in the action, or if the services were rendered under a special agreement, for the sum due under such agreement, from the time of filing notice of such lien or claim with the clerk of the court in which such judgment is entered, which notice must be filed with the papers in the action in which such judgment was rendered, and an entry made in the execution docket, showing name of claimant, amount claimed, and date of filing notice. [L. '63, p. 406, § 12; Cd. '81, § 3286; 2 H. C., § 101.]

See §§ 474, 475, infra, relating to compensation of attorneys.

§ 137. Proceedings to Compel Delivery of Papers.—When an attorney refuses to deliver over money or papers to a person from or for whom he has received them in the course of professional employment, whether in an action or not, he may be required by an order of the court in which an action, if any, was prosecuted, or if no action was prosecuted, then by order of any judge of a court of record, to do so within a specified time, or show cause why he should not be punished for a contempt. [L. '63, p. 406, § 13; Cd. '81, § 3287; 2 H. C., § 102.]

§ 138. Proceedings Where Lien Exists.—If, however, the attorney claim a lien upon the money or papers, under the provisions of this chapter, the court or judge may,—

1. Impose as a condition of making the order that the client give security, in a form and amount to be directed, to satisfy the lien, when determined in an action;

2. Summarily to inquire into the facts on which the claim of a lien is founded, and determine the same; or

3. To refer it, and upon the report determine the same as in other cases. [L. '63, p. 406, § 14; Cd. '81, § 3288; 2 H. C., § 103.]

Cited in 72 Wash. 519; 82 Wash. 399, 401.

§ 139. Removal and Suspension of Attorneys.—An attorney and counselor may be removed or suspended by any court of record of the state, for either of the following causes, arising after his admission to practice: 1. His conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence. 2. Willful and malicious disobedience or violation of an order of the court requiring him to do or forbear an act connected with, or in the course of, his profession, which he ought in good faith to do or forbear, and any violation of the oath taken by him, or of his duties as such attorney and counselor. 3. Corruptly or willfully, and without authority, appearing as attorney for a party to an action or proceeding. 4. Lending his name to be used as attorney and counselor by another person who is not an attorney and counselor. 5. For the commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or corruption, whether the same be committed in the course of his relations as an attorney or counselor at law, or otherwise, and whether the same shall constitute a felony or misdemeanor or not; and in the event that such act shall constitute a felony or misdemeanor, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disbarment or suspension from practice therefor. 6. In all cases where an attorney is removed or suspended by a superior court, the judgment or order of removal or suspension may be reviewed on appeal by the supreme court. [L. '09, p. 130, § 1. Cf. L. '63, p. 406, § 15; Cd. '81, § 3289; 2 H. C., § 104; L. '97, p. 9, § 1.]

Cited in 32 Wash. 58; 45 Wash. 88; 54 Wash. 571, 573; 78 Wash. 672, 674.

§ 140. Proceedings for Removal or Suspension.—The proceedings to remove or suspend an attorney and counselor, as provided in the last section, must be taken by the court of its own motion for matter within its knowledge, or may be taken upon the information of another, and in either case the party shall have the privilege of making his defense. [L. '63, p. 406, § 16; Cd. '81, § 3290; 2 H. C., § 105.]

Cited in 45 Wash. 84; 53 Wash. 5.

§ 141. Mode of Proceeding.—Such proceedings shall be by motion and answer, and evidence may be examined on either side. [L. '63, p. 407, § 17; Cd. '81, § 3291; 2 H. C., § 106.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 5.

§ 142. Persons not Admitted cannot Practice.—No person shall practice in any court of record except a party or his regularly authorized attorney and counselor at law: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent a party from employing any person to assist him in the preparation of his papers in the case before the time of trial, nor so as to prevent any person from trying any particular cause in court, leave of court being first had and obtained, and entered of record. [L. '63, p. 407, § 18; Cd. '81, § 3292; 2 H. C., § 107.]

This section is probably superseded by § 119, supra.

Rules of Decision and Construction.

§ 143. Common Law, How Far Prevails.—The common law, so far as it is not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States, or of the state of Washington, nor incompatible with the institutions and condition of society in this state, shall be the rule of decision in all the courts of this state. [Cf. L. '63, p. 88, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1; L. '91, p. 31, § 1; 2 H. C., § 108.]

§ 144. Laws to be Liberally Construed.—The provisions of this code shall be liberally construed, and shall not be limited by any rule of strict construction. [Cf. L. '54, p. 221, § 504; Cd. '81, §§ 758, 1686; L. '91, p. 40, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1707.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 439.

§ 145. Laws Continued.—The provisions of a statute, so far as they are substantially the same as those of a statute existing at the time of their enactment, must be construed as continuations thereof. [Cf. Cd. '81, §§ 761, 1681; L. '91, p. 40, § 1; 2 H C., § 1708.]

§ 146. Word "Person" Defined.—The term "person" may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual. [Cf. L. '54, p. 99, § 134; L. '57, p. 46; Cd. '81, §§ 756, 964; L. '91, p. 40, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1709.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 137.

§ 147. Term "Officer" Defined.—Whenever any term indicating an officer is used it shall be construed, when required, to mean any person authorized by law to discharge the duties of such officer. [L. '54, p. 221, § 501; Cd. '81, § 755; 2 H. C., § 1710.]

§ 148. Words Importing Number and Gender, How Construed.—Words importing the singular number may also be applied to the plural of persons and things; words importing the plural may be applied to the singular; and words importing the masculine gender may be extended to females also. [Cf. L. '54, p. 99, § 135; Id., p. 221, § 502; L. '57, p. 45, § 1; Cd. '81, §§ 756, 965; L. '91, p. 40, § 1; 2 H. C., 1711.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 523.

§ 149. Word "Month" Defined.—The word "month" or "months," whenever the same occurs in the statutes of this state now in force, or in statutes hereinafter enacted, or in any contract made in this state, shall be taken and construed to mean "calendar month." [L. '77, p. 333; Cd. '81, § 759; L. '91, p. 40, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1712.]

§ 150. Computation of Time.—The time within which an act is to be done, as herein provided, shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last, unless the last day is a holiday or Sunday, and then it is also excluded. [Cf. L. '54, p. 219, § 486; Cd. '81, § 743; L. '88, p. 32, § 1; 2 H. C., § 794.]

See infra, § 252, computation of time for service of notice.

§ 151. Adoption of Ballinger's Code.—The compilation arranged by R. A. Ballinger and known as Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, two volumes, is hereby adopted as an official compilation of existing statutes of the state, up to and including the year 1897, but of no greater authority than all other existing official compilations or session laws of the state. [L. '99, p. 109, § 1.]

§ 152. Amendments to Code.—It shall be proper for the legislature in amending or repealing existing statutes, and for the courts in referring to existing statutes, to refer to or cite Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, containing such law. [L. '99, p. 110, § 2.]

§ 152-5. Official Codes of State Laws.—The compilation of the Session Laws of the state of Washington, arranged and compiled by Richard A. Ballinger and Arthur Remington, and known as Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, and supplement thereto, and the compilation of the Session Laws of the state of Washington arranged and compiled by Frank Pierce, and known as Pierce's Washington Code, are hereby respectively adopted as the official compilations of the existing statutes of the state up to and including the year 1913. [L. 1915, p. 18, § 1. Cf. L. '11, p. 8, § 1; L. '13, p. 276, § 1.]

§ 152-6. Citations of Codes.—It shall be proper for the legislature in amending or repealing existing statutes, and for the courts in referring to existing or repealed statutes, to refer to or cite Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, containing such law, and in any such references and citations to abbreviate the same to Rem. & Bal. Code, or refer to and cite Pierce's Washington Code containing such law. [L. 1915, p. 19, § 2.]

CHAPTER II.

Forms of Actions.

§ 153. Only One Form of Action.—There shall be in this state hereafter but one form of action for the enforcement or protection of private rights and the redress of private wrongs, which shall be called a civil action. [L. '54, p. 131, § 1; L. '60, p. 5, § 1; L. '71, p. 3, § 1; L. '73, p. 4, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2; 2 H. C., § 109.]

1. When the action concerns her separate property, or her right or claim to the homestead property, she may sue alone;

2. When the action is between herself and her husband, she may sue or be sued alone;

3. When she is living separate and apart from her husband, she may sue or be sued alone. [L. '54, p. 131, § 5; L. '69, p. 4, § 6; L. '75, p. 4, § 2; Cd. '81, § 6; 2 H. C., § 136.]

§ 183. When Survivors' Heirs or Representatives may Sue.—The widow, or widow and her children, or child or children if no widow, of a man killed in a duel, shall have a right of action against the person killing him, and against the seconds and all aiders and abettors. When the death of a person is caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another, his heirs or personal representatives may maintain an action for damages against the person causing the death. If the deceased leave no widow or issue, then his parents, sisters or minor brothers who may be dependent upon him for support and who are resident within the United States at the time of his death, may maintain said action. When the death of a person is caused by an injury received in falling through any opening or defective place in any sidewalk, street, alley, square or wharf, his heirs or personal representatives, or if deceased leaves no widow or issue, then his parents, sisters or minor brothers who may be dependent upon him for support, and who are resident within the United States at the time of his death, may maintain an action for damages against the person whose duty it was, at the time of the injury, to have kept in repair such sidewalk or other place. In every such action the jury may give such damages, as under all circumstances of the case may to them seem just. [L. '09, p. 425, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 220, § 496; L. '75, p. 4, § 4; Cd. § 188. Guardian Ad Litem of Insane Persons.—When an insane person is a party to an action in the superior courts he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint one to act as guardian ad litem. Said guardian shall be appointed as follows:

(1) When the insane person is plaintiff, upon the application of a relative or friend of the insane person.

(2) When the insane person is defendant, upon the application of a relative or friend of such insane person, such application shall be made within thirty days after the service of summons if served in the state of Washington, and if served out of the state or service is made by publication, then such application shall be made within sixty days after the first publication of summons or within sixty days after the service out of the state. If no such application be made within the time above limited, application may be made by any party to the action. [L. '99, p. 144, § 1.]

§ 189. Who must be Made Parties.—All persons interested in the cause of action, or necessary to the complete determination of the question involved, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be joined as plaintiffs when their interest is in common with the party making the complaint, and as defendants when their interest is adverse to the plaintiff: Provided, that where good cause exists, which shall be made to appear in the complaint, why a party who should be a plaintiff cannot, from a want of consent on his part or otherwise, be made such plaintiff, he shall be made a defendant. Cited in 14 Wash. 182, 642; 44 Wash. 359; 71 Wash. 439.

§ 201. Court may Protect Interest of Claimants.—Either of the defendants may set up or show any claim or lien he may have to such property, money, or indebtedness, or any part thereof, and the superior right, title, or lien, whether legal or equitable, shall prevail. The court, or judge thereof, may make all necessary orders, during the pendency of said action, for the preservation and protection of the rights, interests, or liens of the several parties. [L. '90, p. 94, § 3; 2 H. C., § 155.]

§ 202. Intervention.—Any person may, before the trial, intervene in an action or proceeding, who has an interest in the matter in litigation, in the success of either party, or an interest against both. An intervention takes place when a third person is permitted to become a party to an action or proceeding between other persons, either by joining the plaintiff in claiming what is sought by the complaint, or by uniting with the defendant in resisting the claims of the plaintiff, or by demanding anything adversely to both the plaintiff and the defendant, and is made by a complaint setting forth the grounds upon which the intervention rests, filed by leave of the court or judge on the ex parte motion of the party desiring to intervene. [L. '77, p. 7, § 23; Cd. '81, § 23; 2 H. C., § 156.]

§ 203. Practice in Intervention.—When leave is given to intervene, a copy of the intervener's complaint shall be served upon the parties to the action or proceedings who have not appeared, or publication of a notice of the intervention containing a brief statement of the nature of the intervener's demand shall be made in all cases where there are absent or nonresident defendants. The notice shall be published in the same manner and for the same length of time as prescribed by law for publication of summons. And the complaint shall also be served upon the attorneys of the parties who have appeared, who may answer or demur to it as if it were an original complaint. The court shall determine upon the rights of the intervener at the same time the action is decided, and if the claim of the party intervening is not sustained, he shall pay all costs incurred by the intervention: Provided, that no intervention shall be cause for delay in the trial of an action between the original parties thereto. CHAPTER V.

Venue of Actions.

§ 204. Actions to be Commenced Where Subject is Situated.—Actions for the following causes shall be commenced in the county in which the subject of the action, or some part thereof, is situated:—

1. For the recovery of, for the possession of, for the partition of, for the foreclosure of a mortgage on, or for the determination of all questions affecting the title or for any injuries to real property;

2. All questions involving the rights to the possession or title to any specific article of personal property; in which last mentioned class of cases damages may also be awarded for the detention and for injury to such personal property. [L. '54, p. 133, § 13; L. '60, p. 7, § 15; L. '69, p. 12, § 48; L. '77, p. 11, § 48; Cd. '81, § 47; 2 H. C., § 158.]

See supra, § 32, venue of actions in certain cases.

§ 205. Actions to be Tried Where Cause Arose.—Actions for the following causes shall be tried in the county where the cause, or some part thereof, arose:—

1. For the recovery of a penalty or forfeiture imposed by statute;

2. Against a public officer, or person specially appointed to execute his duties, for an act done by him in virtue of his office, or against a person who, by his command or in his aid, shall do anything touching the duties of such officer. [Cf. L. '54, p. 33, § 14; L. '60, p. 7, § 16; L. '69, p. 12, § 49; L. '77, p. 11, § 49; Cd. '81, § 48; 2 H. C., § 159.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 120; 18 Wash. 3.

§ 206. Venue of Actions Against Private Corporations.—An action against a corporation may be brought in any county where the corporation transacts business or transacted business at the time the cause of action arose; or in any county where the corporation has an office for the transaction of business or any person resides upon whom process may be served against such corporation, unless otherwise provided in this code. [L. '09, p. 69, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 220, § 494; L. '60, p. 101, § 488; L. '69, p. 13, § 50; L. '77, p. 11, § 50; Cd. '81, § 49; 2 H. C., § 160.]

§ 207. Venue in Cases not Before Specified.—In all other cases the action must be tried in the county in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the time of the commencement of the action, or may be served with process, subject, however, to the power of the court to change the place of trial, as provided in the next two succeeding sections. [Cf. L. '54, p. 133, § 15; L. '60, p. 7, § 17; L. '69, p. 13, § 51; L. '75, p. 5, § 6; L. '77, p. 11, § 51; Cd. '81, § 50; L. '91, p. 71, § 1; 2 H. C., § 161.]

§ 208. Proceeding When Action Commenced in Wrong County.—If the county in which the action is commenced is not the proper county for the trial thereof, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried therein, unless the defendant, at the time he appears and demurs or answers, files an affidavit of merits, and demands that the trial be had in the proper county. [Cf. L. '75, p. 5, § 7; L. '77, p. 11, § 51; Cd. 81, § 50; L. '91, p. 78, § 1; 2 H. C., § 162.]

§ 209. Grounds Authorizing Change of Venue.—The court may, on motion, in the following cases, change the place of trial, when it appears by affidavit or other satisfactory proof,—

1. That the county designated in the complaint is not the proper county; or

2. That there is reason to believe that an impartial trial cannot be had therein; or

3. That the convenience of witnesses or the ends of justice would be forwarded by the change; or

4. That from any cause the judge is disqualified; which disqualification exists in either of the following cases: In an action or proceeding to which he is a party, or in which he is interested; when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; when he has been of counsel for either party in the action or proceeding. [Cf. L. '54, p. 134, § 16; L. '69, p. 13, § 52; L. '75, p. 6, § 8; L. '77, p. 12, § 52; Cd. '81, § 51; 2 H. C., § 163.]

§ 209-1. Prejudice of Judge—Change of Venue.—No judge of a superior court of the state of Washington shall sit to hear or try any action or proceeding when it shall be established, as hereinafter provided, that such judge is prejudiced against any party or attorney, or the interest of any party or attorney appearing in such cause. In such case the presiding judge shall forthwith transfer the action to another department of the same court, or call in a judge from some other court, or apply to the governor to send a judge, to try the case; or, if the convenience of witnesses or the ends of justice will not be interfered with by such course, and the action is of such a character that a change of venue thereof may be ordered, he may send the case for trial to the most convenient court. § 209-2. Affidavit of Prejudice.—Any party to or any attorney appearing in any action or proceeding in a superior court, may establish such prejudice by motion supported by affidavit that the judge before whom the action is pending is prejudiced against such party or attorney, so that such party or attorney cannot, or believes that he cannot, have a fair and impartial trial before such judge: Provided, further, that no party or attorney shall be permitted to make more than one application in any action or proceeding under this act. [L. '11, p. 617, § 2.]

§ 210. To What Venue Changed—Only One Allowed.—If a motion for a change of the place of trial be allowed, the change shall be made to the county where the action ought to have been commenced, if it be for the cause mentioned in subdivision 1 of the last preceding section, and in other cases to the most convenient county where the cause alleged does not exist. Neither party shall be entitled to more than one change of the place of trial, except for causes not in existence when the first change was allowed. [L. '69, p. 14, § 53; L. '77, p. 12, § 53; Cd. '81, § 52; 2 H. C., § 164.]

"Last preceding section" refers to § 209.

§ 211. Change to Newly Created County.—Any party in a civil action pending in the superior court in a county out of whose limits a new county, in whole or in part, has been created, may file with the clerk of such superior court an affidavit setting forth that he is a resident of such newly created county, and that the venue of such action is transitory, or that the venue of such action is local, and that it ought properly to be tried in such newly created county; and thereupon the clerk shall make out a transcript of the proceedings already had in such action in such superior court, and certify it under the seal of the court, and transmit such transcript, together with the papers on file in his office connected with such action, to the clerk of the superior court of such newly created county, wherein it shall be proceeded with as in other cases. [Cf. L. '54, p. 377, § 2; L. '69, p. 14, § 54; L. '77, p. 12, § 54; Cd. '81, § 53; L. '91, p. 72, § 2; 2 H. C., § 165.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 439.

§ 215. Transmission of Record on Change—Costs.—When an order is made transferring an action or proceeding for trial, the clerk of the court must transmit the pleadings and papers therein to the court to which it is transferred. The costs and fees thereof, and of filing the papers anew, must be paid by the party at whose instance the order was made, except in the cases mentioned in subdivision 1, section 209, in which case the plaintiff shall pay costs of transfer. The court to which an action or proceeding is transferred has and exercises over the same the like jurisdiction as if it had been originally commenced therein. [L. '69, p. 14, §§ 55, 56; L. '75, p. 7, § 10; L. '77, p. 12, § 55; Cd. '81, § 54; 2 H. C., § 166.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 348; 82 Wash. 358, 360.

§ 216. Change by Stipulation.—Notwithstanding the provisions of section 209, all the parties to the action by stipulation in writing or by consent in open court entered in the records may agree that the place of trial be changed to any county of the state, and thereupon the court must order the change agreed upon. [L. '77, p. 13, § 56; Cd. '81, § 55; 2 H. C., § 167.]

Cited in 61 Wash. 683.

§ 217. Effect of Neglect of Moving Party.—If such papers be not transmitted to the clerk of the proper court within the time prescribed in the order allowing the change, and the delay be caused by the act or omission of the party procuring the change, the adverse party, on motion to the court or judge thereof, may have the order vacated, and thereafter no other change of the place of trial shall be allowed to such party. [Cf. L. '54, p. 135, § 21; L. '69, p. 15, § 57; L. '77, p. 13, § 57; Cd. '81, § 56; 2 H. C., § 168.]

See notes to § 208, supra.

§ 218. When Change Deemed Complete.—Upon the filing of the papers with the clerk of the court to which the cause is transferred, the change of venue shall be deemed complete, and thereafter the action shall proceed as though it had been commenced in that court. [L. '54, p. 135, § 22; L. '69, p. 15, § 58; L. '77, p. 13, § 58; Cd. '81, § 57; 2 H. C., § 169.]

§ 219. Clerk must Certify Entries With Transcript.—The clerk of the court must also transmit with the original papers, where an order is made changing the place of trial, a certified transcript of all record entries up to and including the order for change. [L. '77, p. 13, § 59; Cd. '81, § 58; 2 H. C., § 170.]

Manner of Commencing Actions.

§ 220. Service of Summons.—Civil actions in the several superior courts of this state shall be commenced by the service of a summons, as hereinafter provided, or by filing a complaint with the county clerk as clerk of the court: Provided, that unless service has been had on the defendant prior to the filing of the complaint, the plaintiff shall cause one or more of the defendants to be served personally, or commence service by publication within ninety days from the date of filing the complaint. [L. '93, p. 407, § 1; L. '95, p. 170, § 1.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 449; 12 Wash. 686; 16 Wash. 629; 20 Wash. 397; 21 Wash. 106; 27 Wash. 249, 330, 346; 30 Wash. 621; 31 Wash. 319; 34 Wash. 544; 35 Wash. 111; 40 Wash. 522; 44 Wash. 284; 60 Wash. 620; 71 Wash. 121; 78 Wash. 473; 80 Wash. 377.

§ 221. Summons, How Issued.—The summons must be subscribed by the plaintiff or his attorney, and directed to the defendant requiring him to answer the complaint, and serve a copy of his answer on the person whose name is subscribed to the summons, at a place within the state therein specified in which there is a postoffice, within twenty days after the service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service. [L. '93, p. 407, § 2.]

Cited in 31 Wash. 345; 35 Wash. 280.

§ 222. Contents of Summons.—The summons shall also contain,—

1. The title of the cause, specifying the name of the court in which the action is brought, the name of the county designated by the plaintiff as the place of trial, and the names of the parties to the action, plaintiff and defendant;

2. A direction to the defendants summoning them to appear within twenty days after service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the action;

3. A notice that, in case of failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against them, according to the demand of the complaint. It shall be subscribed by the plaintiff, or his attorney, with the addition of his postoffice address, at which the papers in the action may be served on him by mail. There may, at the option of the plaintiff, be added at the foot, when the complaint is not served with the summons, and the only relief sought is the recovery of the money, whether upon tort or contract, a brief notice specifying the sum to be demanded by the complaint. [L. '93, p. 407, § 3.]

§ 223. Form of Summons.—Such summons shall be substantially in the following form:—

—— Court, —— County.

A B, Plaintiff,
C D, Defendant.

The state of Washington, ——, to the said ——, defendant: You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty days after service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the above-entitled action in the court aforesaid; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you, according to the demand of the complaint, which will be filed with the clerk of said court, or a copy of which is herewith served upon you.

E F, Plaintiff's Attorney.
P. O. Address, —— County, Wash.

Cited in 31 Wash. 345; 35 Wash. 280.

§ 224. Summons to be Accompanied by Copy of Complaint, When. A copy of the complaint must be served upon the defendant with the summons unless the complaint itself be filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the action is commenced within five days after service of such summons, in which case the service of the copy may be omitted; but the summons in such case must notify the defendant that the complaint will be filed with the clerk of said court; and if the defendant appear within ten days after the service of the summons, the plaintiff must serve a copy of the complaint on the defendant or his attorney within ten days after the notice of such appearance, and the defendant shall have at least ten days thereafter to answer the same; and no judgment shall be entered against him for want of an answer in such case till the expiration of the time. [L. '93, p. 408, § 5.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 330; 29 Wash. 264, 701; 71 Wash. 439.

§ 225. Who Shall Serve Summons—Exception.—In all cases, except when service is made by publication, as hereinafter provided, the summons shall be served by the sheriff of the county wherein the service is made or by his deputy, or by any person over twenty-one years of age, who is competent to be a witness in the action, other than the plaintiff. [L. '93, p. 408, § 6.]

§ 226. Manner of Service of Summons.—The summons shall be served by delivering a copy thereof, as follows:—

1. If the action be against any county in this state, to the county auditor;

2. If against any town or incorporated city in the state, to the mayor thereof;

3. If against a school district, to the clerk thereof;

4. If against a railroad corporation, to any station, freight, ticket or other agent thereof within this state;

5. If against a corporation owning or operating sleeping-cars, or hotel-cars, to any person having charge of any of its cars or any agent found within the state;

6. If against an insurance company, to any agent authorized by such company to solicit insurance within this state;

7. If against a company or corporation doing any express business, to any agent authorized by said company or corporation to receive and deliver express matters and collect pay therefor within this state;

8. If the suit be against a company or corporation other than those designated in the preceding subdivisions of this section, to the president or other head of the company or corporation, secretary, cashier or managing agent thereof;

9. If the suit be against a foreign corporation or nonresident joint stock company or association doing business within this state, to any agent, cashier or secretary thereof;

10. If against a minor under the age of fourteen years, to such minor personally, and also to his father, mother, guardian, or if there be none within this state, then to any person having the care or control of such minor, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed, if such there be;

11. If against any person for whom a guardian has been appointed for any cause, then to such guardian;

12. In all other cases, to the defendant personally, or by leaving a copy of the summons at the house of his usual abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein. Service made in the modes provided in this section shall be taken and held to be personal service;

13. Whenever any domestic or foreign corporation, which has been doing business in this state, has been placed in the hands of a receiver and the receiver is in possession of any of the property or assets of such corporation, service of all process upon such corporation may be made upon the receiver thereof. [L. '93, p. 408, § 7; L. '97, p. 284, § 1.]

§ 227. Service of Summons on Corporation.—Whenever any corporation, created by the laws of this state, or late territory of Washington, does not have an officer in this state upon whom legal service of process can be made, an action or proceeding against such corporation may be commenced in any county where the cause of action may arise, or said corporation may have property, and service may be made upon such corporation by depositing a copy of the summons, writ, or other process, in the office of the secretary of state, which shall be taken, deemed and treated as personal service on such corporation: Provided, a copy of said summons, writ, or other process, shall be deposited in the postoffice, postage paid, directed to the secretary or other proper officer of such corporation, at the place where the main business of such corporation is transacted, when such place of business is known to the plaintiff, and be published at least once a week for six weeks in some newspaper printed and published at the seat of government of this state, before such service shall be deemed perfect. [L. '93, p. 409, § 8.]

Cited in 73 Wash. 584, 585.

§ 228. Service of Summons by Publication.—When the defendant cannot be found within the state (of which the return of the sheriff of the county in which the action is brought, that the defendant cannot be found in the county, is prima facie evidence), and upon the filing of an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, with the clerk of the court, stating that he believes that the defendant is not a resident of the state, or cannot be found therein, and that he has deposited a copy of the summons (substantially in the form prescribed in section 233 of said [these] codes and statutes) and complaint in the postoffice, directed to the defendant at his place of residence, unless it is stated in the affidavit that such residence is not known to the affiant, and stating the existence of one of the cases hereinafter specified, the service may be made by publication of the summons, by the plaintiff or his attorney in either of the following cases:

1. When the defendant is a foreign corporation, and has property within the state;

2. When the defendant, being a resident of this state, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent;

3. When the defendant is not a resident of the state, but has property therein and the court has jurisdiction of the subject of the action;

4. When the action is for divorce in the cases prescribed by law;

5. When the subject of the action is real or personal property in this state, and the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, or the relief demanded consists wholly, or partly, in excluding the defendant from any interest or lien therein;

6. When the action is to foreclose, satisfy, or redeem from a mortgage, or to enforce a lien of any kind on real estate in the county where the action is brought, or satisfy or redeem from the same;

7. When the action is against any corporation, whether private or municipal, organized under the laws of the state and the proper officers on whom to make service do not exist or cannot be found. [L. 1915, p. 146, § 1. Cf. L. '93, p. 410, § 9.]

§ 228–1. Saving Clause.—No action or proceeding commenced or right existing when this act shall take effect, shall be affected or impaired thereby, but such action or proceeding shall be prosecuted and continued and such right remain as if this act has [had] not been passed. [L. 1915, p. 147, § 2.]

§ 229. Process Against "Unknown Heirs."—When the heirs of any deceased person are proper parties defendant to any action relating to real property in this state, and when the names and residences of such heirs are unknown, such heirs may be proceeded against under the name and title of "The unknown heirs" of the deceased. [L. '03, p. 277, § 1.]

Cited in 73 Wash. 82.

§ 230. Affidavit as to Unknown Heirs—Publication of Summons. Upon presenting an affidavit to the court or judge, showing to his satisfaction that the heirs of such deceased person are proper parties to the action, and that their names and residences cannot with use of reasonable diligence be ascertained, such court or judge may grant an order that service of the summons in such action be made on such "Unknown heirs" by publication thereof in the same manner as in actions against nonresident defendants. [L. '03, p. 278, § 2.]

interest in real property, or to quiet title to real property, the plaintiff may include as a defendant in such action, and insert in the title thereof, in addition to the names of such persons or parties as appear of record to have, and other persons or parties who are known to have, some title, claim, estate, lien, or interest in the lands in controversy, the following, viz.: "Also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien, or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein." And service of summons may be had upon all such unknown persons or parties defendant by publication as provided by law in case of nonresident defendants. [L. '03, p. 278, § 3.]

§ 232. Judgment—Rights of Unknown Heirs and Parties.—All such unknown heirs of deceased persons, and all such unknown persons or parties, so served by publication as in the preceding section of this act provided, shall have the same rights as are provided by law in case of all other defendants upon whom service is made by publication, and the action shall proceed against such unknown heirs, or unknown persons or parties, in the same manner as against defendants, who are named, upon whom service is made by publication, and with like effect; and any such unknown heirs or unknown persons or parties who have or claim any right, estate, lien, or interest in the said real property in controversy, at the time of the commencement of the action, duly served as aforesaid, shall be bound and concluded by the judgment in such action, if the same is in favor of the plaintiff therein as effectually as if the action was brought against such defendant by his or her name and constructive service of summons obtained: Provided, however, that such judgments shall not bind such unknown heirs, or unknown persons or parties, defendant, unless the plaintiff shall file a notice of lis pendens in the office of the auditor of each county in which said real estate is located, in the manner provided by law, before commencing the publication of said summons. [L. '03, p. 278, § 4.]

§ 233. Manner of Publication and Form of Summons.—The publication shall be made in a newspaper printed and published in the county where the action is brought (and if there be no newspaper in the county, then in a newspaper printed and published in an adjoining county, and if there is no such newspaper in an adjoining county, then in a newspaper printed and published at the capital of the state) once a week for six consecutive weeks: Provided, that publication of summons shall not be had until after the filing of the complaint, and the service of the summons shall be deemed complete at the expiration of the time prescribed for publication as aforesaid. The summons must be subscribed by the plaintiff or his attorney or attorneys. The summons shall contain the date of the first publication, and shall require the defendant or defendants upon whom service by publication is desired, to appear and answer the complaint within sixty days from the date of the first publication of such summons; and said summons for publication shall also contain a brief statement of the object of the action. Said summons for publication shall be substantially as follows:—

This section by inadvertence says "last two sections," when it should refer to the last three sections.

§ 236. Service on Joint Defendants.—When the action is against two or more defendants and the summons is served on one or more but not on all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows:—

1. If the action is against the defendants jointly indebted upon a contract, he may proceed against the defendants served unless the court otherwise directs; and if he recovers judgment it may be entered against all the defendants thus jointly indebted so far only as it may be enforced against the joint property of all and the separate property of the defendants served;

2. If the action is against defendants severally liable, he may proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants;

3. Though all the defendants may have been served with the summons, judgment may be taken against any of them severally, when the plaintiff would be entitled to judgment against such defendants if the action had been against them alone. [L. '93, p. 411, § 13.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 108; 63 Wash. 89; 82 Wash. 587, 588.

1. If served by the sheriff or his deputy, the return of such sheriff or his deputy indorsed upon or attached to the summons;

2. If by any other person, his affidavit thereof indorsed upon or attached to the summons; or

3. In case of publication, the affidavit of the printer, publisher, foreman, principal clerk or business manager of the newspaper showing the same, together with a printed copy of the summons as published; or

4. The written admission of the defendant;

5. In case of personal service out of the state, the affidavit of the person making the service, sworn to before a notary public, with a seal attached, or a clerk of a court of record. In case of service otherwise than by publication, the return, admission or affidavit must state the time, place and manner of service. [L. '93, p. 412, § 14.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 330, 347; 29 Wash. 701, 702.

§ 238. Jurisdiction Acquired, When.—From the time of the commencement of the action by service of summons, or by the filing of a complaint, or as otherwise provided, the court is deemed to have acquired jurisdiction and to have control of all subsequent proceedings. A voluntary appearance of a defendant is equivalent to a personal service of the summons upon him. [L. '03, p. 412, § 15; L. '95, p. 172, § 4.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 631; 22 Wash. 443; 71 Wash. 439; 78 Wash. 473; 83 Wash. 437.

§ 239. Publication of Notice in Exercise of Eminent Domain.—If a party having or claiming a share or interest in or lien upon any property sought to be appropriated for public use be unknown, and such fact be made to appear by affidavit filed in the office of the clerk of the court, the notice required by law in such cases may be served by publication as in the case of nonresident owners, and such notice shall be directed by name to every owner of a share or interest in or lien upon the property sought to be so appropriated, and generally to all persons unknown having or claiming an interest or estate in the property or any portion thereof, and all such unknown parties shall in all papers and proceedings be designated as "unknown owners," and shall be bound by the provisions and be entitled to the benefits of the judgment the same as if they had been known and duly named. [L. '95, p. 352, § 1.]

§ 240. Selection of Newspaper—Evidence of Payment.—In any suit or proceeding, in any court of this state, requiring a legal publication, said publication shall be made in any newspaper, of general circulation in the county, designated by the party or his attorney, at whose instance the said publication is made. A tender of a receipt from the publisher of the said newspaper, as full payment for said publication shall be accepted by the sheriff, or court, as payment in lieu of the cash payment of fees for same. [L. '93, p. 62, § 1.]

§ 241. Appearance, What Constitutes.—A defendant appears in an action when he answers, demurs, makes any application for an order therein, or gives the plaintiff written notice of his appearance. After appearance a defendant is entitled to notice of all subsequent proceedings; but when a defendant has not appeared, service of notice or papers in the ordinary proceedings in an action need not be made upon him. Every such appearance made in an action shall be deemed a general appearance, unless the defendant in making the same states that the same is a special appearance. [Cf. 2 H. C., § 181; L. '93, p. 412, § 16.]

of filing the complaint, or at any time afterward, or whenever a writ of attachment of property shall be issued, or at any time afterward, the plaintiff or a defendant, when he sets up an affirmative cause of action in his answer, and demands substantive relief at the time of filing his answer, or at any time afterward, if the same be intended to affect real property, may file with the auditor of each county in which the property is situated a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a description of the real property in that county affected thereby. From the time of the filing only shall the pendency of the action be constructive notice to a purchaser or encumbrancer of the property affected thereby, and every person whose conveyance or encumbrance is subsequently executed or subsequently recorded shall be deemed a subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer, and shall be bound by all proceedings taken after the filing of such notice to the same extent as if he were a party to the action. For the purpose of this section an action shall be deemed to be pending from the time of filing such notice: Provided, however, that such notice shall be of no avail unless it shall be followed by the first publication of the summons, or by the personal service thereof on a defendant within sixty days after such filing. And the court in which the said action was commenced may, in its discretion, at any time after the action shall be settled, discontinued or abated, on application of any person aggrieved and on good cause shown and on such notice as shall be directed or approved by the court, order the notice authorized in this section to be canceled of record, in whole or in part, by the county auditor of any county in whose office the same may have been filed or recorded, and such cancellation shall be made by an indorsement to that effect on the margin of the record. § 244. Notice, upon Whom Served.—Notices shall be in writing; and notices and other papers may be served on the party or attorney in the manner prescribed in the next three sections where not otherwise provided by statute. [L. '93, p. 413, § 18.]

Cited in 24 Wash. 668; 69 Wash. 262.

§ 245. Manner of Making Service of Notice.—The services may be personal or by delivery to the party or attorney on whom service is required to be made, or it may be as follows:—

1. If upon an attorney, it may be made during his absence from his office by leaving the papers with his clerk therein, or with a person having charge thereof; or, when there is no person in the office, by leaving it between the hours of six in the morning and nine in the evening in a conspicuous place in the office; or, if it is not open to admit of such service, then by leaving it at the attorney's residence with some person of suitable age and discretion;

2. If upon a party, it may be made by leaving the papers at his residence between the hours of six in the morning and nine in the evening, with some person of suitable age and discretion. [L. '93, p. 413, § 19.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 155; 27 Wash. 331; 54 Wash. 260, 262.

§ 246. Service by Mail, When may be Made.—Service by mail may be made when the person making the service and the person on whom it is to be made reside in different places between which there is a regular communication by mail. [L. '93, p. 414, § 20.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 470; 24 Wash. 612; 63 Wash. 443.

§ 247. Service by Mail, Manner of.—In case of service by mail, the papers shall be deposited in the postoffice, addressed to the person on whom it is served, at his place of residence, and the postage paid; and in such case the time of service shall be double that required in case of personal service. [L. '93, p. 414, § 21.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 319; 24 Wash. 612; 26 Wash. 366; 71 Wash. 439.

§ 248. Service When No Attorney Appears.—Where a plaintiff or defendant who has appeared resides out of the state and has no attorney in the action, the service may be made by mail if his residence is known; if not known, on the clerk for him. But where a party, whether resident or nonresident, has an attorney in the action, the service of papers shall be upon the attorney instead of the party. But if the attorney shall have removed from the state, such service may be made upon him personally either within or without the state, or by mail to him at his place of residence, if known, and if not known, then by mail upon the party, if his residence is known, whether within or without the state. And if the residence of neither the party nor attorney are known, the service may be made upon the clerk for the attorney. [L. '93, p. 414, § 22.]

§ 249. Not Applicable to Service of Summons, etc.—The provisions of the four preceding sections do not apply to the service of a summons or other process, or of any paper to bring a party into contempt. [L. '93, p. 414, § 23.]

See infra, §§ 1049–1062, contempts and punishment thereof.

§ 250. Effect of Imperfect Paper—Amendments.—A notice or other paper is valid and effectual though the title of the action in which it is made is omitted, or it is defective either in respect to the court or parties, if it intelligently refers to such action or proceedings; and in furtherance of justice upon proper terms, any other defect or error in any notice or other paper or proceeding may be amended by the court, and any mischance, omission or defect relieved within one year thereafter; and the court may enlarge or extend the time, for good cause shown, within which by statute any act is to be done, proceeding had or taken, notice of paper filed or served, or may, on such terms as are just, permit the same to be done or supplied after the time therefor has expired, except that the time for bringing a writ of error or appeal shall in no case be enlarged, or a party permitted to bring such writ of error or appeal after the time therefor has expired. [L. '93, p. 414, § 24.]

§ 251. Assessment of Damages.—A defendant who has appeared may, without answering, demand in writing an assessment of damages, of the amount which the plaintiff is entitled to recover, and thereupon such assessment shall be had or any such amount ascertained in such manner as the court on application may direct, and judgment entered by the clerk for the amount so assessed or ascertained. [L. '93, p. 415, § 25.]

§ 252. Computation of Time.—The time within which an act is to be done shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last. If the last day falls on a Sunday it shall be excluded. [L. '93, p. 415, § 26.]

§ 253. Weekly Publication, How Made.—The publication of legal notices required by law, or by an order of a judge or court, to be published in a newspaper once in each week for a specified number of weeks, shall be made on the day of each week in which such newspaper is published. [L. '93, p. 415, § 27.]

transmitted by telegraph for service in any place, and the telegraphic copy of such writ or order or paper so transmitted may be served or executed by the officer or person to whom it is sent for that purpose, and returned by him, if any return be requisite, in the same manner, and with the same force and effect in all respects, as the original thereof might be, if delivered to him, and the officer or person serving or executing the same shall have the same authority, and be subject to the same liabilities, as if the said copy were the original. The original, when a writ or order, shall also be filed in the court from which it was issued, and a certified copy thereof shall be preserved in the telegraph office from which it was sent; in sending it, either the original or certified copy may be used by the operator for that purpose. [L. '66, p. 69, § 17; Cd. '81, § 2358; 1 H. C., § 1558.]

See infra, § 9308, notice by telegraph, effect of.

CHAPTER VII.

Pleadings.

§ 255. Rules to Determine Sufficiency.—All the forms of pleadings heretofore existing in civil actions inconsistent with the provisions of this code are abolished, and hereafter the forms of pleading and the rule by which the sufficiency of the pleadings is to be determined shall be as herein prescribed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 138, § 36; L. '69, p. 17, § 71; Cd. '81, § 73; 2 H. C., § 185.]

§ 256. What Pleadings There Shall be.—The only pleadings on the part of the plaintiff shall be,—

1. The complaint;
2. The demurrer;
3. The reply.

And on the part of the defendant,—

1. The demurrer;
2. The answer. [L. '54, p. 139, § 37; L. '69, p. 20, § 72; Cd. '81, § 74; 2 H. C., § 186.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 587, 588; 27 Wash. 397; 29 Wash. 532.

§ 257. First Pleading—Complaint.—The first pleading on the part of the plaintiff shall be the complaint. [L. '54, p. 139, § 38; Cd. '81, § 75; 2 H. C. § 187.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 532.

§ 258. What Complaint Shall Contain.—The complaint shall contain,—

1. The title of cause, specifying the name of the court, the name of the county in which the action is brought, and the name of the parties to the action, plaintiff and defendant;

2. A plain and concise statement of facts, constituting the cause of action, without unnecessary repetition;

3. A demand for the relief which plaintiff claims; if the recovery of money or damages be demanded, the amount thereof shall be stated. [Cf. L. '54, p. 139, § 39; L. '77, p. 17, § 76; Cd. '81, § 76; L. '91, p. 106, § 1; 2 H. C., § 188.]

§ 259. Grounds of Demurrer of Defendant.—The defendant may demur to the complaint when it shall appear upon the face thereof either,—

1. That the court has no jurisdiction of the person of the defendant or of the subject matter of the action;

2. That the plaintiff has no legal capacity to sue; or

3. That there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause; or

4. That there is a defect of parties, plaintiff or defendant; or

5. That several causes of action have been improperly united;

6. That the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action;

7. That the action has not been commenced within the time limited by law. [Cf. L. '54, p. 139, § 40; Cd. '81, § 77; L. '86, p. 75, § 1; L. '91, p. 106, § 2; 2 H. C., § 189.]

§ 260. Grounds of Demurrer, How Specified.—The demurrer may specify the grounds of objection in the statutory language of the last preceding section, or the grounds may be distinctly specified; it may be taken to the whole complaint, or to any one of the alleged causes of action stated therein. [Cf. L. '54, p. 139, § 41; L. '77, p. 18, § 78; Cd. '81, § 78; 2 H. C., § 190.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 86.

§ 261. Objections, When to be Taken by Answer.—When any of the matters enumerated in section 259 do not appear upon the face of the complaint, the objection may be taken by answer. [L. '54, p. 139, § 42; Cd. '81, § 79; 2 H. C., § 191.]

§ 262. Proceedings When Complaint is Amended.—If the complaint be amended, a copy thereof shall be served on the defendant or his attorney, and the defendant shall answer the same within such time as may be prescribed by the court; and if he omit to do so, the plaintiff may proceed to obtain judgment as in other cases of failure to answer. [L. '69, p. 20, § 78; Cd. '81, § 80; 2 H. C., § 192.]

Cited in 74 Wash. 213, 371.

§ 263. Objections not Taken Deemed Waived.—If no objection be taken either by demurrer or answer, the defendant shall be deemed to have waived the same, excepting always the objection that the court has no jurisdiction, or that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, which objection can be made at any stage of the proceedings, either in the superior or supreme court. [L. '54, p. 139, § 43; Cd. '81, § 81; 2 H. C., § 193.]

§ 266. Setoff, When Allowed.—The defendant in a civil action upon a contract expressed or implied, may set off any demand of a like nature against the plaintiff in interest, which existed and belonged to him at the time of the commencement of the suit. And in all such actions, other than upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, negotiated in good faith and without notice before due, which has been assigned to the plaintiff, he may also set off a demand of a like nature existing against the person to whom he was originally liable, or any assignee prior to the plaintiff, of such contract, provided such demand existed at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant in good faith, before notice of such assignment, and was such a demand as might have been set off against such person to whom he was originally liable, or such assignee while the contract belonged to him. [Cd. '81, § 497; 2 H. C., § 806.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 379; 72 Wash. 141, 142.

§ 267. Demand Against Beneficiary Set Off in Action by Trustee.—If the plaintiff be a trustee to any other, or if the action be in a name of the plaintiff who has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, so much of a demand existing against those whom the plaintiff represents or for whose benefit the action is brought, may be set off as will satisfy the plaintiff's debt, if the same might have been set off in an action brought by those beneficially interested. [Cd. '81, § 498; 2 H. C., § 807.]

§ 268. Demand Against Decedent in Action by Executor.—In actions brought by executors and administrators, demands against their testators and intestates, and belonging to defendant at the time of their death, may be set off by the defendant in the same manner as if the action had been brought by and in the name of the deceased. [Cd. '81, § 499; 2 H. C., § 808.]

§ 269. Effect of Judgment Against Executor.—When a setoff shall be established in an action brought by executors or administrators, and a balance found due to the defendant, the judgment rendered thereon against the plaintiff shall have the same effect as if the action had been originally commenced by the defendant. [Cd. '81, § 500; 2 H. C., § 809.]

§ 270. Setoff in Action Against Executor.—In actions against executors and administrators and against trustees and others, sued in their representative character, the defendants may set off demands belonging to their testators or intestates or those whom they represent, in the same manner as the person so represented would have been entitled to set off the same, in an action against them. [Cd. '81, § 501; 2 H. C., § 810.]

§ 271. Setoff must be Pleaded.—To entitle a defendant to a setoff he must set the same forth in his answer. [Cd. '81, § 502; 2 H. C., § 811.]

§ 271½. Judgment for Balance Only.—If the amount of the setoff, duly established, be equal to the plaintiff's debt or demand, judgment shall be rendered that the plaintiff take nothing by his action; if it be less than the plaintiff's debt or demand, the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue only. [Cd. '81, § 503; 2 H. C., § 812.]

§ 272. No Judgment for Balance if Contract Shall have Been Assigned.—If there be found a balance due from the plaintiff in the action to the defendant, judgment shall be rendered in favor of the defendant for the amount thereof, but no such judgment shall be rendered against the plaintiff when the contract, which is the subject of the action, shall have been assigned before the commencement of such action nor for any balance due from any other person than the plaintiff in the action. [Cd. '81, § 504; 2 H. C., § 813.]

§ 273. What may be Set Forth in Answer.—The defendant may set forth by answer as many defenses and counterclaims as he may have, whether they be such as have heretofore been denominated legal or equitable, or both. They shall each be separately stated, and refer to the causes of action which they are intended to answer, in such a manner that they may be intelligibly distinguished. [L. '54, p. 140, § 45; Cd. '81, pt. of § 83; 2 H. C., pt. of § 195.]

§ 274. Defendant may Demur to One or More Causes and Answer the Residue.—The defendant may demur to one or more of several causes of action stated in the complaint, and answer the residue. [L. '54, p. 140, § 46; Cd. '81, § 84; 2 H. C., § 196.]

§ 275. Answer may be Stricken, When.—Sham, frivolous, and irrelevant answers and defenses may be stricken out on motion, and upon such terms as the court may in its discretion impose. [Cf. L. '54, p. 140, § 47; L. '69, p. 21, § 83; Cd. '81, § 85; 2 H. C., § 197.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 59.

§ 276. Plaintiff may Demur to Answer, When—Reply.—The plaintiff may demur to an answer containing new matter, when it appears upon the face thereof that such new matter does not constitute a defense or counterclaim, or he may for like cause demur to one or more of such defenses or counterclaims, and reply to the residue. [L. '54, p. 140, § 48; L. '69, p. 22, § 85; Cd. '81, § 87; 2 H. C., § 198.]

§ 277. When Plaintiff may Reply—Contents of.—When the answer contains new matter constituting a defense or counterclaim, the plaintiff may reply to such new matter, denying generally or specifically each allegation controverted by him, or any knowledge or information thereof sufficient to form a belief; and he may allege in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, any new matter, not inconsistent with the complaint, constituting a defense to such new matter in the answer. [Cf. L. '54, p. 140, § 48; L. '69, p. 22, § 84; L. '77, p. 19, § 86; Cd. '81, § 86; 2 H. C., § 199.]

§ 278. Judgment for Failure to Plead to New Matter.—If the answer contain a statement of new matter constituting a defense or counterclaim, and the plaintiff fail to reply or demur thereto within the time prescribed by law, the defendant may move the court for such judgment as he is entitled to on the pleadings, and if the case require it, he may have a jury called to assess the damages. [Cf. L. '54, p. 140, § 49; L. '69, p. 22, § 86; Cd. '81, § 88; 2 H. C., § 200.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 373; 5 Wash. 662.

§ 279. Demurrer or Motion to Reply.—The defendant may demur to any new matter contained in the reply, when it appears upon the face thereof that such new matter is not a sufficient reply to the facts stated in the answer. Sham, frivolous, and irrelevant replies may be stricken out in like manner and on the same terms as like answers and defenses. [Cf. L. '54, p. 140, § 50; L. '69, p. 22, § 87; Cd. '81, § 89; 2 H. C., § 201.]

§ 280. Court Rules Fixing Times for Pleading.—The court shall establish the rules prescribing the time in which pleadings subsequent to the complaint shall be filed. [L. '57, p. 10, § 10; Cd. '81, § 90; 2 H. C., § 202; see Const., Art. IV, § 24.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Verification of Pleadings.

§ 281. Subscription and Verification of Pleadings.—Every pleading shall be subscribed by the party or his attorney, and except a demurrer, shall also be verified by the party, his agent or attorney, to the effect that he believes it to be true. The verification must be made by the affidavit of the party, or if there be several parties united in interest and pleading together, by one at least of such parties, if such party be within the county and capable of making the affidavit; otherwise the affidavit may be made by the agent or attorney of the party. The affidavit may also be made by the agent or attorney if the action or defense be founded on a written instrument for the payment of money only, and such instrument be in the possession of the agent or attorney, or if all the material allegations of the pleading be within the personal knowledge of the agent or attorney. When the affidavit is made by the agent or attorney, it must set forth the reason of his making it. When a corporation is a party, the verification may be made by any officer thereof, upon whom service of a notice [summons] might be made; and when the state, or any officer thereof in its behalf, is a party, the verification may be made by any person to whom all the material allegations of the pleading are known. When the party is absent from or a non-resident of the county in which suit is brought, the verification may be made by the agent or attorney of said party. [Cf. L. '54, p. 141, §§ 53, 54; L. '67, p. 92, § 1; L. '69, p. 23, § 89; Cd. '81, § 91; L. '88, p. 29, § 1; 2 H. C., § 203.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 126; 40 Wash. 212.

§ 282. When Verification may be Omitted.—When, in the judgment of the court, an answer to an allegation in any pleading might subject the party answering to a criminal prosecution, the verification of the answer to such allegation may be omitted. No pleading shall be used in a criminal prosecution against the party as evidence of a fact alleged in such pleading. [Cf. L. '54, p. 141, § 54; L. '69, p. 23, § 90; Cd. '81, § 92; 2 H. C., § 204.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 8.

§ 283. Pleadings are not Proof on Trial.—Pleadings sworn to by either party in any case shall not, on the trial, be deemed proof of the facts alleged therein, nor require other or greater proof on the part of the adverse party. [L. '54, p. 219, § 484; Cd. '81, § 741; 2 H. C., § 792.]

CHAPTER IX.

General Rules of Pleading.

§ 284. Pleading Written Instruments and Accounts—Bill of Particulars.—It shall not be necessary for a party to set forth in a pleading a copy of the instrument of writing, or the items of an account therein alleged; but unless he file a verified copy thereof with such pleadings, and serve the same on the adverse party, he shall, within ten days after a demand thereof in writing, deliver to the adverse party a copy of such instrument of writing, or the items of an account, verified by his own oath, or that of his agent or attorney, to the effect that he believes it to be true, or be precluded from giving evidence thereof. The court, or judge thereof, may order a further account, when the one delivered is defective; and the court may, in all cases, order a bill of particulars of the claim of either party to be furnished. [L. '54, p. 142, § 55; Cd. '81, § 93; 2 H. C., § 205.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 59; 11 Wash. 363; 27 Wash. 104; 35 Wash. 684; 65 Wash. 67; 79 Wash. 494; 81 Wash. 36.

§ 286. Irrelevant, Redundant and Indefinite Matter, How Objected to.—If irrelevant or redundant matter be inserted in a pleading, it may be stricken out on motion of any person aggrieved thereby; and when the allegations of a pleading are so indefinite or uncertain that the precise nature of the charge or defense is not apparent, the court may require the pleading to be made definite and certain by amendment, or may dismiss the same. [L. '54, p. 142, § 57; Cd. '81, § 95; 2 H. C., § 207.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 540; 43 Wash. 221.

§ 287. Judgments of Inferior Courts, How Pleaded.—In pleading a judgment or other determination of a court or office[r] of special jurisdiction, it shall not be necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction, but such judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. If such allegation be controverted, the party pleading shall be bound to establish on the trial the facts conferring jurisdiction. [L. '54, p. 142, § 58; Cd. '81, § 96; 2 H. C., § 208.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 99; 45 Wash. 422.

§ 288. Conditions Precedent, How Pleaded.—In pleading the performance of conditions precedent in a contract, it shall not be necessary to state the facts showing such performance, but it may be stated generally that the party duly performed all the conditions on his part; and if such allegation be controverted, the party pleading shall be bound to establish, on the trial, the facts showing such performance. [L. '54, p. 142, § 59; Cd. '81, § 97; 2 H. C., § 209.]

Cited in 42 Wash. 307; 50 Wash. 662, 663.

§ 289. Private Statutes, How Pleaded.—In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it shall be sufficient to refer to such statute by its title, and the day of its passage, and the court shall thereupon take judicial notice thereof. [L. '54, p. 142, § 60; Cd. '81, § 98; 2 H. C., § 210.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 350.

§ 290. Existence of City or Town, How Pleaded.—In pleading the existence of any city or town in this state, it shall be sufficient to state in such pleading that the same is an existing city or town, incorporated or organized under the laws of the state of Washington. [Cd. '81, § 2063; 1 H. C., § 767.]

§ 291. Ordinances, How Pleaded.—In pleading any ordinance of a city or town in this state, it shall be sufficient to state the title of such ordinance and the date of its passage, whereupon the court shall take judicial knowledge of the existence of such ordinance, and the tenor and effect thereof. [Cd. '81, § 2064; 1 H. C., § 768.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 241.

§ 292. Libel or Slander, How Pleaded.—In an action for libel or slander, it shall not be necessary to state in the complaint any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the plaintiff of the defamatory matter out of which the cause arose, but it shall be sufficient to state generally that the same was published or spoken concerning the plaintiff; and if such allegation be controverted, the plaintiff shall be bound to establish on trial that it was so published or spoken. [L. '54, p. 142, § 61; Cd. '81, § 99; 2 H. C., § 211.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 612, 613; 64 Wash. 694.

§ 293. Answers in Justification and Mitigation.—In an action mentioned in the last section, the defendant may, in his answer, allege both the truth of the matter charged as defamatory, and any mitigating circumstances to reduce the amount of damages; and whether he prove the justification or not; he may give in evidence the mitigating circumstances. [L. '54, p. 143, § 62; Cd. '81, § 100; 2 H. C., § 212.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 509; 40 Wash. 312, 313; 85 Wash. 512.

§ 294. Falsely Charging Certain Crime, Actionable.—Every charge of incest, fornication, adultery, or whoredom falsely made by any person against a female, also words falsely spoken of any person charging such person with incest or the infamous crime against nature, either with mankind or the brute creation, shall be [actionable] in the same manner as in the case of slanderous words charging a crime the commission of which would subject the offender to death or other degrading penalties. [L. '54, p. 219, § 487; Cd. '81, § 747; 2 H. C., § 798.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 239; 71 Wash. 140.

§ 295. Answers in Actions to Recover Property Distrained.—In an action to recover the possession of property distrained doing damage, an answer that the defendant or person by whose command he acted was lawfully possessed of the real property upon which the distress was made, and that the property distrained was at the time doing damage thereon, shall be good without setting forth the title to such real property. [L. '54, p. 143, § 63; Cd. 81, § 101; 2 H. C., § 213.]

§ 296. Joinder of Causes of Action.—The plaintiff may unite several causes of action in the same complaint, when they all arise out of,—

1. Contract, express or implied; or
2. Injuries, with or without force, to the person; or
3. Injuries, with or without force, to property; or
4. Injuries, to character; or
5. Claims to recover real property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof; or
6. Claims to recover personal property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof; or
7. Claims against a trustee, by virtue of a contract or by operation of law.
8. The same transaction.

But the causes of action so united must affect all the parties to the action, and not require different places of trial, and must be separately stated. [L. '07, p. 172, § 1; Cf. L. '54, p. 143, § 64; L. '61, p. 51, § 5; L. '69, p. 25, § 100; Cd. '81, § 102; 2 H. C., § 214.]

§ 297. Material Allegations not Controverted Admitted, Except in Reply.—Every material allegation of the complaint not controverted by the answer, and every material allegation of new matter in the answer not controverted by the reply, shall, for the purpose of action, be taken as true; but the allegation of new matter in a reply is to be deemed controverted by the adverse party, as upon a direct denial or avoidance, as the case may require. [L. '69, p. 26, § 101; L. '77, p. 22, § 103; Cd. '81, § 103; 2 H. C., § 215.]

§ 298. Material Allegations Defined.—A material allegation in a pleading is one essential to the claim or defense, and which could not be stricken from the pleading without leaving it insufficient. [L. '54, p. 143, § 65; Cd. '81, § 104; 2 H. C., § 216.]

CHAPTER X.

Mistakes and Amendments.

§ 299. Variance, When Material.—No variance between the allegation in a pleading and the proof shall be deemed material, unless it shall have actually misled the adverse party to his prejudice in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. Whenever it shall be alleged that a party has been so misled, that fact shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court, and in what respect he has been misled, and thereupon the court may order the pleading to be amended upon such terms as shall be just. [L. '54, p. 143, § 66; Cd. '81, § 105; 2 H. C., § 217.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 545; 2 Wash. 520; 3 Wash. 487, 534; 5 Wash. 57; 16 Wash. 48; 21 Wash. 640; 22 Wash. 142; 24 Wash. 155; 26 Wash. 527, 553; 29 Wash. 534; 30 Wash. 169; 38 Wash. 543; 39 Wash. 54; 43 Wash. 222; 50 Wash. 688; 54 Wash. 15, 621; 57 Wash. 21; 59 Wash. 296; 60 Wash. 524; 61 Wash. 184; 70 Wash. 618; 73 Wash. 52; 74 Wash. 307; 81 Wash. 36; 84 Wash. 464; 86 Wash. 331; 87 Wash. 297, 400.

§ 300. Immaterial Variance, Effect of.—When the variance is not material, as provided in the last section, the court may direct the fact to be found according to the evidence, or may order an immediate amendment without costs. [L. '54, p. 144, § 67; Cd. '81, § 106; 2 H. C., § 218.]

Cited in 22 Wash. 142; 26 Wash. 528; 38 Wash. 544; 40 Wash. 621; 57 Wash. 22; 87 Wash. 400.

§ 301. Failure of Proof.—When, however, the allegation of the cause of action or defense to which the proof is directed is not proved, not in some particular or particulars only, but in its entire scope and meaning, it shall not be deemed a case of variance within the last two sections, but a failure of proof. [L. '54, p. 144, § 68; Cd. '81, § 107; 2 H. C., § 219.]

§ 302. Variance in Action to Recover Personal Property.—Where the plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property, on a claim of being the owner thereof, shall fail to establish on trial such ownership, but shall prove that he is entitled to the possession thereof by virtue of a special property therein, he shall not thereby be defeated of his action, but shall be permitted to amend, on reasonable terms, his complaint, and be entitled to judgment according to the proof in the case. [L. '57, p. 10, § 11; L. '69, p. 27, § 106; Cd. '81, § 108; 2 H. C., § 220.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 119; 16 Wash. 48.

§ 303. Amendments, Allowance of.—The court may, in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper, amend any pleadings or proceedings, by adding or striking out the name of any party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, or a mistake in any other respect, and may, upon like terms, enlarge the time for answer or demurrer. The court may likewise, upon affidavit showing good cause therefor, after notice to the adverse party, allow, upon such terms as may be just, an amendment to any pleading or proceeding in other particulars, and may, upon like terms, allow an answer to be made after the time limited by this code, and may, upon such terms as may be just, and upon payment of costs, relieve a party, or his legal representatives, from a judgment, order, or other proceeding taken against him through his mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect. [L. '54, p. 144, § 69; L. '75, p. 11, § 20; Cd. '81, § 109; L. '91, p. 106, § 3; 2 H. C., § 221.]

§ 304. Amendments, How Made.—When any pleading or proceeding is amended before trial, mere clerical errors excepted, it shall be done by filing a new pleading, to be called the amended complaint, or otherwise, as the case may be. Such amended pleading shall be complete in itself, without reference to the original, or any preceding amended one. [L. '69, p. 27, § 108; Cd. '81, § 110; 2 H. C., § 222.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 612; 16 Wash. 357.

§ 305. Informal Pleadings, Stricken Out—Amendment of.—Any pleading not duly verified and subscribed may, on motion of the adverse party, be stricken out of the case. When any pleading contains more than one cause of action or defense, if the same be not pleaded separately, such pleading may, on motion of the adverse party, be stricken out of the case. When a motion to strike out is allowed, the court may, upon such terms as may be proper, allow the party to file an amended pleading; or if the motion be disallowed, and it appear to have been made in good faith, the court may, upon like terms, allow the party to plead over. [L. '69, p. 27, § 109; Cd. '81, § 111; 2 H. C., § 223.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 212.

§ 306. Defendant Designated by Fictitious Name, When.—When the plaintiff shall be ignorant of the name of the defendant, it shall be so stated in his pleading, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name shall be discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly. [L. '54, p. 144, § 70; L. '69, p. 28, § 110; Cd. '81, § 112; 2 H. C., § 224.]

§ 307. Harmless Errors Disregarded.—The court shall, in every stage of an action, disregard any error or defect in pleadings or proceedings which shall not affect the substantial rights of the adverse party, and no judgment shall be reversed or affected by reason of such error or defect. [L. '54, p. 144, § 71; Cd. '81, § 113; 2 H. C., § 225.]

CHAPTER I.

Issues in Civil Actions.

§ 309. Issues Defined, Kinds of.—Issues arise upon the pleadings when a fact or conclusion of law is maintained by one party and controverted by the other. They are of two kinds—First, of law; and second, of fact. [Cf. L. '54, p. 163, § 179; Cd. '81, § 200; 2 H. C., § 333; L. '93, p. 415, § 28.]

Cited in 24 Wash. 96.

§ 310. Issue of Law Arises, When.—An issue of law arises upon a demurrer to the complaint, answer or reply. [Cf. L. '54, p. 163, § 180; Cd. '81, § 201; 2 H. C., § 334; L. '93, p. 415, § 29.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 602.

§ 311. Issue of Fact, How Raised.—An issue of fact arises,—

First: Upon a material allegation in the complaint controverted by the answer; or Second: Upon new matter in the answer, controverted by the reply; or Third: Upon new matter in the reply, except when an issue of law is joined thereon.

Issues both of law and of fact may arise upon different and distinct parts of the pleadings in the same action. [Cf. L. '54, p. 163, § 181; Cd. '81, § 202; 2 H. C., § 335; L. '93, p. 415, § 30.]

§ 312. Trial Defined.—A trial is the judicial examination of the issues between the parties, whether they are issues of law or fact. [L. '93, p. 416, § 31.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 602.

§ 313. Issue of Law, How Tried.—An issue of law shall be tried by the court, unless it is referred as provided by the statutes relating to referees. [Cf. L. '54, p. 164, § 183; Cd. '81, § 204; 2 H. C., § 337; L. '93, p. 416, § 32.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 384; 56 Wash. 75.

§ 314. Issue of Fact, How Tried.—An issue of fact, in an action for the recovery of money only, or of specific real or personal property shall be tried by a jury, unless a jury is waived, as provided by law, or a reference ordered, as provided by statute relating to referees. [Cf. L. '54, p. 164, § 183; L. '69, p. 50, § 208; L. '73, p. 52, § 206; Cd. '81, § 204; 2 H. C., § 337; L. '93, p. 416, § 33.]

Cited in 28 Wash. 71; 30 Wash. 6; 56 Wash. 75; 79 Wash. 585; 86 Wash. 681.

§ 315. Trial of Other Issues.—Every other issue of fact shall be tried by the court, subject, however, to the right of the parties to consent, or of the court to order, that the whole issue, or any specific question of fact involved therein, be tried by a jury, or referred. [L. '93, p. 416, § 34.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 384; 79 Wash. 586, 588.

§ 316. Jury Fee—Advance Deposit—Waiver of Jury.—In all civil actions triable by a jury in the superior court any party to the action may, at or prior to the time the case is called to be set for trial, serve upon the opposite party or his attorney, and file with the clerk of the court a statement of himself, or attorney, that he elects to have such case tried by jury. At the time of filing such statement such party shall also deposit with the clerk of the court twelve dollars, which deposit, in the event that the case is settled out of court prior to the time that such case is called to be heard upon trial, shall be returned to such party by such clerk. Unless such statement is filed and such deposit made, the parties shall be deemed to have waived trial by jury, and consented to a trial by the court: Provided, that, in the superior courts of counties of the first class such parties shall serve and file such statement, in manner herein provided, at any time not later than two days before the time the case is called to be set for trial. [L. '03, p. 50, § 1; L. '09, p. 715, § 1.]

§ 317. Fee Deposited to be Part of Costs.—The amount deposited by the party demanding a trial by jury shall be a part of the taxable costs in such action. The amounts received by the clerk on account of jury fees shall be accounted for as such other fees received. [L. '03, p. 50, § 2.]

Cited in 56 Wash. 305.

§ 318. Agreement to Refer.—The [waiver of a jury or] agreement to refer, shall be by stipulation of the parties filed, or the oral consent of parties given in open court and entered in the records: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to restrict the chancery powers of the judges, or to authorize the trial of any issue by a jury, when the complaint alleges an equitable claim, and seeks relief solely upon the ground of the equities of the demand made by the pleadings in the action. [Cf. L. '54, p. 164, § 183; L. '69, p. 50, § 208; L. '73, p. 52, § 206; Cd. '81, § 204; 2 H. C., § 337.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 591; 33 Wash. 469, 539; 79 Wash. 689.

Superseded as to waiver of jury by, § 316, supra.

§ 319. Notice of Trial.—At any time after the issues of fact are completed in any case by the service of complaint and answer or reply when necessary, as provided in title three, either party may cause the issues of fact to be brought on for trial, by serving upon the opposite party a notice of trial at least three days before any day provided by rules of court for setting causes for trial, which notice shall give the title of the cause as in the pleadings, and notify the opposite party that the issues in such action will be brought on for trial at the time set by the court; and the party giving such notice of trial shall, at least three days before the day of setting such causes for trial file with the clerk of the court a note of issue containing the title of the action, the names of the attorneys and the date when the last pleading was served; and the clerk shall thereupon enter the cause upon the trial docket according to the date of the issue. In case an issue of law raised upon the pleading is desired to be brought on for argument, either party shall, at least three days before the day set apart by the court under its rules for hearing issues of law, serve upon the opposite party a like notice of trial and furnish the clerk of the court with a note of issue as above provided, which note of issue shall specify that the issue to be tried is an issue of law; and the clerk of the court shall thereupon enter such action upon the motion docket of the court. When a cause has once been placed upon either docket of the court, if not tried or argued at the time for which notice was given, it need not be noticed for a subsequent session or day, but shall remain upon the docket from session to session or from law day to law day until final disposition or stricken off by the court. The party upon whom notice of trial is served may file the note of issue and cause the action to be placed upon the calendar without further notice on his part. [L. '93, p. 416, § 35.]

§ 320. After Notice Either Party may Bring Issue to Trial.—Either party, after the notice of trial, whether given by himself or the adverse party, may bring the issue to trial, and, in the absence of the adverse party, unless the court for good cause otherwise directs, may proceed with his case, and take a dismissal of the action, or a verdict or judgment, as the case may require. [L. '93, p. 417, § 36.]

§ 321. Pleadings, When to be Filed.—All pleadings in any civil action shall be filed with the clerk of the court, on or before the day when the case is called for trial, or the day when any application is made to the court for an order therein, and in case the moving party shall fail, or neglect to cause the pleadings to be filed with the clerk of the court as above required, the adverse party may apply to the court, without notice, for an order on such moving party to file such pleadings forthwith, and for a failure to comply with such order the court may order the cause dismissed unless good cause is shown for granting an extension of time within which to file such pleadings. [L.'93, p. 417, § 37.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 641; 22 Wash. 442; 38 Wash. 171.

CHAPTER II.

Trial of Civil Actions.

§ 322. Motion for Continuance, When Allowed.—A motion to continue a trial on the ground of the absence of evidence shall only be made upon affidavit showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it, and also the name and residence of the witness or witnesses. The court may also require the moving party to state, upon affidavit, the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party admit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be continued. The court, upon its allowance of the motion, may impose terms or conditions upon the moving party. [Cf. L. '54, p. 164, § 184; L. '69, p. 50, § 209; Cd. '81, § 205; 2 H. C., § 338.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 726; 14 Wash. 581; 29 Wash. 380; 34 Wash. 204; 49 Wash. 13; 81 Wash. 29.

§ 323. Impaneling Jury.—When the action is called for trial, the clerk shall prepare separate ballots containing the names of the jurors summoned who have appeared and not been excused, and deposit them in a box. He shall then draw from the box twelve names, and the persons whose names are drawn shall constitute the jury. If the ballots become exhausted before the jury is complete, or if from any cause a juror or jurors be excused or discharged, the sheriff, under the direction of the court, shall summon from the bystanders, citizens of the county, as many qualified persons as may be necessary to complete the jury. Whenever it shall be requisite for the sheriff to summon more than one person at a time from the bystanders or body of the county, the names of the talesmen shall be returned to the clerk, who shall thereupon write the names upon separate ballots and deposit the same in the trial jury box, and draw such ballots separately thereform, as in the case of the regular panel. The jury shall consist of twelve persons, unless the parties consent to a less number. The parties may consent to any number not less than three, and such consent shall be entered by the clerk on the minutes of the trial. [Cf. L. '54, p. 164, § 185; L. '69, p. 51, § 210; Cd. '81, § 206; 2 H. C., § 339.]

§ 324. Challenges—Kind and Number.—Either party may challenge the jurors, but when there are several parties on either side, they shall join in a challenge before it can be made. The challenge shall be to individual jurors, and be peremptory or for cause. Each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges. [L. '54, p. 165, § 186; Cd. '81, § 207; 2 H. C., § 340.]

Cited in 50 Wash. 93; 52 Wash. 231; 77 Wash. 39.

§ 325. Peremptory Challenges, Defined.—A peremptory challenge is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court shall exclude him. [L. '69, p. 51, § 212; Cd. '81, § 208; 2 H. C., § 341.]

326. Challenge for Cause, Defined.—A challenge for cause is an objection to a juror, and may be either,—

1. General; that the juror is disqualified from serving in any action; or

2. Particular; that he is disqualified from serving in the action on trial. [L. '69, p. 51, § 213; Cd. '81 § 209; 2 H. C., § 342.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 411.

§ 327. General Causes of Challenge.—General causes of challenge are:—

1. A conviction for a felony;

2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by law for a juror;

3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind or organs of the body as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror. [L. '69, p. 52, § 214; Cd. '81, § 210; 2 H. C., § 343.]

§ 328. Previous Service Within One Year.—It shall be sufficient cause of challenge to any juror called to be sworn in any case that he has been summoned upon an open venire and attended said court as a juror at any session of said court held within one year prior to the time of challenge; or that he has been summoned from the bystanders or body of the county, and has served as a juror in any cause upon such summons, within one year prior to the time of such challenge. [L. '91, p. 88, § 11; 2 H. C., § 66.]

For first part of this section, see supra, § 111.

§ 329. Particular Causes of Challenge.—Particular causes of challenge are of two kinds:—

1. For such a bias as, when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this code as implied bias;

2. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror in reference to the action, or to either party, which satisfies the trier, in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging, and which is known in this code as actual bias. [L. '69, p. 52, § 215; Cd. '81, § 211; 2 H. C., § 344.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 104; 30 Wash. 141; 46 Wash. 411.

§ 330. Implied Bias, Defined.—A challenge for implied bias may be taken for any or all of the following causes, and not otherwise:—

1. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to either party;

2. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, master and servant, or landlord and tenant, to the adverse party; or being a member of the family of, or a partner in business with, or in the employment for wages of the adverse party; or being surety or bail in the action called for trial, or otherwise, for the adverse party;

3. Having served as a juror on a previous trial in the same action, or in another action between the same parties for the same cause of action, or in a criminal action by the state against either party upon substantially the same facts or transaction;

4. Interest on the part of the juror in the event of the action, or the principal question involved therein, excepting always the interest of the juror as a member or citizen of the county or municipal corporation. [Cf. L. '54, p. 165, 187; L. '69, p. 52, § 216; Cd. '81, § 212; 2 H. C., § 345.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 103; 24 Wash. 524; 30 Wash. 637.

§ 331. Challenge for Actual Bias.—A challenge for actual bias may be taken for the cause mentioned in the second subdivision of section three hundred and twenty-nine. But on the trial of such challenge, although it should appear that the juror challenged has formed or expressed an opinion upon what he may have heard or read, such opinion shall not of itself be sufficient to sustain the challenge, but the court must be satisfied, from all the circumstances, that the juror cannot disregard such opinion and try the issue impartially. [L. '69, p. 53, § 217; Cd. '81, § 213; 2 H. C., § 346.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 104; 8 Wash. 15; 14 Wash. 411.

§ 322. Exemption not Cause of Challenge.—An exemption from service on a jury shall not be cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted. [L. '69, p. 53, § 218; Cd. '81, § 214; 2 H. C., § 347.]

§ 333. Peremptory Challenges, How Taken.—The jurors having been examined as to their qualifications, first by the plaintiff and then by the defendant, and passed for cause, the peremptory challenges shall be conducted as follows, to wit:—

The plaintiff may challenge one, and then the defendant may challenge one, and so alternately until the peremptory challenges shall be exhausted. The panel being filled and passed for cause, after said challenge shall have been made by either party, a refusal to challenge by either party in the said order of alternation shall not defeat the adverse party of his full number of challenges, but such refusal on the part of the plaintiff to exercise his challenge in proper turn shall conclude him as to the jurors once accepted by him, and if his right be not exhausted, his further challenges shall be confined, in his proper turn, to talesmen only. [L. '69, p. 53, § 219; Cd. '81, § 215; 2 H. C., § 348.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 305, 307; 15 Wash. 203; 29 Wash. 462.

§ 334. Order of Taking Challenges.—The challenges of either party shall be taken separately, in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class:—

1. For general disqualification;
2. For implied bias;
3. For actual bias;
4. Peremptory. [L. '69, p. 53, § 220; Cd. '81, §.216; 2 H. C., § 349.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 141.

§ 335. Trial and Exceptions to Challenges.—The challenge may be excepted to by the adverse party for insufficiency, and if so, the court shall determine the sufficiency thereof, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true. The challenge may be denied by the adverse party, and if so, the court shall try the issue, and determine the law and the facts. [L. '69, p. 53, § 221; Cd. '81, § 217; 2 H. C., § 350.]

§ 336. Trial of Challenge—Rules Governing.—Upon the trial of a challenge, the rules of evidence applicable to testimony offered upon the trial of an ordinary issue of fact shall govern. The juror challenged, or any other person otherwise competent, may be examined as a witness by either party. If a challenge be determined to be sufficient, or found to be true, as the case may be, it shall be allowed, and the juror to whom it was taken excluded; but if determined or found otherwise, it shall be disallowed. [L. '69, p. 54, § 222; Cd. '81, § 218; 2 H. C., § 351.]

§ 337. Challenge, Exception and Denial may be Oral.—The challenge, the exception, and the denial may be made orally. The judge of the court shall note the same upon his minutes, and the substance of the testimony on either side. [L. '69, p. 54, § 233; Cd. '81, § 219; 2 H. C., § 352.]

§ 338. Oath of Jurors.—As soon as the number of the jury has been completed, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to the jurors, in substance, that they and each of them will well and truly try the matter in issue between the plaintiff and defendant, and a true verdict give, according to the law and evidence as given them on the trial. [L. '69, p. 54, § 224; Cd. '81, § 220; 2 H. C., § 353.]

See infra, § 2143, oath to jury in criminal cases.

§ 339. Manner of Conducting Trials—Charging Jury.—When a jury has been sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following manner:

(1) The plaintiff shall briefly state the cause of action and the evidence by which he expects to sustain it. The defendant may in like manner state the defense, and the evidence he expects to offer in support thereof, but nothing in the nature of comments or argument shall be allowed in opening a case. It shall be optional with the defendant whether he states his case before or after the close of the plaintiff's evidence.

(2) The plaintiff, or the party upon whom rests the burden of proof in the whole action, must first produce his evidence; the adverse party will then produce his evidence.

(3) The parties then will be confined to rebutting evidence, unless the court shall consider that justice requires that evidence in the original case may then be offered.

(4) The court must reduce the charge to be given the jury to writing, and at the conclusion of the evidence he shall read his written charge to the jury. Either party may request such instructions as he deems material to the case, and the court may hear them upon the propriety of the requested instructions before finally settling the charge that he will give. If a stenographer shall be in attendance upon the trial of the cause, the court shall have the right to dictate the charge he desires to give to such stenographer, and to have the stenographer reduce the same to writing for him and a copy for each of the parties plaintiff and defendant. And the cost thereof shall be taxed as other costs in the action. When the charge shall have been given by the court, the plaintiff, or party having the burden of proof, may, by himself, or one counsel, address the court and jury upon the law and facts in the case, after which the adverse party may address the court and jury in like manner, by himself and one counsel or by two counsel, and be followed by the party or counsel of the party first addressing the court. No more than two speeches on behalf of the plaintiff or defendant shall be allowed. After the argument shall have been concluded, the jury shall retire to consider their verdict, and shall take with them to the jury-room, among other matters proper to be taken to their jury-room for further consideration by them, the written charge given them by the court. Either party, at any time before the hearing of a motion for a new trial may except to the instructions given by the court, or any part thereof. [L. '09, p. 184, § 1. Cf. L. '69, p. 54, § 225; Cd. '81, § 221; 2 H. C., § 354; L. '03, p. 119, § 1.]

§ 341. Special Findings.—Any party may, when the evidence is closed, submit in distinct and concise propositions the conclusions of fact which he claims to be established, or the conclusions of law which he desires to be adjudged, or both. They may be written, and handed to the court, or, at the option of the court, oral, and entered in the judge's minutes. [L. '69, p. 56, § 226; Cd. '81, § 22; 2 H. C., § 355.]

§ 342. Court to Decide What During Trial.—All questions of law, including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admission, and the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the court, and all discussions of law addressed to it. [L. '69, p. 56, § 227; Cd. '81, § 223; 2 H. C., § 356.]

Cited in 81 Wash. 681; 82 Wash. 622.

§ 343. Jury to Decide All Questions of Fact.—All questions of fact, other than those mentioned in the section preceding, shall be decided by the jury, and all evidence thereon addressed to them. [L. '69, p. 56, § 228; Cd. '81, § 224; 2 H. C., § 357.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 325; 81 Wash. 681; 82 Wash. 622.

§ 344. View by Jury of Premises.—Whenever in the opinion of the court it is proper that the jury should have a view of real property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of a proper officer, to the place, which shall be shown to them by the judge, or by a person appointed by the court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent, no person other than the judge, or person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial. [L. '69, p. 56, § 229; Cd. '81, § 225; 2 H. C., § 358.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 245; 66 Wash. 26; 71 Wash. 648.

§ 345. Admonitions to Jury.—The jurors [may be kept together in charge of a proper officer, or may, in the discretion of the court, at any time before the submission of the cause to them, be permitted to separate; in either case they] may be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with any other person, or among themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, or to express any opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them. [L. '69, p. 56, § 230; Cd. '81, § 226; 2 H. C., § 359.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 45; 19 Wash. 275.
Superseded as to the bracketed words.
See infra, § 2159, prohibition against separation in criminal cases.

§ 347. Proceedings in Case Juror Becomes Ill.—If after the formation of the jury, and before verdict, a juror become sick so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged. In that case, unless the parties agree to proceed with the other jurors, a new juror may be sworn and the trial begin anew; or the jury may be discharged and a new jury then or afterward formed. [L. '69, p. 56, § 231; Cd. '81, § 227; 2 H. C., § 360.]

§ 348. Juror as Witness.—A juror may be examined by either party as a witness, if he be otherwise competent. If he be not so examined, he shall not communicate any private knowledge or information that he may have of the matter in controversy to his fellow jurors, nor be governed by the same in giving his verdict. [L. '69, p. 57, § 232; '81, § 228; 2 H. C., § 361.]

§ 349. Care of Jury While Deliberating.—After hearing the charge, the jury may either decide in the jury-box or retire for deliberation.

If they retire, they must be kept together in a room provided for them, or some other convenient place, under the charge of one or more officers, until they agree upon their verdict, or are discharged by the court. The officer shall, to the best of his ability, keep the jury thus separate from other persons, without drink, except water, and without food, except ordered by the court. He must not suffer any communication to be made to them, nor make any himself, unless by order of the court, except to ask them if they have agreed upon their verdict, and he shall not, before the verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon. [L. '54, p. 166, § 194; L. '69, p. 57, § 233; Cd. '81, § 229; 2 H. C., § 362.]

§ 350. Expenses of Keeping Jury.—If, while the jury are kept together, either during the progress of the trial or after their retirement for deliberation, the court order them to be provided with suitable and sufficient food and lodging, they shall be so provided by the sheriff, at the expense of the county. [L. '69, p. 57, § 234; Cd. '81, § 230; 2 H. C., § 363.]

§ 351. Jury may Take Certain Papers.—Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with them the pleadings in the cause, and all papers which have been received as evidence on the trial (except depositions), or copies of such parts of public records or private documents given in evidence as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession. [L. '54, p. 166, § 195; L. '69, p. 57, § 235; Cd. '81, § 231; 2 H. C., § 364.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 72; 33 Wash. 359; 52 Wash. 136; 53 Wash. 540.

§ 352. Jury may have Further Instructions, When. — After the jury have retired for deliberation, if they desire to be informed of any point of law arising in the case, they may require the officer having them in charge to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court the information required shall be given in the presence of or after notice to the parties or their attorneys. [Cf. L. '54, p. 166, § 196; L. '69, p. 57, § 236; Cd. '81, § 232; L. '91, p. 103, § 1; 2 H. C., § 365.]

§ 353. Discharge of Jury Without Verdict.—The jury may be discharged by the court on account of the sickness of a juror, or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or by consent of both parties, or after they have been kept together until it satisfactorily appears that there is no probability of their agreeing. [L. '69, p. 58, § 237; Cd. '81, § 233; 2 H. C., § 366.]

Cited in 28 Wash. 622; 29 Wash. 368; 54 Wash. 497.

§ 354. If Jury Discharged, Cause Continued for Trial.—In all cases where a jury are discharged or prevented from giving a verdict, by reason of accident or other cause, during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the action shall thereafter be for trial anew. [Cf. L. '69, p. 58, § 238; Cd. '81, § 234; L. '91, p. 104, § 2; 2 H. C., § 367.]

Cited in 28 Wash. 622.

§ 355. Recess of Court While Jury are Deliberating.—While the jury are absent the court may adjourn from time to time, in respect to other business, but it is nevertheless to be deemed open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to the jury until a verdict is rendered or the jury discharged. [Cf. L. '54, p. 166, § 197; L. '69, p. 58, § 239; Cd. '81, § 235; 2 H. C., § 368.]

§ 356. Proceedings When Jury have Agreed.—When the jury have agreed upon their verdict they shall be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names shall then be called, and if all do not appear, the rest shall be discharged without giving a verdict. [L. '69, p. 58, § 240; Cd. '81, § 236; 2 H. C., § 369.]

§ 357. Manner of Giving Verdict.—If the jury appear, they shall be asked by the court or the clerk whether they have agreed upon their verdict, and if the foreman answer in the affirmative, he shall, on being required, declare the same. [L. '69, p. 58, § 241; Cd. '81, § 237; 2 H. C., § 370.]

§ 358. Ten Jurors may Render Verdict in Civil Cases.—In all trials by juries of twelve in the superior court, except criminal trials, when ten of the jurors agree upon a verdict, the verdict so agreed upon shall be signed by the foreman, and the verdict shall stand as the verdict of the whole jury, and have all the force and effect of a verdict agreed to by twelve jurors. [L. '95, p. 59, § 1; Const., Art. I, § 21.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 441.

§ 359. Jury may be Polled.—When the verdict is returned into court either party may poll the jury, and if ten of the jurors answer that it is the verdict said verdict shall stand. In case ten of the jurors do not answer in the affirmative the jury shall be returned to the jury-room for further deliberation. [L. '95, p. 59, § 2.]

Cited in 35 Wash. 542; 75 Wash. 572.

§ 360. Correction of Informal Verdict.—If the verdict be informal or insufficient, it may be corrected by the jury under the advice of the court, or the jury may again be sent out. [Cf. L. '69, p. 58, § 242; Cd. '81, § 238; 2 H. C., § 371; the first clause of this section is repealed by L. '95, p. 59, § 2.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 346; 17 Wash. 563.

§ 361. Receiving Verdict and Discharging Jury.—When the verdict is given, and is such as the court may receive, and if no juror disagree or the jury be not again sent out, the clerk shall file the verdict. The verdict is then complete, and the jury shall be discharged from the case. The verdict shall be in writing, and under the direction of the court shall be substantially entered in the journal as of the day's proceedings on which it was given. [L. '69, p. 59, § 243; Cd. '81, § 239; 2 H. C., § 372.]

CHAPTER III.

The Verdict.

§ 362. General and Special Verdict, Defined.—The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which the jury pronounces generally upon all or any of the issues either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant. A special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court. [L. '54, p. 167, § 198; Cd. '81, § 240; 2 H. C., § 373.]

Cited in 84 Wash. 413.

§ 363. Verdict in Actions for Specific Personal Property.—In an action for the recovery of specific personal property, if the property has not been delivered to the plaintiff, or the defendant by his answer claim a return thereof, the jury shall assess the value of the property if their verdict be in favor of the plaintiff; or if they find in favor of the defendant, and that he is entitled to a return thereof, they may at the same time assess the damages, if any are claimed in the complaint or answer, which the prevailing party has sustained by reason of the detention or taking and withholding such property. [L. '54, p. 167, § 199; Cd. '81, § 241; 2 H. C., § 374.]

§ 364. Rendition of General or Special Verdict, When.—In every action for the recovery of money only, or specific real property, the jury, in their discretion, may render a general or special verdict. In all other cases, the court may direct the jury to find a special verdict in writing upon all or any of the issues, and in all cases may instruct them, if they render a general verdict, to find upon particular questions of fact to be stated in writing, and may direct a written finding thereon. The special verdict or finding shall be filed with the clerk and entered in the minutes. [L. '54, p. 167, § 200; Cd. '81, § 242; 2 H. C., § 375.]

§ 365. Special Verdict Controls.—When a special finding of facts shall be inconsistent with the general verdict, the former shall control the latter, and the court shall give judgment accordingly. [L. '54, p. 167, § 201; Cd. '81, § 243; 2 H. C., § 376.]

§ 366. Jury to Assess Amount of Recovery.—When a verdict is found for the plaintiff in an action for the recovery of money, or for the defendant when a setoff for the recovery of money is established beyond the amount of the plaintiff's claim as established, the jury shall also assess the amount of the recovery; they may also, under the direction of the court, assess the amount of the recovery when the court gives judgment for the plaintiff on the pleadings. [Cf. L. '54, p. 167, § 202; Cd. '81, § 244; L. '91, p. 104, § 3; 2 H. C., § 377.]

CHAPTER IV.

Trial by the Court.

§ 367. Findings and Conclusions, How Made.—Upon the trial of an issue of fact by the court, its decisions shall be given in writing and filed with the clerk. In giving the decision, the facts found and the conclusions of law shall be separately stated. Judgment upon the decision shall be entered accordingly. [L. '54, p. 168, § 205; Cd. '81, § 246; 2 H. C., § 379.]

§ 368. Order of Proceedings—Findings Deemed Verdict.—The order of proceedings on a trial by the court shall be the same as provided in trials by jury. The finding of the court upon the facts shall be deemed a verdict, and may be set aside in the same manner and for the same reason, as far as applicable, and a new trial granted. [L. '69, p. 60, § 251; Cd. '81, § 247; 2 H. C., § 380.]

CHAPTER V.

Trial by Referees.

§ 369. Reference by Consent.—All or any of the issues in the action, whether of fact or law, or both, may be referred upon the written consent of the parties; but either party shall have the right in an action at law, upon an issue of fact, to demand a trial by jury. [Cf. L. '54, p. 168, § 206; Cd. '81, § 248; 2 H. C., § 381.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 405; 16 Wash. 385.

§ 370. Reference Without Consent, When.—When the parties do not consent, the court or judge may, upon the application of either [or of its own motion], direct a reference in all cases formerly cognizable in chancery in which reference might be made:—

1. When the trial of an issue of fact shall require the examination of a long account on either side, in which case the referees may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or to report upon any specific question of fact involved therein; or

2. When the taking of an account shall be necessary for the information of the court, before judgment upon an issue of law, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect; or

3. When a question of fact, other than upon the pleadings, shall arise, upon motion or otherwise, in any stage of the action; or

4. When it is necessary for the information of the court in a special proceeding. [L. '54, p. 168, § 207; Cd. '81, § 249; 2 H. C., 382.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 585.

§ 371. To Whom Reference may be Ordered.—A reference may be ordered to any person or persons, not exceeding three, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree, the court or judge may appoint one or more, not exceeding three. [L. '54, p. 168, § 208; L. '69, p. 61, § 254; Cd. '81, § 250; 2 H. C., § 383.]

§ 372. Qualifications of Referees.—When the appointment of referees is made by the court or judge, each referee shall be,—

1. Qualified as a juror as provided by statute;

2. Competent as juror between the parties;

3. A duly admitted and practicing attorney. [L. '54, p. 169, § 209; Cd. '81, § 251; 2 H. C., § 384.]

§ 373. Challenges to Referees.—When the referees are chosen by the court, each party shall have the same right of challenge as to such referees, which shall be made and determined in the same manner and with like effect as in the formation of juries, except that neither party shall be entitled to a peremptory challenge. [L. '69, § 256; Cd. '81, § 252; 2 H. C., § 385.]

§ 374. Trial by Referees.—Subject to the limitations and directions prescribed in the order of reference, the trial by referees shall be conducted in the same manner as a trial by the court. They shall have the same power to grant adjournments, administer oaths, preserve order, punish all violations thereof upon such trial, compel the attendance of witnesses, and to punish them for nonattendance or refusal to be sworn or testify, as is possessed by the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 169, § 210; L. '69, p. 62, § 257; Cd. '81, § 253; 2 H. C., § 386.]

§ 375. Referee's Report Shall Contain What.—The report of the referees shall state the facts found, and when the order of reference includes an issue of law, it shall state the conclusions of law separately from the facts. The referees shall file with their report the evidence received upon the trial. If evidence offered by either party shall not be admitted on the trial, and the party offering the same except to the decision rejecting such evidence at the time, the exceptions shall be noted by the referees, and they shall take and receive such testimony and file it with the report. Whatever judgment the court may give upon the report, it shall, when it appears that such evidence was frivolous and inadmissible, require the party at whose instance it was taken and reported to pay all costs and disbursements thereby incurred. [Cf. L. '54, p. 169, 210; L. '69, p. 62, § 258; Cd. '81, § 254; 2 H. C., § 387.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 471; 7 Wash. 123.

§ 376. Filing Report and Proceedings Thereon.—The report shall be filed with the clerk. Either party may, within such time as may be prescribed by the rules of the court, or by special order, move to set the same aside, or for judgment thereon, or such order or proceeding as the nature of the case may require. [Cf. L. '69, p. 62, § 259; Cd. '81, § 255; 2 H. C., § 388.]

§ 377. Judgment on Referee's Report.—The court may affirm or set aside the report, either in whole or in part. If it affirms the report, it shall give judgment accordingly. If the report be set aside, either in whole or in part, the court may make another order of reference, as to all or so much of the report as is set aside, to the original referees or others, or it may find the facts and determine the law itself and give judgment accordingly. Upon a motion to set aside a report, the conclusions thereof shall be deemed and considered as the verdict of the jury. [L. '69, p. 62, § 260; Cd. '81, § 256; 2 H. C., § 389.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 405, 407; 2 Wash. 341; 5 Wash. 731.

CHAPTER VI.

Agreed Cases.

§ 378. Submission of Controversies Without Action.—Parties to a question in difference which might be the subject of a civil action may, without action, agree upon a case containing the facts upon which the controversy depends, and present a submission of the same to any court which would have jurisdiction if an action had been brought. But it must appear by affidavit that the controversy is real, and the proceedings in good faith to determine the rights of the parties. The court shall thereupon hear and determine the case and render judgment thereon as if an action were pending. [L. '69, p. 73, § 300; Cd. '81, § 298; 2 H. C., § 421.]

Cited in 33 Wash. 540; 77 Wash. 496, 499.

§ 379. Judgment as in Other Cases.—Judgment shall be entered in the judgment-book as in other cases, but without costs for any proceedings prior to the trial. The case, the submission, and a copy of the judgment shall constitute the judgment-roll. [L. '69, p. 74, § 301; Cd. '81, § 299; 2 H. C., § 422.]

§ 380. Judgments Enforced as in Other Cases.—The judgment may be enforced in the same manner as if it had been rendered in an action, and shall be in the same manner subject to appeal. [L. '69, p. 74, § 302; Cd. '81, § 300; 2 H. C., § 423.]

CHAPTER VII.

Exceptions.

§ 381. Definition.—An exception is a claim of error in a ruling or decision of a court, judge or other tribunal, or officer exercising judicial functions, made in the course of an action or proceeding or after judgment therein. [L. '93, p. 111, § 1.]

For former laws on the subject of this chapter, see L. '54, p. 169, §§ 211–214; L. '77, §§ 261–267; Cd. '81, §§ 257–263; L. '85, pp. 70–73, §§ 1–8; L. '90, p. 333; L. '91, p. 348, §§ 25–27; 2 H. C., §§ 390–398.

§ 382. When to be Taken.—It shall not be necessary or proper to take or enter an exception to any ruling or decision mentioned in the last section which is embodied in a written judgment, order or journal entry in the cause. But this section shall not apply to the report of a referee or commissioner, or to findings of fact or conclusions of law in a report or decision of a referee or commissioner, or in a decision of a court or judge upon a cause or part of a cause, either legal or equitable, tried without a jury. [L. '93, p. 112, § 2.]

§ 383. Manner of Taking in Cases Tried by Court.—Exceptions to the report of a referee or commissioner, or to findings of fact or conclusions of law in a report or decision of a referee or commissioner, or in a decision of a court or judge upon a cause or part of a cause, either legal or equitable, tried without a jury, may be taken by any party, either by stating to the judge, referee or commissioner when the report or decision is signed, that such party excepts to the same, specifying the part or parts excepted to (whereupon the judge, referee or commissioner, shall note the exceptions in the margin or at the foot of the report or decision); or by filing like written exceptions within five days after the filing of the report or decision, or, where the report or decision is signed subsequently to the hearing and in the absence of the party excepting, within five days after the service on such party of a copy of such report or decision or of written notice of the filing thereof. § 384. Manner of Taking in Jury Cases.—Exceptions to a charge to a jury, or to a refusal to give as a part of such charge instructions requested in writing, may be taken by any party by stating to the court, after the jury shall have retired to consider of their verdict, and, if practicable, before the verdict has been returned, that such party excepts to the same, specifying by numbers of paragraphs or otherwise the parts of the charge excepted to, and the requested instructions the refusal to give which is excepted to; whereupon the judge shall note the exceptions in the minutes of the trial, or cause the stenographer (if one is in attendance) so to note the same. § 385. How Entered in Minutes.—Exceptions to any ruling upon an objection to the admission of evidence, offered in the course of a trial or hearing, need not be formally taken, but the question put or other offer of evidence, together with the objection thereto and the ruling thereon, shall be entered by the court, judge, referee or commissioner (or by the stenographer, if one is in attendance) in the minutes of the trial or hearing, and such entry shall import an exception by the party against whom the ruling was made. [L. '93, p. 112, § 5.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 354; 52 Wash. 183.

§ 386. Manner of Taking and Entry.—Exceptions to any ruling or decision made in the course of a trial or hearing, or in the progress of a cause, except those to which it is provided in this chapter that no exception need be taken and those to which some other mode of exception is in this chapter prescribed, may be taken by any party by stating to the court, judge, referee or commissioner making the ruling or decision, when the same is made, that such party excepts to the same; whereupon such court, judge, referee or commissioner shall note the exception in the minutes of the trial, hearing or cause, or shall cause the stenographer (if one is in attendance) so to note the same. [L. '93, p. 113, § 6.]

§ 387. Review on Appeal.—Alleged error in any order, ruling or decision to which it is provided in this chapter that no exception need be taken, or in any report, finding of fact, conclusion of law, charge, refusal to charge, or other ruling or decision which shall have been excepted to by any party as prescribed in this chapter, shall be reviewed by the supreme court, upon an appeal taken by the party against whom any such ruling or decision was made, or in which he has joined, from any other appealable order or from the final judgment in the cause, where such error, if found to exist, would materially affect the correctness of the judgment or order appealed from: Provided, the ruling or decision, the alleged error in which is sought to be so reviewed, together with the exception thereto, if any, was a matter of record in the cause in the first instance, or before the hearing of the appeal has been brought into the record in the manner prescribed in this chapter. And any such alleged error shall also be considered in the court wherein or by a judge whereof the same was committed, upon the hearing and decision of a motion for a new trial, a motion for judgment notwithstanding a verdict, or a motion to set aside a referee's report or decision, made by a party against whom the ruling or decision to be reviewed was made, whether the alleged erroneous ruling or decision is a part of the record or not, where the alleged error, if found to exist, would materially affect the decision of the motion. But no exception to any appealable order or to any final judgment shall be necessary or proper in order to secure a review of such order or judgment upon direct appeal therefrom. [L. '93, p. 113, § 7.]

§ 388. Bill of Exceptions, What Constitutes.—Any party to any action or proceeding may, at any stage thereof, have any rulings or decisions of the court, or a judge, referee or commissioner thereof, in the cause, together with the necessary evidence, papers or proceedings connected therewith or on which the same were based, and the exceptions thereto, if any, not already a part of the record in the cause, or so much of all or any thereof as is not already a part of the record, made a part of the record in the cause, by the certifying of a bill of exceptions as in this chapter provided. And any such party may, after the making of an appealable order or the final judgment in the cause, have all rulings, decisions, evidence, papers, proceedings and exceptions in the cause, or so much thereof as may be material to an appeal from such appealable order or from the final judgment, as the case may be, not already a part of the record, made a part of the record in the cause by the certifying of a statement of facts, as in this chapter provided. The certifying of a bill of exceptions or statement of facts shall not prevent the subsequent certifying of other bills of exceptions or statements of facts, or both, con-

prising other matters in the cause, at the instance of the same or another party; but only one bill of exceptions or statement of facts can be settled or certified after the rendition of the final judgment in the cause. [L. '93, p. 114, § 8.]

§ 389. Bill of Exceptions—Amendments—Notice to Settle.—A party desiring to have a bill of exceptions or statement of facts certified must prepare the same as proposed by him, file it in the cause and serve a copy thereof on the adverse party, and shall also serve written notice of the filing thereof on any other party who has appeared in the cause. Within ten days after such service any other party may file and serve on the proposing party, any amendments which he may propose to the bill or statement. Either party may then serve upon the other a written notice that he will apply to the judge of the court before whom the cause is pending or was tried, at a time and place specified, the time to be not less than three nor more than ten days after service of the notice, to settle and certify the bill or statement; and at such time and place, or at any other time or place specified in an adjournment made by order or stipulation, the judge shall settle and certify the bill or statement. If the judge is absent at the time named in a notice or fixed by adjournment, a new notice may be served. If no amendment shall be served within the time aforesaid, the proposed bill or statement shall be deemed agreed to and shall be certified by the judge at the instance of either party, at any time, without notice to any other party on proof being filed of its service, and that no amendments have been proposed; and if amendments be proposed and excepted [accepted], the bill or statement as so amended shall likewise be certified on proof being filed of its service and the service and acceptance of the amendments. § 390. How Written Evidence Certified.—Depositions and other written evidence on file shall be appropriately referred to in the proposed bill or statement, and when it is certified the same or copies thereof, if the judge so direct, shall be attached to the bill or state-

§ 391. Certificate, What to Contain—How Signed.—The judge shall certify that the matters and proceedings embodied in the bill or statement, as the case may be, are matters and proceedings occurring in the cause and that the same are thereby made a part of the record therein; and, when such is the fact, he shall further certify that the same contains all the material facts, matters and proceedings heretofore occurring in the cause and not already a part of the record therein, or (as the case may be) such thereof as the parties have agreed, to be all that are material therein. The certificate shall be signed by the judge, but need not be sealed; and thereupon all the matters and proceedings embodied in the bill of exceptions or statement of facts, as the case may be, shall become and thenceforth remain a part of the record in the cause, for all the purposes thereof and of any appeal therein. The judge may correct or supplement his certificate according to the fact, at any time before an appeal is heard. And if the judge refuse to settle or certify a bill of exceptions or statement of facts, or to correct or supplement his certificate thereto, in a proper case, he may be compelled so to do by a mandate issued out of the supreme court, either pending an appeal or prior thereto. § 392. How Certified upon Change or Death of Judge.—If the judge before whom the cause was pending or tried shall from any cause have ceased to be such judge he shall, notwithstanding, settle and certify, as the late judge, any bill of exceptions or statement of facts that it would be proper for him to settle and certify if he were still such judge, and such acts on his part shall have the same effect as if he were still in office; and he may be compelled by mandate so to do, as if still in office. If such judge shall die or remove from the state while in office or afterward, within the time which a bill of exceptions or statement of facts, in a cause that was pending or tried before him, might be settled and certified under the provisions of this chapter, and before having certified such bill or statement, such bill or statement may be settled by stipulation of the parties with the same effect as if duly settled and certified by such judge while still in office. But if the parties cannot agree, and if such judge, when removed from the state, does not attend within the state and settle and certify a bill of exceptions or statement of facts in case one has been duly proposed, his successor in office shall settle and certify such bill or statement in the manner in this chapter provided, and in so doing he shall be guided, so far as practicable, by the minutes taken by his predecessor in office, or by the stenographer, if one was in attendance on the court or judge, and may, in order to determine any disputed matter not sufficiently appearing upon such minutes, examine under oath the attorneys in the cause who were present at the trial or hearing, or any of them. [L. '93, p. 116, § 12.]

§ 393. When to be Filed—Effect of Irregularity.—A proposed bill of exceptions or statement of facts must be filed and served either before or within thirty days after the time begins to run within which an appeal may be taken from the final judgment in the cause, or (as the case may be) from an order with a view to an appeal from which the bill or statement is proposed: Provided, that the time herein prescribed may be enlarged either before or after its expiration, once or more, but not for more than sixty days additional in all, by stipulation of the parties, or for good cause shown and on such terms as may be just, by an order of the court or judge wherein or before whom the cause is pending or was tried, made on notice to the adverse party. And the certifying of a bill of exceptions or statement of facts provided for by this chapter, and the filing and service of the proposed bill or statement, the notice of application for the settlement thereof, and all other steps and proceedings leading up to the making of the certificate, shall be deemed steps and proceedings in the cause itself, resting upon the jurisdiction originally acquired by the court in the cause, and no irregularity or failure to pursue the steps prescribed by this chapter on the part of any party, or the judge, shall affect the jurisdiction of the judge to settle or certify a proper bill of exceptions or statement of facts. § 394. Return of Bill—Extension of Time for Brief.—The copy of a proposed bill or statement which is served as in this chapter prescribed, shall be returned to the party serving the same upon the bill or statement being certified, if he has appealed to the supreme court, or upon his thereafter appealing, for his use in preparing his brief on the appeal, and the time limited by any law or rule of court for the service and filing of his brief shall be enlarged by any delay in returning such copy as herein required to the extent of such delay; and when he served his brief he shall return such copy to the party on whom it was originally served, and his brief shall not be deemed served till such copy is so returned by him. § 395. What Shall be Part of Record.—All reports of referees or commissioners, with the testimony and other evidence returned into court therewith, all findings of fact and conclusions of law made in writing by a judge, referee or commissioner and signed by him, all charges to a jury made wholly in writing, all instructions requested in writing to be given as part of a charge, all verdicts, general or special, and all rulings and decisions embodied in a written judgment, order or journal entry in the cause, together with all exceptions, if any, taken to any thereof, as well as all papers and matters hitherto deemed a part of the record, shall be deemed and are hereby declared to become, upon being filed in the cause, or, as the case may be, embodied in a journal entry, a part of the record in the cause, for all the purposes thereof and of any appeal therein; and it shall not be necessary or proper, for any purpose, to embody the same in any bill of exceptions or statement of facts. § 396. How Certified When Cases Consolidated.—When two or more causes shall have been consolidated it shall not be necessary, for any purposes of an appeal which concerns only one or more, and not all of the original causes, to embody in a bill of exceptions or statement of facts any fact, matter or proceeding that relates solely to an original cause with which the appeal is not concerned; and the bill or statement shall be certified as in this act prescribed, notwithstanding the omission therefrom of such facts, matters and proceedings. [L. '93, p. 118, § 16.]

and all criminal causes, in the superior courts, but shall not apply to courts of justices of the peace or other inferior courts or tribunals from which an appeal does not lie directly to the supreme court. This chapter shall govern proceedings had after it shall take effect, in actions then pending as well as those in actions thereafter begun; but it shall not affect any right acquired or proceeding had prior to the time when it shall take effect, nor restore any right or enlarge any time then already lost or expired. And except as above provided all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. [L. '93, p. 118, §§ 17, 18.]

§ 399. When New Trial may be Granted.—The former verdict or other decision may be vacated and a new trial granted, on the motion of the party aggrieved, for any of the following causes materiaHy affecting the substantial rights of such party:

1. Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury or adverse party, or any order of the court, or abuse of discretion, by which such party was prevented from having a fair trial;

2. Misconduct of prevailing party or jury; and whenever any one or more of the jurors shall have been induced to assent to any general or special verdict to a finding on any question or questions submitted to the jury by the court, other and different from his own conclusions, and arrived at by a resort to the determination of chance or lot, such misconduct may be proved by the affidavits of one or more of the jurors;

3. Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

4. Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial;

5. Excessive or inadequate damages appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice;

6. Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery, whether too large or too small, when the action is upon a contract, or for the injury or detention of property;

7. Insufficiency of the evidence to justify the verdict or the decision, or that it is against law;

8. Error in law occurring at the trial and excepted to at the time by the party making the application. [L. '09, p. 53, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 170, § 216; L. '69, p. 67, § 278; Cd. '81, § 276; 2 H. C., § 400.]

§ 400. Specification of Grounds for New Trial.—In no case of motion for a new trial hereafter made in the courts of this state shall it be necessary to specify the grounds thereof, otherwise than in the language of the last preceding section, specifying the grounds upon which a motion for a new trial may be made. [L. '88, p. 30, § 1; 2 H. C., § 401.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 21.

§ 401. When Affidavits may be Used.—The motion for a new trial shall state the grounds or causes for which a new trial is asked, and if made for any of the causes mentioned in the first, second, third, or fourth subdivision of section 399, the facts upon which it is based may be shown by affidavit. [Cd. '81, § 278; 2 H. C., § 403.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 562; 75 Wash. 433, 435; 82 Wash. 486.

§ 402. Notice and Motion, Practice.—The party moving for a new trial must, within two days after the verdict of a jury, if the action was tried by a jury, or two days after notice in writing of the decision of the court or referee, if the action was tried without a jury, file with the clerk, and serve upon the adverse party, his motion for a new trial, designating the grounds upon which it will be made. If the motion is made upon affidavits, the moving party must, within two days after serving the motion, or such further time as the court in which the action is pending, or the judge thereof may allow, file such affidavits with the clerk, and serve a copy thereof upon the adverse party, who shall have two days to file counter affidavits, or such further time as the court may allow, a copy of which must be served upon the moving party. [Cf. L. '69, p. 68, § 282; Cd. '81, §§ 279, 280; L. '91, p. 102, § 1; 2 H. C., § 404; L. '97, p. 13, § 1.]

§ 403. What Affidavits for Motion must Show.—If the motion be supported by affidavits, and the cause be newly discovered evidence, the affidavits of any witness or witnesses, showing what their testimony will be, shall be produced, or good reasons shown for their nonproduction. [L. '54, p. 170, § 219; L. '69, p. 68, § 284; Cd. '81, § 282; L. '91, p. 103, § 2; 2 H. C., § 405.]

CHAPTER X.

Judgment of Nonsuit.

§ 408. Judgment of Dismissal or Nonsuit, When Granted.—An action may be dismissed, or a judgment of nonsuit entered, in the following cases:—

1. By the plaintiff himself, at any time before the jury retire to consider their verdict, unless setoff be interposed as a defense, or unless the defendant sets up a counterclaim to the specific property or thing which is the subject matter of the action;

2. By either party, upon the written consent of the other;

3. By the court, when the plaintiff fails to appear on trial, and the defendant appears and asks for a dismissal;

4. By the court, when, upon the trial and before the final submission of [the] case, the plaintiff abandons it;

5. By the court, on the refusal or neglect of the plaintiff to make the necessary parties, after having been ordered by the court;

6. By the court, on the application of some of the defendants, where there are others whom the plaintiff fails to prosecute with diligence;

7. By the court, for disobedience of the plaintiff to an order concerning the proceedings in the action;

8. By the court, upon motion of the defendant, when, upon the trial, the plaintiff fails to prove a sufficient cause for the jury. [L. '54, p. 171, § 223; Cd. '81, § 286; 2 H. C., § 409.]

CHAPTER XI.

Judgment by Default.

§ 411. Judgment for Failure to Answer.—Judgment may be had if the defendant fail to answer to the complaint, as follows:—

1. In any action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, the plaintiff may file with the clerk proof of personal service of the summons and complaint on one or more of the defendants. The court shall thereupon enter judgment for the amount claimed against the defendant or defendants, or against one or more of the several defendants, in the cases provided for in section 236. Where the defendant, by his answer, in any such action, shall not deny the plaintiff's claim, but shall set up a counterclaim amounting to less than the plaintiff's claim, judgment may be had by the plaintiff for the excess of said claim over the said counterclaim;

2. In other actions the plaintiff may, upon the like proof, apply to the court after the expiration of the time for answering, for the relief demanded in the complaint. If the taking of an account or of the proof of any fact be necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or to carry the judgment into effect, the court may take the account or hear the proof, or may, in its discretion, order a reference for that purpose. Where the action is for the recovery of damages, in whole or in part, the court may order the damages to be assessed by a jury; or if to determine the amount of damages the examination of a long account be necessary, by a reference as above provided. If the defendant give notice of appearance in the action before the expiration of the time for answering, he shall be entitled to five days' notice of the time and place of application to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint;

3. In [an] action where the service of the summons was by publication, the plaintiff, upon the expiration of the time for answering, may, upon proof of service by publication, apply for judgment; and the court must thereupon require proof of the demand mentioned in the complaint, and must require the plaintiff or his agent to be examined on oath respecting any payments that have been made to the plaintiff, or to anyone for his use on account of such demand, and may render judgment for the amount which he is entitled to recover, or for such other relief as he may be entitled to. [Cf. L. '54, p. 171, § 225; L. '69, p. 70, § 291; L. '77, p. 59, § 293; Cd. '81, § 289; 2 H. C., § 412.]

See supra, § 278, judgment for failure to plead to new matter.
See infra, § 1230, judgment for failure to answer interrogatories.

§ 412. Court may Set Aside Default.—The court may, in its discretion, before final judgment, set aside any default, upon affidavit showing good and sufficient cause, and upon such terms as may be deemed reasonable. [L. '54, p. 171, § 225, subd. 4; L. '69, p. 72, § 292; Cd. '81, § 290; 2 H. C., § 413.]

CHAPTER XII.

Judgment by Confession.

§ 413. When Judgment may be Given on Confession.—On the confession of the defendant, with the assent of the plaintiff or his attorney, judgment may be given against the defendant in any action, before or after answer, for any amount or relief not exceeding or different from that demanded in the complaint. [Cf. L. '54, pp. 172, 173, §§ 226–228; L. '69, p. 72, § 293; Cd. '81, § 291; 2 H. C., § 414.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 501.

§ 414. How Corporations and Minors may Confess Judgment.—When the action is against the state, a county or other public corporation therein, or a private corporation or a minor, the confession shall be made by the person who, at the time, sustains the relation to such state, corporation, county, or minor as would authorize the service of a notice [summons] upon him; or in the case of a minor, if a guardian for the action has been appointed, then by such guardian; in all other cases, the confession shall be made by the defendant in person. [L. '69, p. 72, § 294; Cd. '81, § 292; 2 H. C., § 415.]

§ 415. Judgment by Confession Against Persons Jointly Liable.—When the action is upon a contract, and against one or more defendants jointly liable, judgment may be given, on the confession of one or more defendants, against all the defendants thus jointly liable, whether such defendants have been served or not, to be enforced only against their joint property and against the joint and separate property of the defendant making the confession. [L. '69, p. 72, § 295; Cd. '81, § 293; 2 H. C., § 416.]

§ 416. Confession, How Made.—The confession and assent thereto shall be in writing and subscribed by the parties making the same, and acknowledged by each before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds. [L. '69, p. 72, § 296; L. '77, p. 60, § 298; Cd. '81, § 294; 2 H. C., § 417.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 501.

§ 417. Judgment by Confession Without Action.—A judgment by confession may be entered without action, either for money due or to become due, or to secure any person against contingent liability on behalf of the defendant, or both, in the manner prescribed by this chapter. [L. '69, p. 73, § 297; Cd. '81, § 295; 2 H. C., § 418.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 501; 13 Wash. 77.

§ 418. Requisites of Statement.—A statement in writing shall be made, signed by the defendant and verified by his oath, to the following effect:—

1. It shall authorize the entry of judgment for a specified sum;

2. If it be for money due or to become due, it shall state concisely the facts out of which the indebtedness arose, and shall show that the sum confessed to be due is justly due or to become due;

3. If it be for the purpose of securing the plaintiff against a contingent liability, it shall state concisely the facts constituting the liability, and show that the sum confessed thereto does not exceed the same. [L. '69, p. 73, § 298; Cd. '81, § 296; 2 H. C., § 419.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 500, 504; 13 Wash. 77.

§ 419. Proceeding in Court on Presentation of Statement.—The statement must be presented to the superior court, or a judge thereof, and if the same be found sufficient, the court or judge shall indorse thereon an order that judgment be entered by the clerk, whereupon it may be filed in the office of the clerk, who shall enter a judgment for the amount confessed, with costs. Execution may be issued and enforced thereon in the same manner as upon judgments in other cases. [Cf. L. '69, p. 73, § 299; L. '77, p. 61, § 301; Cd. '81, § 297; 2 H. C., § 420.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 501.

CHAPTER XIII.

Arbitration and Judgment Thereon.

§ 420. Disputes may be Submitted to Arbitration.—All persons desirous to end, by arbitration, any controversy, suit, or quarrel, except such as respect the title to real estate, may submit their difference to the award or umpirage of any person or persons mutually selected. [L. '60, p. 324, § 1; L. '63, p. 81, § 231; Cd. '81, § 264; 2 H. C., § 424.]

§ 421. Agreement to be in Writing.—Said agreement to arbitrate shall be in writing, signed by the parties, and may be by bond in any sum, conditioned that the parties entering into said submission shall abide the award. [L. '60, p. 324, § 2; Cd. '81, § 265; 2 H. C., § 425.]

§ 422. How Arbitration Conducted.—The said arbitrators shall be duly sworn to try and determine the cause referred to them, and a just award make out, under the hands and seals of a majority of them, agreeably to the terms of the submission. Said award, together with the written agreement to submit, shall be sealed up by the arbitrators and delivered to the party in whose favor it shall be made, who shall deliver the same, without breaking the seal, to the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein said arbitration is held, who shall enter the same on record in his office. A copy of the award, signed by said arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall also be delivered to the party in whose favor it is rendered, who shall, if the matter be not settled, serve a copy of the same on the adverse party, and if no exceptions be filed against the same within twenty days after such service, judgment shall be entered as upon the verdict of a jury, and execution may issue thereon, and the same proceedings [may be had] upon said award, with like effect as though said award were a verdict in a civil action. [Cf. L. '63, p. 324, § 3; Cd. '81, § 266; L. '91, p. 104, § 1; 2 H. C., § 426.]

§ 423. Compensation of Arbitrators—Penalty.—The arbitrators chosen under the provisions of this chapter shall each be allowed three dollars per day, to be taxed with other costs of suit, but if either party fail to appear on the day agreed upon for the arbitrators to meet, said party shall be liable for all costs accruing that day, unless his absence was unavoidable, and shall be so established to the satisfaction of said arbitrators. And any arbitrator failing to attend on the day appointed, unless delayed by sickness or unavoidable accident, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars to the school fund of the county, to be recovered by action before a justice of the peace, in the name of the county commissioners of the county. [Cf. L. '60, p. 324, § 4; L. '69, p. 65, § 269; Cd. '81, § 267; 2 H. C., § 427.]

§ 424. Exceptions to Award.—The party against whom an award may be made may except in writing thereto for either of the following causes:—

1. That the arbitrators or umpire misbehaved themselves in the case;

2. That they committed an error in fact or law;

3. That the award was procured by corruption or other undue means. [L. '60, p. 324, § 5; Cd. '81, § 268; 2 H. C., § 428.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 207–211; 13 Wash. 355, 356; 70 Wash. 349.

§ 425. Proceedings of Court on Such Exceptions.—If upon exceptions filed it shall appear to the said superior court that the arbitrators have committed error in fact or law, the court may refer the cause back to said arbitrators, directing the amendment of said award forthwith, returnable to said court, and on the failure so to correct said proceedings, the court shall be possessed of the case and proceed to its determination. [Cf. L. '60, p. 325, § 6; Cd. '81, § 269; L. '91, p. 105, § 2; 2 H. C., § 429.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 207–211; 13 Wash. 355, 356.

§ 426. Powers of Arbitrators.—Arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall have power,—

1. To compel the attendance of witnesses duly notified by either party, and to enforce from either party the production of all such books, papers, and documents as they may deem material to the cause;

2. To administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses;

3. To adjourn their meetings from day to day, or for a longer time, and also from place to place, if they think proper;

4. To decide both the law and the fact that may be involved in the cause submitted to them. [L. '60, p. 325, § 7; Cd. '81, § 270; 2 H. C., § 430.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 355, 356.

§ 427. Rules of Evidence.—The laws in force in this state relating to evidence and the manner of procuring the attendance of witnesses shall govern in arbitrations. [L. '60, p. 325, § 8; Cd. '81, § 271; 2 H. C., § 431.]

§ 428. Arbitrators may Punish Contempts.—The law governing proceedings for contempt, in the trial of cases before justices of the peace, so far as the same may be applicable, shall apply to the proceedings before arbitrators. [L. '60, p. 325, § 9; Cd. '81, § 272; 2 H. C., § 432.]

§ 429. Costs Taxed Against Losing Party.—The costs of witnesses, and other fees in the case, shall be taxed against the losing party; said fees shall be indorsed upon the award, and when said award is affirmed as the judgment of the superior court, execution shall issue therefor as for costs in civil actions. [L. '60, p. 325, § 10; Cd. '81, § 273; 2 H. C., § 436.]

§ 430. Award, When Affirmed, has Force of a Judgment.—Such award, when so affirmed, shall be in all respects like any other judgment of the superior court, and a transcript of such judgment, or execution issued thereon, recorded in the county auditor's [clerk's] office in the same manner as other judgments, shall be a lien upon real estate in said county. [L. '60, p. 325, § 11; Cd. '81, § 274; 2 H. C., § 434.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 349; 85 Wash. 367, 368.

CHAPTER XIV.

Manner of Taking and Entering Judgments.

§ 431. Time of Entering Judgment.—When a trial by jury has been had, judgment shall be entered by the clerk immediately in conformity to the verdict, and a transcript of said judgment may be immediately filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court of any other county in the state in the manner provided by law: Provided, however, that if a motion for a new trial shall be filed, execution shall not be issued upon said judgment until said motion shall be determined: And provided, further, that the granting of a motion for a new trial shall immediately operate as the vacation and setting aside of said judgment. [L. '03, p. 285, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 173, § 229; Cd. '81, § 301; L. '91, p. 76, § 1; 2 H. C., § 435.]

See supra, § 408, judgment of nonsuit.
See supra, § 412, judgment by default.
See supra, § 413 et seq., judgment by confession.

§ 433. Judgment in Case of Setoff.—If a setoff established at the trial exceed the plaintiff's demand so established, judgment for the defendant shall be given for the excess; or if it appear that the defendant is entitled to any [other] affirmative relief, judgment shall be given accordingly. [L. '54, p. 173, § 231; Cd. '81, § 303; 2 H. C., § 437.]

See supra, §§ 269–272, judgment in case of setoff.

§ 434. Judgment in Actions to Recover Personal Property.—In an action to recover the possession of personal property, judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession or value thereof, in case a delivery cannot be had, and damages for the detention. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the defendant claim a return thereof, judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property, or the value thereof in case a return cannot be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same. [L. '54, p. 173, § 232; Cd. '81, § 304; 2 H. C., § 438.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 636; 10 Wash. 227; 22 Wash. 309; 73 Wash. 410.

§ 435. Where and What must be Entered.—All judgments shall be entered by the clerk, subject to the direction of the court, in the journal, and shall specify clearly the amount to be recovered, the relief granted, or other determination of the action. [L. '69, p. 75, § 307; Cd. '81, § 305; 2 H. C., § 439.]

Cited in 26 Wash. 228; 31 Wash. 402; 65 Wash. 540.

§ 436. Summons, After Judgment, to Joint Debtor not Originally Served.—When a judgment is recorded [entered] against one or more of several persons jointly indebted upon an obligation by proceeding as provided in section 236, such defendants who were not originally served with the summons, and did not appear to the action, may be summoned to show cause why they should not be bound by the judgment in the same manner as though they had been originally served with the summons. [L. '77, p. 64, § 318; Cd. '81, § 314; 2 H. C., § 440.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 587, 588.

§ 437. What Such Summons must Contain.—The summons as provided in the last section must describe the judgment, and require the person summoned to show cause why he should not be bound by it, and must be served in the same manner and returnable within the same time as the original summons. It is not necessary to file a new complaint. [L. '77, p. 64, § 319; Cd. '81, § 315; 2 H. C., § 441.]

§ 438. Must be Supported by Affidavit.—The summons must be accompanied by an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, representative, or attorney, that the judgment, or some part thereof, remains unsatisfied, and must specify the amount due thereon. [L. '77, p. 65, § 320; Cd. '81, § 316; 2 H. C., § 442.]

§ 439. Defenses in Such Case.—Upon the service of such summons and affidavit, the defendant may answer within the time specified therein, denying the judgment, or setting up any defense which may have arisen subsequently to the taking of the judgment, or he may deny his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was rendered, except a discharge from such liability by the statute of limitations. [L. '77, p. 65, § 321; Cd. '81, § 317; 2 H. C., § 443.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 588.

§ 440. What Constitute Pleadings in Such Case.—If the defendant in his answer deny the judgment, or set up any defense which may have arisen subsequently, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer, constitute the written allegations in the case; if he deny his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was rendered, a copy of the original complaint and judgment, the summons with the affidavit annexed, and the answer constitute such written allegations. [L. '77, p. 65, § 322; Cd. '81, § 318; 2 H. C., § 444.]

§ 441. Trial and Entry in Such Cases.—The issues formed may be tried as in other cases, but when the defendant denies in his answer any liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was rendered, if a verdict be found against him, it must not exceed the amount remaining unsatisfied on such original judgment, with interest thereon. [L. '77, p. 65, § 323; Cd. '81, § 319; 2 H. C., § 445.]

§ 442. Judgment-roll — What Constitutes. — Immediately after entering the judgment, the clerk shall attach the following papers in the case, which shall constitute the judgment-roll:—

1. If the complaint has not been answered by any defendant, and no pleading has been filed by an intervener, he shall attach together, in the order of their filing, issuing, and entry, the complaint, summons, and proof of service, and a copy of the entry of judgment;

2. In all other cases he shall attach together in like manner the summons and proof of service, the pleadings, bill of exceptions, all orders relating to change of parties, together with a copy of the entry of judgment, and all other journal entries or orders in any way involving the merits and necessarily affecting the judgment. [Cf. L. '54, p. 173, § 233; Cd. '81, § 306; L. '91, p. 77, § 3; 2 H. C., § 446.]

Cited in 77 Wash. 630.

§ 443. How Judgment-roll Indorsed and Preserved.—In all cases, the clerk shall attach upon the outside of the judgment-roll a blank sheet of paper, upon which he shall indorse the name of the court, the title of the action, for whom judgment was given, and the amount or nature thereof and the date of its entry. [L. '91, p. 77, § 4; 2 H. C., § 447.]

CHAPTER XV.

Judgment Liens.

§ 444. Execution Docket.—Every clerk shall keep in his office a well-bound book, to be called the execution docket, which shall be a public record, and open during the usual business hours to all persons desirous of inspecting it. [L. '54, p. 173, § 234; Cd. '81, § 307; 2 H. C., § 448.]

See supra, § 75, books to be kept by clerk.

§ 445. Judgment Lien.—The real estate of any judgment debtor and such as he may acquire, shall be held and bound to satisfy any judgment of the district or circuit court of the United States, if rendered in this state, or of the superior or supreme court, or any judgment of a justice of the peace for the period of five years from the day on which said judgment was rendered, and such judgments shall be a lien thereupon to commence as follows: Judgments of the superior court of the county in which real estate of the judgment debtor is situated, from the date of the entry thereof; judgments of the district or circuit courts of the United States, if rendered in this state; judgments of the supreme court; judgments of the superior court of any county other than the county in which said judgment was rendered, and judgments of a justice of the peace, from the time of the filing and indexing of a duly certified transcript or abstract of such judgments, as provided by this chapter, with the county clerk of the county in which said real estate is situated. [Cf. L. '54, p. 175, § 240; L. '57, p. 11, § 15; L. '60, p. 51, § 234; L. '69, p. 78, § 317; Cd. '81, § 321; 2 H. C., § 460; L. '93, p. 65, § 1; see, also, 2 H. C., §§ 449, 450, 455, 456, 457, 460, and L. '93, p. 67, § 9.]

§ 446. Clerk's Record Index.—It shall be the duty of the county clerk to keep a proper record index, both direct and inverse, of any and all judgments, abstracts or transcripts of judgments in his office, and all renewals thereof, and such index shall refer to each party against whom the judgment is rendered or whose property is affected thereby, [which index] together with the records of said judgments, shall be open to public inspection during regular office hours. [Cf. 2 H. C., § 452; L. '93, p. 66, § 6.]

§ 447. Assignment or Satisfaction, Filing—Notice.—Any assignment or satisfaction of judgment, or any certified transcript of such assignment or satisfaction, may be recorded in any county auditor's office, or county clerk's office, in which the judgment is of record, and from the time of filing for record shall be notice of such assignment or satisfaction. [L. 97, p. 10, § 1.]

Cited in 34 Wash. 514.

§ 448. Entries in Execution Docket.—He shall leave space on the same page, if practicable, with each case, in which he shall enter, in the order in which they occur, all the proceedings subsequent to the judgment in said case until its final satisfaction, including the time when and to what county the execution is issued, and when returned, and the return or the substance thereof. When the execution is levied on personal property which is returned unsold, the entry shall be: "Levied (noting the date) on property not sold." When any sheriff shall furnish the clerk with a copy of any levy upon real estate on any judgment the minutes of which are entered in his execution docket, the entry shall be: "Levied upon real estate," noting the date, and shall refer to the page upon the book of levies where the same is entered, as is hereinafter provided. When any execution issued to any other county is returned levied upon real estate in such county, the entry in the docket shall be: "Levied on real estate of ——, in —— county," noting the date, county, and defendant whose estate is levied upon, and when the money is made, or any part thereof, the amount and time when made shall be entered; also, when a writ of error has been taken, or the judgment is appealed, modified, discharged, or in any manner satisfied, the facts in respect thereto shall be entered. The parties interested may also assign or discharge such judgment on such execution docket. When the judgment is fully satisfied in any way, the clerk shall write the word "satisfied," in large letters across the face of the entry of such judgment. [L. '54, p. 174, § 237; Cd. '81, § 310; 2 H. C., § 451.]

§ 449. Book of Levies.—The clerk shall also keep in his office a well-bound book, to be called a book of levies, which shall be a public record, and open during the usual business hours to all persons desirous of inspecting the same, in which he shall enter all levies upon real estate in his county, when delivered to him by the sheriff, as provided by law. An alphabetical index shall be prefixed to the book of levies, containing the names of all persons upon whose real estate such levies have been made, and when such levies are discharged in any manner, an entry thereof shall be made in the margin of the book of levies where the levy is recorded. [L. '54, p. 174, § 239; Cd. '81, § 313; 2 H. C., § 454.]

§ 450. Transcripts from Justices' Courts.—Any judgment of any justice of the peace of any county in this state, shall become a lien upon any real estate of the judgment debtor, and such as he may acquire in that county wherein said judgment was rendered by the filing of a duly certified transcript from the docket of said justice in the county clerk's office of said county wherein said judgment was rendered, and upon such filing said judgment shall become to all intents and purposes a judgment of said superior court of said county, said judgment of said justice of the peace shall become a lien upon the real estate of the judgment debtor and such as he may acquire in any county other than that in which the same was rendered by the filing in the office of the county clerk of that county a duly certified abstract of the record of said judgment, from the office of the county clerk of that county in which the certified transcript of the said judgment of said justice of the peace was originally filed. [L. '93, p. 65, § 2.]

§ 451. Abstract of Judgment, Contents of.—An abstract of a judgment as provided for in this chapter shall contain:—

1. The name of the party or parties in whose favor the judgment was rendered;

2. The name of the party or parties against whom the judgment was rendered;

3. The date of the rendition of the judgment;

4. The amount for which the judgment was rendered, and in the following manner, viz.: Principal, $——; interest, $——; costs, $——; total, $——. [L. '93, p. 66, § 3.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 545.

§ 453. Entry of Abstract or Transcript of Judgment.—It shall be the duty of the county clerk to enter in his execution docket any duly certified abstract or transcript of any judgment of any of the courts mentioned in this chapter, and he shall index the same in the same manner as judgments originally rendered in the superior court of the county of which he is clerk. [L. '93, p. 66, § 5.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 545.

§ 454. Satisfaction of Judgments.—When any judgment shall be paid and satisfied, the satisfaction shall be noted upon the records thereof in the execution docket as satisfied, giving the date of such satisfaction, and when the same shall be signed by the judgment creditor or his attorney the lien thereof against said real estate shall be satisfied and discharged. See infra, § 889, satisfaction of judgment against the state.

§ 455. Satisfaction of Judgments of Federal Court—Penalty for Failure.—When the amount due on any judgment is paid off or satisfied in full, the plaintiff, or those legally acting for him, must acknowledge satisfaction thereof in the margin of the record of the judgment, or by the execution of an instrument in writing referring to the judgment, acknowledged and filed in the office of the auditor or recorder in every county where the judgment is a lien. If he fail to do so within sixty days after having been requested in writing so to do, he shall forfeit to the defendant the sum of fifty dollars. [L. '90, p. 98, § 3; 2 H. C., § 458.]

"Any judgment": This section can apply only to judgments of the United States courts.

§ 456. Existing Liens Continued.—All judgments which are liens upon real estate by reason of their having been filed in any county auditor's office, shall continue to be liens thereupon in the manner now provided by law. [L. '93, p. 67, § 8.]

§ 457. Interest on Judgments. — Judgments hereafter rendered founded on written contracts, providing for the payment of interest until paid at a specified rate, shall bear interest at the rate specified in such contracts, not in any case, however, to exceed ten per cent per annum: Provided, that said interest rate is set forth in the judgment; and all other judgments shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from date of entry thereof. [L. '99, p. 129, § 6. Cf. 2 H. C. § 459; L. '95, p. 350, § 4.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 417, 63 Wash. 290.

§ 458. Appeal Does not Suspend Lien.—An appeal to the supreme court or stay of execution shall not affect any existing lien; and in all cases of an appeal the date of final judgment in the supreme court shall be the time from which said five years shall commence to run. Personal property shall only be held from the time it is actually levied upon. [Cf. '54, p. 175, §§ 240, 241; L. '60, p. 79, § 319; Cd. '81, § 322; 2 H. C., § 461.]

"This act" took effect June 9, 1897.

§ 462. When Judgments may be Revived — Procedure. — If any judgment shall remain unsatisfied in whole or in part, at the end of five years after the date of its rendition, the lien thereof may be revived and continued, as in this section provided:

(1) The judgment creditor, his assignee, or the party to whom said judgment is due and payable, shall file a motion with the clerk of the court where judgment is entered, to revive and continue the lien of the same, with leave to issue an execution. The motion shall state the names of the parties to the judgment, the date of its entry, the amount claimed to be due thereon, or the particular property, of which the possession was thereby adjudged to such party, remaining undelivered. The motion shall be subscribed and verified in the same manner as an original complaint.

(2) At any time after filing such motion, the party may cause notice to be served on the judgment debtor in like manner and with like effect as a summons; said notice shall be attached to a copy of said motion, by the clerk of the court, and be served by the sheriff or other officer as an original summons. It shall cite the judgment debtor to appear and show cause why the said motion should not be allowed. The time in which the judgment debtor shall be required to appear, shall be the same as is prescribed for answer to a complaint, and the law applicable to service of a summons, shall apply to the service of such notice. In case the judgment debtor be dead, the notice may be served upon his legal representatives.

(3) The judgment debtor, or in case of his death, his representatives, may file an answer or demurrer to such motion within the time allowed by law to answer a complaint, alleging any defense to such motion which may exist. If no answer be filed within the time prescribed, the motion shall be allowed as of course. The moving party may demur or reply to the answer. The pleadings shall be subscribed and verified, and the proceedings concluded as in original actions.

(4) The word "representatives," in this section shall be deemed to include any or all of the persons in whose possession property of the judgment debtor may be which is liable to be taken and sold or delivered in satisfaction of the execution, and not otherwise.

(5) The order shall specify the amount due upon such unsatisfied judgment for which execution is to issue, or the particular property, possession of which is to be delivered; it shall be entered in the journal and docketed as a judgment, and a final record shall be made of the proceedings in the same manner as a judgment. [Cd. '81, § 323; 2 H. C., § 462.]

This and the next section were repealed by L. '97, p. 53, § 4, but are retained, as the repeal did not affect any existing contract obligations or judgments recovered thereon.

§ 463. Proof for Revival—No Revival After Six Years.—Such motion shall not be granted unless it be established by oath of the party, or other satisfactory proof, that the judgment, or some part thereof, remains unsatisfied. The order of the court granting such leave shall operate as a revival of the judgment for the amount found due at the time of such revival, and the same shall be and continue a lien upon real estate of the judgment debtor for a period of five years from and after the date of such order, in like manner with the original judgment: Provided, that a transcript thereof shall, within twenty days, be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county where the lands lie of such judgment debtor, or said lien shall be suspended till such transcript be filed. Revived judgments shall bear the same interest and be in all respects similar to original judgments as to lien and enforcement of collection: Provided, however, that no judgment shall be revived or continued unless proceedings for such revival or continuance shall be commenced within six years after the date of its rendition: Provided further, that this act shall not apply to any judgment now in existence until one year from the time this act takes effect. [L. '91, p. 165, § 1; 2 H. C., § 463.]

See notes to last section.

CHAPTER XVII.

Vacation and Modification of Judgments.

§ 464. Causes for Vacation or Modification of Judgments.—The superior court in which a judgment has been rendered, or by which or the judge of which a final order has been made, shall have power, after the term [time] at which such judgment or order was made, to vacate or modify such judgment or order:—

1. By granting a new trial for the cause, within the time and in the manner, and for any of the causes prescribed by the sections relating to new trials;

2. By a new trial granted in proceedings against defendant, served by publication only as prescribed in section 235;

3. For mistakes, neglect, or omission of the clerk, or irregularity in obtaining the judgment or order;

4. For fraud practiced by the successful party in obtaining the judgment or order;

5. For erroneous proceedings against a minor [or] person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings;

6. For the death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action;

7. For unavoidable casualty or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending;

8. For error in a judgment shown by a minor, within twelve months after arriving at full age. [L. '75, p. 20, § 1; Cd. '81, § 436; 2 H. C., § 1393.]

§ 465. Petition for New Trial.—When the grounds for a new trial could not with reasonable diligence have been discovered before, but are discovered after the term [time] when the verdict, report of referee, or decision was rendered or made, the application may be made by petition filed as in other cases, not later than after the discovery, on which notice shall be served and returned, and the defendant held to appear as in an original action. The facts stated in the petition [complaint] shall be considered as denied without answer. The case shall be tried as other cases by ordinary proceedings, but no motion shall be filed more than one year after the final judgment was rendered. [L. '75, p. 21, § 2; Cd. '81, § 437.]

§ 469. Valid Defense.—The judgment shall not be vacated on motion or petition until it is adjudged that there is a valid defense to the action in which the judgment is rendered; or if the plaintiff seeks its vacation, that there is a valid cause of action; and when judgment is modified, all liens and securities obtained under it shall be preserved to the modified judgment. [L. '75, p. 22, § 6; Cd. '81, § 441; 2 H. C., § 1397.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 388; 25 Wash. 671; 43 Wash. 25; 79 Wash. 489.

§ 470. Grounds to Vacate must First be Tried.—The court may first try and decide upon the grounds to vacate or modify a judgment or order, before trying or deciding upon the validity of the defense or cause of action. [L. '75, p. 22, § 7; Cd. '81, § 442; 2 H. C., § 1398.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 311; 55 Wash. 97; 79 Wash. 493.

§ 471. Injunction.—The party seeking to vacate or modify a judgment or order may obtain an injunction suspending proceedings on the whole or part thereof, which injunction may be granted by the court or the judge, upon its being rendered probable, by affidavit or petition sworn to, or by exhibition of the record, that the party is entitled to have such judgment or order vacated or modified. [L. '75, p. 22, § 8; Cd. '81, § 443; 2 H. C., § 1399.]

§ 472. Construction. The provisions of this chapter shall not be so construed as to affect the power of the court to vacate or modify judgments or orders as elsewhere in this code provided; nor shall any judgment of acquittal in a criminal action be vacated under the provisions of this chapter. [L. '91, p. 45, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1400.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 36; 25 Wash. 655.

§ 473. Judgment upon Denial of Application.—In all cases in which an application under this chapter to vacate or modify a judgment or order for the recovery of money is denied, if proceedings on the judgment or order shall have been suspended, judgment shall be rendered against the plaintiff [in this proceeding] for the amount of the former judgment or order, interest, and costs, together with damages at the discretion of the court, not exceeding ten per cent on the amount of the judgment or order. [Cf. L. '75, p. 22, § 9; Cd. '81, § 444; L. '91, p. 45, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1041.]

CHAPTER XVIII.

Costs and Disbursements.

§ 474. Compensation of Attorneys—Costs.—The measure and mode of compensation of attorneys and counselors shall be left to the agreement, expressed or implied, of the parties, but there shall be allowed to the prevailing party upon the judgment certain sums by way of indemnity for his expenses in the action, which allowances are termed costs. [L. '54, p. 201, § 367; Cd. '81, § 505; 2 H. C., § 823.]

§ 476. Prevailing Party Entitled to Costs and Disbursements.—In any action in the superior court of Washington, the prevailing party shall be entitled to his costs and disbursements; but the plaintiff shall in no case be entitled to costs taxed as attorneys' fees in actions within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, when commenced in the superior court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 201, §§ 368, 369; Cd. '81, §§ 506, 507; L. '83, p. 42, § 1; L. '90, p. 337, § 1; 2 H. C., § 824.]

§ 477. Limitations.—In an action for an assault and battery, or for false imprisonment, libel, slander, malicious prosecution, criminal conversation, or seduction, if the plaintiff recover less than ten dollars, he shall be entitled to no more costs or disbursements than the damage recovered. [L. '54, p. 202, § 370; L. '69, p. 123, § 460; Cd. '81, § 508; 2 H. C., § 825.]

§ 478. Limited to One of Several Actions.—When several actions are brought on one bond, undertaking, promissory note, bill of exchange, or other instrument in writing, or in any other case for the same cause of action against several parties, who might have been joined as defendants in the same action, no costs or disbursements shall be allowed to the plaintiff in more than one of such actions, which may be at his election, if the parties proceeded against in the other actions were, at the commencement of the previous action, openly within this state. [L. '54, p. 202, § 371; Cd. '81, § 509; 2 H. C., § 826.]

§ 479. Costs to Defendant, When.—In all cases where costs and disbursements are not allowed to the plaintiff, the defendant shall be entitled to have judgment in his favor for the same. [L. '54, p. 202, § 372; Cd. '81, § 510; 2 H. C., § 827.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 96; 82 Wash. 363.

§ 480. Costs to Defendants Defending Separately.—In all actions where there are several defendants not united in interest, and making separate defenses by separate answers, and the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against all, the court may award costs to such defendants as recover judgments in their favor, or either of them. [L. '54, p. 202, § 373; Cd. '81, § 511; 2 H. C., § 828.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 391.

§ 481. Costs as Attorney Fee—Amount Taxable.—When allowed to either party, costs, to be called the attorney fee, shall be as follows:—

1. In all actions settled before issue is joined, five dollars;
2. In all actions where judgment is rendered without a jury, ten dollars;
3. In all actions where judgment is rendered after impaneling a jury, fifteen dollars;
4. In all actions removed to the supreme court and settled before argument, ten dollars;
5. In all actions where judgment is rendered in the supreme court after argument, fifteen dollars. [L. '54, p. 202, § 374; L. '69, p. 124, § 464; Cd. '81, § 512; 2 H. C., § 829.]

§ 482. Disbursements, etc.—Cost Bill.—The prevailing party, in addition to allowance for costs, as provided in the last section, shall also be allowed for all necessary disbursements, including the fees of officers allowed by law, the fees of witnesses, the necessary expenses of taking depositions, by commission or otherwise, and the compensation of referees. The disbursements shall be stated in detail and verified by affidavit, and shall be served on the opposite party or his attorney, and filed with the clerk of the court, within ten days after the judgment; Provided, the clerk of the court shall keep a record of all witnesses in attendance upon any civil action, for whom fees are to be claimed, with the number of days in attendance and their mileage, and no fees or mileage for any witness shall be taxed in the cost bill unless they shall have reported their attendance at the close of each day's session to the clerk in attendance at such trial. [L. '05, p. 32, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 202, § 375; L. '69, p. 124, § 465; L. '77, p. 109, § 517; Cd. '81, § 513; 2 H. C., § 830.]

Cited in 51 Wash. 665; 56 Wash. 377.

§ 486. Deposit With Clerk by Defendant of Tender, Effect of.—If the defendant, in any action pending, shall at any time deposit with the clerk of the court, for the plaintiff, the amount which he admits to be due, together with all costs that have accrued, and notify the plaintiff thereof, and such plaintiff shall refuse to accept the same in discharge of the action, and shall not afterwards recover a larger amount than that deposited with the clerk, exclusive of interest and cost, he shall pay all costs that may accrue from the time such money was so deposited. [L. '54, p. 203, § 379; Cd. '81, § 517; 2 H. C., § 834.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 671; 56 Wash. 377.

§ 487. Costs in Appeals from Justice's Court.—In all civil actions tried before a justice of the peace, in which an appeal shall be taken to the superior court, and the party appellant shall not recover a more favorable judgment in the superior court than before the justice of the peace, such appellant shall pay all costs. [L. '54, p. 203, § 380; Cd. '81, § 518; 2 H. C., § 835.]

§ 488. Costs Against Guardian of Infant Plaintiff.—When costs are adjudged against an infant plaintiff, the guardian or person by whom he appeared in the action shall be responsible therefor, and payment may be enforced by execution. [L. '54, p. 203, § 381; Cd. '81, § 519; 2 H. C., § 836.]

§ 489. Costs in Cases of Executors, etc.—In [an] action prosecuted or defended by an executor, administrator, trustee of an express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute, costs shall be recovered as in an action by or against a person prosecuting [or defending] in his own right, but such costs shall be chargeable only upon or collected of the estate of the party represented, unless the court shall direct the same to be paid by the plaintiff or defendant personally for mismanagement or bad faith in such action or defense. [L. '54, p. 203, § 382; Cd. '81, § 520; 2 H. C., § 837.]

§ 490. Assignee Liable for Costs, When.—When the cause of action, after the commencement of the action, by assignment, or in any other manner, becomes the property of a person not a party thereto, and the prosecution or defense is thereafter continued, such person shall be liable to the costs in the same manner as if he were a party, and payment thereof may be enforced by execution. [Cf. L. '54, p. 203, § 383; L. '69, p. 125, § 473; Cd. '81, § 521; 2 H. C., § 838.]

§ 491. Costs Against State or County.—In all actions prosecuted in the name and for the use of the state, or in the name and for the use of any county, the state or county shall be liable for costs in the same case and to the same extent as private parties. [L. '54, p. 203, § 384; Cd. '81, § 522; 2 H. C., § 839.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 10; 70 Wash. 643.

§ 492. Costs in Revisory Proceedings.—When the decision of a court of inferior jurisdiction, in an action or special proceeding, is brought before the supreme court or a superior court for review, such proceedings shall, for purpose of costs, be deemed an action at issue upon a question of law from the time the same is brought into the supreme court or superior court, and costs thereon may be awarded and collected in such manner as the court shall direct, according to the nature of the case. [L. '54, p. 204, § 385; Cd. '81, § 523; 2 H. C., § 840.]

See infra, § 1744, costs on appeal.

§ 493. Costs in Discretion of Court.—In all actions and proceedings other than those mentioned in this chapter, where no provision is made for the recovery of costs, they may be allowed or not; and if allowed, may be apportioned between the parties, in the discretion of the court. [L. '54, p. 204, § 387; Cd. '81, § 525; 2 H. C., § 842.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 38.

§ 494. Retaxation of Costs.—Any party aggrieved by the taxation of costs by the clerk of the court may, upon application, have the same retaxed by the court in which the action or proceeding is had. [L. '54, p. 204, § 388; Cd. '81, § 526; 2 H. C., § 843.]

Cited in 35 Wash. 137.

§ 495. Security for Costs, When Required.—When a plaintiff in an action resides out of the county, or is a foreign corporation, security for the costs and charges which may be awarded against such plaintiff may be required by the defendant. When required, all proceedings in the action shall be stayed until a bond, executed by two or more persons, be filed with the clerk, conditioned that they will pay such costs and charges as may be awarded against the plaintiff by judgment, or in the progress of the action, not exceeding the sum of two hundred dollars. A new or additional bond may be ordered by the court or judge, upon proof that the original bond is insufficient security, and proceedings in the action stayed until such new or additional bond be executed and filed. The plaintiff may deposit with the clerk the sum of two hundred dollars in lieu of a bond. [L. '54, p. 204, § 389; Cd. '81, § 527; 2 H. C., § 844.]

§ 496. Judgment Against Surety on Cost Bond.—Whenever any bond or undertaking for the payment of any costs to any party shall be filed in any action or other legal proceeding in any court in this state and judgment should be rendered for any such costs against the principal on any such bonds or against the party primarily liable therefor in whose behalf any such bond or undertaking has been filed, such judgment for costs shall be rendered against the principal on such bond or the party primarily liable therefor and at the same time also against his surety or sureties on any or all such bonds or undertakings filed in any such action or other legal proceeding. [L. '09, p. 633, § 1.]

§ 497. Schedule of Fees of Officers, Witnesses, etc.—The several officers herein named shall collect the fees herein prescribed for their official services:

CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Upon filing his first paper or record and making an appearance in the supreme court, the appellant shall pay to the clerk of said court a docket fee of $5.

Upon making his appearance in the supreme court, the respondent in any appealed case shall pay to the clerk a fee of $2.

The applicant or petitioner in any special proceeding in the supreme court, upon making his appearance, shall pay to the clerk thereof a fee of $3.

The respondent in a special proceeding, and each respondent appearing separately therein, at the time of his appearance, shall pay to the clerk a fee of $1.

The foregoing fees shall be all the fees connected with the appeal or special proceeding: Provided, that no fees shall be required to be advanced by the state, or any municipal corporation, or any public officer prosecuting or defending on behalf of such state or municipal corporation.

For filing application, entering admission and issuing certificate to an attorney upon admission to practice, $20.

For all services for which no fee is hereinbefore prescribed, the clerk of the supreme court shall receive the same fees as are prescribed for clerks of the superior courts for like services.

CLERKS OF THE SUPERIOR COURT.

The plaintiff, or other party instituting any civil action or proceeding shall pay, when the case is entered in the court or when the first paper on his part is filed therein, a fee of $4.

The defendant or other adverse party or any one or more of several defendants or other adverse parties, or interveners, appearing separately from the others, shall pay when his or their appearance is entered in the case, or when his or their first appearance is filed therein, a fee of $2.

When no issue of fact is joined in the case and no judgment other than a dismissal or discontinuance, without trial of an issue of fact is rendered, no further fee need be paid.

Where, after an issue of fact has been joined, the cause is dismissed or discontinued without trial of such issue, the party causing such dismissal or discontinuance to be entered shall pay, at the time of the entry thereof, a further fee of $1.

If a judgment other than a dismissal or discontinuance is rendered, the party obtaining the same shall pay, at the time of the entry thereof, a further fee as follows:

1. Where the judgment is rendered without the taking of proof of any fact pleaded:

(a) If no adverse party has appeared in the case, $2.

(b) Or if an adverse party has appeared, $3.

2. Where the judgment is rendered upon proof taken, but without the assessment of damages by a jury, and in a case other than the foreclosure of a lien or mortgage or partition of real estate:

(a) If no adverse party has appeared in the case, $3.

(b) If an adverse party has appeared, $5.

3. Where the judgment is rendered upon an assessment of damages by a jury, no adverse party having appeared in the case, $5.

4. Where the judgment is rendered after an appearance by an adverse party, and a trial by jury, or by the court or a judge, referee or commissioner, in a cause other than the foreclosure of a lien or mortgage, or partition of real estate, $6.

5. Where the judgment is rendered in an action for the foreclosure of a lien or mortgage or partition of real estate:

(a) If no adverse party has appeared in the case, $6.

(b) If an adverse party has appeared, $8.

6. For making a transcript on appeal to the supreme court, or for transcribing the records in any action for any purpose, 10 cents per folio.

7. For comparing a transcript on appeal, or transcript of the record in any action where the party has prepared it himself, 5 cents per folio.

The appellant in appeals from judgments of a justice of the peace, shall at the time of docketing his appeal, pay a docket fee of $4.

The adverse party in appeals from judgment of a justice of the peace at the time of his appearance in the superior court shall pay a fee of $2.

Other fees shall be charged as are charged in actions originally begun in the superior court.

For filing an abstract of a judgment entered in the supreme court or of any other superior court of the state or of any United States court held in this state, or a transcript of a judgment of a justice court, a fee of $1.

§ 498. Witnesses and Jurors in Criminal Cases.—No fees shall be allowed to witnesses in criminal causes unless they shall have reported their attendance at the close of each day's session to the clerk in attendance thereon. No allowance of mileage shall be made to a juror or witness who has not verified his claim of mileage under oath before the clerk of the court on which he is in attendance. [L. '95, p. 15, §§ 1, 2.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 373.

§ 499. Salaried Officers not to Receive Fees.—No state, county, municipal or other public officer within the state of Washington, who receives from the state, or from any county or municipality therein, a fixed and stated salary as compensation for services rendered as such public officer, shall be allowed or paid any per diem for attending or testifying on behalf of the state of Washington, or any county or municipality therein, at any trial or other judicial proceeding, in any state, county or municipal court within this state; nor shall such officer, in any case, be allowed nor paid any per diem for attending or testifying in any state or municipal court of this state, in regard to matters and information that have come to his knowledge in connection with and as a result of the performance of his duties as a public officer as aforesaid: Provided, this act shall not apply when any deduction shall be made from the regular salary of such officer by reason of his being in attendance upon the superior court, but in such cases regular witness fees shall be paid; and further, that if a public officer be subpoenaed and required to appear or testify in judicial proceedings in a county other than that in which he resides, then said public officer shall be entitled to receive per diem and mileage as provided by statute in other cases; and, provided further, that this act shall not apply to police officers when called as witnesses in the superior courts during hours when they are off duty as such officers. [L. '01, p. 212, § 1; L. '03, p. 10, § 1.]

§ 500. "Folio" Defined, and Matters Concerning.—The term "folio" when used as a measure for computing fees or compensation, shall be construed to mean one hundred words, counting every two figures necessarily used as a word. Any portion of a folio, when in the whole draft or paper there should not be a complete folio, and when there shall be an excess over the last folio exceeding a quarter, it shall be computed as a folio. The filing of a paper shall be construed to include the certificate of the same. [L. '69, p. 373, § 5; Cd. '81, § 2093; 1 H. C. § 3022.]

§ 501. Mileage in Certain Cases.—When any sheriff, constable, or coroner serves more than one process in the same cause, or on the same person, not requiring more than one journey from his office, he shall receive mileage only for the most distant service. [L. '69, p. 373, § 16; Cd. '81, § 2094; 1 H. C., § 3023.]

§ 502. Witness Fee not Allowed to Attorney.—No attorney in any case shall be allowed any fees as a witness in such case. [L. '69, p. 374, § 17; Cd. '81, § 2095; 1 H. C., § 3024.]

§ 503. Mileage to be Computed from Courthouse, When.—Mileage of officers who are required to reside at the county seat shall be computed from the courthouse of the county and every portion of a mile shall be computed as one mile. [L. '69, p. 374, § 19; Cd. '81, § 2097; 1 H. C., § 3026.]

§ 504. Costs of Publication to be Paid in Advance.—When, by law, any publication is required to be made by an officer of any suit, process, notice, order, or other papers, the costs of such publication shall, if demanded, be tendered by the party procuring such publication before such officer shall be compelled to make publication thereof. [L. '69, p. 373, § 14; Cd. '81, § 2092; 1 H. C., § 3021.]

§ 505. Fees Payable in Advance, When.—All fees are invariably due in advance where demanded by the officer required to perform any official act, and no officer shall be required to perform any official act unless his fees are paid when he demands the same: Provided, this section shall not apply when the officer performs any official act for his county, or for the state. [L. '69, p. 374, § 21; Cd. '81, § 2099; 1 H. C., § 3028.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 96.

§ 506. Officers not to Serve Until Fees are Paid—Liability Afterwards.—The officers mentioned in this act shall not, in any case except for the state or county, perform any official services unless the fees prescribed for such service are paid in advance, and on such payment the officer must perform the services required. For every failure or refusal to perform official duty when the fees are tendered, the officer is liable on his official bond. [L. '90, p. 315, § 39; 1 H. C., § 3009.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 260.

§ 507. Fees of Witness are to be Paid in Advance, When.—Witnesses in civil cases shall be entitled to receive upon demand their fees for one day's attendance, together with mileage going to the place where they are required to attend, if such demand is made to the officer or person serving the subpoena at the time of service. [L. '69, p. 374, § 22; Cd. '81, § 2100; 1 H. C., § 3029.]

§ 508. County to Pay Costs, When and When not.—Each county shall be liable to pay the per diem and mileage, or other compensation in lieu thereof, to jurors of the county attending the district court; the fees of the sheriff for maintaining prisoners charged with crimes, and his costs in conveying them to and from the district court, as well as their board while there; the per diem and mileage, or such other compensation as is allowed in lieu thereof, of the sheriff of the county, when in criminal cases he is required to attend or travel to the superior court out of the limits of his own county; the costs in criminal cases taken from the county to the district court: Provided, that none shall be so paid by the treasurer unless the particular items shall be approved by the judge and certified by the clerk under the seal of the court: And provided further, that for the time or travel which may be paid by the parties or United States, no payment from the county fund shall be allowed, and no officer, juror, or witness shall receive from the county double pay as a per diem for the same time, or as traveling expenses or mileage for the same travel, in how many different capacities or in however many different causes they may be summoned, notified, or called upon to testify or attend in. [Cf. L. '57, p. 22, § 10; L. '63, p. 425, § 10; L. '69, p. 420, § 9; Cd. '81, § 2103; 1 H. C., § 3050.]

See supra, § 491, costs against state or county.

This and the next following section are for the most part incompatible with the organization of the courts under the state constitution. There being a doubt as to what portions thereof survive, they are given as they appeared in the code of 1881.

§ 509. Expenses in Lieu of Mileage.—Whenever a juror, witness, or officer is required to attend a court, or travel on official business out of the limits of his own county, and entitled to mileage, in lieu thereof he may at his option receive his actual and necessary traveling expenses by the usually traveled route in going to and returning from the place where the court is held, or where the business is discharged. [Cf. L. '63, p. 424, §§ 6, 8; L. '69, p. 419, § 7; Cd. '81, § 2109; 1 H. C., § 3049.]

CHAPTER I.

Executions.

§ 510. Execution to Enforce Judgment.—The party in whose favor judgment has been given or may hereafter be given or entered in any court of record in this state or the territory of Washington may have an execution issued at any time for the collection or enforcement of the same: Providing, that if a period of five years shall have elapsed without an execution being issued on such judgment, then execution shall not issue thereafter until such judgment shall be revived in the manner provided for by law. [Cf. L. '54, p. 175, § 242; L. '69, p. 79, § 320; Cd. '81, § 325; L. '88, p. 94, § 1; 2 H. C., § 464.]

Cited in 12 Wash. 518; 23 Wash. 546; 32 Wash. 90; 78 Wash. 190, 192.

Superseded and modified by §§ 445, 458, supra.
See supra, § 445, duration of judgment lien.
See supra, § 459, revival of judgments.

§ 511. Four Kinds of Executions.—There shall be four kinds of execution; One against the property of the judgment debtor; another against his person; the third for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, or such delivery with damages for withholding the same; and the fourth, commanding the enforcement of or obedience to any special order of the court. And in all cases there shall be an order to collect the costs. [L. '54, p. 176, § 245; Cd. '81, § 327; 2 H. C., § 465.]

Cited in 22 Wash. 309.

§ 512. Enforcement in Particular Cases.—When a judgment requires the payment of money, or the delivery of real or personal property, the same may be enforced in those respects by execution, as provided in this chapter. When it requires the performance of any other act, a certified copy of the judgment may be served on the party against whom it is given, or the person or officer who is required thereby, or by law, to obey the same, and a writ shall be issued commanding him to obey or enforce the same. If he refuses, he may be punished by the court as for a contempt. [L. '54, p. 176, § 244; Cd. '81, § 326; 2 H. C., § 466.]

§ 513. Form and Contents of Writ.—The writ of execution shall be issued in the name of the state of Washington, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk, and shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the property is situated, or coroner when the sheriff is a party or interested, and shall intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the county where judgment was rendered, the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment if it be for money, and the amount actually due thereon, and shall require substantially as follows:—

1. If it be against the property of the judgment debtor, it shall require the sheriff to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of the personal property of the debtor, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, out of his real property upon which the judgment is a lien;

2. If it be against real or personal property in the hands of personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, tenants of real property, or trustees, it shall require the sheriff to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of such property;

3. If it be against the person of the judgment debtor, it shall require the sheriff to arrest such debtor, and commit him to the jail of the county until he shall pay the judgment, with interest, or be discharged according to law;

4. If it be for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, it shall require the sheriff to deliver the possession of the same, particularly describing it, to the party entitled thereto, and may, at the same time, require the sheriff to satisfy any charges, damages, or rents and profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the personal property of the party against whom it was rendered, and the value of the property for which the judgment was recovered, shall be specified therein. If a delivery thereof cannot be had, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of his real property. When it is to enforce obedience to any special order, it shall particularly command what is required to be done or to be omitted. When the nature of the case shall require it, the execution may embrace one or more of the requirements above mentioned. And in all cases the execution shall require the collection of all interest, costs, and increased costs thereon. [Cf. L. '54, p. 176, § 246; L. '69, p. 81, § 324; Cd. '81, § 328; 2 H. C., § 467.]

§ 514. To What County Execution may Issue.—The party in whose favor judgment has been rendered, entered, or given in any court of record in this state for the recovery of money, or against the property of a judgment debtor, may have execution issued thereon for the collection or enforcement of such judgment to the sheriff of any county in this state: Provided, that when a judgment requires the delivery of real or personal property execution shall be issued to the sheriff of the county where the property, or some part thereof, is situated. [Cf. L. '54, p. 177, § 247; Cd. '81, § 329; L. '88, p. 95, § 2; 2 H. C., § 468.]

same, and such execution shall be returnable within sixty days after its date to the clerk who issued the same. And no sheriff shall retain any moneys collected on execution more than twenty days before paying the same to the clerk of the court who issues the writ, under penalty of twenty per cent on the amount collected, to be paid by the sheriff, and one-half to the party to whom the judgment is payable, and the other half to the county commissioners of the county wherein the action was brought, for the use of the school fund of said county. And the clerk shall, immediately after the receipt of any moneys collected on any judgment, notify the party to whom the same is payable, and pay over the amount to the said party on demand. On failure to so notify and pay over, without reasonable cause shown for delay, the clerk shall forfeit and pay the same penalty to the same parties as is above prescribed for the sheriff. [Cf. L. '54, p. 177, § 248; L. '69, p. 83, § 226; Cd. '81, § 330; 2 H. C., § 469.]

§ 516. Execution Against the Person.—If the action be one in which the defendant may be arrested as provided by law, an execution against the person of the judgment debtor may be issued to any county in the state: Provided, that the sheriff shall not arrest the defendant if he shall deliver to him the property subject to levy, sufficient to satisfy said judgment. [L. '54, p. 177, § 249; Cd. '81, § 331; 2 H. C., § 470.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 497; 84 Wash. 60.

§ 517. Imprisonment of Defendant upon Execution.—A person arrested on execution shall be imprisoned within the jail, or the liberties thereof, and kept at his own expense until satisfaction of the execution or his legal discharge; but the plaintiff shall be liable to the sheriff, in the first instance, for such expense as in other cases of arrest in the same manner and to the same extent as therein prescribed. [L. '54, p. 177, § 250; Cd. '81, § 332; 2 H. C., § 471.]

§ 518. What Property Subject to Execution.—All property, real and personal, of the judgment debtor, not exempt by law, shall be liable to execution. [L. '54, p. 177, § 251; Cd. '81, § 333; 2 H. C., § 479.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 489; 31 Wash. 457.

§ 519. Execution in Name of Assignee, Executor, etc.—In all cases in which a judgment has been recovered in any of the courts of this state, which shall have been assigned to any person, execution may issue in the name of the assignee, upon the assignment being recorded in the execution docket by the clerk of the court in which the judgment is recovered; and in all cases in which a judgment has been recovered in any such court, and the person in whose name execution might have issued dies, execution may issue in the name of the executor, administrator, or legal representative of such deceased person upon the letters testamentary or of administration, or other sufficient proof, being filed in said cause and minuted upon said execution docket by the clerk of the court in which said judgment is entered, and upon an order of said court, or the judge thereof, which may be made on an ex parte application, and the provisions of this section shall extend to all judgments heretofore recovered, as well as to those hereafter to be recovered, and to cases of persons now deceased, as well as to those who may hereafter die. [L. '69, p. 84, § 330; Cd. '81, § 334; L. '86, p. 75, § 1; 2 H. C., § 472.]

§ 520. Franchises Liable to Sale Under Execution or Foreclosure. All franchises of every kind and nature heretofore or hereafter granted, shall be subject to sale upon execution, and upon order of sale issued upon foreclosure of mortgage, in the same manner as any other personal property may be sold upon execution or upon order of sale under foreclosure of mortgage, except as hereinafter provided. [L. '97, p. 96, § 1.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 54; 22 Wash. 490; 86 Wash. 322.

§ 521. Manner of Levy and Sale of Franchises.—The levy of such execution or order of sale shall be made by filing in the office of the auditor of the county in which the franchise was granted, a copy of the same, together with a notice in writing that under such execution or order of sale the officer levying the same has levied upon the franchise to be sold, specifying the time and place of sale, the name of the owner of the franchise, the amount of the claim or judgment for the satisfaction of which the franchise is to be sold, and the name of the plaintiff in the action in which the decree of foreclosure or judgment is entered; and by serving a copy of such execution or order of sale and notice, upon the judgment debtor, or his attorney of record, if any, in the action in which judgment was rendered, twenty days prior to the date of sale. Notice may be served upon a defendant in the same manner that summons is served in civil actions. The sale of any franchise under execution or order of sale upon foreclosure must be made at the front door of the courthouse in the county in which the franchise was granted, not less than twenty days after the levy of the execution or order of sale and the giving of the notice as in this act provided. [L. '97, pp. 96, 97, §§ 2, 3.]

CHAPTER II.

The Stay of Executions.

§ 522. Stay, in What Cases Allowed.—Stay of execution shall be allowed on judgments rendered in the supreme court and superior courts as follows:—

In the supreme court,—

1. On all sums under five hundred dollars, thirty days;

2. On all sums over five and under fifteen hundred dollars, sixty days;

3. On all sums over fifteen hundred dollars, ninety days;

On judgments rendered in the superior court,—

1. On all sums under three hundred dollars, two months;

2. On all sums over three hundred and under one thousand dollars, five months;

3. On all sums over one thousand dollars, six months. [Cf. L. '54, p. 377, § 1; L. '60, p. 328, § 1; Cd. '81, § 335; 2 H. C., § 473.]

§ 523. Bond Required for Stay.—Before any execution shall be stayed under the provisions of this chapter, the defendant shall give bond to the opposite party in double the amount of the judgment and costs, with surety, to the satisfaction of the clerk, conditioned to pay said judgment, interest, costs, and increased costs at the expiration of the period of said stay. [L. '54, p. 378, § 2; Cd. '81, § 336; 2 H. C., § 474.]

Cited in 50 Wash. 40, 41.

§ 524. Judgment may be Entered Against Sureties.—If the judgment is not satisfied at any time after the expiration of the period for which execution has been stayed, the plaintiff may, upon motion supported by an affidavit that such judgment, or any part thereof, is unpaid, and stating how much still remains due thereon, have judgment against the sureties upon said bond for the balance remaining due, and have an execution therefor, upon which no stay shall be allowed. [L. '54, p. 378, § 3; Cd. '81, § 337; 2 H. C., § 475.]

Cited in 50 Wash. 41.

§ 525. Qualification and Justification of Sureties.—The sureties upon a bond for stay of execution shall possess the same qualifications and justify in the same manner as bail upon arrest in civil actions. [L. '54, p. 378, § 4; Cd. '81, § 338; 2 H. C., § 476.]

§ 526. Stay for Part of Period.—When execution has not been stayed, and execution issues before the time has elapsed for which it might have been stayed, as is herein provided, the defendant may have stay for the balance of the time upon giving the proper bond and surety, which bond and surety shall be approved by and justified before the sheriff. [L. '54, p. 378, § 5; Cd. '81, § 339; 2 H. C., § 477.]

§ 527. Bond Lodged With Clerk.—Bonds required by this chapter shall, when taken, be lodged with the clerk of the court where the judgment was rendered and placed on file in his office. [L. '54, p. 378, § 6; Cd. '81, § 340; 2 H. C., § 478.]

CHAPTER III.

Homesteads and Exemptions.

§ 528. Homestead, of What Consists.—The homestead consists of the dwelling-house, in which the claimant resides, and the land on which the same is situated, selected as in this chapter provided. [L. '95, p. 109, § 1.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 377; 17 Wash. 435; 25 Wash. 5; 30 Wash. 40, 54, 313; 32 Wash. 83, 98; 41 Wash. 460, 461, 464, 465; 46 Wash. 577; 48 Wash. 377; 56 Wash. 59; 57 Wash. 44; 75 Wash. 614; 78 Wash. 547; 87 Wash. 360.

For former laws on this subject see: L. '54, p. 178; L. '61, pp. 42, 52; L. '69, p. 85; Cd. '81, §§ 341–348; 2 H. C., §§ 480–490.

§ 529. Exemption of Homestead—Time for Selection.—There shall be also exempt from execution and attachment to every householder, being the head of a family, a homestead not exceeding in value the sum of one thousand dollars, while occupied as such by the owner thereof, or his or her family. Said homestead may consist of a house and lot or lots in any city, or of a farm consisting of any number of acres, so that the value of the same shall not exceed the aforesaid sum of one thousand dollars. Such homestead may be selected at any time before sale. [Cd. '81, § 342; 2 H. C., § 481.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 547, 549; 84 Wash. 666.

This section, except the last sentence, seems to be superseded.

§ 530. From What may be Selected.—If the claimant be married the homestead may be selected from the community property, or the separate property of the husband, or, with the consent of the wife, from her separate property. When the claimant is not married, but is the head of a family within the meaning of section 553 the homestead may be selected from any of his or her property. [L. '95, p. 109, § 2.]

Cited in 56 Wash. 59; 66 Wash. 166.

§ 531. When Selected from Wife's Separate Estate.—The homestead cannot be selected from the separate property of the wife without her consent, shown by her making the declaration of homestead. [L. '95, p. 109, § 3.]

§ 532. Exempt from Forced Sale.—The homestead is exempt from execution or forced sale, except as in this chapter provided. [L. '95, p. 109, § 4.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 166, 167.

The exception "as in this chapter provided" is stated in § 537, infra.

§ 533. When Homestead Subject to Execution.—The homestead is subject to execution or forced sale in satisfaction of judgments obtained: 1. On debts secured by mechanic's, laborer's, materialmen's or vendor's liens upon the premises. 2. On debts secured by mortgages on the premises executed and acknowledged by the husband and wife or by any unmarried claimant. [L. '95, p. 110, § 5; L. '09, p. 71, § 1.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 166, 167, 517; 87 Wash. 360.

§ 534. How Conveyed or Encumbered.—The homestead of a married person cannot be conveyed or encumbered unless the instrument by which it is conveyed or encumbered is executed and acknowledged by both husband and wife. [L. '95, p. 110, § 6.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 168, 169; 50 Wash. 112.

§ 535. How Abandoned.—A homestead can be abandoned only by a declaration of abandonment, or a grant thereof, executed and acknowledged,—

1. By the husband and wife if the claimant is married;
2. By the claimant, if unmarried. [L. '95, p. 110, § 7.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 56; 35 Wash. 159; 44 Wash. 168; 78 Wash. 547, 549.

§ 536. Declaration, When Effectual.—A declaration of abandonment is effectual only from the time it is filed in the office in which the homestead was recorded. [L. '95, p. 110, § 8.]

§ 537. Proceedings on Execution Against Homestead.—When the execution for the enforcement of a judgment obtained in a case not within the classes enumerated in section 533 is levied upon the homestead, the judgment creditor may apply to the superior court of the county in which the homestead is situated for the appointment of persons to appraise the value thereof. [L. '95, p. 110, § 9.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 169.

§ 538. Verified Petition.—The application must be made upon verified petition, showing,—

1. The fact that an execution has been levied upon the homestead;

2. The name of the claimant;

3. That the value of the homestead exceeds the amount of the homestead exemption. [L. '95, p. 110, § 10.]

§ 539. Petition, Where Filed.—The petition must be filed with the clerk of the superior court. [L. '95, p. 110, § 11.]

§ 540. Notice.—A copy of the petition, with a notice of the time and place of hearing, must be served upon the claimant at least ten days before the hearing. [L. '95, p. 110, § 12.]

§ 541. Hearing and Appointment of Appraisers.—At the hearing the judge may, upon the proof of the service of a copy of the petition and notice and of the facts stated in the petition, appoint three disinterested resident freeholders of the county to appraise the value of the homestead. [L. '95, p. 110, § 13.]

§ 542. Oath of Appraisers.—The persons appointed, before entering upon the performance of their duties, must take an oath to faithfully perform the same. [L. '95, p. 111, § 14.]

§ 543. View of Premises.—They must view the premises and appraise the value thereof, and if the appraised value exceeds the homestead exemption, they must determine whether the land claimed can be divided without material injury. [L. '95, p. 111, § 15.]

§ 544. Report of Appraisers.—Within fifteen days after their appointment they must make to the court a report in writing, which report must show the appraised value and their determination upon the matter of a division of the land claimed. [L. '95, p. 111, § 16.]

§ 545. Division of Property, When.—If, from the report, it appears to the court that the land claimed can be divided without material injury the court must, by an order, direct the appraisers to set off to the claimant so much of the land including the residence, as will amount in value to the homestead exemption, and the execution may be enforced against the remainder of the land. [L. '95, p. 111, § 17.]

§ 546. Sale, When.—If, from the report, it appears to the court that the land claimed exceeds in value the amount of the homestead exemption and that it cannot be divided, the court must make an order directing its sale under the execution. [L. '95, p. 111, § 18.]

§ 547. Bids.—At such sale no bid must be received unless it exceeds the amount of the homestead exemption. [L. 95, p. 111, § 19.]

§ 548. Application of Proceeds.—If the sale is made, the proceeds thereof, to the amount of the homestead exemption, must be paid to the claimant and the balance applied to the satisfaction of the execution. [L. '95, p. 111, § 20.]

§ 549. Money from Sale Protected.—The money paid to the claimant is entitled to the same protection against legal process and the voluntary disposition of the husband which the law gives to the homestead. [L. '95, p. 111, § 21.]

§ 550. Compensation of Appraisers.—The compensation of the appraisers shall be two dollars per day each. [L. '95, p. 111. § 22.]

§ 551. Costs.—The execution creditor must pay the costs of these proceedings in the first instance; but in the case provided for in sections 545 and 546 the amount so paid must be added as costs on execution, and collected accordingly. [L. '95, p. 111, § 23.]

§ 552. Selection and Value of Homestead.—Homesteads may be selected and claimed in lands and tenements with the improvements thereon, not exceeding in value the sum of two thousand dollars. The premises thus included in the homestead must be actually intended and used for a home for the claimants, and shall not be devoted exclusively to any other purposes. [L. '95, p. 112, § 24.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 38; 57 Wash. 44; 78 Wash. 547, 549.

§ 553. Head of a Family Defined.—The phrase "head of the family," as used in this chapter, includes within its meaning,—

1. The husband or wife, when the claimant is a married person;

2. Every person who has residing on the premises with him or her, and under his or her care and maintenance, either,—

1. His or her minor child or the minor child of his or her deceased wife or husband;

2. A minor brother or sister or the minor child of a deceased brother or sister;

3. A father, mother, grandmother or grandfather;

4. The father, mother, grandfather or grandmother of deceased husband or wife;

5. An unmarried sister, or any other of the relatives mentioned in this section who has attained the age of majority, and are unable to take care of or support themselves. [L. '95, p. 112, § 25.]

§ 554. Alienation in Case of Insanity.—In case of a homestead, if either the husband or wife shall become hopelessly insane, upon application of the husband or wife not insane to the superior court of the county in which the homestead is situated, and upon due proof of such insanity, the court may make an order permitting the husband or wife not insane to sell and convey or mortgage such homestead. [L. '95, p. 112, § 26.]

Cited in 45 Wash. 23.

§ 555. Notice of Application.—Notice of the application for such order shall be given by publication of the same in a newspaper published in the county in which such homestead is situated, if there be a newspaper published therein, once each week for three successive weeks prior to the hearing of such application, and a copy of such notice shall be served upon the nearest male relative of such insane husband or wife, resident in this state, at least three weeks prior to such application, and in case there be no such male relative known to the applicant, a copy of such notice shall be served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such homestead is situated; and it is hereby made the duty of such prosecuting attorney, upon being served with a copy of such notice, to appear in court and see that such application is made in good faith, and that the proceedings therein are fairly conducted. [L. '95, p. 112, § 27.]

§ 556. Petition—Thirty days before the hearing of any application under the provisions of this chapter, the applicant shall present and file in the court in which such application is to be heard a petition for the order mentioned, subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, setting forth the name and age of the insane husband or wife; a description of the premises constituting the homestead; the value of the same; the county in which it is situated; and such facts in addition to that of the insanity of the husband or wife relating to the circumstances and necessities of the applicant and his or her family as he or she may rely upon in support of the petition. [L. '95, p. 113, § 28.]

§ 557. Order and Effect.—If the court shall make the order provided for in section 554, the same shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; and thereafter any sale, conveyance [or] mortgage made in pursuance of such order shall be as valid and effectual as if the property affected thereby was the absolute property of the person making such sale, conveyance or mortgage in fee simple. [L. '95, p. 113, § 29.]

§ 558. Mode of Selection.—In order to select a homestead the husband or other head of a family, or in case the husband has not made such selection, the wife must execute and acknowledge, in the same manner as a grant of real property is acknowledged, a declaration of homestead, and file the same for record. [L. '95, p. 113, § 30.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 38; 56 Wash. 59; 76 Wash. 455; 86 Wash. 59; 87 Wash. 365.

§ 559. Declaration, What to Contain.—The declaration of homestead must contain,—

1. A statement showing that the person making it is the head of a family; or when the declaration is made by the wife, showing that her husband has not made such declaration, and that she therefore makes the declaration for their joint benefit;

2. A statement that the person making it is residing on the premises or has purchased the same for a homestead and intends to reside thereon and claims them as a homestead;

3. A description of the premises;

4. An estimate of their actual cash value. [L. '95, p. 113, § 31.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 39, 54; 70 Wash. 560; 87 Wash. 359, 365.

§ 560. Declaration must be Recorded.—The declaration must be recorded in the office of the auditor of the county in which the land is situated. [L. '95, p. 114, § 32.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 39; 87 Wash. 359, 365.

§ 561. Tenure by Which Homestead is Held.—From and after the time the declaration is filed for record the premises therein described constitute a homestead. If the selection was made by a married person from the community property, the land, on the death of either of the spouses, vests in the survivor, subject to no other liability than such as exists or has been created under the provisions of this chapter; in other cases, upon the death of the person whose property was selected as a homestead, it shall go to his heirs or devisees, subject to the power of the superior court to assign the same for a limited period to the family of the decedent; but in no case shall it be held liable for the debts of the owner, except as provided in this chapter. [L. '95, p. 114, § 33.]

See infra, § 1465, probate homestead.

§ 562. Subsequent Homestead Acquired by Proceeds of Former.—In case of the sale of said homestead, any subsequent homestead acquired by the proceeds thereof shall also be exempt from attachment and execution; nor shall any judgment or other claim against the owner of such homestead be a lien against the same in the hands of a bona fide purchaser for a valuable consideration. [L. '95, p. 87, § 342; Cd. '81, § 346; 2 H. C., § 485.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 7; 44 Wash. 169; 50 Wash. 112.

§ 563. Specification of Exempt Property.—The following property shall be exempt from execution and attachment, except as hereinafter specially provided:—

1. All wearing apparel of every person and family;

2. All private libraries, not to exceed five hundred dollars in value, and all family pictures and keepsakes;

3. To each householder, one bed and bedding, and one addition[al] bed and bedding for each additional member of the family, and other household goods and utensils and furniture not exceeding five hundred dollars, coin, in value. The other household goods and utensils and furniture specified above shall on the demand of the officer having the execution or attachment in hand, be selected by the husband, if present, if not present they shall be selected by his wife, and in case neither husband or wife, nor other person entitled to the exemption by having the description of a householder, shall be present to make the selection, then the sheriff shall make a selection of the household goods, utensils and furniture equal in value to said five hundred dollars, and shall return the same as exempt by inventory, and such selection by the sheriff or other person described above shall be prima facie evidence,—1. That such household goods, utensils, and furniture are exempt from execution and attachment; 2. That the value of the property so selected is not over five hundred dollars;

4. To each householder, two cows, with their calves, five swine, two stands of bees, thirty-six domestic fowls, and provisions and fuel for the comfortable maintenance of such householder and family for six months, also feed for such animals for six months: Provided, that in case such householder shall not possess or shall not desire to retain the animals above named, he may select from his property and retain other property not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars, coin, in value. The selection in the proviso mentioned shall be made in the manner and by the person and at the time mentioned in subdivision three, and said selection shall have the same effect as selections made under subdivision three of this section;

5. To a farmer, one span of horses or mules, with harness, or two yoke of oxen, with yokes and chains, and one wagon; also farming utensils actually used about the farm, not exceeding in value five hundred dollars in coin; also one hundred and fifty bushels of wheat, one hundred and fifty bushels of oats or barley, fifty bushels of potatoes, ten bushels of corn, ten bushels of peas, and ten bushels of onions for seeding purposes;

6. To a mechanic, the tools and instruments used to carry on his trade for the support of himself and family, also material used in his trade, not exceeding in value five hundred dollars in coin;

7. To a physician, his library, not to exceed in value five hundred dollars in coin; also, one horse, with harness and buggy the instruments used in his practice, and medicines not exceeding in value two hundred dollars in coin;

8. To attorneys, clergymen, and other professional men, their libraries, not exceeding one thousand dollars, in coin, value; also office furniture, fuel, and stationery, not exceeding in value two hundred dollars in coin;

9. All firearms kept for the use of any person or family;

10. To any person, a canoe, skiff, or small boat, with its oars, sails, and rigging, not exceeding in value two hundred and fifty dollars;

11. To a person engaged in lightering for his support or that of his family, one or more lighters, barges, or scows, and a small boat, with oars, sails, and rigging, not exceeding in the aggregate two hundred and fifty dollars, in coin, value;

12. To a teamster or drayman engaged in that business for the support of himself or his family, his team, consisting of one span of horses, or mules, or two yoke of oxen, or a horse and mule, with harness, yoke, one wagon, truck, cart, or dray;

13. To a person engaged in the business of logging for his support or that of his family, three yoke of work cattle and their yokes, and axes, chains, implements for the business, and camp equipments, not exceeding three hundred dollars, coin, in value;

14. A sufficient quantity of hay, grain, or feed to keep the animals mentioned in the several subdivisions of this chapter for six weeks. But no property shall be exempt from an execution issued upon a judgment for the price thereof, or any part of the price thereof, or for any tax levied thereon.

Each person shall be entitled to select the property to which he is entitled under the several subdivisions of this section. [Cf. L. '54, p. 178, § 253; L. '69, p. 87, § 343; L.'79, p. 157, § 1; Cd. '81, § 347; L. '83, p. 36, § 1; L. '86, p. 96, § 1; 2 H. C., § 486.]

§ 565. Householder Defined.—A householder, as designated in all statutes relating to exemptions, is defined to be:—

1. The husband and wife, or either;

2. Every person who has residing with him or her, and under his or her care and maintenance, either,—

(a) His or her minor child, or the minor child of his or her deceased wife or husband;

(b) A minor brother or sister, or the minor child of a deceased brother or sister;

(c) A father, mother, grandfather or grandmother;

(d) The father, mother, grandfather or grandmother of deceased husband or wife;

(e) An unmarried sister, or any other of the relatives mentioned in this section who has attained the age of majority, and are unable to take care of or support themselves. [L. '97, p. 93, § 2.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 560.

§ 566. Pension Money Exempt.—Any money received by any citizen of the state of Washington as a pension from the government of the United States, whether the same be in the actual possession of such person or be deposited or loaned by him, shall be exempt from execution, attachment, or seizure by or under any legal process whatever. [L. '90, p. 88, § 1; 2 H. C., § 487.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 560.

§ 567. When Pension Money Exempt to Family.—When a debtor dies or absconds, and leaves his family any money exempted by the last preceding section, the same shall be exempt to his family as provided in said section. [L. '90, p. 89, § 2; 2 H. C., § 488.]

§ 568. Fire Insurance Money Exempt, When.—Whenever property, which by the laws of this state is exempt from execution or attachment, is insured and the same is destroyed by fire, then the insurance money coming to or belonging to the person thus insured, to an amount equal to the exempt property thus destroyed, shall be exempt from execution and attachment. [L. '95, p. 135, § 1.]

§ 569. Proceeds of Life Insurance Exempt.—The proceeds or avails of all life and accident insurance shall be exempt from all liability for any debt. [Cf. L. '95, p. 336, § 1; L. '97, p. 70, § 1.]

Cited in 38 Wash. 372, 373; 65 Wash. 375; 77 Wash. 629; 79 Wash. 48; 83 Wash. 236.

§ 570. Separate Property of Wife Exempt, When.—All real and personal estate belonging to any married woman at the time of her marriage, and all which she may have acquired subsequently to such marriage, or to which she shall hereafter become entitled in her own right, and all her personal earnings, and all the issues, rents, and profits of such real estate, shall be exempt from attachment and execution upon any liability or judgment against the husband, so long as she or any minor heir of her body shall be living: Provided, that her separate property shall be liable for debts owing by her at the time of her marriage. [L. '54, p. 178, § 252; L. '69, p. 85, § 337; Cd. '81, § 341; H. C., § 480.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 512; 69 Wash. 571; 70 Wash. 560.

§ 571. Waiver of Exemption—Absconding Debtors.—This chapter shall not be so construed as to prevent any single man, or married man, his wife joining him, from waiving, by agreement in writing, the benefit of this chapter: Provided, that any agreement of waiver made by a husband and wife shall be witnessed and acknowledged as required in case of a deed conveying real estate: And provided also, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to exempt from attachment or execution the property, real or personal, of nonresidents, or a person who has left or is about to leave the state with the intent to defraud his creditors. [L. '69, p. 88, § 344; L. '77, p. 74, § 352; Cd. '81, § 348; 2 H. C., § 489.]

§ 572. Claim of Exemption and Proceedings Thereon.—When a debtor claims personal property as exempt, he shall deliver to the officer making the levy an itemized list of all the personal property owned or claimed by him, including money, bonds, bills, notes, claims, and demands, with the residence of the person indebted upon the said bonds, bills, notes, claims, and demands, and shall verify such list by affidavit. He shall also deliver to such officer a list, by separate items, of the property he claims as exempt. If the husband be absent or incapable of acting, the claim may be made, the list delivered and verified, by the wife. If the creditor, his agent or attorney, demand an appraisement thereof, two disinterested householders of the neighborhood shall be chosen, one by the debtor and the other by the creditor, his agent or attorney, and these two, if they cannot agree, shall select a third; [but if either party fail to choose an appraiser, or the two fail to select a third, or] if one or more of the appraisers fail to act, the officer shall appoint one. The appraisers shall forthwith proceed to make a list, by separate items, of the personal property selected by the debtor as exempt, which they shall decide as exempt, stating the value of each article, and annexing to the list their affidavit to the following effect: "We solemnly swear that, to the best of our judgment, the above is a fair cash valuation of the property therein described," which affidavit shall be signed by two appraisers at least, and be certified by the officer administering the oaths. The list shall be delivered to the officer holding the execution or other process, and be by him annexed to and made part of his return, and the property therein specified shall be exempt from levy and sale, and the other personal estate of the debtor shall remain subject thereto. In case no appraisement be required, the officer shall return with the process the list of the property claimed as exempt by the debtor. The appraisers shall each be entitled to one dollar, to be paid by the creditor, if all the property claimed by the debtor shall be exempt; otherwise, to be paid by the debtor. [L. '69, p. 88, § 346; L. '77, p. 74, § 353; Cd. '81, § 349; 2 H. C., § 490.]

CHAPTER IV.

Adverse Claims to Property Levied upon.

§ 573. Claim by Third Person to Property Levied on or Attached. When any other person than the judgment debtor shall claim property levied upon or attached, he may have the right to demand and receive the same from the sheriff or other officer making the attachment or levy, upon his making an affidavit that the property is his, or that he has a right to the immediate possession thereof, stating on oath the value thereof, and giving to the sheriff or officer a bond, with sureties in double the value of such property, conditioned that he will appear in the superior court of the county in which the property was seized within ten days after the bond is accepted by the sheriff or other officer, and make good his title to the same, or that he will return the property or pay its value to the said sheriff or other officer. [Cf. L. '54, p. 179, § 256; Cd. '81, § 350; L. '91, p. 79, § 1; 2 H. C., § 491.]

§ 574. Justification of Sureties.—If the sheriff or other officer require it, the sureties shall justify as in other cases, and in case they do not so justify when required, the sheriff or officer shall retain the property; if the sheriff or officer do not require the bail to justify, he shall stand good for their sufficiency. He shall date and indorse his acceptance upon the bond. [Cf. L. '54, p. 179, § 256; Cd. '81, § 351; 2 H. C., § 492.]

§ 575. Return of Officer—Trial.—The officer shall return the affidavit, bond, and justification, if any, to the office of the clerk of the superior court, and this [the] case shall stand for trial in said court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 179, § 257; Cd. '81, § 352; L. '91, p. 80, § 2; 2 H. C., § 493.]

§ 576. Parties.—The person claiming the property shall be plaintiff, and the sheriff and plaintiff in the execution defendants. [L. '54, p. 179, § 258; Cd. '81, § 353; 2 H. C., § 494.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 47.

§ 577. Judgment and Costs.—If the claimant makes good his title to the property, the bond shall be canceled; if to a portion thereof, a like proportion of the bond shall be canceled; but if he shall not maintain his title, judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties for the value of the property, or for such less amount as shall not exceed the amount due on the original execution or attachment. When the judgment is in favor of the sheriff for the entire property, the claimant shall pay the costs; when the claimant recovers all the property, judgment shall be given in favor of the claimant for costs; when the claimant recovers a portion of the property only, the costs shall be apportioned. When the plaintiff prevails, the costs may be taxed against the defendant who was plaintiff in the execution or attachment, or the court may, if it shall be of opinion that the sheriff attached or levied upon said property without the exercise of due caution, adjudge him to pay the costs, or any portion thereof. [L. '54, p. 179, § 259; Cd. '81, § 354; 2 H. C., § 495.]

CHAPTER V.

Sale of Property Under Execution and Redemption.

§ 578. Writ, How Executed.—When the writ of execution is against the property of the judgment debtor, it shall be executed by the sheriff as follows:—

1. If property has been attached, he shall indorse on the execution and pay to the clerk forthwith the amount of the proceeds of sales of perishable property or debts due the defendant received by him sufficient to satisfy the judgment;

2. If the judgment is not then satisfied, and property has been attached and remains in his custody, he shall sell the same, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the judgment;

3. If then any portion of the judgment remains unsatisfied, or if no property has been attached, or the same has been discharged, he shall levy on the property of the judgment debtor sufficient to satisfy the judgment;

4. Property shall be levied on in like manner and with like effect as similar property is attached;

5. Until a levy, personal property shall not be affected by the execution. When property has been sold or debts received by the sheriff on execution, he shall pay the proceeds thereof, or sufficient to satisfy the judgment, as commanded in the writ;

6. When property has been attached, and it is probable that such property will not be sufficient to satisfy the judgment, the execution may be levied on other property of the judgment debtor without delay. If after satisfying the judgment any property, or the proceeds thereof, remain in the custody of the sheriff, he shall deliver the same to the judgment debtor. [L. '69, p. 91, § 351; Cd. '81, § 355; 2 H. C., § 496.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 6; 28 Wash. 423; 54 Wash. 301.

§ 579. Levy on Joint Realty.—When a defendant in execution owns real estate subject to execution jointly or in common with any other person, the judgment shall be a lien, and the execution be levied upon the interest of the defendant only. [L. '54, p. 220, § 499; Cd. '81, § 751; 2 H. C., § 802.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 135.

§ 580. Levy on Joint Personalty.—When he owns personal property jointly or in copartnership with any other person, and the interest cannot be separately attached, the sheriff shall take possession of the property, unless the other person having an interest therein shall give the sheriff a sufficient bond, with surety, to hold and manage the property according to law; and the sheriff shall then proceed to sell the interest of the defendant in such property, describing such interest in his advertisement as nearly as may be, and the purchaser shall acquire all the interest of such defendant therein; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to deprive the copartner of any such defendant of his interest in any such property. [L. '54, p. 220, § 499; Cd. '81, § 752; 2 H. C., § 802.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 14.

§ 581. Judgment Debtor may Retain Property, When.—When the sheriff shall levy upon personal property by virtue of an execution, he may permit the judgment debtor to retain the same, or any part thereof, in his possession until the day of sale, upon the defendant executing a written bond to the sheriff, with sufficient surety, in double the value of such property, to the effect that it shall be delivered to the sheriff at the time and place of sale; and for non-delivery thereof, an action may be maintained upon such bond by the sheriff or the plaintiff in the execution; but the sheriff shall not thereby be discharged from his liability to the plaintiff for such property. [Cf. L. '54, p. 182, § 268; L. '69, p. 92, § 354; Cd. '81, § 358; 2 H. C., § 499.]

§ 582. Notice of Sale.—Before the sale of property under execution, order of sale or decree, notice thereof shall be given as follows:

1. In case of personal property, by posting written or printed notice of the time and place of sale in three (3) public places in the county where the sale is to take place, for a period of not less than ten (10) days prior to the day of sale.

2. In case of real property, by posting a similar notice, particularly describing the property for a period of not less than four (4) weeks prior to the day of sale, in three (3) public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, where the property is to be sold, and publishing a copy thereof once a week, consecutively, for the same period, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county.

3. All notices of sales of property on execution or order of sale required by law to be published in any newspaper shall be so published in a newspaper of the county which shall be selected by the sheriff, and if there is no newspaper published, in the county, then such notice shall be published in the newspaper published in this state nearest to the place of sale: Provided, that if the person at whose instance the execution or order of sale is issued, or his attorney, shall present to the sheriff a receipt of the publisher of any newspaper, showing full payment for the publication, then the notice shall be published in that newspaper: And provided, further, that the charge for any such publication shall not exceed seventy-five cents per square for first insertion, and thirty-seven and one-half cents per square for each subsequent insertion. [L. '03, p. 381, § 1. Cf. L. 97, p. 265, § 1; L. '99, p. 86, § 3.]

§ 583. Sale, How Conducted.—All sales of property under execution, orders of sale or decree, shall be made by auction between 9 o'clock in the morning and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the execution, no more shall be sold. Neither the office [officer] holding the execution, nor his deputy, shall become a purchaser, or be interested in any purchase at such sale. When the sale is of personal property capable of manual delivery, and not in the possession of a third person, association or corporation, it shall be within view of those who attend the sale, and be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price; and when the sale is of real property, consisting of several known lots or parcels, they shall be sold separately or otherwise as is likely to bring the highest price, or when a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person, and he requires it to be sold separately, such portion shall be sold separately. Sales of real property shall be made at the courthouse door on Saturday. [L. '97, p. 71, § 2; L. '99, p. 87, § 4.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 558, 592; 56 Wash. 440; 81 Wash. 283.

§ 584. Sale of Leasehold Absolute.—Upon a sale of real property under execution, decree or order of sale, when the estate is less than a leasehold of two years unexpired term, the sale shall be absolute. In all other cases such property shall be subject to redemption, as hereinafter provided. At the time of the sale the sheriff shall give to the purchaser a certificate of the sale, containing a particular description of the property sold, the price bid for each distinct lot, or parcel, the whole price paid, and when subject to redemption, it shall be so stated. The matters contained in such certificate shall be substantially stated in the sheriff's return of his proceedings upon the writ. [L. '99, p. 87, § 5.]

§ 585. Postponement of Sale.—If, at the time appointed for the sale, the sheriff should be prevented from attending at the place appointed, or, being present, should deem it for the advantage of all concerned to postpone the sale for want of purchasers, or other sufficient cause, he may postpone the sale not exceeding one week next after the day appointed, and so from time to time, for the like cause, giving notice of every adjournment by public proclamation made at the same time, and by posting written notices of such adjournment under the notices of sale originally posted by him. The sheriff, for like causes, may also adjourn the sale from time to time, not exceeding thirty days beyond the day at which the writ is made returnable, with the consent of the plaintiff indorsed upon the writ. [Cf. L. '54, p. 182, § 269; L. '69, p. 93, § 357; Cd. '81, § 361; 2 H. C., § 502.]

§ 586. Bill of Sale by Sheriff.—When the purchaser of any personal property capable of manual delivery, and not in the possession of a third person, association, or corporation, shall pay the purchase money, the sheriff shall deliver to him the property, and if desired, shall give him a bill of sale containing an acknowledgment of the payment. In all other sales of personal property the sheriff shall give the purchaser a bill of sale with the like acknowledgment. [Cf. L. '54, p. 183, 270; L. '69, p. 94, § 358; Cd. '81, § 362; 2 H. C., § 503.]

§ 587. Manner of Selling Real Estate.—The form and manner of sale of real estate by execution shall be as follows: The sheriff shall proclaim aloud at the place of sale, in the hearing of all the bystanders: "I am about to sell the following tracts of real estate (here reading the description) upon the following execution" (here reading the execution). He shall also state the amount which he is required to make upon the execution, which shall include damages, interests, and costs up to the day of sale, and increased costs. He shall then offer the land for sale, the lots and parcels separately or together, as he shall deem most advantageous. All land, except town lots, shall be sold by the acre. [Cf. L. '54, p. 181, § 262; L. '69, p. 94, § 359; Cd. '81, § 363; 2 H. C., § 504.]

§ 588. Allotment When Sold by Acre.—When the land is sold by the acre, and any less number of acres than the whole tract or parcel is sold, it shall be measured off to the purchaser in a square form, from the northeast corner of the tract or parcel, unless some person having an interest in the land shall, at the sale, or prior thereto, and before the bidding is made, request that the land sold shall be taken from some other part, or in some other form; in such case, if such request is reasonable, the officer making the sale shall sell accordingly. [L. '54, p. 181, § 263; Cd. '81, § 364; 2 H. C., § 505.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 689.

§ 589. Sale by Acre not to be Measured.—When an entire tract or parcel of land is sold by the acre, it shall not be measured, but shall be deemed and taken to contain the number of acres named in the description, and be paid for accordingly; and when the number of acres is not contained in the description, the officer shall declare, according to his judgment, how many acres are contained therein, which shall be deemed and taken to be the true number of acres. [L. '54, p. 182, § 264; Cd. '81, § 365; 2 H. C., § 506.]

§ 590. Striking Off, Return, and Payment.—The officer shall strike off the land to the highest bidder, who shall forthwith pay the money bid to the officer, who shall return the money with his execution and his doings thereon to the clerk of the court from which the execution issued, according to the order thereof: Provided, however, that when final judgment shall have been entered in the supreme court, and the execution upon which sale has been made issued from said court, the proceedings on execution and return shall be docketed for confirmation in the superior court in which the action was originally commenced, and like proceedings shall be had as though said execution had issued from the said superior court. [L. '54, p. 182, § 265; L. '69, p. 95, § 362; Cd. '81, § 366; 2 H. C., § 507.]

§ 591. Confirmation of Sale of Land—Disposition of Proceeds.—Upon the return of any sale of real estate as aforesaid, the clerk shall enter the cause, on which the execution or order of sale issued, by its title, on the motion docket, and mark opposite the same: "Sale of land for confirmation," and the following proceedings shall be had:

(1.) The plaintiff at any time after ten days from the filing of such return shall be entitled, on motion therefor, to have an order confirming the sale, unless the judgment debtor, or in case of his death, his representative, shall file with the clerk within ten days after the filing of such return, his objections thereto.

(2.) If such objections be filed the court shall, notwithstanding, allow the order confirming the sale, unless on the hearing of the motion, it shall satisfactorily appear that there were substantial irregularities in the proceedings concerning the sale, to the probable loss or injury of the party objecting. In the latter case, the court shall disallow the motion and direct that the property be resold, in whole or in part, as the case may be as upon an execution received of that date.

(3.) Upon the return of the execution, the sheriff shall pay the proceeds of sale to the clerk, who shall then apply the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in satisfaction of the judgment. If an order of resale be afterward made, and the property sell for a greater amount to any person other than the former purchaser, the clerk shall first repay to such purchaser the amount of his bid out of the proceeds of the latter sale.

(4.) Upon a resale, the bid of the purchaser at the former sale shall be deemed to be renewed and continue in force, and no bid shall be taken, except for a greater amount. An order confirming a sale shall be a conclusive determination of the regularity of the proceedings concerning such sale as to all persons in any other action, suit or proceeding whatever.

(5.) If, after the satisfaction of the judgment, there be any proceeds of the sale remaining, the clerk shall pay such proceeds to the judgment debtor, or his representative, as the case may be, at any time before the order is made upon the motion to confirm the sale: Provided, such party file with the clerk a waiver of all objections made or to be made to the proceedings concerning the sale; but if the sale be confirmed, such proceeds shall be paid to said party of course; otherwise they shall remain in the custody of the clerk until the sale of the property has been disposed of. [L. '99, p. 87, § 6. Cf. L. '54, p. 182, § 266; L. '69, p. 95, § 363; Cd. '81, § 367; 2 H. C., § 508.]

§ 592. Eviction of Purchaser—Recovery.—If the purchaser of real property sold on execution, or his successor in interest, be evicted therefrom in consequence of the reversal of the judgment, he may recover the price paid, with interest, and the costs and disbursements of the suit by which he was evicted, from the plaintiff in the writ of execution. [L. '69, p. 96, § 364; Cd. '81, § 368; 2 H. C., § 509.]

§ 593. Contribution and Subrogation.—When property liable to an execution against several persons is sold thereon, and more than a due proportion of the judgment is levied upon the property of one of them, or one of them pays without a sale more than his proportion, he may compel contributions from the others; and when a judgment is against several, and is upon an obligation or contract of one of them as security for another, and the surety pays the amount, or any part thereof, either by sale of his property or before sale, he may compel repayment from the principal. In such case the person so paying or contributing shall be entitled to the benefit of the judgment to enforce contribution or repayment if within thirty days after his payment he file with the clerk of the court where the judgment was rendered notice of his payment and claim to contribution or repayment. Upon filing such notice, the clerk shall make an entry thereof in the margin of the docket where the judgment is entered. [L. '54, p. 183, § 272; Cd. '81, § 369; 2 H. C., § 510.]

§ 594. Redemption from Sale.—Property sold subject to redemption, as above provided, or any part thereof separately sold, may be redeemed by the following persons, or their successors in interest:—

1. The judgment debtor or his successor in interest, in the whole or any part of the property separately sold.

2. A creditor having a lien by judgment, decree or mortgage, on any portion of the property, or any portion of any part thereof, separately sold, subsequent in time to that on which the property was sold. The persons mentioned in subdivision two of this section are termed redemptioners. [L. '99, p. 89, § 7. Cf. L. '97, p. 75, § 15.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 648.

§ 595. Time for Redemption.—The judgment debtor or his successor in interest, or any redemptioner, may redeem the property at any time within one year after the sale, on paying the amount of the bid, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum to the time of redemption, together with the amount of any assessment or taxes which the purchaser or his successor in interest may have paid thereon after purchase, and like interest on such amount; and if the purchaser be also a creditor having a lien by judgment, decree or mortgage, prior to that of the redemptioner, other than the judgment under which such purchase was made, the amount of such lien with interest. § 596. Successive Redemptions.—If property be so redeemed by a redemptioner, another redemptioner may, within sixty days after the last redemption, again redeem it from the last redemptioner by paying the sum paid on such last redemption with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and the amount of any taxes or assessment which the last redemptioner may have paid thereon after the redemption by him, with like interest on such amount, and in addition thereto by paying the amount of any liens, by judgment, decree or mortgage, held by said last redemptioner prior to his own, with interest; but the judgment under which the property was sold need not be so paid as a lien. The property may be again, and as often as a redemptioner is so disposed, redeemed from any previous redemptioner within sixty days after the last redemption, on paying the sum paid on the last previous redemption with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and the amount of any assessments or taxes which the last previous redemptioner paid after the redemption by him, with like interest thereon, and the amount of any liens by judgment, decree or mortgage, other than the judgment under which the property was sold, held by the last redemptioner, previous to his own, with interest. If the purchaser or redemptioner shall pay any taxes or assessments, or have or acquire any such lien as herein mentioned, he must file a statement thereof with the auditor of the county where said property is situate before the property shall have been redeemed from him, otherwise the property may be redeemed without paying such tax, assessment or lien. Such statement shall be recorded by such auditor. [L. '99, p. 89, § 9.]

§ 597. Certificate of Redemption.—If no redemption be made within one year after the sale the purchaser, or his assignee is entitled to a conveyance; or, if so redeemed, whenever sixty (60) days have elapsed, and no other redemption has been made, or notice given operating to extend period of redemption, and the time for redemption has expired, the last redemptioner or his assignee is entitled to a sheriff's deed; but in all cases the judgment debtor shall have the entire period of one year from the date of the sale to redeem the property. If the judgment debtor redeem he must make the same payments as are required to effect a redemption by the redemptioner. If the judgment debtor redeem, the effect of the sale is terminated and he is restored to his estate. A certificate of redemption must be filed and recorded in the office of the auditor of the county in which the property is situated, and the auditor must note the record thereof in the margin of the record of the certificate of sale. [L. '99, p. 90, § 10. Cf. L. '97, p. 75, § 16.]

§ 598. Payment on Successive Redemptions.—When two or more persons apply to the sheriff to redeem at the same time he shall allow the person having the prior lien to redeem first, and so on. The sheriff shall immediately pay the money over to the person from whom the property is redeemed, if he attend at the redemption; or if not, at any time thereafter when demanded. When a sheriff shall wrongfully refuse to allow any person to redeem, his right to redeem shall not be prejudiced thereby, and the sheriff may be required, by order of the court, to allow such redemption. [L. '99, p. 91, § 11.]

§ 599. Notice of Redemption—Certificate.—The mode of redeeming shall be as provided in this section. The person seeking to redeem shall give the sheriff at least five days written notice of his intention to apply to the sheriff for that purpose. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to notify the purchaser or redemptioner, as the case may be, or his attorney, of the receipt of such notice, if such person be within such county. At the time and place specified in such notice the person seeking to redeem may do so by paying to the sheriff the sum required. The sheriff shall give the person redeeming a certificate stating therein the sum paid on redemption, from whom redeemed, the date thereof and a description of the property redeemed. A person seeking to redeem shall submit to the sheriff the evidence of his right thereto, as follows:—

(1) If he be a lien creditor, a copy of the docket of the judgment or decree under which he claims the right to redeem, certified by the clerk of the court where such judgment or decree is docketed; or if he seeks to redeem upon mortgage, the certificate of the record thereof; also an affidavit, verified by himself or agent, showing the amount then actually due thereon.

(2) A copy of any assignment necessary to establish his claim, verified by the affidavit of himself or agent, showing the amount then actually due on the judgment, decree or mortgage.

(3) If the redemptioner or purchaser has a lien prior to that of the lien creditor seeking to redeem, such redemptioner or purchaser shall submit to the sheriff the evidence thereof, and the amount due thereon, or the same may be disregarded. [L. '99, p. 91, § 12.]

for operating, caring for, protecting and insuring the property, shall be a credit upon the redemption money to be paid; and if the redemptioner or other person entitled to make such redemption, before the expiration of the time allowed for such redemption, files with the sheriff a demand in writing for a written and verified statement of the amounts of such rents and profits thus received, and expenses paid and incurred, the period for redemption is extended five (5) days after such sworn statement is given by such person thus receiving such rents and profits, or by his agent, to the person making such demand, or to the sheriff. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to serve a copy of such demand upon the person receiving such rents and profits, his agent or his attorney, if such service can be made in the county where the property is situate. If such person shall, for a period of ten days after such demand has been given to the sheriff, fail or refuse to give such statement, such redemptioner or other person entitled to redeem from such sale, making such demand, may bring an action within sixty days after making such demand, but not later, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to compel an accounting and disclosure of such rents, profits and expenses, and until fifteen days from and after the final determination of such action the right of redemption is extended to such redemptioner or other person making such demand who shall be entitled to redeem. If a sworn statement is given by the purchaser or other person receiving such rents and profits, and such redemptioner or other person entitled to redeem, who makes such demand, desires to contest the correctness of the same, he must first redeem in accordance with such sworn statement, and if he desires to bring an action for an accounting thereafter he may do so within thirty days after such redemption, but not later: Provided, that if such property be farming or agricultural property and be in possession of any purchaser or any redemptioner and is redeemed after the first day of April and before the first day of December, and the purchaser or his tenant has performed any work in preparing such property for crops, or planted crops, he shall be entitled to reimbursement for such work and labor or the right to retain possession of such property until the first day of December following, and the redemptioner shall be entitled to collect the reasonable rental value thereof during such farming year, unless such reasonable rental shall have been collected by such purchaser and accounted for to the redemptioner. [L. '99, p. 92, § 13.]

§ 601. Restraining Waste During Redemption Period.—Until the expiration of the time allowed for redemption the court may restrain the commission of waste on the property. But it is not waste for the person in possession of the property at the time of the sale or entitled to possession afterward during the period allowed for redemption to continue to use it in the same manner in which it was previously used, or to use it in the ordinary course of husbandry, or to make the necessary repairs of buildings thereon, or to use wood or timber on the property therefor, or for the repairs of fences, or for fuel in his family while he occupies the property. [L. '99, p. 93, § 14.]

§ 602. Possession During Period of Redemption.—The purchaser from the day of sale until a resale or redemption, and the redemptioner from the day of his redemption until another redemption, shall be entitled to the possession of the property purchased or redeemed, unless the same be in the possession of a tenant holding under an unexpired lease, and in such case shall be entitled to receive from such tenant the rents or the value of the use and occupation thereof during the period of redemption: Provided, that when a mortgage contains a stipulation that in case of foreclosure the mortgagor may remain in possession of the mortgaged premises after sale and until the period of redemption has expired the court shall make its decree to that effect and the mortgagor have such right: Provided further, that as to any land so sold which is at the time of the sale used for farming purposes, or which is a part of a farm used at the time of sale for farming purposes the judgment debtor shall be entitled to retain possession thereof during the period of redemption and the purchaser or his successor in interest shall if the judgment debtor do not redeem have a lien upon the crops raised or harvested thereon during the period of such possession for interest on the purchase price at the rate of six per cent per annum during the period of possession and for any taxes with interest: And, provided further, that in case of any homestead occupied for that purpose at the time of sale, the judgment debtor shall have the right to retain possession thereof during the period of redemption without accounting for issues or value of occupation. [L. '99, p. 93, § 15.]

§ 603. Sheriff's Deed.—In all cases where real estate has been, or may hereafter be sold in pursuance of law by virtue of an execution or other process, issued upon an ordinary money judgment, or by virtue of an execution or other process, issued upon a decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien it shall be the duty of the sheriff or other officer making such sale to execute and deliver to the purchaser, or other person entitled to the same a deed of conveyance of the real estate so sold immediately after the time for redemption from such sale has expired: Provided, such sale has been duly confirmed by order of the court. In case the term of office of the sheriff or other officer making such sale shall have expired before a sufficient deed has been executed, then the successor in office of such sheriff shall, within the time specified in this act, execute and deliver to the purchaser or other person entitled to the same a deed of the premises so sold, and such deeds shall be as valid and effectual to convey to the grantee the lands or premises so sold, as if the deed had been made by the sheriff or other officer who made the sale. [L. '99, p. 94, § 16. Cf. L. '97, p. 75, § 16.]

§ 604. Entry of Deed.—The party to whom such sheriff's deed is given shall, upon receipt thereof, take the same to the clerk of the superior court, who shall enter in his book of levies, where the levy is recorded, the sale of real estate therein conveyed, and shall indorse the fact upon the deed, with the date when presented to him and when made. And no county auditor shall record any such deed without such indorsement. [L. '99, p. 95, § 17.]

CHAPTER VI.

Commissioners to Convey Real Estate.

§ 605. Court may Appoint, When.—The several superior courts may, whenever it is necessary, appoint a commissioner to convey real estate,—

1. When, by a judgment in an action, a party is ordered to convey real property to another, or any interest therein;

2. When real property, or any interest therein, has been sold under a special order of the court, and the purchase money paid therefor. [L. '54, p. 205, § 390; Cd. '81, § 528; 2 H. C., § 814.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 557.

§ 606. Contents of Deed.—The deed of the commissioner shall so refer to the judgment authorizing the conveyance that the same may be readily found, but need not recite the record in the case generally. [L. '54, p. 205, § 391; Cd. '81, § 529; 2 H. C., § 815.]

§ 607. Conveyance Made in Pursuance of Judgment—Effect of. A conveyance made in pursuance of a judgment shall pass to the grantee the title of the parties ordered to convey the land. [L. '54, p. 205, § 392; Cd. '81, § 530; 2 H. C., § 816.]

§ 609. Approval by Court Necessary.—A conveyance by a commissioner shall not pass any right until it has been examined and approved by the court, which approval shall be indorsed on the conveyance, and recorded with it. [L. '54, p. 205, § 394; Cd. '81, § 532; 2 H. C., § 818.]

§ 610. Execution of Conveyance.—It shall be sufficient for the conveyance to be signed by the commissioner only, without affixing the name of the parties whose title is conveyed, but the names of the parties shall be recited in the body of the conveyance. [L. '54, p. 205, § 395; Cd. '81, § 533; 2 H. C., § 819.]

§ 611. Recording.—The conveyance shall be recorded in the office in which by law it should have been recorded had it been made by the parties whose title is conveyed by it. [L. '54, p. 205, § 396; Cd. '81, § 534; 2 H. C., § 820.]

§ 612. Conveyance, How Enforced.—In case of a judgment to compel a party to execute a conveyance of real estate, the court may enforce the judgment by attachment or sequestration, or appoint a commissioner to make the conveyance. [L. '54, p. 205, § 397; Cd. '81, § 535; 2 H. C., § 821.]

CHAPTER VII.

Proceedings Supplemental to Execution.

§ 613. Order to Examine Judgment Debtor.—At any time within six years after entry of a judgment for the sum of twenty-five ($25) dollars or over, and after the return of an execution against property wholly or partially unsatisfied upon proof thereof, by affidavit or other competent written evidence satisfactory to the judge or after the issuing of an execution against property and upon proof by the affidavit of a party or otherwise to the satisfaction of the court or a judge thereof judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, such court or judge may, by an order, require the judgment debtor to appear at a specified time and place before the judge granting the order, or a referee appointed by him, to answer concerning the same; and the judge to whom application is made under this act may, if it is made to appear to him by the affidavit of the judgment creditor, his agent or attorney that there is danger of the debtor absconding, order the sheriff to arrest the debtor and bring him before the judge granting the order. Upon being brought before the judge he may be ordered to enter into a bond, with sufficient sureties, that he will attend from time to time before the judge or referee, as shall be directed, during the pendency of the proceedings and until the final termination thereof. [L. '93, p. 435, § 1; L. '99, p. 146, § 1.]

See infra, § 647 et seq., attachments.

See infra, § 680 et seq., garnishments.

§ 614. Warrant, How Vacated, etc.—A warrant issued as prescribed in the last section may be vacated or modified by the judge making the same, or by the court out of which the execution was issued, upon giving three days' notice to the opposite party. [L. '93, p. 435, § 2.]

§ 615. Order to Discover Property, etc., of Judgment Debtor.—Upon proof by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the judge, that execution has been issued as prescribed by section 613 of this chapter, and also that any person or corporation has personal property of the judgment debtor of the value of twenty-five dollars or over, or is indebted to him in said amount, the judge may make an order requiring such person or corporation, or an officer thereof, to appear at a specified time and place before him, or a referee appointed by him, and answer concerning the same. [L. '93, p. 436, § 2.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 460.

§ 616. Before Whom Examined—Referee to Certify Evidence.—An order requiring a person to attend and be examined, made pursuant to any provision of this chapter, must require him so to attend and be examined either before the judge to whom the order is returnable or before a referee designated therein. Where the examination is taken before a referee, he must certify to the judge to whom the order is returnable all of the evidence and other proceedings taken before him. [L. '03, p. 436, § 4.]

§ 617. Proceedings upon Examination—Adjournment.—Upon an examination made under this chapter, the answer of the party or witness examined must be under oath. A corporation must attend by and answer under the oath of an officer thereof, and the judge may, in his discretion, specify the officer. Either party may be examined as a witness in his own behalf, and may produce and examine other witnesses as upon the trial of an action. The judge or referee may adjourn any proceedings under this chapter, from time to time, as he thinks proper. [L. '93, p. 436, § 5.]

must, before entering upon an examination or taking testimony, subscribe and take an oath that he will faithfully and fairly discharge his duty upon the reference, and make a just and true report according to the best of his understanding. The oath must be returned to the judge with the report of the testimony. [L. '93, p. 436, § 6.]

§ 619. Order Authorizing Payment to Sheriff.—At any time after the commencement of a special proceeding authorized by this chapter, and before the appointment of a receiver therein, or the extension of a receivership thereto, the judge by whom the order or warrant was granted or to whom it is made returnable, may, in his discretion upon proof by affidavit to his satisfaction that a person or corporation is indebted to the judgment debtor, and upon such notice given to such person or corporation as he deems just, or without notice make an order permitting the person or corporation to pay the sheriff designated in the order a sum on account of the alleged indebtedness not exceeding the sum which will satisfy the execution. A payment thus made is to the extent thereof a discharge of the indebtedness except as against a transferee from the judgment debtor in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, of whose rights the person or corporation had actual or constructive notice when the payment was made. [L. '93, p. 436, § 7.]

§ 620. Order Requiring Delivery of Money, etc., to Sheriff or Receiver.—Where it appears from the examination or testimony taken in the special proceedings authorized by this chapter that the judgment debtor has in his possession or under his control money or other personal property belonging to him, or that one or more articles of personal property capable of manual delivery, his right to the possession whereof is not substantially disputed, are in the possession or under the control of another person, the judge by whom the order or warrant was granted, or to whom it is returnable, may in his discretion, and upon such notice given to such persons as he deems just, or without notice, make an order directing the judgment debtor, or other person, immediately to pay the money or deliver the articles of personal property to a sheriff designated in the order, unless a receiver has been appointed or a receivership has been extended to the special proceedings, and in that case to the receiver. [L. '93, p. 437, § 8.]

Cited in 38 Wash. 375; 75 Wash. 459.

§ 621. Duty of Sheriff.—If the sheriff to whom money is paid or other property is delivered, pursuant to an order made as prescribed in the last section of this chapter, does not then hold an execution upon the judgment against the property of the judgment debtor, he has the same rights and power, and is subject to the same duties and liabilities with respect to the money or property, as if the money had been collected or the property had been levied upon by him by virtue of such an execution, except as provided in the next section. [L. '93, p. 437, § 9.]

§ 622. How Money or Property Applied.—After a receiver has been appointed or a receivership has been extended to the special proceedings, the judge must, by order, direct the sheriff to pay the money, or the proceeds of the property, deducting his fees, to the receiver; or if the case so requires to deliver to the receiver the property in his hands. But if it appears to the satisfaction of the judge that an order appointing a receiver or extending a receivership is not necessary, he may, by an order reciting that fact, direct the sheriff to apply the money so paid, or the proceeds of the property so delivered, upon an execution in favor of the judgment creditor issued either before or after the payment or delivery to the sheriff. [L. '93, p. 438, § 10.]

§ 623. Balance, How Disposed of.—Where money is paid or property is delivered as prescribed in the last four sections and afterwards the special proceeding is discontinued or dismissed, or the judgment is satisfied without resorting to the money or property, or a balance of the money or of the proceeds of the property, or a part of the property remains in the sheriff's or receiver's hands after satisfying the judgment and the costs and expenses of the special proceeding, the judge must make an order directing the sheriff or receiver to pay the money or deliver the property so remaining in his hands to the debtor, or to such other person as appears to be entitled thereto, upon payment of his fees and all other sums legally chargeable against the same. [L. '93, p. 438, § 11.]

§ 624. Transfer of Property may be Enjoined, etc.—The judge by whom the order or warrant was granted or to whom it is returnable may make an injunction order restraining any person or corporation, whether a party or not a party to the special proceeding, from making or suffering any transfer or other disposition of or interference with the property of the judgment debtor or the property or debt concerning which any person is required to attend and be examined, until further direction in the premises. Such an injunction may be made simultaneously with the order or warrant by which the special proceeding is instituted, and upon the same papers or afterward, upon an affidavit showing sufficient grounds therefor. The judge or court may, as a condition of granting an application to vacate or modify the injunction order require the applicant to give security in such sum and in such manner as justice requires. [L. '93, p. 438, § 12.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 465.

§ 625. Mode of Service of Certain Orders.—An injunction order or an order requiring a person to attend and be examined made as prescribed in this chapter must be served,—

1. By delivering to the person to be served a certified copy of the original order and a copy of the affidavit on which it was made;

2. Service upn a corporation is sufficient if made upon an officer, to whom a copy of a summons must be delivered. Where a summons is personally served upon a corporation, unless the officer to be served is specially designated in the order, the order may be served by any person who can serve a summons in an action. [L. '93, p. 439, § 13.]

§ 627. Proceedings, How Discontinued or Dismissed.—A special proceeding instituted as prescribed in this chapter may be discontinued at any time upon such terms as justice requires, by an order of the judge made upon the application of the judgment creditor. Where the judgment creditor unreasonably delays or neglects to proceed, or where it appears that his judgment has been satisfied, his proceedings may be dismissed upon like terms by a like order made upon the application of the judgment debtor, or of plaintiff in a judgment creditors' action against the debtor, or of a judgment creditor who has instituted either of the special proceeding[s] authorized by this chapter. Where an order appointing a receiver or extending a receivership has been made in the course of the special proceeding, notice of the application for an order specified in this section must be given in such manner as the judge deems proper, to all persons interested in the receivership as far as they can conveniently be ascertained. [L. '93, p. 439, § 15.]

§ 628. Costs to Judgment Creditor.—The judge may make an order allowing to the judgment creditor a fixed sum as costs, consisting of his witness fees and referee's fees and other disbursements, and of a sum in addition thereto not exceeding twenty-five dollars, and directing the payment thereof out of any money which has come or may come to the hands of the receiver or of the sheriff within a time specified in the order. [L. '93, p. 439, § 16.]

Cited in 49 Wash. 320.

§ 629. Costs to Judgment Debtor.—Where the judgment debtor or other person against whom the special proceeding is instituted has been examined, and property applicable to the payment of the judgment has not been discovered, the judge may make an order allowing him a like sum as costs, and directing the payment thereof within a time specified in the order by the judgment creditor. [L. '93, p. 440, § 17.]

§ 630. Disobedience of Order, How Punished.—A person who refuses, or without sufficient excuse neglects, to obey an order of a judge or referee made pursuant to any of the provisions of this chapter, and duly served upon him, or an oral direction given directly to him by a judge or referee in the course of the special proceeding, or to attend before a judge or referee according to the command of a subpoena duly served upon him, may be punished by the judge of the court out of which the execution issued, as for contempt. [L. '93, p. 440, § 18.]

§ 631. Attendance of Judgment Debtor, Where.—A judgment debtor who resides or does business in the state cannot be compelled to attend pursuant to an order made under the provisions of this chapter at a place without the county where his residence or place of business is situated. Where the judgment debtor to be examined under this chapter is a corporation the court may cause such corporation to appear and be examined by making like order or orders as are prescribed in this chapter, directed to any officer or officers thereof. [L. '93, p. 440, § 19.]

§ 632. Not Excused from Answering, When.—A party or witness examined in a special proceeding authorized by this chapter is not excused from answering a question on the ground that his examination will tend to convict him of a commission of a fraud, or to prove that he has been a party to or privy to or knowing of a conveyance, assignment, transfer or other disposition of property for any purpose; or that he or another person claims to be entitled as against the judgment creditor or receiver appointed or to be appointed in the special proceeding to hold property derived from or through the judgment debtor, or to be discharged from the payment of a debt which was due to the judgment debtor or to a person in his behalf. But an answer cannot be used as evidence against the person so answering in a criminal action or criminal proceeding. [L. '93, p. 440, § 20.]

§ 633. Proceedings in Case of Joint Debtors.—When, in proceedings under this chapter, personal service of the summons in the action was not made on all of the defendants, a debt due to, or other personal property owned by, one or more of the defendants not summoned jointly with the defendants summoned, or with any of them, may be reached by proceedings under this chapter. [L. '93, p. 441, § 21.]

§ 634. Continuance.—A special proceeding under this chapter instituted before one judge may be continued from time to time before another judge of the same court with like effect as if it had been instituted or commenced before the judge who last heard the same. [L. '93, p. 441, § 22.]

§ 636. Proceedings, Before Whom Instituted.—Special proceedings under this chapter may be instituted and prosecuted before the superior court of the county in which the judgment was entered or any judge thereof, or before the superior court of any county to the sheriff of which an execution has been issued or in which a transcript of said judgment has been filed in the office of the clerk of said court or before any judge thereof. [L. '99, p. 146, § 2; Cf. L. '93, p. 441, § 24.]

§ 637. Property Exempt from Seizure.—This chapter does not authorize the seizure of, or other interference with any property which is expressly exempt by law from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, or any money, thing in action or other property held in trust for a judgment debtor where the trust has been created by, or the fund so held in trust has proceeded from, a person other than the judgment debtor; or the earnings of the judgment debtor for his personal services rendered within sixty days next before the institution of the special proceeding, where it is made to appear by his oath or otherwise that those earnings are necessary for the use of a family wholly or partly supported by his labor. [L. '93, p. 441, § 25.]

Cited in 38 Wash. 371.

§ 638. Proceedings are Special—To be Heard Without Jury.—Proceedings under this chapter are special proceedings, and shall be heard by the judge or referee before whom the same are returnable without a jury. [L. '93, p. 441, § 26.]

§ 639. Fees of Referee.—The fees of referees appointed in proceedings under this chapter shall be five dollars per day. [L. '93, p. 441, § 27.]

§ 640. Receiver, When and How Appointed.—At any time after making an order requiring the judgment debtor or any other person to attend and be examined, or the issuing of a warrant, as prescribed in this chapter, the judge to whom the order or warrant is returnable, or the court out of which the order was issued, may make an order appointing a receiver of the property of the judgment debtor. At least two days' notice of the application for the order appointing a receiver must be given personally to the judgment debtor, unless the judge or court is satisfied that he cannot, with reasonable diligence, be found within the state, in which case the order must recite that fact and may dispense with the notice, or may direct notice to be given in any manner which the judge thinks proper. But where the order to attend and be examined or the warrant has been served upon the judgment debtor, a receiver may be appointed upon the return thereof, or at the close of the examination, without further notice to him. [L. '93, p. 441, § 28.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 460, 464.

§ 641. Notice to Other Creditors.—The judge must ascertain, if practicable, by the oath of the judgment debtor or otherwise, whether any other special proceeding authorized by this chapter is pending against the judgment debtor, or if a receiver has been appointed or application has been made for the appointment of a receiver of the property of the judgment debtor in any other action by a judgment creditor. If either is pending, and a receiver has not been appointed therein, notice of the application for the appointment of a receiver, and of all of the subsequent proceedings respecting the receivership, must be given in such manner as the judge directs to the judgment creditor prosecuting it. [L. '93, p. 442, § 29.]

§ 642. Only One Receiver Appointed—Extending Receivership.—Only one receiver of the property of the judgment debtor shall be appointed. Where a receiver thereof has already been appointed the judge, instead of making the order prescribed in the last section, must make an order extending the receivership to the special proceedings before him. Such an order gives to the judgment creditor the same rights as if a receiver were appointed upon his application, including the right to apply to the court to control, direct or remove the receiver, or to subordinate the proceedings in or by which the receiver was appointed to those taken under his judgment. [L. '93, p. 442, § 30.]

§ 643. Order to be Filed, Where.—An order appointing a receiver or extending a receivership must be filed in the office of the county clerk wherein the judgment-roll in the action is filed; or if the special proceeding is founded upon an execution issued out of a court other than that in which the judgment was rendered, in the office of the clerk of the county wherein the transcript of the judgment is filed. [L. '93, p. 442, § 31.]

§ 644. When Property Vests in Receiver.—The property of the judgment debtor is vested in a receiver, who has duly qualified, from the time of filing the order appointing him or extending his receivership, as the case may be, subject to the following exceptions:—

1. Real property is vested in the receiver only from the time when the order, or a certified copy thereof, as the case may be, is filed with the auditor of the county where it is situated;

2. When the judgment debtor, at the time when the order is filed, resides in another county of the state, his personal property is vested in the receiver only from the time when a copy of the order, certified by the auditor in whose office it is recorded, is filed with the auditor of the county where he resides. [L. '93, p. 443, § 32.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 460.

§ 645. Receiver's Title, How Extended by Relation.—Where the receiver's title to personal property has become vested, as prescribed in the last section, it also extends back by relation, for the benefit of the judgment creditor, in whose behalf the special proceeding was instituted as follows:—

1. When an order requiring the judgment debtor to attend and be examined, or a warrant requiring the sheriff to arrest him and bring him before the judge, has been served, before the appointment of the receiver, or the extension of the receivership, the receiver's title extends back so as to include the personal property of the judgment debtor at the time of the service of the order or warrant;

2. Where an order or warrant has not been served as specified in the foregoing subdivision, but an order has been made requiring a person to attend and be examined concerning property belonging or a debt due to the judgment debtor, the receiver's title extends to the personal property belonging to the judgment debtor, which was in the hands or under the control of the person or corporation thus required to attend at the time of the service of the order, and to a debt then due to him from that person or corporation;

3. In every other case where notice of application for the appointment of a receiver was given to the judgment debtor, the receiver's title extends to the personal property of the judgment debtor at the time when the notice was served, either personally or by complying with the requirements or [of] an order prescribing a substitute for personal service;

4. Where the case is within two or more of the foregoing subdivisions of this section, the rule most favorable to the judgment creditor must be adopted. But this section does not affect the title of a purchaser in good faith without notice, and for a valuable consideration; or the payment of a debt in good faith and without notice. [L. '93, p. 443, § 33.]

§ 646. Records to be Kept by Clerk.—Each county clerk must keep in his office a book indexed to the names of the judgment debtors, styled "book of orders appointing receivers of judgment debtors." A county clerk in whose office an order or a certified copy of an order is filed, as prescribed in this chapter, must immediately note thereupon the time of filing it, and as soon as practicable, must record it in the book so kept by him. He must also, upon request, furnish forthwith to any party or person interested, one or more certified copies thereof. For each omission to comply with any provision of this section, a county clerk forfeits to the party aggrieved two hundred and fifty dollars, in addition to all damages sustained by reason of the omission. [L. '93, p. 444, § 34.]

CHAPTER I.

Attachments.

§ 647. Attachment, When Granted.—The plaintiff at the time of commencing an action, or at any time afterward before judgment, may have the property of the defendant, or that of any one or more of several defendants, attached in the manner hereinafter prescribed, as security for the satisfaction of such judgment as he may recover. [L. '86, p. 39, § 1; 2 H. C., § 288.]

For former enactments on this subject see: L. '54, pp. 155–162; L. '60, pp. 30–36; L. '63, pp. 112–120; L. '69, pp. 41–47; L. '71, pp. 9, 10; L. '73, pp. 43–50; L. '77, pp. 35–40; Cd. '81, §§ 174–192.

The foregoing provisions are repealed by the provisions of this chapter.

§ 648. Issuance of Writ, Affidavit for.—The writ of attachment shall be issued by the clerk of the court in which the action is pending; but before any such writ of attachment shall issue, the plaintiff, or someone in his behalf, shall make and file with such clerk an affidavit showing that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the amount of such indebtedness over and above all just credits and offsets), and that the attachment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant, and either,—

1. That the defendant is a foreign corporation; or

2. That the defendant is not a resident of this state; or

3. That the defendant conceals himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; or

4. That the defendant has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode in this state, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; or

5. That the defendant has removed or is about to remove any of his property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors; or

6. That the defendant has assigned, secreted, or disposed of, or is about to assign, secrete, or dispose of, any of his property, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors; or

7. That the defendant is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or

8. That the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought; or

9. That the damages for which the action is brought are for injuries arising from the commission of some felony, or for the seduction of some female. [L. '86, p. 39, § 2; 2 H. C., § 289.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 463; 2 Wash. 151; 12 Wash. 284; 17 Wash. 297; 19 Wash. 557; 21 Wash. 635; 47 Wash. 164; 54 Wash. 509; 79 Wash. 467; 81 Wash. 38.

§ 649. Attachment on Debt not Due.—An action may be commenced and the property of a debtor may be attached previous to the time when the debt becomes due, when nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness, and when the affidavit, in addition to that fact, states,—

1. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors; or

2. That the defendant is about to remove from the state, and refuses to make any arrangements for securing the payment of the debt when it falls due, and which contemplated removal was not known to the plaintiff at the time the debt was contracted; or

3. That the defendant has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud his creditors; or

4. That the debt was incurred for property obtained under false pretenses. [L. '86, p. 39, § 3; 2 H. C., § 290.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 153; 2 Wash. 382; 23 Wash. 595; 40 Wash. 337; 54 Wash. 509; 76 Wash. 526.

§ 650. Answer, When to be Filed in Case Debt not Due.—If the debt or demand for which the attachment is sued out is not due at the time of the commencement of the action, the defendant is not required to file any pleadings until the maturity of such debt or demand, but he may, in his discretion, do so, and go to trial as early as the cause is reached. [L. '86, p. 40, § 4; 2 H. C., § 291,]

§ 651. Judgment Suspended.—No final judgment shall be rendered in such action, unless the party consents, as in the last section, until the debt or demand upon which it is based becomes due. But property of a perishable nature may be sold as in other cases of attachment. [L. '86, p. 40, § 5; 2 H. C., § 292.]

See references to § 647.

§ 652. Bond for Attachment.—Before the writ of attachment shall issue the plaintiff, or someone in his behalf, shall execute and file with the clerk a bond or undertaking, with two or more sureties, in the sum in no case less than three hundred dollars, in the superior court, nor less than fifty dollars in the justice court, and double the amount for which plaintiff demands judgment, conditional that the plaintiff will prosecute his action without delay and will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the amount specified in such bond or undertaking, as the penalty thereof, should the same be wrongfully, oppressively or maliciously sued out. With said bond or undertaking there shall also be filed the affidavit of the sureties, from which it must appear that such sureties are qualified and that they are, taken together, worth the sum specified in the bond or undertaking, over and above all debts and liabilities, and property exempt from execution. No person not qualified to become bail upon arrest shall be qualified to become surety upon a bond or undertaking for an attachment: Provided, that when it is desired to attach real estate only, and such fact is stated in the affidavit for attachment and the ground of attachment is that the defendant is a foreign corporation or is not a resident of the state, or conceals himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him, or has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him, the writ of attachment shall issue without bond or undertaking by or on behalf of the plaintiff: And provided further, that when the claim, debt or obligation, whether in contract or tort, upon which plaintiff's cause of action is based, shall have been assigned to him, and his immediate or any other assignor thereof retains or has any interest therein, then the plaintiff and every assignor of said claim, debt or obligation who retains or has any interest therein, shall be jointly and severally liable to the defendant for all costs that may be adjudged to him and for all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, should the same be wrongfully, oppressively or maliciously sued out. [L. '03, p. 47, § 1; Cf. L. '86, p. 40, § 6; 2 H. C., § 293.]

§ 653. Additional Security, When may be Required.—The defendant may, at any time before judgment, move the court or judge for additional security on the part of the plaintiff, and if, on such motion, the court or judge is satisfied that the surety in the plaintiff's bond has removed from this state, or is not sufficient, the attachment may be vacated, and restitution directed of any property taken under it, unless in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court or judge, further security is given by the plaintiff in form as provided in the preceding section. [L. '86, p. 40, § 7; 2 H. C., § 294.]

Cited in 48 Wash. 428.

§ 654. Action on Bond, Damages.—In an action on such bond, the plaintiff therein may recover, if he shows that the attachment was wrongfully sued out, and that there was no reasonable cause to believe the ground upon which the same was issued to be true, the actual damages sustained and reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court; and if it be shown that such attachment was sued out maliciously, he may recover exemplary damages, nor need he wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond. [L. '86, p. 41, § 8; 2 H. C., § 295.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 29, 307; 12 Wash. 16; 20 Wash. 108; 79 Wash. 468.

§ 655. Contents of Writ—Levy.—The writ of attachment shall be directed to the sheriff of any county in which property of the defendant may be, and shall require him to attach and safely keep the property of such defendant within his county, to the requisite amount, which shall be stated in conformity with the affidavit. The sheriff shall in all cases attach the amount of property directed, if sufficient not exempt from execution be found in his county, giving that in which the defendant has a legal and unquestionable title a preference over that in which his title is doubtful or only equitable, and he shall, as nearly as the circumstances of the case will permit, levy upon property fifty per cent greater in valuation than the amount which plaintiff in his affidavit claims to be due. When property is seized on attachment, the court may allow to the officer having charge thereof such compensation for his trouble and expenses in keeping the same as shall be reasonable and just. [L. '86, p. 41, § 9; 2 H. C., § 296.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 689.

§ 656. Writs to Different Counties—Costs.—Writs of attachment may be issued from the superior courts to different counties, and several may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession and subsequently, until sufficient property has been attached; but only those executed shall be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise ordered by the court, and if more property is attached in the aggregate than the plaintiff is entitled to have held, the surplus must be abandoned and the plaintiff pay all costs incurred in relation to such surplus. After the first writ shall have issued, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to file any further affidavit or bond, but he shall be entitled to as many writs as may be necessary to secure the amount claimed. [L. '86, p. 41, § 10; 2 H. C., § 297.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 183.

§ 657. Order of Execution of Writs.—Where there are several attachments against the same defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they were received by the sheriff. [L. '86, p. 41, § 11; 2 H. C., § 298.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 645; 86 Wash. 122, 304.

§ 658. Following Property into Adjoining County.—If, after an attachment has been placed in the hands of the sheriff, any property of the defendant is moved from the county, the sheriff may pursue and attach the same in an adjoining county, within twenty-four hours after removal. [L. '86, p. 42, § 12; 2 H. C., § 299.]

§ 659. Manner of Executing Writ.—The sheriff to whom the writ is directed and delivered must execute the same without delay, as follows:—

1. Real property shall be attached by filing a copy of the writ, together with a description of the property attached, with the county auditor of the county in which the attached real estate is situated;

2. Personal property capable of manual delivery shall be attached by taking into custody;

3. Stock or shares, or interest in stock or shares, of any corporation, association, or company shall be attached by leaving with the president or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier, or managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating that the stock or interest of the defendant is attached in pursuance of such writ. [L. '86, p. 42, § 13; 2 H. C., § 300.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 177; 28 Wash. 423; 54 Wash. 301; 86 Wash. 528.

§ 660. Examination of Defendant Touching His Property.—Whenever it appears by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or by the return of the attachment, that no property is known to the plaintiff or officer on which the attachment can be executed, or not enough to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, and it being shown to the court or judge by affidavit that the defendant has property within the state not exempt, the defendant may be required by such court or judge to attend before the court or judge, or referee appointed by the court or judge, and give information on oath respecting the same. [L. '86, p. 42, § 14; 2 H. C., § 301.]

§ 661. Receiver Appointed for Attached Property.—The court before whom the action is pending, or the judge thereof, may at any time appoint a receiver to take possession of property attached under the provisions of this chapter, and to collect, manage, and control the same, and pay over the proceeds, according to the nature of the property and the exigency of the case. [L. '86, p. 42, § 15; 2 H. C., § 302.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 80; 14 Wash. 326; 20 Wash. 249.

§ 662. Sale Before Judgment, Perishable Property.—If any of the property attached be perishable, or in danger of serious and immediate waste or decay, the sheriff shall sell the same in the manner in which such property is sold on execution. Whenever it shall be made to appear satisfactorily to the court or judge that the interest of the parties to the action will be subserved by a sale of any attached property, the court or judge may order such property to be sold in the same manner as like property is sold under execution. Such order shall be made only upon notice to the adverse party or his attorney, in case such party shall have been personally served with a summons in the action. [L. '86, p. 42, § 16; 2 H. C., § 303.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 690.

§ 663. Custody of Money Received.—All moneys received by the sheriff under the provisions of this chapter and all other attached property shall be retained by him to answer any judgment that may be recovered in the action, unless sooner subjected to execution upon another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment. [L. '86, p. 43, § 17; 2 H. C., § 304.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 697.

§ 664. Attachment of Moneys in Hands of Officer.—A sheriff or constable may be garnished for money of the defendant in his hands. So may a judgment debtor of the defendant when the judgment has not been previously assigned on the record, or by writing filed in the office of the clerk, and by him minuted as an assignment on the margin of the execution docket, and also an executor or administrator may be garnished for money due from the decedent to the defendant. [L. '86, p. 43, § 19; 2 H. C., § 306.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 375; 14 Wash. 177; 16 Wash. 127; 20 Wash. 215; 30 Wash. 273.

§ 665. Attachment of Moneys in Court.—When the property to be attached is a fund in court, the execution of a writ of attachment shall be by leaving with the clerk of the court [a copy] thereof, with notice in writing specifying the fund. [L. '86, p. 43, § 20; 2 H. C., § 307.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 375; 16 Wash. 127; 20 Wash. 216; 30 Wash. 273.

§ 666. Inventory of Sheriff.—The sheriff shall make a full inventory of the property attached, and return the same with the writ. [L. '86, p. 43, § 21; 2 H. C., § 308.]

§ 667. Subjection of Attached Property to Judgment.—If judgment be recovered by the plaintiff, the sheriff shall satisfy the same out of the property attached by him which has not been delivered to the defendant or claimant as in this chapter provided, or subjected to execution on another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment, if it be sufficient for that purpose,—

1. By applying on the execution issued on said judgment the proceeds of all sales of perishable or other property sold by him, or so much as shall be necessary to satisfy the judgment;

2. If any balance remain due, he shall sell under the execution so much of the property, real or personal, as may be necessary to satisfy the balance, if enough for that purpose remain in his hands.

Notice of the sale shall be given and the sale conducted as in other cases of sales on execution. [L. '86, p. 44, § 25; 2 H. C., § 312.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 62; 23 Wash. 697.

§ 668. Collection When Property Attached Insufficient—Surplus.—If, after selling all the property attached by him remaining in his hands, and applying the proceeds, deducting his fees, to the payment of the judgment, any balance shall remain due, the sheriff shall proceed to collect such balance as upon an execution in other cases. Whenever the judgment shall have been paid, the sheriff, upon reasonable demand, shall deliver over to the defendant the attached property remaining in his hands and any proceeds of the property attached unapplied on the judgment. [L. '86, p. 44, § 26; 2 H. C., § 313.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 697; 71 Wash. 668.

See note to § 659, omission of portion of section explained.

§ 669. Procedure in Case Execution Returned Unsatisfied.—If the execution be returned unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the plaintiff may proceed as in other cases upon the return of an execution. [L. '86, p. 45, § 27; 2 H. C., § 314.]

§ 670. Judgment for Defendant, Effect of.—If the defendant recover judgment against the plaintiff, all the proceeds of sales and money collected by the sheriff, and all the property attached remaining in the sheriff's hands, shall be delivered to the defendant or his agent. The order of attachment shall be discharged, and the property released therefrom. [L. '86, p. 45, § 28; 2 H. C., § 315.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 697.

§ 671. Discharge of Attachment on Counter Bond.—If the defendant, at any time before judgment, causes a bond to be executed to the plaintiff with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer having the attachment, or after the return thereof, by the clerk, to the effect that he will perform the judgment of the court, the attachment shall be discharged and restitution made of property taken or proceeds thereof. The execution of such bond shall be deemed an appearance of such defendant to the action. [L. '86, p. 45, § 29; 2 H. C., § 316.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 463; 2 Wash. 151; 37 Wash. 485, 487–489.

§ 672. Judgment on Bond.—Such bond shall be part of the record, and if judgment go against the defendant, the same shall be entered against him and sureties. [L. '86, p. 45, § 30; 2 H. C., § 317.]

Cited in 37 Wash. 485, 488.

§ 673. Motion to Discharge Attachment.—The defendant may at any time after he has appeared in the action, either before or after the release of the attached property, or before any attachment shall have been actually levied, apply on motion, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to the court in which the action is brought, or to the judge thereof, that the writ of attachment be discharged on the ground that the same was improperly or irregularly issued. [L. '86, p. 45, § 31; 2 H. C., § 318.]

§ 674. Hearing of Motion to Discharge—Affidavits.—If the motion be made upon affidavits upon the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence in addition to those on which the attachment was issued. [L. '86, p. 45, § 32; 2 H. C., § 319.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 463; 2 Wash. 151.

§ 675. Discharge of Writ.—If upon application it satisfactorily appears that the writ of attachment was improperly or irregularly issued, it must be discharged. [L. '86, p. 45, § 33; 2 H. C., § 320.]

§ 676. Return of Sheriff.—The sheriff must return the writ of attachment with the summons, if issued at the same time, otherwise, within twenty days after its receipt, with a certificate of his proceedings indorsed thereon or attached thereto, and whenever an order has been made discharging or releasing an attachment upon real property, a certified copy of such order may be filed in the offices of the county auditors in which the notices of attachment have been filed, and be indexed in like manner. [L. '86, p. 45, § 34; 2 H. C., § 321.]

§ 677. Liberal Construction—Amendments.—This chapter shall be liberally construed, and the plaintiff, at any time when objection is made thereto, shall be permitted to amend any defect in the complaint, affidavit, bond, writ, or other proceeding; and no attachment shall be quashed or dismissed, or the property attached released, if the defect in any of the proceedings has been or can be amended so as to show that a legal cause for the attachment existed at the time it was issued, and the court shall give the plaintiff a reasonable time to perfect such defective proceedings. The causes for attachment shall not be stated in the alternative. [L. '86, p. 46, § 35; 2 H. C., § 322.]

§ 678. Power of Judge at Chambers.—The judge of any superior court shall have power to make every order which, by the provisions of this chapter, may be made by the court. [L. '86, p. 46, § 36; 2 H. C., § 323.]

§ 679. Sheriff, Defined—Proceedings in Justices' Courts.—The word "sheriff," as used in this chapter, is meant to apply to constables, when the proceedings are in a justice's court; and when the proceedings are in a justice's court, the justice is to be regarded as the clerk of the court for all purposes herein contemplated: Provided, that nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to confer upon a justice of the peace power to issue a writ of attachment to be served out of the county in which such justice shall have his office, or to confer upon a sheriff, constable, or other officer power or authority to serve a writ of attachment issued out of justice's court beyond the limits of the county in which such justice shall have his office, except in cases provided for in section 658. And provided further, that nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed or held to authorize the attachment of real estate, or of any interest therein, under a writ of attachment issued out of any justice's court. [L. '86, p. 46, § 37; 2 H. C., § 324.]

CHAPTER II.

Garnishments.

§ 680. Writ, Grounds for Issuance of.—The clerks of the superior courts in the various counties in the state may issue writs of garnishment returnable to their respective courts in the following cases:—

1. Where an original attachment has been issued in accordance with the statutes in relation to attachments;

2. Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid, and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee;

3. Where the plaintiff has a judgment wholly or partially unsatisfied in the court from which he seeks to have a writ of garnishment issued. [L. '93, p. 95, § 1.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 537; 10 Wash. 162; 16 Wash. 127; 17 Wash. 369; 30 Wash. 273.

For former laws on the subject of garnishment, see 2 Hill's Code, §§ 497, 498, and notes to §§ 647 and 659, supra.

§ 680–1. Municipal Corporations Subject to.—Counties, cities, towns, school districts and other municipal corporations shall be subject to garnishment in the superior and justice courts, but only after judgment shall have been entered against the defendant in the main action. [L. '15, p. 357, § 1.]

§ 680–2. Enforcement Against Municipal Corporations.—No regular judgment in garnishment shall be entered against any municipal corporation, but the judge of the superior court, or justice of the peace shall by written order command the auditing officer, or body of such municipal corporation to audit and pay to the judgment creditor the amount due from the garnishee to the principal defendant, not exceeding the amount of the judgment in the main action, whereupon the same shall be paid by the garnishee, provided, nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the rights of defendants to claim exemptions of wages as provided by law. [L. '15, p. 357, § 2.]

§ 681. Bond to be Executed, When.—In the case mentioned in subdivision two of the preceding section the plaintiff shall execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that he will prosecute his suit and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such garnishment. [L. '93, p. 95, § 2.]

"Preceding section," refers to § 680.

§ 682. Application for—Affidavit.—Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment the plaintiff or someone in his behalf shall make application therefor by affidavit, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ, and that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating his name and residence, is indebted to the defendant, or that he has in his possession, or under his control, personal property or effects belonging to the defendant, or that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and that the defendant is the owner of shares in such company or has an interest therein. [L. '93, p. 95, § 3.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 30.

§ 683. Writ, When and How Issued.—When the foregoing requisites have been complied with the clerk shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff and of the garnishee as defendant, and shall immediately issue a writ of garnishment directed to the garnishee, commanding him to appear before the court from which it is issued within twenty days after the service of the writ upon him, if the same be served upon him within the county in which the same is issued, or within thirty days if served in any other county in this state, and to answer on oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the defendant, and was when such writ was served, and what personal property or effects, if any, of the defendant he has in his possession or under his control, or had when such writ was served. [L. '93, p. 96, § 4.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 537; 23 Wash. 68; 40 Wash. 578; 79 Wash. 495.

§ 684. Writ Against Incorporated Companies, How Served.—Where it appears from the plaintiff's affidavit that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is the owner of shares, or is interested therein, the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer upon oath what number of shares, if any, the defendant owns in such company, or owned when such writ was served. [L. '93, p. 96, § 5.]

§ 685. Writ, Form of.—Said writ may be substantially in the following form:—

State of Washington, to A B, Greeting:

Whereas, in the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for —— county, in a certain cause wherein C D is plaintiff and E F is defendant, the plaintiff claiming an indebtedness against the said E F of —— dollars, besides interest and cost of suit, has applied for a writ of garnishment against you:

Now, therefore, you are hereby commanded to be and appear before the said court within twenty days after the service upon you of this writ, if served within —— county, and within thirty days after the service of this writ upon you if served in any other county of this state, then and there to answer upon oath what, if anything, you are indebted to the said E F, and were when this writ was served upon you, and what effects, if any, of the said E F you have in your possession or under your control, and had when this writ was served (and if the garnishee be an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, or interested therein, then the writ shall proceed; and further, to answer what number of shares, if any, the said E F owns in such company, and owned when this writ was served upon you). [L. '93, p. 96, § 6.]

§ 686. Dating and Attestation.—The writ of garnishment shall be dated and tested [attested] in like manner as the writ of attachment and the name and office address of the plaintiff's attorney shall be indorsed thereon or in case the plaintiff has no attorney, then the name and address of the plaintiff shall be indorsed thereon and delivered by the clerk who issues it to the plaintiff or his attorney. [L. '93, p. 97, § 7; L. '03, p. 91, § 1.]

§ 687. Service of.—The writ of garnishment may be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the garnishee lives or it may be served by any citizen of the state of Washington over the age of twenty-one years and not a party to the action in which it is issued in the same manner as a summons in an action is served. And in case such writ is served by an officer, such officer shall make his return thereon showing the time, place and manner of service and noting thereon his fees for making such service and shall sign his name to such return. In case such service is made by any person other than an officer, such person shall attach to the original writ his affidavit showing his qualifications to make such service and the time, place and manner of making service, but no fee shall be allowed for the service of such writ unless the same is served by an officer. [L. '93, p. 97, § 8; L. '03, p. 91, § 2.]

Cited in 43 Wash. 375; 79 Wash. 491.

§ 688. Effect of Service.—From and after the service of such writ of garnishment, it shall not be lawful for the garnishee to pay to the defendant any debt or to deliver to him any effects, nor shall the garnishee if an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or to have an interest, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of such shares or interest; and any such payment, delivery, sale or transfer shall be void and of no effect as to so much of said debt, effects, shares, or interest as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand. [L. '93, p. 97, § 9.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 68; 26 Wash. 587; 40 Wash. 578; 79 Wash. 496.

§ 689. Bond to Discharge Writ.—If the defendant in the principal action, cause a bond to be executed to the plaintiff with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer having the writ or garnishment, or after the return of said writ, by the clerk of the court out of which said writ was issued, to the effect that he will perform the judgment of the court: The writ of garnishment shall, upon the filing of said bond with the clerk, be immediately discharged, and all proceedings had thereunder shall be vacated: Provided, that the garnishee shall not be thereby deprived from recovering any costs in said proceeding, to which he would otherwise be entitled under this act. [L. '03, p. 282, § 1.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 399.

§ 690. Answer and Service of.—The answer of the garnishee shall be under oath in writing and signed by him, and shall make true answers to the several matters inquired of in the writ of garnishment, and shall be served upon the plaintiff or his attorney and filed with the clerk of the superior court. [L. '93, p. 97, § 10.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 69; 79 Wash. 494.

§ 691. Garnishee Discharged When.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee that he is not indebted to the defendant, and was not so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served on him, and that he has not in his possession or under his control any personal property or effects of the defendant, and had not when the writ was served; and when the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares of stock or interested therein, if it shall further appear from such answer that the defendant is not, and was not when the writ was served, the owner of any of such shares or interested in such company, and should the answer of the garnishee not be controverted as hereinafter provided, and within the time hereinafter provided, the court shall enter judgment discharging the garnishee. [L. '93, p. 98, § 11.]

§ 692. Judgment by Default, When.—Should the garnishee fail to make answer to the writ within the time prescribed therein, it shall be lawful for the court, and on or after the time to answer such writ has expired, to render judgment by default against such garnishee for the full amount claimed by plaintiff against the defendant, or in case plaintiff has a judgment against defendant, for the full amount of such judgment with all accruing interest and costs. [L. '93, p. 98, § 12.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 578; 79 Wash. 496.

§ 693. Judgment Against Garnishee, Enforcement of.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee or should it be otherwise made to appear, as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant in any amount, or was so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against such garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee, unless such amount shall exceed the amount of plaintiff's claim or demand against the defendant with interest and costs, in which case it shall be for the amount of such claim or demand, interest and costs: Provided, however, if it shall appear from the answer of the garnishee and the same is not controverted, or if it shall appear from the trial hereinafter provided for, that the garnishee is indebted to the principal defendant in any sum, but that such indebtedness is not matured and is not due and payable, the court shall make an order requiring the garnishee to pay such sum into court when the same becomes due, the date when such payment is to be made to be specified in said order, and in default thereof that judgment shall be entered against the garnishee for the amount of such indebtedness so admitted or found due. In case the garnishee shall pay said sum at the time specified in said order, said payment shall operate as a discharge, otherwise judgment shall be entered against him for the amount of such indebtedness, which judgment shall have the same force and effect, and be enforced in like manner as other judgments provided for in this chapter: Provided further, that if judgment shall be rendered in favor of the principal defendant, or if any judgment rendered against him be satisfied prior to the date of payment specified in said order, the garnishee shall not be required to make the payment hereinbefore provided for, nor shall any judgment in such case be entered against him. [L. '93, p. 98, § 13.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 318; 24 Wash. 243; 40 Wash. 579; 77 Wash. 557; 79 Wash. 496.

§ 694. Execution.—Execution may be issued on the judgment against the garnishee herein provided for in like manner as upon any other judgment. The amount made upon any such execution shall be paid by the officer executing the same to the clerk of the superior court from which such execution was issued; and in cases where judgment has been rendered against the defendant the amount made on the execution shall be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment, interests and costs against the defendant. In case judgment has not been rendered against the defendant at the time execution issued against the garnishee is returned, any amount made on said execution shall be paid to the clerk of the court from which such execution issued who shall retain the same until judgment be rendered in the action between the plaintiff and defendant. In case judgment be rendered therein in favor of the plaintiff, the amount made on the execution against the garnishee shall be applied to the satisfaction of such judgment and the surplus, if any there be, shall be paid to the defendant. In case judgment be rendered in such action in favor of the defendant, the amount made on said execution against the garnishee shall be paid to the defendant. [L. '93, p. 99, § 14.]

§ 695. Decree to Deliver Effects.—Should it appear from the garnishee's answer or otherwise that the garnishee has in his possession or under his control, or had when the writ was served any personal property or effects of the defendant liable to execution, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff on demand such personal property or effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. In cases where a judgment has been rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, such personal property or effects may be sold in like manner as any other property is sold upon an execution issued on said judgment. In cases where judgment has not been rendered in the principal action, the sheriff shall retain said personal property or effects in his possession until the rendition of judgment therein, and in case judgment is rendered in said principal action in favor of the plaintiff, said goods or effects, or sufficient of them to satisfy such judgment, may be sold in like manner as other property is sold on execution, by virtue of an execution issuing on said judgment. In case judgment shall be rendered in said action against the plaintiff and in favor of the defendant, such effects and personal property shall be by the sheriff returned to the defendant: Provided, however, that in cases where such effects or personal property are of a perishable nature, or the interests of the parties will be subserved by making a sale thereof before judgment, the court may order a sale thereof by the sheriff in like manner as sales upon execution are made and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the clerk of the superior court, and like disposition shall be made of such proceeds at the termination of the action as would have been made of such personal property or effects under the provisions of this section, in case such sale had not been made. [L. '93, p. 100, § 15.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 162; 18 Wash. 318; 23 Wash. 68.

§ 696. Procedure on Failure of Garnishee to Surrender Effects.—Should the garnishee adjudged to have effects or personal property of the defendant in his possession or under his control as provided in the [last] preceding article [section], fail or refuse to deliver them to the sheriff on such demand, the officer shall immediately make return of such failure or refusal, whereupon, on motion of the plaintiff, the garnishee shall be cited to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt of court for such failure or refusal, and should the garnishee fail to show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure and refusal, he shall be fined for such contempt and imprisoned until he shall deliver such personal property or effects. [L. '93, p. 101, § 16.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 162; 32 Wash. 609.

§ 697. Sale of Shares of Stock, When.—Where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and it appears by the answer or otherwise that the defendant is or was, when the writ of garnishment was served, the owner of any shares of stock in such company or any interest therein, the court shall render a decree ordering the sale under execution in favor of the plaintiff, against the defendant, of such shares or interest of the defendant in such company, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such execution. [L. '93, p. 101, § 17.]

Cited in 26 Wash. 587.

§ 698. Sale, How Made.—The sale so ordered shall be conducted in all respects as other sales of personal property under execution, and the sheriff making such sales shall execute a transfer of such shares or interest to the purchaser with a brief recital of the judgment of the court under which the same was sold. [L. '93, p. 101, § 18.]

§ 699. Effect of Sale.—Such sale shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser all the right, title and interest which the defendant had in such shares of stock, or in such company, and the proper officers of such company shall enter such sale and transfer on the books of the company in the same manner as if the sale had been made by the defendant himself. [L. '93, p. 101, § 19.]

§ 700. Plaintiff may Controvert Answer.—If the plaintiff should not be satisfied with the answer of the garnishee he may controvert the same by affidavit in writing signed by him, stating that he has good reason to believe and does believe that the answer of the garnishee is incorrect, stating in what particulars he believes the same is incorrect. [L. '93, p. 101, § 20.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 242; 23 Wash. 68; 30 Wash. 551.

§ 701. Defendant may Controvert Answer.—The defendant may also in like manner controvert the answer of the garnishee. [L. '93, p. 101, § 21.]

Cited in 51 Wash. 329.

§ 702. Issue and Trial.—If the answer of the garnishee is controverted, as provided in the two preceding sections, an issue shall be formed, under the direction of the court, and tried as other cases: Provided, however, no pleadings shall be necessary on such issue other than the affidavit of the plaintiff, the answer of the garnishee and the reply of the plaintiff or defendant controverting such answer, unless otherwise ordered by the court. [L. '93, p. 101, § 22.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 242; 23 Wash. 519; 71 Wash. 54.

§ 703. Exemption of Wages and Family Necessaries.—Current wages or salary to the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for personal services rendered by any person having a family dependent upon him for support, shall be exempt from garnishment, and where it appears upon the trial, or by answer of the garnishee, when not controverted as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant for such current wages or salary for an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), the garnishee shall be discharged as to such indebtedness: Provided, that if the garnishment be founded upon a debt for actual necessaries furnished to the defendant or his family or his dependents, no exemption shall be allowed in excess of ten dollars ($10) out of each week's wages or salary, whether said wages or salary are paid, or to be paid, weekly, bi-weekly, monthly or at other intervals, and whether there be due the defendant wages for one week or a longer period: Provided, however, that said exemption shall in no event be allowed out of wages or salary for a longer period than four (4) consecutive weeks: And provided further, that no money due or earned as wages or salary shall be exempt from garnishment in lieu of any other property. The provisions of this section shall apply to actions in the superior court or before justice of the peace, and shall govern exemptions of wages or salary to the exclusion of all other statutes or parts of statutes. [L. '07, p. 477, § 1. Cf. L. '93, p. 102, § 23; L. '97, p. 24, § 1; L. '01, p. 294, § 1.]

See supra, § 563, specification of exempt property.

See supra, § 564, property not exempt from wages of clerks, laborers, etc.

§ 704. Costs and Attorneys' Fees.—Where the garnishee is discharged upon his answer, the costs of the proceeding, including a reasonable compensation to the garnishee for attorneys' fees, shall be taxed against the plaintiff; where the answer of the garnishee has not been controverted and the garnishee is held thereon such costs shall be taxed against the defendant and included in the judgment. Where the answer is controverted the costs shall abide the issue of such contest. [L. '93, p. 102, § 24.]

Cited in 43 Wash. 178.

§ 705. Sufficiency of Answer Against Defendant.—It shall be a sufficient answer to any claim of the defendant against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee or on the possession by him of any personal property or effects, or where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant was the owner of shares of stock or other interest therein for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid or such effects delivered, or such shares of stock or other interest in such company were sold under the judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [L. '93, p. 102, § 25.]

Cited in 67 Wash. 493.

§ 706. Provisions Inapplicable to Justices of the Peace.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to actions and proceedings before justices of the peace, but garnishments shall be made in such actions and proceedings in the manner now provided by existing laws. [L. '93, p. 102, § 26.]

CHAPTER III.

Claim and Delivery (Replevin).

§ 707. Plaintiff may Claim Immediate Delivery.—The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property may, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time before answer, claim the immediate delivery of such property as herein provided. [L. '54, p. 150, § 100; L. '69, p. 35, § 140; Cd. '81, § 142; 2 H. C., § 255.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 227; 21 Wash. 95; 54 Wash. 669; 70 Wash. 687.

§ 708. Affidavit for Delivery.—When a delivery is claimed, an affidavit shall be made by the plaintiff, or by someone in his behalf, showing,—

1. That the plaintiff is the owner of the property claimed (particularly describing it), or is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof, by virtue of a special property therein, the facts in respect to which shall be set forth;

2. That the property is wrongfully detained by defendant;

3. That the same has not been taken for a tax, assessment, or fine pursuant to a statute, or seized under an execution or attachment against the property of the plaintiff, or if so seized, that it is by law exempt from such seizure; and

4. The actual value of the property. [Cf. L. '54, p. 150, § 101; L. '69, p. 35, § 141; Cd. '81, § 143; 2 H. C., § 256.]

§ 709. Bond—Service of Bond and Affidavit.—Upon the receipt of the affidavit, and a bond to the defendant, executed by one or more sufficient sureties, approved by the sheriff, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, the sheriff shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit and bond by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or his agent, from whose possession the property is taken; or if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either, with some person of suitable age and discretion; or if neither have any known place of abode, by putting them in the postoffice, directed to the defendant, at the postoffice nearest his place of residence. [Cf. L. '54, p. 150, § 102; L. '69, p. 35, § 142; Cd. '81, § 144; 2 H. C., § 157.]

Cited in 32 Wash. 553; 73 Wash. 404, 407.

§ 710. Objections to Bond—Justification of Sureties.—The defendant may, within three days after the service of a copy of the affidavit and bond, give notice to the sheriff that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties; if he fail to do so he shall be deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties shall justify on notice in like manner as bail on arrest, and the sheriff shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties until the objection to them is either waived as above provided, or until they shall justify, or new sureties shall be substituted and justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he cannot reclaim the property, as provided in the next section. [Cf. L. '54, p. 150, § 103; L. '69, p. 36, § 143; Cd. '81, § 145; 2 H. C., § 258.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 688.

§ 711. Redelivery Bond.—At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof, upon giving to the sheriff a bond, executed by one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may, for any cause, be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required within three days after the taking and service of notice to the defendant, it shall be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in section 716. [Cf. L. '54, p. 151, § 104; L. '69, p. 36, § 144; Cd. '81, § 146; 2 H. C., § 259.]

Cited in 32 Wash. 553; 70 Wash. 688; 73 Wash. 404, 407.

§ 712. Justification of Defendant's Sureties.—The defendant's sureties, upon a notice to the plaintiff or his attorney of not less than two nor more than six days, shall justify in the same manner as bail upon arrest; upon such justification, the sheriff shall deliver the property to the defendant. The sheriff shall be responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify, or until justification is completed or expressly waived, and may retain the property until that time; but if they, or others in their place, fail to justify at the time and place appointed, he shall deliver the property to the plaintiff. [Cf. L. '54, p. 151, § 105; L. '69, p. 36, § 145; Cd. '81, § 147; 2 H. C., § 260.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 46.

§ 713. Qualifications of Sureties.—The qualification of sureties and their justification shall be as prescribed in respect to bail upon an order of arrest. [L. '54, p. 151, § 106; Cd. '81, § 148; 2 H. C., § 261.]

§ 714. Buildings may be Broken Open, When.—If the property, or any part thereof, be concealed in a building or inclosure, the sheriff shall publicly demand its delivery. If it be not delivered, he shall cause the building or inclosure to be broken open, and take the property into his possession, and if necessary, he may call to his aid the power of his county. [L. '54, p. 151, § 107; Cd. '81, § 149; 2 H. C., § 262.]

§ 715. Sheriff must Safely Keep Property.—When the sheriff shall have taken the property as herein provided, he shall keep it in a secure place, and deliver it to the party entitled thereto, upon receiving his lawful fees for taking and his necessary expenses for keeping the same. [L. '54, p. 151, § 108; Cd. '81, § 150; 2 H. C., § 263.

§ 716. Proceedings upon Claim by Third Person.—If the property taken be claimed by any other person than the defendant or his agent, and such person make affidavit of his title thereto, or his right to the possession thereof, stating the grounds of such title or right, and serve the same upon the sheriff before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the sheriff shall not be bound to keep the property or deliver it to the plaintiff, unless the plaintiff, on demand [of him or his agent], indemnify the sheriff against such claim by a bond, executed by two sufficient sureties, accompanied by their affidavits that they are each worth double the value of the property as specified in the affidavit of plaintiff, over and above their debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and freeholders or householders of the county; and no claim to such property by any other person than the defendant or his agent shall be valid against the sheriff, unless made as aforesaid; and notwithstanding such claim, when so made, he may retain the property a reasonable time to demand such indemnity. [L. '54, p. 151, § 109; Cd. '81, § 151; 2 H. C., § 264.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 687, 688.

§ 717. Return of Sheriff.—The sheriff shall file the affidavit, with the proceedings thereon, with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending within twenty days after taking the property mentioned therein. [Cf. L. '54, p. 152, § 110; Cd. '81, § 152; L. '91, p. 72, § 1; 2 H. C., § 265.]

CHAPTER IV.

Injunctions.

§ 718. By Whom Granted.—Restraining orders and injunctions may be granted by the superior court, or by any judge thereof. [L. '54, p. 152, § 111; Cd. '81, § 153; 2 H. C., § 266.]

§ 719. When Granted.—When it appears by the complaint that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and the relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of some act the commission or continuance of which during the litigation would produce great injury to the plaintiff; or when, during the litigation, it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatening [threatened], or is about to do, or is procuring or is suffering some act to be done, in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action, tending to render the judgment ineffectual; or where such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining proceedings upon any final order or judgment,—an injunction may be granted to restrain such act or proceedings until the further order of the court, which may afterwards be dissolved or modified upon motion. And where it appears, in the complaint, at the commencement of the action, or during the pendency thereof, by affidavit, that the defendant threatens or is about to remove or dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, a temporary injunction may be granted to restrain the removal or disposition of his property. [L. '54, p. 152, § 112; Cd. '81, § 154; 2 H. C., § 267.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 86; 43 Wash. 326; 69 Wash. 557.

§ 720. Injunction for Malicious Erection of Structures.—An injunction may be granted to restrain the malicious erection, by any owner or lessee of land, of any structure intended to spite, injure, or annoy an adjoining proprietor. And where any owner or lessee of land has maliciously erected such a structure with such intent, a mandatory injunction will lie to compel its abatement and removal. [L. '93, p. 44, § 1; 2 H. C., § 268.]

Cited in 22 Wash. 423; 31 Wash. 368; 56 Wash. 593.

§ 721. At What Time Granted.—The injunction may be granted at the time of commencing the action, or at any time afterward, before judgment in that proceeding. [L. '54, p. 163, § 113; Cd. '81, § 155; 2 H. C., § 269.]

§ 722. Notice—Emergency.—No injunction shall be granted until it shall appear to the court or judge granting it that some one or more of the opposite party concerned has had reasonable notice of the time and place of making application, except that in cases of emergency, to be shown in the complaint, the court may grant a restraining order until notice can be given and hearing had thereon. [L. '54, p. 153, § 114; Cd. '81, § 156; 2 H. C., § 270.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 410, 413; 11 Wash. 588; 12 Wash. 649; 14 Wash. 110; 22 Wash. 55; 43 Wash. 326; 45 Wash. 4.

§ 723. Affidavits on Hearing of Application.—On the hearing of an application for an injunction, each party may read affidavits. [L. '54, p. 153, § 115; Cd. '81, § 157; 2 H. C., § 271.]

§ 724. Terms and Conditions Imposed.—Upon the granting or continuing an injunction, such terms and conditions may be imposed upon the party obtaining it as may be deemed equitable. [L. '54, p. 153, § 116; Cd. '81, § 158; 2 H. C., § 272.]

§ 725. Bond for Injunction.—No injunction or restraining order shall be granted until the party asking it shall enter into a bond, in such a sum as shall be fixed by the court or judge granting the order, with surety to the satisfaction of the clerk of the superior court, to the adverse party affected thereby, conditioned to pay all damages and costs which may accrue by reason of the injunction or restraining order. The sureties shall, if required by the clerk, justify in like manner as bail upon an arrest, and until they so justify, the clerk shall be responsible for their sufficiency. [L. '54, p. 153, § 117; Cd. '81, § 159; 2 H. C., § 273.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 421; 11 Wash. 588; 35 Wash. 77.

§ 726. Second Bond When First Insufficient.—When an injunction is granted upon the hearing, after a temporary restraining order, the plaintiff shall not be required to enter into a second bond, unless the former shall be deemed insufficient, but the plaintiff and his surety shall remain liable upon his original bond. [L. '54, p. 153, § 118; Cd. '81, § 160; 2 H. C., § 274.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 409; 48 Wash. 428.

§ 727. Copy of Order Sufficient Writ.—It shall not be necessary to issue a writ of injunction, but the clerk shall issue a copy of the order of injunction duly certified by him, which shall be forthwith served by delivering the same to the adverse party. [L. '54, p. 153, § 119; Cd. '81, § 161; 2 H. C., § 275.]

§ 728. Stay of Judgment—Release of Errors.—In application to stay proceedings after judgment, the plaintiff shall indorse upon his complaint a release of errors in the judgment whenever required to do so by the judge or court. [L. '54, p. 153, § 120; Cd. '81, § 162; 2 H. C., § 276.]

§ 729. Who Bound by.—An order of injunction shall bind every person and officer restrained from the time he is informed thereof. [L. '54, p. 153, § 121; Cd. '81, § 163; 2 H. C., § 277.]

Cited in 22 Wash. 382; 66 Wash. 641.

§ 730. Notice, When Sufficient Service.—When notice of the application for an injunction has been served upon the adverse party, it shall not be necessary to serve the order upon him, but he shall be bound by the injunction as soon as the bond required of the plaintiff is executed and delivered to the proper officer. [L. '54, p. 154, § 122; Cd. '81, § 164; 2 H. C., § 278.]

§ 731. Money Collected on Enjoined Judgment to be Paid into Court.—Money collected upon a judgment afterward enjoined, remaining in the hands of the collecting officer, shall be paid to the clerk of the court granting the injunction, subject to the order of the court. [L. '54, p. 154, § 123; Cd. '81, § 165; 2 H. C., § 279.]

§ 732. Order Disobeyed—Contempt.—Whenever it shall appear to any court granting an order of injunction, or judge thereof, by affidavit, that any person has willfully disobeyed the order after notice thereof, such court or judge shall award an attachment for contempt against the party charged, or a rule to show cause why it should not issue. The attachment or rule shall be issued by the clerk of the court, and directed to the sheriff, and shall be served by him. [L. 54. p. 154, § 124; Cd. '81, § 166; 2 H. C., § 280.]

§ 733. Arrest and Indemnity.—The attachment for contempt shall be immediately served by arresting the party charged, and bringing him into court, if in session, to be dealt with as in other cases of contempt; and the court shall also take all necessary measures to secure and indemnify the plaintiff against damages in the premises. [L. '54, p. 154, § 125; Cd. '81, § 167; 2 H. C., § 281.]

§ 734. Bond for Appearance.—If the court is not in session the officer making the arrest shall cause the person to enter into a bond, with surety, to be approved by the officer, conditioned that he personally appear in open court whenever his appearance shall be required, to answer such contempt, and that he will pay to the plaintiff all his damages and costs occasioned by the breach of the order; and in default thereof, he shall be committed to the jail of the county until he shall enter into such bond with surety, or be otherwise legally discharged. [Cf. L. '54, p. 154, § 126; Cd. '81, § 168; L. '91, p. 97, § 1; 2 H. C., § 282.]

§ 735. Motion to Vacate or Modify.—Motions to dissolve or modify injunctions may be made in open court, or before a judge of the superior court, at any time after reasonable notice to the adverse party. [L. '54, p. 154, § 127; Cd. '81, § 169; L. '91, p. 74, § 1; 2 H. C., § 283.]

Cited in 12 Wash. 655.

§ 736. Damages upon Dissolution of Injunction to Stay Proceedings.—When an injunction to stay proceedings after judgment for debt or damages shall be dissolved, the court shall award such damages, not exceeding ten per cent, on the judgment, as the court may deem right, against the party in whose favor the injunction issued. [L. '54, p. 154, § 128; Cd. '81, § 170; 2 H. C., § 284.]

§ 737. Damages for Waste and Rents, When.—If an injunction to stay proceedings after verdict or judgment in an action for the recovery of real estate, or the possession thereof, be dissolved, the damages assessed against the party obtaining the injunction shall include the reasonable rents and profits of the land recovered, and all waste committed after granting injunction. [L. '54, p. 154, § 129; Cd. '81, § 171; 2 H. C., § 285.]

§ 738. Motion to Reinstate.—Upon an order being made dissolving or modifying an order of injunction, the plaintiff may move the court to reinstate the order, and the court may, in its discretion, allow the motion, and appoint a time for hearing the same before the court, or a time and place for hearing before some judge thereof, and upon the hearing, the parties may produce such additional affidavits or depositions as the court shall direct, and the order of injunction shall be dissolved, modified, or reinstated, as the court or judge may deem right. Until the hearing of the motion to reinstate the order of injunction, the order to dissolve or modify it shall be suspended. [L. '54, p. 154, § 130; Cd. '81, § 172; 2 H. C., § 286.]

§ 739. Power of Judge or Court.—The judge of the superior court shall have power to make every order which, by the provisions of this chapter, may be made by the court. [L. '69, p. 41, § 171; Cd. '81, § 173; 2 H. C., § 287.]

CHAPTER V.

Receivers.

§ 740. Receiver, Defined.—A receiver is a person appointed by a court or judicial officer to take charge of property during the pending of a civil action or proceeding, or upon a judgment, decree, or order therein, and to manage and dispose of it as the court or officer may direct. [L. '91, p. 90, § 1; 2 H. C., § 325.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 151; 22 Wash. 376; 47 Wash. 184; 86 Wash. 586.

§ 741. In What Cases Appointed.—A receiver may be appointed by the court in the following cases:—

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim;

2. In an action between partners, or other persons jointly interested in any property or fund;

3. In all actions where it is shown that the property, fund, or rents and profits in controversy are in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured;

4. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of a mortgage and the sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that such property is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured; [or when such property is insufficient to discharge the debt, to secure the application of the rents and profits accruing, before a sale can be had;]

5. When a corporation has been dissolved or is insolvent, or is in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights;

6. And in such other cases as may be provided for by law, or when, in the discretion of the court, it may be necessary to secure ample justice to the parties: Provided, that no party or attorney or other person interested in an action shall be appointed receiver therein. [L. '54, p. 162, §§ 171, 172; Cd. '81, § 193; 2 H. C., § 326.]

The last part of subdivision 4 in brackets superseded by § 804, infra.

See supra, § 613 et seq., receivers in proceedings supplemental to executions.

See supra, § 661, receiver in attachments.

§ 742. Oath and Bond.—Before entering upon his duties, the receiver must be sworn to perform them faithfully, and, with one or more sureties approved by the court, execute a bond to such person as the court may direct, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge the duties of receiver in the action, and obey the orders of the court therein. [L. '54, p. 162, § 173; Cd. '81, § 194; 2 H. C., § 327.]

§ 743. Powers of Receiver.—The receiver shall have power, under control of the court, to bring and defend actions, to take and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect debts, and generally to do such acts respecting the property as the court may authorize. [L. '54, p. 163, § 177; Cd. '81, § 198; 2 H. C., § 331.]

§ 744. Order When Part of Claim Admitted. When the answer of the defendant admits part of the plaintiff's claim to be just, the court, on motion, may order the defendant to satisfy that part of the claim, and may enforce the order by execution or attachment. [L. '54, p. 153, § 178; Cd. '81, § 199; 2 H. C., § 332.]

CHAPTER VI.

Deposits in Courts.

§ 745. Deposits in Court. When it is admitted by the pleading or examination of a party that he has in his possession, or under his control, any money, or other thing capable of delivery, which, being the subject of the litigation, is held by him as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may order the same to be deposited in court, or delivered to such party, with or without security, subject to the further direction of the court. [L. '54, p. 163, § 174; Cd. '81, § 195; 2 H. C., § 328.]

Cited in 28 Wash. 406; 31 Wash. 103.

§ 746. Manner of Enforcing Order.—Whenever, in the exercise of its authority, a court shall have ordered the deposit or delivery of money or other thing, and the order is disobeyed, the court, besides punishing the disobedience as for contempt, may make an order requiring the sheriff to take the money or thing, and deposit or deliver it, in conformity with the direction of the court. [L. '54, p. 163, § 175; Cd. '81. § 196; 2 H. C., § 329.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 497.

§ 747. Custody of Money Deposited.—Money deposited or paid into a court in an action shall not be loaned out, unless with the consent of all parties having an interest in or making claim to the same. [L. '54, p. 163, § 176; Cd. '81, § 197; 2 H. C., § 330.]

CHAPTER VII.

Arrest and Bail.

§ 748. No Arrest Except as Provided by Statute.—No person shall be arrested or held to bail in any civil action except upon the order of the court where the action is brought, or a judge of the supreme court. [L. '54, p. 145, § 73; Cd. '81, § 115; 2 H. C., § 228.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 695.

§ 749. Defendant, When Subject to Arrest.—The defendant may be arrested in the following cases:—

1. In an action for the recovery of damages, on a cause of action not arising out of contract, where the defendant is a nonresident of the state, or is about to remove therefrom, or where the action is for an injury to person or character, or for injuring, or for wrongfully taking, detaining, or converting property;

2. In an action for a fine or penalty, or on a promise to marry, or for money received, or property embezzled, or fraudulently misapplied, or converted to his own use, by a public officer, or by an attorney, or by an officer or agent of a corporation in the course of his employment as such, or by any factor, agent, broker, or other person in a fiduciary capacity, or for any misconduct or neglect in office or in a professional employment;

3. In an action to recover the possession of personal property unjustly detained, when the property, or any part thereof, has been concealed, removed, or disposed of, so that it cannot be found or taken by the sheriff, and with intent that it should not be so found or taken, or with the intent to deprive the plaintiff of the benefit thereof;

4. When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt, or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property, for the taking, detention, or conversion of which the action is brought;

5. When the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors;

6. When the action is to prevent threatened injury to or destruction of property, in which the party bringing the action has some right, interest, or title, which will be impaired or destroyed by such injury or destruction, and the danger is imminent that such property will be destroyed or its value impaired, to the injury of the plaintiff;

7. On the final judgment or order of any court in this state, while the same remains in force, when the defendant, having no property subject to execution, or not sufficient to satisfy such judgment, has money which he ought to apply in payment upon such judgment, which he refuses to apply, with intent to defraud the plaintiff, or when he refuses to comply with a legal order of the court, with intent to defraud the plaintiff; or when any one or more of the causes exist for which an arrest is allowed in the first class of cases mentioned in this section. [L. '54, p. 145, § 74; Cd. '81, § 116; 2 H. C., § 229.]

§ 750. Proof Required to Obtain Order.—The court or judge making the order of arrest shall first be satisfied, by the affidavit of the party, or his agent or attorney, and other proof under oath, exclusive of the complaint, that the case is one in which an arrest is provided for in section 749, and that one or more of the prescribed causes exist, which proof shall be in writing, and, together with the order, be filed with the clerk before he shall issue any warrant for the arrest. [Cf. L. '54, p. 145, § 75; Cd. '81, § 117; L. '88, p. 31, § 1; 2 H. C., § 230.]

§ 751. Court or Judge must Fix Bail.—The court or judge making the order shall, in all cases, specify therein the amount in which the defendant shall be held to bail, which shall, in no case, exceed the demand of the plaintiff, and one hundred dollars in addition thereto, which amount the clerk shall indorse upon the writ, and the court shall also, in the order, fix the amount of the bond to be given by the plaintiff, as provided in the next succeeding section, which amount shall in no case be less than one hundred dollars. [L. '54, p. 146, § 76; Cd. '81, § 118; 2 H. C., § 231.]

of the clerk, conditioned to pay to the defendant all damages which he shall suffer and all expenses he shall incur by reason of such arrest or imprisonment, if the order shall be vacated in the manner provided for in the next succeeding section, or if the plaintiff fail to recover in his action. [L. '54, p. 146, § 77; Cd. '81, § 119; 2 H. C., § 232.]

§ 753. Defendant may Move to Vacate Order — Proceedings Thereon.—The defendant may, on motion, apply to the court to vacate the order of arrest, on the ground of insufficiency of the proof, or he may show that the facts alleged upon which the order issued are untrue, or he may apply to have the amount of bail reduced. If the court, upon any such motion, shall vacate the order, the defendant shall be discharged from the arrest, and any bond he may have given shall be canceled, but the action, unless dismissed for other cause, shall be conducted in the same manner as in cases where complaint and notice were duly served and filed. [L. '54, p. 146, § 78; Cd. '81, § 120; 2 H. C., § 233.]

§ 754. Warrant must not Issue Till Complaint is Filed.—When an order of arrest is granted prior to the filing of the complaint, the warrant shall not issue until the complaint is filed with the clerk, and a copy of said complaint shall be served on the defendant with the warrant; but an order of arrest may be granted at any time after the action is commenced, and before judgment is satisfied, when the party seeking the order shall comply with the preceding provisions in regard to arrests. [L. '54, p. 146, § 79; Cd. '81, § 121; 2 H. C., § 234.]

§ 755. Warrant must State Cause of Arrest.—The warrant shall, in all cases, contain a short statement of the alleged causes for which the order was granted, and also the amount for which bail is required. [L. '54, p. 146, § 83; Cd. '81, § 125; 2 H. C., § 235.]

§ 756. Defendant Entitled to Copy of Warrant.—The warrant must be delivered to the sheriff, who, upon arresting the defendant, must deliver to him a copy thereof. [L. '54, p. 146, § 80; Cd. '81, § 122; 2 H. C., § 236.]

§ 757. How Warrant Executed—Fees of Sheriff.—The sheriff shall execute the warrant by arresting the defendant, and keeping him in custody until discharged by law. And the plaintiff, in the first instance, shall be liable for the sheriff's fees, for the food and maintenance of any person under arrest, which, if required by the sheriff, shall be paid weekly in advance. And such fees so paid shall be added to the costs taxed or accruing in the case, and be collected as other costs. And if the plaintiff shall neglect to pay such fees for three days after a demand, in writing, upon the plaintiff or his attorney for payment, the sheriff may discharge defendant out of custody. [L. '54, p. 146, § 81; Cd. '81, § 123; 2 H. C., § 237.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 695.

§ 758. Conditions of Bail Bond.—The defendant may give bail by causing a bond to be executed by two or more sufficient sureties, stating their places of residence and occupations, conditioned that the defendant shall at all times render himself amenable to the process of the court during the pendency of the action, and to such as may be issued to enforce the judgment rendered therein; or if he be arrested for the cause mentioned in the third subdivision of section 749, it shall be further conditioned that the specific article of property, or instrument of writing which is the subject matter of the writ, shall be forthcoming, to abide any order which shall be made therein; or if he be arrested for the cause mentioned in the sixth subdivision of said section, it shall be further conditioned that he will not commit the injury or destruction alleged to be threatened in the affidavit or proofs on which the arrest is ordered. [L. '54, p. 147, § 82; Cd. '81, § 124; 2 H. C., § 238.]

§ 759. Surrender of Defendant.—At any time before a failure to comply with their bonds, the bail may surrender the defendant in their exoneration, or he may surrender himself to the sheriff of the county where he was arrested, in the following manner:—

1. A certified copy of the bail bond shall be delivered to the sheriff, who shall retain the defendant in his custody thereon as upon an order of arrest, and by a certificate in writing, acknowledge the surrender;

2. Upon the production of a copy of the bail bond and sheriff's certificate a judge of the superior court may, upon a notice to the plaintiff of eight days, with a copy of the certificate, order that the bail be exonerated, and on filing the order and the papers used on such application, they shall be exonerated accordingly. But this section does not apply to an arrest for the cause mentioned in the sixth subdivision of section 749. [L. '54, p. 147, § 84; Cd. '81, § 126; 2 H. C., § 239.]

§ 760. Bail may Arrest Defendant, When.—For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the bail, at any time or place before they are finally discharged, may themselves arrest him, or, by written authority indorsed upon a certified copy of the bond, may empower any person of suitable age and discretion to do so. [L. '54, p. 147, § 85; Cd. '81, § 127; 2 H. C., § 240.]

§ 761. Proceeding Against Bail.—In case of failure to comply with the condition of the bond, the bail can be proceeded against by action only. [L. '54, p. 147, § 86; Cd. '81, § 128; 2 H. C., § 241.]

§ 762. Exoneration of Bail.—The bail may be exonerated either by the death of the defendant, or his imprisonment in the penitentiary, or by his legal discharge from the obligation to render himself amenable to the process, or by his surrender to the sheriff of the county where he was arrested, in exoneration thereof, within twenty days after commencement of the action against the bail, or within such further time as may be granted by the court. [L. '54, p. 148, § 87; Cd. '81, § 129; 2 H. C., § 242.]

§ 763. Return of Sheriff—Exceptions to Bail.—Within the time limited for that purpose, the sheriff must deliver the order of arrest to the clerk, with his return indorsed thereon, and the bond of the bail, or a copy thereof. The plaintiff, within ten days thereafter, may serve upon the sheriff a notice that he does not accept the bail, or he must be deemed to have accepted it, and the sheriff shall be exonerated from liability. [L. '54, p. 148, § 88; Cd. '81, § 130; 2 H. C., § 243.]

§ 764. Notice of Justification.—On the receipt of notice, the sheriff or defendant may, within ten days thereafter, give to the plaintiff or his attorney notice of the justification of the same, or their bail (specifying the places of residences and occupations of the latter), before judgment [the judge] of the court or justice of the peace, at a specified time and place, the time to be not less than five days nor more than ten thereafter. In case other bail be given, there must be a new bond in the form prescribed in section 758. [L. '54, p. 148, § 89; Cd. '81, § 131; 2 H. C., § 244.]

1. Each of them shall be a resident of the state; but no counselor or attorney at law, sheriff, clerk of the superior court, or other officer of such court, shall be permitted to become bail in any action;

2. Each of the bail shall be worth the amount specified in the order of arrest, or the amount to which the order may be reduced, as provided in this chapter, over and above all debts and liabilities, and exclusive of property exempt from execution; but the judge or justice, on justification, may allow more than two sureties to justify, severally, in amounts less than that expressed in the order, if the whole justification be equivalent to that of two sufficient bail. [L. '54, p. 138, § 90; Cd. '81, § 132; 2 H. C., § 245.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 337.

§ 766. Justification, How Made.—For the purpose of justification, each of the bail must attend before the judge or justice of the peace at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and may be examined on oath on the part of the plaintiff touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the judge or justice of the peace, in his discretion, may think proper. The examination must be reduced to writing and subscribed by the bail, if required by the plaintiff. [L. '54, p. 148, § 91; Cd. '81, § 133; 2 H. C., § 246.]

§ 767. Order When Bail Found Sufficient.—If the judge or justice find the bail sufficient, he shall indorse his allowance thereof on the bond, and cause it to be filed with the clerk, and the sheriff shall thereupon be exonerated from liability. [L. '54, p. 148, § 92; Cd. '81, § 134; 2 H. C., § 247.]

§ 768. Deposit of Money Instead of Bail.—The defendant may at the time of his arrest, instead of giving bail, deposit with the sheriff the amount mentioned in the order. The sheriff must thereupon give the defendant a certificate of deposit, and the defendant shall be discharged from custody. [L. '54, p. 148, § 93; Cd. '81, § 135; 2 H. C., § 248.]

§ 769. Sheriff must Pay Bail Money into Court.—The sheriff shall, within ten days after the deposit, pay the same into court, and take from the officer receiving the same two certificates of such payment, the one of which he must deliver to the plaintiff and the other to the defendant. For any default in making such payment, the same proceeding may be had on the official bond of the sheriff to collect the sum deposited, as in case of delinquency. [L. '54, p. 149, § 94; Cd. '81, § 136; 2 H. C., § 249.]

§ 770. Bail may be Substituted for Money.—If the money be deposited, as provided in the last two sections, bail may be given and justified, upon notice as hereinbefore provided, at any time before judgment; and thereupon the judge before whom justification is had shall direct in the order of allowance that the money deposited be refunded by the sheriff or clerk to the defendant, and it shall be refunded accordingly. [L. '54, p. 149, § 95; Cd. '81, § 137; 2 H. C., § 250.]

§ 771. Disposition of Bail Money After Judgment.—When money shall have been so deposited, if it remain on deposit at the time of an order or judgment for the payment of money to the plaintiff, the clerk shall, under the direction of the court, apply the same in the satisfaction thereof, and after satisfying judgment, refund the surplus, if any, to the defendant. If the judgment be in favor of the defendant, the clerk shall refund to him the whole sum deposited and remaining unapplied. [L. '54, p. 149, § 96; Cd. '81, § 138; 2 H. C., § 251.]

§ 772. Liability of Sheriff for Escape.—If, after being arrested, the defendant escapes or be rescued, the sheriff himself shall be liable as bail; but he may discharge himself from such liability by giving bail at any time before judgment. [L. '54, p. 149, § 97; Cd. '81, § 139; 2 H. C., § 252.]

§ 773. Judgment—Sheriff as Bail.—If the judgment be recovered against the sheriff upon his liability as bail, and an execution thereon be returned unsatisfied, the same proceedings may be had on the official bond of the sheriff to collect the deficiency as in other cases of delinquency. [L. '54, p. 149, § 98; Cd. '81, § 140; 2 H. C., § 253.]

§ 774. Bail Liable to Sheriff, When.—The bail taken on arrest shall, unless they justify, or other bail be given or justified, be liable to the sheriff, by action, for the damages which he may sustain by reason of such omission. [L. '54, p. 149, § 99; Cd. '81, § 141; 2 H. C., § 254.]

§ 775. Officer Authorized to Take Bail may Examine Surety.—Every court and officer authorized to take any bail or surety shall have power to examine on oath the person offering to become such bail or surety concerning his property and sufficiency as such bail or surety. [L. '54, p. 219, § 488; Cd. '81, § 748; 2 H. C., § 799.]

§ 776. Money may be Deposited for Bail.—Any person required to give bail may deposit with the clerk the amount of money for which he is required to give bail, and thereupon be discharged from arrest. [L. '54, p. 220, § 493; Cd. '81, § 750; 2 H. C., § 801.]

§ 777. Bonds are not to Fail for Want of Form.—No bond required by law, and intended as such bond, shall be void for want of form or substance, recital, or condition; nor shall the principal or surety on such account be discharged, but all the parties thereto shall be held and bound to the full extent contemplated by the law requiring the same, to the amount specified in such bond. In all actions on such defective bond, the plaintiff may state its legal effect in the same manner as though it were a perfect bond. [L. '54, p. 219, § 489; Cd. '81, § 749; 2 H. C., § 800.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Ne Exeat.

§ 778. Affidavit for Writ.—Action may be commenced upon any agreement in writing before the time for the performance of the contract expires, when the plaintiff or his agent shall make and file an affidavit with the clerk of the proper court that the defendant is about to leave the state without performing or making provisions for the performance of the contract, taking with him property, moneys, credits, or effects subject to execution, with intent to defraud plaintiff. [L. '54, p. 209, § 418; Cd. '81, § 636; 2 H. C., § 747.]

§ 779. Complaint—Bond—Order of Arrest.—At the time of filing the affidavit the plaintiff shall also file his complaint in the action, and thenceforth the action shall proceed as other actions at law, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Upon such affidavit and complaint being filed, the clerk shall issue an order of arrest and bail, directed to the sheriff, which shall be issued, served, and returned in all respects as such orders in other cases; before such order shall issue, the plaintiff shall file in the office of the clerk a bond, with sufficient surety, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that the plaintiff will pay the defendant such damages and costs as he shall wrongfully sustain by reason of the action, which sureties shall justify as bail upon an arrest. [Cf. L. '54, p. 209, § 419; Cd. '81, § 637; L. '91, p. 81, §§ 1, 2; 2 H. C., §§ 748, 749.]

§ 780. Recognizance—Commitment—Discharge.—The sheriff shall require the defendant to enter into a bond, with sufficient surety, personally to appear within the time allowed by law for answering the complaint, and to abide the order of the court; and in default thereof the defendant shall be committed to prison until discharged in due course of law; such special bail shall be liable for the principal, and shall have a right to arrest and deliver him up, as in other cases, and the defendant may give other bail. Instead of giving special bail, as above provided, the defendant shall be entitled to his discharge from custody if he will secure the performance of the contract to the satisfaction of the plaintiff. [Cf. L. '54, pp. 209, 210, §§ 420, 421; Cd. '81, §§ 638, 639; L. '91, p. 81, § 3; 2 H. C., §§ 750, 751.]

§ 781. Who may have Writ.—This proceeding may be had in favor of any surety or other person jointly bound with the defendant. It may also be prosecuted by the person in whose favor the contract exists, against any one or more of the persons bound thereby, upon filing such affidavit, when the co-contractors are nonresidents or probably insolvent, or at the request of any of them when they are residents and solvent. [L. '54, p. 210, § 422; Cd. '81, § 640; 2 H. C., § 752.

§ 782. Habeas Corpus.—The defendant may have the same remedy by writ of habeas corpus as in other cases of arrest and bail. [L. '54, p. 210, § 423; Cd. '81, § 641; 2 H. C., § 753.]

§ 783. Before Justices.—The proceedings provided for in this chapter may be had before justices of the peace in all cases within their jurisdiction. [Cf. L. '54, p. 210, § 424; Cd. '81, § 642; L. '91, p. 82, § 4; 2 H. C., § 754.]

§ 784. Venue.—The affidavit and bond may be filed and proceedings had in any county where the defendants may be found. [L. '54, p. 210, § 425; Cd. '81, § 643; 2 H. C., § 755.]

CHAPTER I.

Actions for Possession of and Quieting Title to Real Property.

§ 785. Who may Maintain.—Any person having a valid subsisting interest in real property, and a right to the possession thereof, may recover the same by action in the superior court of the proper county, to be brought against the tenant in possession; if there is no such tenant, then against the person claiming the title or some interest therein, and may have judgment in such action quieting or removing a cloud from plaintiff's title; an action to quiet title may be brought by the known heirs of any deceased person, or of any person presumed in law to be deceased, or by the successors in interest of such known heirs against the unknown heirs of such deceased person or against such person presumed to be deceased and his unknown heirs, and if it shall be made to appear in such action that the plaintiffs are heirs of the deceased person, or the person presumed in law to be deceased, or the successors in interest of such heirs, and have been in possession of the real property involved in such action for ten years preceding the time of the commencement of such action, and that during said time no person other than the plaintiff in the action or his grantors has claimed or asserted any right or title or interest in said property, the court may adjudge and decree the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such action to be the owners of such real property, free from all claims of any unknown heirs of such deceased person, or person presumed in law to be deceased; and an action to quiet title may be maintained by any person in the actual possession of real property against the unknown heirs of a person known to be dead, or against any person where it is not known whether such person is dead or not, and against the unknown heirs of such person, and if it shall thereafter transpire that such person was at the time of commencing such action dead the judgment or decree in such action shall be as binding and conclusive on the heirs of such person as though they had been known and named; and in all actions, under this section, to quiet or remove a cloud from the title to real property, if the defendant be absent or a nonresident of this state, or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state, or conceals himself to avoid the service of summons, service may be made upon such defendant by publication of summons as provided by law; and the court may appoint a trustee for such absent or nonresident defendant, to make or cancel any deed or conveyance of whatsoever nature, or do any other act to carry into effect the judgment or the decree of the court. [L. '11, p. 383, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 205, § 398; L. '79, p. 134, § 1; Cd. '81, § 536; L. '90, p. 72, § 1; 2 H. C., § 529.]

§ 787. Rights of Heirs, etc.—The heirs, devisees and assigns of the person having such title and possession shall have the same benefit of the preceding section as the person from whom the possession is derived. [L. '93, p. 20, § 2.]

§ 788. Legal Owner, Defined.—Every person in actual, open and notorious possession of lands, or tenements under claim and color of title, made in good faith, and who shall for seven successive years continue in possession and shall also during said time pay all taxes legally assessed on such lands or tenements, shall be held and adjudged to be the legal owner of said lands or tenements, to the extent and according to the purport of his or her paper title. All persons holding under such possession, by purchase, devise or descent, before said seven years shall have expired, and who shall continue such pas-session and continue to pay the taxes as aforesaid, so as to complete the possession and payment of taxes for the term aforesaid, shall be entitled to the benefit of this section. [L. '93, p. 20, § 3.]

§ 789. Vacant and Unoccupied Lands.—Every person having color of title made in good faith to vacant and unoccupied land, who shall pay all taxes legally assessed thereon for seven successive years, he or she shall be deemed and adjudged to be the legal owner of said vacant and unoccupied land to the extent and according to the purport of his or her paper title. All persons holding under such taxpayer, by purchase, devise or descent, before said seven years shall have expired, and who shall continue to pay the taxes as aforesaid, so as to complete the payment of said taxes for the term aforesaid, shall be entitled to the benefit of this section: Provided, however, if any person having a better paper title to said vacant and unoccupied land shall, during the said term of seven years, pay the taxes as assessed on said land for any one or more years of said term of seven years, then and in that case such taxpayer, his heirs or assigns, shall not be entitled to the benefit of this section. [L. '93, p. 21, § 4.]

§ 790. Public Lands and Adverse Title in Infants, etc.—Except. The two preceding sections shall not extend to lands or tenements owned by the United States or this state, nor to school lands, nor to lands held for any public purpose. Nor shall they extend to lands or tenements when there shall be an adverse title to such lands or tenements, and the holder of such adverse title is an infant or person under legal age, or insane: Provided, such persons as aforesaid shall commence an action to recover such lands or tenements so possessed as aforesaid, within three years after the several disabilities herein enumerated shall cease to exist, and shall prosecute such action to judgment, or in case of vacant and unoccupied land shall, within the time last aforesaid, pay to the person or persons who have paid the same for his or her betterments, and the taxes, with interest on said taxes at the legal rate per annum that have been paid on said vacant and unimproved land. [L. '93, p. 21, § 5.]

§ 792. Substitution of Landlord in Action Against Tenant.—A defendant who is in actual possession may, for answer, plead that he is in possession only as a tenant of another, naming him and his place of residence, and thereupon the landlord, if he apply therefor, shall be made defendant in place of the tenant, and the action shall proceed in all respects as if originally commenced against him. If the landlord do not apply to be made defendant within the time the tenant is allowed to answer, thereafter he shall not be allowed to, but he shall be made defendant if the plaintiff require it. If the landlord be made defendant on motion of the plaintiff, he shall be required to appear and answer within ten days from notice of the pendency of the action and the order making him defendant, or such further notice as the court, or judge thereof, may prescribe. [L. '69, p. 128, § 489; Cd. '81, § 537; 2 H. C., § 530.]

§ 793. Pleadings—Superior Title Prevails.—The plaintiff in such action shall set forth in his complaint the nature of his estate, claim, or title to the property, and the defendant may set up a legal or equitable defense to plaintiff's claims; and the superior title whether legal or equitable, shall prevail. The property shall be described with such certainty as to enable the possession thereof to be delivered if a recovery be had. [Cf. L. '69, p, 128, § 490; L. '79, p. 134, § 2; Cd. '81, § 538; 2 H. C., § 531.]

§ 794. Defendant must Plead Title—Judgment Against Landlord. The defendant shall not be allowed to give in evidence any estate in himself or another in the property, or any license or right to the possession thereof, unless the same be pleaded in his answer. If so pleaded, the nature and duration of such estate or license or right to the possession shall be set forth with the certainty and particularity required in a complaint. If the defendant does not defend for the whole of the property, he shall specify for what particular part he does defend. In an action against a tenant, the judgment shall be conclusive against a landlord who has been made defendant in place of the tenant, to the same extent as if the action had been originally commenced against him. [L. '69, p. 129, § 491; Cd. '81, § 539; 2 H. C., § 532.]

1. If the verdict be for the plaintiff, that he is entitled to the possession of the property described in the complaint, or some part thereof, or some undivided share or interest in either, and the nature and duration of his estate in such property, part thereof, or undivided share or interest in either, as the case may be;

2. If the verdict be for the defendant, that the plaintiff is not entitled to the possession of the property described in the complaint, or to such part thereof as the defendant defends for, and the estate in such property, or part thereof, or license, or right to the possession of either, established on the trial by the defendant, if any, in effect as the same is required to be pleaded. [L. '69, p. 129; Cd. '81, § 540; 2 H. C., § 533.]

§ 796. Damages—Limitation—Use of Improvements.—The plaintiff shall only be entitled to recover damages for withholding the property for the term of six years next preceding the commencement of the action, and for any period that may elapse from such commencement to the time of giving a verdict therein, exclusive of the use of permanent improvements made by the defendant. [L. '69, p. 129, § 493; Cd. '81, § 451; 2 H. C., § 534.]

§ 797. Betterments—Counterclaim for—Taxes and Improvements. In an action for the recovery of real property upon which permanent improvements have been made or general or special taxes or local assessments have been paid by a defendant, or those under whom he claims, holding in good faith under color or claim of title adversely to the claim of plaintiff, the value of such improvements and the amount of such taxes or assessments with interest thereon from date of payment must be allowed as a counterclaim to the defendant. [L. '03, p. 262, § 1; see historical references to last section.]

Cited in 54 Wash. 365, 399; 55 Wash. 357, 609, 650; 62 Wash. 406; 63 Wash. 561.

§ 798. Pleading, Issue, and Trial on Counterclaim.—The counterclaim shall set forth the value of the land apart from the improvements, and the nature and value of the improvements apart from the land and the amount of said taxes and assessment so paid, and the date of payment. Issues shall be joined and tried as in other actions, and the value of the land and the amount of said taxes and assessments apart from the improvements, and the value of the improvements apart from the land must be specifically found by the verdict of the jury, report of the referee, or findings of the court as the case may be. [L. '03, p. 262, § 2.]

§ 799. Judgment on Counterclaim—Payment.—If the judgment be in favor of the plaintiff for the recovery of the realty, and of the defendant upon the counterclaim, the plaintiff shall be entitled to recover such damages as he may be found to have suffered through the withholding of the premises and waste committed thereupon by the defendant or those under whom he claims, but against this recovery shall be offset pro tanto the value of the permanent improvements and the amount of said taxes and assessments with interest found as above provided. Should the value of improvements or taxes or assessments with interest exceed the recovery for damages, the plaintiff shall, within two months, pay to the defendant the difference between the two sums and upon proof, after notice, to the defendant, that this has been done, the court shall make an order declaring that fact, and that title to the improvements is vested in him. Should the plaintiff fail to make such payment, the defendant may at any time within two months after the time limited for such payment to be made, pay to the plaintiff the value of the land apart from the improvements, and the amount of the damages awarded against him, and he thereupon shall be vested with title to the land, and, after notice to the plaintiff, the court shall make an order reciting the fact and adjudging title to be in him. Should neither party make the payment above provided, within the specified time, they shall be deemed to be tenants in common of the premises, including the improvements, each holding an interest proportionate to the value of his property determined in the manner specified in section 798: Provided, that the interest of the owner of the improvements shall be the difference between the value of the improvements and the amount of damages recovered against him by the plaintiff. [L. '03, p. 262, § 3.]

§ 800. Verdict When Right of Possession has Expired.—If the right of the plaintiff to the possession of the property expire after the commencement of the action, and before the trial, the verdict shall be given according to the fact, and judgment shall be given only for the damages. [L. '69, p. 130, § 494; Cd. '81, § 542; 2 H. C., § 535.]

§ 801. Order for Survey.—The court, or judge thereof, on motion, and after notice to the adverse party, may, for cause shown, grant an order allowing the party applying therefor to enter upon the property in controversy and make survey and admeasurement thereof for the purposes of the action. [L. '69, p. 130, § 495; Cd. '81, § 543; 2 H. C., § 536.]

§ 802. Contents, Service, and Effect of Order.—The order shall describe the property, and a copy thereof shall be served upon the defendant, and thereupon the party may enter upon the property and make such survey and admeasurement; but if any unnecessary injury be done to the premises, he shall be liable therefor. [L. '69, p. 130, § 496; Cd. '81, p. 544; 2 H. C., § 537.]

§ 803. Alienation Pendente Lite.—An action for the recovery of the possession of real property against a person in possession cannot be prejudiced by any alienation made by such person either before or after the commencement of the action; but if such alienation be made after the commencement of the action, and the defendant do not satisfy the judgment recovered for damages for withholding the possession, such damages may be recovered by action against the purchaser. [L. '69, p. 130, § 497; Cd. '81, § 545; 2 H. C., § 538.]

Cited in 41 Wash. 613; 60 Wash. 481.

§ 804. Mortgages cannot Maintain Ejectment.—A mortgage of real property shall not be deemed a conveyance so as to enable the owner of the mortgage to recover possession of the real property, without a foreclosure and sale according to law. [L. '69, p. 130, § 498; Cd. '81, § 546; 2 H. C., § 539.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 278; 40 Wash. 584; 51 Wash. 519.
See infra, § 1116 et seq., foreclosure of mortgages.

§ 805. Actions Between Cotenants.—In an action by a tenant in common or a joint tenant of real property against his cotenant, the plaintiff must show, in addition to his evidence of right, that the defendant either denied the plaintiff's right or did some act amounting to such denial. [L. '69, p. 130, § 499; Cd. '81, § 547; 2 H. C., § 504.]

§ 806. Judgment, Conclusiveness of.—In an action to recover possession of real property, the judgment rendered therein shall be conclusive as to the estate in such property and the right of possession thereof, so far as the same is thereby determined, upon all persons claiming by, through, or under the party against whom the judgment is rendered, by title or interest passing after the commencement of the action, if the party in whose favor the judgment is rendered shall have filed a notice of the pendency of the action as required by section 243, supra. When service of the notice is made by publication, and judgment is given for failure to answer, at any time within two years from the entry thereof, the defendant or his successor in interest as to the whole or any part of the property, shall, upon application to the court or judge thereof, be entitled to an order, vacating the judgment and granting him a new trial, upon the payment of the costs of the action. [L. '09, p. 55, § 1. Cf. L. '69, p. 131, § 501; Cd. '81, § 549; 2 H. C., § 541.]

§ 807. Possession not Affected by Vacating Judgment.—If the plaintiff has taken possession of the property before the judgment is set aside and a new trial granted, as provided in the preceding section, such possession shall not be thereby affected in any way; and if judgment be given for defendant in the new trial, he shall be entitled to restitution by execution in the same manner as if he were plaintiff. [L. '69, p. 131, § 502; Cd. '81, § 550; 2 H. C., § 542.]

§ 808. Conflicting Claimants Under Donation Law.—In an action at law for the recovery of the possession of real property, if either party claim the property as a donee of the United States, and under the act of congress approved September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and fifty, commonly called the donation law, or the acts amendatory thereof, such party, from the date of his settlement thereon, as provided in said act, shall be deemed to have a legal estate in fee in such property, to continue upon condition that he perform the conditions required by such acts, which estate is unconditional and indefeasible after the performance of such conditions. In such action, if both plaintiff and defendant claim title to the same real property, by virtue of settlement, under such acts, such settlement and performance of the subsequent condition shall be prima facie presumed in favor of the party having or claiming under the elder certificate or patent, as the case may be, unless it appears upon the face of such certificate or patent that the same is absolutely void. [Cf. L. '69, p. 132, § 504; L. '77, p. 116, § 556; Cd. '81, § 551; 2 H. C., § 543.]

§ 809. Conflicting Claims to Real Property Generally.—Any person in possession, by himself or his tenant, of real property, and any private or municipal corporation in possession, by itself or its tenant, of any real property, or when such real property is not in the actual possession of anyone, any person, or private or municipal corporation, claiming title to any real property under a patent from the United States, or during his or its claim of title to such real property under a patent from the United States for such real estate, may maintain a civil action against any person or persons, corporations or associations, claiming an interest in said real property, or any part thereof, or any right thereto, adverse to him, them, or it, for the purpose of determining such claim, estate, or interest; and where several persons, or private or municipal corporations, are in possession of, or claim as aforesaid, separate parcels of real property, and an adverse interest is claimed, or claim made in or to any such parcels, by any other person, persons, corporations, or associations, arising out of a question, conveyance, statute, grant, or other matter common to all such parcels of real estate, all or any portion of such persons or corporations so in possession or claiming such parcel of real property may unite as plaintiffs in such suit to determine such adverse claim or interest against all persons, corporations, or associations claiming such adverse interest. CHAPTER II.

Forcible Entry and Detainer.

§ 810. Forcible Entry, Defined.—Every person is guilty of a forcible entry who either,—

1. By breaking open windows, doors, or other parts of a house, or by fraud, intimidation, or stealth, or by any kind of violence or circumstances of terror, enters upon or into any real property; or

2. Who, after entering peaceably upon real property, turns out by force, threats, or menacing conduct the party in actual possession. [Cf. L. '90, p. 73, § 1; L. '91, p. 179, § 1; 2 H. C., § 547.]

§ 811. Forcible Detainer, Defined.—Every person is guilty of a forcible detainer who either,—

1. By force, or by menaces and threats of violence, unlawfully holds and keeps the possession of any real property, whether the same was acquired peaceably or otherwise; or

2. Who in the night-time, or during the absence of the occupant of any real property [unlawfully] enters thereon, and who, after demand made for the surrender thereof, refuses for the period of three days to surrender the same to such former occupant. The occupant of real property within the meaning of this subdivision is one who, for the five days next preceding such unlawful entry, was in the peaceable and undisturbed possession of such real property. [Cf. L. '90, p. 73, § 2; L. '91, p. 179, § 2; 2 H. C., § 548.]

§ 812. Unlawful Detainer, Defined.—A tenant of real property for a term less than life is guilty of unlawful detainer either,—

(1) When he holds over or continues in possession, in person or by subtenant, of the property or any part thereof after the expiration of the term for which it is let to him. In all cases where real property is leased for a specified term or period by express or implied contract, whether written or by parol, the tenancy shall be terminated without notice at the expiration of such specified term or period; or

(2) When he having leased property for an indefinite time, with monthly or other periodic rent reserved continues in possession thereof, in person or by subtenant, after the end of any such month or period, in cases where the landlord, more than twenty days prior to the end of such month or period, shall have served notice (in manner in this act provided), requiring him to quit the premises at the expiration of such month or period.

(3) When he continues in possession in person or by subtenant after a default in the payment of any rent, and after notice in writing requiring in the alternative the payment of the rent or the surrender of the detained premises, served (in manner hereafter in this act provided) in behalf of the person entitled to the rent upon the person owning the same, shall have remained uncomplied with for the period of three days after service thereof. Such notice may be served at any time after the rent becomes due; or

(4) When he continues in possession in person or by subtenant after a neglect or failure to keep or perform any other condition or covenant of the lease or agreement under which the property is held, including any covenant not to assign or sublet, than one for the payment of rent, and after notice in writing requiring . . . in the alternative the performance of such condition or covenant or the surrender of the property, served (in the manner provided in this act) upon him, and if there be a subtenant in actual possession of the premises, also upon such subtenant, shall remain uncomplied with for ten days after service thereof. Within ten days after the service of such notice the tenant, or any subtenant in actual occupation of the premises, or any mortgagee of the term, or other person interested in its continuance, may perform such condition or covenant and thereby save the lease from such forfeiture; or

(5) When he commits or permits waste upon the demised premises, or when he sets up or carries on therein or thereon any unlawful business, or when he erects, suffers, permits or maintains on or about said premises any nuisance, and remains in possession after service (in manner in this act provided) of three days' notice to quit upon him.

(6) Any person who shall, without the permission of the owner and without having any color of title thereto, enter upon the land of another and who shall fail or refuse to remove therefrom after three days' notice, in writing, to be served in the manner provided in

§ 813. Tenancy upon Agricultural Lands—Effect of Holding Over. In all cases of tenancy upon agricultural lands, where the tenant has held over and retained possession for more than sixty days after the expiration of his term, without any demand or notice to quit by his landlord or the successor in estate of his landlord, if any there be, he shall be deemed to be holding by permission of his landlord or the successor in estate of his landlord, if any there be, and shall be entitled to hold under the terms of the lease for another full year, and shall not be guilty of an unlawful detainer during said year, and such holding over for the period aforesaid shall be taken and construed as a consent on the part of a tenant to hold for another year. [Cf. L. '90, p. 74, § 3; L. '91, p. 181, § 4; 2 H. C., § 550.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 266; 38 Wash. 672; 51 Wash. 433.

§ 814. Service of Notice.—Any notice provided for in this act shall be served either (1) by delivering a copy personally to the person entitled thereto; or (2) if he be absent from the premises unlawfully held, by leaving there a copy, with some person of suitable age and discretion, and sending a copy through the mail addressed to the person entitled thereto at his place of residence; or (3) if the person to be notified be a tenant, or an unlawful holder of premises, and his place of residence is not known, or if a person of suitable age and discretion there cannot be found then by affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises unlawfully held, and also delivering a copy to a person there residing, if such a person can be found, and also sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant, or unlawful occupant, at the place where the premises unlawfully held are situated. Service upon a subtenant may be made in the same manner: Provided, that in cases where the tenant or unlawful occupant, shall be conducting a hotel, inn, lodging-house, boarding-house, or shall be renting rooms while still retaining control of the premises as a whole, that the guests, lodgers, boarders or persons renting such rooms shall not be considered as subtenants within the meaning of this act, but all such persons may be served by affixing a copy of the notice to be served in two conspicuous places upon the premises unlawfully held; and such persons shall not be necessary parties defendant in an action to recover possession of said premises. Service of any notice provided for in this act may be had upon a corporation by delivering a copy thereof to any officer, agent or person having charge of the business of such corporation, at the premises unlawfully held, and in case no such officer, agent or person can be found upon such premises, then service may be had by affixing a copy of such notice in a conspicuous place upon said premises and by sending a copy through the mail addressed to such corporation at the place where said premises are situated. Proof of any service under this section may be made by the affidavit of the person making the same in like manner and with like effect as the proof of service of summons in civil actions. When a copy of notice is sent through the mail, as provided in this section, service shall be deemed complete when such copy is deposited in the United States mail in the county in which the property is situated properly addressed with postage prepaid: Provided, however, that when service is made by mail one additional day shall be allowed before the commencement of an action based upon such notice. [L. '11, p. 95, § 1. Cf. L. '05, p. 174, § 2; L. '90, p. 75, § 4; L. '91, p. 181, § 5; 2 H. C., § 551.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 558.

§ 815. Venue.—The superior court of the county in which the property or some part of it is situated shall have jurisdiction of proceedings under this chapter. [L. '90, p. 75, § 5; L. '91, p. 182, § 6; 2 H. C., § 552.]

§ 816. Parties Defendant—Judgment.—No person other than the tenant of the premises, and subtenant, if there be one, in the actual occupation of the premises when the complaint is filed, need be made parties defendant in any proceeding under this chapter, nor shall any proceeding abate, nor the plaintiff be nonsuited, for the nonjoinder of any person who might have been made party defendant; but when it appears that any of the parties served with process, or appearing in the proceeding, are guilty of the offense charged, judgment must be rendered against him. In case a person has become a subtenant of the premises in controversy after the service of any notice in this chapter provided for, the fact that such notice was not served on such subtenant shall constitute no defense to the action. All persons who enter the premises under the tenant, after the commencement of the action hereunder, shall be bound by the judgment the same as if they had been made parties to the action. [L. '90, p. 75, § 6; L. '91, p. 182, § 7; 2 H. C., § 533.]

§ 817. Complaint—When Summons must Issue.—The plaintiff in his complaint, which shall be in writing, must set forth the facts on which he seeks to recover, and describe the premises with reasonable certainty, and may set forth therein any circumstances of fraud, force, or violence, which may have accompanied the said forcible entry, or forcible or unlawful detainer, and claim damages therefor, or compensation for the occupation of the premises, or both; in case the unlawful detainer charged be after default in the payment of rent, the complaint must state the amount of such rent. Upon filing the complaint a summons must be issued thereon as in other cases, returnable at a day designated therein, which shall not be less than six nor more than twelve days from its date, except in cases where the publication of summons is necessary, in which case the court or judge thereof may order that the summons be made returnable at such time as may be deemed proper, and the summons shall specify the return day so fixed. [Cf. L. '90, p. 76, § 7; L. '91, p. 182, § 8; 2 H. C., § 554.]

§ 818. Summons, Form and Service.—The summons must state the names of the parties to the proceeding, the court in which the same is brought, the nature of the action, in concise terms, and the relief sought, and also the return day; and must notify the defendant to appear and answer within the time designated or that the relief sought will be taken against him. The summons must be directed to the defendant, and in case of summons by publication, be served at least five days before the return day designated therein. The summons must be served and returned in the same manner as summons in other actions is served and returned. Upon the return of any summons issued under this chapter, when the same has not for any reason been served, or has not been served in time, the plaintiff may have a new summons issued the same as if no previous summons had been issued. § 819. Writ of Restitution.—The plaintiff, at the time of commencing an action of forcible entry or forcible detainer or unlawful detainer, or at any time afterward, may apply to the judge of the court in which the action is pending for a writ of restitution restoring to the plaintiff the property in the complaint described, and the judge shall order a writ of restitution to issue. The writ shall be issued by the clerk of the superior court in which the action is pending, and be returnable in twenty days after its date; but before any writ shall issue prior to judgment the plaintiff shall execute to the defendant and file in court a bond in such a sum as the court or judge may order, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that the plaintiff will prosecute his action without delay, and will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the writ of restitution having been issued, should the same be wrongfully sued out. [Cf. L. '90, p. 77, § 9; L. '91, p. 183, § 10; 2 H. C., § 556.]

§ 820. Service of Writ—Bond.—The sheriff shall, upon receiving the writ of restitution, forthwith serve a copy thereof upon the defendant, his agent or attorney, or a person in possession of the premises, and shall not execute the same for three days thereafter, within which time the defendant, or those in possession of the premises, may execute to the plaintiff a bond to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court in such sum as may be fixed by the judge, with two or more sureties to be approved by the clerk of said court, conditioned that they will pay to the plaintiff such sum as the plaintiff may recover for the use and occupation of the said premises, or any rent found due, together with all damages the plaintiff may sustain by reason of the defendant occupying or keeping possession of said premises, and also all the costs of the action. The plaintiff, his agent or attorneys, shall have notice of the time and place where the court or judge thereof shall fix the amount of the defendant's bond, and shall have notice and a reasonable opportunity to examine into the qualification and sufficiency of the sureties upon said bond before said bond shall be approved by the clerk. The writ may be served by the sheriff, in the event he shall be unable to find the defendant, an agent or attorney, or a person in possession of the demised premises, by affixing a copy of said writ in a conspicuous place upon the demised premises. [L. '05, p. 175, § 3. Cf. L. '90, p. 77, § 10; L. '91, p. 183, § 11; 2 H. C., § 551.]

§ 821. Modification of Amount of Bond.—The plaintiff or defendant at any time, upon two days' notice to the adverse party, may apply to the court or any judge thereof for an order raising or lowering the amount of any bond in this act provided for. Either party may, upon like notice, apply to the court or any judge thereof for an order requiring additional or other surety or sureties upon any such bond. Upon the hearing or [of] any application made under the provisions of this section evidence may be given. The judge after hearing any such application shall make such an order as shall be just in the premises. The bondsmen may be required to be present at such hearing if so required in the notice thereof, and shall answer under oath all questions that may be asked them touching their qualifications as bondsmen, and in the event the bondsmen shall fail or refuse to appear at such hearing and so answer such questions the bond shall be stricken. In the event the court shall order a new or additional bond to be furnished by defendant, and the same shall not be given within twenty-four hours, the court shall order the sheriff to forthwith execute the writ. In the event the defendant shall file a second or additional bond and it shall also be found insufficient after hearing, as above provided, the right to retain the premises by bond shall be lost and the sheriff shall forthwith put the plaintiff in possession of the premises. [L. '05, p. 176, § 4. Cf. L. '90, p. 78, § 11; L. '91, p. 184, § 12; 2 H. C., § 558.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 238; 25 Wash. 116.

§ 822. Judgment by Default.—If at the time appointed in the summons the defendant do not appear and defend, the court must render judgment in favor of the plaintiff as prayed for in the complaint. [Cf. L. '90, p. 78, § 13; L. '91, p. 184, § 13; 2 H. C., § 559.]

§ 823. Pleading by Defendant.—On or before the day fixed for his appearance the defendant may appear and answer or demur. [L. '90, p. 78, § 14; L. '91, p. 184, § 14; 2 H. C., § 560.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 385.

§ 824. Trial by Jury.—Whenever an issue of fact is presented by the pleadings it must be tried by a jury, unless such a jury be waived as in other cases. The jury shall be formed in the same manner as other trial juries in the court in which the action is pending, and in all cases actions under this chapter shall take precedence of all other civil actions. [Cf. L. '90, p. 78, § 15; L. '91, p. 184, § 15; 2 H. C., § 561.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 340.

§ 825. Proof Required by Plaintiff.—On the trial of any proceeding for any forcible entry or forcible detainer, the plaintiff shall only be required to show, in addition to a forcible entry complained of, that he was peaceably in the actual possession at the time of the forcible entry; or in addition to a forcible detainer complained of, that he was entitled to the possession at the time of the forcible detainer. [Cf. L. '90, p. 78, § 16; L. '91, p. 184, § 16; 2 H. C., § 562.]

Cited in 33 Wash. 337; 85 Wash. 325.

§ 826. Amendment of Complaint—Continuance.—When upon the trial of any proceeding under this chapter it appears from the evidence that the defendant has been guilty of either a forcible entry or a forcible or unlawful detainer, in respect of the premises described in the complaint, and other than the offense charged in the complaint, the judge must order that such complaint be forthwith amended to conform to such proofs; such amendment must be made without any imposition of terms. No continuance shall be permitted on account of such amendment unless the defendant shows to the satisfaction of the court good cause therefor. [Cf. L. '90, p. 78, § 17; L. '91, p. 185, § 17; 2 H. C., § 653.]

§ 827. Verdict and Judgment.—If upon the trial the verdict of the jury, or if the case be tried without a jury the finding of the court, be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, judgment shall be entered for the restitution of the premises; and if the proceeding be for unlawful detainer after neglect or failure to perform any condition or covenant of a lease or agreement under which the property is held, or after default in the payment of rent, the judgment shall also declare the forfeiture of the lease, agreement, or tenancy. The jury, or the court if the proceedings be tried without a jury, shall also assess the damages occasioned to the plaintiff by any forcible entry, or by any forcible or unlawful detainer, alleged in the complaint and proved on the trial, and if the alleged unlawful detainer be after default in the payment of rent, find the amount of any rent due, and the judgment shall be rendered against the defendant guilty of the forcible entry, forcible detainer, or unlawful detainer for twice the amount of damages thus assessed and of the rent, if any, found due. When the proceeding is for an unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent, and the lease or agreement under which the rent is payable has not by its terms expired, execution upon the judgment shall not be issued until the expiration of five days after the entry of the judgment, within which time the tenant or any subtenant, or any mortgagee of the term or other party interested in its continuance, may pay into court for the landlord the amount of the judgment and costs, and thereupon the judgment shall be satisfied and the tenant restored to his estate; but if payment, as herein provided, be not made within five days, the judgment may be enforced for its full amount and for the possession of the premises. In all other cases the judgment may be enforced immediately. If the writ of restitution shall have been executed prior to judgment, no further writ or execution for the premises shall be required. [Cf. L. '90, p. 79, § 18; L. '91, p. 185, § 18; 2 H. C., § 564.]

§ 828. Amendments Allowed, When.—Amendments may be allowed by the court at any time before final judgment, upon such terms as to the court may appear just, in the same cases and manner and to the same extent as in civil actions. [Cf. L. '90, p. 80, § 20; L. '91, p. 186, § 19; 2 H. C., § 565.]

§ 829. Practice—General Provisions Applicable.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the provisions of the laws of this state with reference to practice in civil actions are applicable to and constitute the rules of practice in the proceedings mentioned in this chapter; and the provisions of such laws relative to new trials and appeals, except so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, shall be held to apply to the proceedings mentioned in this chapter. [Cf. L. '90, p. 80, § 21; L. '91, p. 186, § 20; 2 H. C., § 566.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 249.

§ 830. Forfeiture, Relief Against.—The court may relieve a tenant against a forfeiture of a lease and restore him to his former estate, as in other cases provided by law, where application for such relief is made within thirty days after the forfeiture is declared by the judgment of the court, as provided in this chapter. The application may be made by a tenant or subtenant, or a mortgagee of the term, or any person interested in the continuance of the term. It must be made upon petition, setting forth the facts upon which the relief is sought, and be verified by the applicant. Notice of the application, with a copy of the petition, must be served on the plaintiff in the judgment, who may appear and contest the application. In no case shall the application be granted except on condition that full payment of rent due, or full performance of conditions of covenants stipulated, so far as the same is practicable, be first made. [Cf. L. '90, p. 80, § 22; L. '91, p. 186, § 21; 2 H. C., § 567.]

§ 831. Appeal—Bond.—If either party feels aggrieved by the judgment he may appeal to the supreme court, as in other civil actions: Provided, that if the defendant appealing desires a stay of proceedings pending such appeal, he shall execute and file a bond, with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge, conditioned to abide the order of the court on such appeal, and to pay all rents and other damages justly accruing to the plaintiff during the pendency of the appeal. [Cf. L. '90, p. 80, § 23; L. '91, p. 187, § 22; 2 H. C., § 568.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 53; 17 Wash. 99; 21 Wash. 582; 54 Wash. 37.

§ 832. Stay of Proceedings Pending Appeal.—When the defendant shall appeal, and shall file a bond as provided in the preceding section, all further proceedings in the case shall be stayed until the determination of said appeal, and the same has been remanded to the superior court for further proceedings therein. [Cf. L. '90, p. 80, § 24; L. '91, p. 187, § 23; 2 H. C., § 569.]

§ 833. Appeal Suspends Writ of Restitution.—If a writ of restitution has been issued previous to the taking of an appeal by the defendant, and said defendant shall execute and file a bond as provided in this chapter, the clerk of the court, under the direction of the judge, shall forthwith give the appellant a certificate of the allowance of such appeal; and upon the service of such certificate upon the officer having such writ of restitution the said officer shall forthwith cease all further proceedings by virtue of such writ; and if such writ has been completely executed, the defendant shall be restored to the possession of the premises, and shall remain in possession thereof until the appeal is determined. [Cf. L. '90, p. 81, § 25; L. '91, p. 187, § 24; 2 H. C., § 570.]

§ 834. Unlawful Detainer of Certain Lands—What Constitutes.—Any person who shall, without the permission of the owner and without having any color of title thereto, enter upon the lands of another, and shall refuse to remove therefrom after three days' notice, shall be deemed guilty of unlawful detainer and may be removed from such lands. [L. '91, p. 212, § 1; 2 H. C., § 571.]

§ 835. Complaint and Answer.—The complaint in all cases under the provisions of the last section shall be upon oath, and then [there] shall be embodied therein or amended [appended] thereto an abstract of the plaintiffs' title, and the defendant shall, in his answer, state whether he makes any claim of title to the lands described in the complaint, and if he makes no claim to the legal title, but does claim a right to the possession of such lands, he shall state upon what grounds he claims a right to such possession. [L. '91, p. 212, § 2; 2 H. C., § 572.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 592.

§ 836. Proof Required by Plaintiff—Trial.—It shall not be necessary for the plaintiff, in proceedings under sections 834–837, to allege or prove that the said lands were, at any time, actually occupied prior to the defendant's entry thereupon, but it shall be sufficient to allege that he is the legal owner and entitled to the immediate possession thereof: Provided, that if the defendant shall, by his answer, deny such ownership, and shall state facts showing that he has a lawful claim to the possession thereof, the cause shall thereupon be entered for trial upon the docket of the court in all respects as if the action were brought under the provisions of chapter XLVI of the code of eighteen hundred and eighty-one [chapter I, of this title]. [L. '91, p. 212, § 3; 2 H. C., § 573.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 592.

§ 837. Proof—Parties Defendant—Trial of Separate Issues.—All persons in actual possession of any portion of the several subdivisions of any section of land, according to the government surveys thereof, may be made defendants in one action: Provided, that they may, in their discretion, make separate answers to the complaint, and if separate issues are joined thereupon, the same shall nevertheless be tried as one action, but the verdict, if tried by jury, shall find separately upon the issues so joined, and judgment shall be rendered according thereto. [L. '91, p. 213, § 4; 2 H. C., § 574.]

CHAPTER III.

Partition.

§ 838. Who may Bring Actions for.—When several persons hold and are in possession of real property as tenants in common, in which one or more of them have an estate of inheritance, or for life or years, an action may be maintained by one or more of such persons for a partition thereof, according to the respective rights of the persons interested therein, and for sale of such property, or a part of it, if it appear that a partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners. [L. '69, p. 133, § 505; Cd. '81, § 552; 2 H. C., § 577.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 36; 78 Wash. 510, 511.

See infra, § 1579, partition of estates of decedents.

§ 839. All Known Interests must be Stated in Complaint.—The interest of all persons in the property shall be set forth in the complaint specifically and particularly, as far as known to the plaintiff, and if one or more of the parties, or the share or quantity of interest of any of the parties be unknown to the plaintiff, or be uncertain or contingent, or the ownership of the inheritance depend upon an executory devise, or the remainder be a contingent remainder, so that such parties cannot be named, that fact shall be set forth in the complaint. [L. '69, p. 133, § 506; Cd. '81, § 553; 2 H. C., § 578.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 640; 11 Wash. 630; 78 Wash. 511.

§ 840. Lien Creditors may be Made Parties—Liens Adjusted.—The plaintiff may, at his option, make creditors having a lien upon the property, or any portion thereof, other than by a judgment or decree, defendants in the suit. When the lien is upon an undivided interest or estate of any of the parties, such lien, if a partition be made, is thenceforth a lien only on the share assigned to such party; but such share shall be first charged with its just proportion of the costs of the partition, in preference to such lien. [L. '69, p. 133, § 507; Cd. '81, § 554; 2 H. C., § 579.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 374,

§ 841. Notice.—The notice shall be directed by name to all the tenants in common who are known, and in the same manner to all lien creditors who are made parties to the suit, and generally to all persons unknown having or claiming an interest or estate in the property. [L. 69, p. 133, § 508; Cd. '81, § 555; 2 H. C., § 581.]

§ 842. Service by Publication.—If a party having a share or interest in or lien upon the property be unknown, or either of the known parties reside out of the state, or cannot be found therein, and such fact be made to appear by affidavit, the notice may be served by publication, as in ordinary cases. When service is made by publication, the notice must contain a brief description of the property which is the subject of the suit. [L. '69, p. 134, § 509; Cd. '81, § 556; 2 H. C., § 580.]

§ 843. Answer, Contents of.—The defendant shall set forth in his answer the nature and extent of his interest in the property, and if he be a lien creditor, how such lien was created, the amount of the debt secured thereby and remaining due, and whether such debt is secured in any other way, and if so, the nature of such other security. [L. '69, p. 134, § 510; Cd. '81, § 557; 2 H. C., § 582.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 218.

§ 844. Issues to be Tried.—The rights of the several parties, plaintiffs as well as defendants, may be put in issue, tried, and determined in such suit, and where a defendant fails to answer, or where a sale of the property is necessary, the title shall be ascertained by proof, to the satisfaction of the court, before the decree for partition or sale is given. [L. '69, p. 134, § 511; Cd. '81, § 558; 2 H. C., § 583.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 555; 7 Wash. 37; 10 Wash. 639, 647; 71 Wash. 450.

§ 845. Order of Sale—Partial Partition.—If it be alleged in the complaint and established by evidence, or if it appear by the evidence without such allegation in the complaint, to the satisfaction of the court, that the property, or any part of it, is so situated that partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, the court may order a sale thereof, and for that purpose may appoint one or more referees. Otherwise, upon the requisite proofs being made, it shall decree a partition according to the respective rights of the parties as ascertained by the court, and appoint three referees therefor, and shall designate the portion to remain undivided for the owners whose interest remain unknown or are not ascertained. [L. '69, p. 134, § 512; Cd. '81, § 559; 2 H. C., § 584.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 37, 39; 9 Wash. 304.

§ 846. Partition, How Made—Referees.—In making the partition, the referees shall divide the property, and allot the several portions thereof to the respective parties, quality and quantity relatively considered, according to the respective rights of the parties as determined by the court, designating the several portions by proper landmarks, and may employ a surveyor, with the necessary assistants, to aid them therein. The referees shall make a report of their proceedings, specifying therein the manner of executing their trust, describing the property divided and the shares allotted to each party, with a particular description of each share. [L. '69, p. 134, § 513; Cd. '81, § 560; 2 H. C., § 585.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 511.

§ 847. Report of Referees — Confirmation — Decree.—The court may confirm or set aside the report in whole or in part, and if necessary, appoint new referees. Upon the report being confirmed, a decree shall be entered that such partition be effectual forever, which decree shall be binding and conclusive,—

1. On all parties named therein, and their legal representatives, who have at the time any interest in the property divided, or any part thereof, as owners in fee, or as tenants for life or for years, or as entitled to the reversion, remainder, or inheritance of such property, or any part thereof, after the termination of a particular estate therein, or who by any contingency may be entitled to a beneficial interest in the property, or who have an interest in any undivided share thereof, as tenants for years or for life;

2. On all persons interested in the property, to whom notice shall have been given by publication;

3. On all other persons claiming from or through such parties or persons, or either of them. [L. '69, p. 135, § 514; Cd. '81, § 561; 2 H. C., § 586.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 512.

§ 848. Decree, Rights Affected by.—Such decree and partition shall not affect any tenants for years or for life of the whole of the property which is the subject of partition, nor shall such decree and partition preclude any persons, except such as are specified in the last section, from claiming title to the property in question, or from controverting the title of the parties between whom the partition shall have been made. [L. '69, p. 135, § 515; Cd. '81, § 562; 2 H. C., § 587.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 512.

§ 849. Expenses Taxed as Costs.—The expenses of the referees, including those of a surveyor and his assistants, when employed, shall be ascertained and allowed by the court, and the amount thereof, together with the fees allowed by law to the referees, shall be paid by the plaintiff, and may be allowed as costs. [L. '69, p. 135, § 516; Cd. '81, § 563; 2 H. C., § 588.]

§ 850. Decree of Sale on Referee's Report.—If the referees report to the court that the property of which partition shall have been decreed, or any separate portion thereof, is so situated that a partition thereof cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, and the court is satisfied that such report is correct, it may thereupon, by an order, direct the referees to sell the property, or separate portion thereof. [L. '69, p. 135, § 517; Cd. '81, § 564; 2 H. C., § 589.]

§ 851. Estate for Life, How Set Off.—When a part of the property only is ordered to be sold, if there be an estate for life or years in an undivided share of the property, the whole of such estate may be set off in any part of the property not ordered sold. [L. '69, p. 136, § 518; Cd. '81, § 565; 2 H. C., § 590.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 512.

§ 852. Lien Creditors not Parties, How Brought in.—Before making an order of sale, if lien creditors, other than those by judgment or decree, have not been made parties, the court, on motion of either party, shall order the plaintiff to file a supplemental complaint, making such creditors defendants. [L. '69, p. 136, § 519; Cd. '81, § 566; 2 H. C., § 591.]

§ 853. Unsatisfied Liens—Reference.—If an order of sale be made before the distribution of the proceeds thereof, the plaintiff shall produce to the court the certificate of the auditor of the county [and county clerk] where the property is situated, showing the liens remaining unsatisfied, if any, by judgment or decree upon the property, or any portion thereof, and unless he do so, the court shall order a reference to ascertain them. [L. '69, p. 136, § 520; Cd. '81, § 567; 2 H. C., § 592.]

See supra, § 444, judgment liens.

§ 854. Ascertainment of Liens and Their Priority.—If it appear by such certificate, or reference in case the certificate is not produced, that any such liens exist, the court shall appoint a referee to ascertain what amount remains due thereon or secured thereby respectively, and the order of priority in which they are entitled to be paid out of the property. [L. '69, p. 136, § 521; Cd. '81, § 568; 2 H. C., § 593.]

§ 855. Notice to Lienholders.—The plaintiff must cause a notice to be served at least twenty days before the time for appearance on each person having such lien by judgment of decree, to appear before the referee at a specified time and place, to make proof, by his own affidavit or otherwise, of the true amount due or to become due, contingently or absolutely, on his judgment of decree. [L. '69, p. 136, § 522; Cd. '81, § 569; 2 H. C., § 594.]

§ 856. Proceedings of Referee on Ascertaining Liens.—The referee shall receive the evidence, and report the names of the creditors whose liens are established, the amounts due thereon, or secured thereby, and their priority respectively, and whether contingent or absolute. He shall attach to his report the proof of service of the notices and the evidence before him. [L. '69, p. 136, § 523; Cd. '81, § 570; 2 H. C., § 595.]

§ 857. Report of Referee.—The report of the referee may be excepted to by either party to the suit, or to the proceedings before the referee, in like manner and with like effect as in ordinary cases. If a lien creditor be absent from the state, or his residence therein be unknown, and that fact appear by affidavit, the court, or judge thereof, may by order direct that service of the notice may be made upon his agent or attorney of record, or by publication thereof, for such time and in such manner as the order may prescribe. [L. '69, p. 137, § 524; Cd. '81, § 571; 2 H. C., § 596.]

§ 858. Confirmation of Report.—If the report of the referee be confirmed, the order of confirmation is binding and conclusive upon all parties to the suit, and upon the lien creditors who have been duly served with the notice to appear before the referee, as provided in section 855. [L. '69, p. 137, § 525; Cd. '81, § 572; 2 H. C., § 297.]

§ 859. Distribution of Proceeds of Sale.—The proceeds of the sale of the encumbered property shall be distributed by the decree of the court, as follows:—

1. To pay its just proportion of the general costs of the suit;
2. To pay the costs of the reference;
3. To satisfy the several liens in their order of priority, by payment of the sums due and to become due, according to the decree;
4. The residue among the owners of the property sold, according to their respective shares. [L. '69, p. 137, § 526; Cd. '81, § 573; 2 H. C., § 598.]

§ 860. Other Securities to be First Exhausted.—Whenever any party to the suit, who holds a lien upon the property, or any part thereof, has other securities for the payment of the amount of such lien, the court may, in its discretion, order such sureties to be exhausted before a distribution of the proceeds of sale, or may order a just deduction to be made from the amount of the lien on the property on account thereof. [L. '69, p. 137, § 527; Cd. '81, § 574; 2 H. C., § 599.]

§ 861. Proceedings to Ascertain and Adjust Liens Do not Delay Sale. The proceedings to ascertain the amount of the liens, and to determine their priority, as above provided, or those hereinafter authorized to determine the right of parties to funds paid into court, shall not delay the sale, nor affect any other party whose rights are not involved in such proceedings. [L. '69, p. 137, § 528; Cd. '81, § 575; 2 H. C., § 600.]

§ 862. Proceeds of Sale, Disposition of.—The proceeds of sale, and the securities taken by the referees, or any part thereof, shall be distributed by them to the persons entitled thereto, whenever the court so directs. But if no such direction be given, all such proceeds and securities shall be paid into court, or deposited as directed by the court. [L. '69, p. 138, § 529; Cd. '81, § 576; 2 H. C., § 601.]

§ 863. Continuance of Action to Determine Rights of Parties.—When the proceeds of sale of any shares or parcel belonging to persons who are parties to the suit, and who are known, are paid into court, the suit may be continued, as between such parties, for the determination of their respective claims thereto, which shall be ascertained and adjudged by the court. Further testimony may be taken in court, or by a referee, at the discretion of the court, and the court may, if necessary, require such parties to present the facts or law in controversy by pleadings, as in an original suit. [L. '69, p. 138, § 530; Cd. '81, § 577; 2 H. C., § 602.]

§ 864. Sales by Referees may be Made by Auction.—All sales of real property made by the referees shall be made by public auction, to the highest bidder, in the manner required for the sale of real property on execution. The notice shall state the terms of sale, and if the property, or any part of it, is to be sold subject to a prior estate, charge, or lien, that shall be stated in the notice. [L. '69, p. 138, § 531; Cd. '81, § 578; 2 H. C., § 603.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 304; 52 Wash. 58; 84 Wash. 300.

§ 865. Terms of Sale may be Directed by Court.—The court shall, in the order of sale, direct the terms of credit which may be allowed for the purchase money of any portion of the premises, of which it may direct a sale on credit; and for that portion of which the purchase money is required by the provisions hereinafter contained, to be invested for the benefit of unknown owners, infants, or parties out of the state. [L. '69, p. 138, § 532; Cd. '81, § 579; 2 H. C., § 604.]

§ 866. Securities to be Taken by Referee.—The referees may take separate mortgages and other securities for the whole or convenient portions of the purchase money of such parts of the property as are directed by the court to be sold on credit, in the name of the clerk of the court and his successors in office; and for the shares of any known owner of full age, in the name of such owner. [L. '69, p. 138, § 533; Cd. '81, § 580; 2 H. C., § 605.]

§ 867. When Estate of Tenant for Life or for Years may be Sold. When the estate of any tenant for life or years in any undivided part of the property in question shall have been admitted by the parties or ascertained by the court to be existing at the time of the order of sale, and the person entitled to such estate shall have been made a party to the suit, such estate may be first set off out of any part of the property, and a sale made of such parcel, subject to the prior unsold estate of such tenant therein; but if, in the judgment of the court, a due regard to the interest of all the parties require that such estate be also sold, the sale may be so ordered. [L. '69, p. 138, § 534; Cd. '81, § 581; 2 H. C., § 606.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 512, 513.

§ 868. Tenant for Life or Years Entitled to Gross Sum.—Any person entitled to an estate for life or years in any undivided part of the property, whose estate shall have been sold, shall be entitled to receive such sum in gross as may be deemed a reasonable satisfaction for such estate, and which the person so entitled shall consent to accept instead thereof, by an instrument duly acknowledged and filed with the clerk. [L. '69, p. 139, § 535; Cd. '81, § 582; 2 H. C., § 607.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 512.

§ 869. Court to Determine Sum, if Consent not Given.—If such consent be not given, as provided in the last section, before the report of sale, the court shall ascertain and determine what proportion of the proceeds of the sale, after deducting expenses, will be a just and reasonable sum to be invested for the benefit of the person entitled to such estate for life or years, and shall order the same to be deposited in court for that purpose. [L. '69, p. 139, § 536; Cd. '81, § 583; 2 H. C., § 608.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 513.

§ 870. Protection of Unknown Tenant.—If the persons entitled to such estate for life or years be unknown, the court shall provide for the protection of their rights in the same manner, as far as may be, as if they were known and had appeared. [L. '69, p. 139, § 538; Cd. '81, § 584; 2 H. C., § 609.]

§ 871. Inchoate and Contingent Interests.—In all cases of sales in partition, when it appears that any person has a vested or contingent future right or estate therein, the court shall ascertain and settle the proportionate value of such contingent or vested right or estate, and shall direct such proportion of the proceeds of sale to be invested, secured, or paid over in such manner as to protect the rights and interests of the parties. [L. '69, p. 140, § 539; Cd. '81, § 585; 2 H. C., § 610.]

§ 872. Terms of Sale must be Made Known.—In all cases of sales of property, the terms shall be made known at the time, and if the premises consist of distinct farms or lots, they shall be sold separately, or otherwise, if the court so directs. [L. '69, p. 140, § 540; Cd. '81, § 586; 2 H. C., § 611.]

§ 873. Referees or Guardians not to be Interested in Purchase.—Neither of the referees, nor any person for the benefit of either of them, shall be interested in any purchase, nor shall the guardian of an infant be an interested party in the purchase of any real property being the subject of the suit, except for the benefit of the infant. All sales contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void. [L. '69, p. 140, § 541; Cd. '81, § 587; 2 H. C., § 612.]

§ 874. Report of Sale—Contents of.—After completing the sale, the referees shall report the same to the court, with a description of the different parcels of land sold to each purchaser, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or secured, the terms and conditions of the sale, and the securities, if any, taken. The report shall be filed with the clerk. [L. '69, p. 140, p. 542; Cd. '81, § 588; 2 H. C., § 613.]

§ 875. Exceptions to Report — Confirmation — Conveyance.—The report of sale may be excepted to in writing by any party entitled to a share of the proceeds. If the sale be confirmed, the order of confirmation shall direct the referees to execute conveyances and take securities pursuant to such sale. [L. '69, p. 140, § 543; Cd. '81, § 589; 2 H. C., § 614.]

§ 876. Receipt of Proceeds.—When a party entitled to a share of the property, or an encumbrancer entitled to have his lien paid out of the sale, becomes a purchaser, the referees may take his receipt for so much of the proceeds of the sale as belong to him. [L. '69, p. 140, § 544; Cd. '81, § 590; 2 H. C., § 615.]

§ 877. Investment of Proceeds of Unknown Owner.—When there are proceeds of sale belonging to an unknown owner, or to a person without the state who has no legal representative within it, or when there are proceeds arising from the sale of an estate subject to the prior estate of a tenant for life or years, which are paid into the court or otherwise deposited by order of the court, the same shall be invested in securities on interest for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto. [L. '69, p. 140, § 545; Cd. '81, § 591; 2 H. C., § 616.]

is made, it shall be done, except as herein otherwise provided, in the name of the clerk of the court and his successors in office, who shall hold the same for the use and benefit of the parties interested, subject to the order of the court. [L. '69, p. 141, § 546; Cd. '81, § 592; 2 H. C., § 617.]

§ 879. Securities to be Taken in Name of Parties, When.—When security is taken by the referees on a sale, and the parties interested in such security by an instrument in writing under their hands, delivered to the referees, agree upon the share and proportions to which they are respectively entitled, or when shares and proportions have been previously adjudged by the court, such securities shall be taken in the names of and payable to the parties respectively entitled thereto, and shall be delivered to such parties upon their receipt therefor. Such agreement and receipt shall be returned and filed with the clerk. [L. '69, p. 141, § 547; Cd. '81, § 593; 2 H. C., § 618.]

§ 880. Duties of Clerk Making Investments.—The clerk in whose name a security is taken, or by whom an investment is made, and his successors in office, shall receive the interest and principal as it becomes due, and apply and invest the same as the court may direct, and shall file in his office all securities taken, and keep an account in a book provided and kept for that purpose in the clerk's office, free for inspection by all persons, of investments and moneys received by him thereon, and the disposition thereof. [L. '69, p. 141, § 548; Cd. '81, § 594; 2 H. C., § 619.]

§ 881. Unequal Partition—Compensation Adjudged.—When it appears that partition cannot be made equal between the parties according to their respective rights, without prejudice to the rights and interests of some of them, the court may adjudge compensation to be made by one party to another on account of the inequality of partition; but such compensation shall not be required to be made to others by owners unknown, nor by infants, unless in case of an infant it appear that he has personal property sufficient for that purpose, and that his interest will be promoted thereby. [L. '69, p. 141, § 549; Cd. '81, § 595; 2 H. C., § 620.]

§ 882. Share of Infant may be Paid to Guardian.—When the share of an infant is sold, the proceeds of the sale may be paid by the referees making the sale, to his general guardian, or the special guardian appointed for him in the suit, upon giving the security required by law, or directed by order of the court. [L. '69, p. 142, § 550; Cd. '81, § 596; 2 H. C., § 621.]

§ 883. Guardian of Insane, etc., may Receive.—The guardian who may be entitled to the custody and management of the estate of an insane person, or other person adjudged incapable of conducting his own affairs, whose interest in real property shall have been sold, may receive in behalf of such person his share of the proceeds of such real property from the referees, on executing a bond, with sufficient sureties, approved by the judge of the court, conditioned that he faithfully discharge the trust reposed in him, and will render a true and just account to the person entitled, or to his legal representative. [L. '69, p. 142, § 551; Cd. '81, § 597; 2 H. C., § 622.]

§ 884. Guardian may Consent to Partition.—The general guardian of an infant, and the guardian entitled to the custody and management of the estate of an insane person, or other person adjudged incapable of conducting his own affairs, who is interested in real estate held in common or in any other manner, so as to authorize his being made a party to an action for the partition thereof, may consent to a partition without suit, and agree upon the share to be set off to such infant or other person entitled, and may execute a release in his behalf to the owners of the shares or parts to which they may respectively be entitled, and upon an order of the court. [L. '69, p. 142, § 552; Cd. '81, § 598; 2 H. C., § 623.]

§ 885. Costs, How Apportioned.—The costs of partition, including fees of referees and other disbursements, shall be paid by the parties respectively entitled to share in the lands divided, in proportion to their respective interests therein, and may be included and specified in the decree. In that case there shall be a lien on the several shares, and the decree may be enforced by execution against the parties separately. When, however, a litigation arises between some of the parties only, the court may require the expense of such litigation to be paid by the parties thereto, or any of them. [L. '69, p. 142, § 553; Cd. '81, § 599; 2 H. C., § 624.]

CHAPTER IV.

Actions Against the State.

§ 886. Manner of Collecting Claims Against the State—Bond.—Any person or corporation having any claim against the state of Washington shall have the right to begin an action against the state in the superior court of Thurston county. Such action shall be begun against the state of Washington by filing a complaint in such superior court, setting forth the nature of such claim, and containing a direction to the defendant to appear within twenty days after service of the complaint exclusive of the day of service, and defend the action, and a notice that in case of failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against the state according to the prayer of the complaint.

The plaintiff in such action shall, at the time of filing his complaint, file a bond or undertaking with two or more sureties to be approved by the clerk of the court to the effect that such party will indemnify the state against all costs that may accrue in such action, and will pay to the clerk of said court all costs in case the plaintiff shall fail to prosecute his action or to obtain a judgment against the state. [L. '95, p. 188, § 1.]

§ 887. Service, How Made.—Service of the complaint shall be made by the sheriff of the county in which such action is brought, or by any of his deputies, by delivering an attested copy thereof to the attorney general, or by leaving such copy in his office, and by delivering another like copy to the secretary of state, or by leaving such copy in his office. [L. '95, p. 188, § 2.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 74.

§ 888. Attorney General Counsel for State—Procedure.—The attorney general or his assistant shall appear and act as counsel for the state. The action shall proceed in all respects as other actions. Appeals may be taken to the supreme court of the state as in other actions or proceedings, but in case an appeal shall be taken on behalf of the state, no bond shall be required of the appellant. [L. '95, p. 188, § 3.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 75; 28 Wash. 502; 42 Wash. 655.

§ 889. Judgment, How Satisfied.—No execution shall issue against the state on any judgment, but whenever a final judgment against the state shall have been obtained in any such action, the clerk shall make and furnish to the auditor of state a duly certified transcript of such judgment; and the auditor of state shall thereupon audit the amount of damages and costs therein awarded, and the same shall be paid out of the state treasury. [L. '95, p. 188, § 4.]

§ 890. Limitations.—All provisions of law relating to the limitations of personal actions shall apply to claims against the state, but the computation of time thereunder shall not begin until this chapter shall have become a law. [L. '95, p. 189, § 5.]

CHAPTER V.

Eminent Domain.

§ 891. Appropriation of Property by the State, Requisites of Petition.—Whenever any officer, board, commission, or other body representing the state is authorized by the legislature to acquire any land, real estate, premises, or other property, deemed necessary for the public uses of the state, or any department or institution thereof, and the officer, board, commission or other body whose duty it is to acquire such land, real estate, premises, or other property is unable to agree with the owner or owners thereof for its purchase, it shall be the duty of the attorney general to present to the superior court of the county in which said land, real estate, premises, or other property so sought to be acquired or appropriated shall be situated, a petition in which the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated shall be described with reasonable certainty, and setting forth the name of each and every owner, encumbrancer, or other person or party interested in the same, or any part thereof, so far as the same can be ascertained from the public records, the object for which the land is sought to be appropriated, and praying that a jury be impaneled to ascertain and determine the compensation to be made in money to such owner or owners, respectively, and to all tenants, encumbrancers, and others interested, for taking such lands, real estate, premises or other property, or in case a jury be waived, as in other civil cases in courts of record, in the manner prescribed by law, then that the compensation to be made as aforesaid be ascertained and determined by the court or judge thereof. [L. '11, p. 335, § 1. Cf. L. '91, p. 138, § 1; 2 H. C., § 638.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 67; 28 Wash. 501; 38 Wash. 687.

§ 892. Notice—Contents of—Service.—A notice stating briefly the objects of the petition, and containing a description of the land, real estate, premises, or property sought to be acquired and appropriated, and stating the time and place when and where the same will be presented to the court or the judge thereof, shall be served on each and every person named therein as owner, encumbrancer, tenant, or otherwise interested therein at least ten days previous to the time designated in such notice for the presentation of such petition. Such service shall be made by delivering a copy of such notice to each of the persons or parties so named therein, if a resident of the state; or in case of the absence of such person or party from his or her usual place of abode, by leaving a copy of such notice at his or her usual place of abode; or in case of a foreign corporation, at its principal place of business in this state, with some person of more than sixteen years of age. In case of domestic corporations, such service shall be made upon the president, secretary, or other director or trustee of such corporation. In case of minors, or their guardians, or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person who has the care and custody of such minor; in case of idiots, lunatics, or distracted persons, on their guardians, or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person in whose care or charge they are found. In case the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated is school or county land, the notice shall be served on the auditor of the county in which the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be acquired and appropriated is situated. In all cases where the owner or person claiming an interest in such real estate or other property is a non-resident of this state, or where the residence of such owner or person is unknown, and an affidavit of the attorney general shall be filed that such owner or person is a nonresident of this state, or that after diligent inquiry his residence is unknown or cannot be ascertained, service may be made by publication thereof in any newspaper published in the county where such lands are situated, once a week for two successive weeks; and in case no newspaper is published in said county, then such publication may be had in a newspaper published in the county nearest the county in which lies the land sought to be acquired and appropriated. And such publication shall be deemed service upon each of such nonresident person or persons whose residence is unknown. Such notice shall be signed by the attorney general of the state of Washington. Such notice may be served by any competent person over twenty-one years of age. Due proof of the service of such notice by affidavit of the person serving the same, or by the printer's affidavit of publication, shall be filed with the clerk of such superior court before or at the time of the presentation of such petition. Want of service of such notice shall render the subsequent proceedings void as to the person not served, but all persons or parties having been served with notice as herein provided, either by publication or otherwise, shall be bound by the subsequent proceedings. In all other cases not otherwise provided for, service of notices, order, and other papers in the proceedings authorized by this act, may be made as the superior court or judge thereof may direct. [L. '91, p. 139, § 2; 2 H. C., § 639.]

"Act" refers to §§ 891–900.

§ 893. Adjournment of Proceedings—Notice.—The court or judge may, upon application of the said attorney general or any owner or party interested, for reasonable cause, adjourn the proceedings from time to time, and may order new or further notice to be given to any party whose interest may be affected. [L. '91, p. 140, § 3; 2 H. C., § 640.]

§ 894. Hearing of Petition—Jury.—At the time and place appointed for hearing said petition, or to which the same may have been adjourned, if the court or judge thereof shall have satisfactory proof that all parties interested in the land, real estate, premises, or other property described in said petition have been duly served with said notice as above prescribed, and shall be further satisfied by competent proof that the contemplated use for which the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated is really necessary for the public use of the state of Washington, the court or judge thereof may make an order, to be recorded in the minutes of said court, directing the sheriff to summon from the citizens of the county in which such land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be acquired or appropriated shall be situated, as many qualified persons as may be necessary in order to form a jury of twelve persons, unless the parties to the proceedings consent to a less number (such number to be not less than three), and such consent shall be entered by the clerk in the minutes of the trial. If necessary to complete the jury, the sheriff, under the direction of the court or judge thereof, shall summon as many qualified persons as may be required to complete the jury from the bystanders, citizens of the county where the land, real estate, premises, or other property is situated. [L. '91, p. 140, § 4; 2 H. C., § 641.]

§ 895. Trial—Damages—Judgment.—A judge of the superior court shall preside at the trial, which shall be held at such time as the court or judge thereof may direct, at the courthouse in the county where the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated or acquired is situated, and the jurors at such trial shall make in each case a separate assessment of damages which shall result to any person, corporation or company, or to any county, by reason of the appropriation and use of such land, real estate, premises, or other property, and shall ascertain, determine, and award the amount of damage to be paid said owner or owners respectively, and to all tenants, encumbrancers, and others interested for taking such land, real estate, premises, or other property so taken. Upon the trial, witnesses may be examined in behalf of either party to the proceedings as in civil actions; and a witness served with a subpoena in such proceedings shall be punished for failure to appear at such trial, or for perjury, as upon a trial of a civil action. Upon the verdict of the jury, judgment shall be entered for the amount of the damages awarded to such owner or owners, respectively, and to all tenants, encumbrancers, and others interested, for taking such land, real estate, or premises. In case a jury is waived, as in civil cases in courts of record, in the manner prescribed by law, the compensation to be paid for the property sought to be appropriated shall be ascertained and determined by the court or judge thereof, and the proceedings shall be the same as in trials of an issue of fact by the court. [L. '91, p. 141, § 5; 2 H. C., § 642.]

§ 896. Judgment—Filing and Recording of.—At the time of rendering judgment for damages, whether upon default or trial, the court or judge thereof shall also enter a judgment or decree of appropriation of the land, real estate, or premises sought to be appropriated, thereby vesting the legal title to the same in the state of Washington. Whenever said judgment or decree of appropriation is made, a certified copy of such judgment or decree of appropriation may be filed for record in the office of the auditor of the county where the said land, real estate, or other premises are situated, and shall be recorded by said auditor like a deed of real estate, and with like effect. [L. '91, p. 142, § 6; 2 H. C., § 643.]

§ 897. Payment of Damages, Effects of—Appeal.—Upon the entry of judgment upon the verdict of the jury or the decision of the court or judge thereof, awarding damages as hereinbefore prescribed, the state of Washington may make payment of the damages assessed to the parties entitled to the same, and of the costs of the proceedings, by depositing the same with the clerk of said superior court, to be paid out under the direction of the court or the judge thereof; and upon making such payment into the court of the damages assessed and allowed, and of the costs to any land, real estate, premises or other property mentioned in said petition, said state of Washington shall be released and discharged from any and all further liability therefor, unless upon appeal the owner or party interested shall recover a greater amount of damages; and in that case only for the amount in excess of the sum paid into said court and the costs of appeal: Provided, that in case of an appeal to the supreme court of the state by any party to the proceedings, the money so paid into the superior court by the state as aforesaid shall remain in the custody of said court until the final determination of the proceedings by the said supreme court. [L. '91, p. 142, § 7; 2 H. C., § 644.]

§ 898. Claimants, How Paid—Conflicting Claims, How Determined.—Any person, corporation, or county claiming to be entitled to any money paid into court, as provided in this act, may apply to the court therefor, and upon furnishing evidence satisfactory to the court that he or it is entitled to the same, the court shall make an order directing the payment to such claimant the portion of such money as he or it shall be found entitled to; but if, upon application, the court or judge thereof should decide that the title to the land, real estate, or premises specified in the application of such claimant was in such condition as to require that an action be commenced to determine the conflicting claims thereto, he shall refuse such order until such action is commenced, and the conflicting claims to such land, real estate, or premises be determined according to law. [L. '91, p. 143, § 8; 2 H. C., § 645.]

"Act" refers to §§ 891–900.

§ 899. Appeal.—Either party may appeal from the judgment for damages entered in the superior court to the supreme court of the state, within thirty days after the entry of judgment as aforesaid, and such appeal shall bring before the supreme court the propriety and justness of the amount of damage in respect to the parties to the appeal: Provided, however, that upon such appeal no bond shall be required: And provided further, that, if the owner of land, the real estate, or premises accepts the sum awarded by the jury, the court, or the judge thereof, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively an appeal to the supreme court, and final judgment by default may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases: Provided further, that no appeal shall operate so as to prevent the said state of Washington from taking possession of such property pending such appeal, after the amount of said award shall have been paid into court. [L. '91, p. 143, § 9; 2 H. C., § 646.]

§ 900. Payment of Award and Costs.—Whenever the attorney general shall file with the auditor of this state a certificate setting forth the amount of any award found against the state of Washington under the provisions of this act, together with the costs of said proceeding, and a description of the lands and premises sought to be appropriated and acquired, and the title of the action or proceeding in which said award is rendered, it shall be the duty of the state auditor to forthwith issue a warrant upon the state treasury to the order of the attorney general in a sum sufficient to make payment in money of said award and the costs of said proceeding, and thereupon it shall be the duty of said attorney general to forthwith pay to the clerk of said court in money the amount of said award and costs. [L. '91, p. 143, § 10; 2 H. C., § 647.]

"Act" refers to §§ 891–900.

§ 901. Counties may Appropriate Lands for Public Use.—Every county in this state is hereby, for the purposes of this and the four following sections, declared to be a body corporate and is authorized and empowered by and through its board of county commissioners whenever said board shall judge it to be clearly for the general welfare and benefit of the people of the county, and so far as shall be in harmony with the constitution of this state and the provisions of this article, to condemn and appropriate as hereinafter in this act provided and to dispose of for public use such lands, properties, rights and interests as are hereinafter in this act mentioned, whenever the government of the United States or of this state is intending or proposing the construction, operation or maintenance of any public work situated or to be situated wholly or partly within such county, or the expenditure of money or labor for the construction, operation or maintenance of any such work, and such condemnation or appropriation will enable the county to aid, promote, facilitate or prepare for any such construction, operation, maintenance or expenditure by either or both such governments, or to fulfill or dispose of any condition upon which such construction, operation, maintenance or expenditure is by law or from any cause contingent, and no property shall be exempt from such condemnation, appropriation or disposition by reason of the same having been or being dedicated, appropriated or otherwise reduced or held to public use. [L. '95, p. 3, § 1.]

"Act" refers to §§ 901–905.

§ 902. Tax Levy to Pay Cost of Condemnation.—The board of county commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered in aid of the powers granted or prescribed in the foregoing section to levy, annually, a tax as large as may be necessary, but not exceeding the rate of one mill on the dollar, upon all taxable property in the county, such tax to be assessed, levied and collected at the same time and in the same manner as taxes for general county purposes, but the proceeds of said taxes, when collected, shall constitute and be a special fund, applicable solely to the cost of such condemnation, appropriation or disposition, as is mentioned in the foregoing section, and the expenses incident thereto. [L. '95, p. 4, § 2.]

§ 903. Eminent Domain Extended to Counties.—The right of eminent domain for the purposes intended in this act is hereby extended to all counties in this state and every such county for any purpose of condemnation, appropriation or disposition such as is mentioned in section 901, supra, is hereby authorized and empowered to condemn and appropriate all necessary lands and all rights, properties and interests in or appurtenant to land under the same procedure as is or shall be provided by the laws of this state for the case of any similar condemnation or appropriation by other corporations. [L. '95, p. 4, § 3.]

"Act" refers to §§ 901–905.

§ 904. Indebtedness Contracted, General County Purpose.—Any county purpose mentioned in this act shall be deemed and held to be a general county purpose and any indebtedness contracted or to be contracted therefor shall be deemed and held to be an indebtedness for general county purposes, and all the provisions of law of this state relative to indebtedness for general county purposes or the contracting of such indebtedness or the bonds for funding the same shall be deemed applicable to any indebtedness contracted or to be contracted or any bonds issued by any county under this act, but the accounts of the county with respect to the receipts and disbursements of all moneys received or disbursed by the county under the provisions of this act shall, for each condemnation, appropriation and disposition, be so kept as to clearly and fully exhibit such accounts separate and apart from the other accounts of the county. [L. '95, p. 5, § 4.]

"Act" refers to §§ 901–905.

§ 905. County Purpose, Defined.—Any condemnation, appropriation or disposition intended in this act shall be deemed and held to be for a county purpose and public use within the meaning of this act when it is directly or indirectly, approximately or remotely for the general benefit or welfare of the county or of the inhabitants thereof, or when it is otherwise within the meaning of the phrase "for a county purpose" as occurring in the constitution of this state. [L. '95, p. 5, § 5.]

"Act" refers to §§ 901–905.

§ 906. School Districts may Appropriate Land.—Whenever any school district shall select any real estate as a site for a schoolhouse, or as additional grounds to an existing schoolhouse site, within the district, and the board of school directors of such district and the owner or owners of the site or any part thereof, or addition thereto so selected, shall be unable to agree upon the compensation to be paid by such school district to the owner or owners thereof, such school district shall have the right to take and acquire title to such real estate for use as a schoolhouse site or additional site, upon first paying to the owner or owners thereof therefor the value thereof, to be ascertained in the manner hereinafter provided. [L. '03, p. 193, § 1; L. '09, p. 372, § 1.]

made in money by such school district to such owner or owners for the taking of such real estate for the use as a schoolhouse site for such school district; or in case a jury be waived in the manner provided by law in other civil actions in courts of record, then that the compensation to be made as aforesaid, be ascertained and determined by the court, or judge thereof. [L. '03, p. 194, § 2; L. '09, p. 372, § 2.]

§ 908. Notice of Petition—Service.—A notice, stating the time and place when and where such petition will be presented to the court, or the judge thereof, together with a copy of such petition, shall be served on each and every person named therein as owner, or otherwise interested therein, at least ten days previous to the time designated in such notice for the presentation of such petition. Such notice shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein the real estate sought to be taken is situated, and may be served in the same manner as summons in a civil action in such superior court is authorized by law to be served. [L. '03, p. 104, § 3; L. '09, p. 373, § 3.]

§ 909. Adjournment of Proceedings.—The court may, upon application of the petitioner or of any owner of said real estate, or any person interested therein, for reasonable cause, adjourn the proceedings from time to time, and may order new or further notice to be given to any party whose interests may be affected by such proceedings. [L. '03, p. 194, § 4; L. '09, p. 373, § 4.]

§ 910. Findings of Necessity—Setting Trial.—At the time and place appointed for the hearing of such petition, or to which the same may have been adjourned, if the court shall find that all parties interested in such real estate sought to be taken have been duly served with notice and a copy of the petition as above prescribed, and shall further find that such real estate sought to be taken is required and necessary for the purposes of a schoolhouse site, or as a part of or as an addition to a schoolhouse site, for such school district, the court shall make an order reciting such findings, and shall thereupon set the hearing of such petition down for trial by a jury, as other civil actions are tried, unless a jury is waived in the manner provided by law in other civil actions. [L. '03, p. 195, § 5; L. '09, p. 373, § 5.]

§ 911. Jury Trial.—The jury impaneled to hear the evidence and determine the compensation to be paid to the owner or owners of such real estate desired for such schoolhouse site purpose shall consist of twelve persons unless a less number be agreed upon, and shall be selected, impaneled and sworn in the same manner that juries in other civil actions are selected, impaneled and sworn, provided a juror may be challenged for cause on the ground that he is a taxpayer of the district seeking the condemnation of any real estate. [L. '03, p. 195, § 6; L. '09, p. 373, § 6.]

§ 912. Trial—View by Jury.—A judge of the superior court shall preside at the trial and witnesses may be examined in behalf of either party to the proceedings, as in other civil actions, and upon the request of the parties interested in such proceedings the court shall cause the jury impaneled to hear the same, to view the premises sought to be taken, and upon the request of any less number of the persons interested in the proceedings, the court may cause the jury to view the premises, pending the hearing of the same. [L. '03, p. 195, § 7; L. '09, p. 374, § 7.]

§ 913. Verdict for Full Value of Property.—Upon the close of the evidence, and the argument of counsel, the court shall instruct the jury as to the matters submitted to them, and the law pertaining thereto, whereupon the jury shall retire and deliberate and determine upon the amount of compensation in money that shall be paid to the owner or owners of the real estate sought to be taken for such schoolhouse site purposes therefor, which shall be the amount found by the jury to be the fair and full value of such premises; and when the jury shall have determined upon their verdict, they shall return the same to the court as in other civil actions. [L. '03, p. 195, § 8; L. '09, p. 374, § 8.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 194, 195.

§ 914. Verdict by Ten Jurors.—When ten of the jurors agree upon a verdict, the verdict so agreed upon shall be signed by the foreman, and the verdict so agreed upon shall be and stand as the verdict of the jury. [L. '03, p. 196, § 9; L. '09, p. 374, § 9.]

§ 915. Waiver of Jury.—In case a jury is waived, the compensation that shall be paid for the premises taken shall be determined by the court and the proceedings shall be the same as in the trial of issues of fact by the court in other civil actions. [L. '03, p. 196, § 10; L. '09, p. 374, § 10.]

§ 916. Judgment—Effect.—Upon the verdict of the jury, or upon the determination by the court of the compensation to be paid for the property sought to be taken as herein provided, judgment shall be entered against such school district in favor of the owner or owners of the real estate sought to be taken, for the amount found as compensation therefor, and upon the payment of such amount by such school district to the clerk of such court for the use of the owner or owners of, and the persons interested in the premises sought to be taken, the court shall enter a decree of appropriation of the real estate sought to be taken, thereby vesting the title to the same in such school district; and a certified copy of such decree of appropriation may be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county wherein the real estate taken is situated, and shall be recorded by such auditor like a deed of real estate, and with like effect. The money so paid to the clerk of the court shall be by him paid to the person or persons entitled thereto, upon the order of the court. [L. '03, p. 196, § 11; L. '09, p. 374, § 11.]

§ 917. Costs.—All the costs of such proceedings in the superior court shall be paid by the school district initiating such proceedings. [L. '03, p. 196, § 12; L. '09, p. 375, § 12.]

§ 918. Appeal to Supreme Court.—Either party may appeal from the judgment for compensation awarded for the property taken, entered in the superior court, to the supreme court of the state within sixty days after the entry of the judgment, and such appeal shall bring before the supreme court the justness of the compensation awarded for the property taken, and any error occurring on the hearing of such matter, prejudicial to the party appealing, and no bond shall be required of either party appealing from such judgment: Provided, however, that if the owner or owners of the land taken accepts the sum awarded by the jury or court, he or they shall be deemed thereby to have waived their right of appeal to the supreme court. [L. '03, p. 196, § 13; L. '09, p. 375, § 13.]

§ 919. Possession of Premises.—An appeal from such judgment by the owner or owners of the land sought to be taken, shall not have the effect to preclude the school district from taking possession of the premises sought, pending the appeal, provided the amount of the judgment against the school district shall have been paid in to the clerk of the court, as hereinbefore provided. [L. '03, p. 197, § 14; L. '09, p. 375, § 14.]

§ 920. Parties—Designation—Fees of Clerk.—In all proceedings under this act the school district seeking to acquire title to real estate for a schoolhouse site, shall be denominated plaintiff, and all other persons interested therein shall be denominated defendants; and in all such proceedings the clerk of the superior court wherein any such proceedings is brought shall charge nothing for his services, except in taking an appeal from the judgment entered in the superior court. [L. '03, p. 197, § 15; L. '09, p. 375, § 15.]

§ 921. Eminent Domain by Corporations—Petition, Requisites of. Any corporation authorized by law to appropriate land, real estate, premises, or other property for right of way or any other corporate purposes, may present to the superior court of the county in which any land, real estate, or premises, or other property sought to be appropriated shall be situated, or to the judge of such superior court in any county where he has jurisdiction or is holding court, a petition in which the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated shall be described with reasonable certainty, and setting forth the name of each and every owner, encumbrancer, or other person or party interested in the same, or any part thereof, so far as the same can be ascertained from the public records, the object for which the land is sought to be appropriated, and praying that a jury be impaneled to ascertain and determine the compensation to be made in money, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, to such owner or owners, respectively, and to all tenants, encumbrancers, and others interested, for the taking or injuriously affecting such lands, real estate, premises, or other property, or in case a jury be waived, as in other civil cases in courts of record in the manner prescribed by law, then that the compensation to be made, as aforesaid, be ascertained and determined by the court, or judge thereof. § 922. Notice, Contents of and Service.—A notice, stating briefly the objects of the petition, and containing a description of the land, real estate, premises or property sought to be appropriated, and stating the time and place when and where the same will be presented to the court, or the judge thereof, shall be served on each and every person named therein as owner, encumbrancer, tenant, or otherwise interested therein, at least ten days previous to the time designated in such notice for the presentation of such petition. Such service shall be made by delivering a copy of such notice to each of the persons or parties so named therein, if a resident of the state; or in case of the absence of such person or party from his or her usual place of abode, by leaving a copy of such notice at his or her usual place of abode; or in case of a foreign corporation, at its principal place of business in this state, with some person of more than sixteen years of age. In case of domestic corporations, such service shall be made upon the president, secretary, or other directors or trustee of such corporation. In case of minors or [on] their guardians, or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person who has the care and custody of such minor. In case of idiots, lunatics, or distracted persons, on their guardian; or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person in whose care or charge they are found. In case the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated is [state, school,] or county land, the notice shall be served on the auditor of the county in which the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated is situated. In all cases where the owner or person claiming an interest in such real or other property is a nonresident of this state, or where the residence of such owner or person is unknown, and an affidavit of the agent or attorney of the corporation shall be filed that such owner or person is a nonresident of this state, or that, after diligent inquiry, his residence is unknown, or cannot be ascertained by such deponent, service may be made by publication thereof in any newspaper published in the county where such lands are situated, once a week for two successive weeks; and in case no newspaper is published in said county, then such publication may be had in a newspaper published in the county nearest to the county in which lies the land sought to be appropriated. And such publication shall be deemed service upon each of such nonresident person or persons whose residence is unknown. Such notice shall be signed by the president, manager, secretary, or attorney of the corporation; and in case the proceedings provided for in this article are instituted by the owner or any other person or party interested in the land, real estate, or other property sought to be appropriated, then such notice shall be signed by such owner, person, or party interested, or his, her, or its attorney. Such notice may be served by any competent person over twenty-one years of age. Due proof of the service of such notice, by affidavit of the person serving the same, or by the printer's affidavit of publication, shall be filed with the clerk of such superior court before or at the time of the presentation of such petition. Want of service of such notice shall render the subsequent proceedings void as to the person not served; but all persons or parties having been served with notice as herein provided, either by publication or otherwise, shall be bound by the subsequent proceedings. In all other cases not otherwise provided for, service of notices, order, and other papers in the proceedings authorized by this article may be made as the superior court, or the judge thereof, may direct. § 923. Service Where State is Party Defendant.—In all condemnation proceedings brought for the purpose of appropriating any land owned by the state or in which it has an interest, service of process shall be made upon the commissioner of public lands. [L. '07, p. 507, § 1.]

§ 924. Adjournment of Proceedings.—The court or judge may, upon application of the petitioner or of any owner or party interested, for reasonable cause, adjourn the proceedings from time to time, and may order new or further notice to be given to any party whose interest may be affected. [Cf. L. '88, p. 60, § 3; L. '90, p. 297, § 3; 2 H. C., § 650.]

§ 925. Court to Adjudicate Necessity for Appropriation—Calling Jury.—At the time and place appointed for hearing said petition, or to which the same may have been adjourned, if the court or judge thereof shall have satisfactory proof that all parties interested in the land, real estate, premises or other property described in said petition, have been duly served with said notice as above prescribed, and shall be further satisfied by competent proof that the contemplated use for which the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated is really a public use, or is for a private use for a private way of necessity, and that the public interest requires the prosecution of such enterprise, or the private use is for a private way of necessity, and that the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated are required and necessary for the purposes of such enterprise, the court or judge thereof may make an order, to be recorded in the minutes of said court, directing the sheriff to summon a jury. [Cf. L. '88, p. 60, § 4; L. '90, p. 297, § 4; 2 H. C., § 651; L. '97, p. 63, § 1.]

propriated is situated, and the jurors at such trial shall make in each case a separate assessment of damages which shall result to any person, corporation, or company, or to the state, or to any county, by reason of the appropriation and use of such land, real estate, premises, or other property by such corporation, as aforesaid, for any and all corporate purposes, and shall ascertain, determine, and award the amount of damages to be paid to said owner or owners respectively, and to all tenants, encumbrancers, and others interested, for the taking or injuriously affecting such land, real estate, premises, or other property, for the purpose of such enterprise, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation. Upon the trial, witnesses may be examined in behalf of either party to the proceedings, as in civil actions; and a witness served with a subpoena in such proceedings shall be punished for failure to appear at such trial, or for perjury, as upon a trial of a civil action. Upon the verdict of the jury, judgment shall be entered for the amount of the damages awarded to such owner or owners respectively, and to all tenants, encumbrancers, and others interested, for the taking or injuriously affecting such land, real estate, premises, or other property. In case a jury is waived as in civil cases in courts of record in the manner prescribed by law, the compensation to be paid for the property sought to be appropriated shall be ascertained and determined by the court, or the judge thereof, and the proceedings shall be the same as in trials of an issue of fact by the court. [L. '90, p. 297, § 5; 2 H. C., § 652.]

§ 927. Judgment and Decree of Appropriation.—At the time of rendering judgment for damages, whether upon default or trial, if the damages awarded be then paid, or upon their payment, if not paid at the time of rendering such judgment, the court, or judge thereof, shall also enter a judgment or decree of appropriation of the land, real estate, premises, right of way, or other property sought to be appropriated, thereby vesting the legal title to the same in the corporation seeking to appropriate such land, real estate, premises, right of way, or other property for corporate purposes. Whenever said judgment or decree of appropriation shall affect lands, real estate, or other premises, a certified copy of such judgment or decree of appropriation may be filed for record in the office of the auditor of the county where the said land, real estate, or other premises are situated, and shall be recorded by said auditor like a deed of real estate, and with like effect. If the title to said land, real estate, premises, or other property attempted to be acquired is found to be defective from any cause, the corporation may again institute proceedings to acquire the same, as in this article provided. [Cf. L. '90, p. 298, § 6; L. '91, p. 84, § 1; 2 H. C., § 653.]

§ 928. Decree Against State Lands—Filing With Commissioner—Effect.—When a decree is entered appropriating lands owned by the state, or in which the state has an interest, before any such decree shall be effective, the plaintiff shall cause to be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands a certified copy of such decree, together with a plat of the lands appropriated and contiguous thereto, in form and substance as prescribed and required by the board of state land commissioners, showing in detail the lands appropriated, together with the amount of damages fixed and awarded in the decree. Upon receipt of such decree, plat and damages, the commissioner of public lands shall examine the same, and if he shall find that the final decree and proceedings comply with the original petition and notice and any amendment duly authorized, and that no additional interest of the state has been taken or appropriated through error or mistake, he shall cause notations thereof to be made upon the abstracts, records and tract books of his office, and shall issue to the plaintiff his certificate, reciting compliance, in substance, with the requirements of this act, particularly describing the lands appropriated, and thereupon the appropriation shall become effective and the commissioner of public lands shall forthwith transmit the amount received as damages to the state treasurer, as in case of the sale of land, and the subdivision of land through which such right of way is appropriated shall thereafter be sold or leased subject to the right of way. [L. '07, p. 507, § 2; L. '09, p. 625, § 1.]

§ 929. Payment to Petitioner—On Appeal Money to Remain in Court.—Upon the entry of judgment upon the verdict of the jury, or the decision of the court, or judge thereof, awarding damages, as hereinbefore prescribed, the petitioner, or any officer of or other person duly appointed by said corporation, may make payment of the damages assessed to the parties entitled to the same, and of the costs of the proceedings, by depositing the same with the clerk of said superior court, to be paid out under the direction of the court, or judge thereof; and upon making such payment into the court of the damages assessed and allowed, and of the costs to any land, real estate, premises, or other property mentioned in said petition, such corporation shall be released and discharged from any and all further liability therefor, unless upon appeal the owner, or other person or party interested, shall recover a greater amount of damages; and in that case, only for the amount in excess of the sum paid into said court, and the costs of appeal: Provided, that in case of an appeal to the supreme court of the state by any party to the proceedings, the money so paid into the superior court by such corporation as aforesaid shall remain in the custody of said court until the final determination of the proceedings by the said supreme court. [L. '90, p. 299, § 7; 2 H. C., § 654.]

§ 930. Disposition of Money—Conflicting Claims.—Any person, corporation, state, or county claiming to be entitled to any money paid into court, as provided in this article may apply to the court therefor, and upon furnishing evidence satisfactory to the court that he or it is entitled to the same, the court shall make an order directing the payment to such claimant the portion of such money as he or it shall be found entitled to; but if, upon application, the court, or judge thereof, shall decide that the title to the land, real estate, premises, or other property specified in the application of such claimant was in such condition as to require that an action be commenced to determine the conflicting claims thereto, he shall refuse such order until such action is commenced, and the conflicting claims to such lands, real estate, premises, or other property be determined according to law. [Cf. L. '88, p. 61, § 8; L. '90, p. 299, § 8; 2 H. C., § 655.]

§ 934. Appropriation by Electric Power Companies, etc.—The right of eminent domain is hereby extended to all corporations incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this state or any state or territory of the United States, and doing business in this state, for the purpose of transmitting electric power by wire, cable or by any other means: Provided, however, that said right of eminent domain shall not be exercised in respect to any residence or business structure or structures. [L. '95, p. 80, § 1.]

§ 935. Right to Enter Lands for Survey, etc.—Every corporation incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this state or any state or territory of the United States, and doing business in this state, for the purpose of transmitting electric power by wire, cable or any other means, shall have the right to enter upon any land between the termini of the proposed lines for the purpose of examining, locating and surveying such lines, doing no unnecessary damage thereby. [L. '95, p. 80, § 2.]

§ 936. Procedure as in Other Cases.—Every such corporation shall have the right, subject to the proviso contained in the last preceding section, to appropriate real estate or other property for right of way or for any corporate purposes in the same manner and under the same procedure as now is or may be hereafter provided by the law in the case of other corporations authorized by the laws of this state to exercise the right of eminent domain. [L. '95, p. 80, § 3.]

CHAPTER VI.

Waste, Trespass and Nuisance.

§ 937. Waste Actionable.—Wrongs heretofore remediable by action of waste shall be subjects of actions, as other wrongs. [Cf. L. '54, p. 206, § 403; L. '69, p. 143, § 554; Cd. '81, § 600; 2 H. C., § 659.]

§ 938. Action Against Guardian or Tenant—Damages—Forfeiture—Eviction.—If a guardian, tenant in severalty or in common, for life or for years, of real property, commit waste thereon, any person injured thereby may maintain an action at law for damages therefor against such guardian or tenant; in which action there may be judgment for treble damages, forfeiture of the estate of the party committing or permitting the waste, and of eviction from the property. But judgment of forfeiture and eviction shall only be given in favor of the person entitled to the reversion against the tenant in possession, when the injury to the estate in reversion is determined in the action to be equal to the value of the tenant's estate or unexpired term, or to have been done or suffered in malice. [Cf. L. '54, p. 206, § 403; L. '69, p. 143, § 555; Cd. '81, § 601; 2 H. C., § 660.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 120; 72 Wash. 465.

§ 939. Trespass for Cutting Trees, etc.—Damage.—Whenever any person shall cut down, girdle, or otherwise injure or carry off any tree, timber, or shrub on the land of another person, or in the street or highway in front of any person's house, village, town, or city lot, or cultivated ground, or on the common or public grounds of any village, town, or city, or on the street or highway in front thereof, without lawful authority, in an action by such person, village, town or city, against the person committing such trespasses, or any of them, if judgment be given for the plaintiff, it shall be given for treble the amount of damages claimed or assessed therefor, as the case may be. [L. '69, p. 143, § 556; Cd. '81, § 602; 2 H. C., § 661.]

§ 940. Casual or Involuntary Trespass—Damages.—If upon trial of such action it shall appear that the trespass was casual or involuntary, or that the defendant had probable cause to believe that the land on which such trespass was committed was his own, or that of the person in whose service or by whose direction the act was done, or that such tree or timber was taken from uninclosed woodlands, for the purpose of repairing any public highway or bridge upon the land, or adjoining it, judgment shall only be given for single damages. [L. '69, p. 143, § 557; Cd. '81, § 603; 2 H. C., § 662.]

§ 941. Injunction to Prevent Waste.—When any two or more persons are opposing claimants under the laws of the United States to any land in this state, and one is threatening to commit upon such land waste which tends materially to lessen the value of the inheritance, and which cannot be compensated by damages, and there is imminent danger that unless restrained such waste will be committed, the party, on filing his complaint and satisfying the court or judge of the existence of the facts, may have an injunction to restrain the adverse party. In all cases he shall give notice and bond as is provided in other cases where injunction is granted, and the injunction when granted shall be set aside or modified as is provided generally for injunction and restraining orders. [L. '54, p. 206, § 404; Cd. '81, § 604; 2 H. C., § 663.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 153, 155, 156.

§ 942. Action by Occupant of Unsurveyed Land.—Any person now occupying and settled upon, or who may hereafter occupy or settle upon, any of the unsurveyed public lands, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, in this state, for the purpose of holding and cultivating the same, may commence and maintain any action, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for interference with or injuries done to his or her possessions of said lands, against any person or persons so interfering with or injuring such lands or possession:

Provided always, that if any of the aforesaid class of settlers are absent from their claims continuously for a period of six months in any one year, the said person or persons shall be deemed to have forfeited all rights under this section. [L. '83, p. 70, § 1; 2 H. C., § 545.]

§ 943. Actionable Nuisances, Defined.—The obstruction of any highway, or the closing of the channel of any stream used for boating or rafting logs, lumber, or timber, or whatever is injurious to health, or indecent, or offensive to the senses, or an obstruction to the free use of property, so as to essentially interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of the life and property, is a nuisance, and the subject of an action for damages and other and further relief. [Cf. L. '54, p. 207, § 405; L. '69, p. 144, § 559; Cd. '81, § 605; 2 H. C., § 664.]

§ 944. Who may Maintain.—Such action may be brought by any person whose property is injuriously affected or whose personal enjoyment is lessened by the nuisance. If the judgment be given for the plaintiff in such action, he may, in addition to the execution to enforce the same, on motion, have an order allowing a warrant to issue to the sheriff to abate such nuisance. Such motion shall be allowed, of course, unless it appear on the hearing that the nuisance has ceased, or that such remedy is inadequate to abate or prevent the continuance of the nuisance, in which latter case the plaintiff may have the defendant enjoined. [Cf. L. '54, p. 207, § 406; L. '69, p. 144, § 560; Cd. 81, § 606; L. '91, p. 89, § 1; 2 H. C., § 665.]

§ 945. Warrant for Abatement of Nuisance.—If the order be made, the clerk shall thereafter, at any time within six months, when requested by the plaintiff, issue such warrant directed to the sheriff, requiring him forthwith to abate the nuisance at the expense of the defendant, and return the warrant as soon thereafter as may be, with his proceedings indorsed thereon. The expenses of abating the nuisance may be levied by the sheriff on the property of the defendant, and in this respect the warrant is to be deemed an execution against property. [Cf. L. '54, p. 207, § 407; L. '69, p. 145, § 561; Cd. '81, § 607; 2 H. C., § 666.]

§ 946. Stay of Warrant.—At any time before the order is made or the warrant issues, the defendant may, on motion to the court, or judge thereof, have an order to stay the issue of such warrant for such period as may be necessary, not exceeding six months, to allow the defendant to abate the nuisance himself, upon his giving bond to the plaintiff, in a sufficient amount, with one or more sureties, to the satisfaction of the court, or judge thereof, that he will abate it within the time and in the manner specified in such order. The sureties shall justify as bail upon arrest. If the defendant fails to abate such nuisance within the time specified, the warrant for the abatement of the nuisance may issue as if the same had not been stayed. [L. '69, p. 145, § 562; Cd. '81, § 608; 2 H. C., § 667.]

§ 946–1. Houses of Prostitution to be Abated.—Whoever shall erect, establish, maintain, continue, use, own or lease any building or place used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation or prostitution is guilty of a nuisance, and the building or place, or the ground itself, in or upon which lewdness, assignation or prostitution is conducted, permitted or carried on, continued or exists, and the furniture, fixtures, musical instruments, and contents are also declared a nuisance, and shall be enjoined and abated as hereinafter provided. [L. '13, p. 391, § 1.]

§ 946–2. Actions—Temporary Injunction.—Whenever a nuisance exists, as defined in this act, the prosecuting attorney or any citizen of the county may maintain an action in equity in the name of the state of Washington upon the relation of such prosecuting attorney or citizen, to perpetually enjoin said nuisance, the person or persons conducting or maintaining the same, and the owner or the agent of the building or ground upon which said nuisance exists. In such action, the court or judge may upon the presentation of a petition therefor alleging that the nuisance complained of exists, allow a temporary injunction if it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court or judge that such nuisance exists. At least three days' notice in writing shall be given the defendant of the hearing of the application. Any violation of the provisions of injunction herein provided shall be a contempt as hereinafter provided. [L. '13, p. 391, § 2.]

Cited in 81 Wash. 49; 83 Wash. 677.

§ 946–3. General Reputation of Place—Dismissal of Action.—In such action evidence of the general reputation of the place shall be admissible for the purpose of proving the existence of said nuisance. If the complaint is filed by a citizen, it shall not be dismissed except upon a sworn statement made by the complainant and his attorney, setting forth the reasons why the action should be dismissed, and the dismissal approved by the prosecuting attorney in writing or in open court. If the court is of the opinion that the action ought not to be dismissed, he may direct the prosecuting attorney to prosecute such action to judgment, and if the action is continued more than once, upon the application of either party, any citizen of the county or the prosecuting attorney may be substituted for the complaining party and prosecute said action to judgment. If the action is brought by a citizen and the court finds there was no reasonable ground or cause for said action, the costs may be taxed to such citizen who originally brought such action. [L. '13, p. 391, § 3.]

§ 946–4. Contempt—Punishment.—In case of the violation of any injunction granted under the provisions of this act, the court or judge may summarily try and punish the offender. The proceedings shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the court an information under oath, setting out the alleged facts constituting such violation, upon which the court or judge shall cause an attachment to issue, under which the defendant shall be arrested. The trial may be had upon affidavit, or either party may demand the production and oral examination of the witnesses. A party found guilty of contempt under the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment. [L. '13, p. 392, § 4.]

§ 946–5. Order of Abatement—Effect.—If the existence of the nuisance be established in an action as provided in this act, or in a criminal proceeding, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the judgment in the case, which order shall direct the removal from the building or place of all fixtures, furniture, musical instruments or movable property used in conducting the nuisance, and may direct the sale thereof in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution and effectual closing of the building or place against its use for any purpose, and so keeping it closed for a period not exceeding six months. If any person shall break and enter or use a building or place so directed to be closed, he shall be punished as for contempt as provided in the preceding section. For removing and selling all movable property, the officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees as he would for levying upon and selling like property on execution, and for closing the premises and keeping them closed, a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the court. [L. '13, p. 392, § 5.]

§ 946–6. Proceeds of Sales.—The proceeds of the sale of the personal property, as provided in the preceding section, shall be applied in payment of the costs of the action and abatement, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the person owning such property prior to said sale. [L. '13, p. 396, § 6.]

§ 946–7. Voluntary Abatement—Release.—If the owner appears and pays all costs of the proceedings, and files a bond with sureties to be approved by the clerk in the full value of the property, to be ascertained by the court conditioned that he will immediately abate said nuisance and prevent the same from being established or kept therein within a period of one year thereafter, the court or judge may, if satisfied of his good faith, order the premises closed under the order of abatement to be delivered to said owner, and said order of abatement canceled so far as the same may relate to said property, and if the proceeding be an action in equity and said bond be given and costs therein paid before judgment and order of abatement, the action shall be thereby abated as to said building only. The release of the property under the provisions of this action [section] shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty or liability to which it may be subject by law. [L. '13, p. 393, § 7.]

Cited in 80 Wash. 269.

§ 946–8. Penalty—Tax Lien.—Whenever a permanent injunction issues against any person for maintaining a nuisance as herein defined, or against any owner or agent of the building kept or used for the purposes prohibited by this act, there shall be assessed against said building and the ground upon which the same is located and against the person or persons maintaining said nuisance, and the owner or agent of said premises, a tax of three hundred dollars. The assessment of said tax shall be made by the county assessor of the county in which the nuisance exists and shall be made within three months from the date of the granting of the permanent injunction. In case the assessor fails or neglects to make said assessment the same shall be made by the sheriff of the county, and a return of said assessment shall be made to the county treasurer. Said tax may be enforced and collected in the manner prescribed for the collection of taxes under the general revenue laws and shall be a perpetual lien upon the real property, and personal property not already sold as provided by this act, used for the purpose of maintaining said nuisance, and the payment of said tax shall not relieve the person or building from any penalties provided by law, and when collected shall go into the county general fund. [L. '13, p. 393, § 8.]

CHAPTER VII.

Establishment of Boundaries of Lands.

§ 947. Establishment of Lost or Uncertain Boundary Lines.—Whenever the boundaries of lands between two or more adjoining proprietors shall have been lost, or by time, accident, or any other cause shall have become obscure or uncertain, and the adjoining proprietors cannot agree to establish the same, one or more of said adjoining proprietors may bring his civil action in equity, in the superior court for the county in which such lands, or part of them, are situated, and such superior court, as a court of equity, may, upon such complaint, order such lost or uncertain boundaries to be erected and established and properly marked. [L. '86, p. 104, § 1; 2 H. C., § 668.]

§ 948. Commissioners Appointed—Duties of.—Said court may, in its discretion, appoint commissioners, not exceeding three competent and disinterested persons, one or more of whom shall be practical surveyors, residents of the state, which commissioners shall be, before entering upon their duties, duly sworn to perform their said duties faithfully, and the said commissioners shall thereupon survey, erect, establish, and properly mark said boundaries, and return to the court a plat of said survey, and the field-notes thereof, together with their report. Said report shall be advisory, and either party may except thereto, in the same manner as to a report of referees. [L. '86, p. 105, § 2; 2 H. C., § 669.]

§ 949. Proceedings, How Conducted—Decree.—The proceedings shall be conducted as other civil actions, and the court, on final decree, shall apportion the costs of the proceedings equitably, and the costs so apportioned shall be a lien upon the said lands, severally, as against any transfer or encumbrance made of or attaching to said lands, from the time of the filing of the complaint: Provided, a notice of lis pendens is filed in the auditor's office of the proper county, in accordance with law. [L. '86, p. 105, § 3; 2 H. C., § 670.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Actions by and Against Public Corporations.

§ 950. Actions by Public Corporations.—An action at law may be maintained by any county, incorporated town, school district, or other public corporation of like character in this state, in its corporate name, and upon a cause of action accruing to it, in its corporate character, and not otherwise, in either of the following cases:—

1. Upon a contract made with such public corporation;

2. Upon a liability prescribed by law in favor of such public corporation;

3. To recover a penalty or forfeiture given to such public corporation;

4. To recover damages for an injury to the corporate rights or property of such public corporation. [L. '69, p. 154, § 601; Cd. '81, § 661; 2 H. C., § 671.]

Cited in 38 Wash. 106; 48 Wash. 88.

See supra, § 886, actions against the state.
See infra, § 3822, capacity of counties to sue and be sued.
See infra, § 3823, actions to be brought in corporate name.
See infra, § 4483, power and liability of school districts.
See infra, § 7518, power of cities of first class to sue and be sued.

§ 951. Actions Against Public Corporations.—An action may be maintained against a county, or other of the public corporations mentioned or described in the preceding section, either upon a contract made by such county or other public corporation in its corporate character, and within the scope of its authority, or for an injury to the rights of the plaintiff arising from some act or omission of such county or other public corporation. [L. '69, p. 154, § 602; Cd. '81, § 662; 2 H. C., § 672.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 658; 20 Wash. 113; 21 Wash. 648; 48 Wash. 88.

§ 952. Verification of Pleadings by Public Corporations.—In such actions, the pleadings of the public corporation shall be verified by any of the officers representing it in its corporate capacity, in the same manner as if such officer was a defendant in the action, or by the agent or attorney thereof, as in ordinary actions. [L. '69, p. 154, § 603; Cd. '81, § 663; 2 H. C., § 673.]

§ 953. Manner of Enforcing Judgments.—If judgment be given for the recovery of money or damages against such county or other public corporation, no execution shall issue thereon for the collection of such money or damages, but such judgment in such respect shall be satisfied as follows:—

1. The party in whose favor such judgment is given may, at any time thereafter, when execution might issue on a like judgment against a private person, present a certified transcript of the docket thereof to the officer of such county or other public corporation who is authorized to draw orders on the treasury thereof;

2. On the presentation of such transcript, such officer shall draw an order on such treasurer for the amount of the judgment, in favor of the party for whom the same was given. Thereafter such order shall be presented for payment and paid with like effect and in like manner as other orders upon the treasurer of such county or other public corporation;

3. The certified transcript herein provided for shall not be furnished by the clerk, unless at the time an execution might issue on such judgment if the same were against a private person, nor until satisfaction of the same judgment in respect to such money or damages be acknowledged as in ordinary cases. The clerk shall include in the transcript the memorandum of such acknowledgment of satisfaction and the entry thereof. Unless the transcript contain such memorandum, no order upon the treasurer shall issue thereon. [L. '69, p. 154, § 604; Cd. '81, § 664; 2 H. C., § 674.]

§ 954. Officer Refusing to Satisfy Judgment may be Attached.—Should the proper officer of said corporation fail or refuse to satisfy said judgment, as in the preceding section provided, an attachment may be issued to compel his performance of said duty. [L. '69, p. 155, § 605; Cd. '81, § 665; 2 H. C., § 675.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 223; 31 Wash. 541.

§ 955. Tender Condition Precedent to Action to Enjoin Tax Collection.—Hereafter no action or proceeding shall be commenced or instituted in any court of this state to enjoin the sale of any property for taxes, or to enjoin the collection of any taxes, or for the recovery of any property sold for taxes, unless the person or corporation desiring to commence or institute such action or proceeding shall first pay, or cause to be paid, or shall tender to the officer entitled under the law to receive the same, all taxes, penalties, interest, and costs justly due and unpaid from such person or corporation on the property sought to be sold or recovered. CHAPTER IX.

Actions on Official Bonds, Fines and Forfeitures.

§ 958. Official Bonds, to Whom Deemed Security.—The official bond of a public officer to the state, or to any county, city, town, or other municipal or public corporation of like character therein, shall be deemed a security to the state, or to such county, city, town, or other municipal or public corporation, as the case may be, and also to all persons severally, for the official delinquencies against which it is intended to provide. [L. '69, p. 152, § 592; Cd. '81, § 652; 2 H. C., § 694.]

See infra, § 1159, action on contractor's bond to indemnify public corporations.

See infra, §§ 8326, 8327, actions on official bonds.

§ 959. Injured Party may Maintain Action.—When a public officer by official misconduct or neglect of duty shall forfeit his official bond, or render his sureties therein liable upon such bond, any person injured by such misconduct or neglect, or who is by law entitled to the benefit of the security, may maintain an action at law thereon in his own name against the officer and his sureties to recover the amount to which he may by reason thereof be entitled. [L. '69, p. 152, § 593; Cd. '81, § 653; 2 H. C., § 695.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 75.

§ 960. Leave to Commence Action.—Before an action can be commenced by a plaintiff, other than the state, or the municipal or public corporation named in the bond, leave shall be obtained of the court, or judge thereof, where the action is triable. Such leave shall be granted upon the production of a certified copy of the bond, and an affidavit of the plaintiff, or some person in his behalf, showing the delinquency. But if the matter set forth in his affidavit be such that, if true, the party applying would clearly not be entitled to recover in the action, the leave shall not be granted. If it does not appear from the complaint that the leave herein provided for has been granted, the defendant, on motion, shall be entitled to judgment of nonsuit; if it does, the defendant may controvert the allegation, and if the issue be found in his favor, the judgment shall be given accordingly. [L. '69, p. 152, § 594; Cd. '81, § 654; 2 H. C., § 696.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 633; 19 Wash. 75, 424.

§ 961. Judgment for Delinquency No Bar to Another Action.—A judgment in favor of a party for one delinquency shall not preclude the same or another party from maintaining another action on the same bond for another delinquency. [L. '69, p. 153, § 595; Cd. '81, § 655; 2 H. C., § 697.]

§ 962. Amount of Judgment.—In an action upon an official bond, if judgments have been recovered against the surety therein other than by confession, equal in the aggregate to the penalty, or any part thereof, of such bond, and if such recovery be established on the trial, judgment shall not be given against such surety for an amount exceeding such penalty, or such portion thereof as is not already recovered against him. [L. '69, p. 153, § 596; Cd. '81, § 656; 2 H. C., § 698.]

§ 963. Actions for Fines and Forfeitures.—Fines and forfeitures may be recovered by an action at law in the name of the officer or person to whom they are by law given, or in the name of the officer or person who by law is authorized to prosecute for them. [L. '69, p. 153, § 597; Cd. '81, § 657; 2 H. C., § 699.]

See supra, § 159, limitations of actions for.

§ 964. Amount of Recovery.—When an action shall be commenced for a penalty which by law is not to exceed a certain amount, the action may be commenced for that amount, and if judgment be given for the plaintiff, it may be for such amount or less, in the discretion of the court, in proportion to the offense. [L. '69, p. 153, § 598; Cd. '81, § 658; 2 H. C., § 700.]

§ 965. Collusive Judgment No Bar.—A recovery of a judgment for a penalty or forfeiture by collusion between the plaintiff and defendant, with intent to save the defendant wholly or partially from the consequences contemplated by law, in case when the penalty or forfeiture is given wholly or partly to the person who prosecutes, shall not bar the recovery of the same by another person. [L. '69, p. 153, § 599; Cd. '81, § 659; 2 H. C., § 701.]

§ 966. Disposition of Fines and Forfeitures—Venue.—Fines and forfeitures not specially granted or otherwise appropriated by law, when recovered, shall be paid into the school fund of the proper county. Whenever, by the provisions of law, any property, real or personal, shall be forfeited to the state, or to any officer for its use, the action for the recovery of such property may be commenced in any county where the defendant may be found, or where such property may be. [L. '69, p. 153, § 600; Cd. '81, § 660; 2 H. C., § 702.]

CHAPTER X.

Actions by and Against Executors and Administrators.

§ 967. What Actions Survive.—All other causes of action [than those enumerated in section 183, supra] by one person against another, whether arising on contract or otherwise, survive to the personal representatives of the former and against the personal representatives of the latter. Where the cause of action survives, as herein provided, the executors or administrators may maintain an action at law thereon against the party against whom the cause of action accrued, or after his death, against his personal representatives. [L. '69, p. 165, § 659; Cd. '81, § 718; 2 H. C., § 704.]

See supra, § 170, suspension of statute of limitation by death of party.

See supra, § 180, executors, etc., as parties.

See supra, § 193, action not to abate by disability if continued by or against representatives.

See supra, § 194, survival of action for personal injury.

See infra, § 1477 et seq., limitations of actions on claims against estates; see, also, on same subject, § 164, supra.

See infra, §§ 1534–1542, actions by and against executors and administrators in certain cases.

See infra, § 1540, limitations of action against fraudulent conveyance.

§ 968. Several Representatives Regarded as One.—In an action against several executors or administrators, they shall all be considered as one person representing their testator or intestate, and judgment may be given and execution issued against all of them who are defendants in the action, although the notice be served only on part of them, in the same manner and with like effect as if served on all, except as provided in the next session. [L. '69, p. 165, § 660; Cd., '81, § 719; 2 H. C., § 705.]

§ 969. Judgment by Default—Not Evidence of Assets, When.—When a judgment is given against an executor or administrator for want of answer, such judgment is not to be deemed evidence of assets in his hands, unless it appear that the complaint alleged assets, and that the notice was served upon him. [L. '69, p. 166, § 661; Cd. '81, § 720; 2 H. C., § 706.]

§ 970. Inventory may be Contradicted, When.—In an action against executors and administrators, in which the fact of their having administered the estate of their testator or intestate, or any part thereof, is put in issue, and the inventory of the property of the deceased returned by them is given in evidence, the same may be contradicted or avoided by evidence,—

1. That any property has been omitted in such inventory, or was not returned therein at its full value, or that since the return thereof such property has increased in value;

2. That such property has perished or been lost without the fault of such executors or administrators, or that it has been fairly and duly sold by them at a less price than the value so returned, or that since the return of the inventory such property has deteriorated in value. In such action the defendants cannot be charged for any things in action specified in their inventory, unless it appear that they have been collected, or with due diligence might have been. [L. '69, p. 166, § 662; Cd. '81, § 721; 2 H. C., § 707.]

§ 971. No Liability as Executor de Son Tort.—No person is liable to an action as executor of his own wrong for having taken, received, or interfered with the property of a deceased person, but is responsible to the executors or administrators of such deceased person for the value of all property so taken and received, and for all injury caused by his interference with the estate of the deceased. [L. '69, p. 166, § 663; Cd. '81, § 722; 2 H. C., § 708.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 203.

§ 972. Executor of Executor—Limit of Powers of.—An executor of an executor has no authority as such to commence or maintain an action or proceeding relating to the estate of the testator of the first executor, or to take any charge or control thereof. [L. '69, p. 166, § 664; Cd. '81, § 723; 2 H. C., § 709.]

§ 973. Provisional Remedies, When Authorized.—In an action against an executor or administrator as such, the remedies of arrest and attachment shall not be allowed on account of the acts of his testator or intestate; but for his own acts as such executor or administrator, such remedies shall be allowed for the same causes in the manner and with like effect as in actions at law generally. [L. '69, p. 167, § 666; Cd. '81, § 724; 2 H. C., § 710.]

CHAPTER XI.

Protection of Sureties.

§ 974. Notice to Creditor to Institute Action.—Any person bound as surety upon any contract in writing for the payment of money or the performance of any act, when the right of action has accrued, may require, by notice in writing, the creditor or obligee forthwith to institute an action upon the contract. [L. '54, p. 210, § 426; Cd. '81, § 644; 2 H. C., § 756.]

See infra, § 8336 et seq., provisions for the release of sureties on official bonds.

§ 975. Surety Discharged, When.—If the creditor or obligee shall not proceed within a reasonable time to bring his action upon such contract, and prosecute the same to judgment and execution, the surety shall be discharged from all liability thereon. [L. '54, p. 210, § 427; Cd. '81, § 645; 2 H. C., § 757.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 332; 16 Wash. 551.

§ 976. Trial of Suretyship.—When any action is brought against two or more defendants upon a contract, any one or more of the defendants being surety for the others, the surety may, upon a written complaint to the court, cause the question of suretyship to be tried and determined upon the issues made by the parties at the trial of the cause, or at any time before or after the trial, but such proceedings shall not affect the proceedings of the plaintiff. [L. '54, p. 210, § 427; Cd. '81, § 646; 2 H. C., § 758.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 332; 18 Wash. 409; 54 Wash. 68.

§ 977. Order to Exhaust Principal's Property.—If the finding upon such issue be in favor of the surety, the court shall make an order directing the sheriff to levy the execution upon and first exhaust the property of the principal before a levy shall be made upon the property of the surety, and the clerk shall indorse a memorandum of the order upon the execution. [L. '54, p. 211, § 429; Cd. '81, § 647; 2 H. C., § 759.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 332; 54 Wash. 68.

§ 978. Subrogation of Surety.—When any defendant surety in a judgment or special bail or replevin [bail], or surety in a delivery bond or replevin bond, or any person being surety in any bond whatever, has been or shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, or shall make any payment which is applied upon such judgment by reason of such suretyship, or when any sheriff or other officer or other surety upon his official bond shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, by reason of any default of such officer, except for failing to pay over money collected, or for wasting property levied upon, the judgment shall not be discharged by such payment, but shall remain in force for the use of the bail, surety, officer, or other person making such payment, and after the plaintiff is paid, so much of the judgment as remains unsatisfied may be prosecuted to execution for his use. [L. '54, p. 211, § 430; Cd. '81, § 648; 2 H. C., § 760.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 696; 28 Wash. 34; 74 Wash. 547.

§ 979. Contribution Among Sureties.—Any one of several judgment defendants, and any one of several replevin bail having paid and satisfied the plaintiff, shall have the remedy provided in the last section against the codefendants and cosureties to collect of them the ratable proportion each is equitably bound to pay. [L. '54, p. 211, § 431; Cd. '81, § 649; 2 H. C., § 761.]

§ 980. Surety Shall not Suffer Judgment, When.—No surety or his representative shall confess judgment or suffer judgment by default in any case where he is notified that there is a valid defense, if the principal will enter himself defendant to the action and tender to the surety or his representatives good security to indemnify him, to be approved by the court. [L. '54, p. 211, § 432; Cd. '81, § 650; 2 H. C., § 762.]

§ 981. Provisions Extended to Heirs of Sureties.—The foregoing provisions of this chapter shall extend to heirs, executors, and administrators of deceased persons, but the provisions of section 975, shall not operate against persons under legal disabilities. [L. '54, p. 211, § 433; Cd. 81, § 651; 2 H. C., § 763.]

CHAPTER XII.

Divorce and Alimony.

§ 982. Grounds for Divorce.—Divorces may be granted by the superior court on application of the party injured, for the following causes:—

1. When the consent to the marriage of the party applying for the divorce was obtained by force or fraud, and there has been no subsequent voluntary cohabitation;

2. For adultery on the part of the wife or of the husband, when unforgiven, and application is made within one year after it shall come to the knowledge of the party applying for divorce;

3. Impotency;

4. Abandonment for one year;

5. Cruel treatment of either party by the other, or personal indignities rendering life burdensome;

6. Habitual drunkenness of either party, or the neglect or refusal of the husband to make suitable provisions for his family;

7. The imprisonment of either party in the penitentiary, if complaint is filed during the term of such imprisonment;

And a divorce may be granted upon application of either party for any other cause deemed by the court sufficient, and the court shall be satisfied that the parties can no longer live together;

8. In case of incurable chronic mania or dementia of either party, having existed for ten years or more, the court may, in its discretion, grant a divorce. [Cf. L. '54, p. 405, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2000; L. '86, p. 120, § 1; L. '91, p. 42, § 1; 2 H. C., § 764.]

§ 983. Annulment of Marriage.—When there is any doubt as to the facts rendering a marriage void, either party may apply for, and on proof obtain, a decree of nullity of marriage. [Cf. L. '54, p. 406, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2001; L. '91, p. 42, § 2; 2 H. C., § 765.]

Cited in 50 Wash. 216; 70 Wash. 413.

§ 984. Resident may Apply, When.—Any person who has been a resident of the state for one year may file his or her complaint for a divorce or decree of nullity of marriage, under oath, in the superior court of the county where he or she may reside, and like proceedings shall be had thereon as in civil cases. [L. '54, p. 406, § 3; Cd. '81, § 2002; 2 H. C., § 766.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 534; 14 Wash. 116; 23 Wash. 311; 30 Wash. 640; 46 Wash. 672; 50 Wash. 216; 55 Wash. 349; 69 Wash. 132; 87 Wash. 152.

§ 985. Proof Required.—When the defendant does not answer, or, answering, admits the allegations in the complaint, the court shall require proof before granting a divorce or a decree of nullity. [L. '54, p. 406, § 4; Cd. '81, § 2003; 2 H. C., § 767.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 312; 46 Wash. 672.

§ 986. Defendant may File Cross-complaint.—The defendant may, in addition to his or her answer, file [a] cross-complaint for divorce, and the court may, in such case, grant a divorce, if any, in favor of either party, or as an [on] application of both. [L. '54, p. 406, § 5; Cd. '81, § 2004; 2 H. C., § 768.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 312; 34 Wash. 646.

§ 987. Both Parties Deemed Applying.—Both parties shall be considered as applying for a divorce when the complaints of both are filed in the same action, and when the defendant, by his or her cross-complaint, also applies for divorce. [Cf. L. '54, p. 406, § 6; Cd. '81, § 2005; L. '91, p. 42, § 3; 2 H. C., § 769.]

§ 988. Interlocutory Orders.—Pending the action for divorce the court, or judge thereof, may make, and by attachment enforce, such orders for the disposition of the persons, property and children of the parties as may be deemed right and proper, and such orders relative to the expenses of such action as will insure to the wife an efficient preparation of her case, and a fair and impartial trial thereof; and on decreeing or refusing to decree a divorce, the court may, in its discretion, require the husband to pay all reasonable expenses of the wife in the prosecution or defense of the action, when such divorce has been granted or refused, and give judgment therefor. [Cf. L. '54, p. 406, § 7; Cd. '81, § 2006; L. '91, p. 43, § 4; 2 H. C., § 770.]

§ 989. Decree—Disposition of Property.—In granting a divorce, the court shall also make such disposition of the property of the parties as shall appear just and equitable, having regard to the respective merits of the parties, and to the condition in which they will be left by such divorce, and to the party through whom the property was acquired, and to the burdens imposed upon it for the benefit of the children, and shall make provision for the guardianship, custody, and support and education of the minor children of such marriage. [Cf. L. '54, p. 406, § 8; Cd. '81, § 2007; L. '91, p. 43, § 6; 2 H. C., § 771.]

§ 990. Divorce Dissolves Marriage as to Both Parties.—Whenever judgment of divorce from the bonds of matrimony is granted by the courts in this state, the court shall order a full and complete dissolution of the marriage as to both parties. [Cf. L. '54, p. 407, § 9; Cd. '81, § 2008; L. '91, p. 43, § 6; 2 H. C., § 772.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 703, 705; 22 Wash. 116.

§ 991. Remarriage Pending Appeal Unlawful.—Whenever a judgment or decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony is granted by the courts in this state, neither party thereto shall be capable of contracting marriage with a third person until the period in which an appeal may be taken has expired; and in case an appeal is taken then neither party shall intermarry with a third person until the cause has been fully determined; and it shall be unlawful for any divorced person to intermarry with any third person within six months from the date of the entry of the judgment or decree granting the divorce, or in case an appeal is taken it shall be unlawful to contract such marriage until judgment be rendered on said appeal in the supreme court. All marriages contracted in violation of the provisions of this section, whether contracted within or without this state, shall be void. [L. '93, p. 225, § 1.]

Cited in 58 Wash. 623; 63 Wash. 290; 70 Wash. 413; 78 Wash. 648.

§ 992. Decree to Prohibit Remarriage Within Six Months.—Whenever judgment or decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony is granted by any court in this state, such judgment or decree shall expressly prohibit the plaintiff and defendant named therein from contracting any marriage with third parties within the period of six months from the date of the entry of such judgment or decree, and in case either party to said decree shall remarry within said period, he or she shall be deemed guilty of contempt of the court granting such judgment or decree, and shall be proceeded against and punished in like manner as in other cases of contempt of court. [L. '93, p. 226, § 2.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 290.

§ 993. Prosecuting Attorney to Prosecute for Contempt.—It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of each county to prosecute for contempt any person violating the provisions of any decree mentioned in the last section rendered by any superior court of his county. [L. '93, p. 226, § 3.]

§ 994. Name of Wife Changed.—In all actions for a divorce, if a divorce be granted, the court may, for just and reasonable cause, change the name of the female, who shall thereafter be known and called by such name as the court shall in its order or decree appoint. [Cf. L. '54, p. 407, § 9; Cd. '81, § 2009; L. '91, p. 43, § 7; 2 H. C., § 773.]

§ 995. Prosecuting Attorney to Resist Undefended Actions.—Whenever a complaint for divorce remains undefended, it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to resist such complaint; but no prosecuting attorney shall be employed in or allowed to conduct any action for a divorce on the part of the plaintiff or applicant in the courts of this state; nor shall any prosecuting attorney be allowed to resist a complaint for divorce in those cases where the defendant does not appear, or appearing admits the allegations of the complaint, if the attorney for the applicant is a partner of such prosecuting attorney in the practice of law, or keeps his office with such prosecuting attorney; but in all such cases the court or judge before whom the case is to be heard shall appoint an attorney to resist the complaint, who shall be entitled to the compensation allowed by law to prosecuting attorneys in such cases. [Cf. L. '54, p. 407, § 10; L. '79, p. 94, § 10; Cd. '81, § 2010; L. '85, p. 62, § 10; L. '91, p. 43, § 8; 2 H. C., § 774.]

§ 996. Trial—Appeal—Proceedings.—In all instances where the superior court shall grant a divorce, it shall be for cause distinctly stated in the complaint, and proved, and found by the court, and the court shall state the facts found upon which the decree is rendered; and when either party shall signify a desire to appeal from any of the orders of the court, in the disposition of the property or of the children, the court shall certify the evidence adduced on the trial, and the supreme court shall be possessed of the whole case as fully as the superior court was, and may reverse, modify, or affirm said judgment, according to the real merits of the case. [L. '60, p. 320, § 12; Cd. '81, § 2011; 2 H. C., § 775.]

§ 997. Practice—Trial Without Jury.—The practice in civil actions shall govern all proceedings in the trial of actions for divorce, except that trial by jury is dispensed with. [L. '60, p. 320, § 13; Cd. '81, § 2012; L. '91, p. 44, § 9; 2 H. C., § 776.]

CHAPTER XIII.

Change of Name.

§ 998. Name may be Changed upon Petition.—Any person desiring a change of his name or that of his child or ward may apply therefor to the superior court of the county in which he resides, by petition setting forth the reasons for such change; thereupon such court, in its discretion, may order a change of the name, and thenceforth the new name shall be in place of the former. [L. '77, p. 132, § 638; Cd. '81, § 635; 2 H. C., § 777.]

§ 1001. Certiorari, Defined.—The writ of certiorari may be denominated the writ of review. [L. '95, p. 115, § 3.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 149; 28 Wash. 51.

§ 1002. When and by What Courts Granted.—A writ of review shall be granted by any court, except a police or justice court, when an inferior tribunal, board or officer, exercising judicial functions, has exceeded the jurisdiction of such tribunal, board or officer, or one acting illegally, or to correct any erroneous or void proceeding, or a proceeding not according to the course of the common law, and there is no appeal, nor in the judgment of the court, any plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law. [L. '95, p. 115, § 4.]

§ 1003. Application for, How Made.—The application must be made on affidavit by the party beneficially interested, and the court may require a notice of the application to be given to the adverse party, or may grant an order to show cause why it should not be allowed, or may grant the writ without notice. [L. '95, p. 115, § 5.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 578; 23 Wash. 281.

§ 1004. Writ, How Directed.—The writ may be directed to the inferior tribunal, board or officer, to any other person having the custody of the record or proceedings to be certified. When directed to a tribunal the clerk, if there be one, must return the writ with the transcript required. [L. '95, p. 115, § 6.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 95.

§ 1005. Contents of Writ.—The writ of review must command the party to whom it is directed to certify fully to the court issuing the writ, at a specified time and place, a transcript of the record and proceedings (describing or referring to them with convenient certainty), that the same may be reviewed by the court, and requiring the party, in the meantime, to desist from further proceedings in the matter to be reviewed. [L. '95, p. 115, § 7.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 282; 46 Wash. 171; 75 Wash. 82, 95.

§ 1006. Stay of Proceedings.—If a stay of proceedings be not intended, the words requiring the stay must be omitted from the writ. These words may be inserted or omitted, in the sound discretion of the court, but if omitted the power of the inferior court or office is not suspended or the proceedings stayed. [L. '95, p. 115, § 8.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 82.

§ 1007. Bill of Exceptions—Judgment on.—Questions of fact not apparent of record may be presented by bill of exception, and the court shall review the same, and, in case there is error, shall render such judgment in the case as of right ought to be entered, or reverse and remand the cause for further proceedings. [L. '95, p. 115, § 9.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 95.

§ 1008. Service of Writ.—The writ may be served as follows, except where different directions respecting the mode of service thereof are given by the court granting it:—

1. Where it is directed to a person or persons by name or by his or her official title or titles, or to a municipal corporation, it must be served upon each officer or other person to whom it is directed, or upon the corporation, in the same manner as a summons;

2. Where it is directed to a court, or to the judges of a court, having a clerk appointed pursuant to law, service upon the court or the judges thereof may be made by filing the writ with the clerk. [L. '95, p. 116, § 10.]

§ 1009. Defective Return—How Perfected—Hearing, Judgment. If the return of the writ be defective, the court may order a further return to be made. When a full return has been made, the court must hear the parties, or such of them as may attend for that purpose, and may thereupon give judgment, either affirming or annulling or modifying the proceedings below. [L. '95, p. 116, § 11.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 534; 46 Wash. 171.

§ 1010. Questions Involving Merits—What are.—The questions involving the merits to be determined by the court upon the hearing are:—

1. Whether the body or officer had jurisdiction of the subject matter of the determination under review;

2. Whether the authority, conferred upon the body or officer in relation to that subject matter, has been pursued in the mode required by law, in order to authorize it or him to make the determination;

3. Whether, in making the determination, any rule of law affecting the rights of the parties thereto has been violated to the prejudice of the relator;

4. Whether there was any competent proof of all the facts necessary to be proved, in order to authorize the making of the determination;

5. If there was such proof, whether there was, upon all the evidence, such a preponderance of proof, against the existence thereof, rendered in an action in a court, triable by a jury, [as] would be set aside by the court, as against the weight of evidence. [L. '95, p. 116, § 12.]

Cited in 24 Wash. 543; 60 Wash. 591; 78 Wash. 560; 83 Wash. 75.

§ 1011. Copy of Judgment Transmitted to Inferior Tribunal.—A copy of the judgment signed by the clerk, must be transmitted to the inferior tribunal, board or officer having the custody of the record or proceeding certified up. [L. '95, p. 117, § 13.]

Cited in 65 Wash. 390.

§ 1012. Judgment-roll.—A copy of the judgment signed by the clerk, entered upon or attached to the writ and return, constitute the judgment-roll. [L. '95, p. 117, § 14.]

§ 1013. Mandamus, Defined.—The writ of mandamus may be denominated a writ of mandate. [L. '95, p. 117, § 15.]

§ 1014. When and by What Court Issued.—It may be issued by any court, except a justice's or a police court, to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board or person, to compel the performance of an act which the law especially enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust or station, or to compel the admission of a party to the use and enjoyment of a right or office to which he is entitled, and from which he is unlawfully precluded by such inferior tribunal, corporation, board or person. [L. '95, p. 117, § 16.]

§ 1015. Writ, When and upon What Issued.—The writ must be issued in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. It must be issued upon affidavit on the application of the party beneficially interested. [L. '95, p. 117, § 17.]

§ 1016. Writ, Alternative or Peremptory.—The writ may be either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must state generally the allegation against the party to whom it is directed, and command such party, immediately after the receipt of the writ, or at some other specified time, to do the act required to be performed, or to show cause before the court at a specified time and place, why he has not done so. The peremptory writ must be in some similar form, except the words requiring the party to show cause why he has not done as commanded must be omitted and a return inserted. [L. '95, p. 117, § 18.]

Cited in 31 Wash. 539; 66 Wash. 80.

§ 1017. Notice.—When the application to the court is made without notice to the party, and the writ be allowed, the alternative must be first issued; and if the application be upon due notice and the writ be allowed, the peremptory writ may be issued in the first instance. The notice of the application, when given, must be at least ten days. The writ cannot be granted by default. The case must be heard by the court, whether the adverse party appear or not. [L. '95, p. 117, § 19.]

Cited in 80 Wash. 654.

§ 1018. Return of Writ—Answer.—On the return of the alternative, or the day on which the application for the writ is noticed, the party on whom the writ or notice has been served may show cause by answer, under oath, made in the same manner as an answer to a complaint in a civil action. [L. '95, p. 118, § 20.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 204; 15 Wash. 677; 19 Wash. 676; 60 Wash. 83; 73 Wash. 557.

§ 1019. Question of Fact, How Determined.—If an answer be made which raises a question as to a matter of fact essential to the determination of the motion, and affecting the substantial rights of the parties, and upon the supposed truth of the allegation of which the application for the writ is based, the court may, in its discretion, order the question to be tried before a jury, and postpone the argument until such trial can be had, and the verdict certified to the court. The question to be tried must be distinctly stated in the order for trial, and the county must be designated in which the same shall be had. The order may also direct the jury to assess any damages which the appellant [applicant] may have sustained, in case they find for him. [L. '95, p. 118, § 21.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 204; 15 Wash. 677; 19 Wash. 676; 25 Wash. 619; 30 Wash. 599.

§ 1020. Applicant may Demur to Answer or Countervail It by Proof.—On the trial the applicant is not precluded by the answer from any valid objections to its sufficiency, and may countervail it by proof, either in direct or denial or by way of avoidance. [L. '95, p. 118, § 22.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 618; 74 Wash. 557.

§ 1021. Motion for New Trial, Where Made.—The motion for new trial must be made in the court in which the issue of fact is tried. [L. '95, p. 118, § 23.]

§ 1022. Certification of Verdict—Hearing.—If no notice of a motion for new trial be given, or if given, the motion be denied, the clerk, within five days after rendition of the verdict or denial of the motion, must transmit to the court in which the application for the writ is pending, a certified copy of the verdict attached to the order of trial, after which either party may bring on the argument of the application, upon reasonable notice to the adverse party. [L. '95, p. 118, § 24.]

§ 1023. Court to Proceed to Hearing, When—Answer.—If no answer be made, the case must be heard on the papers of the applicant. If the answer raises only questions of law, or puts in issue immaterial statements not affecting the substantial rights of the party, the court must proceed to hear or fix a day for hearing the argument of the case. [L. '95, p. 118, § 25.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 205.

§ 1024. Damages Awarded, When — Peremptory Mandate. — If judgment be given for the applicant he may recover the damages which he has sustained, as found by the jury or as may be determined by the court or referee, upon a reference to be ordered, together with costs; and for such damages and costs an execution may issue, and a peremptory mandate must also be awarded without delay. [L. '95, p. 118, § 26.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 321.

§ 1025. Service of Writ.—The writ must be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, except when otherwise expressly directed by order of the court. Service upon a majority of the members of any board or body is service upon the board or body, whether at the time of the service the board or body was in session or not. [L. '95, p. 119, § 27.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 544.

§ 1026. Penalty for Disobeying Writ.—When a temporary mandate has been issued and directed to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board or person upon whom the writ has been personally served, has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to obey the same, the court may, upon motion, impose a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars. In case of persistence in a refusal or disobedience, the court may order the party to be imprisoned until the writ is obeyed, and may make any orders necessary and proper for the complete enforcement of the writ. [L. '95, p. 119, § 28.]

§ 1027. Prohibition, Defined.—The writ of prohibition is the counterpart of the writ of mandate. It arrests the proceedings of any tribunal, corporation, board or person, when such proceedings are without or in excess of the jurisdiction of such tribunal, corporation, board or person. [L. '95, p. 119, § 29.]

§ 1028. Where and When Issued.—It may be issued by any court, except police or justices' courts, to an inferior tribunal, or to a corporation, board or person, in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. It is issued upon affidavit, on the application of the person beneficially interested. [L. '95, p. 119, § 30.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 675; 47 Wash. 157; 62 Wash. 243; 74 Wash. 693; 76 Wash. 379.

§ 1029. Writ may be Alternative or Peremptory.—The writ must be either alternative of peremptory. The alternative writ must state generally the allegations against the party to whom it is directed, and command such party to desist or refrain from further proceedings in the action or matter specified therein until the further order of the court from which it is issued, and to show cause before such court, at a specified time and place, why such party should not be absolutely restrained from any further proceedings in such action or matter. The peremptory writ must be in a similar form, except that the words requiring the party to show cause why he should not be absolutely restrained, etc., must be omitted and a return day inserted. [L. '95, p. 119, § 31.]

§ 1030. Provisions Relating to Mandate Applicable.—The provisions of sections 1013 to 1026, relating to writ of mandate, apply to this proceeding. [L. '95, p. 120, § 32.]

§ 1031. Writs of Review, Mandate and Prohibition Made Returnable, When.—Writs of review, mandate, and prohibition issued by the supreme court, or by a superior court, may, in the discretion of the court issuing the writ, be made returnable, and a hearing thereon be had at any time. [L. '95, p. 120, § 33.]

§ 1032. Rules of Practice and Proceedings.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the provisions of the Code of Procedure concerning civil actions are applicable to and constitute the rules of practice in the proceedings in this chapter.' [L. '95, p. 120, § 34.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 93; 21 Wash. 454; 25 Wash. 618; 30 Wash. 599.

§ 1033. Appeals.—From a final judgment in the superior court, in any such proceeding an appeal shall lie to the supreme court. [L. '95, p. 120, § 35.]

§ 1044. Judgment Against Corporation.—If judgment be rendered against any corporation, or against any persons claiming to be a corporation, the court may cause the costs to be collected by executions against the persons claiming to be a corporation, or by attachment against the directors or other officers of the corporation, and shall restrain the corporation, appoint a receiver of its property and effects, take an account and make a distribution thereof among the creditors. The prosecuting attorney shall immediately institute proceedings for that purpose. [L. '54, p. 217, § 479; Cd. '81, § 712; 2 H. C., § 689.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 675; 48 Wash. 198; 49 Wash. 242.

§ 1045. Action to Recover Escheated or Forfeited Property.—Whenever any property shall [escheat or] be forfeited to the state for its use, the legal title shall be deemed to be in the state from the time of the [escheat or] forfeiture, and an information may be filed by the prosecuting attorney in the superior court for the recovery of the property, alleging the ground on which the recovery is claimed, and like proceedings and judgment shall be had as in civil action for the recovery of the property. [L. '54, p. 218, § 480; Cd. '81, § 713; 2 H. C., § 690.]

§ 1046. Costs.—When an information is filed by the prosecuting attorney, he shall not be liable for the costs, but when it is filed upon the relation of a private person such person shall be liable for costs unless the same are adjudged against the defendant. [L. '54, p. 218, § 481; Cd. '81, § 714; 2 H. C., § 691.]

patent, certificate, or deed granted by the proper authorities of this state, when there is reason to believe that the same were obtained by fraud, or through mistake or ignorance of a material fact, or when the patentee or those claiming under him have done or omitted an act in violation of the terms on which the letters, deeds, or certificates were granted, or have by any other means forfeited the interests acquired under the same. [L. '54, p. 218, § 482; Cd. '81, § 715; 2 H. C., § 692.]

§ 1048. Proceedings to Annul.—In such cases, the information may be filed by the prosecuting attorney upon his relation, or by any private person upon his relation, showing his interest in the subject matter; and the subsequent proceedings, judgment of the court, and awarding of costs shall conform to the above provisions, and such letters patent, deed, or certificate shall be annulled or sustained, according to the right of the case. [L. '54, p. 218, § 483; Cd. '81, § 716; 2 H. C., § 693.]

CHAPTER III.

Contempts and Their Punishment.

§ 1049. Contempts, Defined.—The following acts or omissions, in respect to a court of justice or proceedings therein, are deemed to be contempts of court:—

1. Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior toward the judge while holding the court, tending to impair its authority, or to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceedings;

2. A breach of the peace, boisterous conduct, or violent disturbance tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding;

3. Misbehavior in office, or other willful neglect or violation of duty by an attorney, clerk, sheriff, or other person appointed or selected to perform a judicial or ministerial service;

4. Deceit, abuse of the process, or proceedings of the court by a party to an action, suit, or special proceeding;

5. Disobedience of any lawful judgment, decree, order, or process of the court;

6. Assuming to be an attorney or other officer of the court, and acting as such without authority in a particular instance;

7. Rescuing any person or property in the lawful custody of an officer, held by such officer under an order or process of such court;

8. Unlawfully detaining a witness or party to an action, suit, or proceeding while going to, remaining at, or returning from the court where the same is for trial;

9. Any other unlawful interference with the process or proceedings of a court;

10. Disobedience of a subpoena duly served, or refusing to be sworn or answer as a witness;

11. When summoned as a juror in a court, improperly conversing with a party to an action, suit, or proceeding to be tried at such court, or with any other person in relation to the merits of such action, suit, or proceeding, or receiving a communication from a party or other person in respect to it, without immediately disclosing the same to the court;

12. Disobedience by an inferior tribunal, magistrate, or officer of the lawful judgment, decree, order, or process of a superior court, or proceeding in an action, suit, or proceeding contrary to law, after such action, suit, or proceeding shall have been removed from the jurisdiction of such inferior tribunal, magistrate, or officer. See infra, § 1891 et seq., contempt and punishment in justice court.
See infra, § 2040, contempt by grand jurors or other officers in disclosing facts.

§ 1050. Punishment for.—Every court of justice and every judicial officer has power to punish contempt by fine or imprisonment, or both. But such fine shall not exceed three hundred dollars, nor the imprisonment six months; and when the contempt is not [one] of those mentioned in subdivisions one and two of the last section, it must appear that the right or remedy of a party to an action, suit, or proceeding was defeated or prejudiced thereby, before the contempt can be punished otherwise than by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. [L. '69, p. 168, § 688; Cd. '81, § 726; 2 H. C., § 779.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 220; 66 Wash. 642; 79 Wash. 556.

§ 1051. Contempts in Presence of Court, How Punished.—When a contempt is committed in the immediate view and presence of the court or officer, it may be punished summarily, for which an order must be made reciting the facts as occurring in such immediate view and presence, determining that the person proceeded against is thereby guilty of contempt, and that he be punished as therein prescribed. [L. '69, p. 168, § 669; Cd. '81, § 727; 2 H. C., § 780.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 528; 26 Wash. 70; 39 Wash. 136; 40 Wash. 524, 526; 63 Wash. 28, 29.

§ 1052. Procedure in Other Cases.—In cases other than those mentioned in the preceding section, before any proceedings can be taken therein, the facts constituting the contempt must be shown by an affidavit presented to the court or judicial officer, and thereupon such court or officer may either make an order upon the person charged to show cause why he should not be arrested to answer, or issue a warrant of arrest to bring such person to answer in the first instance. [L. '69, p. 169, § 670; Cd. '81, § 728; 2 H. C., § 781.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 528; 26 Wash. 70; 29 Wash. 577; 40 Wash. 524, 526; 82 Wash. 86.

§ 1053. Defendant may be Produced if in Custody.—If the party charged be in custody of an officer by virtue of a legal order or process, civil or criminal, except upon a sentence for a felony, an order may be made for the production of such person by the officer having him in custody that he may answer, and he shall thereupon be produced and held until an order be made for his disposal. [L. '69, p. 169, § 671; Cd. '81, § 729; 2 H. C., § 782.]

Cited in 67 Wash. 318.

§ 1054. How Prosecuted.—In the proceeding for a contempt, the state is the plaintiff. In all cases of public interest, the proceeding may be prosecuted by the prosecuting attorney on behalf of the state, and in all cases where the proceeding is commenced upon the relation of a private party, such party shall be deemed a coplaintiff with the state. [L. '69, p. 169, § 672; Cd. '81, § 730; 2 H. C., § 783.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 349; 39 Wash. 134; 63 Wash. 599; 67 Wash. 303; 79 Wash. 553.

§ 1055. Warrant, How Executed.—Whenever a warrant of arrest is issued pursuant to this chapter, the court or judicial officer shall direct therein whether the person charged may be let to bail for his appearance upon the warrant, or detained in custody without bail, and if he may be bailed, the amount in which he may be let to bail. Upon executing the warrant of arrest, the sheriff must keep the person in actual custody, bring him before the court or judicial officer, and detain him until an order be made in the premises, unless the person arrested execute and deliver to the sheriff, at any time before the return day of the warrant, a bond, with two sufficient sureties, to the effect that he will appear on such return day and abide the order or judgment of the court or officer thereupon. [L. '69, p. 169, § 673; Cd. '81, § 731; 2 H. C., § 784.]

§ 1056. Return of Warrant—Investigation.—The sheriff shall return the warrant of arrest and the bond, if any, given him by the defendant, by the return day therein specified. When the defendant has been brought up or appeared, the court or judicial officer shall proceed to investigate the charge by examining such defendant and witnesses for or against him, for which an adjournment may be had from time to time, if necessary. [L. '69, p. 169, § 674; Cd. '81, § 732; 2 H. C., § 785.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 220; 67 Wash. 318.

§ 1057. Judgment and Sentence.—Upon the evidence so taken, the court or judicial officer shall determine whether or not the defendant is guilty of the contempt charged; and if it be determined that he is so guilty, shall sentence him to be punished as provided in this chapter. [L. '69, p. 170, § 675; Cd. '81, § 733; 2 H. C., § 786.]

§ 1058. Indemnity to Injured Party.—If any loss or injury to a party in an action, suit, or proceeding, prejudicial to his rights therein, have been caused by the contempt, the court or judicial officer, in addition to the punishment imposed for the contempt, may give judgment that the party aggrieved recover of the defendant a sum of money sufficient to indemnify him, and to satisfy his costs and disbursements, which judgment, and the acceptance of the amount thereof, is a bar to any action, suit, or proceeding by the aggrieved party for such loss or injury. [L. '69, p. 170, § 676; Cd. '81, § 734; 2 H. C., § 787.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 8, 11, 12, 15.

§ 1059. Imprisonment, When.—When the contempt consists in the omission or refusal to perform an act which is yet in the power of the defendant to perform, he may be imprisoned until he shall have performed it, and in such case the act must be specified in the warrant of commitment. [L. '69, p. 170, § 677; Cd. '81, § 735; 2 H. C., § 788.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 200; 26 Wash. 216; 71 Wash. 191, 497.

§ 1060. Offender Liable to Indictment, When.—Persons proceeded against according to the provisions of this chapter are also liable to indictment [or information] for the same misconduct, if it be an indictable offense, but the court before which a conviction is had on the indictment [or information] in passing sentence shall take into consideration the punishment before inflicted. [L. '69, p. 170, § 678; Cd. '81, § 736; 2 H. C., § 789.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 243.

§ 1061. Alias Warrant—Prosecution of Bond.—When the warrant of arrest has been returned served, if the defendant do not appear on the return day, the court or judicial officer may issue another warrant of arrest, or may order the bond to be prosecuted, or both. If the bond be prosecuted and the aggrieved party join in the action, and the sum specified therein be recovered, so much thereof as will compensate such party for the loss or injury sustained by reason of the misconduct for which the warrant was issued shall be deemed to be recovered for such party exclusively. [L. '69, p. 170, § 679; Cd. '81, § 737; 2 H. C., § 790.]

§ 1062. Appeal.—Either party to a judgment in a proceeding for a contempt may appeal therefrom in like manner and with like effect as from judgment in an action, but such appeal shall not have the effect to stay the proceedings in any other action, suit, or proceeding, or upon any judgment, decree, or order therein, concerning which or wherein such contempt was committed. Contempts of justices' courts are punishable in the manner specially provided for in the chapter relating to justices of the peace and to their practice and jurisdiction. [L. '69, p. 171, § 680; Cd. '81, § 738; 2 H. C., § 791.]

CHAPTER IV.

Habeas Corpus.

§ 1063. Who may Prosecute Writ.—Every person restrained of his liberty, under any pretense whatever, may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of the restraint, and shall be delivered therefrom when illegal. [L. '54, p. 212, § 434; Cd. '81, § 666; 2 H. C., § 711.]

§ 1064. Parents, etc., may have Writ.—Writs of habeas corpus shall be granted in favor of parents, guardians, masters, and husbands, and to enforce the rights and for the protection of infants and insane persons; and the proceedings shall in all cases conform to the provisions of this chapter. [L. '54, p. 214, § 456; Cd. '81, § 688; 2 H. C., § 733.]

§ 1065. Application for, How Made.—Application for the writ shall be made by petition, signed and verified either by the plaintiff or by some person in his behalf, and shall specify,—

1. By whom the petitioner is restrained of his liberty, and the place where (naming the parties if they are known, or describing them if they are not known);

2. The cause or pretense of the restraint, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of the applicant;

3. If the restraint be alleged to be illegal, in what the illegality consists. [L. '54, p. 212, § 422; Cd. '81, § 667; 2 H. C., § 712.]

§ 1066. By Whom Granted.—Writs of habeas corpus may be granted by the supreme court or superior court, or by any judge of either court, and upon application the writ shall be granted without delay. [L. '54, p. 212, § 436; Cd. '81, § 668; 2 H. C., § 713.]

Cited in 37 Wash. 260.

§ 1067. To Whom Directed—Contents of.—The writ shall be directed to the officer or party having the person under restraint, commanding him to have such person before the court or judge at such time and place as the court or judge shall direct to do and receive what shall be ordered concerning him, and have then and there the writ. [L. '54, p. 212, § 437; Cd. '81, § 669; 2 H. C., § 714.]

§ 1068. Delivery of Writ to Sheriff—Service.—If the writ be directed to the sheriff, it shall be delivered by the clerk to him without delay. [L. '54, p. 212, § 438; Cd. '81, § 670; 2 H. C., § 715.]

§ 1069. Service of Writ Directed to Person Other Than Sheriff.—If the writ be directed to any other person, it shall be delivered to the sheriff, and shall be by him served by delivering the same to such person without delay. [L. '54, p. 212, § 439; Cd. '81, § 671; 2 H. C., § 716.]

§ 1070. Service When Person not Found.—If the person to whom such writ is directed cannot be found or shall refuse admittance to the sheriff, the same may be served by leaving it at the residence of the person to whom it is directed, or by posting the same on [in] some conspicuous place, either on his dwelling-house or where the party is confined or under restraint. [L. '54, p. 212, § 440; Cd. '81, § 672; 2 H. C., § 717.]

§ 1071. Return—Attachment for Refusal.—The sheriff or other person to whom the writ is directed shall make immediate return thereof, and if he refuses after due service to make return, the court shall enforce obedience by attachment. [L. '54, p. 213, § 441; Cd. '81, § 673; 2 H. C., § 718.]

§ 1072. Substance and Form of Return.—The return must be signed and verified by the person making it, who shall state,—

1. The authority or cause of the restraint of the party in his custody;

2. If the authority shall be in writing, he shall return a copy and produce the original on the hearing;

3. If he has had the party in his custody, or under his restraint, and has transferred him to another, he shall state to whom, the time, place, and cause of the transfer. He shall produce the party at the hearing, unless prevented by sickness or infirmity, which must be shown in the return. [L. '54, p. 213, § 442; Cd. '81, § 674; 2 H. C., § 719.]

§ 1073. Proceedings—Pleadings.—The court or judge, if satisfied of the truth of the allegation of sickness or infirmity, may proceed to decide on the return, or the hearing may be adjourned until the party can be produced, or for other good cause. The plaintiff may except to the sufficiency of or controvert the return, or any part thereof, or allege any new matter in evidence. The new matter shall be verified, except in cases of commitment on a criminal charge. The return and pleadings may be amended without causing a [any] delay. [L. '54, p. 213, § 443; Cd. '81, § 675; 2 H. C., § 720.]

§ 1074. Hearing and Determination.—The court or judge shall thereupon proceed in a summary way to hear and determine the cause, and if no legal cause be shown for the restraint or for the continuation thereof, shall discharge the party. [L. '54, p. 213, § 444; Cd. '81, § 676; 2 H. C., § 721.]

§ 1075. Restrictions upon Inquiry.—No court or judge shall inquire into the legality of any judgment or process whereby the party is in custody, or discharge him when the term of commitment has not expired, in either of the cases following:—

1. Upon any process issued on any final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction;

2. For any contempt of any court, officer or body having authority in the premises to commit; but an order of commitment, as for a contempt upon proceedings to enforce the remedy of a party, is not included in any of the foregoing specifications;

3. Upon a warrant issued from the superior court upon an indictment or information. [L. '54, p. 213, § 445; Cd. '81, § 677; L. '91, p. 82, § 1; 2 H. C., § 722.]

§ 1076. Admission to Bail Instead of Discharge.—No person shall be discharged from an order of commitment issued by any judicial or peace officer for want of bail, or in cases not bailable on account of any defect in the charge or process, or for alleged want of probable cause; but in all cases the court or judge shall summon the prosecuting witnesses, investigate the criminal charge, and discharge, admit to bail, or recommit the prisoner, as may be just and legal, and recognize witnesses when proper. [L. '54, p. 213, § 446; Cd. '81, § 678; 2 H. C., § 723.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 384; 43 Wash. 20.

§ 1077. Writ for Purpose of Bail.—The writ may be had for the purpose of admitting a prisoner to bail in civil and criminal actions. When any person has an interest in the detention, [and] the prisoner shall not be discharged until the person having such interest is notified. [L. '54, p. 214, § 447; Cd. '81, § 679; 2 H. C., § 724.]

Cited in 37 Wash. 260; 84 Wash. 63.

§ 1078. Compelling Attendance of Witnesses.—The court or judge shall have power to require and compel the attendance of witnesses, and to do all other acts necessary to determine the case. [L. '54, p. 214, § 448; Cd. '81, § 680; 2 H. C., § 725.]

§ 1079. Officer not Liable, When.—No sheriff or other officer shall be liable to a civil action for obeying any writ of habeas corpus, or order of discharge made thereon. [L. '54, p. 214, § 449; Cd. '81, § 681; 2 H. C., § 726.]

§ 1080. Warrant to Prevent Removal.—Whenever it shall appear by affidavit that anyone is illegally held in custody or restraint, and that there is good reason to believe that such person will be carried out of the jurisdiction of the court or judge before whom the application is made, or will suffer some irreparable injury before compliance with the writ can be enforced, such court or judge may cause a warrant to be issued reciting the facts, and directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to take the person thus held in custody or restraint, and forthwith bring him before the court or judge, to be dealt with according to the law. [L. '54, p. 214, § 450; Cd. '81, § 682; 2 H. C., § 727.]

§ 1081. What Warrant may Include.—The court or judge may also, if the same be deemed necessary, insert in the warrant a command for the apprehension of the person charged with causing the illegal restraint. [L. '54, p. 214, § 451; Cd. '81, § 683; 2 H. C., § 728.]

§ 1082. Warrant, How Executed.—The officer shall execute the writ by bringing the person therein named before the court or judge, and the like return of proceedings shall be required and had as in case of writs of habeas corpus. [L. '54, p. 214, § 452; Cd. '81, § 684; 2 H. C., § 729.]

§ 1083. Temporary Orders.—The court or judge may make any temporary orders in the cause or disposition of the party during the progress of the proceedings that justice may require. The custody of any party restrained may be changed from one person to another, by order of the court or judge. [L. '54, p. 214, § 453; Cd. '81, § 685; 2 H. C., § 730.]

§ 1084. Writ Issued on Sunday, When.—Any writ or process authorized by this chapter may be issued and served, in cases of emergency, on Sunday. [L. '54, p. 214, § 454; Cd. '81, § 686; 2 H. C., § 731.]

§ 1085. Writs—Issuance, Service and Return—Amendments.—All writs and other process authorized by this chapter shall be issued by the clerk of the court, and sealed with the seal of such court, and shall be served and returned forthwith, unless the court or judge shall specify a particular time for such return. And no writ or other process shall be disregarded for any defect therein, if enough is shown to notify the officer or person of the purport of the process. Amendments may be allowed and temporary commitments, when necessary. [L. '54, p. 214, § 455; Cd. '81, § 687; 2 H. C., § 732.]

CHAPTER V.

Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors.

§ 1086. Must be General—Effect of.—No general assignment of property by an insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, for the benefit of creditors, shall be valid unless it be made for the benefit of all his creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective claims; and after the payment of the costs and disbursements thereof, including the attorney fees allowed by law in case of judgment, out of the estate of the insolvent, such claim or claims shall be deemed as presented, and shall share pro rata with other claims as hereinafter provided. [Cf. L. '90, p. 83, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2741; L. '93, p. 247, § 1.]

§ 1087. Assent Presumed.—In case of an assignment for the benefit of all the creditors of the assignor, the assent of the creditors shall be presumed. [L. '90, p. 83, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2742.]

§ 1088. How Made, Procedure Thereafter.—The debtor shall annex to such assignment an inventory, under oath, of all his estate, real and personal, according to the best of his knowledge, and also a list of his creditors, with their postoffice address [es], and a list of the amount of their respective demands, but such inventory shall not be conclusive as to the amount of the debtor's estate. Every assignment shall be in writing, and duly acknowledged, in the same manner as conveyances of real estate, and recorded in the record of deeds of the county where the person making the same resides, or where the business in respect to which the same is made has been carried on. Upon the application of two or more creditors of said debtor therefor, by petition to the judge of the superior court of the county in which such assignment is or should be recorded, at any time, within thirty days from the making or recording of such assignment, it shall be the duty of said superior judge to direct the clerk of said superior court to order a meeting of the creditors of said debtor to choose an assignee of the estate of said debtor in lieu of the assignee named by the debtor in his assignment; and thereupon the clerk of said court shall forthwith give notice to all the creditors of said debtor to meet at his office at a time stated, not to exceed fifteen days from the date of such notice, to select one or more assignees in the place of the assignee named by the debtor in his assignment. Such creditors may appear in person or by proxy, and a majority in number and value of said creditors attending such meeting shall select one or more assignees; and in the event that no one shall receive a majority vote of said creditors, who represent at least one-half in amount of all claims represented at such meeting, (then, and in that event, said clerk shall certify that fact to the judge of the superior court aforesaid, and thereupon said superior judge shall select and appoint an assignee. When such assignee shall have been selected by such creditors, or appointed by the superior judge, as herein provided, then the assignee named in the debtor's assignment shall forthwith make to the assignee elected by the creditors, or appointed by the superior judge, an assignment and conveyance of all the estate, real and personal, that has been assigned or conveyed to him by said debtor; and such assignee so elected by the creditors or appointed by the superior judge, upon giving the bond required of an assignee by this chapter, shall possess all the powers and be subject to all the duties imposed by this chapter, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as though named in the debtor's assignment. From the time of the pending of an application to elect an assignee by the creditors, and until the time shall be terminated by an election or appointment as herein provided, no property of the debtor, except perishable property, shall be sold or disposed of by any assignee; but the same shall be safely and securely kept until the election or appointment of an assignee, as herein provided, No creditor shall be entitled to vote at any such meeting called for the purpose of electing an assignee, until he shall have presented to the clerk of the superior court, who shall preside at such meeting, a verified statement of his claim against the debtor. [L. '90, p. 83, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2743.]

§ 1089. Inventory and Valuation—Bond.—The assignee shall also forthwith file with the clerk of the superior court of the county where such assignment will be recorded a true and full inventory and valuation of said estate, under oath, as far as the same has come to his knowledge, and shall then and there enter into bonds to the state of Washington, for the use of the creditors, in double the amount of the inventory and valuation, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by said clerk, for the faithful performance of said trust; and the assignee may thereupon proceed to perform any duties necessary to carry into effect the intention of said assignment. [L. '90, p. 85, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2744.]

§ 1091. List of Creditors.—At the expiration of three months from the time of first publishing notice, the assignee shall report and file with the clerk of the court a true and full list, under oath, of all such creditors of the assignor as shall have claims to be such, with a statement of their claims, and also an affidavit of publication of notice, and a list of the creditors, with their places of residence, to whom notice has been sent by mail, and the date of mailing, duly verified. [L. '90, p. 85, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2746.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 338; 10 Wash. 315.

Section altered to conform to present organization of courts.

§ 1093. Dividends, Accounts, Compensation.—If no exception be made to the claim of any creditor, or if the same has been adjudicated, the court shall order the assignee to make from time to time fair and equal dividends among the creditors of the assets in his hands, in proportion to their claims, and as soon as may be to render a final account of said trust to said court, which may allow such commissions to said assignee in the final settlement as may be considered right and just, not exceeding, however, the fees and compensation allowed by law to administrations and executors. [Cf. L. '90, p. 86, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2748; L. '93, p. 39, § 1.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 338, 348.

§ 1094. Assignee Subject to Control of Court.—The assignee shall at all times be subject to the order of the court or judge and the said court or judge may, by citation and attachment, compel the assignee, from time to time, to file reports of his proceedings, and of the situation and condition of the trust, and to proceed in the faithful execution of the duties required by this chapter. [L. '90, p. 86, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2749.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 339.

§ 1095. Not Void, When—Citation to Debtor.—No assignment shall be declared fraudulent or void for want of any list or inventory as provided in this chapter. The court or judge may, upon application of the assignee, or any creditor, compel the appearance in person of the debtor before such court or judge forthwith, to answer under oath such matters as may then and there be inquired of him; and such debtor may then and there be fully examined under oath as to the amount and situation of his estate, and the names of the creditors, and amounts due to each, with their places of residence, and the court may compel the delivery to the assignee of any property or estate embraced in the assignment. [L. '90, p. 86, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2750.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 671; 39 Wash. 341.

§ 1096. Additional Inventory.—The assignee shall, from time to time, file with the clerk of the court an inventory and valuation of any additional property which may come into his hands, under such assignment, after the filing of the first inventory, and the clerk may thereupon require him to give additional security. [L. '90, p. 86, § 11; 1 H. C., § 2751.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 341.

§ 1097. Claims not Due, Limitation.—Any creditor may claim debts to become due, as well as debts due, but on debts not due, a reasonable abatement shall be made when the same are not drawing interest; and all creditors who shall not exhibit their claims within the term of three months from the publication of notice as aforesaid, shall not participate in the dividends until after payment in full of all claims presented within said term and allowed by the court. [L. '90, p. 86, § 12; 1 H. C., § 2752.]

§ 1098. Authority of Assignee—Sales.—Any assignee as aforesaid shall have as full power and authority to dispose of all estate, real and personal, assigned, as the debtor had at the time of the assignment, and to sue for and recover, in the name of such assignee, everything belonging or appertaining to said estate, and generally to do whatever the debtor might have done in the premises; but no sale of real estate belonging to said trust shall be made without notice published, as in case of sale of real estate on execution, unless the court shall order and direct otherwise. [L. '90, p. 87, § 13; 1 H. C., § 2753.]

§ 1099. Proceedings upon Death or Failure of Assignee to Act.—In case any assignee shall die before closing of his trust, or in case any assignee shall fail or neglect, for the period of thirty days after the making of any assignment, to file an inventory and valuation and give bonds as required by this chapter, the superior court or judge thereof of the county where such assignment may be recorded, on the application of any person interested, shall appoint some person to execute the trust embraced in such assignment; and such person, on giving the bond with sureties, as required of the assignee, shall possess all the power conferred on such assignee, and shall be subject to all the duties hereby imposed as fully as though named in the assignment; and in case any surety shall be discovered insufficient; or, on complaint before the court or judge, it should be made to appear that any assignee is guilty of wasting or misapplying the trust estate, said court or judge may direct and require additional security, and may remove such assignee, and may appoint others instead; and such person so appointed, on giving bond, shall have full power to execute such duties, and to demand and sue for all estate in the hands of the person removed, and to demand and recover the amount and value of all moneys and property or estate so wasted and misapplied which he may neglect or refuse to make satisfaction for from such person and his sureties. [L. '90, p. 87, § 14; 1 H. C., § 2754.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 614; 54 Wash. 526.

§ 1100. Discharge of Assignor, When.—Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or judge thereof when the assignment is pending upon the final reports of the assignee chosen by the creditors or otherwise that the assignor has been guilty of no fraud in making an assignment or concealment or diversion of the property or any part thereof, in order to keep the same beyond the reach of creditors, and has acted justly and fairly in all respects; that the estate has been made to realize the fullest amount possible and that the expenses of the assignment have been paid. The judge of the court having jurisdiction of the matter shall, upon the allowance of the final account of the assignee, make an order discharging the assignor or assignors as the case may be from any further liability on account of any indebtedness existing prior to the making of such assignment, and thereafter such assignor shall be freed from any liability on account of any unsatisfied portion of the indebtedness existing prior to the making of the assignment. [Cf. L. '90, p. 88, § 15; 1 H. C., § 2755; L. '95, p. 378, § 1.]

§ 1101. Sheriff not to be Receiver or Assignee.—It shall be unlawful for the judge of any court of record or the creditors of an insolvent debtor to appoint the sheriff of the county receiver or assignee in any case of insolvency or assignment. [L. '93, p. 462, § 1.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 77.

§ 1102. Right of Exemption.—Hereafter any person making a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, under any statute of this state, shall have the right to claim, and have set aside to him, as exempt from the operation of such assignment, all real and personal property which is, at the time of such assignment, exempt from levy by execution or attachment, under the laws of this state. [L. '97, p. 6, § 1.]

Cited in 45 Wash. 618.

§ 1103. How Claimed—Objections.—Such assignor shall, if he desires to claim the benefit of the last preceding section, state in such assignment, or in the inventory annexed thereto, what property he claims as exempt, giving a description thereof sufficient for identification. Any creditor of such assignor who believes any of the property so claimed as exempt is not so in fact shall have the right to make objection to such exemption claim at any time prior to the expiration of the time for presentment of claims against such assignor to his assignee. Such objection shall be made by delivering to the assignor and the assignee, and filing with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the assignment, a notice in writing, clearly pointing out the part or parts of such exemption claim objected to, and the ground of such objection. When the time above provided for the service and filing of objections has expired, the assignor, upon application to said court, shall have a right to the summary hearing of the said objections, and at such hearing the court shall determine and adjudge to the assignor his lawful exemptions. If any part of the exemptions claimed by the assignor shall be denied, the court shall direct the assignee to pay, out of the funds in his hands, the costs of the hearing, if any, as a part of the expenses of the assignment proceedings. The court may, at its discretion, if it find any claim made for exemption to be fraudulent and made in bad faith, deny such exemption. If no objection to the said exemption claim is served and filed prior to the expiration of the time for presentment of claims to the assignee, the assignor shall be entitled as of course to an order setting aside to him the exemptions claimed by him as aforesaid, and it shall be the duty of the assignee forthwith to deliver the same to him. CHAPTER I.

The Foreclosure of Chattel Mortgages.

§ 1104. Chattel Mortgage—How Foreclosed.—Any mortgage of personal property, when the debt to secure which the mortgage was given is due, may be foreclosed by notice and sale as herein provided; or it may be foreclosed by action in the superior court having jurisdiction in the county in which the property is situated. [Cf. L. '75, p. 46, § 18; L. '79, p. 105, § 6; Cd. '81, § 1991; 1 H. C., § 1650.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 109; 27 Wash. 286; 33 Wash. 640; 48 Wash. 562; 50 Wash. 122; 78 Wash. 137; 87 Wash. 271.

§ 1105. Notice, Contents of.—The notice must contain a full description of the property mortgaged, together with time and place of sale, also a statement of the amount due, and must be signed by the mortgagee or his attorney. [L. '75, p. 46, § 19; L. '79, p. 106, § 7; Cd. '81, § 1992; 1 H. C., § 1651.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 475; 26 Wash. 179; 50 Wash. 120, 122; 87 Wash. 271.

§ 1106. Service of Notice, How Made.—Such notice shall be placed in the hands of the sheriff or other proper officer, and shall be personally served in the same manner as is provided by law for the service of a summons: Provided, that if the mortgagor cannot be found in the county where the mortgage is being foreclosed, it shall [not] be necessary to advertise the notice or affidavit in a newspaper; but the general publication directed in the next section shall be sufficient service upon all the parties interested, and such notice shall be sufficient authority for the officer to take such property into his immediate possession. [Cf. L. '75, p. 47, §§ 20, 21; L. '79, p. 106, § 8; Cd. '81, § 1993; 1 H. C., § 1652.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 475; 26 Wash. 179; 50 Wash. 122; 87 Wash. 272, 273.

§ 1107. Publication — Sale, How Conducted.—After notice has been served upon the mortgagor, it must be published in the same manner and for the same length of time as required in cases of the sale of like property on execution, and the sale shall be conducted in the same manner. [Cf. L. '75, p. 47, § 22; L. '79, p. 106, § 9; Cd. '81, § 1994; 1 H. C., § 1653.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 273.

§ 1108. Purchaser's Title.—The purchaser shall take all interest which the mortgagor had in the said mortgaged property upon which the said mortgage operated. [Cf. L. '75, p. 47, § 23; L. '79, p. 106, § 10; Cd. '81, § 1995; 1 H. C., § 1654.]

§ 1109. Officer's Bill of Sale, Effect of.—The officer conducting the sale shall execute to the purchaser a bill of sale of the property, which bill of sale shall be effectual to carry the whole title and interest purchased, and if any balance of the purchase price remain, it shall be disposed of in the same manner as surplus proceeds of sales are on execution. [Cf. L. '75, p. 47, § 24; L. '79, p. 106, § 11; Cd. '81, § 1996; 1 H. C., § 1665.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 137; 87 Wash. 271.

Cited in 4 Wash. 259; 13 Wash. 257; 33 Wash. 640, 643; 50 Wash. 121, 122; 78 Wash. 137; 87 Wash. 271.

§ 1111. Action Before Maturity of Debt, When.—Where the debt is not due for which the mortgage is given, and the mortgagee has reasonable cause to believe that the mortgage property will be destroyed, lost, or removed, he shall have the right to an immediate action in the superior court of the county having jurisdiction where the property is situated, for the recovery of his debt, and the court may make any order it may deem fit, in order to secure said property so as to make the same available for the satisfaction of said debt. [L. '79, p. 106, § 13; Cd. '81, § 1998; 1 H. C., § 1657.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 184, 186; 69 Wash. 153; 83 Wash. 356.

§ 1112. Mortgagee may Take Possession, When—Sale.—A mortgage[e] of personal property, where a debt for the security of which the mortgage has been given has become due, or if the debt is not yet due, and the mortgagee has reasonable ground to believe that his debt is insecure, and that by allowing the property longer to remain in the hands of the mortgagor he would be in danger of losing his debt or security, may have the property taken from the possession of the mortgagor, and sold in the manner provided in this chapter. [L. '79, p. 105, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1989; 1 H. C., § 1658.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 184, 186; 69 Wash. 153; 87 Wash. 271.

§ 1113. Foreclosure of Chattel Mortgages—Application of Chapter II.—The provisions contained in chapter II of this title, so far as the same shall be applicable, shall govern in actions for the foreclosure of chattel mortgages or bills of sale creating liens on personal property. [Cf. L. '69, p. 147, § 572; Cd. '81, § 618; 2 H. C., § 636.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 546; 4 Wash. 249; 47 Wash. 163.

§ 1114. Remedies of Mortgagee—Decree—Sale—Deficiency.—The mortgagee or holder of the lien may proceed upon his mortgage or lien, [or] if there be a separate obligation in writing to pay the same secured by said mortgage or lien, he may bring suit upon such separate promise. When he proceeds on the mortgage, if there be a specific agreement therein contained for the payment of a certain sum, or there is a separate obligation for the said sum, in addition to a decree of sale of mortgaged property, judgment shall be rendered for the amount due upon said mortgage or other instrument, the payment of which is thereby secured. The decree shall direct the sale of the mortgaged property, and if the proceeds of said sale be insufficient under the execution, the sheriff is authorized to levy upon and sell other property of the mortgage debtor, not exempt from execution, for the sum remaining unsatisfied. [Cf. L. '69, p. 147, § 572; Cd. '81, § 619; 2 H. C., § 637.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 546; 12 Wash. 87; 54 Wash. 230, 235.

§ 1115. Sale of Mortgagor's Interest Under Process—Notice.—The interest of the mortgagor, subject, however, to the lien of the mortgagee, may be sold under any process of law issuing out of any superior or justice of the peace court in this state: Provided, however, that if the party who has said mortgage resides in this state, or has an agent herein, and the same is known to the officer executing such process, he shall serve upon him or his agent personally, or by mailing to him or to his agent, if their postoffice is known, a notification of the intended sale at the time such mortgaged property is seized under said process, or within five days thereafter. Said property shall not be sold within less than thirty days after its seizure, and the officer executing such process must post in three public places, near the place where the said property is to be sold, a notice of the time and place of such sale, at the time he seizes said property under said process. [L. '79, p. 105, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1990; 1 H. C., § 1659.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 547; 12 Wash. 515; 13 Wash. 257.

CHAPTER II.

Foreclosure of Mortgages on Real Estate.

§ 1116. Foreclosure—Venue.—When default is made in the performance of any condition contained in a mortgage, the mortgagee or his assigns may proceed in the superior court of the county where the land, or some part thereof. lies, to foreclose the equity of redemption contained in the mortgage. [L. '54, p. 207, § 408; Cd. '81, § 609; 2 H. C., § 625.]

§ 1117. Remedy Confined to Mortgaged Property, When.—When there is no express agreement in the mortgage, nor any separate instrument given for the payment of the sum secured thereby, the remedy of the mortgagee shall be confined to the property mortgaged. [L. '54, p. 207, § 409; Cd. '81, § 610; 2 H. C., § 626.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 283.

§ 1118. Judgment—Order of Sale—Satisfaction of.—In rendering judgment of foreclosure, the court shall order the mortgaged premises, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold to satisfy the mortgage and costs of the action. The payment of the mortgage debt, with interest and costs, at any time before sale, shall satisfy the judgment. [L. '54, p. 207, § 410; Cd. '81, § 611; 2 H. C., § 627.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 616, 687.

§ 1119. Judgment for Deficiency, When.—When there is an express agreement for the payment of the sum of money secured contained in the mortgage or any separate instrument, the court shall direct in the decree of foreclosure [or order of sale] that the balance due on the mortgage, and costs, which may remain unsatisfied after the sale of the mortgaged premises, shall be satisfied from any property of the mortgage debtor. [L. '54, p. 208, § 211; Cd. '81, § 612; 2 H. C., § 628.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 110, 616; 12 Wash. 106; 54 Wash. 230, 234; 63 Wash. 290.

§ 1120. Judgments for Deficiency, Form of.—Judgments over for any deficiency remaining unsatisfied after application of the proceeds of sale of mortgaged property, either real or personal, shall be similar in all respects to other judgments for the recovery of money, and may be made a lien upon the property of a judgment debtor, as other judgments, and the collections thereof enforced in the same manner. [Cf. L. '54, p. 208, § 411; L. '69, p. 148, § 575; Cd. '81, § 622; 2 H. C., § 629.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 616.

§ 1121. Execution to Enforce Decree.—A decree of foreclosure of mortgage or other lien may be enforced by execution as an ordinary judgment or decree for the payment of money. The execution shall contain a description of the property described in the decree. The sheriff shall indorse upon the execution the time when he receives it, and he shall thereupon forthwith proceed to sell such property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment, interest and costs upon giving the notice prescribed in section 582. [L. '99, p. 85, § 1; L. '54, p. 208, § 412; L. '69, p. 146, § 567; Cd. '81, § 613; 2 H. C., § 630.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 688; 12 Wash. 106; 17 Wash. 622, 643; 18 Wash. 560; 46 Wash. 405; 63 Wash. 290.

§ 1123. Levy upon and Sale of Other Property.—In all actions of foreclosure where there is a decree for the sale of the mortgaged premises or property, and a judgment over for any deficiency remaining unsatisfied after applying the proceeds of the sale of mortgaged property, further levy and sales upon other property of the judgment debtor may be made under the same execution. [Cf. L. '69, p. 148, § 573; L. '73, p. 151, § 571; L. '77, p. 129, § 623; Cd. '81, § 620 in part, last part in following section.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 290.

§ 1124. Publication of Notice.—When sales of other property not embraced in the mortgage or decree of sale are made under the execution to satisfy any deficiency remaining due upon judgment, two weeks' publication of notice of such sale shall be sufficient. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper printed in the county where the property is situated, and if there be no newspaper published therein, then in the most convenient newspaper having a circulation in said county. [Cf. L. '69, p. 148, § 574; Cd. '81, § 621; 2 H. C., § 631.]

§ 1125. Concurrent Actions not Maintainable.—The plaintiff shall not proceed to foreclose his mortgage while he is prosecuting any other action for the same debt or matter which is secured by the mortgage, or while he is seeking to obtain execution of any judgment in such other action; nor shall he prosecute any other action for the same matter while he is foreclosing his mortgage or prosecuting a judgment of foreclosure. [L. '54, p. 208, § 413; Cd. '81, § 614; 2 H. C., § 632.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 203; 32 Wash. 205; 47 Wash. 163–165; 78 Wash. 487.

§ 1126. Installments not Due—Proceedings.—Whenever a complaint is filed for the foreclosure of a mortgage upon which there shall be due any interest or installment of the principal, and there are other installments not due, if the defendant pay into the court the principal and interest due, with costs, at any time before the final judgment, proceedings thereon shall be stayed, subject to be enforced upon a subsequent default in the payment of any installment of the principal or interest thereafter becoming due. In the final judgment, the court shall direct at what time and upon what default any subsequent execution shall issue. [Cf. L. '54, p. 208, § 414; L. '69, p. 147, § 569; Cd. '81, § 615; 2 H. C., § 633.]

§ 1127. Sale in Parcels—Order.—In such cases, after final judgment, the court shall ascertain whether the property can be sold in parcels, and if it can be done without injury to the interests of the parties, the court shall direct so much only of the premises to be sold as will be sufficient to pay the amount then due on the mortgage, with costs, and the judgment shall remain and be enforced upon any subsequent default, unless the amount due shall be paid before execution of the judgment is perfected. [L. '54, p. 208, § 415; Cd. '81, § 616; 2 H. C., § 634.]

§ 1128. Sale of Whole—Application of Proceeds.—If the mortgaged premises cannot be sold in parcels, the court shall order the whole to be sold, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied first to the payment of the principal due, interest, and costs, and then to the residue secured by the mortgage and not due; and if the residue do not bear interest, a deduction shall be made therefrom by discounting the legal interest; and in all cases where the proceeds of the sale shall be more than sufficient to pay the amount due and costs, the surplus shall be paid to the mortgage debtor, his heirs and assigns. [L. '54, p. 208, § 416; Cd. '81, § 617; 2 H. C., § 635.]

Cited in 62 Wash. 419, 420; 67 Wash. 581; 82 Wash. 63, 64.

CHAPTER III.

Liens of Mechanics and Materialmen.

§ 1129. Who may have Lien.—Every person performing labor upon or furnishing material to be used in the construction, alteration or repair of any mining claim, building, wharf, bridge, ditch, dike, flume, tunnel, well, fence, machinery, railroad, street railway, wagon road, aqueduct to create hydraulic power or any other structure or who performs labor in any mine or mining claim or stone quarry, has a lien upon the same for the labor performed or material furnished by each, respectively, whether performed or furnished at the instance of the owner of the property subject to the lien or his agent; and every contractor, subcontractor, architect, builder or person having charge, of the construction, alteration or repair of any property subject to the lien as aforesaid, shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of the establishment of the lien created by this chapter: Provided, that whenever any railroad company shall contract with any person for the construction of its road, or any part thereof, such railroad company shall take from the person with whom such contract is made a good and sufficient bond, conditioned that such person shall pay all laborers, mechanics, and materialmen, and persons who supply such contractors with provisions, all just dues to such persons or to any person to whom any part of such work is given, incurred in carrying on such work, which bond shall be filed by such railroad company in the office of the county auditor in each county in which any part of such work is situated. And if any such railroad company shall fail to take such bond, such railroad company shall be liable to the persons herein mentioned to the full extent of all such debts so contracted by such contractor. [L. '93, p. 32, § 1; L. '05, p. 229, § 1.]

§ 1134. Requisites of Claim, Form, Time of Filing.—No lien created by this chapter shall exist, and no action to enforce the same shall be maintained, unless within ninety days from the date of the cessation of the performance of such labor or of the furnishing of such materials, a claim for such lien shall be filed for record as hereinafter provided, in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the property, or some part thereof to be affected thereby, is situated. Such claim shall state, as nearly as may be, the time of the commencement and cessation of performing the labor, or furnishing the material, the name of the person who performed the labor, or furnished the material, the name of the person by whom the laborer was employed (if known) or to whom the material was furnished, a description of the property to be charged with the lien sufficient for identification, the name of the owner, or reputed owner if known, and if not known, that fact shall be mentioned, the amount for which the lien is claimed, and shall be signed by the claimant, or by some person in his behalf, and be verified by the oath of the claimant, or some person in his behalf, to the effect that the affiant believes the claim to be just; in case the claim shall have been assigned the name of the assignee shall be stated; and such claim of lien may be amended in case of action brought to foreclose the same, by order of the court, as pleadings may be, in so far as the interests of third parties shall not be affected by such amendment. A claim for lien substantially in the following form shall be sufficient:—

——, claimant, vs. ——

Notice is hereby given that on the —— day (date of commencement of performing labor or furnishing material) —— at the request of —— commenced to perform labor (or to furnish material to be used) upon —— (here describe property subject to the lien) of which property the owner, or reputed owner, is —— (or if the owner or reputed owner is not known, insert the word "unknown"), the performance of which labor (or the furnishing of which material) ceased on the —— day of ——; that said labor performed (or material furnished) was of the value of —— dollars, for which labor (or material) the undersigned claims a lien upon the property herein described for the sum of —— dollars. (In case the claim has been assigned, add the words "and —— is assignee of said claim," or claims, if several are united.)

—— —— Claimant.

State of Washington,
County of ——, } ss.

——, being sworn, says: I am the claimant (or attorney of the claimant) above named; I have heard the foregoing claim read and know the contents thereof, and believe the same to be just.

—— ——

Subscribed and sworn to before me this —— day of ——.

Any number of claimants may join in the same claim for the purpose of filing the same and enforcing their liens, but in such case the amount claimed by each original lienor, respectively, shall be stated: Provided, it shall not be necessary to insert in the notice of claim of lien provided for by this chapter any itemized statement or bill of particulars of such claim. § 1135. Recording Claim.—The county auditor must record the claims mentioned in this chapter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which record must be indexed as deeds and other conveyances are required by law to be indexed. [L. '93, p. 35, § 6.]

§ 1136. Assignment of Lien.—Any lien or right of lien created by law and the rights of action to recover therefor, shall be assignable so as to vest in the assignee all rights and remedies of the assignor, subject to all defenses thereto that might be made if such assignment had not been made. [L. '93, p. 35, § 7.]

§ 1137. Segregation of Claims.—In every case in which one claim is filed against two or more separate pieces of property owned by the same person, or owned by two or more persons who jointly contracted for the labor or material for which the lien is claimed, the person filing such claim must designate in the claim the amount due him on each piece of property, otherwise the lien of such claim is postponed to other liens. The lien of such claim does not extend beyond the amount designated as against other creditors having liens upon either of such pieces of property. [L. '93, p. 35, § 8.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 343; 33 Wash. 696.

§ 1138. Limitations of Actions.—No lien created by this chapter binds the property subject to the lien for a longer period than eight calendar months after the claim has been filed unless an action be commenced in the proper court within that time to enforce such lien; or, if credit be given, then eight calendar months after the expiration of such credit; and in case such action be not prosecuted to judgment within two years after the commencement thereof, the court, in its discretion, may dismiss the same for want of prosecution, and the dismissal of such action, or a judgment rendered therein, that no lien exists, shall constitute a cancellation of the lien. [L. '93, p. 35, § 9.]

§ 1139. Extent of Contractor's Liability—Rights of Owner.—The contractor shall be entitled to recover upon the claim filed by him only such amount as may be due him according to the terms of his contract, after deducting all claims of other parties for labor performed and materials furnished; and in all cases where a claim shall be filed under this chapter for labor performed or materials furnished to any contractor, he shall defend any action brought thereupon at his own expense; and during the pendency of such action, the owner may withhold from the contractor the amount of money for which the claim is filed; and in case of judgment against the owner or his property, upon the lien, the owner shall be entitled to deduct from any amount due or to become due by him to the contractor, the amount of the judgment and costs, and if the amount of such judgment and costs shall exceed the amount due by him to the contractor or if the owner shall have settled with the contractors in full, he shall be entitled to recover back from the contractor the amount, including costs for which the lien is established in excess of any sum that may remain due from him to the contractor. [L. '93, p. 36, § 10.]

Cited in 52 Wash. 562; 77 Wash. 306, 309.

§ 1140. Foreclosure—Parties.—The liens provided by this chapter, for which claims have been filed, may be foreclosed and enforced by a civil action in the court having jurisdiction; in any action brought to foreclose a lien, all persons who, prior to the commencement of such action, have legally filed claims or liens against the same property, or any part thereof shall be joined as parties, either plaintiff or defendant; and no person shall begin an action to foreclose a lien upon any property while a prior action begun to foreclose another lien on the same property is pending, but if not made a party plaintiff or defendant to such prior action, he may apply to the court to be joined as a party thereto, and his lien may be foreclosed in such action; and no action to foreclose a lien shall be dismissed at the instance of a plaintiff therein to the prejudice of another party to the suit who claims a lien. [L. '93, p. 36, § 11.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 147; 24 Wash. 30; 27 Wash. 333; 37 Wash. 599; 65 Wash. 401.

§ 1141. Rank of Liens—Attorney's Fees.—In every case in which different liens are claimed against the same property, the court, in the judgment, must declare the rank of such lien or class of liens, which shall be in the following order:—

1. All persons performing labor;
2. All persons furnishing material;
3. The subcontractors;
4. The original contractor.

And the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied to each lien or class of liens in the order of its rank; and personal judgment may be rendered in an action brought to foreclose a lien, against any party personally liable for any debt for which the lien is claimed, and if the lien be established, the judgment shall provide for the enforcement thereof upon the property liable as in case of foreclosure of mortgages; and the amount realized by such enforcement of the lien shall be credited upon the proper personal judgment, and the deficiency, if any remaining unsatisfied, shall stand as a personal judgment, and may be collected by execution against the party liable therefor. The court may allow, as part of the costs of the action, the moneys paid for filing or recording the claim, and a reasonable attorney's fee in the superior and supreme courts. [L. '93, p. 37, § 12.]

§ 1142. Personal Action.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to impair or affect the right of any person to whom any debt may be due for labor performed or material furnished to maintain a personal action to recover such debt against the person liable therefor. [L. '93, p. 37, § 13.]

§ 1143. Lien not Discharged by Taking Note, When.—The taking of a promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness for any labor performed or material furnished for which lien is created by law, shall not discharge the lien therefor, unless expressly received as payment and so specified therein. [L. '93, p. 37, § 14.]

§ 1144. Material Exempt from Attachment, etc., When.—Whenever material shall have been furnished for use in the construction, alteration or repair of property subject to a lien created by this chapter, such material shall not be subject to attachment, execution, or other legal process, to enforce any debt due by the purchaser of such material, except a debt due for the purchase money thereof, so long as in good faith the said material is about to be applied in the construction, alteration or repair of such property. [L. '93, p. 37, § 15.]

§ 1145. Community Interest, How Subjected.—The claim of lien, when filed as required by this chapter, shall be notice to the husband or wife of the person who appears of record to be the owner of the property sought to be charged with the lien, and shall subject all the community interest of both husband and wife to said lien. [L. '93, p. 38, § 16.]

§ 1146. When Land not Subject to Lien — Power of Court.—When, for any reason the title or interest in the land, upon which the property subject to the lien is situated cannot be subjected to the lien, the court may order the sale and removal from the land of the property subject to the lien to satisfy the lien. [L. '93, p. 38, § 17.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 605.

§ 1147. Liberal Construction.—The provisions of law relating to liens created by this chapter, and all proceedings thereunder, shall be liberally construed with a view to effect their objects. [L. '93, p. 38, § 18.]

CHAPTER IV.

Liens of Employees.

§ 1149. Laborer's Lien on Property, Franchises, etc.—Every person performing labor for any person, company or corporation, in the operation of any railway, canal or transportation company, or any water, mining or manufacturing company, sawmill, lumber or timber company, shall have a prior lien on the franchise, earnings, and on all the real and personal property of said person, company or corporation, which is used in the operation of its business, to the extent of the moneys due him from such person, company or corporation, operating said franchise or business, for labor performed within six months next preceding the filing of his claim therefor, as hereinafter provided; and no mortgage, deed of trust or conveyance shall defeat or take precedence over said lien. [L. '97, p. 55, § 1.]

§ 1150. Notice of Lien.—No person shall be entitled to the lien given by the preceding section, unless he shall, within ninety days after he has ceased to perform labor for such person, company or corporation, filed for record with the county auditor of the county in which said labor was performed, or in which is located the principal office of such person, company or corporation in this state, a notice of claim, containing a statement of his demand, after deducting all just credits and offsets, the name of the person, company or corporation, and the name of the person or persons employing claimant, if known, with the statement of the terms and conditions of his contract, if any, and the time he commenced the employment, and the date of his last service, and shall serve a copy thereof on said person, company or corporation within thirty days after the same is so filed for record. [L. '97, p. 56, § 2.]

Cited in 45 Wash. 650; 71 Wash. 227, 229, 230; 84 Wash. 70, 230, 232.

§ 1151. Service of Notice.—Service of notice, as herein required, may be made in the same manner as summons in civil actions. [L. '97, p. 56, § 3.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 229; 84 Wash. 230, 232.

§ 1152. Foreclosure of Lien.—Any such lien may be enforced within the same time and in the same manner as mechanics' liens are foreclosed. [L. '97, p. 56, § 4.]

Cited in 84 Wash. 230, 232.

§ 1153. How Claims are to be Paid by Receiver or Assignee.—Whenever a receiver or assignee is appointed for any person, company or corporation, the court shall require such receiver or assignee to pay all claims for which a lien could be filed under this chapter, before the payment of any other debts or claims, other than operating expenses. [L. '97, p. 56, § 5.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 229; 84 Wash. 230, 232.

CHAPTER V.

Liens on Chattels.

§ 1154. Lien on Chattels for Labor and Material.—Every person, firm or corporation who has expended labor, skill or material on any chattel, at the request of its owner, or authorized agent of the owner, shall have a lien upon such chattels for the contract price for such expenditure, or in the absence of such contract price, for the reasonable worth of such expenditure, for a period of one year from and after such expenditure, notwithstanding the fact that such chattel be surrendered to the owner thereof: Provided, however, that no such lien shall continue after the delivery of such chattel to its owner as against the rights of third persons who may have acquired an interest in, or the title to, such chattel in good faith, for value, and without actual knowledge of the lien. [L. '05, p. 137, § 1; L. '09, p. 626, § 1.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 238.

§ 1155. Notice of Lien on Chattel.—In order to make such lien effectual the lien claimant shall within ninety days from the date of delivery of such chattel to the owner file in the office of the auditor of the county in which such chattel is kept a lien notice, which notice shall state the name of the claimant, the name of the owner, a description of the chattel upon which the claimant has expended labor, skill or material, the amount for which a lien is claimed, and the date upon which such expenditure was completed, which notice shall be signed by the claimant, or someone in his behalf, and may be in substantially the following form:

CHATTEL LIEN NOTICE.

—— Claimant, against —— Owner.

Notice is hereby given that —— has and claims a lien upon (here insert description of chattel), owned by —— for the sum of —— dollars, for and on account of labor, skill and material expended upon said —— which was completed upon the —— day of ——. 19—.

—— ——,
Claimant.

Cited in 55 Wash. 150; 57 Wash. 148; 59 Wash. 261.

§ 1156. Ownership.—Every person who is in possession of a chattel, under an agreement for the purchase thereof, whether the title thereto be in him, or his vendor, shall, for the purposes of this act, be deemed the owner thereof, and the lien of a person expending material, labor or skill thereon shall be superior to and preferred to the rights of the person holding the title thereto, or any lien thereon antedating the time of expenditure of the labor, skill or material thereon by a lien claimant, to the extent that such expenditure has enhanced the value of such chattel. [L. '05, p. 138, § 3.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 238, 239.

§ 1157. Enforcement of Lien.—The lien herein provided for may be enforced against the owner of and all persons having an interest in any such chattel by notice and sale in the same manner that a chattel mortgage is foreclosed, or by decree of any court in this state, exercising original equity jurisdiction in the county wherein such chattel may be, or in action commenced within nine months after the filing of such lien notice and if no such action be commenced within such time such lien shall cease. [L. '05, p. 138, § 4.]

§ 1158. Filing of Notice.—Upon presentation of such lien notice to the auditor of any county, and the payment to him of fifteen cents, he shall file the same, and indorse thereon the time of the reception, the number thereof, and shall enter the same in a suitable book or file (but need not record the same). Such book or file shall have herewith an alphabetic index, in which the county auditor shall index such notice by noting the name of the owner, name of lien claimant, description of property, date of lien (which shall be the date upon which such expenditure of labor, skill or material was completed), date of filing and when released, the date of release. [L. '05, p. 138, § 5.]

CHAPTER VI.

Security for Labor, etc., on Public Works.

§ 1159. Contractor's Bond—Filing.—Whenever any board, council, commission, trustees or body acting for the state or any county or municipality or any public body shall contract with any person or corporation to do any work for the state, county or municipality, or other public body, city, town or district, such board, council, commission, trustees or body shall require the person or persons with whom such contract is made to make, execute and deliver to such board, council, commission, trustees or body a good and sufficient bond, with two or more sureties, or with a surety company as surety, conditioned that such person or persons shall faithfully perform all the provisions of such contract and pay all laborers, mechanics and subcontractors and materialmen, and all persons who shall supply such person or persons, or subcontractors, with provisions and supplies for the carrying on of such work, which bond shall be filed with the county auditor of the county where such work is performed or improvement made, except in cases of cities and towns, in which cases such bond shall be filed with the clerk or comptroller thereof, and any person or persons performing such services or furnishing material to any subcontractor shall have the same right under the provisions of such bond as if such work, services or material was furnished to the original contractor; Provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to any money loaned or advanced to any such contractor, subcontractor or other person in the performance of any such work. [L. '15, p. 61, § 1. Cf., L. '09, p 716, § 1; L. '88, p. 15, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2415; L. '97, p. 57, § 1.]

§ 1159–1. Notice to Contractor—Condition Precedent to Action.—Every person, firm or corporation furnishing materials, supplies or provisions to be used in the construction, performance, carrying on, prosecution or doing of any work for the state, or any county, city, town, district, municipality or other public body, shall, not later than ten days after the date of the first delivery of such materials, supplies or provisions to any subcontractor or agent of any person, firm or corporation having a subcontract for the construction, performance, carrying on, prosecution or doing of such work, deliver or mail to the contractor a notice in writing stating in substance and effect that such person, firm or corporation has commenced to deliver materials, supplies or provisions for use thereon, with the name of the subcontractor or agent ordering or to whom the same is furnished and that such contractor and his bond will be held for the payment of the same, and no suit or action shall be maintained in any court against the contractor or his bond to recover for such material, supplies or provisions or any part thereof unless the provisions of this act have been complied with. [L. '15, p. 525, § 1.]

§ 1160. Liability for Failure to Take Bond.—If any board of county commissioners of any county, or mayor and common council of any incorporated city or town, or tribunal transacting the business of any municipal corporation shall fail to take such bond as herein required, such county, incorporated city or town, or other municipal corporation, shall be liable to the persons mentioned in section 1159, to the full extent and for the full amount of all such debts so contracted by such contractor. [L. '88, p. 15, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2416; L. '09, p. 717, § 2.]

§ 1161. Conditions of Bond—Action on.—The bond mentioned in section 1159 shall be in an amount equal to the full contract price agreed to be paid for such work or improvement, and shall be to the state of Washington, except in cases of cities and towns, in which cases such municipalities may by general ordinance fix and determine the amount of such bond and to whom such bond shall run: Provided, the same shall not be for a less amount than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the contract price of any such improvement, and may designate that the same shall be payable to such city, and not to the state of Washington, and all such persons mentioned in said section 1159 shall have a right of action in his, her, or their own name or names on such bond for work done by such laborers or mechanics, and for materials furnished or provisions and goods supplied and furnished in the prosecution of such work, or the making of such improvements; Provided, that such persons shall not have any right of action on such bond for any sum whatever, unless within thirty (30) days from and after the completion of the contract with an acceptance of the work by the affirmative action of the board, council, commission, trustees, officer, or body acting for the state, county or municipality, or other public body, city, town or district, the laborer, mechanic or subcontractor, or materialman, or person claiming to have supplied materials, provisions or goods for the prosecution of such work, or the making of such improvement, shall present to and file with such board, council, commission, trustees or body acting for the state, county or municipality, or other public body, city, town or district, a notice in writing in substance as follows:

To (here insert the name of the state, county or municipality or other public body, city, town or district):

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned (here insert the name of the laborer, mechanic or subcontractor, or materialman, or person claiming to have furnished labor, materials or provisions for or upon such contract or work) has a claim in the sum of —— dollars (here insert the amount) against the bond taken from —— (here insert the name of the principal and surety or sureties upon such bond) for the work of —— (here insert a brief mention or description of the work concerning which said bond was taken).

(Here to be signed) —— ——.

Such notice shall be signed by the person or corporation making the claim or giving the notice, and said notice, after being presented and filed, shall be a public record open to inspection by any person, and in any suit or action brought against such surety or sureties by any such person or corporation to recover for any of the items hereinbefore specified, the claimant shall be entitled to recover in addition to all other costs, attorney's fees in such sum as the ocurt shall adjudge reasonable; Provided, however, that no attorney's fees shall be allowed in any suit or action brought or instituted before the expiration of thirty days following the date of filing of the notice hereinbefore mentioned; Provided further, that any city may avail itself of the provisions of this act, notwithstanding any charter provisions in conflict herewith: And provided further, that any city or town may impose any other or further conditions and obligations in such bond as may be deemed necessary for its proper protection in the fulfillment of the terms of the contract secured thereby, and not in conflict herewith. [L. '15, p. 62, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 717, § 3; L. '88, p. 16, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2417; L. '99, p. 172, § 1.]

§ 1161–1. Retroactive Effect Given Sections 1159 and 1161.—All bonds issued and given prior to June 12, 1915, which embody the terms and provisions prescribed and provided for and which conform to and comply with the terms and provisions of that certain act entitled, "An act relating to contractors and bonds upon public works, and amending sections 1159 and 1161 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington," passed the House February 8, 1915, passed the senate February 24, 1915, and passed notwithstanding the governor's veto on March 3, 1915, shall have the same legal force and effect and be construed, and the rights and liabilities of all parties thereto and thereunder shall be the same as though the said act entitled, "An act relating to contractors and bonds upon public works, and amending section 1159 and 1161 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington" had been in full force and effect at the time any such bond was given, and the courts of this state shall give to such bonds the same force and effect and no other or greater force and effect than would have been given had the said act entitled: "An act relating to contractors and bonds upon public works, and amending sections 1159 and 1161 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington'' been in force and effect at the time such bond was signed and given. [L. '15, p. 548, § 1.]

CHAPTER VII.

Liens upon Logs and Other Timber.

§ 1162. Who may have Liens.—Every person performing labor upon, or who shall assist in obtaining or securing sawlogs, spars, piles, cordwood, shingle-bolts, or other timber, and the owner or owners of any tugboat, or towboat, which shall tow or assist in towing, from one place to another within this state, any sawlogs, spars, piles, cordwood, shingle-bolts, or other timber, and the owner or owners of any team or any logging engine, which shall haul or assist in hauling from one place to another within this state, any sawlogs, spars, piles, cordwood, shingle-bolts, or other timber, and the owner or owners of any logging or other railroad over which sawlogs, spars, piles, cordwood, shingle-bolts, or other timber shall be transported and delivered, shall have a lien upon the same for the work or labor done upon, or in obtaining or securing, or for services rendered in towing, transporting, hauling, or driving, the particular sawlogs, spars, cordwood, shingle-bolts, or other timber in said claim of lien described, whether such work, labor or services was done, rendered or performed at the instance of the owner of the same or his agent. The cook in a logging camp shall be regarded as a person who assists in obtaining or securing the timber herein mentioned. [L. '07, p. 14, § 1. Cf. L. '60, p. 340, § 1; L. '77, p. 217, § 3; L. '79, p. 100, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1941; 1 H. C., § 1679; L. '93, p. 428, § 1; L. '95, p. 175, § 1.]

See infra, § 1190a, this chapter applicable to liens on farm products.

§ 1163. Lien on Lumber—Lumber, Defined.—Every person performing work or labor or assisting in manufacturing sawlogs and other timber into lumber and shingles, has a lien upon such lumber while the same remains at the mill where it was manufactured, or in the possession or under the control of the manufacturer, whether such work or labor was done at the instance of the owner of such logs or his agent or any contractor or subcontractor of such owner. The term lumber, as used in this chapter, shall be held and be construed to mean all logs or other timber sawed or split for use, including beams, joists, planks, boards, shingles, laths, staves, hoops, and every article of whatsoever nature or description manufactured from sawlogs or other timber. [Cf. L. '77, p. 217, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1942; 1 H. C., § 1680; L. '93, p. 19, § 1; L. '93, p. 428, § 2.]

§ 1164. Lien for Stumpage.—Any person who shall permit another to go upon his timber land and cut thereon sawlogs, spars, piles, or other timber, has a lien upon the same for the price agreed to be paid for such privilege, or for the price such privilege would be reasonably worth in case there was no express agreement fixing the price. [Cf. L. '77, p. 217, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1943; 1 H. C., § 1681; L. '93, p. 429, § 3.]

§ 1165. Preferred Liens.—The liens provided for in this chapter are preferred liens and are prior to any other liens, and no sale or transfer of any sawlogs, spars, piles or other timber or manufactured lumber or shingles shall divest the lien thereon as herein provided, and as between liens provided for in this chapter those for work and labor shall be preferred: Provided, that as between liens for work and labor claimed by several laborers on the same logs or lot of logs the claim or claims for work or labor done or performed on the identical logs proceeded against to the extent that said logs can be identified, shall be preferred as against the general claim of lien for work and labor recognized and provided for in this chapter. [Cf. L. '77, p. 217, § 6; Cd. '81, § 1944; 1 H. C., § 1682; L. '93, p. 429, § 4.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 227; 20 Wash. 593.

§ 1166. Limitation of Filing Lien for Labor.—The person rendering the service of [or] doing the work or labor named in sections

1162 and 1163 of this chapter is only entitled to the liens as provided herein for services, work or labor for the period of eight calendar months, or any part thereof next preceding the filing of the claim, as provided in section 1169 of this chapter. [Cf. L. '77, p. 217, § 7; Cd. '81, § 1945; 1 H. C., § 1683; L. '93, p. 429, § 5.]

"Section 1169" substituted for "section 8" of the act of 1893, while "section 7" [§ 1168, infra] was evidently intended.

§ 1167. Limitation of Filing Lien for Stumpage.—The person granting the privilege mentioned in section 1164 of this chapter is only entitled to the lien as provided therein for sawlogs, spars, piles and other timber cut during the eight months next preceding the filing of the claim, as herein provided in the next succeeding section of this chapter. [Cf. L. '77, p. 217, § 8; Cd. '81, § 1946; 1 H. C., § 1684; L. '93, p. 429, § 6.]

§ 1168. Filing of Claim for Labor, etc.—Every person within thirty days after the close of the rendition of the services, or after the close of the work or labor mentioned in the preceding sections (1162, 1163) claiming the benefit hereof, must file for record with the county auditor of the county in which such sawlogs, spars, piles and other timber were cut, or in which such lumber or shingles were manufactured, a claim containing a statement of his demand and the amount thereof, after deducting as nearly as possible all just credits and offsets, with the name of the person by whom he was employed, with a statement of the terms and conditions of his contract, if any, and in case there is no express contract, the claim shall state what such service, work or labor is reasonably worth; and it shall also contain a description of the property to be charged with the lien sufficient for identification with reasonable certainty, which claim must be verified by the oath of himself or some other person to the effect that the affiant believes the same to be true, which claim shall be substantially in the following form:—

—— Claimant, vs. ——.

Notice is hereby given that —— of —— county, state of Washington, claims a lien upon a —— of ——, being about —— in quantity, which were cut or manufactured in —— county, state of Washington, are marked thus ——, and are now lying in ——, for labor performed upon and assistance rendered in —— said ——; that the name of the owner or reputed owner is ——; that —— employed said —— to perform such labor and render such assistance upon the following terms and conditions, to wit:—

The said —— agreed to pay the said —— for such labor and assistance ——; that said contract has been faithfully performed and fully complied with on the part of said ——, who performed labor upon and assisted in —— said —— for the period of ——; that said labor and assistance were so performed and rendered upon said ——, between the —— day of —— and the —— day of ——; and the rendition of said service was closed on the —— day of ——, and thirty days have not elapsed since that time; that the amount of claimant's demand for said service is ——; that no part thereof has been paid except ——, and there is now due and remaining unpaid thereon, after deducting all just credits and offsets, the sum of ——, in which amount he claims a lien upon said ——. The said ——, also claims a lien on all said —— now owned by said —— of said county to secure payment for the work and labor performed in obtaining or securing the said logs, spars, piles or other timber, lumber or shingles herein described.

State of Washington,
County of ——, } ss.

—— being first duly sworn, on oath says that he is —— named in the foregoing claim, has heard the same read, knows the contents thereof, and believes the same to be true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this —— day of ——.

—— ——.

§ 1169. Filing of Claim for Stumpage.—Every person mentioned in section 1164 claiming the benefit thereof must file for record with the county auditor of the county in which such sawlogs, spars, piles or other timber were cut, a claim in substance the same as provided in the next preceding section of this chapter and verified as therein provided. [Cf. L. '77, p. 218, § 10; Cd. '81, § 1948; 1 H. C., § 1686; L. '93, p. 431, § 8.]

§ 1170. Recording Claim.—The county auditor must record any claim filed under this act in a book kept by him for that purpose, which record must be indexed, as deeds and other conveyances are required by law to be indexed, and for which he may receive the same fees as are allowed by law for recording deeds and other instruments. [Cf. L. '77, p. 218, § 11; Cd. '81, § 1949; 1 H. C., § 1687; L. '93, p. 431, § 9.]

§ 1171. Limitation of Actions.—No lien provided for in this chapter binds any sawlogs, spars, piles or other timber, or lumber and shingles, for a longer period than eight calendar months after the claim as herein provided has been filed, unless a civil action be commenced in a proper court, within that time, to enforce the same: Provided, however, that in case such civil action so commenced should for any cause other than the merits, be nonsuited or dismissed, then the lien shall continue for the term of one calendar month, if the said eight months have expired, to permit the commencement of another action thereon, which shall be as effective in prolonging the lien as if it had been entered during the term of eight months hereinbefore stated. [Cf. L. '77, p. 218, § 12; L. '79, p. 100, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1950; 1 H. C., § 1688; L. '93, p. 431, § 10.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 169.

§ 1172. Jurisdiction—Procedure.—The liens provided for in this chapter shall be enforced by a civil action in the superior court of the county wherein the lien was filed, and shall be governed by the laws regulating the proceedings in civil actions touching the mode and manner of trial, and the proceedings and laws to secure property so as to hold it for the satisfaction of any lien that be against it; except as hereinafter otherwise provided. [Cf. L. '97, p. 218, § 13; Cd. '81, § 1951; 1 H. C., § 1689; L. '93, p. 431, § 11.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 346; 20 Wash. 594; 59 Wash. 261.

§ 1173. Sheriff as Receiver.—The sheriff of the county wherein the lien is filed shall be the receiver when one is appointed, and the superior court, upon a showing made, shall appoint such receiver without notice, who shall be allowed such fees as may seem just to the court, which fees shall be accounted for by such sheriff as other fees collected by him in his official capacity: Provided, that at any time when any property is in the custody of such sheriff under the provisions of this act, and any person claiming any interest therein may deposit with the clerk of the court in which such action is pending, a sum of money in an amount equal to the claim sued upon, together with one hundred ($100) dollars, to cover costs and interest, (unless the court shall make an order fixing a different amount to cover such costs and interest, then such an amount as the court shall fix to secure such costs and interest, which such action is being prosecuted) and shall have the right to demand and receive forthwith from such sheriff the possession and custody of such property: Provided, that in no action brought under the provisions of this act shall costs be allowed to lienholders unless a demand has been made for payment of his lien claim before commencement of suit, unless the court shall find the claimants at time of bringing action had reasonable ground to believe that the owner or the person having control of the property upon which such lien is claimed was attempting to defraud such claimant, or prevent the collection of such lien. [L. '93, p. 432, § 12; L. '99, p. 143, § 1.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 475; 20 Wash. 594; 26 Wash. 660; 51 Wash. 600.

§ 1174. Answer of Defendant—Hearing.—If the defendant or defendants appear in a suit to enforce any lien provided by this chapter he or they shall make their answer on the merits of the complaint, and any motion or demurrer against the said complaint must be filed with the answer; and no motion shall be allowed to make complaint more definite and certain, if it appear to the court that the defendant or defendants have or should have knowledge of the facts, or that it can be made more certain and definite by facts which will appear necessarily in the testimony; but the case, unless the court sustains the demurrer to the complaint, shall be heard on the merits as speedily, as possible, and amendments of the pleadings, if necessary, shall be liberally allowed. [L. '93, p. 432, § 13.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 159; 29 Wash. 404.

§ 1175. Enforcement of Lien Against Whole or Part.—Any person who shall bring a civil action to enforce the lien herein provided for, or any person having a lien as herein provided for, who shall be made a party to any civil action, has the right to demand that such lien be enforced against the whole or any part of the sawlogs, spars, piles or other timber or manufactured lumber or shingles upon which he has performed labor or which he has assisted in securing or obtaining, or which he has cut on his timber land during the eight months next preceding the filing of his lien, for all his labor upon or for all his assistance in obtaining or securing said logs, spars, piles or other timber, or in manufacturing said lumber or shingles during the whole or any part of the eight months mentioned in section 1168, or for timber cut during the whole or any part of the eight months above mentioned. And where proceedings are commenced against any lot of sawlogs, spars, piles or other timber or lumber or shingles as herein provided, and some of the lienors claim liens against the specific logs, spars, piles or other timber or lumber or shingles proceeded against, and others against the same generally, to secure their claims for work and labor, the priority of the liens shall be determined as hereinbefore provided. [Cf. L. '77, p. 218, § 14; Cd. '81, § 1952; 1 H. C., § 1690; L. '93, p. 432, § 14.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 480, 481; 20 Wash. 594; 27 Wash. 110.

"Section 1168" substituted for "section 7" of the act of 1893, while "section 5" [§ 1166, supra] was evidently intended.

§ 1176. Errors not to Invalidate Lien, When.—No mistake or error in the statement of the demand, or of the amount of credits and offsets allowed, or of the balance asserted to be due to claimant, nor in the description of the property against which the claim is filed, shall invalidate the lien, unless the court finds that such mistake or error in the statement of the demand, credits and offsets or of the balance due was made with intent to defraud, or the court shall find that an innocent third party without notice, direct or constructive, has, since the claim was filed, become the bona fide owner of the property liened upon, and that the notice of claim was so deficient that it did not put the party upon further inquiry, in any manner. [L. '93, p. 433, § 15.]

§ 1177. Innocent Third Party, Who is.—It shall be conclusively presumed by the court that a party purchasing the property liened upon within thirty days given herein to claimants wherein to file their liens, is not an innocent third party, nor that he has become a bona fide owner of the property liened upon, unless it shall appear that he has paid full value for the said property, and has seen that the purchase money of the said property has been applied to the payment of such bona fide claims as are entitled to liens upon the said property under the provisions of this chapter, according to the priorities herein established. [L. '93, p. 433, § 16.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 107; 40 Wash. 201.

§ 1178. Joinder—Costs.—Any number of persons claiming liens under this chapter may join in the affidavit in section 1168 provided, and may join in the same action, and when separate actions are commenced the court may consolidate them. The court shall also allow as part of the costs the moneys paid for filing, making and recording the claim, and a reasonable attorney's fee for each person claiming a lien. [L. '01, p. 20, § 1. Cf. L. '77, p. 219, § 15; Cd. '81, § 1953; 1 H. C., § 1691; L. '93, p. 433, § 17.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 722; 10 Wash. 174; 16 Wash. 416; 17 Wash. 647.

§ 1179. Judgment, Enforcement of.—In each civil action judgment must be rendered in favor of each person having a lien for the amount due to him, and the court or judge thereof shall order any property subject to the lien herein provided for to be sold by the sheriff of the proper county in the same manner that personal property is sold on execution, and the court or judge shall apportion the proceeds of such sale to the payment of each judgment, according to the priorities established in this act pro rata in its class according to the amount of such judgment. [Cf. L. '77, p. 219, § 16; Cd. '81, § 1954; 1 H. C., § 1692; L. '93, p. 434, § 18.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 261.

§ 1180. Sale as Personalty.—The court or judge may order any property subject to a lien as in this chapter provided to be sold by the sheriff as personal property is sold on execution either before or at the time judgment is rendered, as provided in section next preceding, and the proceeds of such sale must be paid into court, to be applied as in said section directed. [Cf. L. '77, p. 219, § 17; Cd. '81, § 1955; 1 H. C., § 1693; L. '93, p. 434, § 19.]

§ 1181. Damages for Eloigning or Removing Marks, etc.—Recoverable When.—Any person who shall eloign, injure or destroy, or who shall render difficult, uncertain or impossible of identification any sawlogs, spars, piles, shingles or other timber upon which there is a lien as herein provided, without the express consent of the person entitled to such lien shall be liable to the lienholder for the damages to the amount secured by his lien, and it being shown to the court in the civil action to enforce said lien, it shall be the duty of the court to enter a personal judgment for the amount in such action against the said person, provided he be a party to such action, or the damages may be recovered by a civil action against such person. [Cf. L. '77, p. 219, § 18; Cd. '81, § 1956; 1 H. C., § 1694; L. '93, p. 434, § 20.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Liens on Steamers, Boats, etc.

§ 1182. Vessels, etc., Liable for Liens, When.—All steamers, vessels and boats, their tackle, apparel and furniture, are liable—

1. For service rendered on board at the request of, or under contract with, their respective owners, charterers, masters, agents or consignees.

2. For work done or material furnished in this state for their construction, repair or equipment at the request of their respective owners, charterers, masters, agents, consignees, contractors, subcontractors, or other person or persons having charge in whole or in part of their construction, alteration, repair or equipment; and every contractor, builder or person having charge, either in whole or in part, of the construction, alteration, repair or equipment of any steamer, vessel or boat, shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of this chapter, and for supplies furnished in this state for their use, at the request of their respective owners, charterers, masters, agents or consignees, and any person having charge, either in whole or in part, of the purchasing of supplies for the use of any such steamer, vessel or boat, shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of this chapter.

3. For their wharfage and anchorage within this state.

4. For nonperformance or malperformance of any contract for the transportation of persons or property between places within this state, or to or from places within this state, made by their respective owners, masters, agents or consignees.

5. For injuries committed by them to persons or property within this state, or while transporting such persons or property to or from this state. Demands for these several causes constitute liens upon all steamers, vessels and boats, and their tackle, apparel and furniture, and have priority in the order of the subdivisions hereinbefore enumerated, and have preference over all other demands; but such liens continue in force only for a period of three years from the time the cause of action accrued. [L. '01, p. 21, § 1. Cf. L. '58, p. 29, § 1; L. '77, p. 216, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1939; 1 H. C., § 1678.]

§ 1183. Enforcement of Liens.—Such liens may be enforced, in all cases of maritime contracts or service, by a suit in admiralty, in rem, and the law regulating proceedings in admiralty shall govern in all such suits; and in all cases of contracts or service not maritime, by a civil action in any district court of this territory. [L. '77, p. 216, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1940.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 422; 56 Wash. 583; 68 Wash. 54, 58.

§ 1184. Liens for Services of Stevedores.—All steamers, vessels and boats, their tackle, apparel and furniture shall be held liable at all ports and places within this state or within the jurisdiction of the courts of this state or within the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States in said state for services rendered by stevedores, longshoremen or others engaged in the loading, unloading, stowing or dunnaging of cargo in or from any steamer, vessel or boat in any harbor or at any other place within said state, or within the jurisdiction of the courts thereof as above stated, and said steamers, vessels and boats shall further be liable as per their contracts for all services performed upon wharfs or landing places by stevedores, longshoremen or others: Provided, that such services must have been so performed in and about and be connected with the loading, unloading, dunnaging or stowing of said cargo. [L. '01, p. 136, § 1.]

§ 1185. Priority.—Demands for wages and all sums due under contracts or otherwise for the performance of all or any of the services mentioned in the last preceding section shall constitute liens upon all steamers, vessels and boats, their tackle, apparel and furniture, and shall have priority over all other demands save and excepting the demands mentioned in the first three subdivisions of section 1182, supra, to which said demands the lien hereby provided shall be subordinate: Provided, that such liens shall only continue in force for the period of three years from the date when such work was done or the last services performed by such stevedores, longshoremen or others. [L. '01, p. 137, § 2.]

§ 1186. Suits in Rem.—The liens hereby created may be enforced by a suit, in rem, and the law regulating like proceedings shall govern in all such suits. [L. '01, p. 137, § 3.]

§ 1187. Liens for Towage and Dunnage.—Whenever the owner, charterer, or any person or corporation operating, managing or controlling any steamship, vessel or boat shall willfully fail, neglect or refuse to carry out or perform any express contract or portion thereof for the towing, loading, unloading, dunnaging or stevedoring of such steamship, vessel or boat, any person or persons, firm or corporation sustaining thereby any loss or damage which is capable of definite ascertainment shall have a lien upon such steamship, vessel or boat for said loss or damage. The rank and priority of the lien hereby created and the manner of its enforcement shall be fixed, controlled and regulated by the provisions of the existing law pertaining to liens for similar services already performed. [L. '03, p. 286, § 1.]

CHAPTER IX.

Liens on Farm Products.

§ 1188. Farm Laborers' and Landlords' Liens.—Any person who shall do labor upon any farm or land, in tilling the same or in sowing or harvesting or threshing any grain, as laborer, contractor, or otherwise, or laboring upon, or securing or assisting in securing or housing any crop or crops sown, raised, or threshed thereon during the year in which said work or labor was done, such person shall have a lien upon all such crops as shall have been raised upon all or any of such land, for such work or labor, and every landlord shall have a lien upon the crops grown or growing upon the demised lands of any year for the rents accrued or acquiring for such year, whether the same is paid wholly or in part in money or specific articles of property, or products of the premises, or labor, and also for the faithful performance of the lease; and the lien created by the provisions of this section shall be a preferred lien, and shall be prior to all other liens.. [Cf. L. '79, p. 150, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1975; L. '86, p. 114, § 1; L. '91, p. 144, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1695.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 174; 14 Wash. 624, 625; 40 Wash. 201; 59 Wash. 679.

§ 1189. Priority of Liens.—The liens provided for in the last section are preferred liens, and are prior to any other liens or encumbrance upon said crop or crops, except that the interest of any lessor in any portion of the crop raised where the premises are leased in consideration of a share of the crop raised, shall not be subject to such lien. [L. '79, p. 150, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1976; L. '83, p. 45, § 5.]

§ 1190. Claim to be Verified and Filed—How Enforced.—Any person claiming the benefit of this chapter must, within forty days after the close of said work and labor, or after the expiration of the term, or after the expiration of each year of the lease, for which any lands were demised, file for record with the county auditor of the county in which said work and labor was performed, or said demised lands are situated, a claim which shall be in substance in accordance with the provisions of section 1168, so far as the same may be applicable, which said claim shall be verified as in said section provided, and said liens may be enforced in a civil action in the same manner, as near as may be, as provided in section 1172: Provided, that the lien hereby created in favor of landlords shall only apply when the lease has been recorded. [Cf. L. '79, p. 150, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1977; L. '86, p. 115, § 2; L. '88, p. 130, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1696.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 174; 59 Wash. 680.

§ 1190a. Provisions Extended to Farm Laborers.—All rights secured to the holders of liens upon logs, under the provisions of chapter VII, shall inure to the benefit of those holding liens under the provisions of this chapter, and the said lienholders hereunder, shall have the same right to have their liens recorded, the same right of foreclosure, of joinder of parties, of judgment over against the person primarily liable, and against any person who shall injure or impair their lien or any of their rights, as are above secured to the holders of liens upon logs, under said chapter VII. [Cd. '81, § 1978.]

"This chapter" in the Code of 1881 included chapters IX, XIII and XIV of this Title; but this section relates only to chapter IX.

CHAPTER X.

Liens for Storage and Advanced Charges.

§ 1191. When Lien Exists.—Whenever property upon which charges for advances, freight, transportation, wharfage, or storage, due and unpaid, and a lien shall remain and be held in store by the person or persons in whose favor such lien exists uncalled for, it shall be lawful for such person or persons to cause such property to be sold as is herein provided. [Cd. '81, § 1980; 1 H. C., § 1699.]

§ 1192. When Certain Property may be Sold for Charges.—If said property consists of livestock, the maintenance of which at the place where kept is wasteful and expensive in proportion to the value of the animals, or other of the perishable property liable, if kept, to destruction, waste, or great depreciation, the person or persons having such lien may sell the same upon giving ten days' notice. [Cd. '81, § 1981; 1 H. C., § 1700; see L. '63, p. 421, § 2.]

§ 1193. When Other Property may be Sold.—All other property upon which such charges may be unpaid, due, and a lien, after the same shall have remained in store uncalled for for a period of thirty days after such charges shall have become due, may be sold by the person or persons having a lien for the payment of such charges upon giving ten days' notice: Provided, that where the property can be conveniently divided into separate lots or parcels, no more lots or parcels shall be sold than shall be sufficient to pay the charges due on the day of sale, and the expenses of the sale. [Cd. '81, § 1982; 1 H. C., § 1701.]

§ 1194. Application of Proceeds of Sale.—The moneys arising from sales made under the provisions of this chapter shall first be applied to the payment of the costs and expenses of the sale, and then to the payment of the lawful charges of the person or persons having a lien thereon for advances, freight, transportation, wharfage, or storage, for whose benefit the sale shall have been made; the surplus, if any, shall be retained, subject to the future lawful charge of the person or persons for whose benefit the sale was made, upon the property of the same owner still remaining in store uncalled for, if any there be, and to the demand of the owner of the property who shall have paid such charges or otherwise satisfied such lien, and all moneys remaining uncalled for, for the period of three months, shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall remain in his hands a special fund for the benefit of the lawful claimant thereof. [Cd. '81, § 1983; 1 H. C., § 1702.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 391.

§ 1195. Special Contract not Affected.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be so construed as to alter or affect the terms of any special contract in writing, made by the parties, as to the advances, affreightment, wharfage, or storage; but when any such special contract shall have been made, its terms shall govern, irrespective of this chapter. [Cd. '81, § 1984; 1 H. C., § 1703.]

§ 1196. Notices, How Given.—All notices required under this chapter shall be given as is or may be by law provided in cases of sales of personal property upon execution. [Cd. '81, § 1985; 1 H. C., § 1704.]

CHAPTER XI.

Liens for Keeping Livestock.

§ 1197. Creation of Lien.—Any farmer, ranchman, herder of cattle, tavern-keeper, livery and boarding stable keeper or any other person, to whom any horses, mules, cattle or sheep shall be intrusted for the purpose of feeding, herding, pasturing, and training, caring for or ranching, shall have a lien upon said horses, mules, cattle or sheep for such amount that may be due for said feeding, herding, pasturing, training, caring for, and ranching, and shall be authorized to retain possession of said horses, mules or cattle or sheep, until said amount is paid. [L. '09, p. 636, § 1. Cf. L. '91, p. 151, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1705.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 28; 12 Wash. 46; 36 Wash. 129; 59 Wash. 355, 356.

§ 1198. Enforcement.—Any person having a lien under the provisions of the last preceding section may enforce the same by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction; and said property may be sold on execution for the purpose of satisfying the amount of such judgment and costs of sale, together with the proper costs of keeping the same up to the time of said sale. [L. '91, p. 151, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1706.]

Cited in 36 Wash. 129.

The "last preceding section" applies to the act of 1891, page 151, § 1, which expressly excepted "stolen stock" from liens for keeping, and omitted the words "any other person." Otherwise it was the same as § 1197.

§ 1199. Possession to Secure Lien — Sale — Notice.—Any person having a lien under the provisions of section 1197 for feeding, herding, pasturing, training, caring for, or ranching any horses, mules, cattle or sheep, shall retain such animal for a period of ten (10) days, at the expiration of which time, if the owner of such animal does not satisfy such lien, the sheriff or any constable may sell such animal at public auction after giving the owner ten days' notice of the time and place of such sale by delivering a copy of such notice to the owner, or in case personal service cannot be had, by publishing same in a newspaper of general circulation in said county where said feeding, herding, pasturing, training, caring for, and ranching was furnished; if there be no paper of general circulation in said county, then by posting notices of the time and place of such sale in three conspicuous places in said county, and after satisfying the lien and costs that may accrue. any residue remaining shall be paid to the owner of said animal or person who may be lawfully entitled to the same. [L. '09, p. 636, § 2.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 365.

§ 1200. No Waiver by Delivery—Action to Enforce.—Whenever any horses, mules, cattle or sheep shall be intrusted for the purpose of feeding, herding, pasturing, training, caring for, and ranching to any farmer, ranchman, herder of cattle, tavern-keeper, livery or boarding stable keeper, continuously for some time, either definite or indefinite, the voluntary delivery of the same to the owner or his agent shall not waive or defeat the lien provided for in section 1197, and the person having such lien may enforce his lien against said property in any court of competent jurisdiction at any time within ten (10) days after parting with the possession thereof: Provided, that such lien shall not attach to the interest nor affect the rights of a third person who may have acquired an interest in or title to an animal against which a lien is claimed, for value and without knowledge of the claimed lien, while such animal is not in possession of the claimant. [L. '09, p. 637, § 3.]

CHAPTER XII.

Liens of Innkeepers and Their Liability.

§ 1201. Lien upon Baggage, etc.—Hereafter all hotel-keepers, innkeepers, lodging-house keepers, and boarding-house keepers in this state shall have a lien upon the baggage, property, or other valuables of their guests, lodgers, or boarders brought into such hotel, inn, lodging-house, or boarding-house by such guests, lodgers, or boarders, for the proper charges due from such guests, lodgers, or boarders for their accommodation, board, or lodging, and such other extras as are furnished at their request, and shall have the right to retain in their possession such baggage, property, or other valuables until such charges are fully paid, and to sell such baggage, property, or other valuables for the payment of such charges in the manner provided in the next succeeding section of this chapter. [L. '90, p. 96, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2710.]

Cited in 38 Wash. 412.

§ 1202. Sale to Satisfy Lien—Notice.—Whenever any baggage, property, or other valuables which have been retained by any hotel-keeper, innkeeper, lodging-house keeper, or boarding-house keeper in his possession by virtue of the provision of the next preceding section of this chapter shall remain unredeemed for the period of three months after the same shall have been so retained, then it shall be lawful for such hotel-keeper, innkeeper, lodging-house keeper, or boarding-house keeper to sell such baggage, property, or other valuables at public auction, after giving the owner thereof ten days' notice of the time and place of such sale, through the postoffice, or by advertising in some newspaper published in the county where such sale is made, or by posting notices in three conspicuous places in such county, and out of the proceeds of such sale to pay all legal charges due from the owner of such baggage, property, or other valuables, including proper charges for storage of the same, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid to the owner upon demand. [L. '90, p. 96, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2711.]

§ 1203. Responsibility Limited.—No innkeeper who constantly has in his inn an iron safe or suitable vault in good order, and fit for the safe custody of money, bank notes, jewelry, articles of gold and silver manufacture, precious stones and bullion, and who keeps a copy of this section, printed by itself in large, plain Roman type, and framed, constantly and conspicuously suspended in the office, barroom, saloon, reading, sitting, and parlor room of his inn, and also a copy printed by itself in ordinary-sized plain Roman type, posted upon the inside of the entrance door of every public sleeping-room of his inn, shall be liable for the loss of any such article suffered by any guest, unless such guest has first offered to deliver such property lost by him to such innkeeper for custody in such iron safe or vault, and such innkeeper has refused or neglected to receive and deposit such property in his safe or vault, and to give such guest a receipt therefor: Provided, that all doors to rooms furnished to guests shall be provided with slide-bolts inside of such rooms on all doors; otherwise he shall be liable; but every innkeeper shall be liable for any loss of the above enumerated articles by a guest in his inn, when caused by the theft or negligence of the innkeeper or any of his servants. [L. '90, p. 95, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2712.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 447, 450.

CHAPTER XIII.

Preference Rights of Employees.

§ 1204. Priority of Wages, etc., in Insolvency.—In all assignments of property made by any person to trustees or assignees on account of the inability of the person at the time of the assignment to pay his debts, or in proceedings in insolvency the wages of the miners, mechanics, salesmen, servants, clerks, or laborers employed by such persons to the amount of one hundred dollars each, and for services rendered within sixty days previously, are preferred claims, and must be paid by such trustees or assignees before any other creditor or creditors of the assignor. [L. '77, p. 233, § 34; Cd. '81, § 1972; 1 H. C., § 3122.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 186.

§ 1205. Preference on Death of Employer.—In case of the death of any employer, the wages of each miner, mechanic, salesman, clerk, servant, and laborer for services rendered within sixty days next preceding the death of the employer, not exceeding one hundred dollars, rank in priority next after the funeral expenses, expenses of the last sickness, the charges and expenses of administering upon the estate, and the allowance to the widow and infant children, and must be paid before other claims against the estate of the deceased person. [L. '77, p. 223, § 35; Cd. '81, § 1973; 1 H. C., § 3123.]

§ 1206. Notice and Presentment of Claims.—In cases of executions, attachments, and writs of similar nature issued against any person, except for claims for labor done, any miners, mechanics, salesmen, servants, clerks, and laborers who have claims against the defendant for labor done, may give notice of their claims and the amount thereof, sworn to by the person making the claim to the creditor and the officer executing either of such writs at any time before the actual sale of property levied on, and unless such claim is disputed by the debtor or a creditor, such officer must pay to such person, out of the proceeds of the sale, the amount each is entitled to receive for services rendered within sixty days next preceding the levy of the writ, not exceeding one hundred dollars. If any or all the claims so presented and claiming preference under this chapter are disputed by either the debtor or a creditor, the person presenting the same must commence an action within ten days from [for] the recovery thereof, and must prosecute his action with due diligence, or be forever barred from any claim of priority of payment thereof; and the officer shall retain possession of so much of the proceeds of the sale as may be necessary to satisfy such claim, until the determination of such action; and in case judgment be had for the claim or any part thereof, carrying costs, the costs taxable therein shall likewise be a preferred claim, with the same rank as the original claim. [L. '77, p. 223, § 36; Cd. '81, § 1974; 1 H. C., § 3124.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 621; 16 Wash. 413, 697.

CHAPTER XIV.

The Construction of Statutes Relating to Liens.

§ 1208. Construction of Lien Law.—In construing the provisions of the lien law, words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular; the word "person" includes a corporation as well as a natural person, and the word "writing" includes printing. [L. '77, p. 224, § 37; Cd. '81, § 1979; 1 H. C., § 1707.]

§ 1209. Extent of Lien Law.—This act establishes the law of this state respecting the subject to which it relates, and its provisions and all proceedings under it are to be liberally construed with a view to effect its object. [L. '77, p. 224, § 39; Cd. '81, § 1979; 1 H. C., § 1980.]

"This act" in Laws of 1877, refers to liens of mechanics, loggers, and others, now covered in this title.

CHAPTER I.

The Competency of Witnesses.

§ 1210. Who may Testify.—Every person of sound mind and suitable age and discretion, except as hereinafter provided, may be a witness in any action or proceeding. [L. '54, p. 186, § 289; Cd. '81, § 388; 2 H. C., § 1645.]

§ 1211. Not Excluded on Ground of Interest, Exception.—No person offered as a witness shall be excluded from giving evidence by reason of his interest in the event of the action, as a party thereto or otherwise; but such interest may be shown to affect his credibility: Provided, however, that in an action or proceeding where the adverse party sues or defends as executor, administrator, or legal representative of any deceased person, or as deriving right or title by, through, or from any deceased person, or as the guardian or conservator of the estate of any insane person, or of any minor under the age of fourteen years, then a party in interest or to the record shall not be admitted to testify in his own behalf as to any transaction had by him with or any statement made to him by any such deceased or insane person, or by any such minor under the age of fourteen years: Provided further, that this exclusion shall not apply to parties of record who sue or defend in a representative or fiduciary capacity, and who have no other or further interest in the action. [Cf. L. '54, p. 186, § 290; L. '67, p. 88, § 1; L. '73, p. 106, § 382; Cd. '81, § 389; L. '90, p. 91, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1646.]

§ 1213. Who Incompetent.—The following persons shall not be competent to testify:—

1. Those who are of unsound mind, or intoxicated at the time of their production for examination; and

2. Children under ten years of age who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly. [L. '54, p. 186, § 293; L. '63, p. 154, § 330; L. '73, p. 106, § 384; Cd. '81, § 391; 2 H. C., § 1648.]

Cited in 34 Wash. 203; 45 Wash. 439.

§ 1214. Who Disqualified.—The following persons shall not be examined as witnesses:—

1. A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor shall either, during marriage or afterwards, without the consent of the other, be examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other;

2. An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment;

3. A clergyman or priest shall not, without the consent of the person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs;

4. A regular physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient;

5. A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure. [Cf. L. '54, p. 187, § 294; L. '73, p. 107, § 385; L. '79, p. 118, § 1; Cd. '81, § 392; L. '86, p. 73, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1649.]

CHAPTER II.

The Manner of Compelling the Attendance of Witnesses.

§ 1215. Witnesses, When Compelled to Attend.—No person shall be obliged to attend as a witness before any court of record, judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee, or other officer, in any civil action or proceeding out of the county in which he resides, unless his residence be within twenty miles of such court, judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee, or other officer; and no person shall be obliged to attend as a witness in any civil action or proceeding in a justice's court, unless his residence be within twenty miles of such court, whether within the county or not. Nor shall any person be compelled to attend as a witness in any civil action or proceeding, unless the fees be paid or tendered to him which are allowed by law for one day's attendance as a witness; and for traveling to and returning from the place where he is required to attend, provided such fees be demanded by him at the time of service of the subpoena. [L. '54, p. 187, § 295; L. '63, p. 156, § 332; L. '69, p. 104, § 388; Cd. '81, § 393; L. '91, p. 33, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1650.]

See infra, § 1892, contempt before justice of the peace.

§ 1216. Subpoena Duces Tecum.—The subpoena may require not only the personal attendance of the person to whom it is directed at a particular time and place to testify as a witness, but may also require him to bring with him any books, documents, or things under his control; but no public officer or person having the possession or control of public records or papers which by law are required to be kept in any particular office or place shall be compelled to produce the same in any court. [L. '54, p. 188, § 296; Cd. '81, § 394; 2 H. C., § 1651.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 656; 84 Wash. 486.

§ 1217. Subpoena Issued When.—The subpoena shall be issued as follows:

1. To require attendance before a court of record or at the trial of an issue therein, such subpoena may be issued in the name of the state of Washington and be under the seal of the court before which the attendance is required or in which the issue is pending: Provided, that such subpoena may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the action in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the court except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney;

2. To require attendance out of such court before a judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee or other officer authorized to administer oaths or to take testimony in any matter under the laws of this state, it shall be issued by such judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee or other officer before whom the attendance is required;

3. To require attendance before a commissioner appointed to take testimony by a court of any other state, territory or county it may be issued by any judge or justice of the peace in places within their respective jurisdiction. [Cf. L. '54, p. 188, § 297; Cd. '81, § 395; 2 H. C., § 1652; L. '95, p. 189, § 1.]

§ 1218. Service, Proof of.—Such subpoena may be served by any suitable person over eighteen years of age, by exhibiting and reading it to the witness, or by giving him a copy thereof, or by leaving such copy at the place of his abode. When service is made by any other person than an officer authorized to serve process, proof of service shall be made by affidavit. [L. '54, p. 188, § 298; L. '53, p. 156, § 334; L. '69, p. 105, § 391; Cd. '81, § 396; 2 H. C., § 1653.]

§ 1219. Person in Court Required to Testify.—A person present in court, or before a judicial officer, may be required to testify in the same manner as if he were in attendance upon a subpoena issued by such court or officer. [L. '54, p. 188, § 299; Cd. '81, § 397; 2 H. C., § 1654.]

§ 1220. Liability and Penalty for Failure to Attend.—If any person duly served with a subpoena, and obliged to attend as a witness, shall fail to do so, without any reasonable excuse, he shall be liable to the aggrieved party for all damages occasioned by such failure, to be recovered in a civil action. Such failure to attend as required by the subpoena shall also be considered a contempt, and, upon due proof, the witness may be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, and stand committed until said fine and costs are paid, or until discharged by due course of law. [L. '54, p. 188, §§ 300, 301; Cd. '81, §§ 398, 399; 2 H. C., § 1655.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 487.

§ 1221. Attachment for Witness.—The court, judge, justice of the peace, or other officer, in such case, may issue an attachment to bring such witness before them to answer for contempt, and also testify as witness in the cause in which he was subpoenaed. [L. '54, p. 188, § 302; Cd. '81, § 400; 2 H. C., § 1656.]

§ 1222. To Whom Directed, How Executed.—Such attachment may be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in which the witness may be found, and shall be executed in the same manner as a warrant; and the fees of the officer for issuing and serving the same shall be paid by the person against whom the same was issued, unless he show reasonable cause, to the satisfaction of the justice, for his omission to attend; in which case the party requiring such attachment shall pay all such costs. [L. '91, p. 33, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1657.]

§ 1223. Testimony of Prisoner, How Obtained.—If the witness be a prisoner confined in a jail or prison within this state, an order for his examination in prison, upon deposition, or for his temporary removal and production before a court or officer, for the purpose of being orally examined, may be issued. [L. '54, p. 189, § 303; Cd. '81, § 401; 2 H. C., § 1658.]

§ 1224. Affidavit to Procure Order.—Such order can only be made upon affidavit, showing the nature of the action or proceeding, the testimony expected from the witness, and its materiality. [L. '54, p. 189, § 304; Cd. '81, § 402; 2 H. C., § 1659.]

CHAPTER III.

The Examination of Parties.

§ 1225. Examination of Adverse Party as Witness.—A party to an action or proceeding may be examined as a witness, at the instance of the adverse party, or of one of several adverse parties, and for that purpose may be compelled in the same manner and subject to the same rules of examination as any other witness to testify at the trial, or he may be examined on a commission. [L. '54, p. 189, § 305; Cd. '81, § 403; 2 H. C., § 1660.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 428; 11 Wash. 651; 20 Wash. 239; 21 Wash. 335.

§ 1226. Interrogatories to Adversary.—Instead of the examination being had at the trial, as provided by the last section, the plaintiff, at the time of filing his complaint or afterward, and the defendant, at the time of filing his answer or afterward, may file in the clerk's office interrogatories for the discovery of facts and documents material to the support or defense of the action, to be answered on oath by the adverse party. [L. '54, p. 189, § 306; Cd. '81, § 402; 2 H. C., § 1661.]

§ 1227. Answers to Interrogatories.—Such interrogatories shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of summons, or by service upon the attorney of the party to be interrogated, and the answers thereto shall be served and filed within twenty days after such service unless for cause shown a further time be allowed by the court. A private corporation may be interrogated in the same manner as individuals, and it shall not be excused for a failure to answer any proper interrogatory unless it shall show that no one in its employ or connected with, or interested in it, can give the desired answer or information. [Cf. L. '54, p. 189, § 307; Cd. '81, § 405; 2 H. C., § 1662; L. '97, p. 288, § 1.]

Cited in 81 Wash. 31.

§ 1228. Examination on Trial Notwithstanding Interrogatories.—A party to an action or proceeding, having filed interrogatories to be answered by the adverse party, as prescribed by the last two sections, shall not thereby be precluded from examining such adverse party as a witness at the trial, nor from taking his deposition to be read at the trial. [Cf. L. '54, p. 189, § 308; Cd. '81, § 406; L. '91, p. 34, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1663.]

§ 1229. Testimony not Conclusive.—The testimony of a party, upon examination at the trial, or by deposition, or upon interrogatories filed, may be rebutted by adverse testimony. [Cf. L. '54, p. 189, § 309; Cd. '81, § 407; L. '91, p. 34, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1664.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 135; 30 Wash. 354; 75 Wash. 388.

§ 1230. Penalty for Refusal to Answer or Give Testimony.—If a party refuse to attend and testify at the trial, or to give his deposition, or to answer any interrogatories filed, his complaint, answer or reply may be stricken out, and judgment taken against him, and he may also, in the discretion of the court, be proceeded against as in other cases for a contempt: Provided, that the preceding sections shall not be construed so as to compel any person to answer any question where such answer may tend to criminate himself. [Cf. L. '54, p. 190, § 310; Cd. '81, § 408; L. '91, p. 34, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1665.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 326; 6 Wash. 553; 44 Wash. 31, 32, 42.

§ 1230–1. Physical Examination in Personal Injury Cases.—On or before the trial of any action brought to recover damages for injury to the person, the court before whom such action is pending may from time to time, on application of any party therein, order and direct an examination of the person injured as to the injury complained of by a competent physician or physicians, surgeon or surgeons, in order to qualify the person or persons making such examination to testify in the said cause as to the nature, extent and probable duration of the injury complained of; and the court may in such order direct and determine the time and place of such examination: Provided, this section shall not be construed to prevent any other person or physician from being called and examined as a witness as heretofore. [L. '15, p. 236, § 1.]

CHAPTER IV.

Depositions.

§ 1231. Cases in Which may be Taken.—The testimony of a witness may be taken by deposition, to be read in evidence in an action, suit, or proceeding commenced and pending in any court in this state, in the following cases:—

1. When the witness resides out of the county, and more than twenty miles from the place of trial;

2. When the witness is about to leave the county, and go more than twenty miles from the place of trial, and there is a probability that he will continue absent when the testimony is required;

3. When the witness is sick, infirm, or aged, so as to make it probable that he will not be able to attend at the trial;

4. When the witness resides out of the state. [L. '54, p. 190, § 313; L. '69, p. 108, § 404; L. '77, p. 89, § 411; Cd. '81, § 409; 2 H. C., § 1666.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 458; 54 Wash. 21; 85 Wash. 184.

§ 1232. When may be Taken.—Either party may commence taking testimony by depositions at any time after service of summons upon the defendants. [L. '77, p. 90, § 412; Cd. '81, § 410; 2 H. C., § 1667.]

§ 1233. Before Whom Taken Within States — Notice.—Either party may have the deposition of a witness taken in this state before any judge of the superior court, justice of the peace, clerk of the supreme or superior court[s], mayor of a city or notary public, by serving on the adverse party or his attorney previous notice of the time and place of examination. The notice shall be served such time before the time when the deposition is to be taken as to allow the adverse party sufficient time by the usual route of travel to attend, and three days for preparation, exclusive of the day of service, and the examination may, if so stated in the notice, be adjourned from day to day. The notice shall specify the action or proceeding, the name of the court or tribunal in which the deposition is to be used, and the time and place of taking the deposition. It shall be served upon the adverse party, his agent, or attorney of record, or be left at his usual place of abode. [L. '54, p. 190, § 314; Cd. '81, § 411; L. '88, p. 29, § 1; L. '91, p. 34, § 7; 2 H. C., § 1668.]

Cited in 54 Wash. 20.

§ 1234. Time for Notice may be Limited.—The court, or a judge thereof, or in an action or proceedings before a justice of the peace, the justice, may, upon sufficient cause being shown by affidavit, prescribe a shorter time for notice than that specified in the last preceding section. A copy of the order shortening the time must be served with the notice. [L. '91, p. 35, § 8; 2 H. C., § 1669.]

§ 1235. Witnesses Subpoenaed and Compelled to Attend.—Any witness may be subpoenaed and compelled, by any officer authorized to take depositions, to appear and give his deposition at any place within twenty miles of the abode of such witness, in like manner as he may be subpoenaed and compelled to attend as a witness in any court, and he shall suffer the same penalties for a failure to attend as are prescribed in section 1220. [Cf. L. '54, p. 192, § 321; Cd. '81, § 422; L. '91, p. 35, § 9; 2 H. C., § 1670.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 657.

§ 1236. Superior Court may Compel Attendance.—The superior court shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, within this state, before notaries public, justices of the peace or any other person authorized by the laws of this state to take depositions in causes pending in any court of the state, or in any court of any other state, or in any court of the United States, or in any court of a foreign country. [L. '01, p. 23, § 1.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 657.

§ 1237. Application for Order.—The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken in case of the refusal of any witness to attend or testify shall report to the superior court in and for the county in which the witness resides, or is found, by petition, that due notice has been given of the time and place of taking the depositions and that the witness has been summoned in the same manner that witnesses are now summoned to appear and testify in the superior court of this state; and the fees and mileage of the witness has been paid, or tendered to the witness, for his attendance and testimony, and that the witness has failed and refused to attend or testify before such officer, in the cause mentioned in the notice and the subpoena; and ask an order of the court compelling the witness to attend and testify before such officer. [L. '01, p. 23, § 2.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 657.

§ 1238. Citation—Contempt.—The court upon the petition of the officers, and the payment of the regular docket fee of four dollars ($4) shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the officer making the report, at a time and place to be fixed by the court in such order, and then and there give his testimony in such case. A copy of which order shall be served upon the witness in the same manner that summons and complaints are now served; and on failure or refusal of the witness to obey such order such witness shall be dealt with as for contempt. [L. '01, p. 24, § 3.]

§ 1239. Before Whom Taken Out of the State.—Depositions may be taken out of the state by a judge, justice, or chancellor or clerk of any court of record, a justice of the peace, notary public, mayor, or chief magistrate of any city or town, or any person authorized by a special commission from any court [of record] of this state. [Cf. L. '54, p. 193, § 322; L. '77, p. 90, § 414; Cd. '81, § 412; 2 H. C., § 1671.]

§ 1240. Commission to Take—How Issued.—Any superior court in this state, or any judge thereof, is authorized to grant a commission to take depositions within or without this state. The commission must be issued to a person or persons therein named, by the clerk, under the seal of the court granting the same, and depositions under it may be taken upon written interrogatories or upon oral questions or partly upon oral and partly upon written interrogatories. Before any such commission shall be granted, the person intending to apply therefor shall serve upon the adverse party a notice of his intention to make such application, stating the time when and the place where such application will be made, which notice shall be served in the same manner and for the same time as provided in section 1233, unless the court or judge, for sufficient cause shown by affidavit, prescribe a shorter time. At the time the application is presented, the court or judge shall settle the interrogatories, if any have been served and the parties have not settled the same. The clerk, upon issuing the commission, shall attach the interrogatories thereto, if any have been agreed upon or settled by the court, and immediately forward the same to the commissioner. At least five days' notice must be given to the party or witness to be examined out of the state, in case such examination shall be had upon oral interrogatories, and the person before whom the deposition of the witness shall be taken shall have the same power to compel the attendance of such parties or witnesses as any person authorized to take such deposition within this state. [Cf. L. '54, p. 193, § 323; L. '73, p. 114, §§ 412, 413; L. '77, p. 90, § 415; Cd. '81, §§ 413, 414; L. '91, p. 35, § 10; 2 H. C., § 1672; L. '97, p. 206, § 1.]

§ 1241. Notice to Nonresident Party.—When the party against whom the deposition is to be read is absent from or a nonresident of the state, and has no agent or attorney of record therein, he may be notified of the taking of the deposition [or] of the application for a commission, by publication. The publication must be made three consecutive weeks, in some newspaper printed in the county where the action or proceeding is pending, if there be any printed in such county, and if not, in some newspaper printed in this state, of general circulation in that county. The publication must contain all that is required in the written or printed notice, and may be proved in the manner prescribed in case of the publication of summons. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 415; L. '91, p. 35, § 11; 2 H. C., § 1673.]

§ 1242. How Taken and Certified.—The deposition shall be written by the officer taking the same, or by the witness, or by some disinterested person, in the presence and under the direction of such officer. When completed, it shall be carefully read to or by the witness, corrected if desired, and subscribed by him. If taken upon notice, it shall be certified by the officer substantially as follows:—

State of Washington,
County of ——, } ss.

I, A B, justice of the peace in and for said county (or judge, clerk, etc., as the case may be), do hereby certify that the above deposition was taken before me, and reduced to writing by myself (or witness, as the case may be), at ——, in said county, on the —— day of ——, 18—, at —— o'clock, in pursuance of notice hereto annexed; that the above-named witness, before examination, was sworn (or affirmed) to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and that the said deposition was carefully read to (or by) said witness, and then subscribed by him.

A B, Justice of the Peace.

Dated at —— the —— day of ——, 18—.

If the deposition be taken upon a commission, the commission[er] shall testify [certify] it in substantially the same manner, and annex to it the commission and interrogatories. [Cf. L. '54, p. 191, § 315; Cd. '81, § 416; L. '91, p. 36, § 12; 2 H. C., § 1674.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 691; 75 Wash. 481.

§ 1243. How Returned.—The deposition, whether taken upon notice or upon a commission, shall be inclosed in a sealed envelope, by the officer taking the same, and directed to the clerk of the court, arbitrators, referee, or justice of the peace before whom the action is pending, or to such persons as the parties, in writing, may agree upon, and either delivered to the clerk of the court or other person, or transmitted through the mail or by some private person. [Cf. L. '54, p. 191, § 316; Cd. '81, § 417; L. '91, p. 36, § 13; 2 H. C., § 1675.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 691.

§ 1244. Use of on Trial — Objections.—Such deposition may be used by either party upon the trial, or other proceeding, against any party giving or receiving the notice, subject to all legal exceptions to the competency or credibility of the witness, or the manner of taking the deposition. But if the parties attend at the examination, no objection to the form of an interrogatory shall be made at the trial, unless the same was taken at the time of the examination. It shall be the duty of the person taking the deposition to propound to the witness every question proposed by either party, and to note all objections to the form of any interrogatory, and when any interrogatory is objected to on account of form, unless the form is amended and the objection waived, he shall write after the question, and before the answer, the words "objected to"; and when any witness declines to answer a question on the ground that it will [tend to] criminate himself, that fact shall also be noted after the question, if written down. The deposition may be taken in the form of a narrative, or by question and answer, or partly in either form, as either party present at the examination shall require. When taken by question and answer, the officer shall first write down the question and then the answer, as nearly as may be, in the language of the witness; but when the deposition is read to the witness previous to signing it, he shall be permitted to amend his answer to any question, or any part of his deposition; such amendment, however, unless both parties shall otherwise agree, shall not be made by way of interlining or erasing, but shall be added at the end of the deposition under the title "amendment by the witness," and such amendment shall intelligibly refer to the part so amended. [L. '54, p. 191, § 317; Cd. '81, § 418; 2 H. C., § 1676.]

§ 1245. Shall not be Used, When.—If it appear at the trial that the reason for taking the deposition no longer exist, the deposition shall not be read in evidence, unless the party offering it show that another of the causes specified by section 1231 then exists, or that the witness is dead, or cannot safely attend at the trial on account of sickness, age, or other bodily infirmity. [Cf. L. '54, p. 192, § 318; Cd. '81, § 419; L. '91, p. 36, § 14; 2 H. C., § 1677.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 93; 49 Wash. 648.

§ 1246. Depositions Taken in One Cause may be Used in Another, When.—When the plaintiff in any action shall discontinue it, or when it shall be dismissed for any cause, and another action shall afterward be commenced for the same cause between the same parties, or their respective representatives, all depositions lawfully taken in the first action may be used in the other, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and objections as if originally taken for such other action: Provided, that the deposition shall have been duly filed in the court where the first action was pending, and shall have remained in the custody of the court from the termination of the first action until the commencement of the other. [L. '54, p. 192, § 319; Cd. '81, § 420; H. C., § 1678.]

§ 1247. Certified Testimony of Deceased or Absent Witness.—The testimony of any witness, deceased, or out of the state, or for any other sufficient cause unable to appear and testify, given in a former action or proceeding, or in a former trial of the same cause or proceeding when reported by a stenographer, or reduced to writing, and certified by the trial judge, upon three days' notice to the opposite party or parties, together with service of a copy of the testimony proposed to be used may be given in evidence in the trial of any civil action or proceeding, where it is between the same parties and relates to the same matter. [L. '05, p. 50, § 1.]

§ 1248. When may be Used on Appeal.—When any action shall have been appealed from one court to another, and is to be tried anew in the appellate court, all depositions lawfully taken to be used in the court from which the appeal was taken may be used in the appellate court in the same manner and subject to such exceptions for informality or irregularity, and none other, as were taken in writing to such depositions in the court below; and when an action is removed from one court to another by change of venue, all depositions previously taken in the action must be certified to the court to which the action is removed, and may be used in that court in the same manner and subject to the same exceptions as if originally taken for use therein. [Cf. L. '54, p. 192, § 320; Cd. '81, § 421; L. '91, p. 37, § 15; 2 H. C., § 1679.]

CHAPTER V.

Perpetuation of Testimony.

§ 1249. Application for Order to Examine Witnesses.—When any person shall be desirous to perpetuate the testimony of any witness he shall make a statement in writing, setting forth briefly and substantially his title, claim or interest in or to the subject concerning which he desires to perpetuate the evidence, and the names of all the persons interested or supposed to be interested therein, and also the name of the witness proposed to be examined, which statement shall be under oath, and filed in the superior court. If the subject of the proposed deposition relate to real property within this state, the statement shall be filed in the county where the lands, or any part thereof, lie; in other cases, in the county where the parties interested, or some of them, reside. Upon such statement, an application may be made to such court, or judge thereof, to allow the examination of such witness. [Cf. L. '54, p. 193, § 327; L. '77, p. 93, § 425; Cd. '81, § 423; L. '91, p. 37, § 17; 2 H. C., § 1688.]

§ 1250. Hearing of Application — Notice.—The court or judge shall appoint a time and place for hearing such application, and shall order notice thereof and of the statement to be served on all persons mentioned therein as adversely interested in the matter; the notice shall be served personally on all those living in the state at least twenty days before the time of hearing the application; upon those who are not residents of the state, it shall be served by publication or otherwise, in the same manner as a notice is served upon a non-resident. [L. '54, p. 194, § 328; L. '77, p. 93, § 426; Cd. '81, § 424; 2 H. C., § 1689.]

§ 1251. Order for Examination — Commission.—If upon hearing of the parties, or of the applicant alone, should no adverse party appear, the court or judge shall be satisfied that there is sufficient cause for taking the deposition, an order shall be made allowing the examination of the witness; and such court or judge may direct a commission to issue therefor in like manner as a commission to take the testimony of witnesses in actions or proceedings pending in such court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 194, § 329; Cd. '81, § 425; L. '91, p. 37, § 18; 2 H. C., § 1690.]

§ 1252. How Taken and Returned.—The deposition of such witness, whether residing in this state or not, shall be taken upon written interrogatories filed by the applicant and cross-interrogatories filed by any party adversely interested, if he shall think fit, and it shall be taken and returned substantially in the same manner as if taken upon commission to be used in any cause pending in the same court. [L. '54, p. 194, § 330; Cd. '81, § 426; 2 H. C., § 1691.]

§ 1253. Return and Filing—How Used—Objections.—The deposition, when returned, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court by whom the commission was issued; and if a trial be had between the person at whose request the deposition was taken and the person named in the statement, or any of them, or their successors in interest, upon proof of the death or insanity of the witness, or his inability to attend the trial by reason of age, sickness, or settled infirmity, the deposition, or a certified copy thereof, may be used by either party, subject to all legal objections. But if the parties attend at the examination, no objections to the form of the interrogatory shall be made at the trial, unless the same were taken at the time of the examination. [L. '54, p. 194, § 331; Cd. '81, § 427; 2 H. C., § 1692.]

CHAPTER VI.

Documentary Evidence.

§ 1254. Court Records, etc., as Evidence.—The records and proceedings of any court of the United States, or any state or territory, shall be admissible in evidence in all cases in this state when duly authenticated by the attestation of the clerk, prothonotary, or other officer having charge of the records of such court, with the seal of such court annexed. [L. '54, p. 195, § 334; Cd. '81, § 430; 2 H. C., § 1680.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 518; 3 Wash. 169; 44 Wash. 487; 84 Wash. 162.

§ 1255. Faith Given to Judgments of Other States.—Judgment for debt rendered in any other state or any territory against any person or persons residents of this state at the time of the rendition of such judgment shall not be of any higher character as evidence of indebtedness than the original claim or demand upon which such judgment is rendered, unless such judgment shall be rendered upon personal services of summons, notice, or other due process against the defendant therein. [Cf. L. '66, p. 88, § 1; Cd. '81, § 739; L. '91, p. 70, § 1; 2 H. C., § 804.]

§ 1257. Public Records as Evidence.—Copies of all records and documents on record or on file in the offices of the various departments of the United States and of this state, when duly certified by the respective officers having by law the custody thereof, under their respective seals, where such officers have official seals, shall be admitted in evidence in the courts of this state. [Cf. L. '54, p. 195, § 336; Cd. '81, § 432; L. '91, p. 37, § 16; 2 H. C., § 1681.]

§ 1258. Seal of Public Officer, How Affixed.—A seal of court or public office, when required to any writ, process, or proceeding to authenticate a copy of any record or document, may be affixed by making an impression directly on the paper, which shall be as valid as if made upon a wafer or on wax. [L. '54, p. 196, § 338; Cd. '81, § 434; 2 H. C., § 1683.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 631.

§ 1259. Foreign Statutes Admissible in Evidence, When.—Printed copies of the statute laws of any state, territory, or foreign government, if purporting to have been published under the authority of the respective governments, or if commonly admitted and read as evidence in their courts, shall be admitted in all courts in this state, and on all other occasions, as presumptive evidence of such laws. [L. '54, p. 196, § 339; Cd. '81, § 435; 2 H. C., § 1684.]

See infra, § 7830, charters and ordinances of cities, how proven.

§ 1260. Certified Copies of Recorded Instruments as Evidence.—Whenever any deed, conveyance, bond, mortgage, or other writing shall have been recorded or filed in pursuance of law, copies of record of such deed, conveyance, bond, or other writing, duly certified by the officer having the lawful custody thereof, with the seal of the office annexed, if there be such seal, if there be no such seal, then with the official certificate of such officer, shall be received in evidence to all intents and purposes as the originals themselves. [Cf. L. '54, p. 195, § 335; L. '77, p. 95, § 433; Cd. '81, § 431; 2 H. C., § 1685.]

See infra, § 9311 et seq., telegraphic copies as evidence.

§ 1260½. Ordinances as Evidence.—All ordinances passed by any city council or board of trustees or other municipal corporation within the state of Washington shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose by the city clerk, or clerk of such board of trustees or municipal corporation of such city, and when so recorded the record thereof so made shall be received in any court of this state as prima facie evidence of the due passage of such ordinances as recorded, and this chapter shall apply as well to all ordinances heretofore as hereafter so passed and recorded. And when the ordinances of any city or town are printed by authority of such municipal corporation, the printed copies thereof shall be received as prima facie evidence that such ordinances as printed and published were duly passed. [Cd. '81, § 2062; 1 H. C., § 766.]

§ 1261. Certified Copy of Tax Deeds.—Whenever it shall be necessary in any action in any court of law or equity, wherein the title to any real estate is in controversy, to prove the conveyance to any county of such real estate in pursuance of a foreclosure of a tax certificate and sale thereunder, a copy of the tax deed issued to the county containing a description of such real estate, exclusive of the description of all other real estate therein described, certified by the county auditor of the county wherein the real estate is situated, to be such, shall be admitted in evidence by the court, and shall be proof of the conveyance of the real estate in controversy to such county, to the same extent as would a certified copy of the entire record of such tax deed. [L. '05, p. 266, § 1.]

§ 1262. Order for Inspection and to Take Copy of Writings, etc. Any court, or judge thereof, in which an action is pending may, upon notice, order either party to give to the other, within a specified time, an inspection and copy, or permission to take a copy, of any book, document, or paper in his possession, or under his control, containing evidence relating to the merits of the action or defense therein. If compliance with the order be refused, the court may exclude the book, document, or paper from being given in evidence, or if wanted as evidence by the party applying, may direct the jury to presume it to be such as he alleges it to be, and the court may also punish the party refusing as for contempt. This section shall not be construed to prevent a party from compelling another to produce books, papers, or documents where he is examined as a witness. [L. '54, p. 195, § 332; Cd. '81, § 428; 2 H. C., § 1686.]

§ 1263. When Writing may be Read in Evidence, etc.—If either party, at any time before trial, allow the other an inspection of any writing material to the action, whether mentioned in the pleadings or not, and deliver to him a copy thereof, with notice that he intends to read the same in evidence on the trial of the cause, it may be so read without proof of its genuineness or execution, unless denied by affidavit before commencement of the trial. If such denial be made of any writing not mentioned in the pleadings, the court may give time to either party to procure evidence, when necessary for the furtherance of justice. [L. '54, p. 195, § 333; Cd. '81, § 429; 2 H. C., § 1687.]

CHAPTER VII.

Oaths and Affirmations.

§ 1264. Who Authorized to Take and Administer Oaths.—Every court, judge, clerk of a court, justice of the peace, or notary public is authorized to take testimony in any action, suit, or proceeding, and such other persons in particular cases as authorized by law.

Every such court or officer is authorized to administer oaths and affirmations generally, and every such other persons in such particular case as authorized. [L. '69, p. 378, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1693.]

§ 1265. Oath, How Administered.—An oath may be administered as follows: The person who swears holds up his hand, while the person administering the oath thus addresses him: "You do solemnly swear that the evidence you shall give in the issue (or matter) now pending between —— and —— shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God." If the oath be administered to any other than a witness giving testimony, the form may be changed to: "You do solemnly swear you will true answers make to such questions as you may be asked," etc. [L. '69, p. 378, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1694.]

§ 1266. Form Varied to Suit Witnesses' Opinion.—Whenever the court or officer before which a person is offered as a witness is satisfied that he has a peculiar mode of swearing connected with or in addition to the usual form of administration, which, in witness' opinion, is more solemn or obligatory, the court or officer may, in its discretion, adopt that mode. [L. '69, p. 379, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1695.]

§ 1267. Form Adapted to Suit Religious Belief.—When a person is sworn who believes in any other than the Christian religion, he may be sworn according to the [peculiar] ceremonies of his religion, if there be any such. [L. '69, p. 379, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1696.]

§ 1268. Affirmation, Form of.—Any person who has conscientious scruples against taking an oath may make his solemn affirmation, by assenting, when addressed, in the following manner: "You do solemnly affirm that," etc., as in section 1265. [L. '69, p. 379, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1697.]

§ 1269. Affirmation Equivalent to Oath—Perjury.—Whenever an oath is required, an affirmation as prescribed in the last section is to be deemed equivalent thereto, and a false affirmation is to be deemed perjury equally with a false oath. [L. '69, p. 379, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1698.]

CHAPTER VIII.

The Restoration of Lost Records.

§ 1270. Substitution of Copy.—Whenever a pleading, process, return, verdict, bill of exceptions, order, entry, stipulation, or other act, file, or proceeding in any action or proceeding pending in any court of this state shall have been lost or destroyed by fire or otherwise, or is withheld by any person, such court may, upon the application of any party to such action or proceeding, order a copy or substantial copy thereof to be substituted. [L. '90, p. 337, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1699.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 592.

§ 1271. Court Records Lost or Destroyed — How Replaced.— Whenever the record required by law of the proceedings, judgment, or decree in any action or other proceeding of any court in this state in which a final judgment has been rendered, or any part thereof, is lost or destroyed by fire or otherwise, such court may, upon the application of any party interested therein, grant an order authorizing such record or parts thereof to be supplied or replaced,—

1. By a certified copy of such original record or part thereof, when the same can be obtained;

2. By a duly certified copy of the record in the supreme court of such original record of any action or proceeding that may have been removed to the supreme court, and remain recorded or filed in said supreme court;

3. By the original pleadings, entries, papers, and files in such action or proceeding, when the same can be obtained;

4. By an agreement in writing, signed by all the parties to such action or proceeding, their representatives or attorneys, that a substituted copy of such original record is substantially correct. [L. '90, p. 338, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1700.]

§ 1272. Action to Restore — Proceedings.—Whenever the record required by law, or any part thereof, of the proceeding or judgment or decree in any action or other proceeding of any court in this state in which the final judgment has been rendered is lost or destroyed by fire or otherwise, and such loss cannot be supplied or replaced as provided in the last preceding section, any person or party interested therein may make a written application to the court to which said record belongs, setting forth the substance of the record so lost or destroyed, which application shall be verified in the manner provided for the verification of pleadings in a civil action, and thereupon summons shall issue, and actual service, or service by publication, shall be made upon all persons interested in or affected by said original judgment or final entry, in the manner provided by law for the commencement of civil actions, provided the parties may waive the issuing or service of summons, and enter their appearance to such application; and upon the hearing of such application, without further pleadings, if the court finds that such record has been lost or destroyed, and that it is enabled, by the evidence produced, to find the substance, or effect thereof, material to the preservation of the rights of the parties thereto, it shall make an order allowing a record, which record shall recite the substance and effect of said lost or destroyed record, or part thereof, and the same shall thereupon be recorded in said court, and shall have the same effect as the original record would have if the same had not been lost or destroyed, so far as it concerns the rights of the parties so making the application, or persons or parties so served with summons, or entering their appearance, or persons claiming under them by a title acquired subsequently to the filing of the application. [L. '90, p. 338, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1701.]

§ 1273. Hearing on Application—Evidence.—Upon the hearing of the application provided in the last preceding section, the court may admit in evidence oral testimony, and any complete or partial abstract of such record, docket entries, or indices, and any other written evidence of the contents or effect of such records and published reports concerning such actions or proceedings, when the court is of opinion that such abstracts, writings, and publications were fairly and honestly made before the loss of such records occurred. [L. '90, p. 339, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1702.]

§ 1274. Lost Records — Time Extended for Appeal, When.—Whenever a lost or destroyed judgment or order is one to which either party has a right to a proceeding in error or of appeal, the time intervening between the filing of the application mentioned in section 1272 and the final order of the court thereon shall be excluded in computing the time within which such proceeding or appeal may be taken as provided by law. [L. '90, p. 339, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1703.]

§ 1275. Costs.—The costs to be taxed upon an application to restore a lost or destroyed record shall be the same as are provided for like service in civil actions, and may be adjudged against either or any party to such proceeding or application, or may, in the discretion of the court, be apportioned between such parties. [L. '90, p. 339, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1704.]

§ 1276. Restoration of Lost or Destroyed Probate Records.—In case of the loss or destruction by fire or otherwise of the records, or any part thereof, of any probate court, or superior court having probate jurisdiction, the superior court may proceed, upon its own motion, or upon application in writing of any party in interest, to restore the records, papers, and proceedings of either of said courts relating to the estates of deceased persons, including recorded wills, wills probated or filed for probate in such courts, all marriage records, and all other records and proceedings, and for the purpose of restoring said records, wills, papers, or proceedings, or any part thereof, may cause citations or other process to be issued to any and all parties to be designated by him, and may compel the attendance in court of any and all witnesses whose testimony may be necessary to the establishment of any such record or part thereof and the production of any and all written or documentary evidence which may be by him deemed necessary in determining the true import and effect of the original record, will, paper, or other document belonging to the files of said court; and may make such orders and decrees establishing such original record, will, paper, document, or proceeding, or the substance thereof, as to him shall seem just and proper. [L. '90, p. 340, § 7; 2 H. C., § 1705.]

§ 1277. Costs, by Whom Paid.—The costs incurred in the superior courts in proceedings under this chapter shall be paid by the party or parties interested in such proceedings, or in whose behalf such proceedings are instituted. [L. '90, p. 340, § 8; 2 H. C., § 1706.]

See Const., Art. IV, § 6.

§ 1279. Records to be Kept.—There shall be kept in the office of the clerk of the superior court the following books of record of probate matters:—

1. A journal, in which shall be entered all orders, decrees and judgments made by the court, or the judge thereof, and the minutes of the court, in probate proceedings;

2. A record of wills, in which shall be recorded all wills admitted to probate;

3. A record of letters testamentary and of administration, in which all letters testamentary and of administration shall be recorded;

4. A record of bonds, in which all bonds and obligations required by law to be approved by the court or judge in matters of probate shall be recorded;

5. A record of petitions, in which all petitions for orders of sale of real estate shall be recorded;

6. A record of claims, in which at least one page shall be given to each estate, or case, wherein shall be entered, under the title of each estate, or case, in separate columns properly ruled,—1. The names of claimants against the estate; 2. The date of filing proof of claim; 3. The amount claimed; 4. The amount allowed; 5. The date of allowance; 6. The nature of the claim; 7. The amount paid; 8. The number of the voucher for each payment; 9. The date of filing the voucher;

7. A memorandum of the files, in which at least one page shall be given to each estate or case, wherein shall be noted each paper filed in the case, except proof of claims and vouchers noted in record of claims, and the date of filing each paper;

8. A record of marriages, in which certificates of all marriages solemnized in the county shall be recorded. [Cf. L. '54, p. 310, § 5; L. '60, p. 235, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1300; L. '91, p. 380, § 2; 2 H. C., § 846; Abb. R. P. S., pp. 360–373.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 489.

§ 1280. Powers of Judge at Chambers.—The judges of the superior courts may, at chambers, appoint appraisers, receive inventories and accounts, suspend the powers of executors, administrators, or guardians in the cases allowed by law, grant letters of administration or guardianship, approve claims and bonds, and direct the issuance of all writs and process necessary in the exercise of their powers. [Cf. L. '65, p. 24, § 1; L. '73, p. 472, § 2; L. '75, p. 36, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2138; L. '91, p. 94, § 15; 2 H. C., § 847.]

CHAPTER II.

Notices and Citations.

§ 1282. Service and Return.—The officer to whom the citation is directed shall serve it by delivering a copy to the person or persons named therein, and shall return the original to the court according to its direction, indorsing thereon the time and manner of service. [Cf. L. '54, p. 305, § 227; L. '73, p. 255, § 17; Cd. '81, § 1312; 2 H. C., § 849.]

§ 1283. Time of Service.—In all cases in which citations are issued from the superior court in probate proceedings, they shall be served at least ten days before the term [time] at which they are made returnable, except when issued from the court in cases where the law requires the judge to issue them upon his own motion, and he does so issue them; and in such cases they shall be served in sufficient time to allow the person served to be in attendance on the court. [Cf. L. '63, p. 206, § 46; L. '73, p. 256, § 18; Cd. '81, § 1313; L. '91, p. 381, § 4; 2 H. C., § 850.]

CHAPTER IV.

The Custody and Proof of Wills.

§ 1287. Deposit of Will.—Any last will and testament in writing, being inclosed in a sealed envelope or wrapper, and having indorsed thereon the name of the testator or testatrix, and his or her place of residence, and the day when and the person by whom it is delivered, may be deposited by the person making the same, or by any person for him, in the office of the clerk of the superior court, in the county where the maker resides, and such clerk of court shall receive and safely keep the same in a place to be provided therefor and to be marked and designated as the "Files of Wills," and shall give a certificate of deposit thereof to the person so depositing the same, and said will shall be surrended and redelivered to the maker, or to such person as may be designated by the written order of the maker upon a surrender of such certificate. [L. '93, p. 49, § 1.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 438.

§ 1288. Custody, Delivery and Publication.—Such will when so deposited shall, during the lifetime of the testator or testatrix, be delivered only to himself or herself, or to some person by the maker authorized by order in writing, duly signed, executed and acknowledged before a notary public or other qualified officer in the same manner as is required by the laws of this state in the execution of instruments for the conveyance of real property, and upon the surrender of such certificate; and after the death of the maker said will shall be opened in public before witnesses by the judge of said court and may be retained therein for probate if necessary. [L. '93, p. 49, § 2.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 440.

§ 1289. Custodian to Produce, When—Penalty.—Any person having the custody or control of any will, shall, within thirty days after he shall have received knowledge of the death of the testator or testatrix, deliver said will into the superior court which has jurisdiction, or to the person named in said will as executor; and any person who shall willfully fail or neglect to deliver any such will in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Cf. L. '60, p. 174, § 45; Cd. '81, § 1342; 2 H. C., § 854; L. '93, p. 49, § 3.]

§ 1290. Executor to Produce Will, When.—Any person named as executor in any will shall, within thirty days after he has knowledge that he is executor, present the will, if in his possession, to the superior court which has jurisdiction. [L. '60, p. 174, § 46; Cd. '81, § 1343; 2 H. C., § 855.]

§ 1291. Acceptance or Renunciation.—An executor named in the will may decline to act by filing a written renunciation at the time of filing said will; but if he intends to accept, he shall present with the will a petition praying that the will be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary be issued to him. [L. '60, p. 174, § 47; Cd. '81, § 1344; 2 H. C., § 856.]

§ 1292. Damages for Failure to Comply.—Any person violating either of the last three preceding sections, without reasonable excuse, shall be liable to every person interested in the will for damages caused by such neglect. [Cf. L. '60, p. 174, § 48; Cd. '81, § 1345; L. '91, p. 382, § 6; 2 H. C., § 857.]

§ 1293. Petition by Executor for Production and Probate of.—Any person named as an executor in a will, not having the same in his possession, may petition the court of proper jurisdiction for an order to have the same produced, that it may be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary may be issued to him. [L. '60, p. 174, § 49; Cd. '81, § 1346; 2 H. C., § 858.]

§ 1294. Petition by Other Interested Persons.—Any person having an interest in the will may in like manner present a petition praying that it may be required to be produced and admitted to probate. [L. '60, p. 174, § 50; Cd. '81, § 1347; 2 H. C., § 859.]

§ 1295. Court may Compel Production.—The said court may compel by citation and attachment any person in whose possession any will may be to produce it in court at such time as the court may order. [L. '60, p. 175, § 51; Cd. '81, § 1348; 2 H. C., § 860.]

§ 1296. Application, to Whom Made—Power to Enforce.—Applications for the probate of a will, or for letters testamentary, may be made to the judge of the superior court, and he may also at any time issue all necessary orders and process to enforce the production of any will. [L. '60, p. 175, § 52; Cd. '81, § 1349; 2 H. C., § 861.]

§ 1297. Certificate of Probate or Rejection.—When any will is exhibited to be proven, the court may immediately receive the proof and grant a certificate of probate, or if such will be rejected, issue a certificate of rejection. [L. '54, p. 315, § 17; Cd. '81, § 1350; 2 H. C., § 862.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 440; 69 Wash. 481, 483; 76 Wash. 32.

§ 1298. Testimony of Absent Witnesses.—If any witness be prevented by sickness from attending at the time when any will may be produced for probate, or reside out of the state or more than thirty miles from the place where the will is to be proven, such court may issue a commission, annexed to such will, and directed to any judge, justice of the peace, or mayor, or other person, empowering him to take and certify the attestation of such witness. [L. '54, p. 315, § 18; Cd. '81, § 1351; 2 H. C., § 863.]

§ 1299. Effect of Such Testimony.—If such witness appear before such officer and make oath or affirmation that the testator signed the writing annexed to such commission as his last will, or that some other person signed it by his direction and in his presence, that he was of sound mind, that the witness subscribed his name thereto in presence of the testator, the testimony so taken shall have the same force as if taken before the court. [L. '54, p. 315, § 19; Cd. '81, § 1352; 2 H. C., § 864.]

§ 1300. Proof Where One Witness is Dead, etc.—When one of the witnesses to such will shall be examined, and the other witnesses are dead, insane, or their residence unknown, then such proof shall be taken of the handwriting of the testator, and of the witness dead, insane, or residence unknown, and of such other circumstances as would be sufficient to prove such will. [L. '54, p. 315, § 20; Cd. '81, § 1353; 2 H. C., § 865.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 558; 69 Wash. 481.

§ 1301. Proof Where All Witnesses are Dead.—If it shall appear, to the satisfaction of the court, that all the subscribing witnesses are dead, insane, or their residence unknown, the court shall take and receive such proof of the handwriting of the testator and subscribing witnesses to the will, and of such other facts and circumstances as would be sufficient to prove such will. [L. '54, p. 315, § 21; Cd. '81, § 1354; 2 H. C., § 866.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 481.

§ 1302. Testimony, How Taken and Authenticated.—All the testimony adduced in support of the will shall be reduced to writing, signed by the witnesses, and certified by the judge of the court. [L. '54, p. 315, § 22; Cd. '81, § 1355; 2 H. C., § 867.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 481, 483.

§ 1303. Recording Wills.—All wills shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose, within thirty days after probate, and the originals shall be carefully filed. [L. '54, p. 316, § 26; Cd. '81, § 1356; 2 H. C., § 868.]

§ 1304. Admissible in Evidence, When.—Every will proved according to the provisions of this chapter, recorded and certified by the judge of the superior court, and attested by the seal of said court, may be read as evidence without any further proof. [L. '54, p. 316, § 27; Cd. '81, § 1357; 2 H. C., § 869.]

§ 1305. Copies Admissible, When.—The record of any will made, proved, and recorded as aforesaid, and the exemplification of such record by the clerk in whose custody the same may be, shall be received as evidence, and shall be as effectual in all cases as the original would be if produced and proven. [Cf. L. '54, p. 316, § 28; Cd. '81, § 1358; L. '91, p. 382, § 7; 2 H. C., § 870.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 296.

§ 1306. Recorded in Other Counties, When.—In all cases where lands devised by last will are situated in different counties, a copy of such will shall be recorded in the county auditor's office in each county within six months after probate. [L. '54, p. 316, § 29; Cd. '81, § 1359; 2 H. C., § 871.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 484.

§ 1307. Contest of Will.—If any person interested in any will shall appear within one year after the probate or rejection thereof, and, by petition to the superior court having jurisdiction, contests the validity of said will, or pray to have the will proven which has been rejected, he shall file a petition containing his objections and exceptions to said will, or to the rejection thereof. Issue shall be made up, tried and determined in said court respecting the competency of the deceased to make last will and testament, or respecting the execution by the deceased of such last will and testament under restraint or undue influence or fraudulent representation, or for any other cause affecting the validity of such will. [Cf. L. '54, p. 316, § 30; L. '60, p. 176, § 63; L. '73, p. 264, § 64; Cd. '81, § 1360; L. '91, p. 382, § 8; 2 H. C., § 872.]

§ 1308. Interested Parties to be Cited.—Upon the filing of the petition referred to in the next preceding section, a citation shall be issued to the executors who have taken upon them the execution of the will, or to the administrators with the will annexed, and to all legatees named in the will residing in the state, or to their guardians if any of them are minors, or their personal representatives if any of them are dead, requiring them to appear before the court on a day therein specified, to show cause why the petition should not be granted. [Cf. L. '60, p. 176, § 64; Cd. '81, § 1361; L. '91, p. 382, § 9; 2 H. C., § 873.]

§ 1309. Adjudication Binding, When.—If no person shall appear within the time aforesaid, the probate or rejection of such will shall be binding, save to infants, married women, persons absent from the United States, or of unsound mind, a period of one year after their respective disabilities are removed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 316, § 32; L. '60, p. 176, § 65; Cd. '81, § 1362; 2 H. C., § 874.]

§ 1310. Evidence Admitted at Time of Probate, Sufficient When. In all trials respecting the validity of a will, if any subscribing witness be deceased, or cannot be found, the oath of such witness, examined at the time of probate, may be admitted as evidence. [L. '54, p. 317, § 33; L. '60, p. 177, § 66; Cd. '81, § 1363; 2 H. C., § 875.]

§ 1311. Probate Annulled, When.—If, upon the trial of said issue, it shall be decided that the will is for any reason invalid, or that it is not sufficiently proved to have been the last will of the testator, the will and probate thereof shall be annulled and revoked. [L. '60, p. 177, § 67; Cd. '81, § 1364; 2 H. C., § 876.]

§ 1312. Effect of Revocation.—Upon the revocation being made, the powers of the executor, or administrator with the will annexed shall cease, but such executor or administrator shall not be liable for any act done in good faith previous to service of written notice of intention to contest said will. [L. '60, p. 177, § 68; Cd. '81, § 1365; 2 H. C., § 877.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 602.

§ 1313. Costs and Expenses, by Whom Paid.—The fees and expenses shall be paid by the losing party. If the probate be revoked or the will annulled, the party who shall have resisted such revocation shall pay the cost and expenses of proceedings out of the property of the deceased. [L. '60, p. 177, § 69; Cd. '81, § 1366; 2 H. C., § 878.]

Cited in 58 Wash. 201, 202; 79 Wash. 598.

§ 1314. Proof of Lost or Destroyed Will.—Whenever any will be lost or destroyed, by accident or design, the superior court shall have power to take proof of the execution and validity of the will, and to establish the same, notice to [all] persons interested having first been given; such proof shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses. But no will shall be allowed to be proved as a lost or destroyed will, unless the same shall be proved to have been in existence at the time of the death of the testator, or be shown to have been fraudulently destroyed in the lifetime of the testator, nor unless its provisions shall be clearly and distinctly proved by at least two credible witnesses. [L. '60, p. 177, § 70; L. '73, p. 265, § 71; Cd. '81, § 1367; 2 H. C., § 879.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 557; 70 Wash. 230, 231, 232.

§ 1315. Decree—Recording.—When any such will shall be established, the provisions thereof shall be distinctly stated in the judgment establishing it, and a copy of such decree shall be certified by the clerk, under the seal of the court; and such copy, together with the testimony upon which the decree is founded, shall be recorded as other wills are required to be recorded, and letters testamentary or of administration, with the will annexed, shall be issued thereon, in the same manner as upon wills produced and duly proved. [Cf. L. '60, p. 177, § 71; Cd. '81, § 1368; L. '91, p. 382, § 10; 2 H. C., § 880.]

§ 1316. Restraining Order Pending Such Proceedings.—If, before or during the pendency of an application to prove a lost or destroyed will, letters of administration be granted on the estate of the testator, or letters testamentary of any previous will of the testator be granted, the court shall have authority to restrain the administrators or executors so appointed from any acts or proceedings which would be injurious to the legatees or devisees claiming under the lost or destroyed will. [L. '60, p. 177, § 72; Cd. '81, § 1369; 2 H. C., § 881.]

§ 1317. Foreign Wills, How Proved.—Wills probated in any other state or territory of the United States, or in any foreign country or state, shall be admitted to probate in this state on the production of a copy of such will and of the original record of probate thereof, authenticated by the attestation of the clerk of the court in which such probation was made; or if there be no clerk, by the attestation of the judge thereof, and by the seal of office of such officers, if they have a seal. [L. '77, p. 284, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1370; 2 H. C., § 882.]

CHAPTER V.

Wills.

§ 1319. Who may Devise.—Every person who shall have attained the age of majority, of sound mind, may by last will devise all his or her estate, real and personal. [L. '54, p. 313, § 1; L. '60, p. 169, § 18; L. '63, p. 207, § 51; Cd. '81, § 1318; 1 H. C., § 1458.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 411; 47 Wash. 78–81; 83 Wash. 235.

§ 1320. Requisites, and Execution of.—Every will shall be in writing, signed by the testator or testatrix, or by some other person under his or her direction in his presence, and shall be attested by two or more competent witnesses, subscribing their names to the will in the presence of the testator. [L. '54, p. 313, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1319; 1 H. C., § 1459.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 558; 30 Wash. 242; 63 Wash. 441; 86 Wash. 468, 472; 87 Wash. 45.

§ 1320–1. Wills Made Outside the State.—A last will and testament, executed without this state in the mode prescribed by the law, either of the place where executed or of the testator's domicile, shall be deemed to be legally executed, and shall be of the same force and effect as if executed in the mode prescribed by the laws of this state: Provided, said last will and testament is in writing and subscribed by the testator. [L. '11, p. 9, § 1.]

§ 1321. Signing Testator's Name.—Every person who shall sign the testator's or testatrix's name to any will by his or her direction shall subscribe his own name as a witness to such will, and state that he subscribed the testator's name at his request. [L. '54, p. 313, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1320; 1 H. C., § 1460.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 484; 78 Wash. 318.

§ 1322. Will in Writing, Revocation of.—No will in writing, except in cases hereinafter mentioned, nor any part thereof, shall be revoked except by a subsequent will in writing, or by burning, canceling, tearing, or obliterating the same, by the testator or testatrix, or in his or her presence, or by his or her consent or direction. [L. '54, p. 313, § 6; Cd. '81, § 1321; 1 H. C., § 1461.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 80; 63 Wash. 440.

§ 1323. Revocation of by Subsequent Marriage, When.—If, after making any will, the testator shall marry and the wife shall be living at the time of the death of the testator, such will shall be deemed revoked, unless provision shall have been made for her by marriage settlement, or unless she be provided for in the will, or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision, and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of revocation shall be received. [L. '54, p. 313, § 7; Cd. '81, § 1322; 1 H. C., § 1462.]

§ 1324. Bond to Convey not Deemed Revocation.—A bond, covenant, or agreement made for a valuable consideration by a testator to convey any property, devised or bequeathed in any last will previously made, shall not be deemed a revocation of such previous devise or bequest, but such property shall pass by the devise or bequest, subject to the same remedies on such bond, covenant, or agreement, for specific performance or otherwise, against devisees or legatees, as might be had by law against the heirs of the testator or his next of kin, if the same had descended to him. [L. '54, p. 314, § 9; Cd. '81, § 1323; 1 H. C., § 1463.]

§ 1325. Charge or Encumbrance not Deemed Revocation.—A charge or encumbrance upon any real or personal estate for the purpose of securing the payment of money, or the performance of any covenant or agreement, shall not be deemed a revocation of any will relating to the same estate, previously executed. The devises and legacies therein contained shall pass and take effect, subject to such charge or encumbrance. [L. '54, p. 314, § 10; Cd. '81, § 1324; 1 H. C., § 1464.]

§ 1326. Void When Children not Provided for.—If any person make his last will and die, leaving a child or children, or descendants of such child or children, in case of their death, not named or provided for in such will, although born after the making of such will, or the death of the testator, every such testator, so far as he shall regard such child or children, or their descendants, not provided for, shall be deemed to die intestate, and such child or children, or their descendants, shall be entitled to such proportion of the estate of the testator, real and personal, as if he had died intestate, and the same shall be assigned to them, and all the other heirs, devisees, and legatees shall refund their proportional part. [L. '54, p. 314, § 11; Cd. '81, § 1325; 1 H. C., § 1465.]

See infra, § 1699, descent as to adopted children.

§ 1327. Advancements, Effect of.—If such child or children, or their descendants, shall have an equal proportion of the testator's estate bestowed on them in the testator's lifetime, by way of advancement, they shall take nothing by virtue of the provisions of the preceding sections. [L. '54, p. 314, § 12; Cd. '81, § 1326; 1 H. C., § 1466.]

§ 1328. Of Devise, Where Devisee Dies Before Testator.—When any estate shall be devised to any child, grandchild, or other relative of the testator, and such devisee shall die before the testator, having lineal descendants, such descendants shall take the estate, real and personal, as such devisee would have done in case he had survived the testator. [L. '54, p. 314, § 13; Cd. '81, § 1327; 1 H. C., § 1467.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 538, 539; 84 Wash. 165.

§ 1329. Revocation of Second Will Revives First, When.—If, after making any will, the testator shall duly make and execute a second will, the destruction, canceling, or revocation of such second will shall not revive the first will unless it appears by the terms of such revocation that it was his intention to revive and give effect to the first will, or unless he shall duly republish his first will. [L. '54, p. 315, § 14; Cd. '81, § 1328; 1 H. C., § 1468.]

§ 1330. Nuncupative Will Valid, When.—No nuncupative will shall be good when the estate bequeathed exceeds the value of two hundred dollars, unless the same be proved by two witnesses who were present at the making thereof, and it be proven that the testator, at the time of pronouncing the same, did bid some person present to bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect, and such nuncupative will was made at the time of the last sickness and at the dwelling-house of the deceased, or where he had been residing for the space of ten days or more, except where such person was taken sick from home and died before his return. Nothing herein contained shall prevent any mariner at sea or soldier in the military service from disposing of his wages or other personal property by nuncupative will. [L. '54, p. 315, §§ 23, 24; Cd. '81, § 1329; 1 H. C., § 1469.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 481; 87 Wash. 48.

§ 1331. Proof of Nuncupative Will.—No proof shall be received of any nuncupative will unless it be offered within six months after speaking the testamentary words, nor unless the words, or the substance thereof, be first committed to writing, and a citation issued to the widow or next of kin of the deceased, that they may contest the will if they think proper. [L. '54, p. 316, § 25; Cd. '81, § 1330; 1 H. C., § 1470.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 214; 69 Wash. 481.

§ 1332. Devises to Witnesses Void, When.—All beneficial devises, legacies, and gifts whatever, made or given in any will to a subscribing witness thereto, shall be void unless there are two other competent witnesses to the same; but a mere charge on the estate of the testator for the payment of debts shall not prevent his creditors from being competent witnesses to his will. If such witness, to whom any beneficial devise, legacy, or gift may have been made or given, would have been entitled to any share in the testator's estate in case the will is not established, then so much of the estate as would have descended or would have been distributed to such witness shall be saved to him as will not exceed the value of the devise or bequest made to him in the will; and he may recover the same from the devisees or legatees named in the will in proportion to and out of the parts devised and bequeathed to him. [L. '60, p. 171, §§ 34, 35; Cd. '81, § 1331; 1 H. C., § 1471.]

§ 1333. Devise of Land, How Construed.—Every devise of land in any will shall be construed to convey all the estate of the devisor therein which he could lawfully devise, unless it shall clearly appear by the will that he intended to convey a less estate. [L. '60, p. 172, § 36; Cd. '81, § 1332; 1 H. C., § 1472.]

Cited in 24 Wash. 285.

§ 1334. Estate for Life, Remainder in Fee.—If any person, by last will, devise any real estate to any person for the term of such person's life, such devise vests in the devisee an estate for life, and without the remainder is specially devised to the heirs of said devisee, it shall revert to the heirs at law of the testator. [L. '54, p. 318, § 45; Cd. '81, § 1333; 1 H. C., § 1473.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 254.

§ 1335. After-acquired Lands Pass by Will.—Any estate, rights, or interest in lands acquired by the testator after the making of his or her will shall pass thereby, and in like manner as if it passed at the time of making the will, if such shall manifestly appear by the will to have been the intention of the testator. [L. '60, p. 172, § 38; Cd. '81, § 1334; 1 H. C., § 1474.]

§ 1336. Contribution Among Legatees.—When any testator in his last will shall give any chattel or real estate to any person, and the same shall be taken in execution for the payment of the testator's debts, then all the other legatees, devisees, and heirs shall refund their proportional part of such loss to such person from whom the bequest shall be taken. [L. '54, p. 318, § 47; Cd. '81, § 1335; 1 H. C., § 1475.]

§ 1337. Contribution, When Court may Enforce.—When any devisees, legatees, or heirs shall be required to refund any part of the estate received by them, for the purpose of making up the share, devise, or legacy of any other devisee, legatee, or heir, the superior court, upon the petition of the person entitled to contribution or distribution of such estate, may order the same to be made, and enforce such order. [L. '54, p. 318, § 48; Cd. '81, § 1336; 1 H. C., § 1476.]

§ 1338. Term "Will" Construed.—The term "will," as used in this chapter, shall be so construed as to include all codicils attached to any will. [L. '54, p. 319, § 49; Cd. '81, § 1337; 1 H. C., § 1477.]

§ 1339. Construction of Wills.—All courts and others concerned in the execution of last wills shall have due regard to the direction[s] of the will, and the true intent and meaning of the testator, in all matters brought before them. [L. '54, p. 319, § 50; Cd. '81, § 1338; 1 H. C., § 1478.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 675.

§ 1340. Words Importing Number and Gender, How Construed.—Words in this chapter contained, or in this act, which import the singular number only, may also be applied to the plural of persons and things, and words importing the masculine gender only may be extended to females also, when such construction shall be necessary. [Cd. '81, § 1339; 1 H. C., § 1479.]

CHAPTER VI.

Descent.

§ 1341. Descent of Real Property—Rule of.—When any person shall die seised of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any right thereto, or entitled to any interest therein, in fee simple, or for the life of another, not having devised the same, they shall descend subject to the debts as follows:—

1. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and only one child, or the lawful issue of one child, in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife and child, or issue of such child; if the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, one-third to the surviving husband or wife, and the remainder in equal shares to his children and to the lawful issue of any deceased child by right of representation; if there be no child of the decedent living at his death, the remainder goes to all of his lineal descendants; and if all the descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the decedent, they share equally; otherwise they take according to the right of representation;

2. If the decedent leaves no issue, the estate goes in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife, and to the decedent's father and mother, if both survive. If there be no father nor mother, then one-half goes in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent, and to the children of any deceased brothers or sisters, by right of representation. If decedent leaves no issue, nor husband nor wife, the estate must go to his father and mother;

3. If there be no issue, nor husband nor wife, nor father and mother, nor either, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent, and to the children of any deceased brother or sister, by right of representation;

4. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife and no issue, and no father nor mother, nor brother nor sister, the whole estate goes to the surviving husband or wife;

5. If the decedent leaves no issue, nor husband nor wife, and no father nor mother, nor brother nor sister, the estate must go to the next of kin, in equal degree, excepting that when there are two or more collateral kindred in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearest ancestor must be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor more remote, however;

6. If the decedent leaves several children, or one child and the issue of one or more other children, and any such surviving child dies under age, and not having been married, all the estate that comes to the deceased child by inheritance from such decedent descends in equal shares to the other children of the same parent, and to the issue of any such other children who are dead, by right of representation;

7. If, at the death of such child, who dies under age, not having been married, all the other children of his parents are also dead, and any of them have left issue, the estate that came to such child by inheritance from his parent descends to the issue of all other children of the same parent and if all the issue are in the same degree of kindred to the child, they share the estate equally; otherwise they take according to the right of representation;

8. If the decedent leaves no husband, wife, or kindred, the estate escheats to the state, for the support of common schools in the county in which the decedent resided during lifetime, or where the estate may be situated. [L. '75, p. 53, § 1; Cd. '81, § 3302; 1 H. C., § 1480.]

§ 1342. Descent of Community Property.—Upon the death of either husband or wife, one-half of the community property shall go to the survivor, subject to the community debts, and the other half shall be subject to the testamentary disposition of the deceased husband or wife, subject also to the community debts. In case no testamentary disposition shall have been made by the deceased husband or wife of his or her half of the community property, it shall descend equally to the legitimate issue of his, her, or their bodies. If there be no issue of said deceased living, or none of their representatives living, then the said community property shall all pass to the survivor, to the exclusion of collateral heirs, subject to the community debts, the family allowance, and the charges and expenses of administration. § 1343. Tenancy in Dower and by Curtesy Abolished.—The provisions of section 1341 as to the inheritance of the husband and wife from each other, apply only to the separate property of the decedents, and take the place of tenancy in dower and tenancy by curtesy, which are hereby abolished. [L. '75, p. 55, § 3; Cd. '81, § 3304; 1 H. C., § 1482.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 539; 14 Wash. 15.

§ 1344. Survivorship Between Joint Tenants Abolished.—If partition be not made between joint tenants, the parts of those who die first shall not accrue to the survivors, but descend, or pass by devise, and shall be subject to debts and other legal charges, or transmissible to executors or administrators, and be considered, to every intent and purpose, in the same view as if such deceased joint tenants had been tenants in common: Provided, that community property shall not be affected by this section. Cited in 10 Wash. 659; 63 Wash. 89; 71 Wash. 272.

§ 1345. Illegitimate Child, Rights of.—Every illegitimate child shall be considered as an heir to the person who shall in writing, signed in the presence of a competent witness, have acknowledged himself to be the father of such child, and shall in all cases be considered as heir of his mother, and shall inherit his or her estate, in whole or in part, as the case may be, in the same manner as if he had been born in lawful wedlock; but he shall not be allowed to claim, as representing his father or mother, any part of the estate of his or her kindred, either lineal or collateral, unless before his death his parents shall have intermarried, and his father, after such marriage, shall have acknowledged him as aforesaid, and adopted him into his family, in which case such child and the legitimate children shall be considered as brothers and sisters, and on the death of either of them intestate, and without issue, the others shall inherit his estate, and he theirs, as heretofore provided in like manner as if all the children had been legitimate, saving to the father and mother, respectively, their rights in the estates of all the said children, as provided heretofore, in like manner as if all had been legitimate. [L. '75, p. 55, § 4; Cd. '81, § 3305; 1 H. C., § 1484.]

§ 1347. Degree of Kindred, How Computed.—The degree of kindred shall be computed according to the rules of the civil law, and the kindred of the half-blood shall inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree. [L. '75, p. 56, § 6; Cd. '81, § 3307; 1 H. C., § 1486.]

§ 1348. Advancement, How Considered.—Any estate, real or personal, that may have been given by the intestate in his lifetime as an advancement to any child, or other lineal descendant, shall be considered a part of the intestate's estate, so far as regards the division and distribution thereof among his issue, and shall be taken by such child or other descendant, toward his share of the intestate's estate. [L. '75, p. 56, § 7; Cd. '81, § 3308; 1 H. C., § 1487.]

Cited in 26 Wash. 121.

§ 1349. Effect of Advancements on Distributive Shares.—If the amount of such advancement then exceed the share of the heir so advanced, he shall be excluded from any further portion in the division and distribution of the estate, but he shall not be required to refund any part of such advancement, and if the amount so received shall be less than his share, he shall be entitled to so much more as will give him his full share of the estate of the deceased. [L. '75, p. 56, § 8; Cd. '81, § 3309; 1 H. C., § 1488.]

§ 1350. Advancement of Realty, Effect on Distributive Shares.—If any such advancement shall have been made in real estate, the value thereof shall, for the purposes of the preceding section, be considered as part of the real estate to be divided, and if it be in personal estate, and if in either case it shall exceed the share of real or personal estate respectively that would have come to the heir so advanced, he shall not refund any part of it, but shall receive so much less out of the other part of the estate as will make the whole share equal to those of the other heirs who are in the same degree with him. [L. '75, p. 56, § 9; Cd. '81, § 3310; 1 H. C., § 1489.]

§ 1351. Advancement, What is.—All gifts and grants shall be deemed to have been made in advancement, if expressed in the gift or grant to be so made, or if charged in writing by the intestate as an advancement, or acknowledged in writing as such by the child or other descendant. [L. '75, p. 57, § 10; Cd. '81, § 3311; 1 H. C., § 1490.]

§ 1352. Value of Estate Advanced.—If the value of the estate so advanced shall be expressed in the conveyance, or in the charge thereof made by the intestate, or in the acknowledgment by the party receiving it, it shall be considered of that value in the division and distribution of the estate; otherwise it shall be estimated at its value when given. [L. '75, p. 57, § 11; Cd. '81, § 3312; 1 H. C., § 1491.]

§ 1353. Death of Descendant to Whom Advancement Made.—If any child or lineal descendant so advanced shall die before the intestate, leaving issue, the advancement shall be taken into consideration in the division and distribution of estate, and the amount thereof shall be allowed accordingly by the representatives of the heir so advanced, as so much received towards their share of the estate, in like manner as if the advancement had been made directly to them. [L. '75, p. 57, § 12; Cd. '81, § 3313; 1 H. C., § 1492.]

§ 1354. Words "Issue" and "Real Estate" Defined.—The word "issue," as used in this chapter, includes all the lawful lineal descendants of the ancestor, and the words "real estate" include all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and all rights thereto, and all interest therein possessed and claimed in fee simple, or for the life of a third person. [L. '75, p. 57, § 13; Cd. '81, § 314; 1 H. C., § 1493.]

place when the descendants of any deceased heir take the same share or right in the estate of another that their parent would have taken if living. Posthumous children are considered as living at the death of their parent. [L. '75, p. 57, § 14; Cd. '81, § 315; 1 H. C., § 1494.]

§ 1356. Escheats for Want of Heirs.—Whenever any person possessed of any property within this state shall die intestate leaving no heirs, such property shall escheat to, and the title thereto immediately vest in the state of Washington, subject, however, to existing liens thereon, the payments of decedent's debts, and the expenses of administration. [L. '07, p. 253, § 1.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 103; 87 Wash. 71.

§ 1357. Administration of Escheated Estates.—Such estates shall be administered and settled in the same manner as other estates. If at the expiration of eighteen months after the issuance of letters of administration no heirs shall have appeared and established their claim thereto, the court having jurisdiction of such estate shall render a decree escheating all the property and effects of such decedent to the state of Washington. [L. '07, p. 253, § 2.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 71.

§ 1358. Personal Property to be Sold.—After any estate shall have been escheated as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the administrator thereof, under the supervision and direction of the court, to sell all the personal property, such sales to be made in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem to the best advantage to the estate. The proceeds of such personal property shall be first exhausted before any real property shall be subjected to the debts of decedent, expenses of administration, or the satisfaction of liens thereon. [L. '07, p. 254, § 3.]

§ 1359. Tax Commission—Powers in Relation to Escheats.—The state board of tax commissioners shall have supervision of all matters relating to escheats. Whenever the said board shall have information that any person possessed of property within this state has died intestate and without known heirs, said board, or any member thereof, may apply to the court for the appointment of an administrator, or take such other steps as it may deem proper. No sale of any property of such estate, except perishable goods or settlement of any final account, shall be made or be valid until after fifteen days' notice thereof in writing shall have been first served upon the said board of tax commissioners. Said board, or any member thereof, may demand of any administrator, other officer or person having charge of or being in possession of such estate or property, or any portion thereof, and it shall be the duty of such officer or person to furnish said board, or any member thereof, any information or copies of any papers, vouchers, claims or reports in his possession, relating thereto, and failure or refusal so to do shall be cause for his removal by the court. [L. '07, p. 254, § 4.]

§ 1360. Account of Administrator—Lists of Property.—Upon the settlement of any esheated estate, and before the discharge of the administrator, officer or person in charge thereof, all moneys in his hands shall be paid to the state treasurer who shall issue his receipt therefor in duplicate, one of which shall be filed with the state board of tax commissioners, and he shall prepare a duplicate list accurately describing all real property so escheated, one of which shall be filed with the said state board of tax commissioners and one in the office of the commissioner of public lands. [L. '07, p. 254, § 5.]

§ 1361. Record of Escheats.—The state board of tax commissioners shall keep a record in which shall be entered memoranda of all matters and proceedings in relation to escheats, and in which shall be entered a description of all real property escheated, and they shall also keep an account of all moneys collected and paid into the state treasury under the provisions of this act. [L. '07, p. 255, § 6.]

§ 1362. Escheats to Permanent School Fund.—All escheats shall inure to and become a part of the permanent common school fund of the state, and all escheated real property shall be managed, sold and handled in the manner provided by law for the management, disposition and sale of the state common school funds. [L. '07, p. 255, § 7.]

§ 1363. Attorney General—Duty as to Escheats.—It shall be the duty of the attorney general and of the several county attorneys of the state to advise and assist the said state board of tax commissioners in any and all of the matters and proceedings that may be had under the provisions of this act. [L. '07, p. 255, § 8.]

CHAPTER VII.

Distribution.

§ 1364. Distribution of Separate Personal Estate.—When any person shall die possessed of any separate personal estate, or of any right or interest therein not lawfully disposed of by his last will, the same shall be applied and distributed as follows:—

1. The widow, if any, shall be allowed all articles of her apparel or ornament, according to the degree and estate of her husband, and such provisions and other necessaries, for the use of herself and family under her care, as shall be allowed and ordered in pursuance of the provisions of any law; and this allowance shall be made as well when the widow receives the provision made for her in the will of her husband as when he dies intestate;

2. The personal estate remaining after such allowance shall be applied to the payment of the debts of the deceased, with the charges for the funeral and the settling of the estate;

3. The residue, if any, of the personal estate shall be distributed among the same persons as would be entitled to the real estate by section 1341, and in the same proportion as provided, excepting as herein further provided;

4. If the intestate leave a husband and issue, the husband shall be entitled to one-half the residue;

5. If there be no issue the husband shall be entitled to the whole of the residue;

6. If the intestate leave a widow and issue, the widow shall be entitled to one-half of said residue;

7. If there be no issue, the widow shall be entitled to the whole of the residue;

8. If there be no husband, widow, or kindred of the intestate, the said personal estate shall escheat to the state, for the use of common schools in the particular county in which the intestate shall have resided at time of death. [L. '75, p. 57, § 15; Cd. '81, § 3316; 1 H. C., § 1495.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 539; 14 Wash. 15; 70 Wash. 380.

§ 1365. Effect of Advancement Where Widow and Issue Survive. If the intestate leave a widow and issue, and any relation have received an advancement from the intestate in his lifetime, the value of such advancement shall not be taken into consideration in computing the one-half part to be assigned to the widow, but she shall be entitled to the one-half part only of the said residue, after deducting the value of the advancement. [L. '75, p. 58, § 16; Cd. '81, § 3317; 1 H. C., § 1496.]

§ 1366. Real Property Vests in Whom—Rights of Heirs in.— When a person dies seised of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any right thereto or entitled to any interest therein in fee or for the life of another, his title shall vest immediately in his heirs or devisees, subject to his debts, family allowance, expenses of administration and any other charges for which such real estate is liable under existing laws. No administration of the estate of such decedent, and no decree of distribution or other finding or order of any court shall be necessary in any case to vest such title in the heirs or devisees, but the same shall vest in the heirs or devisees instantly upon the death of such decedent: Provided, that no person shall be deemed a devisee until the will has been probated. The title and right to possession of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments so vested in such heirs or devisees, together with the rents, issues and profits thereof, shall be good and valid against all persons claiming adversely to the claims of any such heirs, or devisees, excepting only the executor or administrator when appointed, and persons lawfully claiming under such executor or administrator; and any one or more of such heirs or devisees, or their grantees, jointly or severally, may sue for and recover their respective shares or interests in any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments and the rents, issues and profits thereof, whether letters testamentary or of administration be granted or not, from any person except the executor or administrator and those lawfully claiming under such executor or administrator. [L. '95, p. 197, § 1.]

§ 1367. Titles of Heirs Confirmed.—This act shall apply to and govern the transmission of title of lands, tenements and hereditaments in the case of the estates of persons hereafter dying and of persons already deceased, whether letters testamentary or of administration have been granted on such estates or not, and the title of all heirs and devisees, and their grantees, to any such real property is hereby confirmed and made valid to the same extent as if this act had been passed before the death of such decedent. [L. '95, p. 198, § 2.]

"This act" included §§ 1366–1371.

§ 1368. Debts.—No real estate of a deceased person shall be liable for his debts unless letters testamentary or of administration be granted within six years from the date of the death of such decedent. [L. '95, p. 198, § 3.]

Cited in 32 Wash. 468; 42 Wash. 147, 353–355; 43 Wash. 537, 538; 57 Wash. 450, 451.

§ 1369. "Heirs," Meaning of.—The words "heirs" shall be construed as meaning the person or persons to whom land, tenements and hereditaments descend as defined in sections from 1341 to 1355, both inclusive. [L. '95, p. 198, § 4.]

§ 1370. Community Interests.—This act shall apply to community real property and also to separate estate; and upon the death of either husband or wife, title of all community real property shall vest immediately in the person or persons to whom the same shall go, pass, descend or be devised, as provided in section 1342, subject to all the charges mentioned in section 1366 of this act. [L. '95, p. 199, § 5.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 586.

§ 1371. Liability of Existing Estates.—Nothing in this act shall have the effect to prevent the real estate of a person deceased for six years prior to the going into effect of this act from being liable for his debts, where letters testamentary or of administration of the estate of such deceased person shall be issued prior to one year after the going into effect of this act. [L. '95, p. 199, § 6.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Letters Testamentary and of Administration.

§ 1372. Letters Testamentary, When and to Whom Granted.—After probate of any will letters testamentary shall be granted to the persons therein appointed executors. If a part of the persons thus appointed refuse to act, or be disqualified, the letters shall be granted to the other persons appointed therein. If all such persons refuse to act, letters of administration with the will annexed shall be granted to the person to whom administration would have been granted if there had been no will. [L. '54, p. 268, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1372; 2 H. C., § 884.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 171; 52 Wash. 151.

§ 1373. Objections.—Any person interested in a will may file objections in writing to the granting of letters testamentary to the persons named as executors, or any of them, and the objection shall be heard and determined by the court. [L. '60, p. 179, § 74; Cd. '81, § 1373; 2 H. C., § 885.]

§ 1374. Letters During Minority or Absence of Executor.—If the executor be a minor, or absent from the state, letters of administration with the will annexed shall be granted, during the time of such minority or absence, to some other person, unless there be another executor, who shall accept the trust, in which case the estate shall be administered by such other executor until the disqualification shall be removed, when such minor, having arrived at full age, or such absentee, shall be admitted as joint executor with the former. [L. '54, p. 269, § 9; L. '60, p. 180, § 75; Cd. '81, § 1374; 2 H. C., § 886.]

§ 1375. Discovery of Will Revokes Letters.—If, after letters of administration are granted, a will of the deceased be found, and probate thereof be granted, the letters shall be revoked, and letters testamentary or of administration with will annexed shall be granted. [L. '54, p. 272, § 27; Cd. '81, § 1375; 2 H. C., § 887.]

Cited in 54 Wash. 267; 59 Wash. 132.

§ 1376. Setting Aside Will Revokes Letters.—If, after a will has been found and letters thereon granted, the will shall afterward be set aside, the letters shall be revoked, and letters of administration granted on the goods unadministered. [L. '54, p. 272, § 28; Cd. '81, § 1376; 2 H. C., § 888.]

§ 1377. Marriage of Executrix, etc., not to Affect Interest, etc.—If any executrix or administratrix marry, her husband shall not thereby acquire any interest in the effects of her testator or intestate, nor shall the administration thereby devolve on him. [L. '54, p. 272, § 29; Cd. '81, § 1377; 2 H. C., § 889.]

§ 1378. Marriage No Disqualification.—No woman shall be disqualified from acting as executrix of the last will of a deceased person, nor from acting as administratrix of the estate of any deceased person by reason of being a married woman. [L. '97, p. 24, § 1.]

§ 1379. Revocation of Letters, When.—If an executor or administrator become of unsound mind, or be convicted of felony or infamous crime, or become an habitual drunkard, or otherwise incapable of or unsuitable for executing the trust reposed in him, or so fail to discharge his official duties, or waste or mismanage the estate, or so act as to endanger any coexecutor or coadministrator, the superior court, upon complaint in writing made by any person interested, supported by affidavit, and due notice given to the person complained of, shall hear the complaint, and if found to be just, shall revoke the letters granted. [L. '54, p. 272, § 30; Cd. '81, § 1378; 2 H. C., § 890.]

§ 1380. Executor of Executor Administers What.—No executor of an executor shall, as such, be authorized to administer upon the estate of the first testator, but on the death of the sole or surviving executor of any last will, letters of administration with the will annexed, of the estate of the first testator left unadministered, shall be issued. [L. '60, p. 180, § 80; Cd. '81, § 1379; 2 H. C., § 891.]

§ 1381. Acts of Portion of Executors Valid, When.—When all the executors named shall not be appointed by the court, such as are appointed shall have the same authority to perform every act and discharge every trust required by the will, and their acts shall be as effectual for every purpose as if all were appointed and should act together. [L. '60, p. 180, § 81; Cd. '81, § 1380; 2 H. C., § 892.]

§ 1382. Administrator With Will Annexed, Power of.—Administrators with the will annexed shall have the same authority as the executor named in the will would have had, and their acts shall be as effectual for every purpose. [L. '60, p. 180, § 82; Cd. '81, § 3881; 2 H. C., § 893.]

§ 1383. Letters to be Signed and Under Seal.—Letters testamentary and of administration with the will annexed shall be signed by the clerk of the court, and be under the seal of the court, and a copy of the will shall be attached to the letters. [L. '60, p. 181, § 83; Cd. '81, § 1382; 2 H. C., § 894.]

§ 1384. Affidavit as to Knowledge of Other Will.—Every administrator with the will annexed, and executor, at the time letters are granted him, shall make an affidavit that he knows of no other and subsequent will of the deceased. [L. '54, p. 270, § 18; Cd. '81, § 1383; 2 H. C., § 895.]

§ 1385. Recording Letters — Certificate.—The clerk shall record, in a well-bound book kept for that purpose, all letters testamentary and of administration, before they are delivered to the executors or administrators, and shall certify on such letters that they have been so recorded. [Cf. L. '54, p. 271, § 22; Cd. '81, § 1384; L. '91, p. 383, § 11; 2 H. C., § 896.]

§ 1386. Certified Copies are Evidence.—Copies of such letters, or copies of the records thereof, certified by the clerk, and under the seal of the superior court, shall be received as evidence in any court in this state. [Cf. L. '54, p. 271, § 23; Cd. '81, § 1385; L. '91, p. 383, § 12; 2 H. C., § 897.]

§ 1387. Form of Letters Testamentary.—Letters testamentary to be issued to executors under the provisions of this chapter may be in the following form:—

State of Washington,
County of ——.

In the superior court of the county of ——.

Whereas, the last will of A B, deceased, was, on the —— day of ——, A. D. ——, duly exhibited, proven, and recorded in our said superior court, a copy of which is hereto annexed; and whereas, it appears in and by said will that C D is appointed executor thereon, now, therefore, know all men by these presents, that we do hereby authorize the said C D to execute said will according to law.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this —— day of ——, A. D. 18—. [L. '54, p. 271, § 24; Cd. '81, § 1386; 2 H. C., § 898.]

§ 1388. Form of Letters With Will Annexed.—Letters of administration with the will annexed may be substantially in the following form:—

State of Washington,
County of ——.

In the superior court of the county of ——.

The last will of A B, deceased, a copy of which is hereunto annexed having been proved and recorded in the said superior court, and —— (as the case may be), ——, C D, is hereby appointed administrator with the will annexed.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this —— day of ——, A. D. 18—. [L. '60, p. 181, § 88; Cd. '81, § 1387; 2 H. C., § 899.]

§ 1389. Who Entitled to Letters of Administration.—Administration of the estate of a person dying intestate shall be granted to some one or more of the persons hereinafter mentioned, and they shall be respectively entitled in the following order:—

1. The surviving husband or wife, or such person as he or she may request to have appointed;

2. The next of kin, in the following order: 1. Child or children; 2. Father or mother; 3. Brothers or sisters; 4. Grandchildren;

3. To one or more of the principal creditors: Provided, that if the persons so entitled or interested shall neglect for more than forty days after the death of the intestate to present a petition for letters of administration, or if there be no relatives or next of kin, or if the heirs or one or more of the principal creditors, in writing, waive their right to administration, or if there be no principal creditor or creditors, then the court or judge may appoint any suitable and competent person to administer such estate. [L. '54, p. 268, § 4; L. '60, p. 181, § 89; L. '73, p. 269, § 90; Cd. '81, § 1388; 2 H. C., § 900.]

§ 1390. Application for Letters, How Made.—Application for letters of administration shall be made by petition in writing, signed by the applicant or his attorney, and filed in the superior court, which petition shall set forth the facts essential to giving the court jurisdiction of the case, and such applicant, at the time of making such application, shall make an affidavit, stating, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the names and places of residence of the heirs of the deceased, and that the deceased died without a will. [L. '54, p. 270, § 17; Cd. '81, § 1389; 2 H. C., § 901.]

Cited in 33 Wash. 169, 173; 54 Wash. 266; 78 Wash. 559; 86 Wash. 176.

ministrators during the time of a contest about a will, or the granting of letters of administration. [L. '54, p. 270, § 16; Cd. '81, § 1390; 2 H. C., § 902.]

§ 1392. Notice of Application.—When a petition praying for letters of administration is filed, the clerk must give notice thereof, by causing notices to be posted in at least three public places in the county, one of which must be at the place where the court is held, containing the name of the decedent, the name of the applicant, and the time at which the applicant will be heard. Such notice must be given at least ten days before the hearing. [Cd. '81, § 1391; L. '83, p. 29, § 1; 2 H. C., § 903.]

Cited in 33 Wash. 170; 86 Wash. 177.

§ 1393. Form of Letters of Administration.—Letters of administration shall be signed by the clerk, and be under the seal of the court, and may be substantially in the following form:—

State of Washington,
County of ——.

Whereas, A B, late of ——, on or about the —— day of ——, A. D. ——, died intestate, leaving, at the time of his death, property in this state subject to administration, now, therefore, know all men by these presents, that we do hereby appoint —— administrator upon said estate, and hereby authorize him to administer the same according to law.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this —— day of ——, A. D., 18—. [Cf. L. '54, p. 271, § 25; L. '60, p. 182, § 92; Cd. '81, § 1392; 2 H. C., § 904.]

§ 1394. Oath.—Before letters testamentary or of administration are issued to the executor or administrator, he must take and subscribe an oath, before some person authorized to administer oaths, that he will perform, according to law, the duties of his trust as executor or administrator, which oath must be attached to and recorded with the letters. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1393; 2 H. C., § 905.]

§ 1395. Bond.—Every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue must, before receiving them, execute a bond to the state of Washington, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the judge. In form the bond must be joint and several, and the penalty must not be less than twice the value of the personal property, and twice the probable value of the annual rents, profits, and issues of the real property belonging to the estate; which values must be ascertained by the judge by examining on oath the party applying, and any other persons. [Cf. L. '54, p. 268, § 7; L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1394; 2 H. C., § 906.]

See infra, §§ 1400 et seq., qualification and justification of sureties, etc.

§ 1396. Conditions of Bond.—The bond must be conditioned that the executor or administrator shall faithfully execute the duties of the trust according to law. [Cf. L. '54, p. 268, § 7; L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1396; 2 H. C., § 907.]

§ 1397. Additional Bond Before Sale of Property.—The judge must require an additional bond whenever the sale of any real estate belonging to an estate is ordered by him; but no such additional bond must be required when it satisfactorily appears to the court that the penalty of the bond given, before receiving letters, or of any bond given in place thereof, is equal to twice the value of the personal property remaining in or that may come into the possession of the executor or administrator, including the annual rents, profits, and issues of real estate, and twice the probable amount to be realized on the sale of the real estate ordered to be sold. [Cf. L. '54, p. 268, § 7; L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1395; 2 H. C., § 908.]

§ 1398. Separate Bonds, When.—When two or more persons are appointed executors or administrators, the judge must require and take a separate bond from each of them. [Cf. L. '54, p. 269, § 8; L. '60, p. 183, § 94; Cd. '81, § 1397; 2 H. C., § 909.]

§ 1399. Successive Recoveries on Bond.—The bond shall not be void upon the first recovery, but may be sued and recovered upon, from time to time, by any person aggrieved in his own name, until the whole penalty is exhausted. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1398; 2 H. C., § 910.]

§ 1400. Qualifications of Sureties.—In all cases where bonds or undertakings are required to be given under this chapter, the sureties must possess the qualifications and justify thereon in the same manner as required for bail upon an arrest, and the certificate thereof must be attached to and filed and recorded with the bond or undertaking. All such bonds or undertakings must be approved by the judge before being filed or recorded. [Cf. L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1399; L. '91, p. 383, § 13; 2 H. C., § 911.]

§ 1401. Justification of Sureties.—Before the judge approves any bond required under this chapter, and after its approval, he may, of his own motion, or upon the motion of any person interested in the estate, supported by affidavit that the sureties, or some one or more of them, are not worth as much as they have justified to, order a citation to issue, requiring such sureties to appear before him at a designated time and place, to be examined touching their property and its value; and the judge must, at the same time, cause notice to be issued to the executor or administrator, requiring his appearance on the return of the citation, and on its return he may examine the sureties and such witnesses as may be produced touching the property of the sureties and its value; and if upon such examination he is satisfied that the bond is insufficient, he must require sufficient additional security. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1400; 2 H. C., § 912.]

§ 1403. Failure to Give Security Annuls Powers.—If sufficient security is not given within the time fixed by the judge's order, the right of such executor or administrator to the administration shall cease, and the person next entitled to the administration on the estate, who shall execute a sufficient bond, must be appointed to the administration. [Cf. L. '73, p. 272, § 102; L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1402; 2 H. C., § 914.]

§ 1404. No Bond When Will so Provides.—When it is expressly provided in the will that no bond shall be required of the executor, letters testamentary may issue and sale of real estate be made and confirmed without any bond, unless the court for good cause require one to be executed; but the executor may at any time afterward, if it appear from any cause necessary or proper, be required to file a bond, as in other cases. [Cf. L. '60, p. 184, § 103; L. '73, p. 272, § 103; L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1403; 2 H. C., § 915.]

§ 1405. Additional Security, When.—Any person interested in an estate may, by verified petition, represent to the judge that the sureties of the executor or administrator thereof have become, or are becoming, insolvent, or that they have removed, or are about to remove, from the state, or from any other cause the bond is insufficient, and ask that further security be required. [Cf. L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1404; L. '91, p. 383, § 13½; 2 H. C., § 916.]

Cited in 48 Wash. 428.

§ 1406. Citation for Additional Security — Service of.—If the judge is satisfied that the matter requires investigation, citation must be issued to the executor or administrator requiring him to appear, at a time and place specified, to show cause why he should not give further security. The citation must be served personally on the administrator or executor, at least five days before the return day. If he has absconded or cannot be found, it may be served by leaving a copy of it at his last place of residence, or by such publication as the court or judge may order. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1405; 2 H. C., § 917.]

§ 1407. Hearing and Order.—On the return of the citation, or at such other time as the judge may appoint, he must proceed to hear the proof and allegations of the parties. If it satisfactorily appears that the security is from any cause insufficient, he may make an order requiring the executor or administrator to give further security, or to file a new bond in the usual form, within a reasonable time, not less than five days. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1406; 2 H. C., § 918.]

§ 1408. Letters Revocable for Failure to Comply With Order.—If the executor or administrator neglects to comply with the order within the time prescribed, the judge must by order revoke his letters, and his authority must thereupon cease. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1407; 2 H. C., § 919.]

§ 1409. Further Security on Motion of Court.—When it comes to his knowledge that the bond of any executor or administrator is from any cause insufficient, the judge, without any application, must cause him to be called to appear and show cause why he should not give further security, and must proceed thereon as upon the application of any person interested. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1408; 2 H. C., § 920.]

§ 1410. Who Disqualified as Sureties.—No judge of the superior court, no sheriff, clerk of a court, or deputy of either, and no attorney at law, shall be taken as surety in any bond required to be taken in any proceeding in probate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 270, § 19; Cd. '81, § 1409; L. '91, p. 383, § 14; 2 H. C., § 921.]

§ 1411. Special Care in Taking Sureties.—The judge shall take special care to take as sureties men who are solvent and sufficient, and who are not bound in too many other bonds; and to satisfy himself, he may take testimony, and examine, on oath, the applicant or person offered as surety. [Cf. L. '54, p. 271, § 20; Cd. '81, § 1410; L. '91, p. 384, § 15; 2 H. C., § 922.]

§ 1412. Bonds to be Recorded.—The clerk shall record, in a well-bound book kept for that purpose, all bonds given by executors and administrators, and preserve the originals in regular file. [Cf. L. '54, p. 271, § 22; Cd. '81, § 1411; L. '91, p. 384, § 16; 2 H. C., § 923.]

shall be void for want of form or substance, recital or condition; nor shall the principal or surety on such account be discharged, but all the parties thereto shall be held and bound to the full extent contemplated by the law requiring the same, to the amount specified in such bond. In all actions on such defective bond, the plaintiff may state its legal effect in the same manner as though it were a perfect bond. [Cd. '81, § 1412; 2 H. C., § 924.]

§ 1414. Hearing and Orders.—The applications and acts authorized by the foregoing sections in this chapter may be heard and determined in court or at chambers. All orders made therein must be entered upon the minutes of the court. [Cf. L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1413; L. '91, p. 384, § 17; 2 H. C., § 925.]

§ 1415. Suspension by Judge, When.—Whenever the judge has reason to believe, from his own knowledge, or from credible information, that any executor or administrator has wasted, embezzled, or mismanaged, or is about to waste or embezzle, the property of the estate committed to his charge, or has committed, or is about to commit, a fraud upon the estate, or is incompetent to act, or has permanently removed from the state, or has wrongfully neglected the estate, or has long neglected to perform any acts as such executor or administrator, he must, by order entered upon the minutes of the court, suspend the powers of such executor or administrator until the matter is investigated. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1414; 2 H. C., § 926.]

Cited in 32 Wash. 488.

§ 1416. Hearing and Determination After Suspension.—When such suspension is made notice thereof must be given to the executor or administrator, and he must be cited to appear and show cause why his letters should not be revoked. If he fail to appear in obedience to the citation, or if, appearing, the court is satisfied that there exists cause for his removal, his letters must be revoked, and letters of administration granted anew, as the case may require. [Cf. L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1415; L. '91, p. 384, § 18; 2 H. C., § 927.]

§ 1417. Issues at Hearing.—At the hearing, any person interested in the estate may appear and file his allegations in writing, showing that the executor or administrator should be removed, to which the executor or administrator may demur or answer. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1416; 2 H. C., § 928.]

§ 1418. Service of Notice by Publication.—If the executor or administrator has absconded or conceals himself, or has removed or absented himself from the state, notice may be given him of the pendency of the proceedings by publication in such manner as the court may direct, and the court may proceed upon such notice as if the citation had been personally served. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1417; 2 H. C., § 929.]

§ 1419. Answer of Executor or Administrator.—In the proceedings authorized by the preceding section[s] for the removal of an executor or administrator, the court may compel his attendance by attachment, and may compel him to answer questions on oath touching his administration, and upon his refusal so to do, may commit him to jail until he obey, or may revoke his letters, or both. [L. '77, p. 211, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1418; 2 H. C., § 930.]

§ 1420. Special Administrator Appointed, When.—When, by reason of an action concerning the proof of a will, or from any other cause, there shall be a delay in granting letters testamentary or of administration, the judge may, in his discretion, appoint a special administrator (other than one of the parties) to collect and preserve the effects of the deceased; and in case of an appeal from the decree appointing such special administrator, he shall, nevertheless, proceed in the execution of his trust, until he shall be otherwise ordered by the appellate court. [L. '54, p. 269, § 11; Cd. '81, § 1419; L. '91, p. 384, § 19; 2 H. C., § 931.]

§ 1421. Bond of Special Administrator.—Every such administrator shall, before entering on the duties of his trust, give bond, with sufficient surety or sureties, in such sum as the judge shall order, payable to the state of Washington, with condition as required of an executor or in other cases of administration, to make and return into court, as soon as practicable, a true inventory of the goods, chattels, rights, and credits of the deceased which have or shall come into his possession or knowledge; and that he will truly account for all the goods, chattels, debts, and effects of the deceased that shall be received by him as special administrator, whenever required by the court, and will deliver the same to the person who shall be appointed executor or administrator of the deceased, or to such other person as shall be lawfully authorized to receive the same. [L. '54, p. 269, § 12; Cd. '81, § 1420; 2 H. C., § 932.]

§ 1422. Duties of Special Administrator.—Such special administrator shall collect all the goods, chattels, and debts of the deceased, and preserve the same for the executor or administrator who shall thereafter be appointed; and for that purpose may commence and maintain suits as an administrator, and may also sell such perishable and other goods as the court shall order sold, and he shall be allowed such compensation for his service as the said court shall deem reasonable. [L. '54, p. 270, § 13; Cd. '81, § 1421; 2 H. C., § 833.]

§ 1423. Powers of Special Administrator Cease, When.—Upon granting letters testamentary or of administration, the power of the special administrator shall cease, and he shall forthwith deliver to the executor or administrator all the goods, chattels, money, and effects of the deceased in his hands, and the executor or administrator may be admitted to prosecute any suit commenced by the special administrator, in like manner as an administrator de bonis non is authorized to prosecute a suit commenced by a former executor or administrator. [L. '54, p. 270, § 14; Cd. '81, § 1422; 2 H. C., § 934.]

§ 1424. Special Administrator not Liable to Creditors.—Such special administrator shall not be liable to an action by any creditor of the deceased, and the time for limitation of all suits against the estate shall begin to run from the time of granting letters testamentary or of administration in the usual form, in like manner as if such special administration had not been granted. [L. '54, p. 270, § 15; Cd. '81, § 1423; 2 H. C., § 935.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 680, 681, 683, 687.

§ 1425. Account of Special Administrator.—The special administrator shall also render an account, under oath, of his proceedings, in like manner as other administrators are required to do. [L. '60, p. 185, § 109; Cd. '81, § 1424; 2 H. C., § 936.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 680, 681.

§ 1426. Resignation of Executor or Administrator.—If any executor or administrator, having first settled his accounts, shall publish for six weeks, in some newspaper in this state in general circulation in the county wherein his letters were granted, a notice of his intention to apply to the court to resign his letters, and the court, on proof of such publication, believe that he should be permitted to resign, it shall so order. [Cf. L. '54, p. 273, § 36; L. '60, p. 185, § 110; L. '73, p. 274, § 110; Cd. '81, § 1425; 2 H. C., § 937.]

§ 1427. Letters to be Surrendered on Resignation.—Such person shall then surrender his letters, his power from that time shall cease, and he shall pay the expense of publication and of all the proceedings on such application. [L. '54, p. 273, § 37; Cd. '81, § 1426; 2 H. C., § 938.]

§ 1428. Where One Resigns Others may Act.—If there be more than one executor or administrator of an estate, and the letters to part of them be revoked or surrendered, or a part die or in any way become disqualified, those who remain shall perform all the duties required by law. [L. '54, p. 273, § 38; Cd. '81, § 1427; 2 H. C., § 939.]

§ 1429. Order of Appointment on Death or Resignation.—If the executor or administrator of an estate shall die, resign, or the letters be revoked before the settlement of the estate, letters of administration of the goods remaining unadministered shall be granted to those to whom administration would have been granted if the original letters had not been obtained, or the person obtaining them had renounced administration, and the administrator de bonis non shall perform the like duties and incur the like liabilities as the former executors or administrators. [Cf. L. '54, p. 273, § 39; L. '73, p. 274, § 113; Cd. '81, § 1428; 2 H. C., § 940.]

§ 1430. Accounting upon Resignation or Revocation, etc.—If any executor or administrator resign, or his letters be revoked, or he die, he or his representatives shall account for, pay, and deliver to his successor, or to the surviving or remaining executor or administrator, all money and property of every kind, and all rights, credits, deeds, evidences of debt, and papers of every kind of the deceased, at such time and in such manner as the court shall order on final settlement with such executor or administrator, or his legal representatives. [L. '54, p. 273, § 40; Cd. '81, § 1429; 2 H. C., § 941.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 292; 80 Wash. 518, 520.

§ 1431. Action by Successor for Assets.—The succeeding administrator, or remaining executor or administrator, may proceed by law against any delinquent former executor or administrator, or his personal representatives, or the sureties of either, or against any other person possessed of any part of the estate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 273, § 41; Cd. '81, § 1430; L. '91, p. 384, § 20; 2 H. C., § 942.]

Cited in 80 Wash. 518–520.

§ 1432. Limitation of Actions Against Sureties.—All actions against sureties shall be commenced within six years after the revocation or surrender of letters of administration or death of the principal. [Cf. L. '54, p. 274, § 42; Cd. '81, § 1431; L. '91, p. 385, § 21; 2 H. C., § 933.]

§ 1433. Attachment for Failure to Settle.—If any executor or administrator fail to make either annual or final settlement as required by law, and do not show good cause for such failure, after having been cited for that purpose, the court shall order such executor or administrator to make such settlement, and may enforce obedience to such order by attachment and may revoke his letters. [L. '54, p. 274, § 43; Cd. '81, § 1432; 2 H. C., § 944.]

§ 1434. Attachment of, When Letters Surrendered.—If any person who has surrendered his letters testamentary or of administration, or whose letters have been revoked, or the legal representatives of any deceased executor or administrator, shall fail to make final settlement as required by law, after being cited for that purpose by the court, it shall order such delinquent to make such settlement, and may enforce obedience to such order by attachment. [L. '54, p. 274, § 44; Cd. '81, § 1433; 2 H. C., § 945.]

§ 1435. Costs upon Attachment.—In all cases where citations or attachments may be issued against any executor, administrator, or other person for failing to settle his accounts, such delinquent shall pay all costs incurred thereby, the collection of which costs may be enforced by attachment. [Cf. L. '54, p. 274, § 45; L. '73, p. 275, § 119; Cd. '81, § 1434; 2 H. C., § 946.]

§ 1436. Partnership Property, Inventory of.—The executor or administrator of a deceased person who was a member of a copartnership shall include in the inventory of such person's estate, in a separate schedule, the whole of the property of such partnership; and the appraisers shall estimate the value thereof, and also the value of such person's individual interest in the partnership property, after the payment or satisfaction of all the debts and liabilities of the partnership. [L. '54, p. 274, § 46; L. '73, p. 275, § 120; Cd. '81, § 1435; 2 H. C., § 947.]

§ 1437. Administration of Partnership Estate.—After the inventory is taken, the partnership property shall be in the custody and control of the executor or administrator for the purposes of administration, unless the surviving partner shall within five days from the filing of the inventory, or such further time as the court may allow, apply for the administration thereof, and give the bond therefor hereinafter prescribed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 274, § 47; L. '73, p. 276, § 121; Cd. '81, § 1436; 2 H. C., § 948.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 304, 305.

§ 1438. Surviving Partner Entitled to Administration.—If the surviving partner apply therefor, as provided in the last section, he is entitled to the administration of the partnership estate, if he have the qualifications and competency required for a general administrator. He is denominated an administrator of the partnership, and his powers and duties extend to the settlement of the partnership business generally, and the payment or transfer of the interest of the deceased in the partnership property remaining after the payment or satisfaction of the debts and liabilities of the partnership, to the executor or general administrator, within six months from the date of his appointment, or such further time, if necessary, as the court may allow. In the exercise of his powers and the performance of his duties, the administrator of the partnership is subject to the same limitations and liabilities, and control and jurisdiction of the court, as a general administrator. [Cf. L. '54, p. 274, §§ 48–51; L. '63, p. 225, §§ 155–158; L. '73, p. 276, § 122; Cd. '81, § 1437; 2 H. C., § 949.]

§ 1439. Bond of Administrator of Partnership.—The bond of the administrator of the partnership shall be in a sum not less than double the value of the partnership property, and shall be given in the same manner and be of the same effect as the bond of a general administrator. [Cf. L. '54, p. 274, § 48; L. '63, p. 225, § 155; L. '73, p. 276, § 123; Cd. '81, § 1438; 2 H. C., § 950.]

§ 1440. General Administrator to Give Additional Bond, When.—In case the surviving partner is not appointed administrator of the partnership, the administration thereof devolves upon the executor or general administrator, but before entering upon the duties of such administration, he shall give an additional bond in double the value of the partnership property. [Cf. L. '63, p. 226, § 157; L. '73, p. 276, § 124; Cd. '81, § 1439; 2 H. C., § 951.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 296, 304.

§ 1441. Surviving Partner to Furnish Exhibit.—Every surviving partner, on the demand of an executor or administrator of a deceased partner, shall exhibit and give information concerning the property of the partnership at the time of the death of the deceased partner, so that the same may be correctly inventoried and appraised; and in case the administration thereof shall devolve upon the executor or administrator, such survivor shall deliver or transfer to him, on demand, all the property of the partnership, including all books, papers, and documents pertaining to the same, and shall afford him all reasonable information and facilities for the performance of the duties of his trust. [Cf. L. '63, p. 226, § 159; L. '73, p. 277, § 125; Cd. '81, § 1440; 2 H. C., § 952.]

§ 1442. Surviving Partner Cited to Give Information.—Any surviving partner who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the requirements of the last section may be cited to appear before the court; and unless he show cause to the contrary, the court shall require him to comply with such section in the particular complained of. [Cf. L. '54, p. 275, § 53; L. '63, p. 227, § 160; L. '73, p. 227, § 126; Cd. '81, § 1441; 2 H. C., § 953.]

§ 1443. Who Disqualified — Revocation.—The following persons are not qualified to act as executors or administrators: Nonresidents of this state, minors, judicial officers other than justices of the peace, persons of unsound mind or who have been convicted of any felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude. And when any person to whom letters testamentary or of administration have been issued becomes disqualified to act because of leaving the state, becoming of unsound mind, or is convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, the court having jurisdiction shall revoke his or her letters as in this chapter provided. [L. '63, p. 227, § 164; L. '77, p. 227, § 127; Cd. '81, § 1442; 2 H. C., § 954.]

§ 1444. Settlement of Estates Without Administration.—In all cases where it is provided in the last will and testament of the deceased that the estate shall be settled in a manner provided in such last will and testament, and that letters testamentary or of administration shall not be required, and where it also duly appears to the court, by the inventory filed, and other proof, that the estate is fully solvent, which fact may be established by an order of the court on the coming in of the inventory, it shall not be necessary to take out letters testamentary or of administration, except to admit to probate such will, and to file a true inventory of all the property of such estate in the manner required by existing laws. And after the probate of such will and the filing of such inventory all such estates may be managed and settled without the intervention of the court, if the said last will and testament shall so provide: But provided, that in all such cases the claims against such estates shall be paid within one year from the date of the first publication of notice to creditors to present their claims, unless such time be extended by the court, for good cause shown, for a reasonable time: Provided, however, in all such cases, if the party named in such will as executor shall decline to execute the trust, or shall die or be otherwise disabled from any cause from acting as such executor, then letters testamentary or of administration shall issue as in other cases: And provided further, if the party named in the will shall fail to execute the trust faithfully and to take care and promote the interests of all parties taking under the will, then, upon petition of a creditor of such estate, or of any of the heirs, or of any person on behalf of any minor heirs, it shall be the duty of the court of the county wherein such estate is situated to cite such person having the management of such estate to appear before such court, and if, upon hearing of such petition it shall appear that the trust in such will is not faithfully discharged, and that the parties interested, or any of them, have been or are about to be damaged by such actual doings of the executor, then letters testamentary or of administration shall be had and required in such cases, and all other matters and proceedings shall be had and required as are now required in the administration of estates, and in such cases the costs of the citation and hearing shall be charged against the party failing and neglecting to execute the trust as required in such will. [Cf. L. '68, p. 49, § 2; L. '69, p. 298 et seq.; Cd. '81, § 1443; 2 H. C., § 955; L. '97, p. 285, § 1.]*

"This act": Of March 16, 1897.

§ 1446. Sale of Property.—Such executors, who have been heretofore acting under wills dispensing with letters testamentary or of administration, and those who may hereafter act under such wills, shall have power, after the filing of an inventory of the estate, if the said estate has been adjudged to be solvent according to the provisions of the last preceding section, to sell and convey the real and personal property of their testator, where the will authorizes them so to do, without an order of the court for that purpose, and without notice or confirmation of sale. [L. '97, p. 286, § 3.]

Cited in 73 Wash. 685, 687.

§ 1447. Performance of Contracts.—Such executor, after the order referred to in section 1445 has been made, declaring the estate solvent, shall have the power to carry out and perform all the contracts and undertakings of his testator, which he might be required by law to execute, and it shall not be necessary to obtain an order of the court authorizing the same, or an order confirming the same. [L. '97, p. 286, § 4.]

§ 1448. Publication of Notice.—Upon publication of notice to creditors to present their claims to such executor, for a period of time and in the manner required of executors and of administrators holding letters testamentary and of administration under the laws of this state, said creditors shall be required to present their claims to the said executor within one year from the date of the first publication of said notice, and if they fail to do so their claim shall be barred. [L. '97, p. 287, § 5.]

CHAPTER IX.

The Inventory and Effects of Deceased Persons.

§ 1449. Right of Possession of Estate.—Every executor or administrator shall, after having qualified, by giving bond as hereinbefore provided, have a right to the immediate possession of all the real as well as personal estate of the deceased, and may receive the rents and profits of the real estate until the estate shall be settled or delivered over, by order of the court, to the heirs or devisees, and shall keep in tenantable repair all houses, buildings, and fixtures thereon, which are under his control. [Cf. L. '54, p. 278, § 65; L. '60, p. 189, § 132; Cd. '81, § 1444; 2 H. C., § 956.]

See supra, Title X, Chaps. VI and VII, descent and distribution.
See supra, § 1366 et seq., rights of heirs, devisees, etc.

§ 1450. Inventory.—Every executor and administrator shall make and return, upon oath, into the court, within one month after his appointment, a true inventory of the real and personal estate of the deceased, which shall come to his possession or knowledge. [L. '60, p. 190, § 136; Cd. '81, § 1445; 2 H. C., § 957.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 540; 30 Wash. 567; 38 Wash. 265; 42 Wash. 353; 72 Wash. 677; 82 Wash. 229.

§ 1451. Appraisement of Estates.—The estates and effects comprised in the inventory shall be appraised by three suitable disinterested persons, who shall be appointed by the court. If any part of the estate shall be in another county than that in which letters are issued, appraisers residing in such county may be appointed by the court having jurisdiction of the case, or, if most advisable, the same appraisers may act. Such appraisers shall receive as compensation for their services three dollars per day, to be paid out of the estate, and when they have to go out of their county, mileage shall be allowed: Provided, that where it appears to the satisfaction of the court, from the return of the inventory or other proof, that the whole estate consists of personal property of less value than one hundred dollars, exclusive of moneys, drafts, checks, bonds, or other securities of fixed valuation, an appraisement may be dispensed with, in the discretion of the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 276, § 57; Cd. '81, § 1446; L. '88, p. 186, § 1; 2 H. C., § 958.]

§ 1452. Oath and Duties of Appraisers.—Before proceeding to the discharge of their duties, the appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, to be attached to the inventory, that they will honestly and impartially appraise the property which shall be exhibited to them, according to the best of their knowledge and ability; they shall proceed to estimate and appraise the property, and set down each article separately, with the value thereof in dollars and cents, in figures, opposite the respective articles. The inventory shall contain all the estate of the deceased, real and personal, a statement of all debts, partnership and other interests, bonds, mortgages, notes, and other securities for the payment of money belonging to the deceased, specifying the name of the debtor in each security, the date, the sum originally payable, the indorsements thereon, if any, and their dates, and the sum which, in the judgment of the appraisers, may be collectible on each debt, interest, or security. [L. '54, p. 276, § 58; Cd. '81, § 1447; 2 H. C., § 959.]

§ 1453. Inventory to Include Moneys, etc.—The inventory shall also contain an account of all moneys belonging to the deceased, which shall have come to the possession or knowledge of the executor or administrator; and if none shall come to his possession or knowledge, the fact shall be so stated in the inventory. [L. '54, p. 277, § 59; Cd. '81, § 1448; 2 H. C., § 960.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 541.

§ 1454. Executor or Administrator not Released by Appointment. The naming of any person as executor in a will, or the appointment of any person as administrator, shall not operate as a discharge from any just claim which the testator or intestate had against the executor or administrator, but the claim shall be included in the inventory, and the executor and administrator shall be liable to the same extent as he would have been had he not been appointed executor or administrator. [Cf. L. '54, p. 277, § 60; L. '60, p. 63, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1449; 2 H. C., § 961.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 52.

§ 1455. Bequest Invalid Against Creditor, When.—The discharge or bequest in a will of any debt or demand of the testator against any executor named in his will or against any other person, shall not be valid against the creditors of the deceased, but shall be construed as a specific bequest of such debt or demand, and the amount thereof shall be included in the inventory, and shall, if necessary, be applied in payment of his debts; if not necessary for that purpose, it shall be paid in the same manner and proportions as other specific legacies. [L. '54, p. 277, § 61; Cd. '81, § 1450; 2 H. C., § 962.]

§ 1456. Inventory to be Signed and Verified.—The inventory shall be signed by the appraisers, and be verified by the oath of the executor or administrator to the effect that the inventory contains a true statement of all of the estate of the deceased which has come to his possession or knowledge, and particularly of all moneys belonging to the deceased, and of all just claims of the deceased against the executor or administrator. [L. '54, p. 277, § 62; L. '73, p. 280, § 136; Cd. '81, § 1451; 2 H. C., § 963.]

§ 1457. Penalty for Failure to Return Inventory.—If any executor or administrator shall neglect or refuse to return the inventory within the period prescribed, or within such further time, not exceeding three months, as the court shall allow, the court shall revoke the letters testamentary or of administration; and the executor or administrator shall be liable on his bond to any party interested for the injury sustained by the estate through his neglect. [L. '54, p. 277, § 63; L. '73, p. 280, § 137; Cd. '81, § 1452; 2 H. C., § 964.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 568; 72 Wash. 677.

§ 1458. Additional Inventory, When.—Whenever property not mentioned in any inventory shall come to the knowledge and possession of the executor or administrator, he shall cause the same to be appraised in the manner prescribed in this chapter, and an additional inventory to be returned, subscribed and sworn to as is provided in this chapter, as soon as practicable after the discovery thereof, and the making of such inventory may be enforced, after notice, by attachment to which may be added the revocation of the letters. [Cf. L. '54, p. 277, § 64; L. '73, p. 281, § 138; Cd. '81, § 1453; 2 H. C., § 965.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 541; 82 Wash. 229.

See notes to § 1450, supra, inventory.

§ 1459. Personal Estate, How Applied.—The personal estate of the deceased which shall come into the hands of the executor or administrator shall be first chargeable with the payment of the debts and expenses; and if the goods, chattels, rights, and credits in the hands of the executor or administrator shall not be sufficient to pay the debts of the deceased, the expenses of the administration, and the allowance to the family of the deceased, the whole, or so much as may be necessary, of the real estate may be sold for that purpose by the executor or administrator, in the manner prescribed in this chapter. [L. '54, p. 278, § 66; Cd. '81, § 1454; 2 H. C., § 966.]

§ 1460. Penalty for Embezzlement.—If any person, before the granting of letters testamentary or administration, shall embezzle or alienate any of the moneys, goods, chattels, or effects of any deceased person, he shall stand chargeable, and be liable to the action of the executor or administrator of the estate, in double the value of the property so embezzled or alienated, to be recovered for the benefit of the estate. [L. '54, p. 278, § 67; Cd. '81, § 1455; 2 H. C., § 967.]

Cited in 67 Wash. 394.

§ 1461. Citation to Recover Property Unlawfully Withheld.—If the executor, administrator, heir, legatee, creditor, or other person interested in the estate of any deceased person, shall complain to the court, on oath, that any person is suspected of having concealed, embezzled, smuggled, conveyed away, or disposed of any moneys, goods, or chattels of the deceased, or that he has in his possession or knowledge any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts, or other writings which contain evidence of or tend to disclose the right, title, interest, or claim of the deceased to any real or personal estate, or any claim, demand, or last will of the deceased, the said court may cite such person to appear, and may examine him on oath upon the matter of such complaint. If such person be not in the county where letters have been granted, he may be cited and examined, either before the court for the county where he may be found, or before the court issuing the order or citation; but in the latter case, if he appear and be found innocent, his necessary expenses shall be allowed him out of the estate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 278, § 68; Cd. '81, § 1456; L. '91, p. 385, § 22; 2 H. C., § 968.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 229.

§ 1462. Penalty for Failure to Submit to Examination.—If the person so cited refuse to appear and submit to such examination, or to answer such interrogatories as may be put to him touching the matter of such complaint, the court may, by warrant for that purpose, commit him to the county jail, there to remain in close custody until he shall submit to the order of the court; and all such interrogatories and answers shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the party examined, and filed in the court. [L. '54, p. 278, § 69; Cd. '81, § 1457; 2 H. C., § 969.]

§ 1463. Citation to Person Intrusted With Property.—The court, upon the complaint on oath of any executor or administrator, may cite any person who shall have been intrusted with any part of the estate of the deceased person to appear before the said court, and may require such person to give a full account, on oath, of any moneys, goods, chattels, bonds. accounts, or other papers belonging to the estate, which shall have come to his possession in trust for such executor or administrator, and of his proceeding thereon; and if the person so cited shall refuse to appear and answer such account, the court may proceed against him as provided in the preceding section. [L. '54, p. 279, § 70; Cd. '81, § 1458; 2 H. C., § 970.]

§ 1464. Proceedings When Estate Does not Exceed One Thousand Dollars.—If, by the return of the inventory of the estate of any intestate who died leaving a widow or minor children, it shall appear that the value of the estate does not exceed one thousand dollars, the court shall, by decree for that purpose, assign for the use and support of the widow and minor children of the [int]estate, or for the support of the minor child or children, if there be no widow, the whole estate, after the payment of the funeral expenses and expenses of administration, and there shall be no further proceedings in the administration unless further estate be discovered. [Cf. L. '68, p. 49, § 1; L. '73, p. 283, § 145; Cd. '81, § 1459; L. '88, p. 186, § 2; L. '91, p. 385, § 23; 2 H. C., § 971.]

CHAPTER X.

Provision for the Support of the Family.

§ 1465. Probate Homestead and Widow's Allowance.—When a person shall die, leaving a widow, or minor child or children, the widow, child or children, shall be entitled to remain in the possession of the homestead, and of all the wearing apparel of the family, and of all the household furniture of the deceased; and if the head of the family in his lifetime had not complied with the provisions of the law relative to the acquisition of a homestead, the widow, or the child or children, may comply with such provisions, and shall be entitled on such compliance to a homestead as now provided by law for the head of a family, and the same shall be set aside for the use of the widow, child or children, and shall be exempt from all claims for the payment of any debt, whether individual or community. Said homestead shall be for the use and support of said widow, child or children, and shall not be assets in the hands of any administrator or executor for the debts of the deceased, whether individual or community. [Cf. L. '54, p. 279, § 71; L. '73, p. 283, § 146; L. '77, p. 209, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1460; L. '83, p. 44, § 1; L. '86, p. 170, § 1; L. '91, p. 386, § 24; 2 H. C., § 972.]

§ 1466. Exempt Property to be Set Apart.—In case of the appointment of an executor or administrator upon the death of the husband, as mentioned in the last preceding section, the court shall, without cost to the widow, minor child or children, set apart, for the use of such widow, minor child or children, all the property of the estate by law exempt from execution; if the amount thus exempt be insufficient for the support of the widow and minor child or children the court shall make such further reasonable allowance out of the estate as may be necessary for the maintenance of the family according to their circumstances, during the progress of the settlement of the estate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 279, §§ 72, 73; Cd. '81, § 1461; L. '86, p. 171, § 2; L. '91, p. 386, § 25; 2 H. C., § 973.]

§ 1467. Family Allowance has Preference.—Any allowance made by the court in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section shall be paid by the executor or administrator in preference to all other charges, except funeral charges and expenses of administration. [L. '54, p. 279, § 74; Cd. '81, § 1462; 2 H. C., § 974.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 107; 70 Wash. 501.

§ 1468. Distribution of Property Set Apart.—When property shall have been set apart for the use of the family, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, if the deceased shall have left a widow and no minor children, such property shall be the property of the widow; if he shall have left also a minor child or children, one-half to the widow, and the remainder to such child, or in equal shares to such children, if there are more than one; if there be no widow, then the whole shall belong to the minor child or children. Cited in 24 Wash. 174; 30 Wash. 40; 34 Wash. 90; 86 Wash. 59.

§ 1469. When No Widow or Children, Estate to be Administered. If intestate leave no widow or minor children, all his estate shall be assets in the hands of the administrator, after payment of funeral expenses and expenses of administration, for the payment of the debts of the deceased, or distribution according to law. [Cf. L. '54, p. 280, § 77; L. '73, p. 284, § 151; Cd. '81, § 1464; 2 H. C., § 976.]

CHAPTER XI.

Claims Against the Estate.

§ 1470. Notice to Creditors.—Every executor or administrator shall, immediately after his appointment, cause to be published in some newspaper printed in the county, if there be one, if not, then in such newspaper as may be designated by the court, a notice to the creditors of the deceased, requiring all persons having claims against the deceased to present them, with the necessary vouchers, within one year after the date of such notice, to such executor or administrator, at the place of his residence or transaction of business, to be specified in the notice. Such notice shall be published as often as the court shall deem necessary, but not less than once in a week for four successive weeks. [L. '54, p. 280, § 78; L. '60, p. 195, § 157; Cd. '81, § 1465; 2 H. C., § 977.]

§ 1471. Copy of Notice to be Filed.—After the notice shall have been published, a copy thereof, together with the affidavit attached thereto, of the publisher or printer of the paper in which the same was published, shall be filed by the executor or administrator in court. [L. '54, p. 281, § 79; Cd. '81, § 1466; 2 H. C., § 978.]

§ 1472. Claims Barred in One Year.—If a claim be not presented within one year after the first publication of the notice, it shall be barred. [L. '54, p. 281, § 80; L. '61, p. 63, § 6; Cd. '81, § 1467; 2 H. C., § 979.]

§ 1473. Claims to be Verified.—Every claim presented to the administrator shall be supported by the affidavit of the claimant that the amount is justly due, that no payments have been made thereon, and that there are no offsets to the same to the knowledge of the claimant. The oath may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths. The executor or administrator may also require satisfactory vouchers to be produced in support of the claim. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1468; L. '83, p. 29, § 1; 2 H. C., § 980.]

§ 1474. Allowance and Rejection of Claims.—When a claim, accompanied by the affidavit required in the preceding section, has been presented to the executor or administrator, he shall indorse thereon his allowance or rejection, with the day and date thereof. If he allow the claim, it shall be presented to the judge of the court, who shall in the same manner indorse on it his allowance or rejection. If the executor or administrator reject the claim, he shall notify the claimant forthwith of said rejection. [Cf. L. '54, p. 231, § 82; L. '73, p. 285, § 156; Cd. '81, § 1469; 2 H. C., § 981.]

Cited in 72 Wash. 407.

§ 1475. Claims to be Filed.—Every claim which has been allowed by the executor or administrator and the said judge shall be filed in the court and be ranked among the acknowledged debts of the estate, to be paid in the course of the administration. [L. '54, p. 281, § 83; Cd. '81, § 1470; 2 H. C., § 982.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 618; 72 Wash. 407.

§ 1476. Claim of Judge Referred to Another.—Any judge of a court may present a claim against the estate of any decedent for allowance, to the executor or administrator; and if the executor or administrator allows such claim, he shall, in writing, designate some judge of the court of an adjoining county, and the said judge shall have the same power to allow or reject it as he would have, had letters issued in his court; and the claimant shall have, in the event of his claim being rejected, all the rights incident to any other creditor against the estate. [L. '60, p. 196, § 163; Cd. '81, § 1471; 2 H. C., § 983.]

§ 1477. Claim Barred, When.—When a claim is rejected by either the executor, administrator, or the court, the holder must bring suit in the proper court against the executor or administrator within three months after its rejection, otherwise the claim shall be forever barred. [Cf. L. '54, p. 281, § 84; L. '69, p. 166, § 665; L. '73, p. 285, § 159; Cd. '81, § 1472; 2 H. C., § 984.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 88; 8 Wash. 599; 28 Wash. 70; 66 Wash. 311; 86 Wash. 515.

§ 1478. No Claim to be Allowed if Barred by Statute.—No claim shall be allowed by the executor, administrator, or court which is barred by the statute of limitations. [L. '54, p. 281, § 85; Cd. '81, § 1473; 2 H. C., § 985.]

§ 1479. No Action on Unpresented Claim.—No holder of any claim against an estate shall maintain an action thereon, unless the claim shall have been first presented to the executor or administrator. [L. '54, p. 281, § 86; Cd. '81, § 1474; 2 H. C., § 986.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 599; 15 Wash. 560; 18 Wash. 606; 21 Wash. 614; 48 Wash. 274; 57 Wash. 189; 67 Wash. 422; 71 Wash. 682, 684; 72 Wash. 408; 86 Wash. 517.

§ 1480. Vacancy in Administration not Included.—The time during which there shall be a vacancy in the administration shall not be included in any limitations herein prescribed. [L. '54, p. 281, § 87; Cd. '81, § 1475; 2 H. C., § 987.]

§ 1481. Claim to be Presented Though Action Pending at Death of Decedent.—If any action be pending against the testator or intestate at the time of his death, the plaintiff shall, in like manner, present his claim to the executor or administrator for allowance or rejection, authenticated as in other cases; and no recovery shall be had in the action, unless proof be made of the presentment. [L. '54, p. 281, § 88; Cd. '81, § 1476; 2 H. C., § 988.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 599; 9 Wash. 517; 15 Wash. 560; 72 Wash. 533.

§ 1482. Costs Disallowed on Failure to Recover Full Amount.—Whenever any claim shall have been presented to an executor or administrator and the court, and a part thereof shall be allowed, the amount of such allowance shall be stated in the indorsement. If the creditor shall refuse to accept the amount so allowed in satisfaction of his claim, he shall recover no costs in any action he may bring against the executor or administrator, unless he shall recover a greater amount than that offered to be allowed, exclusive of interest and costs. [L. '54, p. 282, § 89; Cd. '81, § 1477; 2 H. C., § 989.]

§ 1483. Effect of Judgment.—The effect of any judgment rendered against any executor or administrator shall be only to establish the claim in the same manner as if it had been allowed by the executor or administrator and the court; and the judgment shall be, that the executor or administrator pay, in due course of administration, the amount ascertained to be due, but no execution shall issue upon such judgment, nor shall it create a lien upon the property of the estate, or give the judgment creditor any priority of payment. [L. '54, p. 282, § 90; Cd. '81, § 1478; 2 H. C., § 990.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 207; 16 Wash. 22; 29 Wash. 425; 57 Wash. 189, 191; 86 Wash. 370.

§ 1484. No Execution After Death—Proceedings.—When any judgment has been rendered against the testator or intestate in his lifetime, no execution shall issue thereon after his death, but it shall be presented to the executor or administrator as any other claim, but need not be supported by the affidavit of the claimant, and if justly due and unsatisfied, shall be paid in due course of administration: Provided, however, that if it be a lien upon any property of the deceased, the same may be sold for the satisfaction thereof, and the officer making the sale shall account to the executor or administrator for any surplus in his hands. [L. '54, p. 282, § 91; Cd. '81, § 1479; 2 H. C., § 991.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 335.

§ 1485. Arbitration of Claims, When.—If the executor or administrator doubt the correctness of any claim presented to him, he may enter into an agreement in writing with the claimant to refer the matter in controversy to some disinterested person or persons, to be approved by the court. Upon filing the agreement in the court, the court shall enter an order referring the matter in controversy to the persons so selected. [Cf. L. '54, p. 282; L. '60, p. 197, § 172; Cd. '81, § 1480; 2 H. C., § 992.]

§ 1486. Referees—Proceedings upon Reference.—The referee or referees, having been sworn, shall proceed to hear and determine the case and make return thereof; and their award, if not excepted to, shall be entered as the decision of the court. If exceptions in writing are filed, the court shall proceed to determine the case in like manner as other claims are determined. The compensation of referees shall be the same as allowed to referees in other causes. [Cf. L. '54, p. 282, § 93; L. '60, p. 197, § 173; Cd. '81, § 1481; L. '91, p. 386, § 26; H. C., § 993.]

§ 1487. Executor or Administrator's Claims Presented to Court. If the executor or administrator is himself a creditor of the testator or intestate, his claim, duly authenticated by affidavit, shall be presented for allowance or rejection to the judge of the court, and its allowance by the judge shall be sufficient evidence of its correctness. [Cf. L. '54, p. 283, § 94; Cd. '81, § 1482; L. '91, p. 386, § 27; 2 H. C., § 994.]

§ 1489. Statements Required of Executors and Administrators.—At the same time at which the executor or administrator is required to return his inventory, he shall also return a statement of all claims against the estate which shall have been presented to him, when required by the court, and from time to time thereafter shall present a statement of claims subsequently presented to him; and in all such statements he shall designate the names of creditors, the nature of each claim, when it did or will become due, and whether it was allowed or rejected by him. [L. '54, p. 283, § 96; Cd. '81, § 1484; 2 H. C., § 996.]

§ 1490. Notice on Change of Executor or Administrator.—In case of resignation or removal for any cause of any executor or administrator, and the appointment of another or others after notice has been given by publication as required by law, by such executor or administrator first appointed, to persons to present their claims against the estate, it shall be the duty of the judge of the court to cause notice of such resignation or removal and such new appointment to be published two successive weeks in the same newspaper in which the original notice was published, if the publication of such paper is at the time continued, and if not, then in some other newspaper published in the county, or if there be no newspaper published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the state and of general circulation in the county, and the estate shall be closed up and settled within the year from the date of said original notice, unless further time be granted by the court as provided by law. [Cf. L. '67, p. 106, § 3; L. '73, p. 288, § 172; Cd. '81, § 1485; L. '91, p. 387, § 28; 2 H. C., § 997.]

CHAPTER XII.

Sales by Executors and Administrators.

§ 1491. Sales or Mortgages to be Made Under Order of Court.—No sale or mortgage of any property shall be valid unless made under order of the court, unless otherwise provided by law. [Cf. L. '54, p. 284, § 97; Cd. '81, § 1486; L. '83, p. 29, § 1; 2 H. C., § 998; L. '95, p. 394, § 1.]

§ 1492. Application for Order of Sale.—All applications for orders of sale shall be by petition, in writing, in which shall be set forth the facts, showing the sale to be necessary, and upon the hearing any person interested in the estate may file his written objections, which shall be heard and determined. [L. '54, p. 284, § 98; Cd. '81, § 1487; 2 H. C., § 999.]

§ 1493. Sale of Perishable Property, etc.—Within twenty days after the filing of the inventory, the executor or administrator shall apply for an order to sell the perishable property of the estate, and so much other property as may be necessary to be sold to pay the allowance made to the family of the deceased; and the order of sale may be made without notice of the application, but the executor or administrator shall be responsible for the value of the property unless the sale be reported to and approved by the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 284, § 99; Cd. '81, § 1488; L. '91, p. 387, § 29; 2 H. C., § 1000.]

§ 1494. Application to Sell to Pay Expenses.—If the claims against the estate have been allowed, or a sale of property shall be necessary for the payment of the expenses of the administration, he may also apply for an order to sell so much of the personal estate as shall be necessary. [Cf. L. '54, p. 284, § 99; L. '60, p. 199, § 179; Cd. '81, § 1489; L. '91, p. 387, § 30; 2 H. C., § 1001.]

§ 1495. Order of Sale, Contents of.—If it appear to the court that a sale is necessary, it shall so order. In making such sale, the court shall order such articles as are not necessary for the support and subsistence of the family of the deceased, or not specially bequeathed, to be first sold. [L. '54, p. 285, § 100; Cd. '81, § 1490; 2 H. C., § 1002.]

§ 1496. Sales of Personalty, How Made.—Sales of personal property shall be made at public auction, and after notice given for at least two weeks, which notice shall be given by notices posted in ten public places in the county, or by publication in a newspaper, if the judge shall so order, in which shall be stated the time and place of sale. [Cf. L. '54, p. 285, § 101; L. '73, p. 289, § 178; Cd. '81, § 1491; 2 H. C., § 1003.]

§ 1497. Private Sales of Personalty.—If it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that it will be for the interest of the estate to allow the executor or administrator to sell some or the whole of the personal estate at private sale, the court may so order. [Cf. L. '54, p. 285, § 102; L. '60, p. 199, § 182; Cd. '81, § 1492; L. '83, p. 29, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1004.]

§ 1498. Real Property may be Sold or Mortgaged, When.—When the personal estate in the hands of the executor or administrator shall be insufficient to pay the allowance to the family and all the debts and charges of the administration, the executor or administrator may sell or mortgage the real estate for that purpose, upon the order of the court. To obtain such order he shall present a petition to the court setting forth the amount of the personal estate that has come to his hands, and how much, if any, remains undisposed of, a list and the amounts of the debts outstanding against the deceased, as far as the same can be ascertained, a description of all the real estate of which the testator or intestate died seised, the condition and value of the respective lots and portions, the names and ages of the devisees, if any, and of the heirs of the deceased, which petition shall be verified by the oath of the party presenting the same. [Cf. L. '54, p. 285, § 103; Cd. '81, § 1493; 2 H. C., § 1005.]

§ 1499. Order to Show Cause Why Realty Should not be Sold or Mortgaged.—If it should appear from such petition that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of the executor or administrator to pay the allowance to the family, the debts outstanding against the deceased and the expenses of administration, and that it is necessary to sell or mortgage the whole or some portion of the real estate to provide funds for the payment of such debts, the court shall thereupon make an order directing all persons interested to appear at a time and place specified, not less than four nor more than eight weeks from the time of making such order, to show cause why an order shall not be granted to the executor or administrator to sell or mortgage the real estate of the deceased, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay such allowances, charges and debts. [Cf. L. '54, p. 285, § 104; Cd. '81, § 1494; 2 H. C., § 1006; L. '95, p. 385, § 3.]

§ 1500. Service of Order to Show Cause.—A copy of such order to show cause shall be personally served on all persons interested in the estate at least ten days before the time appointed for the hearing of the petition, or shall be published, at least four successive weeks in such newspaper as the court shall order: Provided, however, that if all persons interested in the estate shall signify in writing their assent to such sale or the making of such mortgage, the notice may be dispensed with. [Cf. L. '54, p. 285, § 105; Cd. '81, § 1495; 2 H. C., § 1007; L. '95, § 395, § 4.]

§ 1501. Hearing of Application.—The court, at the time and place appointed in such order, or at such other time to which the hearing may be adjourned, upon proof of due service or publication of a copy of the order, or upon filing the consent in writing to such sale or to the making of such mortgage of all parties interested, shall proceed to the hearing of such petition, and if such consent be not filed, shall hear and examine the allegations and proofs of the petitioner and of all persons interested in the estate who may oppose the application. [Cf. L. '54, p. 286, § 106; Cd. '81, § 1496; 2 H. C., § 1008; L. '95, p. 396, § 5.]

§ 1502. Service on Guardian—Appointment of.—If any of the devisees or heirs of the deceased are minors, and have a general guardian in the county, the copy of the order shall be served on the guardian. If they have no such guardian, the court shall, before proceeding to act on the petition, appoint some disinterested person their guardian for the sole purpose of appearing for them, and taking care of their interests in the proceedings. [L. '54, p. 286, § 107; Cd. '81, § 1497; 2 H. C., § 1009.]

Cited in 34 Wash. 310; 57 Wash. 481.

§ 1503. Examination of Witnesses.—The executor or administrator may be examined under oath, and witnesses may be examined by either party, and process may be issued to compel their attendance and testimony, by the court, in the same manner and with like effect as in other cases. [L. '54, p. 286, § 108; Cd. '81, § 1498; 2 H. C., § 1010.]

Cited in 86 Wash. 69.

§ 1504. Court may Order Part or All of Estate Sold.—If it shall appear to the court that it is necessary to sell a part of the real estate, and that by a sale of such part the residue of the estate or some specific part or piece thereof would be greatly injured, the court may authorize the sale of the whole estate, or of such part thereof as may be adjudged necessary, and most to the interest of all concerned. [L. '54, p. 286, § 109; Cd. '81, § 1499; 2 H. C., § 1011.]

Cited in 86 Wash. 69.

§ 1505. Order to Sell or Mortgage, When Granted.—If the court shall be satisfied, after a full hearing upon the petition, and on examination of the proofs and allegations of the parties interested, that it is necessary, in order to raise funds for the payment of the allowance to the family and all valid claims against the estate, and charges of administration, to sell or mortgage the whole or some portion of the real estate, the court shall then proceed to determine which method of raising such funds will be most beneficial to the estate and those interested therein, and shall thereupon make an order authorizing the executor or administrator to sell the whole or so much and such parts of the real estate described in the petition as the court shall adjudge necessary or beneficial, or authorizing the executor or administrator to mortgage the whole or so much and such parts of the real estate described in said petition as the court shall adjudge necessary or beneficial, according as the court shall determine one or the other methods most beneficial to the estate and those interested therein: Provided, that if the executor or administrator shall, in his petition, represent to the court that one or the other of such methods of providing such funds will be most beneficial to the estate, and all parties interested in the estate shall join in such petition, then the court, if it grants such petition, shall order that such funds be raised in the manner petitioned for. [Cf. L. '54, p. 286, § 110; Cd. '81, § 1500; 2 H. C., § 1012; L. '95, p. 396, § 6.]

§ 1506. What Order must Contain.—The order shall specify the lands to be sold or mortgaged and the terms of the sale or mortgage. If a sale be ordered it may be either for cash or on credit, not exceeding six months, as the court may direct. If a sale has been ordered and it appears that any part of the real estate has been devised and not charged in such devise with the payment of debts, the court shall order that part descended to heirs to be sold before that part devised. If a mortgage be ordered the court shall order the amount to be borrowed, which may be greater or less than the amount prayed for in the petition, and shall prescribe the maximum rate of interest which shall be paid, and the period for which the mortgage shall run, and may require that the interest and part or the whole of the mortgage debt be paid from any part of the estate, and may direct that any buildings on the lands to be mortgaged shall be insured for the further security of the mortgagee, the premiums to be paid from any funds in the hands of the executor or administrator. If a mortgage be ordered the executor or administrator shall at once proceed to negotiate a loan for the amount and upon the terms and upon the security ordered by the court, and upon securing said loan and upon the receipt of the money borrowed, shall execute and deliver to the lender of said money a mortgage of the premises described in the order of the court directing such mortgage, in accordance with said order, setting forth in the mortgage that it is executed by order of the court, and giving the date of such order. Before the delivery of such mortgage the same shall be presented to a judge of the court making the order for his approval, and if he shall approve the same his approval shall be indorsed upon said mortgage. No notice of such presentation need be given. Every mortgage so made and approved shall be effectual to mortgage and hypothecate all the right, title and interest which the decedent had in the premises described therein at the time of his death or acquired by his estate subsequent to his death. Jurisdiction of the court to administer such estate shall be sufficient to clothe such court with jurisdiction to make an order to mortgage the real property thereof, and such jurisdiction shall inure to the benefit of the mortgagee, his heirs and assigns. No irregularity in the proceedings shall impair or invalidate any mortgage given pursuant to such order and so approved, and the mortgagee, his heirs and assigns, shall have the same rights and remedies by virtue of such mortgage as if it had been duly executed and delivered by the decedent in his lifetime. Whenever any such mortgage shall be foreclosed and the mortgaged property sold under such foreclosure proceedings, and the proceeds of the sale of such lands shall not be sufficient to pay the costs of such foreclosure proceedings and sale and the amount due upon said mortgage, then the amount of the deficiency shall be stated by the sheriff in his return of said sale, and the same shall stand as an allowed claim against the estate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 286, § 11; Cd. '81, § 1501; 2 H. C., § 1013; L. '95, p. 397, § 7.]

Cited in 54 Wash. 442.

§ 1507. Interested Persons may Apply for Order, When.—If the executor or administrator shall neglect to apply for an order to sell or mortgage the real property of the estate, whenever it may be necessary, any person interested in the estate may make application therefor in the same manner as an executor or administrator, but notice thereof shall be given to the executor or administrator before the hearing. [Cf. L. '54, p. 287, § 112; Cd. '81, § 1502; 2 H. C., § 1014; L. '95, p. 398, § 8.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 23.

§ 1508. Order Delivered to Executor or Administrator.—Upon the making of such order the clerk of the court shall deliver the same to the executor or administrator, who shall thereupon be authorized to sell or mortgage the real estate as directed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 287, § 113; Cd. '81, § 1503; 2 H. C., § 1015; L. '95, p. 398, § 9.]

§ 1509. Notice of Sale, What to Contain.—When a sale is ordered, notice of the time and place of sale shall be posted in three of the most public places in the county where the land is situated, at least twenty days before the day of sale, and shall be published in some newspaper of said county, if any there be, and if not, in some newspaper of this state in general circulation in said county, for three successive weeks next before such sale, in which notice the lands and tenements shall be described with proper certainty. [Cf. L. '54, p. 287, § 114; Cd. '81, § 1504; L. '88, p. 187, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1016.]

§ 1510. Sale of Real Estate, Where, When and How Made.—Such sale shall be in the county where the lands are situated, at public auction, between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning and the setting of the sun the same day; but if the executor or administrator shall deem it for the interest of all concerned that the sale should be postponed, he may adjourn it for any time not exceeding fourteen days. [L. '54, p. 287, § 115; Cd. '81, § 1505; 2 H. C., § 1017.]

§ 1511. Notice of Adjournment, How Given.—In case of such adjournment, notice thereof shall be given by a public proclamation at the time and place first appointed for the sale; and if the adjournment shall be for more than one day, further notice shall be given by posting or publishing as the time and circumstances may admit. [L. '54, p. 287, § 116; Cd. '81, § 1506; 2 H. C., § 1018.]

§ 1512. Sale on Credit, Security Taken.—The executor or administrator shall, when the sale is on credit, take the note or notes of the purchaser for the purchase money, with surety, and mortgage on the property to secure their payment. [L. '54, p. 287, § 117; Cd. '81, § 1507; 2 H. C., § 1019.]

§ 1513. Resale, When will be Ordered.—The executor or administrator making any sale of real estate shall, within ten days thereafter, make a return of his proceedings to the court, which shall examine the same, and if the court shall be of opinion that the proceedings were unfair, or that the sum bidden is disproportionate to the value, and that a sum exceeding such bid at least ten per cent, exclusive of expenses of a new sale, may be obtained, the order of sale shall be vacated [and] another sale shall be ordered. On a resale, notice shall be given, and the sale shall be conducted in all respects as if no previous sale had been made. [Cf. L. '54, p. 287, § 118; Cd. '81, § 1508; L. '91, p. 387, § 31; 2 H. C., § 1020.]

§ 1514. Objections to Confirmation.—When the return of the sale is made, any person interested in the estate may file written objections to the confirmation of the sale, and may be heard and produce witnesses in support of his objections. [L. '54, p. 287, § 119; Cd. '81, § 1509; 2 H. C., § 1021.]

§ 1515. Confirmation of Sale.—If it appear to the court that the sale was legally made and fairly conducted, and that the sum bidden was not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, or if disproportionate, that a greater sum, as above specified, cannot be obtained, the court shall make an order confirming the sale and directing conveyances to be executed; and such sale, from that time, shall be confirmed and valid. [L. '54, p. 287, § 120; Cd. '81, § 1510; 2 H. C., § 1022.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 368; 54 Wash. 444.

§ 1516. Conveyance.—Such conveyances shall thereupon be executed to the purchaser by the executor or administrator. They shall refer to the original order authorizing a sale, and the order confirming the sale and directing the conveyance; and they shall be deemed to convey all the estate, rights, and interest of the testator or intestate at the time of his death. [L. '54, p. 288, § 121; Cd. '81, § 1511; 2 H. C., § 1023.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 599.

§ 1517. Order of Confirmation to Show Notice of Sale.—Before any order is entered confirming the sale, it shall be proven to the satisfaction of the court that notice of the sale was given as herein prescribed, and the order of confirmation shall state that such proof was made. [L. '54, p. 288, § 122; Cd. '81, § 1512; 2 H. C., § 1024.]

§ 1518. Sale to Pay Legacy.—When a testator shall have given any legacy by will that is effectual to charge real estate, and his goods, chattels, rights and credits shall be insufficient to pay such legacy, together with the debts and charges of administration, the executor or administrator, with the will annexed, may obtain an order to sell or mortgage his real estate for that purpose in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as prescribed in this chapter in case of a sale or mortgage for the payment of the debts. [Cf. L. '54, p. 288, § 123; Cd. '81, § 1513; 2 H. C., § 1025; L. '95, p. 398, § 10.]

§ 1519. Debts and Expenses Paid According to Terms of Will.—If the testator shall make provision by his will or designate the estate to be appropriated for the payment of his debts, the expenses of administration, or family expenses, they shall be paid according to the provision of the will, and out of the estate thus appropriated, so far as the same may be sufficient. [L. '54, p. 288, § 124; Cd. '81, § 1514; 2 H. C., § 1026.]

§ 1520. Sale Without Order of Court.—When such provision has been made, or any property directed to be sold, the executor [or] administrator with the will annexed may proceed to sell without the order of the court; but he shall be bound as an administrator to give notice of the sale, and to proceed in making the sale in all respects as if he were under the order of the court, unless there are special directions given in the will, in which case he shall be governed by such directions; but in no [all] cases he shall make return of the sale to the court, which shall vacate such sale unless the same shall appear in all respects to be made according to law, in like manner as upon sales made by administrator. [Cf. L. '54, p. 288, § 125; Cd. '81, § 1515; L. '91, p. 388, § 32; 2 H. C., § 1027.]

§ 1521. Debts and Expenses When Provisions of Will Insufficient.—If the provision made by the will or the estate appropriated be not sufficient to pay the debts and expenses of administration and family expenses, such part of the estate as shall not have been disposed of by the will, if any, shall be appropriated for that purpose, according to the provisions of this chapter. [L. '54, p. 288, § 126; Cd. '81, § 1516; 2 H. C., § 1028.]

§ 1522. Estate Given by Will Subject to Debts and Expenses.—The estate, real and personal, given by the will to any legatees or devisees, shall be held liable for the payment of the debts, the expenses of administration and of the family, in proportion to the value or amount of the several devises or legacies, if there shall not be other sufficient estate, except that specific devises or legacies may be exempted, if it appear to the court necessary to carry into effect the intention of the testator. [Cf. L. '54, p. 288, § 127; L. '73, p. 249, § 204; Cd. '81, § 1517; 2 H. C., § 1029.]

§ 1523. All Devisees and Legatees to Contribute.—When the estate given by any will has been sold for the payment of debts and expenses, all the devisees and legatees shall be liable to contribute according to their respective interests, to any devisee or legatee from whom the estate devised to him may be taken for the payment of the debts or expenses; and the court, when distribution is made, shall, by decree for that purpose, settle the amount of the several liabilities, and decree how much each person shall contribute. [L. '54, p. 289, § 128; Cd. '81, § 1518; 2 H. C., § 1030.]

§ 1524. Contract Interest of Deceased in Land may be Sold.—If the deceased person at the time of his death was possessed of a contract for the purchase of lands, his interest in such lands under such contract may be sold on the application of his executor or administrator, in the same manner as if he had died seised of such lands; and the same proceedings may be had for that purpose as are prescribed in this chapter, in respect to lands of which he died seised, except as hereinafter provided. [L. '54, p. 289, § 129; Cd. '81, § 1519; 2 H. C., § 1031.]

§ 1525. Sale Subject to Unmatured Debts—Confirmation—Bond. Such sale shall be made subject to all payments that may thereafter become due on such contract; and if there be any such payments thereafter to become due, such sale shall not be confirmed by the court until the purchaser shall have executed a bond to the executor or administrator for his benefit and indemnity, and for the benefit and indemnity of the persons entitled to the interest of the deceased in lands so contracted for, in double the whole amount of the payments thereafter to become due on such contract, with such sureties as the court shall approve. [L. '54, p. 289, § 130; Cd. '81, § 1520; 2 H. C., § 1032.]

§ 1526. Conditions of Bond.—Such bond shall be conditioned that the purchaser will make all payments for such land as shall become due after the date of such sale, and will fully indemnify the executor or administrator and the person so entitled against all demands, costs, and charges and expenses, by reason of any covenant or agreement contained in such contract; but if there be no payments thereafter to become due on such contract, no bonds shall be required of the purchaser. [L. '54, p. 289, § 131; Cd. '81, § 1521; 2 H. C., § 1033.]

§ 1527. Assignment of Contract, Effect of.—Upon the confirmation of such sale, the executor or administrator shall execute to the purchaser an assignment of the contract, which assignment shall vest in the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, all the right, title, and interest of the persons entitled to the interest of the deceased in the land sold at the time of the sale; and such purchaser shall have the same rights and remedies against the vendor of such lands as the deceased would have had if living. [L. '54, p. 289, § 132; Cd. '81, § 1522; 2 H. C., § 1034.]

§ 1528. Redemption of Mortgaged Property.—If any person die, having mortgaged any real or personal estate, and shall not have devised the same, or provided for the redemption thereof by will, the court, upon the application of any person interested, may order the executor or administrator to redeem the estate out of the personal assets, if it should appear to the satisfaction of the court that such redemption would be beneficial to the estate, and not injurious to creditors. [L. '54, p. 289, § 133; Cd. '81, § 1523; 2 H. C., § 1035.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 181, 183; 3 Wash. 364, 366; 4 Wash. 168; 8 Wash. 323, 324, 327; 10 Wash. 196.

§ 1529. Sale of Other Property in Lieu of That Mortgaged.—If it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that it will be to the interest of the estate of any deceased person to sell other personal estate or to sell or mortgage other real estate of the decedent than that mortgaged by him, to redeem the real estate so mortgaged, the court may order the sale of any personal estate, or the sale or mortgaging of any real estate of the decedent which it may deem expedient to be sold or mortgaged for such purpose, which sale or mortgaging shall be conducted in all respects as other sales or mortgages of like property ordered by the court. [Cf. L. '88, p. 185, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1036; L. '95, p. 399, § 11.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 323; 10 Wash. 196.

§ 1530. Where Redemption not Expedient.—Procedure.—If such redemption be not deemed expedient, the court shall order such property to be sold at public sale, which sale shall be with the same notice, and conducted in the same manner, as required in other cases of real estate provided for in this chapter, and the executor or administrator shall thereupon execute a conveyance thereof to the purchaser, which conveyance shall be effectual to convey to the purchaser all the right, title, and interest which the deceased would have had in the property had not the same been mortgaged by him, and the purchase money, after paying the expenses of the sale, shall first be applied to the payment and discharge of such mortgage, and the residue in due course of administration. If said sale of the mortgaged premises shall be insufficient to secure the mortgage debt, the mortgagee shall file a claim for balance, authenticated as other claims, and payable in due course of administration. [Cf. L. '54, p. 290, § 134; L. '73, p. 296, § 211; Cd. '81, § 1524; 2 H. C., § 1037.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 181, 183; 3 Wash. 364, 366, 369; 4 Wash. 168; 56 Wash. 170.

§ 1531. Liability for Neglect, etc., in Sales or Mortgages.—If there should be any neglect or misconduct in the proceedings of the executor or administrator in relation to any sale or mortgage by which any person interested in the estate shall suffer damages, the party injured may recover the same in a suit upon the bond of the executor or administrator, as the case may appear. [Cf. L. '54, p. 290, § 135; Cd. '81, § 1525; 2 H. C., § 1038; L. '95, p. 399, § 12.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 594; 15 Wash. 294; 42 Wash. 351, 353.

§ 1532. Liability for Fraudulent Sale of Realty.—Any executor or administrator who shall fraudulently sell or mortgage any real estate of his testator or intestate, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable in double the value of the land sold or mortgaged, as damages, to be recovered in an action by the person or persons having an estate of inheritance therein. [Cf. L. '54, p. 290, § 136; Cd. '81, § 1526; 2 H. C., § 1039; L. '95, p. 399, § 13.]

§ 1533. Sale Under Will—Void Unless Confirmed.—When property is directed by will to be sold, or authority is given in the will to sell property, the executor may sell any property of the estate without the order of the court, and either at public or private sale, and with or without notice, as the executor may determine; but the executor must make return of such sales as in other cases; and if directions are given in the will as to the mode of selling, or the particular property to be sold, such directions must be observed. In either case, no title passes unless the sale is confirmed by the court. [Cd. '81, § 1527; 2 H. C., § 1040.]

CHAPTER XIII.

Powers and Duties of Executors and Administrators.

§ 1534. Executor or Administrator to Take and Manage Estate.—The executor or administrator shall take into his possession all the estate of the deceased, real and personal, and collect all debts due to the deceased. [L. '54, p. 291, § 141; Cd. '81, § 1528; 2 H. C., § 1041.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 335; 4 Wash. 173, 501; 10 Wash. 599; 38 Wash. 265; 42 Wash. 351, 353; 79 Wash. 586.

§ 1535. Actions by and Against Administrators.—Actions for the recovery of any property, real or personal, or for the possession thereof, and all actions founded upon contracts, may be maintained by and against executors and administrators in all cases in which the same might have been maintained by or against their respective testators or intestates. [Cf. L. '54, p. 291, § 142; L. '60, p. 206, § 222; Cd. '81, § 1529; 2 H. C., § 1042.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 89.

§ 1536. Action by Administrator for Waste, Trespass, etc.—Executors and administrators may maintain actions against any person who shall have wasted, destroyed, taken, carried away, or converted to his own use the goods of their testator or intestate in his lifetime; also may maintain actions for trespass committed on the estate of the deceased during his lifetime. [L. '54, p. 291, § 143; Cd. '81, § 1530; 2 H. C., § 1043.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 519.

§ 1537. Action Against Administrator for Waste, Trespass, etc. Any person, or his personal representatives, shall have an action against the executor or administrator of any estate or intestate who in his lifetime shall have wasted, destroyed, taken, or carried away, or converted to his own use, the goods and chattels of any such person, or committed any trespass on the real estate of such person. [L. '54, p. 291, § 144; Cd. '81, § 1531; 2 H. C., § 1044.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 173, 502.

§ 1538. Action by Administrator on Predecessor's Bond.—Any administrator may in his own name, for the use and benefit of all parties interested in the estate, maintain actions on the bond of an executor or of any former administrator of the same estate. [L. '54, p. 291, § 145; Cd. '81, § 1532; 2 H. C., § 1045.]

Cited in 80 Wash. 518.

§ 1539. Debts may be Compromised.—Whenever a debtor of a deceased person shall be unable to pay all his debts, the executor or administrator may, with the approbation of the court, compound with him and give him a discharge upon receiving a fair and just dividend of his effects. [L. '54, p. 291, § 146; Cd. '81, § 1533; 2 H. C., § 1046.]

§ 1540. Action to Recover Property Fraudulently Conveyed by Decedent.—When there shall be a deficiency of assets in the hands of an executor or administrator, and when the deceased shall in his lifetime have conveyed any real estate, or any right or interest therein, with intent to defraud his creditors or to avoid any right, duty, or debt of any person, or shall have so conveyed such estate, which deeds or conveyances by law are void as against creditors, the executor or administrator may, and it shall be his duty to, commence and prosecute to final judgment any proper action for the recovery of the same, and may recover for the benefit of the creditors all such real estate so fraudulently conveyed, and may also, for the benefit of the creditors, sue and recover all goods, chattels, rights and credits which may have been so fraudulently conveyed by the deceased in his lifetime, whatever may have been the manner of such fraudulent conveyance. [L. '54, p. 291, § 147; Cd. '81, § 1534; 2 H. C., § 1047.]

Cited in 65 Wash. 126, 127.

§ 1541. Such Action Brought, When.—No executor or administrator shall be bound to sue for such estate as mentioned in the preceding section for the benefit of the creditors, unless on application of the creditors of the deceased; and the creditors making such application shall pay such part of the costs and expenses, or give such security to the executor or administrator thereof, as the court shall direct. [Cf. L. '54, p. 292, § 148; L. '73, p. 298, § 221; Cd. '81, § 1535; 2 H. C., § 1048.]

§ 1542. Real Estate so Regained, How Disposed of.—The real estate so recovered shall be sold for the payment of debts, in the same manner as if the deceased had died seised thereof, upon obtaining an order therefor from the court, and the proceeds of all goods, chattels, rights, and credits so recovered shall be appropriated in payment of debts of the deceased, in the same manner as other property in the hands of the executor or administrator. [L. '54, p. 292, § 149; Cd. '81, § 1536; 2 H. C., § 1049.]

CHAPTER XIV.

Accounts of Executors and Administrators and Payment of Debts.

§ 1543. Administrator's Promise to Pay Debts Valid, When.—No executor or administrator shall be chargeable upon any special promise to answer damages, or to pay the debts of the testator or intestate out of his own estate, unless the agreement for that purpose, or some memorandum or note thereof, is in writing, and signed by such executor or administrator, or by some other person by him thereunto specially authorized. [L. '54, p. 295, § 160; Cd. '81, § 1537; 2 H. C., § 1050.]

§ 1544. Administrator Chargeable With Whole Estate.—Every executor or administrator shall be chargeable in his accounts with the whole estate of the deceased which may come into his possession, at the value of the appraisement contained in the inventory, except as provided in the following sections, and with the interest, profit, and income of the estate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 295, § 161; L. '60, p. 210, § 241; Cd. '81, § 1538; 2 H. C., § 1051.]

Cited in 17 Wash. 677; 38 Wash. 265.

§ 1545. Administrator not to Profit or Suffer Loss.—He shall not make profit by the increase nor suffer loss by the decrease or destruction, without his fault, of any part of the estate. He shall account for the excess when he shall have sold any part of the estate for more than the appraisement; and if any has been sold for less than the appraisement, he shall not be responsible for the loss if the sale has been unjustly made. [Cf. L. '54, p. 295, § 162; L. '60, p. 210, § 242; Cd. '81, § 1539; 2 H. C., § 1052.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 617.

§ 1546. Administrator not Accountable for Worthless Debts.—No executor or administrator shall be accountable for any debts due the estate, if it shall appear that they remain uncollected without his fault. [L. '54, p. 295, § 163; Cd. '81, § 1540; 2 H. C., § 1053.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 618.

§ 1547. Compensation and Expenses Allowed.—He shall be allowed all necessary expenses in the care, management, and settlement of the estate, and for his services such fees as the law provides, but when the deceased, by will, shall have made some other provision for the compensation of his executor, that shall be deemed a full compensation for his services, unless he shall, by a written instrument, filed in the court, renounce all claim for compensation provided by the will. [L. '54, p. 295, § 164; Cd. '81, § 1541; 2 H. C., § 1054.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 561; 38 Wash. 268.

§ 1548. Shall not Purchase Claim Against Estate.—No administrator or executor shall purchase any claim against the estate he represents; and if he shall have paid any claim for less than its nominal value, he shall only be entitled to charge in his account so much as he shall have actually paid. [L. '54, p. 295, § 165; Cd. '81, § 1542; 2 H. C., § 1055.]

§ 1549. Commissions Allowed.—When no compensation shall have been provided by will, or the executor shall renounce his claim thereto, he shall be allowed commission on the whole estate accounted for by him as follows: For the first one thousand dollars, at the rate of seven per cent; for all above that sum, and not exceeding two thousand dollars, at the rate of five per cent; for all above that sum, at the rate of four per cent; and the same commission shall be allowed to administrators. In all cases such further allowance may be made as the court shall deem just and reasonable for any extraordinary services not required of an executor or administrator in the common course of his duty: Provided, that the total amount of such allowance shall not exceed the amount of commission allowed in this section. [L. '54, p. 295, § 166; Cd. '81, § 1543; 2 H. C., § 1056.]

§ 1550. Exhibit to be Rendered.—Within six months after his appointment, and thereafter at any time when required by the court, either upon its own motion or the application of any person interested in the estate, the executor or administrator shall render, for the information of the court, an exhibit under oath, showing the amount of money received and expended by him, the amount of all claims presented against the estate, and the names of the claimants, and all other matters necessary to show the condition of its affairs. [L. 54, p. 296, § 167; Cd. '81, § 1544; 2 H. C., § 1057.]

§ 1551. Court may Require Exhibit.—If the executor or administrator fail to render an exhibit within six months, as required in the last preceding section, it shall be the duty of the court to issue a citation requiring him to appear and render it. [L. '54, p. 296, § 168; Cd. '81, § 1545; 2 H. C., § 1058.]

§ 1552. Interested Persons may Require Exhibit.—Any person interested in the estate may, at any time before the final settlement of accounts, present his petition to the court, praying that the executor or administrator be required to appear and render such exhibit, setting forth the facts showing that it is necessary and proper that such an exhibit shall be made. [L. '54, p. 296, § 169; Cd. '81, § 1546; 2 H. C., § 1059.]

§ 1553. Citation to Compel Exhibit.—If the court be satisfied, either from the oath of the applicant, or from any other testimony that may be offered, that the facts alleged are true, and shall consider the showing of the applicant sufficient, a citation shall be issued to the executor or administrator requiring him to appear on some day named in the citation, and render an exhibit as prayed for. [Cf. L. '54, p. 296, § 170; Cd. '81, § 1547; L. '91, p. 388, § 33; 2 H. C., § 1060.]

§ 1554. Objections to Exhibit.—When an exhibit is rendered by an executor or administrator, any person interested may appear, and, by objections in writing, contest any account or statement therein contained. The court may examine the executor or administrator, and if he has been guilty of negligence, or wasted, embezzled, or mismanaged the estate, his letters shall be revoked. [L. '54, p. 296, § 171; Cd. '81, § 1548; 2 H. C., § 1061.]

§ 1555. Attachment, etc., for Failure to Render Exhibit.—If any executor or administrator neglect or refuse to appear and render an exhibit after having been duly cited, an attachment may be issued against him, or his letters may be revoked, in the discretion of the court. [L. '54, p. 296, § 172; Cd. '81, § 1549; 2 H. C., § 1062.]

§ 1556. Annual Account — Proceedings on Default of.—Every executor or administrator shall render a full account of his administration at the expiration of one year from the time of his appointment. If he fail to present his account, it shall be the duty of the court to compel the rendering of such account by attachment, and any person interested in the estate may apply for and obtain an attachment, but no attachment shall issue unless a citation shall have been first issued and returned, requiring the executor or administrator to appear and show cause why an attachment should not issue. [L. '54, p. 296, § 173; Cd. '81, § 1550; 2 H. C., § 1063.]

§ 1557. Citation to Account After Revocation of Authority.—Whenever the authority of an executor or administrator shall cease, or be revoked for any reason, he may be cited to account before the court, at the instance of the person succeeding to the administration of the estate, in like manner as he might have been cited by any person interested in the estate during the time he was administrator or executor. [Cf. L. '54, p. 296, § 174; L. '60, p. 212, § 254; L. '73, p. 304, § 247; Cd. '81, § 1551; 2 H. C., § 1064.]

§ 1558. Revocation of Letters for Failure to Account.—If the executor or administrator resides out of the county, or absconds or conceals himself so that the citation cannot be personally served, and shall neglect to render an account within thirty days after the time above prescribed, or if he shall neglect to render an account within thirty days after having been committed where the attachment has been executed, his letters shall be revoked. [Cf. L. '54, p. 297, § 175; L. '73, p. 304, § 248; Cd. '81, § 1552; 2 H. C., § 1065.]

See supra, § 1379, revocation of letters.
See supra, § 1415, suspension.

§ 1559. Vouchers to be Filed, etc.—In rendering his accounts the executor or administrator shall produce vouchers for the expenses and charges which he shall have paid, which vouchers shall be filed and remain in court; and he may be examined on oath touching such payments, and also touching any property and effects of the deceased, and the disposition thereof. [L. '54, p. 297, § 176; Cd. '81, § 1553; 2 H. C., § 1066.]

§ 1560. Voucher Unnecessary, When.—On the settlement of his account, he may be allowed any item of expenditure not exceeding twenty dollars for which no voucher is produced, if such item be supported by his own oath, positive to the fact of payment, specifying when, where, and to whom payment was made, if such oath be uncontradicted; but such allowances, in the whole, shall not exceed three hundred dollars for payment in behalf of any one estate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 297, § 177; L. '73, p. 304, § 250; Cd. '81, § 1554; 2 H. C., § 1067.]

§ 1561. Erection of Monument, When.—Executors and administrators of the estates of deceased persons are hereby authorized, by and with the consent of the court of the proper county, to expend a reasonable sum out of the estate of the decedent to erect a monument or tombstone, suitable to mark the grave of said decedent, and the expense thereof shall be paid as the expenses of administration are paid. [L. '75, p. 127, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1555; 2 H. C., § 1068.]

§ 1562. Final Hearing and Settlement — Notice of.—When the account is rendered for settlement, the court, or the judge thereof, shall appoint a day for the hearing and settlement of the same, and notice of such hearing and settlement shall be given by posting notices thereof in three of the most public places in the county, and publishing a similar notice for such time as the court or judge may order, in a newspaper published in the county, or if there be no newspaper published in the county, then in a newspaper published in the state, and of general circulation in the county. The notice shall set forth the name of the estate, of the executor or administrator and the day appointed for the settlement of account, which shall be on some day not more than six weeks after the filing of the account. [Cf. L. '54, p. 297, § 178; L. '73, p. 305, § 251; Cd. '81, § 1556; L. '91, p. 388, § 34; 2 H. C., § 1069.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 501.

§ 1563. Exceptions to Final Account—Contest.—On the day appointed, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing may have been adjourned by the court, any person interested in the estate may appear and file his exceptions in writing to the account, and contest the same. [L. '54, p. 297, § 179; Cd. '81, § 1557; 2 H. C., § 1070.]

§ 1564. Guardian for Minor — Compensation.—If there be any minor interested in the estate who has no legally appointed guardian, the court shall appoint some disinterested person to represent him, who, on behalf of the minor, may contest the account as any other person interested might contest it, and who shall be allowed by the court reasonable compensation for his services. [L. '54, p. 297, § 180; Cd. '81, § 1558; 2 H. C., § 1071.]

§ 1565. Hearing may be Adjourned.—The hearing and allegations of the respective parties may be adjourned from time to time as shall be necessary. [Cf. L. '54, p. 297, § 181; L. '60, p. 213, § 261; Cd. '81, § 1559; 2 H. C., § 1072.]

§ 1566. Settlement, When and When not Conclusive.—The settlement of the account and the allowance thereof by the court, [or upon appeal], shall be conclusive against all persons in any way interested in the estate, saving, however, to all persons laboring under any legal disability, the right to proceed against the executor or administrator, either individually or upon his bond, within two years after their respective disabilities shall have ceased; and in any action brought by any such person, the allowance and settlement of the account shall be deemed presumptive evidence of its correctness. [L. '54, p. 297, § 182; Cd. '81, § 1560; 2 H. C., § 1073.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 307.

§ 1567. Proof of Notice of Settlement. The account shall not be allowed by the court until it be first proven that notice has been given as required by this chapter, and the decree shall show that such proof was made to the satisfaction of the court, and shall be conclusive evidence of the fact. [L. '54, p. 298, § 183; Cd. '81, § 1561; 2 H. C., § 1074.]

§ 1568. Order of Payment of Debts.—The debts of the estate shall be paid in the following order:—

1. Funeral expenses;
2. Expenses of the last sickness;
3. Debts having preference by the laws of the United States;
4. Wages due for labor performed within ninety days immediately preceding the death of decedent;
5. Taxes or any debts or dues, owing to the state;
6. Judgments rendered against the deceased in his lifetime which are liens upon real estate on which execution might have issued at the time of his death, and debts secured by mortgages, in the order of their priority;
7. All other demands against the [e]state. [Cf. L. '54, p. 298, § 184; L. '60, p. 213, § 264; Cd. '81, § 1562; 2 H. C., § 1075; L. '97, p. 22, § 1.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 335; 25 Wash. 436, 543; 50 Wash. 396; 74 Wash. 528.

§ 1569. Extent of Mortgage Preference.—The preference given in the preceding section to a mortgage or judgment shall only extend to the proceeds of the property subject to the lien of such mortgage or judgment. [Cf. L. '54, p. 298, § 185; Cd. '81, § 1653; 2 H. C., § 1076; L. '97, p. 22, § 2.]

§ 1570. Estate Insufficient, Dividend to be Paid.—If the estate shall be insufficient to pay the debts of any one class, each creditor shall be paid a dividend in proportion to his claim, and no creditor of any one class shall receive any payment until all those of the preceding class shall have been fully paid. [L. '54, p. 298, § 186; Cd. '81, § 1564; 2 H. C., § 1077.]

Cited in 50 Wash. 396.

§ 1571. Funeral Expenses and Expenses of Last Sickness.—It shall be the duty of the executor or administrator, as soon as he may have sufficient funds in his hands, to pay the funeral expenses, and expenses of the last sickness, and the allowance made to the family of the deceased, and he may retain in his hands the necessary expenses of administration; but he shall not be obliged to pay any other debt or any legacy until, as prescribed by this chapter, the payment has been ordered by the court. [L. '54, p. 298, § 187; Cd. '81, § 1565; 2 H. C., § 1078.]

Cited in 50 Wash. 396; 70 Wash. 501.

§ 1572. Payment of Debts on Annual Settlement.—Upon the settlement of the accounts of the executor or administrator at the end of the year, as required by this chapter, the court shall make an order for the payment of the debts, as the circumstances of the estate shall require. If there be not sufficient funds in the hands of the executors or administrators, the court shall specify in the decree the sum to be paid to each creditor. [L. '54, p. 298, § 188; Cd. '81, § 1566; 2 H. C., § 1079.]

§ 1573. Provisions for Disputed or Contingent Claims.—If there be any claim not due, or any contingent or disputed claim against the estate, the amount thereof, or such part thereof as the holder would be entitled to if the claim were due, established, or absolute, shall be paid into the court, where it shall remain, to be paid over to the party when he shall become entitled thereto; or if he fail to establish his claim, to be paid over or distributed, as the circumstances of the case may require: Provided, that if any creditor whose claim has been allowed, but is not yet due, shall appear and assent to a reduction therefrom of the legal interest for the time the claim has yet to run, he shall be entitled to be paid accordingly. [L. '54, p. 298, § 189; Cd. '81, § 1567; 2 H. C., § 1080.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 615.

§ 1574. Administrator Personally Liable to Creditors, When.—Whenever a decree shall have been made by the court for the payment of creditors, the executor or administrator shall be personally liable to each creditor for his claim, or the dividend thereon; and execution may be issued on such decree, as upon a judgment, in favor of each creditor. The executor or administrator shall also be liable on his bond to each creditor. [Cf. L. '54, p. 299, § 190; Cd. '81, § 1568; L. '91, p. 389, § 35; 2 H. C., § 1081.]

§ 1575. Claims not Included in Order for Payment, How Disposed of.—When the accounts of the executor or administrator have been settled, and an order made for the payment of the debts and distribution of the estate, no creditor whose name was not included in the order of payment shall have any right to call upon the creditors who have been paid, or upon the heirs, legatees, or devisees, to contribute for the payment of his claim; but if the executor or administrator shall have failed to give the notice to creditors as prescribed in this chapter, such creditor may recover on the bond of the executor or administrator the amount of his claim, or such part thereof as he would have been entitled to had it been allowed: Provided, that this section shall not apply to any creditor whose claim was not due one year before the day of settlement, or whose claim was contingent, and did not become absolute one year before such day. [Cf. L. '54, p. 299, § 191; L. '60, p. 214, § 271; Cd. '81, § 1569; 2 H. C., § 1082.]

§ 1576. Order of Payment of Legacies—Extension of Time.—If all the debts shall have been paid by the first distribution, the court shall proceed to direct the payment of legacies and the distribution of the estate among the heirs, legatees, or other persons entitled; but if there be debts remaining unpaid, the court shall give such extension of time as may be reasonable for the final settlement of the same. [L. '54, p. 299, § 192; Cd. '81, § 1570; 2 H. C., § 1083.]

§ 1577. When Final Account is to be Rendered.—At the time designated, or sooner, if within that time all property of the estate shall have been sold, or there shall be sufficient funds in his hands to pay all the debts due by the estate, the executor or administrator shall render a final account and pray a settlement of the estate. [L. '54, p. 299, § 193; Cd. '81, § 1571; 2 H. C., § 1084.]

§ 1578. Neglect to Render Final Account — Proceedings.—If the executor or administrator neglect to render his final account, the same proceedings may be had as are prescribed in this chapter in regard to the first account to be rendered by him; and all the provisions of this chapter relative to the last mentioned account, and the notice and settlement thereof, shall apply to his account presented for final settlement. [Cf. L. '54, p. 299, § 194; Cd. '81, § 1572; L. '91, p. 389, § 36; 2 H. C., § 1085.]

CHAPTER XV.

Partition and Distribution of Estates.

§ 1579. Application for Payment of Legacies — Bond.—At any time after six months from the issuing letters testamentary or of administration, any heir, legatee, or devisee, may present his petition to the court that the legacy or share of the estate to which he is entitled may be given to him upon his giving bond, with security, for the payment of his proportion of the debts of the estate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 300, § 195; Cd. '81, § 1573; L. '91, p. 389, § 37; 2 H. C., § 1086.]

§ 1580. Notice of Application.—Notice of the application shall be given to the executor or administrator, and to all persons interested in the estate, in the same manner that notice is required to be given of the settlement of the account of the executor or administrator. [L. '54, p. 300, § 196; Cd. '81, § 1574; 2 H. C., § 1087.]

§ 1581. Who may Resist Application.—The executor, administrator, or any person interested in the estate, may appear and resist the application; or any other heir, legatee, or devisee may make a similar application for himself. [Cf. L. '54, p. 300, § 197; L. '60, p. 216, § 277; Cd. '81, § 1575; 2 H. C., § 1088.]

§ 1582. Decree for Payment of Legacies—Conditions of.—If, on the hearing, it appear to the court that the estate is but little in debt, and that the share of the parties applying may be allowed without injury to the creditors of the estate, the court shall make a decree in conformity with the prayer of the applicant or applicants: Provided, each one of them shall first execute and deliver to the executor or administrator a bond in such sum as shall be designated by the court, and with sureties to be approved by the judge thereof, to the executor or administrator, conditioned for the payment by the devisee or legatee, whenever required, of his proportion of the debts due from the estate. [L. '54, p. 300, § 198; Cd. '81, § 1576; 2 H. C., § 1089.]

§ 1583. Decree, What may Contain.—Such decree may order the executor or administrator to deliver to the heir, devisee, or legatee the whole portion of the estate to which he may be entitled, or only a part thereof. [L. '54, p. 301, § 199; Cd. '81, § 1577; 2 H. C., § 1090.]

§ 1584. Partition may be Made When Necessary.—If, in execution of such decree, any partition be necessary between two or more of the parties interested, it shall be made in the manner hereinafter prescribed. [L. '54, p. 301, § 200; Cd. '81, § 1587; 2 H. C., § 1091.]

§ 1585. Applicant to Pay Costs.—The cost of the proceedings authorized by the preceding section shall be paid by the applicant, or if there be more than one, shall be equally apportioned among them. [Cf. L. '54, p. 301, § 201; L. '60, p. 216, § 281; Cd. '81, § 1579; 2 H. C., § 1092.]

§ 1586. Order for Payment of Bond, and Suit Thereon.—Whenever any bond has been executed and delivered under the provisions of the preceding sections, and the executor or administrator shall ascertain that it is necessary for the settlement of the estate to require the payment of any part of the money thereby secured, he shall petition the court for an order requiring the payment, and shall have a citation issued and served on the party bound, requiring him to appear and show cause why the order shall not be made. At the hearing, the court, if satisfied of the necessity of the payment, shall make an order accordingly, designating the amount and giving the time within which it shall be paid; and if the money shall not be paid within the time allowed, an action may be maintained by the executor or administrator on the bond. [Cf. L. '54, p. 301, § 201; L. '60, p. 216, § 282; Cd. '81, § 1580; 2 H. C., § 1093.]

§ 1587. Distribution of Estate upon Final Settlement.—Upon the settlement of the account of the executor or administrator, or at any subsequent time upon the application of the executor or administrator, or any heir, devisee, or legatee, the court shall proceed to distribute the residue of the estate among the persons who are by law entitled. [Cf. L. '54, p. 301, § 202; L. '60, p. 217, § 283; Cd. '81, § 1581; 2 H. C., § 1094.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 651; 27 Wash. 183; 31 Wash. 646.

§ 1588. Decree of Distribution, What to Contain.—In the decree, the court shall name the person and the portion or part to which each shall be entitled; and such persons shall have the right to demand and recover their respective shares from the executor or administrator, or any person having the same in possession. [L. '54, p. 301, § 203; Cd. '81, § 1582; 2 H. C., § 1096.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 502; 7 Wash. 651.

§ 1589. Decree Made Only After Notice.—The decree may be made on the application of the executor or administrator, or of any person interested in the estate, and shall only be made after notice has been given in the manner required in regard to an application for the sale of land by an executor or administrator. The court may order such further notice to be given as it may deem proper. [L. '54, p. 301, § 204; Cd. '81, § 1583; 2 H. C., § 1096.]

§ 1590. Estate in Common may be Partitioned.—When the estate, real or personal, assigned to two or more heirs, devisees, or legatees, shall be in common and undivided, and the respective shares shall not be separated and distinguished, partition and distribution may be made by three disinterested persons, to be appointed commissioners for that purpose by the court, who shall be duly sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties, and the court shall issue a warrant to them for that purpose. [L. '54, p. 301, § 205; Cd. '81, § 1584; 2 H. C., § 1097.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 502.

§ 1591. Estate in Different Counties, How Partitioned.—If the real estate be in different counties, the court may, if it shall judge proper, appoint different commissioners for each county; and in such cases the estate in each county shall be divided separately, as if there were no other estate to be divided, but the commissioners first appointed shall, unless otherwise directed by the court, make division of such real estate, wherever situated within the state. [L. '54, p. 302, § 206; Cd. '81, § 1585; 2 H. C., § 1098.]

§ 1592. Partition and Distribution After Notice.—Such partition and distribution may be ordered on the petition of any of the persons interested in the estate; but before any partition shall be ordered as directed in this chapter, notice shall be given to all persons interested who shall reside in this state, or to their guardians, and to agents, attorneys, or guardians, if there be any in this state, of such as reside out of the state, either personally or by public notice, as the court may direct. [L. '54, p. 302, § 207; Cd. '81, § 1586; 2 H. C., § 1099.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 502; 87 Wash. 141.

§ 1593. Partition Though Some Heirs have Parted With Their Interest.—Partition of the real estate may be made as provided in this chapter, although some of the original heirs, or devisees may have conveyed their shares to other persons, and such shares shall be assigned to the person holding the same, in the same manner as they otherwise would have been to such heirs or devisees. [L. '54, p. 302, § 208; Cd. '81, § 1587; 2 H. C., § 1100.]

Cited in 22 Wash. 628; 33 Wash. 206.

§ 1594. Shares to be Set Out by Metes and Bounds.—The several shares in the real and personal estate shall be set out to each individual in proportion to his right, by such metes, bounds, and descriptions that the same may be easily distinguished, unless two or more of the parties shall consent to have their shares set out so as to be held by them in common and undivided. [L. '54, p. 302, § 209; Cd. '81, § 1588; 2 H. C., § 1101.]

§ 1595. Assignment of Whole Estate to One—Compensation to Others.—When any such real estate cannot be divided without prejudice or inconvenience to the owners, the court may assign the whole to one or more of the parties entitled to share therein, who will accept it, providing the party so accepting the whole shall pay to the other parties interested their just proportion of the true value thereof, or secure the same to their satisfaction, and the true value of the estate shall be ascertained by the commissioners appointed by the court, and sworn for that purpose. [Cf. L. '54, p. 302, § 210; L. '73, p. 311, § 284; Cd. '81, § 1589; 2 H. C., § 1102.]

§ 1596. Equality for Inequality of Shares.—When any tract of land or tenement shall be of greater value than either party's share of the estate to be divided, and cannot be divided without injury to the same, it may be set off, by the commissioners appointed to make partition, to either of the parties who will accept it, giving preference as prescribed in the preceding sections; provided the party so accepting shall pay or secure to one or more of the others such sums as the commissioners shall award to make the partition equal, and the commissioners shall make their award accordingly; but such partition shall not be established by the court until the sums so awarded shall be paid to the parties entitled to the same, or secured to their satisfaction. [L. '54, p. 302, § 211; Cd. '81, § 1590; 2 H. C., § 1103.]

§ 1597. Estate may be Sold and Proceeds Distributed, When.—When it cannot be otherwise fairly divided, the whole or any part of the estate, real or personal, may be recommended by the commissioners to be sold; and if the report be confirmed, the court may order a sale by the executor or administrator, and distribute the proceeds. [Cf. L. '54, p. 303, § 212; L. '60, p. 218, § 293; Cd. '81, § 1591; 2 H. C., § 1104.]

§ 1598. Duties of Commissioners Where Estate Held in Common. When partition of real estate among heirs or devisees shall be required, and such real estate shall be undivided and in common with the real estate of any other person, the commissioners shall first divide and sever the estate of the deceased from the estate with which it lies in common; and such division so made and established by the court shall be binding upon all the persons interested. [L. '54, p. 303, § 213; Cd. '81, § 1592; 2 H. C., § 1105.]

§ 1599. Notice to Guardians, etc., Before Partition.—Before any partition shall be made, or any estate divided, as provided in this chapter, guardians shall be appointed for all minors and insane persons interested in the estate to be divided; and some discreet persons shall be appointed to act as agent for such parties as reside out of the state, and notice of the appointment of such agent shall be given to the commissioners in their warrant, and notice shall be given to all persons interested in the partition, their guardians or agents, by the commissioners, of the time when they shall proceed to make partition. [L. '54, p. 303, § 214; Cd. '81, § 1593; 2 H. C., § 1106.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 139, 141.

§ 1600. To Make Report and Partition to be Recorded.—The commissioners shall make a report of their proceedings in writing, and the court may, for sufficient reasons, set aside such report and remit the same to the same commissioners or appoint others; and the report, when finally accepted and established, shall be recorded in the records of the court, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the court, shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county where the land lies. [Cf. L. '54, p. 303, § 215; Cd. '81, § 1594; L. '91, p. 389, § 38; 2 H. C., § 1107.]

§ 1601. When Commissioners Unnecessary.—When the court shall make a decree assigning the residue of any estate to one or more persons entitled to the same, it shall not be necessary to appoint commissioners to make partition or distribution of such estate, unless the parties to whom the assignment shall have been decreed, or some of them, shall request that such partition be made. [L. '54, p. 303, § 216; Cd. '81, § 1595; 2 H. C., § 1108.]

§ 1602. Advancements to Heirs.—All questions as to advancement made, or alleged to have been made, by the deceased to any heirs may be heard and determined by the court, and shall be specified in the decree assigning the estate, and in the warrant to the commissioners, and the final decree of the court, or in case of appeal, of [to] the supreme court, shall be binding on all parties interested in the estate. [L. '54, p. 303, § 217; Cd. '81, § 1596; 2 H. C., § 1109.]

§ 1603. Court may Appoint Agent to Take Possession of Absentee's Estate.—When any estate shall have been assigned by decree of the court, or distributed by commissioners, as provided in this chapter, to any person residing out of this state, and having no agent therein, and it shall be necessary that some person should be authorized to take possession and charge of the same for the benefit of such absent person, the court may appoint an agent for that purpose, and authorize him to take charge of such estate, as well as to act for such absentee in the partition and distribution. [L. '54, p. 303, § 218; Cd. '81, § 1597; 2 H. C., § 1110.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 280, 282, 284.

§ 1604. Agent to Give Bond, Compensation of.—Such agent shall give a bond to the state of Washington, to be approved by the court conditioned faithfully to manage and account for such estate, before he shall be authorized to receive the same, and the court appointing such agent may allow a reasonable sum out of the profits of the estate for his services and expenses. [Cf. L. '54, p. 304, § 219; L. '57, p. 24, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1598; 2 H. C., § 1111.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 283.

§ 1605. Unclaimed Estates, How Disposed of.—When the estate shall have remained in the hands of the agent unclaimed for one year, it shall be sold under order of the court, and the proceeds, deducting the expenses of the sale, to be allowed by the court, shall be paid into the county treasury. When the payment is made the agent shall take triplicate receipts, one of which he shall file with the county auditor, and another with the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 304, § 220; L. '57, p. 24, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1599; 2 H. C., § 1112.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 287.

§ 1606. Agent's Liability on Bond.—The agent shall be liable on his bond for the care and preservation of the estate while in his hands, and for the payment of the proceeds of sale as required by the preceding section, and may be sued thereon by any person interested. [L. '54, p. 304, § 221; Cd. '81, § 1600; 2 H. C., § 1113.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 283.

§ 1607. Auditor to Draw Warrant.—When any person shall appear and claim the money paid into the treasury, the court making the distribution, being first satisfied of his right, shall order the payment of such money, and, upon the presentation of a certified copy of the order to the county auditor, he shall draw his warrant on the county treasurer for the amount. [Cf. L. '54, p. 304, § 222; Cd. '81, § 1601; L. '91, p. 390, § 39; 2 H. C., § 1114.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 283.

§ 1608. Final Settlement, Decree and Discharge.—When the estate has been fully administered, and it shall have been shown by the executor or administrator, by the production of satisfactory vouchers, that he has paid all sums of money due from him, and delivered up, under order of the court, all property of the estate to the persons entitled, the court shall make a decree discharging him from all liability to be incurred thereafter. [L. '54, p. 304, § 223; Cd. '81, § 1602; 2 H. C., § 1115.]

§ 1609. Discovery of Further Property After Final Settlement—Proceedings.—The final settlement of the estate shall not prevent a subsequent issuance of letters of administration, should other property of the estate be discovered, or it should become necessary and proper from any cause that letters should be again issued. [L. '54, p. 304, § 224; Cd. '81, § 1603; 2 H. C., § 1116.]

CHAPTER XVI.

Specific Performance of Decedent's Contracts.

§ 1610. Decedent's Contract to Convey may be Enforced.—If any person, who is bound by contract, in writing, to convey any real property, shall die before making the conveyance, the superior court of the county in which such real estate or any portion thereof is situate may make a decree authorizing and directing his executor or administrator to convey such real property to the person entitled thereto. [Cf. L. '54, p. 292, § 150; L. '77, p. 130, § 626; Cd. '81, § 623; L. '91, p. 390, § 40; 2 H. C., § 1117.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 381; 10 Wash. 594; 46 Wash. 185, 189; 59 Wash. 477.

§ 1611. Petition for Executor to Make Conveyance and Notice of Hearing.—On filing and presentation of a petition of any person claiming to be entitled to such conveyance under such contract, setting forth the facts upon which such claim is predicated, the court, or the judge thereof, shall make an order appointing a time for hearing, to be published four successive weeks next before such hearing, in such newspaper in the state as the court shall designate; and in case such deceased person was an inhabitant of this state at the time of his death, or died in this state, and in all other cases in which an executor or administrator has been appointed in this state, the court shall further order that the notice be personally served upon the executor or administrator, by delivery to him of a copy of the same, together with a copy of the petition. [Cf. L. '54, p. 292, § 151; L. '77, p. 130, § 627; Cd. '81, § 624; L. '91, p. 390, § 41; 2 H. C., § 1118.]

§ 1612. Proceedings at Hearing, Contest.—At the time appointed for such hearing, or at such other time as the same may be adjourned to, upon proof of the publication of the notice and of personal service thereof where personal service is required, the court shall proceed to a hearing, and all persons interested as creditors, heirs, devisees, or personal representatives may appear and resist such petition, by filing their objections in writing, and the court shall examine, on oath, the petitioners, and all witnesses who may be produced on the hearing, by an interested party, for that purpose. [Cf. L. '54, p. 293, § 152; Cd. '81, § 625; L. '91, p. 340, § 42; 2 H. C., § 1119.]

§ 1613. Decree for Conveyance.—After a full hearing, upon such petition and objections, of the facts and circumstances of the claim, if the court is satisfied that the petitioner is entitled, in equity, to a conveyance of the real estate described in the petition, of any part thereof, or any interest therein, the court shall make a decree authorizing and directing the execution and delivery of a conveyance to the petitioner. [Cf. L. '54, p. 293, § 153; L. '77, p. 130, § 629; Cd. '81, § 626; 2 H. C., § 1120.]

§ 1614. Conveyance, by Whom Executed.—Such conveyance shall be executed by the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased, if the deceased was a resident of or had his place of abode at the time of his death in this state, or if he died therein, or if an executor or administrator has been appointed therein; but in such case no decree for conveyance shall be made, unless the executor or administrator shall have been served with a copy of the said petition and the notice provided for in section 1611, at least twenty days prior to the time appointed for the hearing. [Cf. L. '77, p. 130, § 630; Cd. '81, § 627; L. '91, p. 391, § 43; 2 H. C., § 1121.]

§ 1615. Proceedings Where There is No Executor or Administrator.—If the deceased died out of the state, and was not an inhabitant thereof at the time of his death, and no executor or administrator shall have been appointed in the state, such conveyance shall be executed by a commissioner to be appointed by the court, in the decree, for that purpose; but in such case, in addition to the notice provided in section 1611, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court at the hearing, that the executor or administrator of such deceased duly appointed in another state, territory, or country, or his heirs or devisees, shall have had reasonable notice personally of the pendency of said petition, and of the time and place appointed for such hearing. And such foreign executor or administrator shall have the same right to file objections and resist the claim of the petitioners as an executor or administrator appointed under the laws of this state would have; and it shall not be necessary, in such case, that an administration of the estate of the deceased be had in the state, to authorize the decree of conveyance prayed for. [Cf. L. '77, p. 131, § 631; Cd. '81, § 628; L. '91, p. 391, § 44; 2 H. C., § 1122.]

§ 1616. Form and Effect of Such Conveyance.—A conveyance executed under the provisions of this chapter shall so refer to the decree authorizing the conveyance that the same may be readily found, but need not recite the record in the case generally, and the conveyance made in pursuance of a decree shall pass to the grantee all the estate, right, title, and interest contracted to be conveyed by the deceased, as fully as if the contracting party himself were still living and executed the conveyance in pursuance of such contract. [L. '77, p. 131, § 632; Cd. '81, § 629; 2 H. C., § 1123.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 594.

§ 1617. Appeal from Decree—Recording, Effect of.—Any party interested may appeal therefrom to the supreme court, in the same manner as appeals are taken and prosecuted from final decrees or judgments in equity causes; but if no appeal be taken from such decree within the time limited therefor, or if such decree be affirmed on appeal, it shall be the duty of the executor, administrator, or commissioner to execute and deliver the conveyance according to the directions contained in the decree; and a certified copy of the decree shall be recorded with the deed in the office of the auditor of the county where the lands lie, and shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the proceedings and of the authority of the executor, administrator, or commissioner to make such conveyance. [Cf. L. '54, p. 293, § 154; L. '73, p. 300, § 227; L. '77, p. 131, § 633; Cd. '81, § 630; L. '91, p. 391, § 45; 2 H. C., § 1124.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 598.

§ 1618. Effect of Recording Copy of Decree.—A copy of the decree for conveyance, made by the court, and duly certified, and recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein the land is situate, shall, after affirmance upon appeal, or after expiration of the time for taking an appeal in case no appeal be taken, give to the person entitled to the conveyance a right to the immediate possession of the land contracted for, and of holding the same according to the terms of the intended conveyance, in like manner and with like effect as if they had been conveyed in pursuance of the decree. [Cf. L. '54, p. 293, § 157; L. '77, p. 131, § 634; Cd. '81, § 631; L. '91, p. 392, § 46; 2 H. C., § 1125.]

§ 1619. Proceedings Where Party to Whom Conveyance is Made Dies.—If the person to whom the conveyance was to be made shall die before the commencement of the proceedings according to the provisions of this chapter, or before the completion of the conveyance, any person who would have been entitled to the conveyance under him, as heir, devisee, or otherwise, in case the conveyance had been made according to the terms of the contract, or the executor or administrator of such deceased person, for the benefit of persons entitled, may commence such proceedings, or prosecute the same if already commenced; and the conveyance shall be so made as to vest the estate in the persons who would have been entitled to it, or in the executor or administrator for their benefit. [Cf. L. '54, p. 299, § 159; Cd. '81, § 532; L. '91, p. 392, § 47; 2 H. C., § 1126.]

§ 1620. Depositions on Hearing.—The testimony of witnesses in support of the claim of the petitioner may be taken by deposition whenever the deposition of such witnesses might be taken to be used in the trial of a civil action; but notice of the time and place of taking such deposition shall be published by the petitioner, in the paper required to be designated by section 1611, for three successive weeks prior to taking the same, which notice shall also state the name of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken, and the name[s] of the witnesses whose testimony is proposed to be taken at such time and place, and shall also be served personally in all cases wherein personal service of the notice is required by the provisions of section 1611. Any party interested in the estate may appear and cross-examine such witnesses, and the manner of examination and the form of such deposition shall be in conformity with the statute regulating depositions of witnesses in civil actions. Any party interested in the estate, and resisting the claim of the petitioner, may, after filing his objections, take the testimony of witnesses in his behalf in like manner as in civil actions. [Cf. L. '77, p. 132, § 636; Cd. '81, §§ 633, 634; L. '91, p. 392, § 48; 2 H. C., § 1127.]

CHAPTER XVII.

Guardianship of Infants and of the Insane.

§ 1621. Guardians for Minors Appointed, When.—The superior court of each county, when it shall become necessary, may appoint guardians to minors resident in said county, who have no guardian appointed by will; or who may reside out of the state, having estate within the county. [Cf. L. '55, p. 15, § 1; L. '73, p. 314, § 299; Cd. '81, § 1604; 2 H. C., § 1128.]

Cited in 24 Wash. 128.

Only the next four sections of this chapter (§§ 1622–1625) and §§ 1638 to 1640, inclusive, relate to the guardianship of the insane: See § 1654 et seq.

§ 1622. Petition for Appointment.—When a petition is presented to the superior court verified by the petitioner, and showing that a person, resident of the county where the petition is filed, is a minor, or is insane, or mentally incompetent, and that such person has property needing care and attention and praying for the appointment of a guardian for such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person's property, the court shall thereupon make an order setting a time for the hearing on said petition, and directing the clerk of the court to issue a notice stating that such a petition has been filed, and the time and place of the hearing thereon and stating that all persons interested shall appear at the time and place of the hearing and show cause if any there be, why a guardian should not be appointed for the estate of such minor, insane, or mentally incompetent person. [L. '09, p. 408, § 1. Cf. L. '03, p. 242, §§ 1–5.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 540, 541, 542, 548; 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1623. Notice, How Served.—The notice of the hearing shall be served upon such minor personally if over fourteen years of age, or such insane or incompetent person, and also upon the head of the family with whom such minor, insane or incompetent person resides, and if such minor, insane or incompetent person is in the care and custody of an officer, or institution, then upon such officer or head of such institution, at least ten days prior to the time set for the hearing; and proof of such service shall be made and filed in the same manner as proof of the service of a summons: Provided, however, that in case that the person making application for the appointment of such guardian, is the parent of a minor under fourteen years of age, then the notice herein provided for shall be dispensed with and the court may make the order appointing the parent as such guardian upon his or her petition being presented. [L. '09, p. 408, § 2. Cf. L. '03, pp. 242, 243, §§ 2, 3.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 541, 542.

§ 1624. Prosecuting Attorney to Appear for Ward.—Before the hearing the petition or a copy thereof shall be submitted to the prosecuting attorney who shall appear for such minor, insane or incompetent person at said hearing, and if the prosecuting attorney desires further time in which to make an investigation, the court shall at his request continue the hearing to some certain day, and the court may on its own motion or at the request of the prosecuting attorney, direct that the minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, be brought into court in person, and for this purpose may make an order directing the sheriff to bring him or her into court.

In case the prosecuting attorney or his deputy is unable to attend at the hearing, the court may appoint some suitable person to act in his place: Provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the minor, insane or mentally incompetent person from appearing by an attorney selected by himself, or by some one on his behalf, in which case it will not be necessary for the prosecuting attorney to appear at the hearing. [L. '09, p. 409, § 3. Cf. L. '03, p. 243, § 4.]

§ 1625. Service on Nonresidents — Publication.—When a minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, resides out of the state of Washington, and has property within the state requiring the care of a guardian, and a petition is filed in the county where such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person has property, the petitioner shall make an affidavit stating the fact of the nonresidence of such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, and then the notice provided for in section 1622 shall be served by publication in some newspaper printed and of general circulation in the county where the petition is filed for four weeks, to wit; for five successive weekly issues of such paper prior to the time set for the hearing and proof of such publication shall be made and filed, as in the case of a summons by publication, and thereafter the same proceedings shall be had as hereinbefore provided. [L. '09, p. 409, § 4. Cf. L. '03, p. 243, § 5.]

See infra, § 1674 et seq., appointment of guardian for nonresident insane.

§ 1626. Who may Nominate—Disqualifications.—If the minor is under fourteen years of age, the judge may nominate and appoint his guardian; if said minor be over fourteen years of age, he or she may nominate the guardian, who, if approved by the superior court, shall be appointed accordingly: Provided, that no judicial officer, excepting justice of the peace, no person of unsound mind, or a party convicted of felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, shall be appointed guardian, and when a guardian shall incur either of the foregoing disabilities, he shall be displaced. If a guardian becomes superior judge, the superior court of the proper [adjoining] county shall appoint his successor. [Cf. L. '55, p. 15, § 2; L. '60, p. 225, § 322; L. '73, p. 314, § 300; Cd. '81, § 1605; 2 H. C., § 1129.]

§ 1627. Appointment must be Approved by Court.—If the guardian nominated by the minor be not approved by the judge, or if the minor shall reside out of the state, or if, after being duly cited by the court he shall neglect for ten days to nominate a suitable person, the court may appoint the guardian in the same manner as if the minor were under the age of fourteen years. [L. '60, p. 226, § 323; Cd. '81, § 1606; 2 H. C., § 1130.]

§ 1628. Guardian not to be Removed Without Cause.—When a guardian has been appointed for any minor under the age of fourteen, such guardian shall not be removed when such minor arrives at the age of fourteen, except for good cause shown. [L. '55, p. 15, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1607; 2 H. C., § 1131.]

§ 1629. Who Entitled to Guardianship.—The father of the minor if living, and in case of his decease the mother, being themselves respectively competent to transact their own business, shall be entitled to the guardianship of a minor. [Cf. L. '60, p. 226, § 235; L. '73, p. 315, § 303; Cd. '81, § 1608; 2 H. C., § 1132.]

§ 1630. Guardian to have Custody of Ward, When.—If the minor have no father or mother living, and competent to have the custody and care of the education of such minor, the guardian so appointed shall have the custody and tuition of his ward. [L. '60, p. 226, § 326; Cd. '81, § 1609; 2 H. C., § 1133.]

Cited in 45 Wash. 50, 51.

§ 1631. Guardianship Terminates, When.—Every guardian appointed as aforesaid shall have the custody and tuition of the minor, and the care and management of the estate of such minor, except as hereinafter provided, until he or she shall have attained the age of majority; and males shall be deemed of full and legal age when they shall be twenty-one years old, and females shall be deemed of full and legal age when they shall be eighteen years old, or at any age under eighteen, when, with the consent of the parent or guardian, or other person under whose care or government they may be, they shall have been lawfully married. [Cf. L. '55, p. 16, § 6; L. '60, p. 326, § 327; L. '73, p. 315, § 305; Cd. '81, § 1610; 2 H. C., § 1134.]

§ 1632. Bond of Guardian.—The court shall take of each guardian appointed under this act a bond, with approved security payable to the state of Washington, in the sum of not less than twice the value of the personal property and twice the estimated value of the annual rents, profits and issues of the real property belonging to the estate, conditioned as follows: The condition of this obligation is such that if the above-bound A. B., who has been appointed guardian for C. D. shall faithfully discharge the office and trust of such guardian according to law, and shall render a fair and just account of his said guardianship to the superior court for the county of —— from time to time as he shall thereto be required by said court, and comply with all orders of said court, lawfully made relative to the goods, chattels and moneys of such minor, and render and pay to such minor all moneys, goods and chattels, title papers and effects which may come into the hands or possession of such guardian belonging to such minor, when such minor shall thereto be entitled, or to any subsequent guardian, should such court so direct, this obligation shall be void, or otherwise to remain in full force and virtue. Which bond shall be for the use of such minor, and shall not become void upon the first recovery, but may be put in suit from time to time against all or any one or more of the obligors, in the name and for the use and benefit of any person entitled by a breach thereof, until the whole penalty shall be recovered thereon. The judge may require an additional bond whenever a sale of real estate belonging to a minor is ordered by him, but no such additional bond must be required when it satisfactorily appears to the court that the penalty of the bond given before receiving letters, or of any bond given in place thereof is equal to twice the value of the personal property remaining in or that may come into the possession of the guardian, including the annual rents, profits and issues of real estate and twice the probable amount to be realized on the sale of the property ordered to be sold. [L. '05, p. 33, § 1. Cf. L. '60, p. 226, § 329; Cd. '81, § 1612; 2 H. C., § 1136.]

§ 1633. Provisions Applicable to Bond of Guardian.—All the provisions of chapter eight of this title relative to bonds given by executors and administrators shall apply to bonds taken of guardians. [L. '60, p. 228, § 334; Cd. '81, § 1617; 2 H. C., § 1141.]

§ 1634. Discharge of Sureties.—Sureties in the bond of any guardian may be discharged from liability therein, under the same rule and regulation prescribed for the discharge of the sureties in the bond of executors and administrators, and the provisions of the chapter regulating the same shall apply to guardians, and guardians' bonds and sureties. [Cf. L. '55, p. 19, § 26; L. '60, p. 229, § 346; Cd. '81, § 1629; 2 H. C., § 1153.]

§ 1635. Court may Require Accounting and Further Security.—Superior courts shall have power, in their respective counties, with or without previous complaint, by an order duly made and served, to oblige all guardians of minors, from time to time, to render their respective accounts, upon oath, touching their guardianship, to said courts for adjustment, and shall have power to compel such guardian to give supplementary security, whenever it shall judge proper, and in default thereof, to remove such guardian. [L. '60, p. 227, § 330; Cd. '81, § 1613; 2 H. C., § 1137.]

Cited in 48 Wash. 428.

§ 1636. Duties of Guardian.—It shall be the duty of the guardian of any minor,—

1. To make out and file, within three months after his appointment, a full inventory, verified by oath, of the real and personal estate of his ward, with the value of the same, and failing so to do, it shall be the duty of the court to remove him and appoint a successor;

2. To manage the estate for the best interest of his ward;

3. To render on oath to the proper court an account of his receipts and of his expenditures, with vouchers therefor, at least once in every two years, and whenever cited so to do, and failing so to do, he shall receive no allowances for services, and be liable to said ward on his bond in damages for ten per cent of the whole amount of the estate, both real and personal, in his hands belonging to such ward;

4. At the expiration of his trust fully to account for and pay over to the proper person all the estate of said ward remaining in his hands;

5. To pay all just debts due from such ward out of the estate in his hands, and to collect all debts due such ward, and in case of doubtful debts, to compound the same, and to appear for and defend, or cause to be defended, all suits against such ward;

6. When any ward has no father or mother, or such father or mother is unable or fails to educate such ward, it shall be the duty of his guardian to provide for him such education as the amount of his estate may justify. [Cf. L. '55, p. 16, § 9; L. '60, p. 227, § 331; Cd. '81, § 1614; 2 H. C., § 1138; L. '95, p. 65, § 1.]

See infra, §§ 1660–1664, duty of guardians of insane persons.

§ 1637. Guardian may Prosecute and Defend for Ward.—Guardians, by virtue of their office as such, shall be allowed in all cases to prosecute and defend for their wards. [L. '60, p. 226, § 328; Cd. '81, § 1611; 2 H. C., § 1135.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 257.

§ 1638. Compromise of Suits by Guardian.—Every minor, imbecile or insane person, having a cause of action against him, or in his favor, shall be bound by any compromise or settlement thereof to the same extent as a person not under legal disability would be bound; providing such compromise is made by the guardian of such minor, imbecile or insane person by and with the advice of the court, by whom such guardian was appointed. Before making a compromise, the guardian shall file in the court wherein he is appointed, and to which he is accountable, a petition briefly stating the nature of the claim, together with the reasons for the making of such compromise. In case the ward is a minor more than fourteen years of age, a copy of the petition with a notice of the time of hearing, shall be served upon the ward. The guardian shall call to the attention of the court all facts pertaining to said matter, and if the court, after such hearing, directs a compromise to be made, the guardian is hereby authorized to make and accept acquittances which shall be forever binding upon his ward. [L. '03, p. 153, § 1.]

§ 1639. Presentation of Claim to Guardian.—No holder of a claim, demand or judgment against an estate of a person under guardianship shall maintain an action thereon or enforce the same, unless the claim, demand or judgment shall have been first presented to such guardian and by him rejected in whole or in part. A failure or neglect to allow a claim for thirty days after the same is presented, shall be deemed a rejection thereof. [L. '97, p. 203, § 1.]

The title of this act relates to the insane as well as to minors.

§ 1640. Judgments to be Presented for Allowance.—No judgment entered against the estate or person of a ward, except for the foreclosure of a mortgage or lien, shall be a lien against or upon the estate of such ward, but such judgment shall be presented and paid as other claims of the same class or grade. [L. '97, p. 203, § 2.]

See note to last section.

§ 1641. Court may Change Investment.—The court may, on the application of a guardian or any other person, said guardian having due written notice thereof, order and decree any change to be made in the investment of the estate of any ward that may to such court seem advantageous to such estate. [Cf. L. '55, p. 17, § 10; L. '60, p. 227, § 332; Cd. '81, § 1615; 2 H. C., § 1139.]

§ 1642. Removal of Guardian and Proceedings Thereafter.—The court in all cases shall have power to remove guardians for good and sufficient reasons, which shall be entered of record, and to appoint others in their place or in the place of those who may die, who shall give bond and security for the faithful discharge of their duties as heretofore prescribed in this chapter; and when any guardian shall be removed or die, and a successor be appointed, the court shall have power to compel such guardian to deliver up to such successor all goods, chattels, moneys, title papers, or other effects belonging to such minor which may be in the possession of such guardian so removed, or of the executors or administrators of a deceased guardian, or of any other person or persons who have the same, and upon failure, to commit the party offending to prison, until he, she, or they comply with the order of the court. [Cf. L. '55, p. 17, § 11; L. '60, p. 227, § 333; Cd. '81, § 1616; 2 H. C., § 1140.]

§ 1643. Testamentary Guardian, Appointment and Bond of.—The father of every legitimate child, who is a minor, may, by his last will in writing, appoint a guardian or guardians for his minor children, whether born at the time of making such will or afterward, to continue during the minority of such child, or for any less time, and every such testamentary guardian shall give bond in like manner and with like condition as hereinbefore required, and he shall have the same powers and perform the same duties with regard to the person and estate of the ward as a guardian appointed as aforesaid. [L. '60, p. 228, § 335; Cd. '81, § 1618; 2 H. C., § 1142.]

§ 1644. Court may Appoint Guardian ad Litem.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall affect or impair the power of any court to appoint a guardian to defend the interests of any minor interested in any suit or matter pending therein, or to commence and prosecute any suit in his behalf. [Cf. L. '60, p. 228, § 336; L. '73, p. 318, § 314; Cd. '81, § 1619; 2 H. C., § 1143.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 151; 24 Wash. 128; 86 Wash. 517; 87 Wash. 140.

§ 1645. Estate may be Sold Under Order of Court, When.—Whenever necessary for the education, support, or payment of the just debts of any minor, or for the discharge of any liens on the real estate of such minor, or whenever the real estate of such minor is suffering unavoidable waste, or a better investment of the value thereof can be made, the court may, on the application of such guardian, order the same or a part thereof to be sold. [L. '55, p. 17, § 14; Cd. '81, § 1620; 2 H. C., § 1144.]

Cited in 39 Wash. 687.

See infra, § 1683 et seq., private sales of real property.

§ 1646. Requisites of Petition.—Such application shall be by petition, verified by the oath of the guardian, and shall substantially set forth:—

1. The value and character of all personal estate belonging to such ward that has come to the knowledge or possession of such guardian;

2. The disposition made of such personal estate;

3. The amount and condition of the ward's personal estate, if any, dependent upon the settlement of any estate, or the execution of any trust;

4. The annual value of the real estate of the ward;

5. The amount of rent received and the application thereof;

6. The proposed manner of reinvesting the proceeds of the sale, if asked for that purpose;

7. Each item of indebtedness, or the amount and character of the lien, if the sale is prayed for the liquidation thereof;

8. The age of the ward, where and with whom residing;

9. All other facts connected with the estate and condition of the ward necessary to enable the court fully to understand the same. If there is no personal estate belonging to such ward, in possession or expectancy, and none has come into the hands of such guardian, and no rents have been received the fact shall be stated in the application. [Cf. L. '55, p. 17, § 15; L. '60, p. 228, § 338; Cd. '81, § 1621; 2 H. C., § 1145.]

§ 1647. Manner and Terms of Sale.—If it shall appear to the court from such petition, and from the hearing thereon, that it is necessary or would be beneficial to the ward that such real estate or some part of it should be sold, the court may authorize the said guardian to sell the same at public sale, on the same terms and notice required for sales of real estate by executors and administrators. [Cf. L. '60, p. 229, § 339; L. '73, p. 319, § 317; Cd. '81, § 1622; 2 H. C., § 1146.]

§ 1648. Provisions Applicable to Sales by Guardians.—All the provisions of the chapter regulating sales by executors and administrators shall be applicable to sales made by guardians. [L. '60, p. 229, § 340; Cd. '81, § 1623; 2 H. C., § 1147.]

§ 1649. Report of Sale.—Within thirty days after such sale, such guardian shall make report thereof to the court, and produce the proceeds of such sale, and the notes or obligations or other securities taken to secure the payment of the purchase money. [L. '60, p. 229, § 341; Cd. '81, § 1624; 2 H. C., § 1148.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 151.

§ 1650. Confirmation of Sale.—The court, in confirming such sale and directing a conveyance, shall be governed by the law regulating the confirming of sales of real estate made by executors or administrators, and the making of conveyances on such sales. [L. '60, p. 229, § 343; Cd. '81, § 1625; 2 H. C., § 1149.]

§ 1651. Powers of Guardian in Partition.—The guardian of any minor may join in and assent to the partition of the real estate of such minor, under the direction of the court, upon a petition for partition. [L. '55, p. 19, § 24; Cd. '81, § 1626; 2 H. C., § 1150.]

§ 1652. Compensation and Expenses.—Every guardian shall be allowed by the court, on settling his accounts, the amount of all reasonable expenses incurred in the execution of his trust, and also such compensation for his services as the court shall deem reasonable. [L. '55, p. 19, § 25; Cd. '81, § 1627; 2 H. C., § 1151.]

§ 1653. Nonresidents may Remove Ward's Property, When.—When the guardian and ward are both nonresidents, and the ward is entitled to property in this state, which may be removed to another state or territory, without conflict to any restriction or limitation thereupon, or impairing the right of the ward thereto, such property may be removed to the state or territory in which such ward may reside, upon the application of the guardian to the judge of the superior court of the county in which the estate of the ward, or the principal part thereof, may be, in the manner following: The guardian so applying must produce a transcript from the records of a court of competent jurisdiction, certified according to the laws of this state, showing his appointment as guardian of the ward in the state or territory in which he and the said ward reside; that he has qualified as such according to the laws thereof, and given bond, with sureties for the performance of his trust; and must also give thirty days' notice to the resident executor, administrator, guardian, agent, or trustee, if there be such, of the applications. Thereupon, if no objection be made, or if no good cause be shown to the contrary, the judge of the court shall make an order granting such guardian leave to remove the property of said ward to the state or territory in which he or she may reside; which order shall be full and complete authority to said guardian to sue for and receive the same in his own name, for the use and benefit of said ward. [L. '73, p. 320, § 323; Cd. '81, § 1628; 2 H. C., § 1152.]

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Guardianship of Idiots and Insane Persons.

§ 1654. Guardians for Idiots, Insane and Other Persons.—The several superior courts [in their respective counties] shall have power to appoint guardians to take the care, custody, and management of all idiots, insane persons, and all who are incapable of conducting their own affairs; and of their estates, real and personal; the maintenance of themselves and families, and the education of their children. [Cf. L. '60, p. 231, § 348; L. '73, p. 321, § 326; Cd. '81, § 1631; 2 H. C., § 1154.]

See supra, §§ 1622–1625, procedure for appointment of guardian.
See infra, § 1674, estates of nonresident insane.

§ 1655. Court to Appoint Guardian, When.—If it be found by the court that the person so brought before the court is of unsound mind and incapable of managing his own affairs, the court shall appoint a guardian for the estate of such insane person. [Cf. L. '60, p. 231, § 350; L. '73, p. 322, § 330; Cd. '81, § 1635; 2 H. C., § 1155.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 274, 276; 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1656. Costs Taxed Against Prosecuting Witness, When.—If the person alleged to be insane shall be discharged, and it shall be thought by the court that there were no grounds for such impression of insanity, then the cost shall be paid by the person at whose instance the proceeding was had, and execution may issue for the same. [Cf. L. '60, p. 231, § 352; L. '73, p. 322, § 332; Cd. '81, § 1637; 2 H. C., § 1156.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 274; 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1657. Bond.—Every such guardian so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties assigned him, enter into bond to the board of county commissioners, in such sum and with such security as the court shall approve, conditioned that he will take proper care of such insane person, and manage and minister his effects to the best advantage, according to law; and that he will faithfully discharge all duties as such guardian which may by law, or by the order, sentence, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, devolve upon him; which bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court. A copy thereof, duly certified, shall be evidence in all respects as the original. [L. '60, p. 231, § 353; Cd. '81, § 1638; 2 H. C., § 1157.]

Cited in 26 Wash. 560; 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1658. Notice of Appointment to be Published.—It shall be the duty of every such guardian, within twenty days after his appointment, to cause notice thereof to be published in some newspaper printed in this state, or otherwise publish such notice, at such time and place and in such manner as the court shall decide. [Cf. L. '60, p. 231, § 354; L. '73, p. 323, § 334; Cd. '81, § 1639; 2 H. C., § 1158.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1659. Custody of Ward's Estate.—It shall be the duty of such guardian to collect and take into his possession the goods, chattels, moneys, effects, and other evidences of debt, and all writings touching the estate, real and personal, of the person under his guardianship. [L. '60, p. 232, § 356; Cd. '81, § 1640; 2 H. C., § 1159.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 375; 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1660. Guardian to File Inventory.—Within forty days after his appointment, such guardian shall make out, and file in the office of the clerk of the superior court by which he was appointed, a just and true inventory of the real and personal estate of his ward, stating the income and profits thereof, and the debts, credits and effects, as the same shall have come to his knowledge. And if, after having filed such inventory, it shall be found that there is other property belonging to said estate, it shall be the duty of such guardian to make out and file an additional inventory, containing a just and full account of the same, from time to time, as the same may be discovered. [Cf. L. '60, p. 232, §§ 357, 358; L. '73, p. 323, § 336; Cd. '81, § 1641; 2 H. C., § 1160.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1661. Inventory to be Witnessed and Verified.—All such inventories shall be made in the presence of and attested by two credible witnesses in the neighborhood, and shall be verified by the oath of the guardian. [L. '60, p. 232, § 359; Cd. '81, § 1642; 2 H. C., § 1161.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 192.

§ 1662. Guardian to Prosecute and Defend Actions for Ward.—It shall be the duty of every such guardian to prosecute all actions commenced at the time of his appointment, or thereafter to be commenced, by or on account of his ward, and to defend all actions [pending or] which may be brought against such ward. [L. '60, p. 232, § 360; Cd. '81, § 1643; 2 H. C., § 1162.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 421; 86 Wash. 516.

§ 1663. Guardian to Collect Dues, and Pay Debts.—Every such guardian is authorized and required to collect all debts due to his ward, and give acquittances and discharges thereof and adjust, settle and pay all demands due and becoming due from his ward, so far as his estate and effects will extend. [L. '60, p. 232, § 361; Cd. '81, § 1644; 2 H. C., § 1163.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 357.

§ 1664. Power of Court Over Person and Estate.—The superior court shall have power to make orders for the restraint, support and safekeeping of such person, for the management of his estate, and the support and maintenance of his family, and education of his children, out of the proceeds of his estate; to set apart and reserve, for the use of such family, all property, real or personal, not necessary to be sold for the payment of debts; and to let, sell or mortgage any part of such estate, real or personal, when necessary for the payment of debts, the maintenance of such insane person or his family, or the education of his children; and to order the sale of any property when a better investment can be made of the proceeds. [L. '07, p. 73, § 1. Cf. L. '60, p. 232, § 362; L. '73, p. 324, § 340; Cd. '81, § 1645; 2 H. C., § 1164.]

§ 1665. Sale, Mortgage, or Lease of Real Estate.—When cause shall exist therefor it shall be the duty of such guardian to lay the same before the superior court by whom he was appointed, setting forth the particulars relative to the estate, real and personal, of such person, and all the debts by him owing, or the reasons why a better investment can be made accompanied by a correct and true account of his doings therewith; whereupon, if the court shall find in the exercise of its sound discretion that it is necessary for the payment of debts to dispose of such estate, real or personal, or a portion thereof, or that a better investment of such estate or a portion thereof can be made, it shall be the duty of such court to make an order directing the mortgage, lease or sale at his discretion, of the whole or such part of the real estate as may be necessary. [L. '07, p. 73, § 2. Cf. L. '60, p. 232, § 363; Cd. '81, § 1646; 2 H. C., § 1165.]

§ 1666. Order of Sale and Proceedings.—The court making such order shall direct the time and terms of such sale, mortgage, or lease of such estate, and the manner in which the proceeds shall be applied; and shall give due notice thereof, together with a full description of the property to be thus disposed of, at which time and place it shall be the duty of the guardian to execute the order of said court, and to make a full report of his doings therein, which report shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the guardian verifying the report, and stating that such guardian did not directly or indirectly become the purchaser thereof; or if otherwise disposed of, that he is not directly or indirectly interested personally in the agreement. [L. '60, p. 233, § 364; Cd. '81, § 1647; 2 H. C., § 1166.]

§ 1667. Execution of Instruments by Guardian.—When any such sale, mortgage or lease is approved by the court ordering the same, as having been executed according to law, and not under such circumstances as to operate prejudicially to the interest of such ward, it shall be the duty of the guardian to execute a deed, mortgage or other instrument of writing, which shall be as valid and effective in law as if executed by such ward when of sound mind and discretion. In case of the sale of community property the same member of the community may either join in the conveyance by the guardian or execute a separate conveyance for the property. [L. '07, p. 74, § 3. Cf. L. '60, p. 233, § 365; L. '73, p. 324, § 343; Cd. '81, § 1648; 2 H. C., § 1167.]

§ 1668. Proceedings may be Set Aside.—If such proceedings be disapproved by said court, the court may set them aside, and proceed in like manner as if no sale had been made. [Cf. L. '60, p. 233, § 366; L. '73, p. 325, § 344; Cd. '81, § 1649; 2 H. C., § 1168.]

§ 1669. Guardian to Account, When.—Every such guardian, as often as required by the court appointing him, shall render a true and perfect account of his guardianship. [L. '60, p. 233, § 367; Cd. '81, § 1650; 2 H. C., § 1169.]

§ 1670. Ward Exempt from Process.—No such ward shall be held to bail, or his body be taken in execution, in any civil action; and in all actions commenced against him the process shall be served upon his guardian, and in all judgments against such ward (or his guardian as such) the execution shall be against the property of the ward only, and in no case against his body, nor against that of his guardian, nor the property of said guardian, unless he shall have rendered himself liable thereunto. [Cf. L. '60, p. 233, § 368; L. '73, p. 325, § 346; Cd. '81, § 1651; 2 H. C., § 1170.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 630; 74 Wash. 599; 86 Wash. 514.

§ 1671. Proceedings in Case Ward Recovers His Reason.—Whenever the court shall receive information that such ward has recovered his reason, he shall immediately inquire into the facts, and if he finds that such ward is of sound mind, he shall forthwith discharge such person from care and custody; and the guardian shall immediately settle his accounts and restore to such person all things remaining in his hands belonging or appertaining to such ward. [L. '60, p. 233, § 369; Cd. '81, § 1652; 2 H. C., § 1171.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 577; 80 Wash. 345.

§ 1672. Death of Ward, Effect of.—In case of the death of any such ward while under guardianship, the power of the guardian shall cease, and the estate descend and be disposed of in the same manner as if said ward had been of sound mind; the guardian shall immediately settle his accounts and deliver the estate and the effects of such ward to his legal representatives. [Cf. L. '60, p. 234, § 370; L. '73, p. 326, § 351; Cd. '81, p. 1656; 2 H. C., § 1172.]

§ 1673. Removal of Guardian, When.—The several superior courts shall have the power to remove any such guardian at any time, for neglect of duty, mismanagement, or of disobedience to any lawful order, and appoint another in his place, whereupon such guardian shall immediately settle his account and render to his successor the estate and effects of his ward. [L. '60, p. 234, § 371; Cd. '81, § 1657; 2 H. C., § 1173.]

CHAPTER XIX.

Estates of Nonresident Persons of Unsound Mind.

§ 1674. Nonresident Guardian — Letters, How Obtained.—Whenever any insane person or person non compos mentis who resides without this state, and who shall have no guardian within this state, or, if he or she has a foreign guardian, the said guardian may file an authenticated copy of his letters of guardianship in the office of the clerk of the superior court of any county in this state in which there may be property of his ward, and upon the filing of such authenticated copy of his letters of guardianship as aforesaid, the court shall order him to enter into a good and sufficient bond, in such sum as the court may require, conditioned and subject to all the provisions of law concerning the bonds of guardians of minors in this state, with sufficient freehold surety resident in said county. After said bond is duly approved by the court said guardian shall be considered for all purposes as a domestic guardian. [L. '93, p. 286, § 1.]

See supra, § 1625, procedure for appointment of guardian for person residing out of this state, a later enactment.

§ 1675. Other Persons may Obtain Letters, When.—Should the said foreign guardian fail to file a duly authenticated copy of his said letters of guardianship and the bond required by section 1674 of this chapter within ninety days after his appointment as such foreign guardian, or within ninety days after such insane person or person non compos mentis shall become the owner of any real estate or personal property within this state, or, should said insane person or person non compos mentis have no guardian without this state, any creditor or other person interested in the property or estate of such insane person or person non compos mentis may apply by petition, to the superior court of any county in this state where any of the real estate or personal property of such insane person or person non compos mentis may be situated, for letters of guardianship for the estate and property of such insane person or person non compos mentis. [L. '93, p. 287, § 2.]

§ 1676. Hearing—Appointment.—Upon the hearing of such petition, on a day to be fixed by the court, and upon proof of the insanity of such person, or that such person is non compos mentis, the court may appoint the petitioner or some other suitable person possessing all of the qualifications necessary or requisite for the guardianship of a minor of this state as such guardian, who, upon the filing and approval of a bond as is provided herein for foreign guardians, shall be the duly constituted guardian of the estate of such ward in this state: Provided, nothing herein shall annul the appointment of any ancillary guardians heretofore appointed by any court of this state, which appointments are hereby ratified, and all such ancillary guardians shall hereafter be subject to all the provisions of this chapter. [L. '93, p. 287, § 3.]

§ 1677. Notice to Creditors.—It shall be the duty of the guardian who has been appointed as hereinbefore provided, to cause to be published in a newspaper published in the county in which he was appointed, if any there be, and if there be no newspaper published in said county, then in a newspaper to be designated by the court, a notice to the creditors of the said ward requiring them to present their claims, with the necessary vouchers, within a time to be fixed by the court, at a place of residence or business of such guardian, to be specified in the notice; such notice shall be published as often as the court shall deem necessary, not less than once a week for four successive weeks. [L. '93, p. 287, § 4.]

§ 1678. Duties of Guardian.—It shall be the duty of every such guardian,—

1. To make and file wthin thirty days after his appointment a full inventory, verified by his oath, of all the real or personal property of such ward, with the value of the same, and on failure so to do it shall be the duty of the court to remove him and appoint a successor;

2. To manage the personal and real estate of his said ward to the best interest of said ward;

3. To render under oath to the said court an account of his receipts and expenditures as such guardian, verified by vouchers or proofs, at least once in every two years, or whenever cited by the court to do so. On failure to so account he shall be in contempt of court and subject to such penalties as the court may fix;

4. To pay all just debts due from said ward and collect all debts due said ward by action or otherwise and in case of doubtful debts, under the order of the court, to compound the same, and to appear for and defend or cause to be defended all suits against said ward. [L. '93, p. 288, § 5.]

§ 1679. Community Realty, How Disposed of to Pay Debts, etc.—In all cases where guardians have been or may hereafter be appointed for insane persons or persons non compos mentis, under the provisions of this chapter; and who own or may hereafter own community real estate, the husband or wife of such insane person or person non compos mentis, under the order of the court, may join with the guardian in the execution of deeds or mortgages for the disposition or encumbrance of such estate, and the guardian shall, upon application to the court for that purpose, be authorized to sell or mortgage the estate or interest of the said insane person or person non compos mentis for the purpose of paying the debt or providing for the support or maintenance of such ward or the wife of such ward or for the better investment of the proceeds of such estate. [L. '93, p. 288, § 6.]

§ 1680. Proceedings on Failure of Spouse to Join in Conveyance, etc.—In all cases where community debts exist and the husband or wife of any insane person or person non compos mentis, under guardianship, shall fail or refuse for sixty days after an order of the court, to join the said guardian in a sale or conveyance or mortgage of the said community property of the said insane person or person non compos mentis, found necessary by the court for the payment of such community debts, any creditor may commence his action by attachment against any such insane person or person non compos mentis, and the husband or wife of the said insane person or person non compos mentis and the guardian provided for in this chapter: Provided, that any suit or suits which may have heretofore or may hereafter be brought for the purpose of subjecting the property of such insane person or person non compos mentis to the payment of the debts of such insane person or person non compos mentis, shall be consolidated, and in case the writs of attachment levied in such actions shall not have been levied upon all community property of such insane person or person non compos mentis, alias writs of attachment may issue and successive levies may be made of them to cover and bring into court all of the property of such insane person or person non compos mentis and the husband or wife of either. Such action may be brought only in the court granting the letters of guardianship, and writs of attachment may issue to any county in this state where the said insane person or person non compos mentis may have any property. All known creditors, whether secured by mortgage or otherwise, shall be made parties to such action, and all suits or actions brought for the purpose of enforcing any mortgage or lien shall be consolidated with said action. All creditors shall be made parties to such action and the same shall be prosecuted for the benefit of all creditors, whether they may be made parties or not, and the person so bringing the action herein provided for shall share pro rata with all other creditors, and upon the trial of such action the court may, upon proofs, render such judgment as may be necessary for the protection of all parties, and shall settle and decree the priorities between creditors. The guardian may employ counsel in any such action, and the compensation of such counsel shall be fixed by the court and taxed as a part of the cost in such action. After judgment the court shall order the community property of such insane person or person non compos mentis sold, and under the order of sale in such action the separate property of such insane person or person non compos mentis shall also be sold if the same shall be found by the court to be necessary to pay the debts of such insane person or person non compos mentis, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into court for distribution according to the priorities as decreed by the court, and any residue or overplus remaining in the court after paying all the debts found due shall be paid over to the guardian. This chapter shall not suspend or abrogate the existing liens of any attachment, mortgage or other lien, and all such liens shall merge into the judgment of the court rendered in such action according to the priority of each. The court may order all or such part of the community and separate property of the said insane person or person of unsound mind, as it may deem necessary for the payment of the judgment rendered, to be sold, and successive sales may be made under such judgment until an amount sufficient to pay such judgment is realized. All such sales shall be confirmed by the court as in cases of mortgage or other sales, and the court may, if it deem the amount bid at any sale inadequate, order a resale of any property sold under said order. [L. '93, p. 289, § 7.]

§ 1681. Surplus Moneys, How Disposed of.—When it shall appear to the court that all the real and personal property of such ward has been sold and the debts herein authorized to be paid have been satisfied, and that there are moneys and property in the hands of such guardian, upon the foreign guardian of such ward filing with the clerk of said court a duly certified copy of his appointment as such guardian, by a court of competent jurisdiction in any state or territory where said ward resides, with a copy of his bond, the sufficiency of which shall be certified by the said court, the court shall order all money and property in the hands of the said guardian in this state to be paid and turned over to the said foreign guardian upon his receipting therefor, and upon the filing of the said receipt by the said guardian with the clerk of the court, said guardian and his sureties shall be released from all liabilities for all money and property so paid and turned over, and should said guardian fail or refuse to pay or turn over such money or property as provided in said order, the said foreign guardian is hereby empowered as such guardian to sue for and recover the same. [L. '93, p. 290, § 8.]

§ 1682. Discharge of Sureties.—The sureties on the bond of any such guardian appointed in this state may be discharged from all liability thereunder under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed for the discharge of the sureties upon the bonds of executors and administrators in this state. [L. '93, p. 291, § 9.]

See references to § 1634, supra.

CHAPTER XX.

Private Sales of Real Property of Estates.

§ 1683. Private Sales of Real Property of Estates Generally.—Real property belonging to the estates of decedents, minors, idiots and insane persons may be sold at private sale according to the following provisions. [Cf. L. '91, p. 168, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1174; L. '93, p. 85, § 1.]

Cited in 39 Wash. 687.

§ 1684. Showing Necessary—Extent of Order.—When the court is satisfied after a full hearing upon the petition and an examination of the proof and allegations of the parties interested, that a sale of the whole or some portion of the real estate is necessary for any of the causes specified in the laws of the state of Washington, or if such sale be assented to by all the persons interested in a decedent's estate, an order must be made to sell the whole or so much and such parts of the real estate described in the petition as the court shall judge necessary or beneficial at either public or private sale. [Cf. L. '91, p. 168, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1175; L. '93, § p. 85, § 2.]

"Public sale": the title of this act relates only to "private sales."

§ 1685. Order of Sale—Procedure Under.—The order of sale must describe the lands to be sold and the terms of sale, which may be for cash or on a credit not exceeding three years, payable in gross or in installments, and in such kind of money, with interest, as the court may direct. The land may be sold in one parcel or in subdivisions, as the executor, administrator or guardian shall judge the most beneficial to the estate, unless the court otherwise specially directs. Every such sale must be ordered to be made at public auction, unless in the opinion of the court it would benefit the estate to sell the whole or some part of such real estate at private sale. The court may, if the same is asked for in the petition, order or direct such real estate or any part thereof to be sold at either public or private sale, as the executor, administrator or guardian shall judge most beneficial for the estate. If the executor, administrator or guardian objects or refuses to make a sale under the order and as directed therein, he may be compelled to sell by order of the court made on motion after due notice by any party interested. [L. '91, p. 168, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1176; L. '93, p. 85, § 3.]

"Public auction": See note to last section.

§ 1686. Notice—Bids, etc.—When a sale of real estate is ordered to be made at private sale, notice of the same must be posted up in three of the most public places in the county in which the land is situated, and published in a newspaper if there is one printed in the same county; if none then in such paper as the court or a judge thereof may direct, for two weeks successively next before the day on which the sale is to be made, in which the lands and tenements to be sold must be described with common certainty. The notice must state a day on or after which the sale will be made, and a place where offers or bids will be received. The day last referred to must be at least fifteen days from the first publication of notice and the sale must not be made before that day, but must be made within six months thereafter. The bids or offers must be in writing, and may be left at the place designated in the notice, or delivered to the executor or administrator personally, or may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court to which the return of sale must be made, at any time after the first publication of the notice and before the making of the sale. If it be shown that it will be for the best interests of the estate the court or judge may, by an order, shorten the time of notice, which shall not, however, be less than one week, and may provide that the sale may be made on or after a day less than fifteen, but not less than eight days from the first publication of the notice of sale, and the sale may be made to correspond with such order. [Cf. L. '91, p. 169, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1177; L. '93, p. 86, § 4.]

§ 1687. Sale, Price Necessary to Obtain.—No sale of real estate at private sale shall be confirmed by the court unless the sum offered is at least ninety per cent of the appraised value thereof, nor unless such real property has been appraised within one year of the time of such sale. If it has not been so appraised, or if the court is satisfied that the appraisement is too high or low, appraisers may be appointed, and they must make an appraisement thereof in the same manner as in case of an original appraisement of an estate; this may be done at any time before the sale or the confirmation thereof. [Cf. L. '91, p. 169, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1178; L. '93, p. 86, § 5.]

§ 1688. Security on Credit Sales.—The executor, administrator, or guardian must, when the sale is made upon a credit, take the notes of the purchaser for the purchase money with a mortgage on the property to secure their payment. [Cf. L. '91, p. 169, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1179; L. '93, p. 86, § 6.]

§ 1689. Return of Sale—Hearing—Vacation of.—The executor, administrator or guardian after making such sale of real property must make a return of his proceedings to the court, which must be filed in the office of the clerk within ten days. A hearing upon the return of the proceedings may be asked for by any interested party by petition, and thereupon the court or judge must fix the day for a hearing, of which notice of at least ten days must be given by the clerk, by notices posted in three public places in the county or by publication in a newspaper, or both, as the court or judge shall direct, and must briefly indicate the land sold, the sum for which it was sold, and must refer to the return for further particulars. Upon the hearing the court must examine the return and witnesses in relation to the same, and if the proceedings were unfair or the sum bid disproportionate to the value, and if it appear that a sum exceeding such bid at least ten per cent, exclusive of the expenses of a new sale, may be obtained, the court may vacate the sale and direct another to be had, of which notice must be given and the sale in all respects conducted as if no private sale had taken place. If an offer of ten per cent more in amount than that named in the return be made to the court in writing by a responsible person, it is in the discretion of the court to accept such offer and confirm the sale to such person or to order a new sale. [Cf. L. '91, p. 170, § 7; 2 H. C., § 1180; L. '93, p. 87, § 7.]

§ 1690. Objections to Confirmation.—When the return of the sale is made and filed, any person interested in the estate may file written objections to the confirmation thereof and may be heard thereon when the return is heard by the court or judge, and may produce witnesses in support of his objections. [Cf. L. '91, p. 170, § 8; 2 H. C., § 1181; L. '93, p. 87, § 8.]

§ 1691. Confirmation—Conveyance.—If it appears to the court that the sale was legally made and fairly conducted, and that the sum bid was not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, and that a greater sum, as above specified, cannot be obtained, or if the increased bid in section 1689 of this chapter be made and accepted by the court, the court must make an order confirming the sale and directing conveyances to be executed. [Cf. L. '91, p. 170, § 9; 2 H. C., § 1182; L. '93, p. 87, § 9.]

§ 1692. Other Provisions Applicable.—In all other respects such sale shall be governed by the laws of the state of Washington now in force governing the sale of real property belonging to such estates. [Cf. L. '91, p. 171, § 10; 2 H. C., § 1183; L. '93, p. 88, § 10.]

See references to § 1683, supra.

CHAPTER XXI.

The Validity of Sales of Estates.

§ 1693. Sales not Void on Account of Irregularity.—In case of an action relating to any estate sold by an executor, administrator, or guardian, in which an heir or person claiming under the deceased, or in which the ward or any person claiming under him, shall contest the validity of the sale, it shall not be voided on account of any irregularity in the proceedings: Provided, it appears,—

1. That the executor, administrator, or guardian was ordered to make the sale by the probate or superior court having jurisdiction of the estate;

2. That he gave a bond which was approved by the probate or superior judge, in case a bond was required upon granting the order;

3. That he gave notice of the time and place and sale, as in the order and by law prescribed; and

4. That the premises were sold accordingly, by public auction, and the sale confirmed by the court, and that they are held by one who purchased them in good faith. [L. '90, p. 82, § 2; 1 H. C., § 3066.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 380, 381; 8 Wash. 105; 23 Wash. 192; 27 Wash. 134; 34 Wash. 311, 312.

§ 1694. Conveyance Valid if Sale Authorized by Court.—If the validity of a sale is drawn in question by a person claiming adversely to the title of the deceased, or the ward, or claiming under a title that is not derived from or through the deceased or ward, the sale shall not be void on account of any irregularity in the proceedings, if it appears that the executor, administrator, or guardian was licensed to make the sale by a probate or superior court having jurisdiction of the estate, and that he did, accordingly, execute and acknowledge, in legal form, a deed for the conveyance of the premises. [L. '90, p. 82, § 3; 1 H. C., § 3067.]

Cited in 56 Wash. 171.

§ 1695. Chapter Applies to Past as Well as Future Sales.—This chapter shall apply to sales heretofore as well as hereafter made, and all sales heretofore made in conforming with the provisions of this chapter are declared valid. [L. '90, p. 82, § 4; 1 H. C., § 3068.]

CHAPTER XXII.

The Adoption of Children.

§ 1696. Petition for Leave to Adopt.—Any inhabitant of this state, not married, or any husband and wife jointly, may petition the superior court of their proper county for leave to adopt and change the name if desired, of any child under the age of twenty-one years, but a written consent must be given to such adoption by the child, if of the age of fourteen years, and by each of his or her living parents who is not hopelessly insane or a confirmed drunkard. If there be no such parents, or if the parents be unknown, or shall have abandoned such child, or if such parents, or either of them, are hopelessly insane, or a confirmed drunkard, then by the legal guardian; if there be no such guardian, then by a discreet and suitable person appointed by said court to act in the proceedings as the next friend of such child: Provided, however, that if the parents are living separate and apart, the consent of both is not required, but such consent may be given by the parent having the care, custody and control of such child; And provided further, that either spouse may adopt a child of the other. [L. '05, p. 296, § 1. Cf. L. '75, pp. 110-112; L. '79, p. 136, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1667; 1 H. C., § 1418; L. '97, p. 46, § 1.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 246; 42 Wash. 414; 43 Wash. 189; 78 Wash. 579; 85 Wash. 619.

§ 1697. Separate Examination of Wife.—If the petition be filed by husband and wife, the court shall examine the wife separate and apart from her husband, and shall refuse leave for such adoption, unless the court shall be satisfied, from such examination, that the wife, of her own free will and accord, desire such adoption. [L. '79, p. 136, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1668; 1 H. C., § 1419.]

§ 1698. Order Confirming Adoption.—Upon the compliance with the foregoing provisions, if the court shall be satisfied of the ability of the petitioner or petitioners to bring up and educate the child properly, having reference to the degree and condition of the child's parents, and shall be satisfied of the fitness and propriety of such adoption, the court shall make an order setting forth the facts and declaring that from that date such child, to all legal intents and purposes, is the child of the petitioner or petitioners, and that the name of the child is hereby changed. [L. '79, p. 136, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1669; 1 H. C., § 1420.]

Cited in 60 Wash. 520.

§ 1699. Effect of Adoption—Descent of Property.—By such order the natural parents shall be divested of all legal rights and obligations in respect to such child, and the child shall be free from all legal obligations of obedience and maintenance in respect to them, and shall be, to all intents and purposes, the child and legal heir of his or her adopter or adopters, entitled to all rights and privileges and subject to all the obligations of a child of the adopter or adopters begotten in lawful wedlock: Provided, that on the decease of parents who have adopted a child or children under this chapter, and the subsequent decease of such child or children without issue, the property of such adopting parents shall descend to their next of kin, and not to the next of kin of such adopted child or children. [L. '79, p. 137, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1670; 1 H. C., § 1421.]

Cited in 38 Wash. 389; 45 Wash. 50, 51.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Protection of Orphan, Homeless, or Neglected Children.

§ 1700. Adoption by Incorporated Societies.—Any benevolent or charitable society incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of receiving, caring for or placing out for adoption, or improving the condition of orphan, homeless, neglected or abused minor children of this state shall have authority to receive, control, and dispose of children under eighteen (18) years of age under the following provisions:

(a) When the father and mother or the person or persons legally entitled to act as guardian of the person of any minor child shall, in writing, surrender such child to the charge and custody of said society, such child shall thereafter be in the legal custody of such society for the purposes herein provided.

(b) In case of death or legal incapacity of a father or his abandonment or neglect to provide for his family, the mother shall have authority to make such surrender, and in case of the death or legal incapacity of a mother, or her abandonment of such child, then the father shall have authority to make such surrender.

(c) In all cases where the person or persons legally authorized to make such surrender are not known, any judge of superior court may cause a notice of hearing to be published in any newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county, and if he deems it best for such orphan, homeless, neglected or abused child, he may surrender it to any benevolent or charitable society incorporated under the laws of Washington and having for its object the care of such children.

(d) When any child shall have been surrendered in accordance with any of the preceding clauses and such child shall have been accepted by such society, then, (but not otherwise), the rights of its natural parents or of the guardian of its person (if any) shall cease and such corporation shall become entitled to the custody of such child, and shall have authority to care for and educate such child or place it either temporarily or permanently in a suitable private home in such manner as shall best secure its welfare. Such corporation shall have authority when any such child has been surrendered to it in accordance with any of the preceding provisions, and it is still in its control, to consent to its adoption under the laws of Washington. The custody or control of any such child by any such corporation or by any other corporation, institution, society or person may be inquired into, and, in the discretion of the court, terminated at any time by the superior court of the county where the child may be, upon the complaint of any person, and a showing that such custody is not in the interest of the child. [L. '03, p. 58, § 1.]

See L. '99, pp. 9–12, repealed by this act, § 9.

§ 1701. Issue of Warrant for Taking Child into Custody—Proceedings.—Upon complaint of any person in writing other than an officer or agent of such society or corporation to any judge of the superior court giving the names and residences of the parents, guardian (if any) or the next of kin of such child, so far as known, and alleging that the father of such minor child is dead, or has abandoned his family or is an habitual drunkard or is a man of notoriously bad character, or is imprisoned for crime, or has grossly abused or neglected such child, and that the mother of such child is an habitual drunkard or imprisoned for crime, or an inmate of a house of ill-fame, or a woman of notoriously bad character or is dead, or has abandoned her family, or has grossly abused or neglected such child, and alleging that the welfare of such child requires that legal steps be taken to provide for its care and custody, a warrant shall issue directing the proper officer, to take such child into custody and care for or dispose of it as such judge shall direct, until a hearing can be had, such proceedings shall have precedence of other causes, of which hearing not less than five days' notice shall be given to such parents, guardian or next of kin and such judge shall hear the allegations of the complaint and all testimony offered for or against the same and determine whether in his judgment there is cause for a change in the care and custody of such child. If the judge shall decide to change the care and custody of such child, he may commit the child to the care and custody of any such benevolent society contemplated in this act which is willing to receive it, and such commitment shall carry with it the same powers and authority as above provided in case of voluntary surrender, or he may enter in such findings and transmit the papers and a transcript of his proceedings to the county commissioners of the county in which the case arises and surrender such child to the care and custody of such commissioners and it may be disposed of without further notice to the parents, guardian or next of kin. [L. '03, p. 60, § 2.]

Cited in 60 Wash. 15, 16.

§ 1702. County Charges—Surrender to Society.—When any minor is a county charge, the board of county commissioners, if they think the welfare of the child demands it, may surrender such child to the care and custody of any benevolent society or corporation without the consent of its parents unless within twenty days after the notice of the intention of such commissioners so to do, given in writing to parents, guardian or next of kin of such child so far as known, to said commissioners, such parents, guardian or next of kin shall provide for such child and relieve the county thereof and when any child has been so surrendered by the county commissioners, it may be disposed of as herein provided for the disposition of other children. [L. '03, p. 60, § 3.]

§ 1703. Investigation of Neglect — Duty of Police.—When any officer or agent of any such society shall request a police officer or other peace officer, to investigate or assist in the investigation of any alleged case of any such neglected or abused child, such officer shall immediately make or assist in such investigation and if he deem it proper shall forthwith take such child into custody without warrant, taking such child and reporting such case at once to the judge of the superior court for such proceedings as may be proper under the provisions of this chapter. [L. '03, p. 61, § 4.]

§ 1704. Minor Convicted of Offense—Rights of Parent.—When any minor under eighteen years of age shall be convicted on any charge, the punishment for which may be imprisonment or confinement in the reform school, the judge of the superior court, if he finds that the good of such minor demands it, and such minor is an orphan, or a homeless, neglected or abused minor within the terms of this act, or is a county charge, or the parents or guardian of such minor consent thereto, may suspend sentence and surrender the custody of such minor to any society, as is contemplated in this act, when such society is willing to receive such minor, until such minor shall attain the age of majority, or for a term of years to be fixed in the order of surrender, and such society may find a home for such minor and surrender his custody to the person providing such home for the term fixed in said order of surrender, which surrender by the society shall be approved by an order of said court: Provided, that nothing in this section shall be held to affect the natural rights of said minor or of his parents or guardian, except in the matter of his custody: and provided further, that if said minor shall fail to conform to the order of court fixing his custody, he may be apprehended and brought before the court, and the court may sentence said minor as provided by law, or resurrender him as the court may deem best for the interests of said minor. [L. '03, p. 61, § 5.]

§ 1705. Society not to Act as Guardian.—Nothing in this chapter shall entitle any such society to act as guardian or to have control of the estate of any minor child. [L. '03, p. 62, § 6.]

§ 1706. Hearing on Habeas Corpus—Evidence.—Upon the hearing of any writ of habeas corpus for the custody of any such child, if it appears that such child has been surrendered to any such corporation under the provisions of this chapter, such surrender shall be taken as prima facie evidence that such child was legally and properly surrendered to such corporation and that such corporation is entitled to the custody and control of such child under the provisions of this chapter. [L. '03, p. 62, § 7.]

Cited in 60 Wash. 17.

§ 1707. County Charges—County to Pay Expenses.—The board of county commissioners shall pay the expenses of bringing the child before the court and caring for it pending a hearing under this act; when a child is surrendered to a benevolent society under the provisions of this act by the superior court, the county shall pay such society a reasonable compensation for the temporary care of such child until it is placed in a family but not to exceed fifty [$50] dollars in each case. No clerk, sheriff, police officer, member of the board of county commissioners or agent of any such society shall charge or be allowed to charge any costs whatever in these proceedings, except where a complaint shall be adjudged to be without sufficient cause and malicious, in which event all costs shall be taxed against the complainant: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to cases under section 1704. [L. '03, p. 62, § 8.]

CHAPTER XXIV.

Habitual Drunkards.

§ 1708. Who may be Adjudged an Habitual Drunkard.—Any person addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors may, upon complaint thereof, or upon certificate of a justice of the peace, as hereinafter provided, be adjudged an habitual drunkard. [Cf. L. '79, p. 113, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1673; L. '83, p. 32, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2523.]

§ 1709. Complaint, Who may Make.—Either the father, husband, mother, wife, son or daughter of any person addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors or any person in the interest of the relative aggrieved, or of the general public, may make complaint to the superior court of the county, wherein such person so addicted resides, that the person complained of is an habitual drunkard, and that in consequence thereof, such person is squandering his earnings or property, or that he neglects his business, or that he abuses or maltreats his family, which complaint must be verified by the oath of the complainant to the effect that the same is true. And every justice of the peace in whose court any person shall have been convicted twice on a charge of being drunk, or drunk and disorderly, shall certify to the superior court of the county in which he resides, that said person has thus twice been convicted. [Cf.

L. '79, p. 113, § 2; L. '81, p. 13, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1674; L. '83, p. 32, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2524.]

§ 1710. Summons—Hearing.—Upon filing of the complaint, duly verified, the superior judge shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the accused forthwith, and shall summon him to appear and answer, giving at least ten days' notice; and if upon the hearing of the evidence the allegations of the complaint are sustained, or upon filing a certificate of a justice of the peace, as above provided, such judge shall, in open court, declare the accused to be an habitual drunkard, and shall cause the proceeding to be entered in full upon the records of the court. [Cf. L. '79, p. 114, § 3; L. '81, p. 13, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1672; L. '83, p. 32, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2525.]

§ 1711. Fees of Officers—Costs.—The same fees shall be allowed to the superior court, justice of the peace, and the sheriff or constable, in all proceedings under the foregoing section [§ 1710] of this chapter, as are allowed by law for like processes and services, and like fees for witnesses, as in civil cases before justice of the peace; and if the complaint is not sustained, the person making the complaint shall pay the costs; and in case the complaint is sustained, the person accused shall pay the costs. [Cf. L. '79, p. 114, § 4; L. '81, p. 13, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1673; L. '83, p. 32, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2526.]

§ 1712. Penalty for Selling Liquor to Habitual Drunkard.—Any person who shall sell or give any intoxicating liquors to any habitual drunkard, as defined in the foregoing section [§ 1708] of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, by any court having criminal jurisdiction, shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty dollars or more than three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than one or more than six months, at the discretion of the court. [L. '79, p. 114, § 5; Cd. '81, § 1674; 1 H. C., § 2527.]

§ 1713. Liability for Furnishing Liquor to Habitual Drunkard.—Any person who shall be injured in person or property or means of support by any habitual drunkard, as defined by this chapter, while in a state of intoxication, or in consequence of such intoxication, shall have a right of action in his or her own name, severally or jointly against any person or persons who shall, by selling or giving intoxicating liquors to such habitual drunkard, have caused his intoxication, in whole or in part, and such person selling or giving such intoxicating liquors as aforesaid shall be liable severally or jointly for all damages sustained, and the same may be recovered in a civil action. A married woman may bring such action in her own name, and all damages recovered by her shall inure to her separate use, and all damages recovered by a minor under this chapter shall be paid either to such minor or to such person in trust for him or her as the court may direct. [L. '79, p. 114, § 6; Cd. '81, § 1675; 1 H. C., § 2528.]

Compare §§ 6289–6291, civil remedies against liquor dealers.

§ 1714. List of Habitual Drunkards to be Posted.—It shall be the duty of the superior judge of each county to furnish a list of the names of all persons adjudged habitual drunkards, to all parties licensed to sell, by retail, intoxicating liquors in such county, and such retail dealer shall keep posted up in some conspicuous place in his place of business a list of such habitual drunkards. A person failing to keep such list so posted shall forfeit his license, and if he thereafter sells intoxicating liquors, he shall be punished as if selling without a license. [Cf. L. '81, p. 14, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1676; L. '83, p. 32, § 1; L. '86, p. 160, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2529.]

§ 1715. Order, How Vacated.—Any person so declared to be an habitual drunkard may, at any time after the expiration of two years from the time he was so declared to be such, by a petition addressed to the judge of the court in which he was so adjudged, have a hearing in such court, upon a day which shall be by such court set, which day shall not be more than ten days after the filing of such petition in such court, which petition may contain a statement of facts tending to show the improved condition and habits of such petitioner and to establish his character for sobriety, and a prayer that the order on record so declaring him to be such habitual drunkard be vacated and he be released from the effects thereof; which petition shall be duly verified by the petitioner. And if upon the hearing of such petition, and the evidence in support thereof, it appear to the judge that such petitioner is entitled to have such record vacated and be so released, then he shall make an order so declaring that such record be vacated and annulled, and that the petitioner be thereafter released from the effects thereof. [L. '81, p. 14, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1677; 1 H. C., § 2530.]

CHAPTER XXV.

Estates of Absentees.

§ 1715–1. Petition—Notice—Hearing—Appointment of Trustee.—Whenever it shall be made to appear by petition to any judge of the superior court of any county that there is property in such county, either real or personal, that requires care and attention, or is in such a condition that it is a menace to the public health, safety or welfare, or that the custodian of such property appointed by the owner thereof is either unable or unwilling to continue longer in the care and custody thereof, and that the owner of such property has absented himself from the county and that his whereabouts is unknown and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, which petition shall state the name of the absent owner, his approximate age, his last known place of residence, the circumstances under which he left and the place to which he was going, if known, his business or occupation and his physical appearance and habits so far as known, the judge to whom such petition is presented shall set a time for hearing such petition not less than six weeks from the date of filing, and shall by order direct that a notice of such hearing be published for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county where such petition is filed and in such other counties and states as will in the judgment of the court be most likely to come to the attention of the absentee or of persons who may know his whereabouts, which notice shall state the object of the petition and the date of hearing, and set forth such facts and circumstances as in the judgment of the court will aid in identifying the absentee, and shall contain a request that all persons having knowledge concerning the absentee shall advise the court of the facts. If it shall appear at such hearing that the whereabouts of the absentee is unknown, but there is reason to believe that upon further investigation and inquiry he may be found, the judge may continue the hearing and order such inquiry and advertisement as will in his discretion be liable to disclose the whereabouts of the absentee, but when it shall appear to the judge at such hearing or any adjournment thereof that the whereabouts of the absentee cannot be ascertained, he shall appoint a suitable person resident of the county as trustee of such property, taking into consideration the character of the property and the fitness of such trustee to care for the same, preferring in such appointment the husband or wife of the absentee to his presumptive heirs, the presumptive heirs to kin more remote, the kin to strangers, and creditors to those who are not otherwise interested, provided they are fit persons to have the care and custody of the particular property in question and will accept the appointment and qualify as hereinafter provided. [L. '15, p. 132, § 1.]

§ 1715–2. Inventory and Appraisal—Bond.—The trustee so appointed shall make, subscribe and file in the office of the clerk of the court an oath for the faithful performance of his duties, and shall, within such time as may be fixed by the judge, prepare and file an inventory of such property, and the judge shall thereupon appoint three disinterested and qualified persons to appraise such property, and report their appraisement to the court within such time as the court may fix. Upon the coming in of the inventory and appraisement, the judge shall fix the amount of the bond to be given by the trustee, which bond shall in no case be less than the appraised value of the personal property and the annual rents and profits of the real property, and the trustee shall thereupon file with the clerk of the court a good and sufficient bond in the amount fixed and with surety to be approved by the court, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as trustee, and for accounting for such property, its rents, issues, profits and increase. [L. '15, p. 134, § 2.]

§ 1715–3. Reports of Trustee.—The trustee shall, at the expiration of one year from the date of his appointment and annually thereafter and at such times as the court may direct, make and file a report and account of his trusteeship, setting forth specifically the amounts received and expended and the conditions of the property. [L. '15, p. 134, § 3.]

§ 1715–4. Sale of Property—Application of Income.—If the property or any part thereof be personal property of a perishable nature or property likely to deteriorate in value, or if necessary to pay debts against the absentee which have been duly approved and allowed in the same form and manner as provided for the approving and allowing of claims against the estate of a deceased person the trustee may sell the same under order of the court so to do, at public or private sale, and upon such terms and notice as the court may direct, and shall hold the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the necessary expenses thereof, subject to the order of the court. The trustee is authorized and empowered to, by order of the court, expend the proceeds received from the sale of such property, and also the rents, issues and profits accruing therefrom in the care, maintenance and upkeep of the property, so long as the trusteeship shall continue, and the trustee shall receive out of such property such compensation for his services as may be fixed by the court. [L. '15, p. 134, § 4.]

§ 1715–5. Removal or Resignation of Trustee—Final Account.—The court shall have the power to remove or to accept the resignation of such trustee and appoint another in his stead. At the termination of his trust, as hereinafter provided or in case of his resignation or removal, the trustee shall file a final account, which account shall be settled in the manner provided by law for settling the final accounts of administrators and guardians. [L. '15, p. 135, § 5.]

§ 1715–6. Period of Trusteeship.—Such trusteeship shall continue until such time as the owner of such property shall return or shall appoint a duly authorized agent or attorney in fact to care for such property, or until such time as the property shall be provisionally distributed to the presumptive heirs, or to the devisees and legatees of the absentee as hereinafter provided, or until such time as the property shall escheat to the state as hereinafter provided. [L. '15, p. 135, § 6.]

§ 1715–7. Distribution to Heirs — Notice of Hearing — Will.— Whenever the owner of such property shall have been absent from the county for the space of five years and his whereabouts are unknown and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, his presumptive heirs at law may apply to the court for an order of provisional distribution of such property, and to be let into provisional possession thereof: Provided, that such provisional distribution may be made at any time prior to the expiration of five years, when it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that there are strong presumptions that the absentee is dead; and in determining the question of presumptive death, the court shall take into consideration the habits of the absentee, the motives of and the circumstances surrounding the absence, and the reasons which may have prevented the absentee from being heard of. Notice of hearing upon application for provisional distribution shall be published in like manner as notices for the appointment of trustees are published. If the absentee left a will in the possession of any person such person shall present such will at the time of hearing of the application for provisional distribution and if it shall be made to appear to the court that the absentee has left a will and the person in possession thereof shall fail to present it, a citation shall issue requiring him so to do, and such will shall be opened, read, proven, filed and recorded in the case, as are the wills of decedents. [L. '15, p. 135, § 7.]

§ 1715–8. Provisional Distribution — Bond of Distributees.—If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court upon the hearing of the application for provisional distribution that the absentee has been absent and his whereabouts unknown for the space of five years, or there are strong presumptions that he is dead, the court shall enter an order directing that the property in the hands of the trustee shall be provisionally distributed to the presumptive heirs, or to the devisees and legatees under the will, as the case may be, upon condition that such heirs, devisees and legatees respectively give and file in the court bonds with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the court, conditioned for the return of or accounting for the property provisionally distributed in case the absentee shall return and demand the same, which bonds shall be respectively in twice the amount of the value of the personal property distributed, and in ten times the amount of estimated annual rents, issues and profits of any real property so provisionally distributed. [L. '15, p. 136, § 8.]

§ 1715–9. Final Distribution—Notice of Application.—Whenever the owner of such property shall have been absent from the county for a space of fifteen years and his whereabouts are unknown and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, his presumptive heirs at law or the legatees and devisees under the will, as the case may be, to whom the property has been provisionally distributed, may apply to the court for a decree of final distribution of such property and satisfaction, discharge and exoneration of the bonds given upon provisional distribution. Notice of hearing of such application shall be given in the same manner as notice of hearing of application for the appointment of trustee and for provisional distribution and if at the final hearing it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the owner of the property has been absent and unheard of for the space of fifteen years and his whereabouts are unknown, the court shall exonerate the bonds given on provisional distribution and enter a decree of final distribution, distributing the property to the presumptive heirs at law of the absentee or to his devisees and legatees, as the case may be. [L. '15, p. 136, § 9.]

§ 1715–10. Final Settlement — Escheat.—Whenever the owner of such property for which a trustee has been appointed under the provisions of this act shall have been absent and unheard of for a period of fifteen years and no presumptive heirs at law have appeared and applied for the provisional distribution of such property and no will of the absentee has been presented and proven, the trustee appointed under the provisions of this act shall apply to the court for a final settlement of his account and upon the settlement of such final account the property of the absentee shall be escheated in the manner provided by law for escheating property of persons who die intestate leaving no heirs. [L. '15, p. 137, § 10.]

§ 1716. When Allowed.—Any party aggrieved may appeal to the supreme court in the mode prescribed in this title from any and every of the following determinations, and no others, made by the superior court, or a judge thereof, in any action or proceeding.

(1) From the final judgment entered in any action or proceeding, and an appeal from any such final judgment shall also bring up for review any order made in the same action or proceeding either before or after the judgment, in case the record sent up on the appeal, or any supplementary record sent up before the hearing thereof, shall show such order sufficiently for the purposes of a review thereof.

(2) From any order refusing to vacate an order of arrest in a civil action.

(3) From an order granting or denying a motion for a temporary injunction, heard upon notice to the adverse party, and from any order vacating or refusing to vacate a temporary injunction: Provided, that no appeal shall be allowed from any order denying a motion for a temporary injunction, or vacating a temporary injunction unless the judge of the superior court shall have found upon the hearing, that the party against whom the injunction was sought was insolvent.

(4) From any order discharging or refusing to discharge an attachment.

(5) From any order appointing or removing, or refusing to appoint or remove, a receiver.

(6) From any order affecting a substantial right in a civil action or proceeding, which either, (1) in effect determines the action or proceeding and prevents a final judgment therein; or (2) discontinues the action; or (3) grants a new trial; or (4) sets aside or refuses to affirm an award of arbitrators, or refers the cause back to them.

(7) From any final order made after judgment, which affects a substantial right; and an appeal from any such order shall also bring up for review any previous order in the same action or proceeding which involves the merits and necessarily affects the order appealed from, in case the record sent up on the appeal, or any supplementary record sent up before the hearing thereof, shall show such previous order sufficiently for the purposes of a review thereof. But an appeal shall not be allowed to the state in any criminal action, except when the error complained of is in setting aside the indictment or information, or in arresting the judgment on the ground that the facts stated in the indictment or information do not constitute a crime, or is some other material error in law not affecting the acquittal of a prisoner on the merits. § 1718. Time of Taking.—In civil actions and proceedings an appeal from any final judgment must be taken within ninety days after the date of the entry of such final judgment; and an appeal from any order, other than a final order, from which an appeal is allowed by this act, within fifteen days after the entry of the order, if made at the time of the hearing, and in all other cases within fifteen days after the service of a copy of such order, with written notice of the entry thereof, upon the party appealing, or his attorney. In criminal causes, an appeal must be taken within ninety days after the entry of final judgment. [L. '15, p. 301, § 3; L. '13, p. 350, § 3; L. '93, p. 120, § 3; L. '95, p. 81, § 1.]

§ 1719. Notice of.—A party desiring to appeal to the supreme court under the provisions of this title may, by himself or his attorney, give notice in open court or before the judge, if the judgment or order appealed from is rendered or made at chambers, at the time when such judgment or order is rendered or made, that he appeals from such judgment or order to the supreme court, and thereupon the court or judge shall direct the clerk to make an entry of such notice in the journal of the court. If the appeal be not taken at the time when the judgment or order appealed from is rendered or made, then the party desiring to appeal may, by himself or his attorney, within the time prescribed in section 1718, serve written notice on the prevailing party or his attorney that he appeals from such judgment or order to the supreme court, and within five days after the service of such notice he shall file with the clerk of the superior court the original or a copy of such notice, with proof or the written admission of the service thereof, and thereupon the clerk shall enter such notice, with the proof or admission of service thereof, in the journal of the court. The giving or service of a notice of appeal as prescribed in this section shall effect the appeal, but the same shall become ineffectual if an appeal bond for costs and damages be not given as required by section 1721 of this title. Two or more appealable orders with or without the judgment may be embraced in one appeal: Provided, that the time allowed in this title for appealing from each of such orders has not expired. The appellant in his notice of appeal shall designate with reasonable certainty from what judgment or orders, whether one or more, the appeal is taken, and if from part of any judgment or order, from what particular part. § 1720. Who may Join in Notice.—All parties whose interests are similarly affected by any judgment or order appealed from may join in the notice of appeal whether it be given at the time when such judgment or order is rendered or made, or subsequently; and any such party who has not joined in the notice may at any time within ten days after the notice is given or served, serve an independent notice of like appeal, or join in the appeal already taken by filing with the clerk of the superior court a statement that he joins therein or in some part thereof, specifying in what part. Any such party who does not so join shall not derive any benefit from the appeal unless from the necessity of the case; nor can he independently appeal from any judgment or order already appealed from, more than ten days after service upon him of written notice of the former appeal, unless such former appeal be afterward dismissed. All parties who so join in an appeal after the notice is given or served shall be liable for the expenses thereof, and for costs and damages to the same extent and upon the same conditions as if they had originally joined in the notice. When the notice of appeal is not given at the time when the judgment or order appealed from is rendered or made, it shall be served in the manner required by law for the service of papers in civil actions and proceedings, upon all parties who have appeared in the action or proceeding: Provided, that where the record and files in the cause do not disclose the address of a party on whom notice should be made, or of his attorney, and neither such party nor his attorney can be found within the county in which the judgment or order appealed from was rendered or made (of which fact a return by the sheriff that they cannot be so found shall be proof), the notice of appeal need not be served on such party, but the appeal may be taken by filing the notice and such sheriff's return with the clerk. Service on an attorney who was the attorney of record for a party in the cause at the time when the judgment or order appealed from was rendered or made, shall be deemed service on such party in all cases where service is required by this title. § 1721. Bond for Costs.—An appeal in a civil action or proceeding shall become ineffectual for any purpose unless at or before the time when the notice of appeal is given or served, or within five days thereafter, an appeal bond to the adverse party conditioned for the payment of costs and damages as prescribed in section 1722, be filed with the clerk of the superior court, or money in the sum of two hundred dollars be deposited with the clerk in lieu thereof. But no bond or deposit shall be required when the appeal is taken by the state, or by a county, city, town or school district thereof, or by a defendant in a criminal action. [L. '93, p. 122, § 6.]

§ 1722. Bond—Execution, Conditions and Effect of.—The appeal bond must be executed in behalf of the appellant by one or more sufficient sureties, and shall be in a penalty of not less than two hundred dollars in any case; and in order to effect a stay of proceedings as in this section provided, the bond, where the appeal is from a final judgment for the recovery of money, shall be in a penalty double the amount of the damages and costs recovered in such judgment and in other cases shall be in such penalty, not less than two hundred dollars, and sufficient to save the respondent harmless from damages by reason of the appeal, as a judge of the superior court shall prescribe. It shall be conditioned that the appellant will pay all costs and damages that may be awarded against him on the appeal, or on the dismissal thereof, not exceeding two hundred dollars. An appeal shall not stay proceedings on the judgment or order appealed from or on any part thereof, unless the original or a subsequent appeal bond be further conditioned that the appellant will satisfy and perform the judgment or order appealed from in case it shall be affirmed, and any judgment or order which the supreme court may render or make, or order to be rendered or made by the superior court, and (where such condition is applicable) shall pay all rents of or damages to property accruing during the pendency of the appeal, out of the possession of which any respondent shall be kept by reason of the appeal. If the bond is intended to stay proceedings on only a part of the judgment or order it shall be varied so as to secure the part stayed alone. When such bond, further conditioned as hereinabove prescribed, has been filed the appeal shall operate so long as it shall remain effectual under the provisions of this title to stay proceedings upon the judgment or order appealed from; but in case of an appeal from an order other than an order granting a new trial, no appeal or appeal bond shall operate to stay proceedings in the cause except proceedings upon the order appealed from; and no appeal or stay shall vacate or affect any part of a judgment or order not appealed from and where an appeal is taken from an order vacating a temporary injunction, the appellant cannot proceed further in the cause in the superior court during the pendency of the appeal, except so far as may be rendered necessary by proceedings of an adverse party. § 1723. Temporary Injunction to Remain in Force, When.—In all cases where a final judgment shall be rendered by any superior court of this state in a cause wherein a temporary injunction has been granted, and the party at whose instance such injunction was granted shall appeal from such judgment, such injunction shall remain in force during the pendency of such appeal, if, within five days after service on him of notice of the entry of the final judgment, such appellant shall file with the clerk of the superior court a bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, in a penalty to be fixed by said court, conditioned that the appellant shall pay to the respondent all costs and damages that may be adjudged against the appellant on the appeal, and all costs and damages that may accrue to the respondent by reason of the injunction remaining in force. § 1724. Injunction Where Appeal to United States Supreme Court.—In all cases where a final judgment shall be rendered by the supreme court of this state in a cause wherein a temporary or final injunction has been granted and the party at whose instance such injunction was granted shall appeal from such judgment to the supreme court of the United States, such injunction shall remain in force during the pendency of such appeal, if, within sixty days after the rendition of such judgment of the supreme court of this state, such appellant shall file with the clerk of the supreme court a bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, in a penalty to be fixed by said court, conditioned that the appellant shall pay to the respondent all costs and damages that may be adjudged against the appellant on appeal, and all costs and damages that may accrue to the respondent by reason of the injunction remaining in force. [L. '93, p. 124, § 9.]

§ 1725. Justification of Sureties.—An appeal bond, whether conditioned so as to effect a stay of proceedings or not, shall be of no force unless accompanied by the affidavit of the surety or sureties therein attached thereto, in which each surety shall state that he is a resident of this state and is worth a certain sum mentioned in such affidavit, over and above all debts and liabilities, in property within this state, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and which sums so sworn to by the surety or sureties, shall be at least equal to the penalty named in the bond if there be but one surety, or shall amount in all to at least twice such penalty if there be more than one surety. See infra, § 6240, bonds by surety companies.

§ 1726. Exception to Surety — Certificate — New Bond.—Any respondent may except to the sufficiency of the surety or sureties in an appeal bond, within ten days after the service on him of the notice of appeal or within five days after the service on him of the bond or written notice of the filing thereof, by serving on the appellant a notice stating that he so excepts, and specifying a place at the county seat, and a time, not less than three nor more than ten days distant, at which the surety or sureties are required to attend before the superior court in which the judgment or order appealed from was rendered or made, or before a judge thereof, and to justify their sufficiency as sureties. At the time and place named in such notice, or to which the proceedings may be thence adjourned by the court or judge, the surety or sureties must attend before the court or judge, and may be then and there examined in detail, under oath, as to their property and other qualifications as sureties, by any respondent or by the judge, or by both. If the judge upon such examination is satisfied that the surety or sureties are qualified as such, to the extent to which they are required by section 1723 of this title to make affidavit, then he shall make a certificate to that effect indorsed upon or attached to the bond, which shall thereupon stand as a sufficient appeal bond to the effect expressed in the condition thereof; but if he is not so satisfied, or if the sureties fail to attend and justify, then the judge shall in like manner certify to that effect, and thereupon the bond shall become void: Provided, that in such case the appellant may, within five days after the making of such certificate, file a new appeal bond, in conformity with the requirements of this title, and subject to the requirement of justification of the sureties therein, as hereinabove provided; but in case such new appeal bond be found insufficient, no new bond can thereafter be filed in lieu thereof. In case the original or new appeal bond be not conditioned so as to effect a stay of proceedings, however, an additional appeal bond may be filed at any time thereafter when the appellant desires to effect a stay as provided in this title, during the pendency of the appeal. The examination of the sureties taken upon their justification shall be reduced to writing and subscribed by the sureties, if either party so requires, and attached to the certificate made thereon. § 1727. Execution Countermanded, When.—When an appeal bond is conditioned so as to effect a stay of proceedings if execution has issued the clerk shall on demand of the appellant, issue to the sheriff a certificate that proceedings have been stayed, which shall countermand the execution; and thereupon the sheriff shall release any property levied on and not already sold, and return the execution into court. [L. '93, p. 126, § 12.]

§ 1728. Application for New Bond.—If any respondent shall have cause to believe, after any appeal bond shall have been filed and the sureties therein have justified or the time for requiring their justification has expired, that the sureties have since become disqualified as such, so that the bond is no longer an adequate security, he may apply by motion to the supreme court to require a new or additional bond; and upon the hearing of such motion the court may receive evidence in support of and in opposition to the motion in such manner, and may make such order thereon, as it shall deem proper. [L. '93, p. 126, § 13.]

§ 1729. Record — What Constitutes — Duties of Clerk.—Within ninety days after an appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this title, the clerk of the superior court shall prepare, certify and file in his office, at the expense of the appellant (except in criminal appeals prosecuted in forma pauperis, and in such cases at the expense of the county), a transcript containing a copy of so much of the record and files as the appellant shall deem material to the review of the matters embraced within the appeal, said transcript to be so prepared, certified and filed, in the office of the clerk, at or before the time when the appellant shall serve and file his opening brief, as hereinafter provided. Within four months after said appeal shall have been taken by notice as aforesaid, the clerk of the superior court shall at the expense of appellant, send up to the supreme court said transcript together with the original briefs on appeal filed in his office. The papers and copies so sent up together with any thereafter sent up as hereinbelow provided, shall constitute the record on appeal. Any bill of exceptions or statement of facts on file when the record is so sent up shall be sent up as a part thereof, unless the superior court or a judge thereof has not yet passed on an application for the settlement and certifying of such bill or statement. In case any bill of exceptions or statement of facts shall be filed or certified, or any other addition to the records or files shall be made after the record on appeal shall have been sent up, a supplementary record on appeal embracing so much thereof as the appellant deems material, or a copy thereof may be prepared, certified and sent up at any time prior to the hearing of the appeal. And in case the respondent deems any part of the files or record not already sent up to be material to the review of the matters embraced within the appeal, he may cause the clerk, in like manner, at his expense, to prepare, certify and send up a supplementary record on appeal embracing such omitted files or records, or copies thereof, at any time prior to the hearing of the appeal. Any such supplementary record or records, if filed in the supreme court prior to the hearing of the appeal, shall be considered by the court as part of the record on appeal, so far as the same may be material to a review of the matters embraced within the appeal. When the review of an original paper in the cause may be important to a correct decision of the appeal, the court or judge may order the clerk to transmit the same to the clerk of the supreme court and the same shall be transmitted accordingly, and shall be under the control of the supreme court. § 1730. Time for Filing and Serving Briefs.—Within ninety days after an appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this title, the appellant shall serve on the respondent three copies and shall file with the clerk of the superior court fifteen copies, together with proof or written admission of service, as aforesaid, of a printed brief on the appeal upon his part, which brief shall clearly point out each error that the appellant relies on for a reversal, and shall conform to such regulations of its contents in other respects, and its form and size, as the supreme court by its rules may have prescribed. Within thirty days after the service of the appellant's brief, the respondent shall likewise serve and file with the clerk of the superior court, with like proof of service, the like numbers of copies of a printed brief on the appeal upon his part which shall likewise conform to the rules of the supreme court. Not less than ten days prior to the hearing the appellant may also serve and file either with the clerk of the superior court or in the supreme court like printed brief or briefs, strictly in reply to respondent's brief. The time for service and filing of briefs, as in this section prescribed, may be extended by order of the superior court for good cause shown, or by stipulation of the parties concerned; and if the time for filing any statement of facts shall be extended by order or stipulation, the time herein prescribed for serving and filing the appellant's opening brief shall thereby be correspondingly extended. Either party may after the filing of his briefs and not less than one day prior to the hearing of the appeal submit to the supreme court and to the adverse party a written or printed statement of any additional authorities, with suitable comment thereon strictly in support of the position taken in his brief hereinabove required to be filed. But the appellant shall not be permitted to urge in any such reply brief or statement of additional authorities, or on the hearing, any grounds for reversal not clearly pointed out in his original brief. § 1730–1. Abstracts of Record—Cost.—The appellant shall, at or before the time when he is required by rule or statute to serve his opening brief, cause to be typewritten and served upon the opposite party an abstract of so much of the record and statement of facts as he may deem necessary to the proper hearing of his assignments of error: Provided, that in all cases in which no testimony is sent up with the record, or in which the statement of facts does not exceed one hundred (100) pages of double space, typewritten evidence, no abstract of record shall be required. Said abstract, in so far as it sets out testimony, shall be condensed into narrative form, without the questions and answers except when necessary for the discussion of evidence. It shall be prepared without notice or hearing thereon, and if the opposite party be not satisfied with it, he may cause to be typewritten and served, without notice, either before or at the time of serving his answering brief, so much of the record and statement of facts, condensed as above, as he for his part may deem proper for the correction or supplementing of his opponent's abstract. Each party shall pay the cost of typewriting his abstract, and the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover his disbursements therefor as other costs. For any abuse in typewriting excessive or unnecessary matter in the abstract, the supreme court, without regard to which party may prevail, may impose the costs thereof upon the party committing such abuse. The supreme court shall also provide by rule the form of abstracts, the number thereof to be typewritten, and for other particulars thereof, including the time and place of filing the same. [L. '15, p. 300, § 1; L. '13, p. 349, § 1.]

§ 1730-2. Effect of Act.—Nothing in this act contained shall alter in any respect the present manner of settling and certifying statements of fact and bills of exceptions, and such statements and bills shall be transmitted to the supreme court to be referred to in any controversy concerning the accuracy of the abstracts, as well as for reference to exhibits, and for such other uses as the supreme court may find proper in consideration of all matters on appeal. "Act" refers to §§ 1718, 1730-1 to 1730-9.

§ 1730-4. Extension of Time for Opening Brief.—In all cases in which the abstract of record which, by the terms of this act, is to be served upon the opposite party by the appellant is served within the time limited by existing law, or by any law hereafter passed, for the service of appellant's opening brief, the time for serving appellant's opening brief shall be, by such service of such abstract of record, extended for and until ten days after the service of such abstract of record, providing that the time for serving such opening brief would otherwise have expired within said ten days, and this section shall not be construed to shorten the time for serving of appellant's opening brief. [L. '15, p. 301, § 4.]

§ 1730-5. Extension of Time for Respondent's Brief.—In all cases in which the opposite party is not satisfied with the abstract of record as furnished by the appellant, and in which such opposite party shall serve so much of a record and statement of facts as he shall deem proper for correcting or supplementing of his opponent's abstract, the service thereof shall extend the time as limited by existing law, or by any law hereafter passed for the service of the opposite party's brief for a period of ten days from and after the service of said correcting and supplementing abstract by the opponent, but this section shall not be construed to shorten the time for the serving of the opponent's brief. [L. '15, p. 302, § 5.]

§ 1730–6. Insufficient Abstract—Amendment—Dismissal.—In case the appellant serves an abstract of record and statement of facts within the time limited by this act, and it is found that the same is insufficient and defective under the terms of this act or the rules of the supreme court, the appeal shall not be dismissed by reason thereof, but the appellant may be allowed to file an amended or supplementary abstract as may be required by the facts of the case within such time and upon such terms as may be fixed by the order of the supreme court, and if the appellant fails to comply with the order of the court in regard thereto, then the appeal may be dismissed by reason and because of such failure to comply with the order of the supreme court in regard thereto. [L. '15, p. 302, § 6.]

§ 1730–7. Order of Filing and Serving Immaterial.—Whenever any statute heretofore or hereafter enacted requires a motion for a new trial, statement of facts, bill of exceptions, notice of appeal or other documents concerning appeals or constituting a part of the record of appeals to the supreme court, or to any other tribunal having appellate jurisdiction, to be filed and served or served and filed, the serving and filing shall be equally valid and effective whether the document shall be filed or served first and no appeal shall be dismissed because of the order of the filing and serving. [L. '15, p. 302, § 7.]

§ 1730–8. Extension of Time — Filing Abstract or Statement of Facts.—In case of a failure of the appellant to serve an abstract of record and statement of facts, or the one served is insufficient, the supreme court shall, if such failure is found to be excusable, allow the appellant a reasonable time, upon such terms as the court may impose, in which to supply such abstract of record and statement of facts. [L. '15, p. 303, § 8.]

§ 1730–9. Defects in Appeal Bond — New Bond.—When a notice of appeal to the supreme court shall have been served and filed in due time and an appeal bond shall have been given within the time required by law, no appeal shall be dismissed because of any defect in the appeal bond, nor because an appeal bond which is given both as a cost bond and as a bond on supersedeas shall be insufficient by reason of the amount, but the appellant shall in all cases be allowed to give a new bond within such time and upon such terms as the court may order. [L. '15, p. 303, § 9.]

§ 1731. Jurisdiction, Effect of Appeal upon.—Upon the taking of an appeal by notice as provided in this title, and the filing of a bond to render the appeal effectual, the supreme court shall acquire jurisdiction of the appeal for all necessary purposes, and shall have control of the superior court and of all inferior officers in all matters pertaining thereto, and may enforce such control by a mandate or otherwise, and, if necessary, by fine and imprisonment, which imprisonment may be continued until obedience shall be rendered to the mandate of the supreme court. But the superior court shall, nevertheless, retain jurisdiction for the purpose of all proceedings by this act provided to be had in such court, and for the purpose of settlement and certifying the bills of exceptions and statements of facts, and for all purposes in so far as the cause is not affected by the appeal. § 1732. Calendar, How Prepared.—All appeals in which the record shall have [been] filed in the supreme court at least ten days before the beginning of any stated session of the court, shall be placed on the calendar of the court for hearing at such session; and the subsequent filing of a supplementary record shall not affect the position of the appeal on the calendar. But the hearing of an appeal may at any time be postponed by the court or continued for the session, of its own motion or for good cause shown, and on such terms as may be just. [L. '93, p. 128, § 17.]

§ 1733. Motion to Dismiss.—Any respondent may move the supreme court, at such time and in such manner as the court by its rules may have prescribed, to dismiss an appeal either on the ground that the court has no jurisdiction of an appeal from the judgment or order from which the appeal was taken, or that the notice of appeal was not served or filed within the time limited by law, or is insufficient, or that the appeal bond was not filed within the time limited by law, or is not in form or substance such as to render the appeal effectual, or that the appellant's brief has not been served or filed, or that the record on appeal has not been sent up, or that the appeal has not been diligently prosecuted or on any ground going to the merits of the further prosecution of the appeal, or on any two or more of the grounds hereinabove mentioned; and there may be combined with a motion to dismiss a motion to affirm the judgment or order appealed from, or a motion for damages on the ground that the appeal was taken merely for delay, or was manifestly unauthorized by law, or both such motions. A general appearance in the supreme court shall not be a waiver of the right to make any motion herein authorized. [L. '93, p. 129, § 18.]

§ 1734. Hearing and Disposition of Motion.—If the supreme court on the hearing of any such motion or motions shall find the grounds or any thereof alleged, for the same, to be well taken and true in effect, the court may grant the same in whole or in part, but when any such motion does not go to the substance of the appeal, or to the right of appeal, and the court shall be of the opinion that the moving party can be compensated in costs, or by the imposition of other terms for any delay of the appellant which is made the ground of any such motion (except a failure to take the appeal within the time limited by law) the court, in its discretion, may deny the motion on such terms as may be just. The court shall upon like terms allow all amendments in matters of form, curative of defects in proceedings to the end that substantial justice be secured to the parties, and no appeal shall be dismissed for any informality or defect in the notice of appeal, the appeal bond, or the service of either thereof, or for any defect of parties to the appeal if the appellant shall forthwith, upon order of the supreme court, perfect the appeal. § 1736. What may be Reviewed.—Upon an appeal from a judgment, the supreme court may review any intermediate order or determination of the court below which involves the merits and materially affects the judgment, appearing upon the record sent up from the superior court. Any questions of fact or of law, decided upon trials by the court or by referees, in either legal or equitable causes, may be reviewed, when exceptions to the findings of fact or to the conclusions of law, or both, have been duly taken, by either party and sent up in the record on appeal; and in actions legal or equitable, tried by the court below without a jury, wherein a statement of facts or bill of exceptions shall have been certified, the evidence of facts shown by such bill of exceptions or statement of facts shall be examined by the supreme court de novo, so far as the findings of fact or a refusal to make findings based thereon shall have been excepted to, and the cause shall be determined by the record on appeal, including such exceptions or statement. [L. '93, p. 130, § 21.]

§ 1737. Powers of Supreme Court.—Upon an appeal from a judgment or order, or from two or more orders with or without the judgment, the supreme court may affirm, reverse or modify any such judgment or order appealed from, as to any or all of the parties, and may direct the proper judgment or order to be entered, or direct a new trial or further proceedings to be had; and, if the appeal is from a part of a judgment or order, may affirm, reverse or modify as to the part appealed from. The decision of the court shall be given in writing, and no cause shall be deemed decided until the decision in writing is filed with the clerk. In giving its decision, if a new trial is granted, the court shall pass upon and determine all the questions of law involved in the cause presented upon such appeal and necessary to the final determination of the cause. § 1738. Damages may be Awarded, When.—Upon the affirmance of any judgment or order for the payment of money, the collection of which, in whole or in part, has been stayed by an appeal bond, as in this title provided, the court may award to the respondent damages upon the amount superseded; and, if satisfied by the record that the appeal was taken for delay only, the court must so award such damages not exceeding fifteen per cent of the sum by such judgment or order recovered or directed to be paid, as will effectually tend to prevent the taking of appeals for delay only. [L. '93, p. 131, § 23.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 140; 16 Wash. 679; 51 Wash. 447; 56 Wash. 12.

§ 1739. Judgment Against Appellant and Sureties.—Upon the affirmance of a judgment or [on] appeal for the payment of money, the supreme court shall render judgment against both the appellant and his sureties in the appeal bond for the amount of the judgment appealed from (in case the bond was conditioned so as to support such judgment) and for the damages and costs awarded on the appeal; and in any other case of affirmance the supreme court shall likewise render judgment against both the appellant and his sureties in the appeal bond for the amount recoverable according to the condition of the bond, in case such amount can be ascertained by the court without an issue and trial. [L. '93, p. 131, § 24.]

§ 1740. Rehearing, Limitation on—Remittitur.—If a petition for rehearing or an appeal be filed within thirty days after the filing of the decision of the supreme court, the remittitur upon the appeal shall not be sent down to the lower court till such petition shall have been acted upon by the supreme court. But at the expiration of thirty days after the filing of the decision of any cause on appeal in case no petition for rehearing shall be filed, or in case such a petition is filed and is denied by the court, then forthwith upon such denial the clerk of the supreme court shall send down to the superior court from which the appeal was taken a remittitur in the cause, which shall consist of the judgment of the supreme court, and a certified copy of the opinion of the court in case any judgment or order appealed from was reversed or modified thereby. [L. '93, p. 131, § 25.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 378.

§ 1741. Effect of Judgment—Execution Under.—If the supreme court affirm or modify any judgment or order appealed from, it may remand the cause to the court below with directions to carry the same into effect, or it may itself issue the necessary process for that purpose to the sheriff of the proper county, as it may deem advisable. If the cause is remanded to the court below to have such judgment or order carried into effect, the decision of the supreme court, and its order entered thereon, upon being certified to the court below and entered on its records, shall have the same force and effect therein as if made and entered by the court below during its session. Executions issued from the supreme court shall be similar to those from the superior court, and of like force and effect, and returnable in the same time. [L. '93, p. 131, § 26.]

Cited in 28 Wash. 196; 76 Wash. 525.

§ 1742. Effect of Reversal—Writ of Restitution.—If by a decision of the supreme court the appellant becomes entitled to a restoration of any part of the money or property that was taken from him by means of the judgment or order appealed from, either the supreme court or the court below may direct an execution or writ of restitution to issue for the purpose of restoring to the appellant his property, or the value thereof. But property acquired by a purchaser in good faith, under a judgment subsequently reversed, shall not be affected by such reversal. [L. '93, p. 132, § 27.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 437; 31 Wash. 503; 84 Wash. 294, 302.

§ 1743. Death of Party not to Affect Appeal.—The death of a party after the rendition of a final judgment in the superior court shall not affect any appeal taken, or the right to take an appeal; but the proper representatives in personalty or realty of the deceased party, according to the nature of the case, may voluntarily come in and be admitted parties to the cause, or may be made parties at the instance of another party, as may be proper, as in case of death of a party pending an action in the superior court, and thereupon the appeal may proceed or be taken as in other cases; and the time necessary to enable such representatives to be admitted or brought in as parties shall not be computed as part of the time in this act limited for taking an appeal, or for taking any step in the progress thereof. [L. '93, p. 132, § 28.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 671.

§ 1744. Costs of Appeal.—Costs shall be allowed in the supreme court, irrespective of any costs taxed in the case in the court below, to the prevailing party in the supreme court, on any appeal in any civil action or proceeding as follows: The fees of the clerk of the supreme court paid by the prevailing party, the fees of the clerk of the court below for preparing, certifying and sending up the records on appeal, or any supplementary record, paid by the prevailing party, and twenty-five dollars attorneys' fees, besides his necessary disbursements for the printing of briefs, and any sum actually paid or incurred by the prevailing party as stenographer's fees, not exceeding ten cents a folio, for making a transcript of the evidence or any part thereof included in the bill of exceptions or statement of facts; but when the judgment of the court below shall be affirmed in part and reversed in part, or affirmed as to some of the parties and reversed as to others, or modified, the costs shall be in the discretion of the court, and when the judgment is reversed and a new trial ordered, the court may in its discretion direct that costs of the prevailing party shall abide the result of the action. When in the opinion of the supreme court a brief of the prevailing party shall be unnecessarily long, or improper in substance, the court may in its discretion order the disallowance as costs of any part or the whole of the disbursements for printing the same. [L. '93, p. 132, § 29.]

§ 1745. Effect of Appeal in Criminal Actions.—An appeal by a defendant in a criminal action shall stay the execution of the judgment of conviction. In case the defendant has been convicted of a felony, and has been unable to furnish the bail bond required by section 1747 pending the appeal, the time during which he remains in the jail of the county from which the appeal is taken shall be deducted from the term for which he was theretofore sentenced to the penitentiary, if judgment against him be affirmed. [L. '93, p. 133, § 30.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 552; 7 Wash. 356; 26 Wash. 324; 30 Wash. 330; 56 Wash. 92.

§ 1746. Same — Date of Commencement of Sentence.—In the event no appeal be taken from the judgment of conviction of a felony, the term of sentence imposed upon such judgment shall commence to run from the date of the imposition thereof. In the event an appeal be taken from such judgment of conviction, and upon such appeal the judgment be affirmed, the term of sentence shall commence to run from the date upon which the remittitur shall be filed in the lower court. [L. '03, p. 39, § 1.]

§ 1747. In What Cases Bail Authorized.—In all criminal actions, except capital cases in which the proof of guilt is clear or the presumption great, upon an appeal being taken from a judgment of conviction, the court in which the judgment was rendered, or a judge thereof, must, by an order entered in the journal or filed with the clerk, fix and determine the amount of bail to be required of the appellant; and the appellant shall be committed until a bond to the state of Washington in the sum so fixed be executed on his behalf by at least two sureties possessing the qualifications required for sureties on appeal bonds by section 1725 of this title, such bond to be conditioned that the appellant shall appear whenever required, and stand to and abide by the judgment or orders of the appellate court, and any judgment and order of the superior court that may be rendered or made in pursuance thereof. If the appellant be already at large on bail, his sureties shall be liable to the amount of their bond, in the same manner and upon the same conditions as if they had executed the bond prescribed by this section; but the court may by order require a new bond in a larger amount or with new sureties, and may commit the appellant until the order be complied with. [L. '93, p. 133, § 31.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 552; 37 Wash. 259; 64 Wash. 141.

§ 1748. Personal Appearance not Necessary.—Personal appearance of any party in the supreme court shall not be necessary on appeal in either civil or criminal actions. In criminal actions the defendant shall be entitled to close the argument. [L. '93, p. 134, § 32.]

§ 1749. Proceedings in Case of Reversal in Criminal Cases.—When in a criminal action the judgment against the defendant is reversed and it appears that no offense whatever has been committed, the supreme court must direct that the defendant be discharged; but if it appear that the defendant is guilty of an offense, although defectively charged in the indictment or information, the supreme court, if the defendant is in prison, must direct the keeper of the place of confinement to cause the prisoner to be returned to the sheriff of the proper county, there to abide the order of the superior court thereof; and such keeper shall be entitled to the usual fees therefor. [L. '93, p. 134, § 33.]

Cited in 36 Wash. 445; 84 Wash. 120, 121.

§ 1750. Imprisonment Pending Appeal to be Deducted.—If a defendant who has been in prison during the pendency of an appeal, upon a new trial ordered by the supreme court, shall be again convicted, the period of his former imprisonment shall be deducted by the superior court from the period of imprisonment to be fixed on the last verdict of conviction. [L. '93, p. 134, § 34.]

§ 1751. Transcript of Judgment, Effect of.—A transcript of any order or judgment, or both, of the supreme court, certified under the seal of the court, shall be sufficient authority to any court, or to any officer on whom it may be served, to proceed according to its mandate. [L. '93, p. 134, § 35.]

§ 1752. Appeals to be Heard on Merits.—The supreme court shall hear and determine all causes removed thereto in the manner hereinbefore provided, upon the merits thereof, disregarding all technicalities, and shall upon the hearing consider all amendments which could have been made as made. [L. '93, p. 134, § 36.]

§ 1753. Rules and Regulations.—The supreme court is hereby authorized to make all needful rules and regulations not inconsistent with law concerning practice and procedure in cases appealed to the supreme court. [L. '93, p. 135, § 37.]

§ 1754. Method Herein Provided Exclusive.—The mode provided by this title for appealing cases to the supreme court, and for securing a revision of the same therein, shall be exclusive and shall supersede all other methods heretofore provided. But no rights acquired under statutes which are abrogated by this title shall be lost by reason of the passage of this title, and all appeals pending when this title takes effect may be prosecuted to their determination as if this title had not been passed. [L. '93, p. 135, § 38.]

CHAPTER I.

Commencement of Civil Actions in Justice's Court.

§ 1755. Civil Actions, How Commenced.—Civil actions in the several justices' courts of this state may be instituted either by the voluntary appearance and agreement of the parties, by the service of a summons, or by the service upon the defendant of a true copy of the complaint and notice, which notice shall be attached to the copy of the complaint, and cite the defendant to be and appear before the justice at the time and place therein specified, which shall not be less than six nor more than twenty days from the date of filing the complaint. [Cf. L. '60, p. 245; L. '73, p. 35, § 19; Cd. '81, § 1712; 2 H. C., § 1452.]

§ 1756. Venue of Actions—Precinct of Defendant's Residence.—All civil actions commenced in a justice court against a defendant or defendants residing in a city or town of more than three thousand inhabitants shall be brought in the justice court of the precinct in said city or town in which one or more of such defendants reside. [L. '99, p. 53, § 1; L. '01, p. 105, § 1.]

§ 1757. Jurisdiction—Coextensive With Limits of County.—The jurisdiction of justices of the peace in all civil actions, except as provided in the preceding section, shall be coextensive with the limits of the county in which they are elected or appointed, and no other or greater, but every justice of the peace shall continue to reside and perform all the duties of his office in the precinct for which he was elected or appointed during his continuance in office. [L. '01, p. 105, § 2.]

§ 1758. Action by Summons, How Commenced—Form, etc.—A party desiring to commence an action before a justice of the peace for the recovery of a debt by summons shall file his claim with the justice of the peace, verified by his own oath, or that of his agent or attorney; and thereupon the justice of the peace shall, on payment of his fees, if demanded, issue a summons to the opposite party, which summons shall be in the following form, or as nearly as the case will admit, viz.:—

The State of Washington, }
—— County, } ss.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of said County.

In the name of the state of Washington, you are hereby commanded to summon ——, if he (or they) be found in your county, to be and appear before me at —— on —— day of ——, at —— o'clock, P. M. (or A. M.), to answer the complaint of ——, for a failure to pay him a certain demand, amounting to —— dollars and —— cents, upon (here state briefly the nature of the claim); and of this writ make due service and return.

Given under my hand this —— day of ——, 19—.

—— ——, Justice of the Peace.

And the summons shall specify a certain place, day, and hour for the appearance and answer of the defendant, not less than six nor more than twenty days from the date of filing plaintiff's claim with the justice, which summons shall be served at least five days before the time of trial mentioned therein, and shall be served by the officer delivering to the defendant, or leaving at his place of abode, with some person over twelve years of age, a true copy of such summons, certified by the officer to be such. [Cf. L. '60, p. 243, § 29; L. '73, p. 335, § 20; Cd. '81, § 1713; 2 H. C., § 1453.]

§ 1759. Action by Complaint and Notice—Form.—Any person desiring to commence an action before a justice of the peace by the service of a complaint and notice can do so by filing his complaint, verified by his own oath or that of his agent or attorney, with the justice, and when such complaint is so filed, upon payment of his fees, if demanded, the justice shall attach thereto a notice, which shall be substantially as follows:—

The State of Washington, }
—— County, } ss.

To ——.

In the name of the state of Washington, you are hereby notified to be and appear at my office in ——, on the —— day of ——, 18—, at the hour of ——, — M., to answer the foregoing complaint, or judgment will be taken against you as confessed, and the prayer of the plaintiff granted.

Dated ——, 18—. —— ——, J. P.

[Cf. L. '60, p. 245, § 29; L. '73, p. 336, § 21; Cd. '81, § 1714; 2 H. C., § 1454.]

§ 1760. Service of Process by Constable or Sheriff.—All process in actions and proceedings in justice courts, having a salaried constable, when served by an officer, shall be served by such constable or by the sheriff of the county or his duly appointed deputy; and all fees for such service shall be paid into the county treasury. [L. '09, p. 433, § 1.]

§ 1761. How Served.—The complaint and notice shall be served at least five days before the time mentioned in the notice for the defendant to appear and answer the complaint, by delivering to the defendant, or leaving at his place of abode, with some person over twelve years of age, a true copy of the complaint and notice, certified by the officer or person making the service to be such. [L. '73, p. 337, § 22; Cd. '81, § 1715; 2 H. C., § 1455.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 12; 31 Wash. 362.

§ 1762. Style of Process.—All process issued by justices of the peace shall run in the name of the state of Washington, be dated the day issued and signed by the justice granting the same, and all executions and writs of attachment or of replevin shall be served by the sheriff or some constable of the county in which the justice resides, but a summons or notice and complaint may be served by any citizen of the state of Washington over the age of twenty-one years and not a party to the action. [L. '03, p. 18, § 1. Cf. L. '73, p. 337, § 23; Cd. '81, § 1716; 2 H. C., § 1456; L. '93, p. 264, § 1; L. '95, p. 95, § 1.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 597.

§ 1763. Return of Process.—Every constable or sheriff serving process or complaint and notice shall return in writing, the time, manner and place of service and indorse thereon the legal fees therefor and shall sign his name to such return, and any person other than one of said officers serving summons or complaint and notice shall file with the justice his affidavit, stating the time, place and manner of the service of such summons or notice and complaint: Provided, that no fee shall be allowed for the service of a summons or notice and complaint by a person other than an officer. [L. '03, p. 19, § 2. Cf. L. '54, p. 229, § 31; L. '60, p. 246, § 37; L. '73, p. 337,

§ 1764. Service by Person Appointed by Justice—Return.—Any justice may, by appointment in writing, authorize any person other than the parties to the proceeding, or action, to serve any subpoena, summons, or notice and complaint issued by such justice; and any such person making such service shall return on such process or paper, in writing, the time and manner of service, and shall sign his name to such return, and be entitled to like fees for making such service as a sheriff or constable, and shall indorse his fees for service thereon: Provided, it shall not be lawful for any justice to issue process or papers to any person but a regularly qualified sheriff or constable, in any precinct where such officers reside, unless from sickness or some other cause said sheriff or constable is not able to serve the same: Provided further, that it shall be lawful for notice and complaint or summons in a civil action in the justice court to be served by any person over the age of twenty-one years and not a party to the action in which the summons or notice and complaint shall be issued without previous appointment by the justice. [L. '03, p. 19, § 3. Cf. L. '73, p. 337, § 25; Cd. '81, § 1718; 2 H. C., § 1458.]

§ 1765. Proof of Service.—Proof of service in either of the above cases shall be as follows: When made by a constable or sheriff, his return signed by him and indorsed on the paper or process. When made by any person other than such officer, then by the affidavit of the person making the service. [L. 73, p. 337, § 26; Cd. '81, § 1719; 2 H. C., § 1459.]

§ 1766. Service by Publication—Form.—In case personal service cannot be had by reason of the absence of the defendant from the county in which the action is sought to be commenced, it shall be proper to publish the summons or notice, with a brief statement of the object and prayer of the claim or complaint, in some weekly newspaper published in the county wherein the action is commenced; or if there is no paper published in such county then in some newspaper published in the nearest adjoining county, which notice shall be published not less than once a week for three weeks prior to the time fixed for the hearing of the cause, which shall not be less than four weeks from the first publication of said notice. Said notice may be substantially as follows:—

The State of Washington,
County of ——, } ss.

In Justice's Court, —— Justice.

To ——.

In the name of the state of Washington, you are hereby notified that —— has filed a complaint (or claim, as the case may be) against you in said court, which will come on to be heard at my office in ——, in —— county, state of Washington, on the —— day of ——, A. D. 18—, at the hour of —— o'clock, — M., and unless you appear and then and there answer, the same will be taken as confessed, and the demand of the plaintiff granted. The object and demand of said claim (or complaint, as the case may be), is (here insert a brief statement).

Complaint filed ——, A. D. 18—. —— ——, J. P.

§ 1767. Proof of Service by Publication.—Proof of service, in case of publication, shall be the affidavit of the publisher, printer, foreman, or principal clerk, showing the same. [L. '73, p. 338, § 28; Cd. '81, § 1721; 2 H. C., § 1461.]

§ 1768. Written Admission Equivalent to Proof of Service.—The written admission of the defendant, his agent or attorney, indorsed upon any summons, complaint, and notice, or other paper, shall be complete proof of service in any case. [L. '73, p. 338, § 29; Cd. '81, § 1722; 2 H. C., § 1462.]

§ 1769. Jurisdiction, When Acquired.—The court shall be deemed to have obtained possession of the case from the time the complaint or claim is filed, after completion of service, whether by publication or otherwise, and shall have control of all subsequent proceedings. [L. '73, p. 338, § 30; Cd. '81, § 1723; 2 H. C., § 1463.]

See notes to § 44, supra, jurisdiction of justices.

§ 1770. Justice's Docket, Entries in.—Every justice of the peace shall keep a docket in a well-bound book, in which he shall enter,—

1. The title of all actions commenced before him;
2. The object of the action or proceeding, and if a sum of money be claimed, the amount of the demand;
3. The date of the notice and the time of its return; and if an order to arrest the defendant be made, the statement of the facts on which the order is issued;
4. The time when the parties, or either of them, appear, or their nonappearance, if default be made;
5. A brief statement of the nature of the plaintiff's demand, and the amount claimed; and if any setoff be pleaded, a similar statement of the setoff and the amount estimated, and every motion, rule, order, and exception, with the decision of the court thereon;

6. Every continuance, stating at whose request, and for what time;

7. The demand for a trial by jury, when the same is made, and by whom made, the order for the jury, and the time appointed for the trial and return of the jury;

8. The names of the jury who appear and are sworn; the names of witnesses sworn, and at whose request;

9. The verdict of the jury, and when received; and if the jury disagree and are discharged, the fact of such disagreement and discharge;

10. The judgment of the court, and the time when rendered;

11. The time of issuing execution, and the name of the officer to whom delivered, and an account of the debt and costs, and the fees due to each person separately;

12. The fact of an appeal having been made and allowed, and the time when;

13. Satisfaction of the judgment, or any money paid thereon, and the time when;

14. And such other entries as may be material. [Cf. L. '54, p. 227, § 25; L. '73, p. 339, § 31; Cd. '81, § 1724; 2 H. C., § 1464.]

Cited in 74 Wash. 479.

§ 1771. Infant to Sue by Guardian or Next Friend.—No action shall be commenced by an infant plaintiff, except by his guardian or until a next friend for such infant shall have been appointed. Whenever requested, the justice shall appoint some suitable person, who shall consent thereto in writing, to be named by such plaintiff, to act as his next friend in such action, who shall be responsible for the costs therein. [L. '54, p. 230, § 40; Cd. '81, § 1753; 2 H. C., § 1465.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 165.

§ 1772. Appointment of Guardian ad Litem.—After service and return of process against an infant defendant, the action shall not be further prosecuted until a guardian for such infant shall have been appointed. Upon the request of such defendant, the justice shall appoint some person, who shall consent thereto in writing, to be guardian of the defendant in defense of the action; and if the defendant shall not appear on the return day of the process, or if he neglect or refuse to nominate such guardian, the justice may, at the request of the plaintiff, appoint any discreet person as such guardian. The consent of the guardian or next friend shall be filed with the justice; and such guardian for the defendant shall not be liable for any costs in the action. [L. '54, p. 230, § 41; Cd. '81, § 1754; 2 H. C., § 1466.]

§ 1773. Time for Appearance.—The parties shall be entitled to one hour in which to make their appearance after the time mentioned in the summons or notice for appearance, but shall not be required to remain longer than that time, unless both parties appear, and the justice, being present, is actually engaged in the trial of another action or proceeding; in such case he may postpone the time of appearance until the close of such trial. [L. '54, p. 230, § 42; Cd. '81, § 1755; 2 H. C., § 1467.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 509.

§ 1774. Change of Venue.—If, previous to the commencement of any trial before a justice of the peace, the defendant, his attorney or agent, shall make and file with the justice an affidavit that the deponent believes that the defendant cannot have an impartial trial before such justice, it shall be the duty of the justice to forthwith transmit all papers and documents belonging to the case to the next nearest justice of the peace in the same county, who is not of kin to either party, sick, absent from the county, or interested in the result of the action, either as counsel or otherwise. The justice to whom such papers and documents are so transmitted shall proceed as if the suit had been instituted before him. Distance, as contemplated by this section, shall mean to be by the nearest traveled route. The costs of such change of venue shall abide the result of the suit. [Cf. L. 67, p. 88, §§ 2, 3; L. '81, p. 8, §§ 2, 3; Cd. '81, § 1938; 2 H. C., § 1468.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 573; 60 Wash. 240; 86 Wash. 200.

§ 1775. Change of Venue as in Superior Court.—Change of venue may be allowed for the same causes for which they are allowed in the superior court. [Cf. L. '60, p. 252, § 68; L. '63, p. 369, § 162; Cd. '81, § 1881.]

§ 1776. Penalty for False Return.—If any officer, without showing good cause therefor, fail to execute any process to him delivered, and make due return thereof, or make a false return, such officer, for every such offense, shall pay to the party injured ten dollars, and all damages such party may have sustained by reason thereof, to be recovered in a civil action. [Cf. L. '54, p. 230, § 39; L. '73, p. 343, § 51; Cd. '81, § 1752; 2 H. C., § 1469.]

§ 1777. Security of Nonresident for Costs.—Whenever the plaintiff is a nonresident of the county, the justice may require of him security for the costs in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars at the time of the commencement of the action: Provided, however, that after an action has been commenced by an nonresident plaintiff and no security given for costs, the defendant may require such security by motion; when allowed all proceedings shall be stayed until such security has been given. [L. '05, p. 27, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 228, § 27; Cd. '81, § 1725; 2 H. C., § 1470.]

CHAPTER II.

Pleadings in Civil Actions in Justice's Court.

§ 1778. Pleadings, When to Take Place.—The pleadings in justice's court shall take place upon the appearance of the parties, unless they shall have been previously filed, or unless the justice shall, for good cause shown, allow a longer time than the time of appearance. [L. '54, p. 231, § 43; Cd. '81, § 1756; 2 H. C., § 1471.]

§ 1779. Pleadings, What Constitute.—The pleadings in the justice's court shall be,—

1. The complaint of the plaintiff, which shall state in a plain and direct manner the facts constituting the cause of action;

2. The answer of the defendant, which may contain a denial of the complaint, or any part thereof, and also a statement, in a plain and direct manner, of any facts constituting a defense;

3. When the answer sets up a setoff by way of defense, the reply of the plaintiff. [L. '54, p. 231, § 44; Cd. '81, § 1757; 2 H. C., § 1472.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 136, 510.

§ 1780. Pleadings may be Oral or Written.—The pleadings in justices' courts may be oral or in writing. [L. '54, p. 231, § 45; Cd. '81, § 1758; 2 H. C., § 1473.]

§ 1781. Pleadings Docketed or Filed—Form Immaterial.—When the pleadings are oral, the substance of them shall be entered by the justice in his docket. When in writing, they shall be filed in his office, and a reference made to them in his docket. Pleadings shall not be required to be in any particular form, but shall be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. [L. '54, p. 231, § 46; Cd. '81, § 1759; 2 H. C., § 1474.]

§ 1782. Denial of Knowledge or Information.—A statement, in an answer or reply, that the party has not sufficient knowledge or information in respect to a particular allegation in the previous pleadings of the adverse party to form a belief shall be deemed equivalent to a denial. [L. '54, p. 231, § 47; Cd. '81, § 1760; 2 H. C., § 1475.]

§ 1783. Pleading Account or Instrument.—When the cause of action or setoff arises upon an account or instrument for the payment of money only, it shall be sufficient for the party to deliver the account or instrument, or a copy thereof, to the court, and to state that there is due to him thereon, from the adverse party, a specified sum, which he claims to recover or set off. The court may, at the time of pleading, require that the original account or instrument be exhibited to the inspection of the adverse party, with liberty to copy the same; or if not so exhibited, may prohibit its being given in evidence. [L. '54, p. 231, § 48; Cd. '81, § 1761; 2 H. C., § 1476.]

§ 1784. Pleadings to be Verified.—Every complaint, answer, or reply shall be verified by the oath of the party pleading; or if he be not present, by the oath of his attorney or agent, to the effect that he believes it to be true. The verification shall be oral or in writing, in conformity with the pleading verified. [L. '54, p. 232, § 49; Cd. '81, § 1762; 2 H. C., § 1477.]

§ 1785. Uncontroverted Allegations Deemed Admitted. — Every material allegation in a complaint, or relating to a setoff in an answer, not denied by the pleading of the adverse party, shall, on the trial, be taken to be true, except that when a defendant who has not been served with a copy of the complaint fails to appear and answer, the plaintiff cannot recover without proving his case. [L. '54, p. 232, § 50; Cd. '81, § 1763; 2 H. C., § 1478.]

§ 1786. Objections to Pleading, Amendment.—Either party may object to a pleading by his adversary, or to any part thereof, that is not sufficiently explicit for him to understand it, or that it contains no cause of action or defense, although it be taken as true. If the court deem the objection well founded, it shall order the pleading to be amended; and if the party refuse to amend, the defective pleading shall be disregarded. [L. '54, p. 232, § 51; Cd. '81, § 1764; 2 H. C., § 1479.]

§ 1787. Variance Immaterial, When. — A variance between the proof on the trial and the allegations in a pleading shall be disregarded as immaterial, unless the court be satisfied that the adverse party has been misled to his prejudice thereby. [L. '54, p. 232, § 52; Cd. '81, § 1765; 2 H. C., § 1480.]

§ 1788. Amendments.—The pleadings may be amended at any time before the trial, or during the trial, or upon appeal, to supply any deficiency or omissions in the allegations or denials necessary to support the action or defense, when by such amendment substantial justice will be promoted. If the amendment be made after the issue, and it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that a continuance is necessary to the adverse party in consequence of such amendment, a continuance shall be granted. The court may also, in its discretion, require as a condition of an amendment the payment of costs to the adverse party. [L. '54, p. 232, § 53; Cd. '81, § 1766; 2 H. C., § 1481.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 709.

§ 1789. Setoff, How Pleaded.—To entitle a defendant to any setoff he may have against the plaintiff, he must allege the same in his answer; and the statutes regulating setoffs in the superior court shall in all respects be applicable to a setoff in a justice's court, if the amount claimed to be set off, after deducting the amount [found] due the plaintiff, be within the jurisdiction of the justice of the peace; judgment may, in like manner, be rendered by the justice, in favor of the defendant, for the balance found due the plaintiff. [L. '54, p. 232, § 54; Cd. '81, § 1767; 2 H. C., § 1482.]

See infra, § 1861, action when setoff exceeds jurisdiction.
See infra, § 1873, setoff of mutual judgments.

CHAPTER III.

Arrest and Bail in Justice's Court.

§ 1790. Warrant may Issue, When.—A justice of the peace shall issue a warrant of arrest in all such cases within his jurisdiction, and for such causes and upon such proof, as is provided for an order for a warrant in chapter VII of title 5, regulating civil actions. [L. '54, p. 229, § 32; Cd. '81, § 1746; 2 H. C., § 1484.]

Cited in 81 Wash. 397.

§ 1791. Bond for Warrant.—Before issuing the warrant of arrest, the justice shall require a bond on part of the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which may be sustained by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the bond, which shall be at least one hundred dollars. [L. '54, p. 229, § 33; Cd. '81, § 1747; 2 H. C., § 1485.]

§ 1792. Warrant, How Served.—The warrant shall be served by arresting the defendant, and taking him before the justice of the peace who issued the same; but if such justice, at the return thereof, be absent or unable to try the action, the officer shall immediately take the defendant to the nearest justice of the same county, who shall take cognizance of the action, and proceed thereon as if the warrant had been issued by himself. [L. '54, p. 229, § 34; Cd. '81, § 1748; 2 H. C., § 1486.]

§ 1793. Notice of Arrest to Plaintiff, etc.—The officer making the arrest shall immediately give notice to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, and indorse on the warrant the time of the arrest and the time of serving notice on the plaintiff. [L. '54, p. 229, § 35; Cd. '81, § 1749; 2 H. C., § 1487.]

§ 1794. Detention not to Exceed Twenty-four Hours.—When a defendant is brought before a justice on a warrant, he shall be detained in the custody of the officer until he shall be discharged according to law; but in no case shall the defendant be detained longer than twenty-four hours from the time he shall be brought before the justice, unless within that time the trial of the action shall be commenced, or unless it has been delayed at the instance of the defendant. [L. '54, p. 229, § 36; Cd. '81, § 1750; 2 H. C., § 1488.]

§ 1795. Continuance—Bond.—If the defendant, on his appearance, demand a continuance, the same may be granted on condition that he remain in custody or execute and file with the justice a bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, to the effect that he will render himself amenable to the process of the court, or that the sureties will pay to plaintiff the amount of any judgment which he may recover in the action. On filing such bond, the justice shall order the defendant to be discharged from custody. [L. '54, p. 229, § 37; Cd. '81, § 1751; 2 H. C., § 1489.]

CHAPTER IV.

Replevin in Justice's Court.

§ 1796. Plaintiff may Claim Immediate Delivery.—The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property may, at the time of issuing such summons, or at any time before answer, claim the immediate delivery of such property as provided in this chapter. [L. '54, p. 242, § 109; Cd. '81, § 1809; 2 H. C., § 1490.]

See infra, § 1888, claim by third person of property levied upon.

§ 1797. Affidavit Where Delivery Claimed, Contents of.—When a delivery is claimed, an affidavit shall be made by the plaintiff, or by someone in his behalf, showing,—

1. That the plaintiff is the owner of the property claimed (particularly describing it), or is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof by virtue of a special property therein, the facts in respect to which shall be set forth;

2. That the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant;

3. The alleged cause of the detention thereof, according to his best knowledge, information, and belief;

4. That the same has not been taken for a tax, assessment, or fine, pursuant to a statute, or seized under an execution or attachment against the property of the plaintiff, or if so seized, that it is by statute exempt from such seizure; and

5. The actual value of the property. [L. '54, p. 242, § 110; Cd. '81, § 1810; 2 H. C., § 1491.]

§ 1798. Order for Delivery.—The justice shall thereon, by an indorsement in writing upon the affidavit, order the sheriff or any constable of the county to take the same from the defendant and deliver it to the plaintiff upon receiving a proper bond. [L. '54, p. 243, § 111; Cd. '81, § 1811; 2 H. C., § 1492.]

§ 1799. Execution of Order — Bond. — Upon the receipt of the affidavit and order, with a bond, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, approved by the sheriff or constable, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, the sheriff or constable shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit, order, and bond, by delivering the same to him personally if he can be found within the county, or to his agent from whose possession the property is taken, or if neither can be found in the county, by leaving them at the usual abode of either within the county, with some person of suitable age and discretion; or if neither have any known place of abode in the county by putting them into the post-office, directed to the defendant at the postoffice nearest to him. [L. '54, p. 243, § 112; Cd. '81, § 1810; 2 H. C., § 1493.]

§ 1800. Exceptions to Sureties.—The defendant may, within two days after the service of a copy of the affidavit, order, and bond, give notice to the officer that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fail to do so, he shall be deemed to have waived all objection to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties shall justify upon one day's notice before the justice; and the officer shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties until the objection to them is either waived, as above provided, or until they justify, or new sureties be substituted, and they justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he cannot reclaim the property as provided in the next section. [L. '54, p. 243, § 113; Cd. '81, § 1813; 2 H. C., § 1494.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 544.

§ 1801. Return of Property on Giving Bond, etc.—At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof upon giving to the officer a bond, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required within two days after the taking and serving of notice to the defendant, it shall be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in this chapter. [L. '54, p. 243, § 114; Cd. '81, § 1814; 2 H. C., § 1495.]

§ 1802. Justification of Sureties.—The defendant's sureties, upon one day's notice to the plaintiff or his attorney, shall justify before the justice, and upon such justification the officer shall deliver the property to the defendant. The officer shall be responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify, or until the justification is complete or expressly waived, and may retain the property until that time; but if they, or others in their place, fail to justify at the time appointed, he shall deliver the property to the plaintiff. [L. '54, p. 244, § 115; Cd. '81, § 1815; 2 H. C., § 1496.]

§ 1803. Officer may Break Open Building or Inclosure.—If the property, or any part thereof, be concealed in a building or inclosure, the officer shall publicly demand its delivery; and if it be not delivered, he shall cause the building or inclosure to be broken open and take the property into his possession. [L. '54, p. 244, § 116; Cd. '81, § 1816; 2 H. C., § 1497.]

§ 1804. Officer to Keep and Deliver Property.—When the officer shall have taken property as in this chapter provided, he shall keep it in a secure place, and deliver [it] to the party entitled thereto, upon receiving his lawful fees for taking and his necessary expenses for keeping the same. [L. '54, p. 244, § 117; Cd. '81, § 1817; 2 H. C., § 1498.]

Cited in 49 Wash. 300.

§ 1805. Proceedings Where Property Claimed by Third Party.—If the property taken be claimed by any other person than the defendant or his agent, and such person make affidavit of his title thereto, or his right to the possession thereof, stating the ground of such title or right, and serve the same upon the officer before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the sheriff shall not be bound to keep the property or deliver it to the plaintiff, unless the plaintiff, on demand of him or his agent, indemnify the officer against such claim by a bond executed by two sufficient sureties, accompanied by their affidavits that they are each worth double the value of the property, as specified in the affidavit of the plaintiff, over and above their debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and freeholders or householders of the county; and no claim to such property by any other person than the defendant or his agent shall be valid against the officer, unless made as aforesaid, and notwithstanding such claim, when so made, he may retain the property a reasonable time to demand such indemnity. [L. '54, p. 244, § 118; Cd. '81, § 1818; 2 H. C., § 1499.]

§ 1806. Return of Order and Affidavit.—The officer shall return the order and affidavit with his proceedings thereon to the justice within five days after taking the property mentioned therein. [L. '54, p. 244, § 119; Cd. '81, § 1819; 2 H. C., § 1500.]

CHAPTER V.

Garnishee Process by Officers.

§ 1807. Affidavit for Garnishment.—Whenever any action shall have been commenced by summons upon contract express or implied, or notice and complaint in a justice's court, if the plaintiff, or someone in his behalf, shall make and deliver to the officer having such summons, or notice and complaint, an affidavit stating that the affiant has good reason to believe that some person (naming him) is indebted to the defendant, or has personal property in his possession or under his control belonging to the defendant, or when there is more than one defendant, to any or either of them, not by law exempt from sale on execution, and demand that he shall summon such person as garnishee, such officer shall summon such person in writing to appear before the justice on the return day of such summons, or notice and complaint, to answer touching his liability as garnishee. [L. '88, p. 101, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1501.]

Writ of garnishment by justice: See § 1823, infra, and note.
See infra, § 1886, garnishment on execution.

§ 1808. Garnishee Summons.—The summons to the garnishee may be substantially as follows:—

The State of Washington,) —— County,) ss.

The State of Washington to ——.

Whereas, a summons or notice and complaint has been issued by ——, a justice of the peace of said county, returnable on the —— day of ——, A. D. 18—, in favor of ——, plaintiff, and against ——, defendant; and whereas, the plaintiff (or A B in his behalf) has made oath that you have property in your possession or under your control belonging to the defendant (or are indebted to him), now, therefore, you are hereby summoned to be and appear before the said justice at his office in said county on the return day of said summons (or notice and complaint), at —— o'clock in the —— noon of said day, then and there to answer under oath, touching your liability as garnishee.

Given under my hand this —— day of ——, 18—.

—— ——, Constable or Sheriff.

§ 1809. Service of.—The officer shall serve such summons on the garnishee personally, and return the same, with the affidavit, to the justice at the same time that he shall make return of the service of the summons or notice and complaint, and state the day such summons was served on the garnishee. [L. '88, p. 102, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1503.]

§ 1811. Liability of Garnishee.—The garnishee, from the time of the service of such summons, shall stand liable to the plaintiff to the amount of the personal property, money, credits, and effects in his hands or under his control belonging to the defendant, and the amount of his own indebtedness to the defendant, then due or to become due, and not by law exempt from sale on execution. [L. '88, p. 102, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1505.]

§ 1812. Garnishee Action — When Deemed Commenced. — The service of the garnishee summons shall be deemed the commencement of an action against such garnishee; and upon the return of the constable that such summons has been duly served, the justice shall enter an action in his docket in which the plaintiff in the original action shall be plaintiff and the garnishee defendant. [L. '88, p. 102, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1506.]

§ 1813. Examination of Garnishee.—On the appearance of the garnishee before the justice, the affidavit aforesaid shall be deemed a sufficient complaint in this action, and the justice shall forthwith proceed to examine the said garnishee and his witnesses touching the matters alleged in the affidavit, and shall reduce the answers of said garnishee and his witnesses to writing, and file the same with the papers in the case; such examination may be adjourned by said garnishee as in case of adjournment in justice court in civil actions: Provided, that in lieu of the personal appearance of the garnishee and his examination by the justice, the garnishee may answer the affidavit and writ, in writing, in which case the answer shall be in writing, signed and verified by the garnishee, and make true answer to the several matters set up in the affidavit and such answer shall be filed with the justice of the peace, within the time required by the writ for the garnishee to appear. [L. '88, p. 103, § 7; 2 H. C., § 1507; L. '03, p. 82, § 2.]

§ 1814. Trial, When.—If the plaintiff shall not be satisfied with the answers of the garnishee, or if either party shall desire a trial, the justice shall enter the fact in his docket, and the case shall be proceeded with and tried upon the issue formed by the affidavit and answer, as in other actions commenced by summons; and if, upon the trial of any such issue, property or effects shall be found in the hands of the garnishee, or it shall appear that such garnishee was indebted to the defendant, the justice or jury shall assess the value thereof, and the garnishee may hold the same subject to the further order of the justice. [L. '88, p. 103, § 8; 2 H. C., § 1508.]

§ 1815. Defendant may Participate in Trial.—The defendant in the original action may appear and defend the proceedings against the garnishee, upon the ground that the indebtedness of the garnishee, or any property held by him, is exempt from execution against such defendant, or for any other reason is not liable to garnishment, or upon any grounds upon which a garnishee might defend the same, and may participate in the trial of any issue between the plaintiff and the garnishee for the protection of his interests. [L. '88, p. 103, § 9; 2 H. C., § 1509.]

§ 1816. Costs.—If, in the action instituted against the garnishee, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited or discontinue his action; or if, upon the answer and trial of the issue between the plaintiff and garnishee, no property or effects shall be found in the hands of the garnishee, or nothing shall be found due from the garnishee to the defendant; or if, in the action against the principal defendant, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited or discontinue his action; or if, on the trial in such action, nothing shall be found due from the defendant to the plaintiff,—then in each of these cases the garnishee shall recover costs against the plaintiff, and no such costs shall be paid by the defendant. [L. '88, p. 103, § 10; 2 H. C., § 1510.]

§ 1817. Judgment Against Garnishee.—If the plaintiff recover against the defendant in the original action, and the answer of the garnishee, when no issue is made thereon, or the finding of the court or jury on an issue, show the garnishee, at the time of the service of the summons, had property in his possession belonging to the defendant, or that he was indebted to him, the justice shall enter an order in his docket requiring the garnishee, within ten days, to pay or deliver to the justice such property or the amount of such indebtedness, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such judgment, with costs thereof, and the costs of the garnishee proceedings; or if it appears, from such answer or finding, that the garnishee is to pay or deliver to the defendant any money or property in any other manner or at any other time than immediately, and at the time of service of the summons, the same belonging to the defendant, then the order of the justice shall be that such payment or delivery be so made to the justice for the benefit of the plaintiff. If such garnishee shall pay such indebtedness, and deliver such property as directed by such order, the costs of the garnishee shall be paid out of the money or property received by the justice, unless the garnishee, upon an issue joined with him by the plaintiff, shall have been held liable in a greater amount of property or indebtedness than was disclosed in his answer, in which case he shall not have costs. And all property and effects, except money, delivered to the justice shall be by him ordered to be sold on the execution against the defendant. [L. '88, p. 103, § 11; 2 H. C., § 1511.]

§ 1818. Costs Against Garnishee.—If the garnishee do not deliver over the property or pay the money so found in his hands and belonging to the defendant, as provided in the preceding section, then judgment shall be given against him for the value of such property or money, and costs of suit in the cause in which he is garnishee, and no such costs shall be paid by the defendant. [L. '88, p. 104, § 12; 2 H. C., § 1512.]

§ 1819. Final Judgment—Negotiable Instrument.—No final judgment shall be rendered against the garnishee until final judgment be rendered against the defendant in the original action; but no judgment shall be rendered against a garnishee, or any money be required to be delivered by him to the justice, upon any liability arising out of a debt due [evidenced] by negotiable paper, unless such paper is delivered or the garnishee completely exonerated or indemnified from all liability thereon after he may have satisfied the judgment. [L. '88, p. 104, § 13; 2 H. C., § 1513.]

§ 1820. Default, etc., by Garnishee.—When a garnishee shall fail to appear, or, appearing, shall fail to make full answers upon oath to the interrogatories of the justice touching his liabilities as garnishee, the justice shall enter such fact in his docket, and he shall be adjudged to be indebted to the defendant; and if judgment shall be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, against the defendant, judgment in favor of the plaintiff shall be entered against such garnishee for the amount of the judgment against the defendant, and for all costs in the garnishee proceedings, and no such costs shall be paid by the defendant. The justice may continue the cause to some other day, if necessary for further proceedings. [L. '88, p. 104, § 14; 2 H. C., § 1514.]

§ 1821. Appearance After Default.—If the garnishee shall have failed to appear at the proper time, he may afterward appear and answer at any time before final judgment against him, if he shall first pay all costs in the garnishee suit which have accrued up to that time; and when he shall so appear, the justice shall cause the plaintiff to be notified thereof, so that he may be present at the examination. [L. '88, p. 105, § 15; 2 H. C., § 1515.]

§ 1822. Judgment in Bar.—In all actions brought by the defendant against the garnishee for the recovery of any property, credits, money, or effects delivered up or paid by order of any judgment rendered under this chapter, except costs rendered against the garnishee, such judgment may be pleaded in bar, and the same shall be conclusive between such parties. [L. '88, p. 105, § 16; 2 H. C., § 1516.]

CHAPTER VI.

Writs of Garnishment by Justices.

§ 1823. Writ of Garnishment—When may Issue.—The justices of the peace in the various precincts in this state may issue writs of garnishment, returnable to their respective courts, where the plaintiff sues for a debt which is just, due and unpaid; or where the plaintiff has a judgment wholly or partially unsatisfied in the court from which he seeks to have the writ of garnishment issued. [L. '11, p. 637, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 607, § 1.]

§ 1824. Affidavit for Garnishment—Requisites.—Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment, the plaintiff or someone in his behalf, shall make application therefor by affidavit, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ, and that he has reason to believe and does believe that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant or that he has in his possession or under his control personal property or effects belonging to the defendant, or that the garnishee is a corporation and that the defendant is the owner of shares of the capital stock thereof, and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee. [L. '11, p. 637, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 608, § 2.]

§ 1825. Issuance of Writ—Contents.—When the foregoing requisites have been complied with, the justice of the peace shall, without additional fee, docket the case in the name of the plaintiff, as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant, and shall immediately issue a writ of garnishment, directed to the garnishee commanding him to appear before the justice who issues the writ, at a certain place, day and hour, which shall not be less than six nor more than twenty days from the date of the issuance of the writ, to answer on oath in what amount, if any, he was indebted to the defendant when such writ was served upon him, and what personal property or affects, if any, of the defendant he had in his possession or under his control when such writ was served upon him; and where it appears from the affidavit for the writ that the garnishee is a corporation in which the defendant is the owner of shares, the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer what number of shares, if any, the defendant owned in such corporation when such writ was served upon it. The writ of garnishment shall be served at least five days before the time for answer mentioned therein. [L. '11, p. 637, § 3. Cf. L. '09, p. 608, § 3.]

§ 1826. Form for Writ.—Said writ shall be substantially in the following form:—

The State of Washington, to —— Greeting:

Whereas, in the justice court in and for —— precinct, —— county, state of Washington, before ——, justice of the peace, in a certain cause wherein —— is plaintiff and —— is defendant, the plaintiff claiming an indebtedness (or having a judgment, as the case may be) against the said —— of —— dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, has applied for a writ of garnishment against you:

Now, therefore, you are hereby commanded to be and appear before the said justice at his office —— in said county, on the —— day of ——, 19—, at —— o'clock in the —— noon of said day, then and there to answer upon oath in what amount, if any, you were indebted to the said —— when this writ was served upon you, and what personal property or effects, if any, of the said —— you had in your possession or under your control when this writ was served upon you (and if the garnishee be a corporation in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, then the writ shall proceed: And further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said —— owned in ——, a corporation, when this writ was served upon you).

Dated this —— day of ——, 19—.

—— ——,

Justice of the Peace.

§ 1827. How Issued.—The writ of garnishment shall be dated and signed by the justice of the peace, and the name and office address of the attorney for the plaintiff shall be indorsed thereon, or in case the plaintiff has no attorney, then the name and address of the plaintiff shall be indorsed thereon. The writ, when so issued and indorsed, shall be delivered by the justice of the peace who issues it to the party applying therefor, or to his attorney. [L. '09, p. 609, § 5.]

§ 1828. Service of Writ.—The writ of garnishment may be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the garnishee lives, or it may be served by any citizen of the state of Washington over the age of twenty-one years and not a party to the action in which it is issued, in the same manner as a summons in an action is served. And in case such writ is served by an officer, such officer shall make his return thereon, showing the time, place and manner of service and noting thereon his fees for making such service and shall sign his name to such return. In case such service is made by any person other than an officer, such person shall attach to the original writ his affidavit showing his qualifications to make such service and the time, place and manner of making service, but no fee shall be allowed for the service of such writ unless the same is served by an officer. [L. '09, p. 609, § 6.]

Cited in 73 Wash. 504.

§ 1829. Service upon Bank as Garnishee.—In cases where the writ of garnishment issued under the provisions of this act is directed to a corporation carrying on a general banking business in the state of Washington, the plaintiff, in addition to serving the writ of garnishment upon said garnishee, shall at the same time and as a part of said service deliver to said garnishee a statement in writing signed by the plaintiff or his attorney, stating the place of residence of the defendant and his business, occupation, trade or profession, and unless such statement is so delivered with said writ of garnishment, the service of said writ shall not be deemed complete and the garnishee shall not be held liable thereon. [L. '09, p. 610, § 7.]

§ 1830. Effect of Service—Payment of Debt.—From and after the service of such writ of garnishment, it shall not be lawful for the garnishee to pay to the defendant any debt owing to him at the time of such service, or to deliver to him any personal property or effects belonging to the defendant in his possession or under his control at the time of such service, nor shall the garnishee, if it be a corporation in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of any shares owned by said defendant at the time of such service; and any such payment, delivery, sale or transfer shall be void and of no effect as to so much of said debt, personal property or effects or shares as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand. [L. '09, p. 610, § 8.]

§ 1831. Bond to Release Garnishee.—If the defendant in the principal action causes a bond to be executed to the plaintiff, with sureties, to be approved by the justice of the peace issuing the writ, conditioned that he will pay any judgment that may be rendered against him in favor of the plaintiff in said action, and shall file said bond with said justice of the peace, the writ of garnishment shall, upon the filing and approval of said bond, be immediately discharged, and all proceedings had thereunder shall be vacated and said justice shall issue and deliver to said defendant a certificate to the effect that said writ of garnishment has been discharged, and upon the delivery of said certificate to the garnishee he shall be discharged of any further liability under said writ: Provided, that the garnishee shall not be thereby deprived from recovery of costs in said proceeding to which he would otherwise be entitled under this act. [L. '09, p. 610, § 9.]

§ 1832. Answer of Garnishee.—The answer of the garnishee shall be in writing and signed and verified as other pleadings and shall make true answers to the several matters inquired of in the writ of garnishment and shall be served upon the plaintiff or his attorney and filed with the justice of the peace who issued said writ. [L. '09, p. 611, § 10.]

§ 1833. Discharge of Garnishee.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee that he was not indebted to the defendant when the writ of garnishment was served upon him and that he had not in his possession or under his control any personal property or effects of the defendant when the writ was served; and when the garnishee is a corporation in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares of stock, if it shall further appear from such answer that the defendant was not the owner of any such shares when the writ was served, and should the answer of the garnishee not be controverted as hereinafter provided, the court shall enter judgment discharging the garnishee. [L. '09, p. 611, § 11.]

§ 1834. Default of Garnishee—Judgment—Dismissal of Action.—Should the garnishee fail to answer the writ by the time prescribed therein, the court shall, upon application of the plaintiff therefor, declare and enter the default of the garnishee and shall thereafter render judgment as follows:

In case the plaintiff has a judgment against the defendant, judgment shall be rendered against the garnishee for the full amount of such judgment with all accruing interest and costs.

In case judgment has not been rendered in the principal action at the time when the default of the garnishee is declared and entered, final judgment shall not be rendered against the garnishee until the final judgment in the principal action is entered; and if the plaintiff recovers judgment against the defendant, the court shall enter judgment against the garnishee for the full amount of the judgment awarded to the plaintiff against the defendant; but if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against the defendant, the garnishee shall be discharged without costs. [L. '11, p. 639, § 5. Cf. L. '09, p. 611, § 12.]

§ 1835. Judgment Against Garnishee—Satisfaction. — Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee, or should it be otherwise made to appear as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant in any amount when the writ of garnishment was served upon him, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against such garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due from the garnishee, less the amount of the costs awarded to the garnishee, unless the amount so admitted or found to be due shall exceed the amount of the judgment rendered or thereafter rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, with interest and costs, in which case it shall be for the amount of such judgment rendered or thereafter to be rendered, with interest and costs: Provided, however, that judgment shall not be rendered against the garnishee until the final judgment in the principal action is entered, and if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against the defendant the garnishee shall be discharged and shall have and recover his costs against plaintiff: Provided, however, if it shall appear from the answer of the garnishee and the same is not controverted, or if it shall appear from the trial hereinafter provided for that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant in any sum at the time of the service of said writ, but that said indebtedness is not matured and is not due and payable, the court shall make an order requiring the garnishee to pay such sum into court when the same becomes due, less the amount of the costs awarded to the garnishee, the date when such payment is to be made to be specified in said order, and in default thereof that judgment shall be entered against the garnishee for the amount of such indebtedness so admitted or found to be due. In case the garnishee shall pay said sum at the time specified in said order, said payment shall operate as a discharge; otherwise judgment shall be entered against him as above provided: Provided further, that if judgment shall be rendered in favor of the principal defendant, or if any judgment rendered against him shall be satisfied prior to the date of payment specified in said order, the garnishee shall not be required to make the payment hereinbefore provided for, nor shall any judgment in such case be against him. [L. '09, p. 612, § 13.]

§ 1836. Execution Against Garnishee.—Execution may be issued on the judgment against the garnishee herein provided for in like manner as upon any other judgment. The amount made upon any such execution shall be paid by the officer executing the same to the justice of the peace from whom such execution was issued, and shall be applied to the satisfaction of such judgment, interest and costs, and also to the satisfaction of the judgment against the defendant, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the garnishee. [L. '09, p. 613, § 14.]

§ 1837. Garnishee in Possession of Property—Surrender—Custody.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee, or should it be made otherwise to appear, as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee had in his possession or under his control when the writ was served upon him, any personal property or effects of the defendant liable to execution, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the justice on demand, such personal property or effects, or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. In cases where a judgment has been rendered in the principal action, such personal property or effects may be sold in like manner as other property is sold upon execution on a judgment. In cases where judgment has not been rendered in the principal action, the justice of the peace shall retain such personal property or effects in his possession until the rendition of the judgment therein, and in case judgment is entered in such principal action in favor of the plaintiff, said goods, or effects, or sufficient of them to satisfy said judgment, may be sold in like manner as other property is sold upon an execution issued on a judgment. In case judgment shall be rendered in such action against the plaintiff and in favor of the defendant, such effects and personal property shall be by the justice returned to the defendant. [L. '09, p. 613, § 15.]

§ 1838. Attachment for Contempt.—Should the garnishee adjudged to have effects or personal property of the defendant in his possession or under his control, as provided in the preceding section, fail or refuse to deliver them to the justice on such demand, the garnishee shall, on motion of the plaintiff, be cited to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt of court for such failure or refusal, and should the garnishee fail to show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure and refusal he shall be fined for such contempt and imprisoned until he shall deliver such personal property or effects. [L. '09, p. 614, § 16.]

§ 1839. Corporation Garnishee—Shares of Stock Sold.—Where the garnishee is a corporation and it appears by the answer or otherwise that the defendant was, when the writ of garnishment was served upon it, the owner of any shares of stock in such corporation, the court shall render a decree ordering the sale under execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant of such shares of the defendant in such corporation, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such execution. [L. '09, p. 614, § 17.]

§ 1840. Sales, How Conducted.—The sale so ordered shall be conducted in all respects as other sales of personal property under execution, and the officer making such sale shall execute a transfer of such shares to the purchaser with a brief recital of the judgment of the court under which the same was sold. [L. '09, p. 614, § 18.]

§ 1841. Title on Sale.—Such sale shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser all the right, title and interest which the defendant had in such shares of stock, and the proper officers of such company shall enter such sale and transfer on the books of the company in the same manner as if the sale had been made by the defendant himself. [L. '09, p. 614, § 19.]

§ 1842. Controverting the Answer of the Garnishee—Trial.—If the plaintiff should not be satisfied with the answer of the garnishee, he shall state such fact to the justice of the peace, who shall thereupon enter the fact in his docket, and an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases: Provided, however, no pleading shall be necessary on such issue other than the affidavit of the plaintiff, the answer of the garnishee and the statement of the plaintiff that he is not satisfied with the answer. [L. '09, p. 614, § 20.]

§ 1843. Attorney's Fees—Costs.—Where the answer is controverted and the garnishee is subsequently discharged upon the trial thereof, his costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, shall be taxed against the plaintiff; and if the garnishee upon his answer being controverted by the plaintiff is held liable to an extent greater than the liability admitted in his answer, the costs of the plaintiff upon such proceeding, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, shall be taxed against the garnishee. [L. '09, p. 615, § 21.]

§ 1844. Garnishee's Defense Against Defendant.—It shall be a sufficient answer against any claim of the defendant against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee or upon the possession by him of any personal property or effects, or, where the garnishee is a corporation in which the defendant was the owner of shares of stock, for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid or such shares of stock were sold under judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions of this act. [L. '09, p. 615, § 22.]

§ 1845. Garnishee's Answer—Identity of Names, How Determined—Trial.—Where the garnishee in his answer states that he was indebted or had personal property or effects in his possession under his control at the time of the service of the writ of garnishment upon him to a person of the same or similar name to the defendant, and stating the place of business or residence of said person, and that he does not know whether or not such person is the same person as the defendant, and prays the court to determine whether or not the person to whom he was indebted or whose personal property or effects he had in his possession is the same person as the defendant, the court, before rendering judgment against the garnishee defendant as hereinbefore provided, shall take proof as to the identity of said persons, and if he should find therefrom that they are not one and the same individual, the garnishee shall be discharged and shall have and recover his costs against the plaintiff; and if he should find that said persons are one and the same individuals, he shall make a similar judgment as to the payment of the money or the delivery of personal property and effects and as to costs of the garnishee as is hereinbefore provided, where the garnishee is held upon his answer. Before any such hearing on the question of identity is had, the plaintiff shall cause the justice of the peace to issue a citation directed to the person to whom the garnishee answers he was indebted or whose personal property or effects the garnishee has answered he had in his possession or under his control, commanding him to appear before the justice of the peace from which it is issued within ten days after the service of the same upon him, and to answer on oath whether or not he is the same person as the defendant in said action. Said citation shall be dated and attested in like manner as a writ of garnishment and be delivered to the plaintiff or his attorney and shall be served in the same manner as a summons in an action is served. If upon the hearing in this section provided for, the court shall find that the defendant or judgment debtor is the same person as the person to whom the garnishee defendant was indebted, or whose personal property or effects said garnishee defendant had in his possession or under his control, it shall be sufficient answer to any claim of said person against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee or on the possession by him of any personal property or effects for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid or such personal property or effects delivered under the judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions in this act. [L. '09, p. 615, § 23.]

§ 1846. Answer of Garnishee—Defense of Defendant—Exemptions.—It shall not be necessary for the garnishee to plead or set forth in his answer any defense which the defendant might have to the cause of action against him, nor to plead or set forth in his answer any claim of exemption which may be available to the defendant, but this section shall not be construed to preclude the defendant from pleading, claiming or asserting any exemption which may be available to him under the laws of the state of Washington now in force or hereafter to be enacted. [L. '09, p. 616, § 24.]

CHAPTER VII.

Trial of Civil Actions in Justice's Court.

§ 1847. Continuance—Not to Exceed Sixty Days.—When the pleadings of the parties shall have taken place, the justice shall, upon the application of either party if the defendant be not under arrest, and sufficient cause be shown on oath, continue the case for any time not exceeding sixty days. If the continuance be on account of absence of testimony, it shall be for such reasonable times as will enable the party to procure such testimony, and shall be at the cost of the party applying therefor, unless otherwise ordered by the justice; and in all other respects shall be governed by the law applicable to continuance in the superior court. [L. '54, p. 232, § 56; Cd. '81, § 1769; 2 H. C., § 1517.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 262, 263.

§ 1848. Justice to Try Cause Unless Jury Demanded.—Upon issues joined, if a jury trial be not demanded, the justice shall hear the evidence, and decide all questions of law and fact, and render judgment accordingly. [L. '54, p. 237, § 82; Cd. '81, § 1782; 2 H. C., § 1518.]

§ 1849. Jury—Number—Qualifications—Fees.—After the appearance of the defendant, and before the justice shall proceed to inquire into the merits of the cause, either party may demand a jury to try the action, which jury shall be composed of six good and lawful men having the qualifications of jurors in the superior court of the same county, unless the parties shall agree upon a less number: Provided, that the party demanding the jury shall first pay to the justice the sum of six dollars, which shall be paid over by the justice to the jury before they are discharged, and said amount shall be taxed as costs against the losing party. [Cf. L. '54, p. 235, § 70; L. '62, p. 58, § 1; L. '63, p. 438, § 51; Cd. '81, § 1770; L. '88, p. 118, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1519.]

§ 1850. Time of Jury Trial.—When a jury is demanded, the trial of the case must be adjourned until the time fixed for the return of the jury; if neither party desire an adjournment, the time must be determined by the justice, and must be on the same day, or within the next two days. The jury must be immediately selected as herein provided. [Cf. L. '54, p. 235, § 71; L. '88, p. 118, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1520.]

§ 1851. Selection of Jury.—The justice shall write in a panel the names of eighteen persons, citizens of the county, from which the defendant, his agent or attorney, must strike one name, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, one, and so on alternately until each party shall have stricken six names, and the remaining six names shall constitute the jury to try such case; and if either party neglect or refuse to aid in striking the jury as aforesaid, the justice shall strike the name in behalf of such party. [Cf. L. '54, p. 235, § 72; Cd. '81, § 1772; L. '88, p. 119, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1521.]

§ 1852. Summons for Jurors.—The justice shall, thereupon issue a summons for the jury, in which the following form shall be observed in substance:—

The State of Washington,)
County, of ——. } ss.

The State of Washington to the Sheriff or [any] Constable of said County.

You are hereby commanded to summon —— to appear before me, at my office in —— precinct, said county, on the —— day of ——, A. D. 18—, at —— o'clock in the —— noon, to serve as jurors in a case pending before me, then and there to be tried. And this they shall in no wise omit. And have you then and there this writ, with your doings thereon.

Given under my hand this the —— day of ——, A. D. ——.

A B, Justice of the Peace.

Which summons shall be personally served upon the persons named, and the same shall be returned, with the names of the persons summoned, at the time appointed for the trial of the cause. [Cf. L. '54, p. 236, § 73; Cd. '81, § 1773; L. '88, p. 119, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1522.]

§ 1853. Swearing Jury.—When the jury is selected, the justice shall administer to them an oath or affirmation well and truly to try the cause. [L. '54, p. 236, § 76; Cd. '81, § 1776; 2 H. C., § 1525.]

§ 1854. Delivery of Verdict.—When the jury have agreed on their verdict, they shall deliver the same to the justice, publicly, who shall enter it on his docket. [L. '54, p. 236, § 77; Cd. '81, § 1777; 2 H. C., § 1526.]

§ 1855. Justice may Discharge Jury, When.—Whenever a justice shall be satisfied that a jury, sworn in any civil cause before him, having been out a reasonable time, cannot agree on their verdict, he may discharge them, and issue a new venire unless the parties consent that the justice may render judgment on the evidence before him, or upon such other evidence as they may produce. [L. '54, p. 236, § 78; Cd. '81, § 1778; 2 H. C., § 1527.]

§ 1856. Failure to Appear When Summoned—Penalty.—Every person who shall be duly summoned as a juror, and shall not appear nor render a reasonable excuse for his default, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding ten dollars. [L. '54, p. 236, § 79; Cd. '81, § 1779; 2 H. C., § 1528.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Judgments in Civil Actions in Justice's Court.

§ 1857. Judgment of Dismissal.—Judgment that the action be dismissed, without prejudice to a new action, may be entered, with costs, in the following cases:—

1. When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted;

2. When he fails to appear at the time specified in the notice, upon continuance, or within one hour thereafter;

3. When it is objected at the trial, and appears by the evidence, that the action is brought in the wrong county; but if the objection be taken and overruled, it shall be cause only of reversal or appeal; if not taken at the trial, it shall be deemed waived, and shall not be the cause of reversal. [Cf. L. '54, p. 236, § 80; L. '63, p. 349, § 61; Cd. '81, § 1780; 2 H. C., § 1529.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 61.

§ 1858. Judgment by Default—Evidence.—When the defendant fails to appear and plead at the time specified in the notice, or within one hour thereafter, judgment shall be given as follows:

1. When the defendant has been served with a true copy of the complaint, judgment shall be given without further evidence for the sum specified therein;

2. In other cases, the justice shall hear the evidence of the plaintiff, and render judgment for such sum only as shall appear by the evidence to be just, but in no case exceed the amount specified in the complaint.

3. The justice shall have full power at any time after a judgment has been given by default for failure of the defendant to appear and plead at the proper time, to vacate and set aside said judgment for any good cause and upon such terms as he shall deem sufficient and proper. Such judgment shall only be set aside upon five days' notice in writing served upon the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney and filed with the justice within ten days after the entry of the judgment. The justice shall hear the application to set aside such judgment either upon affidavits or oral testimony as he may deem proper. In case such judgment is set aside the making of the application for setting the same aside shall be considered an entry of general appearance in the case by the applicant, and the case shall duly proceed to a trial upon the merits: Provided, that, no justice of the peace shall pay out or turn over money or property received by him by virtue of any default judgment until the expiration of the ten days for moving to set aside such default judgment has expired. [L. '15, p. 141, § 1. Cf. L. '54. p. 237, § 81; L. '63, p. 349, § 62; Cd. '81, § 1781; 2 H. C., § 1530.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 508, 511; 12 Wash. 549.

§ 1859. Judgment—Rendition—Entry.—Upon the verdict of a jury, the justice shall immediately render judgment thereon. When the trial is by the justice, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, if the defendant has been arrested and is still in custody; in other cases it shall be entered within three days after the close of the trial. [L. '54, p. 237, § 83; Cd. '81, § 1783; 2 H. C., § 1531.]

Cited in 74 Wash. 479.

§ 1860. Tender, Judgment in Case of.—If the defendant, at any time before the trial, offer in writing to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specified sum, the plaintiff may immediately have judgment therefor, with costs then accrued; but if he do not accept such offer before the trial, and fail to recover, on the trial of the action, a sum greater than the offer, such plaintiff shall not recover any costs that may accrue after he shall have been notified of the offer of the defendant, but such costs shall be adjudged against him, and if he recover, deducted from his recovery. But the offer and failure to accept it shall not be given in evidence to affect the recovery, otherwise than as to costs, as above provided. [Cf. L. '54, p. 237, § 84; L. '63, p. 350, § 65; Cd. '81, § 1784; 2 H. C., § 1532.]

§ 1861. Setoff Allowed, to What Extent.—When the setoff of the defendant proved shall exceed the claim of the plaintiff, and such excess in amount exceed the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the court shall allow such amount as is necessary to cancel the plaintiff's claim, and give the defendant a judgment for costs; but in such case the court shall not render judgment for any further sum in favor of the defendant. [L. '54, p. 232, § 55; Cd. '81, § 1768; 2 H. C., § 1533.]

See supra, § 1789, pleading setoff.
See infra, § 1873, setoff of mutual judgments.

§ 1862. Judgment for Costs—Attorneys' Fees.—When the prevailing party is entitled to recover costs in a civil action before a justice of the peace, the justice shall add the amount thereof to the judgment; in case of failure of the plaintiff to recover or of dismissal of the action, the justice shall enter up a judgment in favor of the defendant for the amount of his costs; and in case any party so entitled to costs is represented in the action by an attorney, the justice shall include an attorney's fee of five dollars as part of the costs: Provided, however, that the plaintiff shall not be entitled to such attorney fee unless he obtain, exclusive of costs, a judgment in the sum of five dollars or more. [L. '15, p. 143, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 337, § 85; Cd. '81, § 1785; 2 H. C., § 1534; L. '93, p. 22, § 1.]

§ 1863. Proceedings Where Title to Land is in Issue.—If it appear on the trial of any cause before a justice of the peace, from the evidence of either party, that the title to lands is in question, which title shall be disputed by the other [party], the justice shall immediately make an entry thereof in his docket, and cease all further proceedings in the cause, and shall certify and return to the superior court of the county a transcript of all the entries made in his docket, relating to the cause, together with all the process and other papers relating to the action, in the same manner and within the same time as upon appeal, and thereupon the parties shall file their pleadings, and the superior court shall proceed in the cause to final judgment and execution, in the same manner as if the said action had been originally commenced therein, and the cost shall abide the event of the suit. [L. '54, p. 235, § 69; Cd. '81, § 1868; 2 H. C., § 1483.]

CHAPTER IX.

Fees and Compensation of Justices of the Peace.

§ 1864. Schedule of Justice Fees.—The fees and compensation of justices of the peace shall be as follows, to wit:

When each case is filed the sum of $2 shall be paid by the plaintiff, which said sum shall include the docketing of the cause, the issuing of notice or summons, the trial of the case and the entering of judgment: Provided, that no further fee shall be required of either party to the suit for issuing subpoena, for approving any bond, including justification, incident to the case, or for orders and filing of publication of summons, or for any continuance by either party, or for issuing any writ of replevin, attachment and one writ of garnishment. For each additional writ of garnishment a fee of fifty cents shall be charged.

Order, transcript and filings on change of venue, the sum of $2 shall be paid by the party taking the change of venue: Provided, that said sum shall include all fees for transcripts of garnishments or other proceedings incident to the main action.

For transcript of judgment the sum of $1 shall be paid by the party applying therefor, which said sum shall include all fees for transcript of garnishment or other proceedings incident to the main action and for approval of bonds on appeal.

For order and filings for commission to take depositions	$ .50
For issuing writ of venire	.50
For taking affidavits and acknowledgments, each	.25
For taking depositions, each folio	.10
For issuing warrants in criminal cases	.50
For taking recognizance of bail, including justification	.75
For committing to jail	.50

§ 1865. Fees Where Justice Receives Salary.—In any civil action commenced before or transferred to a justice of the peace receiving a salary, the plaintiff may, at the time of such commencement or transfer, pay to such justice the sum of two dollars, which sum shall be all the fees and charges which any party to such action shall be compelled to pay to such justice up to and including the rendition of judgment in such action, unless process in replevin, attachment or garnishment shall issue therein, in which case the party procuring such process may pay to such justice the sum of one dollar as full payment for the fees and charges of such justice incident to the proceedings under such process; but in case said action is transferred from such justice before final judgment, such justice shall repay to any party making such payments any sum in excess of what said party would have been compelled to pay by the last section. [L. '93, p. 144, § 2.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 233.

§ 1866. Compensation Limited to Schedule.—No justice of the peace in any civil action or proceeding shall be entitled to or receive any fees or compensations not provided for by this chapter. [L. '93, p. 144, § 3.]

CHAPTER X.

Executions and Proceedings Thereon.

§ 1867. Stay of Execution.—The execution upon a judgment by a justice of the peace may be stayed in the manner hereinafter provided, upon reasonable notice to the opposite party, and for the following periods of time, to be calculated from the date of the judgment:—

1. If the judgment be for any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars, exclusive of costs, one month;

2. If it be for more than twenty-five dollars, two months. [L. '54, p. 238, § 86; Cd. '81, § 1786; 2 H. C., § 1535.]

§ 1868. Bond for Stay.—To entitle any person to such stay of execution, some responsible person, to be approved by the justice, and not being a party to the judgment, must, within five days after rendering of the judgment, enter into a bond before the justice, to the adverse party, in a sufficient sum to secure the payment of the judgment and costs, conditioned to be void upon such payment, at the expiration of the stay. [L. '54, p. 238, § 87; Cd. '81, § 1787; 2 H. C., § 1536.]

§ 1869. Form of Bond.—Such bond shall be signed by the person entering into the same, and may be in the following form:—

Whereas, A B has obtained a judgment before J P, one of the justices of the peace in and for —— county, on the —— day of ——, 18—, against C D, for —— dollars, now, therefore, I, E F, acknowledge myself bound to A B in the sum of —— dollars this bond to be void if such judgment shall be paid at the expiration of —— month after the time it was rendered.

Dated the —— day of ——, 18—. —— ——, E. F.

§ 1870. Levy Against Property of Principal or Bail.—If, at the expiration of such stay, the judgment be not paid, the execution shall issue against both the principal and bail. If the principal do not satisfy the execution, and the officer cannot find sufficient property belonging to him upon which to levy, he shall levy upon the property of the bail, and in his return shall state what amount of money collected by him on the execution was collected from the bail, and the time when the same was received. [L. '54, p. 238, § 90; Cd. '81, § 1790; 2 H. C., § 1539.]

§ 1871. Bail may Collect from Defendant.—After the return of such execution, the bail shall be entitled, on application to the justice, to have the judgment, or so much thereof as may have been collected from him in satisfaction of the execution, transferred to his use; and he may collect the same from the defendant by execution, together with the interest at the rate of twelve per cent per annum. [L. '54, p. 238, § 90; Cd. '81, § 1790; 2 H. C., § 1539.]

§ 1872. Execution Revoked Where Judgment Stayed.—If judgment be stayed in the manner above provided after an execution has been issued thereon, the justice shall revoke such execution, in the same manner and with like effect as he is hereinafter directed to revoke an execution after an appeal has been allowed; and if the defendant have been committed, shall order him to be discharged from custody. [L. '54, p. 238, § 91; Cd. '81, § 1791; 2 H. C., § 1540.]

§ 1873. Setoff of Mutual Judgments.—If there be mutual justices' judgments between the same parties, upon which the time for appealing has elapsed on judgment, on the application of either party and reasonable notice given to the adverse party, one may be set off against the other by the justice before whom the judgment against which the setoff is proposed may be. [L. '54, p. 239, § 92; Cd. '81, § 1792; 2 H. C., § 1541.]

§ 1874. Procedure as to Setoff Rendered Before Another Justice.—If the judgment proposed as a setoff was rendered before another justice, the party proposing such setoff shall produce before such justice a transcript of such judgment, upon which there is a certificate of the justice before whom such may be, that it is unsatisfied in whole or in part, and that there is no appeal, and that such transcript was obtained for the purpose of being set off against the judgment to which it is offered as a setoff. The justice granting such transcript shall make an entry thereof on his docket, and all further proceedings on such judgment shall be stayed, unless such transcript be returned with the proper justice's certificate thereon, that it has not been allowed in setoff. [L. '54, p. 239, § 93; Cd. '81, § 1793; 2 H. C., § 1542.]

§ 1875. Execution for Balance After Setoff.—If any justice shall set off one judgment against another, he shall make an entry thereof on his docket, and execution shall issue only for the balance which may be due after such setoff. If a justice shall allow a transcript of a judgment rendered by another justice to be set off, he shall file such transcript among the papers relating to the judgment in which it was allowed in setoff. If he shall refuse such transcript as a setoff, he shall so certify on the transcript, and return the same to the party who offered it. [L. '54, p. 239, § 94; Cd. '81, § 1794; 2 H. C., § 1543.]

§ 1876. No Execution After Five Years.—Execution for the enforcement of a judgment in a justice's court may be issued on the application of the party entitled thereto, in the manner hereinbefore described; but after the lapse of five years from the date of the judgment no execution shall issue except by leave of the justice before whom such judgment may be, upon reasonable notice to the defendant. [L. '54, p. 240, § 95; Cd. '81, § 1795; 2 H. C., § 1544.]

§ 1877. Execution from Succeeding Justice.—When any judgment shall have been rendered by any justice of the peace, and the same [shall] not be satisfied during his continuance in office, and the docket of such justice shall have been transferred to another justice, or to the successor of the justice rendering such judgment, the justice to whom the docket shall be delivered shall issue execution upon such unsatisfied judgment, in the same manner and with like effect as if he himself had rendered the judgment. [L. '54, p. 240, § 96; Cd. '81, § 1796; 2 H. C., § 1545.]

§ 1878. Execution to Another County.—If the defendant have not goods and chattels in the county in which judgment was rendered sufficient to satisfy the execution, the justice before whom such judgment may be shall, at the request of the party entitled, make out a certified transcript of the same, which may be delivered to a justice in any other county, who shall make an entry thereof in his docket, and issue execution thereon for the amount of the judgment, or such part as shall be unsatisfied, with costs as in other cases. [L. '54, p. 240, § 97; Cd. '81, § 1797; 2 H. C., § 1546.]

This section is in conflict with §§ 450–452.

§ 1879. Execution—Direction, Date, etc.—The execution shall be directed (except when it is otherwise especially provided) to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the justice resides; shall be dated on the day it is issued, and made returnable within thirty days from the date; and it shall be against the goods and chattels of the person against whom the same is issued. [L. '54, p. 240, § 98; Cd. '81, § 1798; 2 H. C., § 1547.]

§ 1880. Amount of Debt, etc., to be Stated.—Before any execution shall be delivered, the justice shall state in his docket, and also on the back of the execution, the amount of the debt, or damages and costs, and of the fees due to each person separately, and the officer receiving such execution shall indorse [thereon] the time of the reception of the same. [L. '53, p. 240, § 99; Cd. '81, § 1799; 2 H. C., § 1548.]

§ 1881. Execution may be Renewed.—If an execution be not satisfied, it may, at the request of the plaintiff, be renewed from time to time by the justice who issues the same, or by the justice to whom his docket is transferred, by an indorsement thereon to that effect, signed by him, and dated when the same shall be made. If any part of such execution has been satisfied, the indorsement of renewal shall express the sum due on the execution. Every such indorsement shall renew the execution in full force in all respects for thirty days, and no longer; and an entry of such renewal shall be made in the docket of the justice. [L. '54, p. 240, § 100; Cd. '81, § 1800; 2 H. C., § 1549.]

§ 1882. Notice of Sale upon Execution.—The officer, after taking goods and chattels into his custody by virtue of an execution, shall, without delay, give public notice by at least three advertisements, put up at three public places in the county, of the time and place when and where they will be exposed for sale. Such notice shall describe the goods and chattels taken, and shall be put up at least ten days before the day of sale. [L. '54, p. 241, § 101; Cd. '81, § 1801; 2 H. C., § 1550.]

§ 1883. Sale upon Execution—Return.—At the time and place so appointed, if the goods and chattels be present for inspection of bidders, the officer shall expose them to sale at public vendue to the highest bidder; he shall return the execution and have the money before the justice, at the time of making such return, ready to be paid over to the persons respectively entitled thereto. [L. '54, p. 241, § 102; Cd. '81, § 1802; 2 H. C., § 1551.]

§ 1884. Officer not to Buy at Execution Sale.—No officer shall directly or indirectly purchase any goods or chattels at any sale made by him upon execution, and every such purchase shall be absolutely void. [L. '54, p. 241, § 103; Cd. '81, § 1803; 2 H. C., § 1552.]

§ 1885. Execution may Issue Against the Person, When.—If the action be one in which the defendant might have been arrested upon a warrant, an execution against the person of such defendant may be issued, after the return of an execution against his property unsatisfied in whole or in part. An execution against the person may likewise be issued after such return, where the defendant has been arrested upon a warrant and not discharged according to law. [L. '54, p. 241, § 104; Cd. '81, § 1804; 2 H. C., § 1553.]

§ 1886. Garnishees may be Examined Under Oath.—If there be no property found, or if the goods and chattels levied on be not sufficient to satisfy such execution, the officer shall, on demand of the plaintiff, summon, in writing, as garnishees, such persons as may be named to [him by] the plaintiff or his agent, to appear before the justice on the return day of the execution, to answer such interrogatories as may be put to them, touching their liabilities as garnishees, and the like proceedings shall be had thereon before the justice to final judgment as in the proceedings by attachment. [Cf. L. '54, p. 241, § 105; L. '63, p. 354, § 86; Cd. '81, § 1805; 2 H. C., § 1554.]

§ 1887. Execution for Costs.—Any justice of the peace may issue an execution against the prevailing party, to collect fees and costs for which such party may be liable, after an execution has been first issued against the other party, and returned "no property found." [L. '54, p. 241, § 106; Cd. '81, § 1806; 2 H. C., § 1555.]

§ 1888. Claim by Third Person to Property Levied on or Attached.—If any property levied on be claimed by any other person than the defendant in the execution, and the claimant make affidavit of his title or right to the possession of the same, stating the ground of such title or right, and serve the same upon the sheriff or constable while the property is in his possession, said sheriff or constable shall not be bound to keep the property, unless the plaintiff, on demand, indemnify him in the same manner as provided in this act for cases where property held under attachment is claimed by persons not parties to the suit; and when such claim is made, the sheriff or constable shall immediately file the claimant's affidavit with the justice, and notify the plaintiff thereof, and unless the property be at once released, the justice shall set the case for trial upon the allegations of the claimant's affidavit, and the case shall proceed and be determined in the same manner as provided in this act for cases where property held under attachment is claimed by persons not parties to the suit. [Cf. L. '54, p. 241, § 107; L. '77, p. 202, § 6; Cd. '81, § 1807; 2 H. C., § 1556.]

"This act" refers to §§ 1737, 1738, of the Code of 1881.
See supra, § 1796, claim and delivery.

§ 1889. Claimant may Resort to Other Remedies.—Nothing contained in the last section shall be so construed as to prevent the claimant of property levied on by execution from resorting to any legal remedy he may choose to pursue, instead of proceeding in the manner therein prescribed. [L. '54, p. 242, § 108; L. '63, p. 355, § 89; Cd. '81, § 1808; 2 H. C., § 1557.]

CHAPTER XII.

Proceedings for Contempt Before Justices of the Peace.

§ 1891. When Justice may Punish for Contempt.—In the following cases, and no others, a justice of the peace may punish for contempt:—

1. Persons guilty of disorderly, contemptuous, and insolent behavior toward such justice while engaged in the trial of a cause, or in rendering judgment, or in any judicial proceedings, which tend to interrupt such proceedings or impair the respect due to his authority;

2. Persons guilty of any breach of the peace, noise, or disturbance, tending to interrupt the official proceedings of such justice;

3. Persons guilty of resistance or disobedience to any lawful order or process made or issued by him. [L. '54, p. 248, § 145; Cd. '81, § 1842; 2 H. C., § 1601.]

§ 1892. Punishment for Contempt.—Punishment for contempt may be by fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding two days, at the discretion of the justice, unless otherwise provided by statute. [L. '54, p. 249, § 146; Cd. '81, § 1843; 2 H. C., § 1602.]

§ 1893. Hearing — Warrant for Offender.—No person shall be punished for a contempt before a justice of the peace until an opportunity shall have been given to him to be heard in his defense; and for that purpose, the justice may issue his warrant to bring the offender before him. [L. '54, p. 249, § 147; Cd. '81, § 1844; 2 H. C., § 1603.]

§ 1894. Summary Arraignment.—If the offender be present, he may be summarily arraigned by the justice, and proceeded against in the same manner as if a warrant had been previously issued, and the offender arrested thereon. [L. '54, p. 249, § 148; Cd. '81, § 1845; 2 H. C., § 1604.]

§ 1895. Form of Warrant.—The warrant for contempt may be in the following form:—

The State of Washington,
County of ——. } ss.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of said County.

In the name of the state of Washington, you are hereby commanded to apprehend A B, and bring him before J P, one of the justices of the peace of said county, at his office in said county, to show cause why he should not be convicted of a contempt alleged to have been committed on the —— day of ——, A. D. 18—, before the said justice, while engaged as a justice of the peace in a judicial proceeding.

Dated this —— day of ——, A. D. 18—.

J P, Justice of the Peace.

§ 1896. Form of Judgment.—Upon the conviction of any person for contempt an entry thereof shall be made in the docket of such justice, stating the particular circumstances of the offense, and the judgment rendered thereon, and may be in the following form:—

The State of Washington,
County of ——. } ss.

Whereas, on the —— day of ——, A. D. 18—, while the undersigned, one of the justices of the peace of said county, was engaged in the trial of an action between C D, plaintiff, and E F, defendant, in said county, A B, of the said county, did interrupt the said proceedings and impair the respect due to the authority of the undersigned, by (here describe the cause particularly); and whereas, the said A B was thereupon required by the undersigned to answer for the said contempt, and show cause why he should not be convicted thereof; and whereas, the said A B did not show cause against the said charge,—be it therefore ordered that the said A B is adjudged to be guilty, and is convicted of the contempt aforesaid, and is adjudged by the undersigned to pay a fine of —— dollars (or be imprisoned, etc.).

Dated this —— day of ——, A. D. 18—.

J P, Justice of the Peace.

[L. '54, p. 249, § 150; Cd. '81, § 1847; 2 H. C., § 1606.]

§ 1897. Warrant of Commitment.—If any person convicted of a contempt be adjudged to be imprisoned, a warrant of commitment shall be issued by the justice. If he be adjudged to pay a fine, a process may be issued to collect the same; and when so collected it shall forthwith be paid by the justice into the county treasury. [L. '54, p. 250, § 151; Cd. '81, § 1848; 2 H. C., § 1607.]

CHAPTER XIII.

Witnesses and Depositions.

§ 1898. Witnesses may be Subpoenaed Within Twenty Miles.—A subpoena issued by a justice of the peace shall be valid to compel the attendance of a witness in the justice's court, if such witness be within twenty miles of the place of trial. [L. '54, p. 233, § 57; Cd. '81, § 1869.]

§ 1899. How and by Whom Served.—A subpoena may be served by any person above the age of eighteen years, by reading it to the witness, or by delivering to him a copy at his usual place of abode. [L. '54, p. 233, § 58; Cd. '81, § 1870.]

§ 1900. Attachment for Failure to Appear.—Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the justice, by proof made before him, that any person, duly subpoenaed to appear before him in an action, shall have failed, without a just cause, to attend as a witness, in conformity to such subpoena, and the party in whose behalf such subpoena was issued, or his agent, shall make oath that the testimony of such witness is material, the justice shall have the power to issue an attachment to compel the attendance of such witness: Provided, that no attachment shall issue against witness in any civil action, unless his fees for mileage and one day's attendance have been tendered or paid in advance, if previously demanded by such witness from the person serving the subpoena. [L. '54, p. 233, § 59; Cd. '81, § 1871.]

§ 1901. Service and Costs in Attachment.—Every such attachment may be directed to any sheriff or constable of the county in which the justice resides, and shall be executed in the same manner as a warrant; and the fees of the officer for issuing and serving the same shall be paid by the person against whom the same was issued, unless he show reasonable cause, to the satisfaction of the justice, for his omission to attend; in which case the party requiring such attachment shall pay all costs. [L. '54, p. 233, § 60; Cd. '81, § 1872.]

§ 1902. Damages for Nonattendance.—Every person subpoenaed as aforesaid, and neglecting to appear, shall also be liable to the party in whose behalf he may have been subpoenaed, for all damages which such party may have sustained by reason of his nonappearance: Provided, that such witness had the fees allowed for mileage and one day's attendance paid, or tendered him, in advance, if demanded by him at the time of the service. [L. '54, p. 234, § 61; Cd. '81, § 1873.]

§ 1903. Party to Action as Witness.—A party to an action may be examined as a witness, at the instance of the adverse party, and for that purpose may be compelled in the same manner, and subject to the same rules of examination, as any other witness, to testify at the trial, or appear and have his deposition taken. [L. '54, p. 243, § 62; Cd. '81, § 1874.]

§ 1904. Testimony of Party may be Rebutted.—The examination of a party thus taken may be rebutted by adverse testimony. [L. '54, p. 234, § 63; Cd. '81, § 1875.]

§ 1905. Proceedings on Party's Refusal to Testify.—If a party refuse to attend and testify at the trial, or give his deposition before trial, when required, his complaint, answer or reply, may be stricken out, and judgment taken against him. [L. '54, p. 234, § 64; Cd. '81, § 1876.]

§ 1906. Examination of Party in His Own Behalf.—A party examined by an adverse party may be examined on his own behalf, in respect to any matter pertinent to the issue. But if he testify to any new matter, not responsive to the inquiries put to him by the adverse party, or necessary to qualify or explain his answer thereto, or to discharge, when his answer would charge himself, such adverse party may offer himself as a witness, and he shall be so received. [L. '54, p. 234, § 65; Cd. '81, § 1877.]

§ 1907. When Depositions may be Taken.—Either party, in an action depending before a justice of the peace, may cause a deposition of a witness therein to be taken, when such witness resides, or is about to go more than twenty miles from the place of trial, or is so sick, infirm, or aged, as to make it probable that he will not be able to attend at the trial. [L. '54, p. 234, § 66; Cd. '81, § 1878.]

§ 1908. How Taken and Certified.—The notice shall be served, and the deposition taken, certified, and returned, according to the law regulating the taking of depositions to be read in the superior court. [L. '54, p. 234, § 67; Cd. '81, § 1879.]

§ 1909. How Used on Trial.—The justice shall allow every deposition taken, certified and returned according to law, to be read on the trial of the cause in which it is taken, in all cases where the same testimony, if given verbally before him, could have been received; but no such deposition shall be read on the trial, unless it appears to the justice that the witness, whose deposition is so offered:

1. Is dead, or resides more than twenty miles from the place of trial; or

2. Is unable, or cannot safely attend before the justice, on account of sickness, age, or other bodily infirmity;

3. That he has gone more than twenty miles from the place of trial without the consent or collusion of the party offering the deposition. [L. '54, p. 234, § 68; Cd. '81, § 1880.]

CHAPTER XIV.

Appeals from Justice's Court.

§ 1910. Appeal in Civil Actions.—Any person considering himself aggrieved by the judgment or decision of a justice of the peace in a civil action may, in person or by his agent, appeal therefrom to the superior court of the same county where the judgment was rendered or the decision made: Provided, there shall be no appeal allowed unless the amount in controversy exclusive of costs, shall exceed the sum of twenty dollars. [L. '05, p. 41, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 252, § 160; Cd. '81, § 1858; L. '91, p. 66, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1630.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 15; 12 Wash. 550; 73 Wash. 35.

§ 1911. Appeal, How Taken—Bond.—Such appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the justice and serving a copy on the adverse party, or his attorney, and unless such appeal be by a county, city, or school district, filing a bond or undertaking, as herein provided, within twenty days after the judgment is rendered, or the decision made. No appeal, except when such appeals are by a county, city, or school district, shall be allowed in any case, unless a bond or an undertaking shall be executed on the part of the appellant, and filed with and approved by the justice, with one or more sureties, in the sum of one hundred dollars, to the effect that the appellant will pay all costs that may be awarded against him on the appeal; or if a stay of proceedings before the justice be claimed, except by a county, city, or school district, a bond of undertaking, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the justice, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment and costs, to the effect that the appellant will pay such judgment, including costs, as may be rendered against him on appeal. [Cf. L. '54, p. 252, §§ 161, 162; L. '81, p. 8, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1859; L. '91, p. 66, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1631.]

§ 1912. Stay of Proceedings, When.—Upon appeal being taken, and a bond filed to stay all proceedings, the justice shall allow the same, and make an entry of such allowance in his docket, and all further proceedings on the judgment before the justice shall thereupon be suspended; and if in the meantime execution shall have been issued, the justice shall give the appellant a certificate that such appeal has been allowed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 252, § 164; Cd. '81, § 1861; L. '91, p. 67, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1632.]

§ 1913. Release of Property on Certificate of Appeal.—On such certificate being presented to the officer holding the execution, he shall forthwith release the property of the defendant that may have been taken on execution; and if the body of the defendant have been taken on execution he shall be discharged from imprisonment. [L. '54, p. 252, § 165; Cd. '81 § 1862; 2 H. C., § 1633.]

§ 1914. Transcript—Jurisdiction—Procedure in Superior Court.—Within ten days after the appeal has been taken in a civil action or proceeding, the appellant shall furnish the superior court with a transcript of all the entries made in the justice's docket relating to the case, together with all the processes and other papers relating to the action, and file[d] with the justice, which shall be certified by such justice to be correct; and upon the filing of such transcript, the superior court shall become possessed of the cause, and shall proceed in the same manner, as near as may be, as in actions originally commenced in that court, except as herein otherwise provided. [Cf. L. '54, p. 252, § 166; Cd. '81, § 1863; L. '91, p. 67, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1634.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 307; 17 Wash. 56; 25 Wash. 204; 41 Wash. 413.

§ 1915. Pleadings in Superior Court on Appeal.—The issue before the justice shall be tried in the superior court without other or new pleadings unless otherwise directed by the court. [L. '54, p. 253, § 167; Cd. '81, § 1864; 2 H. C., § 1635.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 709.

§ 1916. Attachment for Certified Transcript.—Upon an appeal being taken and allowed the superior court may, by rule and attachment, compel the justice to make and deliver to the appellant a certified transcript of the proceedings, upon paying to such justice the fees allowed by law for making such transcript, and whenever the court is satisfied that the return of the justice is substantially erroneous or defective, it may, by rule and attachment, compel him to amend the same. [Cf. L. '54, p. 253, § 168; Cd. '81, § 1865; L. '91, p. 67, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1636.]

§ 1917. Appeal not to be Dismissed for Defective Bond, When.—No appeal allowed by justice shall be dismissed on account of the bond being defective, if the appellant will, before the motion is determined, execute and file in the superior court such a bond as he should have executed at the time of taking the appeal, and pay all costs that shall have accrued by reason of such defect. [L. '54, p. 253, § 169; Cd. '81, § 1866; 2 H. C., § 1637.]

§ 1918. Judgment Against Appellant and Sureties, When.—In all cases of appeal to the superior court if, on the trial anew in such court, the judgment be against the appellant in whole or in part, such judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties in the bond for the appeal. [L. '54, p. 253, § 170; Cd. '81, § 1867; 2 H. C., § 1638.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 25; 34 Wash. 155.

§ 1919. Appeal in Criminal Cases — Notice.—Every person convicted before a justice of the peace of any offense may appeal from the judgment, within ten days thereafter, to the superior court. The appeal shall be taken by orally giving notice thereof at the time the judgment is rendered, or by serving a written notice thereof upon the justice at any time after the judgment, and within the time allowed for taking the appeal; when the notice is given orally, the justice shall enter the same in his docket. The appellant shall be committed to the jail of the county until he shall recognize or give a bond to the state, in such reasonable sum with such sureties as said justice may require, with condition to appear at the court appealed to, and there prosecute his appeal, and to abide the sentence of the court thereon, if not revised by a higher court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 261, § 177; L. '77, p. 203, § 7; Cd. '81, § 1898; L. '91, p. 67, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1639.]

Cited in 49 Wash. 437; 80 Wash. 337.

§ 1920. Fees not Required in Advance — Failure to Prosecute, Effect of.—The appellant in a criminal action shall not be required to advance any fees in claiming his appeal, nor in prosecuting the same; but if convicted in the appellate court, or if sentenced for failing to prosecute his appeal, he may be required, as a part of the sentence, to pay the costs of prosecution. If the appellant shall fail to enter and prosecute his appeal, he shall be defaulted on his recognizance, if any was taken, and the superior court may award sentence against him for the offense whereof he was convicted, in like manner as if he had been convicted thereof in that court; and if he be not then in custody, process may be issued to bring him into court to receive sentence. [Cf. L. '54, p. 261, § 179; Cd. '81, § 1900; L. '91, p. 68, § 7; 2 H. C., § 1640.]

Cited in 49 Wash. 437; 80 Wash. 337.

§ 1921. Justice to Recognize Witnesses — Transcript.—Upon an appeal being taken in a criminal action, the justice shall require the witnesses to give recognizances for their appearance in the superior court, or if they are not present, indorse their names on the copy of proceeding. He shall, on such appeal, make and certify a copy of the conviction and other proceedings in the case, and transmit the same, together with the recognizance and an abstract bill of the costs, to the clerk of the court appealed to, who shall issue a subpoena for the witnesses, if they are not under recognizance. [Cf. L. '54, p. 261, § 178; L. '73, p. 384, § 197; Cd. '81, § 1899; L. '91, p. 68, § 8; 2 H. C., § 1641.]

§ 1922. Appeal from Order for Security to Keep the Peace.—An appeal may be taken from the order of a magistrate requiring a person to give security, to keep the peace, or for good behavior. Such appeal shall be taken in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as appeals from justices' courts in criminal actions, and the magistrate may require recognizances of the appellant and the witness, as in appeals in such criminal actions. [Cf. L. '54, p. 106, §§ 18, 19; L. '63, p. 385, §§ 191, 192; Cd. '81, §§ 1911, 1912; L. '91, p. 68, § 9; 2 H. C., 1642.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 88.

1923. Proceedings on Such Appeal — New Bonds — Costs.—The court before which such appeal is prosecuted may affirm the order of the justice or discharge the appellant, or may require the appellant to enter into a new recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum and for such time as the court shall think proper, and may also make such order in relation to the costs of prosecution as may be deemed just and reasonable. [L. '54, p. 155, § 20; Cd. '81, § 1913; 2 H. C., § 1643.]

§ 1924. Failure to Prosecute Such Appeal, Effect of.—If any party appealing from such order of a magistrate shall fail to prosecute his appeal, his recognizance shall remain in full force and effect, as to any breach of the condition, without an affirmance of the judgment or order of the magistrate, and also shall stand as security for costs which shall be ordered by the court appealed to to be paid by the appellant. [Cf. L. '54, p. 105, § 21; Cd. '81, § 1914; L. '91, p. 68, § 10; 2 H. C., § 1644.]

CHAPTER I.

Practice in Criminal Actions in Justice's Court.

§ 1925. Justice to Issue Warrant of Arrest, When.—Any justice shall, on complaint on oath in writing before him charging any person with the commission of any crime or misdemeanor of which he has jurisdiction, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person, and cause him to be brought forthwith before him for trial. [L. '54, p. 260, § 172; Cd. '81, § 1888; 2 H. C., § 1559.]

See supra, § 46, jurisdiction in criminal cases.

§ 1926. Offense Committed in View of Justice, Proceedings.—When any offense is committed in view of any justice, he may, by verbal direction to any constable, or if no constable is present, to any citizen, cause such constable or citizen to arrest such offender, and keep him in custody for the space of one hour, unless such offender shall sooner be taken from such custody by virtue of a warrant issued on complaint on oath. But such person so arrested shall not be confined in jail nor put upon any trial until arrested by virtue of such warrant. And on the return of any warrant issued by him, it shall be the duty of the justice to docket the cause, and unless continuance be granted, forthwith to hear and determine the cause, and either acquit, convict and punish, or hold to bail the offender, if the offense be bailable, and prove to be one which should be tried in the superior court, or in default of bail, commit him to jail, as the facts and law may justify. [L. '54, p. 260, §§ 173, 174; Cd. '81, § 1889; 2 H. C., § 1560.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 88.

§ 1927. Either Side may Demand Jury.—In all trials for offenses within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the defendant or the state may demand a jury, which shall consist of six or a less number, agreed [upon] by the state and accused, to be impaneled and sworn as in civil cases, or the trial may be by the justice. When the complaint is for a crime or misdemeanor in the exclusive jurisdiction of the superior court, the justice hears the case as a committing magistrate, and no jury shall be allowed. [L. '54, p. 260, § 174; L. '73, p. 382, § 188; L. '75, p. 51, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1890; L. '91, p. 18, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1561.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 405.

Right to jury trial, see Const., Art. I, § 21, and notes.

§ 1928. Proceedings on Verdict of Guilty.—Such justice or jury, if they find the prisoner guilty, shall assess his punishment; or if, in their opinion, the punishment they are authorized to assess is not adequate to the offense, they may so find, and in such case the justice shall order such defendant to enter [into] recognizance to appear in the superior court of the county, and shall also recognize the witnesses, and proceed as in proceedings by a committing magistrate. [Cf. L. '54, p. 260, § 174; Cd. '81, § 1891; L. '91, p. 18, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1562.]

Cited in 27 Wash. 687.

See infra, § 1957, recognizance to appear before superior court.

§ 1929. Plea of Guilty.—The defendant may plead guilty to any offense charged. [L. '54, p. 260, § 174; Cd. '81, § 1892; 2 H. C., § 1563.]

§ 1930. Justice to Summon Witnesses.—In all cases arising under this chapter, if the offense charged involve injury to a particular person who is within the county, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace to summon the injured person, and all others whose testimony may be deemed material, as witnesses at the trial, and to enforce their attendance by attachment if necessary. [Cf. L. '54, p. 260, § 174; Cd. '81, § 1894; L. '91, p. 18, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1564.]

§ 1931. Judgment not to be Given Without Evidence.—No justice shall assess a fine, or enter a judgment thereon, until a witness or witnesses have been examined to state the circumstances of the transaction. [Cf. L. '54, p. 260, § 174; Cd. '81, § 1893; L. '91, p. 19, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1565.]

§ 1932. Continuance to be Granted, How — Costs, etc.—Continuance may be granted, either on application of the defendant or the prosecuting witness, under the same rules as in civil cases; the cost of such continuance shall abide the event of the prosecution in all cases, and the justice shall recognize the defendant and the witnesses to appear from time to time, in the same manner as is provided in other criminal examinations before him. [Cf. L. '54, p. 261, § 176; Cd. '81, § 1895; L. '91, p. 19, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1566.]

See infra, § 1955, recognizance of defendant and witnesses.

§ 1933. Judgment, How Rendered and Satisfied.—In all cases of conviction, unless otherwise provided in this chapter, the justice shall enter judgment for the fine and costs against the defendant, and may commit him to jail, to be placed at hard labor until the judgment is satisfied, or the payment thereof be secured as provided by section 1934, and further proceedings therein shall be had as in like cases in the superior court; but the defendant shall not be imprisoned for a longer aggregate time than one day for every three dollars of the fine and costs; and a defendant who has been committed shall be discharged at any time upon the payment of such part of the fine and costs as remains unpaid after deducting from the whole amount any previous payment, and three dollars for every day he has been imprisoned upon the commitment. [Cf. L. '54, p. 261, § 176; Cd. '81, § 1896; L. '91, p. 19, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1567.]

§ 1934. Stay of Execution, Manner of Procuring.—Every defendant may stay the execution for the fine and costs for thirty days by procuring sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, to enter into recognizance before him for the payment of the fine and costs; the entry of such recognizance shall be made on the docket of the justice, and signed by the sureties, and shall have the same effect as a judgment, and if the same be not paid in thirty days, the justice shall proceed as in like cases in the superior court. [L. '54, p. 261, § 176; Cd. '81, § 1897; 2 H. C., § 1568.]

forthwith before me, to show cause why he should not give surety to keep the peace and be of good behavior towards all people of this state, and the said A B especially, and further to be dealt with according to law.

Given under my hand this —— day of ——, 18—.

J P, Justice of the Peace.

FORM OF COMMITMENT UPON SENTENCE.

The State of Washington, } ss.
County of ——. }

To any Constable and the Keeper of the County Jail of said County.

Whereas, at a justice's court held at my office in said county for the trial of C D, for the offense hereinafter stated, the said C D was convicted of having on the —— day of ——, 18—, in said county, committed (here state the offense), and upon conviction the said court did adjudge and determine that the said C D should be imprisoned in the county jail of said county, for —— days, therefore, you, the said constable, are commanded, in the name of the state of Washington, forthwith to convey and deliver the said C D to the said keeper; and you, the said keeper, are hereby commanded to receive the said C D into your custody in said jail and him there safely keep until the expiration of said —— days, or until he shall thence be discharged by due course of law.

Dated this —— day of ——, 18—.

J P, Justice of the Peace.

FORM OF CERTIFICATE OF CONVICTION.

The State of Washington, } ss.
County of ——. }

At a justice's court held at my office in said county before me, one of the justices of the peace in and for said county, for the trial of C D, for the offense hereinafter stated, the said C D was convicted of having on the —— day of ——, 18—, in said county committed (here insert the offense), and upon conviction, the said court did adjudge and determine that the said C D should pay a fine of —— dollars (or be imprisoned, as the case may be), and the said fine has been paid to me.

Given under my hand this —— day of ——, 18—.

J P, Justice of the Peace.

The State of Washington, } ss.
County of ——. }

To the Sheriff or any Constable of said County.

Whereas, at a justice's court held at my office in said county for the trial of C D for the offense hereinafter stated, the said C D

§ 1938. Examination of Witnesses—Transcript of Testimony.—It shall be the duty of every magistrate examining a person charged with an offense, or with an intention to commit an offense, to examine all the witnesses he shall deem material, and reduce their testimony to writing, a copy of which, whether the accused is discharged, committed, or held to bail, or shall take an appeal, he shall transmit to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the offense. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1905; L. '91, p. 22, § 8; 2 H. C., § 1571.]

§ 1939. Magistrate to Issue Warrant, When.—If, upon the examination, it shall appear that there is just cause to fear that such offense may be committed, the magistrate shall issue a warrant, under his hand, reciting the substance of the complaint, and requiring the officer to whom it may be directed forthwith to apprehend the person complained of and bring him before such magistrate, or some other magistrate or court having jurisdiction of the cause. [L. '54, p. 104, § 13; Cd. '81, § 1906; 2 H. C., § 1572.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 615.

§ 1940. Recognizance in Cases of Apprehended Danger.—The magistrate before whom any person is brought upon charge of having made threats as aforesaid shall, as soon as may be, hear and examine the complaint; and if it shall appear that there is just cause to fear that any such offense will be committed by the party complained of, he shall be required to enter into recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum as the magistrate shall direct, towards all the people of the state, and especially towards the person requiring such security, for such term as the magistrate shall order, not exceeding one year, but he shall not be ordered to recognizance for his appearance at the superior court unless he is charged with some offense for which he ought to be held to answer at said court. [L. '54, p. 104, § 14; Cd. '81, § 1907; 2 H. C., § 1573.]

See infra, § 1946, recognizance without process.
See infra, § 2202, recognizance after conviction.

§ 1941. Commitment of Defendant to Jail, When.—If the person so ordered to recognize shall fail to enter into such recognizance, the magistrate shall commit him to the county jail during the period for which he was required to give security, or until he shall so recognize, stating in the warrant the cause of commitment, with the sum and time for which security was required. [L. '54, p. 104, § 15; Cd. '81, § 1908; 2 H. C., § 1574.]

§ 1942. Magistrate to Discharge, When—Costs.—If, upon examination, it shall appear that there is not just cause to fear that any such offense will be committed by the party complained of, he shall be forthwith discharged; and if the magistrate shall deem the complaint unfounded, frivolous, or malicious, he may order the complainant to pay the costs of prosecution, who shall thereupon be answerable to the magistrate and the officer for their fees, as for his own debt. [L. '54, p. 104, § 16; Cd. '81, § 1909; 2 H. C., § 1575.]

See infra, § 2225, where complaint unfounded, costs, how taxed.

§ 1943. Costs—How Payment Enforced, etc.—When no order respecting the costs is made by the magistrate, they shall be allowed and paid in the same manner as costs before justices in criminal prosecutions; but in all cases where a person is required to give security for the peace, or for his good behavior, the magistrate may further order that the costs of prosecution, or any part thereof, shall be paid by such person, who shall stand committed until such costs are paid, or he is otherwise legally discharged. [L. '54, p. 105, § 17; Cd. '81, § 1910; 2 H. C., § 1576.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 87.

§ 1944. Defendant Discharged on Giving Security.—Any person committed for not finding sureties or refusing to recognize as required by the magistrate may be discharged by any judge or justice of the peace, on giving such security as was required. [L. '54, p. 105, § 22; Cd. '81, § 1915; 2 H. C., § 1577.]

§ 1945. Recognizances to be Transmitted and Filed.—Every recognizance taken pursuant to the foregoing provisions shall be transmitted to the superior court for the county within ten days, and shall be there filed on record by the clerk. [Cf. L. '54, p. 105, § 23; Cd. '81, § 1916; L. '91, p. 22, § 9; 2 H. C., § 1578.]

§ 1946. Recognizances Without Process, When.—Every person who shall, in the presence of any magistrate, or before any judge of a court of record, make an affray, or threaten to kill or beat another, or to commit any violence or outrage against his person or property, and every person who, in the presence of such judge or magistrate, shall contend with hot and angry words to the disturbance of the peace, may be ordered, without process or other proof, to recognize for keeping the peace or being of good behavior for a term not exceeding three months, and in case of refusal, may be committed as before directed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 105, § 24; Cd. '81, § 1917; L. '91, p. 22, § 10; 2 H. C., § 1579.]

§ 1947. Portion of Penalty Remitted, When.—Whenever, upon a suit brought on any such recognizance, the penalty thereof shall be adjudged forfeited, the court may remit such portion of the penalty, on the petition of any defendant, as the circumstances of the case shall render just and reasonable. [L. '54, p. 106, § 25; Cd. '81, § 1918; 2 H. C., § 1580.]

§ 1948. Surety may Surrender Principal, When—Effect of.—Any surety in recognizance to keep the peace or for good behavior, or both, shall have the same authority and right to take and surrender his principal as if he had been bail for him in a civil cause, and upon such surrender shall be discharged and exempt from all liability for any act of the principal, subsequent to such surrender, which would be a breach of the condition of the recognizance; and the person so surrendered may recognize anew, with sufficient sureties, before any justice of the peace, for the residue of the term, and thereupon shall be discharged. [L. '54, p. 106, § 26; Cd. '81, § 1919; 2 H. C., § 1581.]

CHAPTER IV.

Examination of Persons Charged With Crime Before Magistrates.

§ 1949. Examination of Offenses Before Magistrate.—Upon complaint being made to any justice of the peace, or judge of the superior court, that a criminal offense has been committed, he shall examine on oath the complainant, and any witness provided by him, and shall reduce the complaint to writing, and shall cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant; and if it shall appear that any offense has been committed of which the superior court has exclusive jurisdiction, the magistrate shall issue a warrant reciting the substance of the accusation, and requiring the officer to whom it shall be directed forthwith to take the person accused and bring him before the person issuing the warrant, unless he shall be absent or unable to attend thereto, then before some other magistrate of the county, to be dealt with according to law, and in the same warrant may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be therein named, to appear and give evidence on the examination. [L. '54, p. 106, § 27; Cd. '81, § 1921; 2 H. C., § 1582.]

Cited in 30 Wash. 615; 43 Wash. 19, 20.

§ 1950. Officer may Pursue and Retake Prisoner.—If any person against whom a warrant may be issued for an alleged offense committed in any county shall, either before or after the issuing of such warrant, escape from or be out of the county, the sheriff or other officer to whom such warrant may be directed may pursue and apprehend the party charged in any county in this state, and for that purpose may command aid and exercise the same authority as in his own county. [L. '54, p. 107, § 28; Cd. '81, § 1922; 2 H. C., § 1583.]

§ 1951. Recognizance With or Without Examination.—The magistrate before whom such accused person shall be brought, when the offense is bailable, may, at the request of such person, with or without examination, allow him to enter into recognizance, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the magistrate, conditioned for his appearance in the superior court having jurisdiction of the offense. [Cf. L. '54, p. 107, § 29; Cd. '81, § 1923; L. '91, p. 22, § 11; 2 H. C., § 1584.]

§ 1952. Hearing and Adjournment—Bail.—If the defendant shall not enter into recognizance with sureties, the magistrate shall proceed to hear and examine the complaint, and may adjourn the examination from time to time, not exceeding in all ten days from the time such defendant shall have been brought before him, and in case of such adjournment the magistrate may, if the offense be bail-able, take a recognizance, with sufficient sureties for the appearance of the defendant at such further examination; and if he fail to enter into such recognizance, he shall be ordered into custody until the time appointed for such examination. [L. '54, p. 107, § 30; Cd. '81, § 1924; 2 H. C., § 1585.]

§ 1953. Testimony, How Taken.—The testimony of the witness examined shall be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, when he shall think it necessary, and shall be signed by the witness. [L. '54, p. 109, § 40; Cd. '81, § 1933; 2 H. C., § 1586.]

§ 1954. Defendant Entitled to Discharge, When—Costs.—If it should appear, upon the whole examination, that no offense has been committed, or that there is not probable cause for charging the defendant with an offense, he shall be discharged; and if in the opinion of the magistrate the complaint was malicious or without probable cause, and there was no reasonable ground therefor, the costs shall be taxed against the party making the complaint. [L. '54, p. 107, § 31; Cd. '81, § 1925; 2 H. C., § 1588.]

See supra, § 1942, taxing costs to complaining witness.
See infra, § 2225, costs, how taxed when complaint unfounded.

§ 1955. Defendant Recognized to Appear Before Justice, When. If it shall appear that an offense has been committed of which a justice of the peace has jurisdiction, and one which would be sufficiently punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, if the magistrate having the complaint is a justice of the peace, he shall cause the complaint to be ordered [altered], and proceed as in like cases before a justice of the peace; or if any other magistrate, he shall certify the papers, with a statement of the offense appearing to be proved, to the nearest justice of the peace, and shall, by order, require the defendant and the witnesses to enter into recognizances, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the magistrate, for their appearance before such justice at the time and place stated in the order; and such justice shall proceed to the trial of the action as if originally commenced before him. [Cf. L. '54, p. 107, § 32; Cd. '81, § 1926; L. '91, p. 23, § 12; 2 H. C., § 1589.]

See supra, § 1928, proceedings on verdict.

§ 1956. Bail to Justify, When Required.—Bail shall, when required, justify as in civil cases. [L. '54, p. 129, § 178; Cd. '81, § 1169; 2 H. C., § 1590.]

See supra, § 765, qualifications of bail.

§ 1957. Defendant to be Discharged on Bail, When.—If it appear that a bailable offense has been committed, the magistrate shall order the defendant to enter into recognizance, with sufficient sureties, for his appearance in the superior court, to answer the charge, and if he shall not do so, or the offense be not bailable, he shall commit him to jail. The justice of the peace who committed the person, or the judge of the superior court to which the party is held to answer, may admit to bail in the amount required, and approve the sureties. The recognizance shall be conditioned in effect that the defendant will appear in the superior court to answer said charge whenever the same shall be prosecuted, and at all times, until discharged according to law, render himself amenable to the orders and process of the superior court, and if convicted, render himself in execution of the judgment. [Cf. L. '54, p. 108, §§ 33, 34; Cd. '81, § 1927; L. '91, p. 23, § 13; 2 H. C., § 1591.]

See infra, § 2052, appearance to answer information or indictment.
See infra, § 2053, duty of prosecuting attorney in cases of preliminary examination.
See infra, § 2088, recognizance certified and recorded, effect of.

§ 1958. Magistrates may Associate Other Magistrates. — Any magistrate to whom complaint is made, or before whom any defendant is brought, may associate with himself one or more magistrates of the same county, and they may, together, execute the powers and duties before mentioned; but no fees shall be taxed for such associates. [L. '54, p. 108, § 35; Cd. '81, § 1928; 2 H. C., § 1592.]

§ 1959. Witnesses to be Recognized, When.—When the person arrested is held to bail or committed to jail or forfeits his recognizance, the magistrate shall recognize the witnesses for the prosecution to be and appear in the superior court to which the party is recognized, bailed, or committed, whenever their attendance shall be required. [Cf. L. '54, p. 108, § 36; Cd. '81, § 1929; L. '91, p. 23, § 14; 2 H. C., § 1593.]

§ 1960. Witnesses to Recognize With Sureties, When.—If the magistrate shall be satisfied that there is good cause to believe that any such witness will not perform the condition of his recognizance unless other security be given, such magistrate may order the witness to enter into recognizance with such sureties as may be deemed necessary for his appearance at court. [L. '54, p. 108, § 37; Cd. '81, § 1930; 2 H. C., § 1594.]

§ 1961. Recognizance of Minor or Married Woman.—When any married woman or a minor is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for the appearance of such witness, or the magistrate may, in his discretion, take the recognizance of such married woman or minor in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, which shall be valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability of coverture or minority. [L. '54, p. 108, § 38; Cd. '81, § 1931; 2 H. C., § 1595.]

§ 1962. Commitment of Witnesses on Default of Bond—Depositions.—All witnesses required to recognize with or without sureties shall, if they refuse, be committed to the county jail by the magistrate, there to remain until they comply with such orders or be otherwise discharged according to law: Provided, that when the magistrate is satisfied that any witness required to recognize with sureties is unable to comply with such orders, he shall immediately take the deposition of such witness and discharge him from custody upon his own recognizance. The testimony of the witness shall be reduced to writing by the justice or some competent person under his direction, and he shall take only the exact words of the witness; the deposition, except the cross-examinations, shall be in the narrative form, and upon the cross-examination the questions and answers shall be taken in full. The defendant must be present in person when the deposition is taken, and shall have an opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses; he may make any objections to the admission of any part of the testimony, and all objections shall be noted by the justice; but the justice shall not decide as to the admissibility of the evidence, but shall take all the testimony offered by the witness. The deposition must be carefully read to the witness, and any corrections he may desire to make thereto shall be made in presence of the defendant, by adding the same to the deposition as first taken; it must be signed by the witness, certified by the justice, and transmitted to the clerk of the superior court, in the same manner as depositions in civil actions. And if the witness is not present when required to testify in the case, either before the grand jury or upon the trial in the superior court, the deposition shall be submitted to the judge of such superior court, upon the objections noted by the justice, and such judge shall suppress so much of said deposition as he shall find to be inadmissible, and the remainder of the deposition may be read as evidence in the case, either before the grand jury or upon the trial in the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 108, § 39; L. '77, p. 203, § 8; Cd. '81, § 1932; L. '91, p. 24, § 15; 2 H. C., § 1596.]

§ 1963. Magistrate to Make Return — Penalty.—It shall be the duty of all magistrates within this state, before whom any person or persons shall be committed or held to bail to answer to [for] any crime, to return their proceedings, duly certified, including a copy of all recognizances taken by them, to the clerk of the superior court within ten days after the final hearing and commitment, or holding to bail, as aforesaid; and any justice of the peace who shall fail or neglect to make such return shall not be entitled to receive any fees or costs in such case. [Cf. L. '54, p. 109, § 41; Cd. '81, § 1934; L. '91, p. 25, § 16; 2 H. C., § 1597.]

§ 1964. Offense may be Compromised, When.—When any person shall be committed to prison, or shall be under examination or recognizance to answer any charge for a misdemeanor for which the party injured may have a remedy by civil action, except where the offense was committed upon a sheriff or other officer, justice, or violently or with intent to commit a felony, if the party injured shall appear before the magistrate who made the commitment or took the recognizance or is conducting the examination, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the magistrate may, in his discretion, on payment of all costs which may have accrued, discharge the recognizance or supersede the commitment by an order under his hand, and may also discharge all recognizance and supersede the commitment of all witnesses in the case. [L. '54, p. 109, § 42; Cd. '81, § 1935; 2 H. C., § 1598.]

See infra, §§ 2126–2128, compromising offenses.

§ 1965. Action on Forfeiture of Recognizance.—When any person under recognizance in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer before a justice, or to testify in any court, shall fail to perform the condition of any recognizance, his default shall be recorded; and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to proceed at once, by action against the person bound by recognizance, or such of them as he may elect. [L. '54, p. 109, § 43; Cd. '81, § 1936; 2 H. C., § 1599.]

See infra, § 2234 et seq., action on forfeited recognizance.

§ 1966. Abstract of Costs to be Forwarded With Papers.—In all cases where any magistrate shall order a defendant to recognize for his appearance before a justice of the peace or the superior court, he shall forward with the papers in the case an abstract of the costs that have accrued in the case, and such costs shall be subject to the final determination of the case. [L. '54, p. 109, § 44; Cd. '81, § 1937; 2 H. C., § 1600.]

CHAPTER V.

Proceedings Against Vagrants.

§ 1967. Vagrancy, Defined.—The following persons are vagrants: All persons who tell fortunes, or who keep houses where lost and stolen goods may be found; all common prostitutes, and keepers of bawdy-houses or houses for the resort of prostitutes; all habitual drunkards, gamesters, or other disorderly persons; all persons wandering about and having no visible calling or business to maintain themselves; all persons going about as collectors of alms for charitable institutions under any false or fraudulent pretense; all persons playing or betting in any street, or public or open place, at or with any table or instrument of gaming at any game or pretended game of chance. [L. '75, p. 89, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1271; 2 H. C., § 1608.]

As to repeal of this section, see § 2304.

§ 1968. Proceedings for Examination of.—Upon complaint made on oath to any justice of the peace against any person as being such vagrant within his local jurisdiction, as defined in the last preceding section, he shall issue a warrant for the arrest of such person, and the complaint, warrant, arrest, and examination shall be governed by the provisions of this code relating to the examination and commitment for trial of persons charged with offenses, so far as the same may be applicable. [Cf. L. '75, p. 90, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1272; L. '91, p. 25, § 17; 2 H. C., § 1609.]

§ 1969. Arrest Without Warrant.—All peace officers shall arrest any vagrant whom they may find at large, and take him before some justice of the peace of the county, city, or town in which the arrest is made. [L. '75, p. 90, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1273; 2 H. C., § 1610.]

CHAPTER VI.

Juvenile Offenders—Commitment to State Training School.

§ 1980. Juvenile Offender Committed, When.—When a boy of sane mind between the ages of eight and sixteen years, or a girl of sane mind between the ages of eight and eighteen (18) years shall, in any court of record in this state, be found guilty of any crime except murder or manslaughter, or who for want of proper paternal care is growing up in mendicancy or vagrancy, or is incorrigible, and complaint thereof is made and properly sustained, the court may if in its opinion the accused is a proper subject therefor, instead of entering judgment cause an order to be entered that said boy or girl be sent to the state training school, in pursuance of the provisions of this act, and a copy of said order under the seal of said court shall be sufficient warrant for carrying said boy or girl to the said school and for his or her commitment to the custody of the superintendent thereof. [L. '05, p. 39, § 1. Cf. L. '91, p. 195, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1227.]

§ 1982. Order to Show Cause, How Served—Fees.—Said order shall be served by the sheriff or other qualified officer by delivering a copy thereof personally to the party to whom it is addressed, or leaving it with some person of full age at the place of residence or business of said party, and immediate returns shall be made to said judge of the time and manner of such service. The fees of the sheriff or other officer under this chapter shall be the same as now or may hereafter be allowed by law for like services. [L. '91, p. 196, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1229.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 3111.

§ 1983. Examination, Hearing, and Commitment by Warrant.—At the time and place mentioned in said order, or at the time and place to which it may be adjourned, if the parent or guardian to whom said order may be addressed shall appear, then in his or her presence, or if he or she fail to appear, then in the presence of some competent person whom the said judge shall appoint as guardian for the purposes of the case, it shall be lawful for the said judge to proceed to take the voluntary examination of said boy or girl, and to hear the statements of the party appearing for him or her, and such testimony in relation to the case as may be produced, and if upon such examination and hearing the said judge shall be satisfied that the boy or girl is a fit subject for the state training school, he may commit him or her to said school by warrant. [L. '91, p. 196, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1230.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 311; 24 Wash. 333; 58 Wash. 341.

§ 1984. Warrant of Commitment must State What—Expense.—The judge shall certify in the warrant the place in which said boy or girl resided at the time of his or her arrest, also his or her age as near as can be ascertained, and command the said officer to take the said boy or girl, and deliver him or her without delay to the superintendent of said school, or other persons in charge thereof at the place where the same is located and established; and such certificate, for the purpose of this act, shall be conclusive evidence of his or her residence or age; accompanying this warrant, the judge shall transmit to the superintendent, by the officer executing it, a statement of the nature of the complaint, together with such other particulars concerning the boy or the girl as the judge is able to ascertain: Provided, the expense of conveying any boy or girl so committed to said state training school, or returning him or her to his or her parent or guardian after his or her release therefrom, shall be at the expense of the state. [L. '91, p. 196, § 5; 1 H. C., § 1231.]

See infra, § 8955, transportation of incorrigibles.

§ 1985. Proceedings in Lower Court—How Reviewed.—The proceedings of any judge or court may be reviewed on writ of error by the superior court, and proceedings before any superior court or judge thereof may be reviewed by the supreme court, in the manner provided by law for reviewing criminal cases in these courts. [L. '91, p. 197, § 6; 1 H. C., § 1232.]

Cited in 37 Wash. 259.

§ 1986. Term of Confinement—Effect of Discharge.—Each boy committed to the state training school shall remain there until he arrives at the age of eighteen years, and each girl committed to the state training school shall remain there until she arrives at the age of nineteen years, unless sooner paroled or legally discharged. The discharge of any boy having arrived at the age of eighteen years or of any girl having arrived at the age of nineteen years, shall be a complete release from all penalties incurred by conviction of the offense for which he or she was committed. [L. '91, p. 197, § 7; 1 H. C., § 1233; L. '05, p. 40, § 3.]

CHAPTER VII.

Delinquent Children, and Juvenile Courts.

§ 1987-1. Scope of Act—"Dependent Child"—"Delinquent Child." This act shall be known as the "Juvenile Court Law" and shall apply to all minor children under the age of eighteen years who are delinquent or dependent; and to any person or persons who are responsible for or contribute to, the delinquency or dependency of such children.

For the purpose of this act the words "dependent child" shall mean any child under the age of eighteen years:

(1) Who is found begging, receiving or gathering alms, whether actually begging or under the pretext of selling, or offering anything for sale; or

(2) Who is found in any street, road or public place for the purpose of so begging, gathering or receiving alms; or

(3) Who is a vagrant; or

(4) Who is found wandering and not having any home or any settled place of abode, or any proper guardianship, or any visible means of subsistence; or

(5) Who has no parent or guardian; or who has no parent or guardian willing to exercise, or capable of exercising, proper parental control; or

(6) Who is destitute; or

(7) Whose home by reason of neglect, cruelty or depravity of its parents or either of them, or on the part of its guardian, or on the part of the person in whose custody or care it may be, or for any other reason, is an unfit place for such child; or

(8) Who frequents the company of reputed criminals, vagrants or prostitutes; or

(9) Who is found living or being in any house of prostitution or assignation; or

(10) Who habitually visits any billiard-room or pool-room; or any saloon, or place where spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors are sold, bartered, or given away; or

(11) Who persistently refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of its parents or guardian; or

(12) Who is incorrigible; that is, who is beyond the control and power of its parents, guardian, or custodian by reason of the vicious conduct or nature of said child; or

(13) Whose father, mother, guardian or custodian is an habitual drunkard; or do not properly provide for such child, and it appears that such child is destitute of a suitable home or of adequate means of obtaining an honest living, or who is in danger of being brought up to lead an idle, dissolute or immoral life; or where such child is without proper means of support; or

(14) Who is an habitual truant, as defined in the school laws of the state of Washington; or

(15) Who uses intoxicating liquor as a beverage, or who uses tobacco in any form, or who uses opium, cocaine, morphine, or other similar drug, without the direction of a competent physician; or

(16) Who from any cause is in danger of growing up to lead an idle, dissolute or immoral life; or

(17) Who wanders about in the night-time without being on any lawful business or occupation; or

(18) Any child under the age of twelve years found peddling or selling any article, or singing or playing on any musical instrument for gain upon the public street, or giving any public entertainment, or who accompanies, or is used in aid of, any person so doing: Provided, that this act shall not prohibit the giving of entertainments by regularly organized schools or societies where twelve or more musical instruments are used.

The words "delinquent child" shall include any child under the age of eighteen years who violates any law of this state, or any ordinance of any town, city, county or city and county of this state defining crime; or who habitually uses vile, obscene, vulgar, profane or indecent language, or is guilty of immoral conduct; or who is found in or about railroad yards or tracks; or who jumps on or off trains or cars; or who enters a car or engine, without lawful authority.

For the purpose of this act only, all delinquent and dependent children within the state shall be considered wards of this state and their persons shall be subject to the custody, care, guardianship and control of the court as hereinafter provided. § 1987–2. Juvenile Courts—Terms—Records.—The superior courts in the several counties of this state shall have original jurisdiction in all cases coming within the terms of this act. In all trials under this act, any person interested therein may demand a jury trial, or the judge of his own motion, may order a jury to try the case. In counties containing thirty thousand or more inhabitants, the judges of the superior court shall, at such times as they may determine, designate one or more of their number whose duty it shall be to hear all cases arising under this act. A special session to be designated as the "Juvenile Court Session" shall be provided for the hearing of such cases and the findings of the court shall be entered in a book or books kept for the purpose, and known as the "Juvenile Record," and the court may, for convenience, be called the "Juvenile Court." [L. '13, p. 522, § 2.]

§ 1987–3. Probation Officers.—The court or judge designated as provided in section 1987–2, shall appoint or designate one or more discreet persons of good character to serve as probation officers during the pleasure of the court, said probation officers to receive no compensation from the public treasury. In case a probation officer shall be appointed by any court, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court, if practicable, to notify the said probation officer in advance when the child is to be brought before said court; it shall be the duty of said probation officers to make such investigation as may be required by the court. The probation officer or officers shall inquire into the antecedents, character, family history, environments and cause of dependency or delinquency of every alleged dependent or delinquent child brought before the juvenile court and shall make his report in writing to the judge thereof, shall be present in order to represent the interests of the child when the case is heard, shall furnish the court such information and assistance as the judge may require, and shall take such charge of the child before and after the trial as may be directed by the court. In counties containing thirty thousand or more inhabitants when it shall appear that there is a necessity for such county officer, the court may appoint one or more persons to act as probation officers, and one or more persons who shall have charge of detention rooms or house of detention, all of whom shall be paid as compensation for their services, such sums as may be fixed by the board of county commissioners, and who shall be paid as other county officers are paid; all probation officers shall possess all the powers conferred upon sheriffs and police officers to serve process and make arrests for the violation of any state law or city ordinance, relative to the care, custody, and control of delinquent and dependent children. [L. '13, p. 522, § 3.]

§ 1987–4. Expenses of Probation Officers.—The probation officers, and assistant probation officers, and deputy probation officers in all counties of the state shall be allowed such necessary incidental expenses as may be authorized by the judge of the juvenile court, and the same shall be a charge upon the county in which the court appointing them has jurisdiction, and the expenses shall be paid out of the county treasury upon a written order of the judge of the juvenile court of said county directing the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer for the specified amount of such expenses. [L. '13, p. 523, § 4.]

§ 1987–5. Petition to Take Charge of Child.—Any person may file with the clerk of the superior court a petition showing that there is within the county, or residing within the county, a dependent or delinquent child and praying that the superior court deal with such child as provided in this act: Provided, that in counties having paid probation officers, such officers shall, as far as possible, first determine if such petition is reasonably justifiable. Such petition shall be verified and shall contain a statement of facts constituting such dependency or delinquency, as defined in section 1987–1, and the names and residence, if known to the petitioner, of the parents, guardian, or custodian of such dependent or delinquent child. There shall be no fee for filing such petitions. [L. '13, p. 524, § 5.]

§ 1987–6. Summons—Hearing.—Upon the filing of an information, or the petition, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons requiring the person having custody or control of the child, or with whom the child may be, to appear with the child at a place and time stated in the summons, which time shall not be less than twenty-four hours after service. The parents of the child, if living, and their residence is known, or its legal guardian, if there be one or if there is neither parent nor guardian, or if his or her residence is not known, then some relative, if there be one, and his residence is known, shall be notified of the proceedings; and in any case the judge shall appoint some suitable person or associ̇ation to act in behalf of the child. If the person summoned as herein provided, shall fail without reasonable cause to appear and abide the order of the court, or bring the child, he shall be proceeded against as for contempt of court. In case the summons cannot be served or the parties served fail to obey same, and in any case when it shall be made to appear to the court that said summons will be ineffectual, a warrant may issue on the order of the court, either against the parent or guardian or the person having custody of the child, or with whom the child may be, or against the child itself. On return of the summons or other process, or as soon thereafter as may be, the court shall proceed to hear and dispose of the case in a summary manner. Pending the final disposition of the case, the child may be retained in the possession of the person having charge of same, or may be kept in some suitable place provided by the city or county authorities, or by any association having for one of its objects the care of delinquent and dependent children. [L. '13, p. 524, § 6.]

ing in the position of natural or legal guardian of the person of any child, is a nonresident of this state, or that the name or place of residence or whereabouts of such person is unknown, as well as in all cases where, after due diligence, the officer has been unable to make service of the summons or notice provided for in section 1987–6, the court may, by order, direct the clerk of the court to publish a notice four consecutive weeks in some newspaper printed in the county and having a general circulation therein. Such notice shall be directed to the parent, parents, or other person claiming the right to the custody of the child, if their names are known, and if unknown, the phrase "To Whom It May Concern" shall be used and apply to, and be binding upon, any such persons whose names are unknown. The name of the court, the name of the child (or children if of one family), the date of the filing of the petition and the date of hearing, which shall not be less than twenty days from the date of the last publication, and the object of the proceeding in general terms, shall be set forth and the whole shall be subscribed by the clerk. There shall be filed with the clerk an affidavit showing due publication of the notice and the cost of publication shall be paid by the county at not to exceed the rate paid by the county for other legal notices. The publication of notice shall be deemed equivalent to personal service upon all persons, known or unknown, who have been designated as provided in this section. [L. '13, p. 525, § 7.]

§ 1987–8. Commitment of Child—Support by Parent.—When any child under the age of eighteen years shall be found to be delinquent or dependent, within the meaning of this act, the court may, at any time, make an order committing the child to some suitable institution, or to the care of some reputable citizen of good moral character, or to the care of some training school or industrial school as provided by law, or to the care of some association willing to receive it, embracing in its objects the purpose of caring for or obtaining homes for dependent, neglected, or delinquent children: Provided, such order may be temporary or permanent in the discretion of the court and may be revoked or modified as the circumstances of the case may thereafter require. In any case in which the court shall find the child dependent or delinquent, it may in the same or subsequent proceeding upon the parent or parents, guardian, or other person having custody of said child, being duly summoned or voluntarily appearing, proceed to inquire into the ability of such persons or person to support the child or contribute to its support, and if the court shall find such person or persons able to support the child or contribute thereto, the court may enter such order or decree as shall be according to equity in the premises, and may enforce the same by execution, or in any way in which a court of equity may enforce its decrees. If it be found, however, that the parent or parents or guardian of a dependent or delinquent child is unable to pay the whole expense of maintaining such child, and in cases where the child is committed to one of the institutions or associations above mentioned, the court may, in the order providing for the custody of such child, direct such additional amount as may be necessary to support such child to be paid from the county treasury of the county for the support of such person. The amount so ordered to be paid from the treasury of said county shall not exceed in the case of any one person, the sum of twelve dollars per month; Provided, further, that no order for the payment of all or part of the expense of support and maintenance of a dependent or delinquent child from the county treasury shall be effective for more than six months, unless a new order is secured at the expiration of that period. [L. '13, p. 525, § 8.]

§ 1987–9. Award and Adoption of Children.—In any case where the court shall award a child to the care of any association or individual, the child shall, unless otherwise ordered, become a ward and be subject to the guardianship of the association or individual to whose care it is committed; such association shall have authority, with the assent of the court, to place such child in a family home, either temporarily or for adoption. With the written consent of the parents, or other person having the right, under the laws of this state, to dispose of a dependent or delinquent child, the court may make an order or decree of adoption transferring to any suitable person or persons, willing to receive such child, all the rights of the parent or other guardian. The order of the court made upon such consent will be binding upon the child and its parents or guardian, or other person, the same as if such person were in court and consented thereto, whether made a party to the proceedings or not. The estate or property rights of any child shall not be affected nor subject to guardianship by the provisions of this act. The jurisdiction of the court shall continue over every child brought before the court, or committed pursuant to this act, and the court shall have power to order a change in the care or custody of such child, if at any time it is made to appear to the court that it would be for the best interests of the child to make such change. [L. '13, p. 527, § 9.]

§ 1987–10. Private Hearings — Judgment of Conviction. — The hearings may be conducted in any room provided for the purpose in the courthouse, or building where sessions of the court are held and, as far as practicable, such cases shall not be heard in conjunction with other business of the court. At the hearing of any case involving a child, the court shall have power to exclude the general public from the room where the hearing is had, admitting thereto only such persons as may have a direct interest in the case. Any child may have a private hearing upon the question of its dependency or delinquency, and upon the request of said child, or either of its parents, or guardian, or custodian, such hearing may be had privately. An order of court adjudging a child dependent or delinquent under the provisions of this act shall in no case be deemed a conviction of crime. The probation officer's investigation record and report in each case, shall be withheld from public inspection, but such records shall be kept open to the inspection of such child, its parents, or guardian, or its attorney, and to such other persons as may secure a special order of the court therefor. Such records shall be kept as unofficial records of the court and shall be destroyed at any time in the discretion of any judge presiding in said court on or before the child shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years. After acquiring jurisdiction over any child, the court shall have power to make an order with respect to the custody, care or control of such child, or any order, which in the judgment of the court, would promote the child's health and welfare. In any case of a delinquent or dependent child, the court may continue the hearing from time to time, and may commit the child to the care or guardianship of a probation officer, duly appointed by the court, and may allow such child to remain at its own home subject to the visitation of the probation officer, such child to report to the probation officer as often as may be required and subject to being returned to the court for further proceedings whenever such action may appear to be necessary, or the court may commit the child to the care and guardianship of the probation officer, to be placed in a suitable family home, in case provision is made by voluntary contribution or otherwise for the payment of the board of the child until a suitable provision may be made for the child in a home without such payment, or the court may commit the child to a suitable institution for the care of delinquent or dependent children. In no case shall a child be committed beyond the age of twenty-one years. A child committed to such institution shall be subject to the control thereof and the said institution shall have the power to parole such child, on such conditions as may be prescribed, and the court shall have power to discharge such child from custody, whenever, in the judgment of the court, his or her reformation shall be complete; or the court may commit the child to the care and custody of some association that will receive such child, embracing in its objects the care of neglected, delinquent, and dependent children. [L. '13, p. 527, § 10.]

§ 1987–11. Child not to be Detained in Jail.—No court or magistrate shall commit a child under sixteen years of age to a jail, common lock-up, or police station; but if such child is unable to give bail, it may be committed to the care of the sheriff, police officer, or probation officer, who shall keep such child in some suitable place or house or school of detention provided by the city or county, outside the inclosure of any jail or police station, or in the care of any association willing to receive it and having as one of its objects the care of delinquent, dependent or neglected children. When any child shall be sentenced to confinement in any institution to which adult convicts are sentenced, it shall be unlawful to confine such child in the same building with such adult convicts, or to bring such child into any yard or building in which such adult convicts may be present. [L. '13, p. 529, § 11.]

§ 1987–12. Justice Court Cases Transferred to Juvenile Court.—When, in any county where a court is held as provided in section 1987–2, a child under the age of eighteen years is arrested with or without warrant, such child may, instead of being taken before a justice of the peace or police magistrate, be taken directly before such court; or if the child is taken before a justice of the peace or police magistrate, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace or police magistrate to transfer the case to such court, and the officer having the child in charge shall take the child before that court, and in any such case, the court may proceed to hear and dispose of the case in the same manner as if the child had been brought before the court upon petition as hereinbefore provided. In any such case, the court shall require notice to be given and investigation to be made as in other cases under this act, and may adjourn the hearing from time to time for such purpose. If, upon investigation, it shall appear that a child has been arrested upon the charge of having committed a crime, the court, in its discretion, may order such child to be turned over to the proper officers for trial under the provisions of the criminal code. [L. '13, p. 529, § 12.]

§ 1987–13. Detention Rooms.—Counties containing more than fifty thousand inhabitants shall, and counties containing a lesser number of inhabitants may, provide and maintain at public expense, a detention room or house of detention, separated or removed from any jail, or police station, to be in charge of a matron, or other person of good character, wherein all children within the provisions of this act shall, when necessary, be sheltered. [L. '13, p. 530, § 13.]

§ 1987–14. Construction of Act.—This act shall be liberally construed to the end that its purpose may be carried out, to wit: that the care, custody and discipline of a dependent or delinquent child as defined in this act shall approximate as nearly as may be that which should be given by its parents, and in all cases where it can be properly done, the dependent or delinquent child as defined in this act shall be placed in an approved family and may become a member of the family, by adoption or otherwise. No dependent or delinquent child as defined in this act shall be taken from the custody of its parent, parents or legal guardian, without the consent of such parent, parents or guardian, unless the court shall find such parent, parents or guardian is incapable or has failed or neglected to provide proper maintenance, training and education for said child; or unless said child has been tried on probation in said custody, and has failed to reform, or unless the court shall find that the welfare of said child requires that his custody shall be taken from said parent or guardian. In this act, the words used in any gender shall include all other genders, and the word "county" shall include "city and county," the plural shall include the singular and singular shall include the plural. [L. '13, p. 530, § 14.]

§ 1987–15. Court may Change Order.—Any order made by the court in the case of a dependent or delinquent child may at any time be changed, modified or set aside, as to the judge may seem meet and proper. [L. '13, p. 530, § 15.]

§ 1987–16. Fees not Allowable.—No fees shall be charged or collected by any officer or other person for filing petition, serving summons, or other process under this act. [L. '13, p. 531, § 16.]

§ 1987–17. Penalty for Delinquency of Child — Bond.—In all cases where any child shall be dependent or delinquent under the terms of this act, the parent or parents, legal guardian or person having custody of such child, or any other person who shall by any act or omission, encourage, cause or contribute to the dependency or delinquency of such child shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and the juvenile court shall have jurisdiction of all such misdemeanors: Provided, however, that the court may suspend sentence for a violation of the provisions of this section and impose conditions as to conduct in the premises of any person so convicted, and make such suspension to depend upon the fulfillment by such person of such conditions, and, in case of the breach of such conditions, or any thereof, the court may impose sentence as though there had been no such suspension. The court may also, as a condition of such suspension, require a bond in such sum as the court may designate, to be approved by the judge requiring same, to secure the performance by such persons on the conditions imposed by the court on such suspension. Such bond shall, by its terms, be made payable to the state of Washington, and any moneys received for a breach thereof shall be paid into the county treasury. [L. '13, p. 531, § 17. Cf. L. '09, p. 595, § 1; L. '07, p. 16, § 1.]

§ 1987–18. Board of Visitation.—In each county, the judge presiding over the juvenile court sessions, as defined in this act, may appoint a board of four reputable citizens, who shall serve without compensation, to constitute a board of visitation, whose duty it shall be to visit as often as twice a year all institutions, societies and associations within the county receiving children under this act, as well as all homes for children or other places where individuals are holding themselves out as caretakers of children, also to visit other institutions, societies and associations within the state receiving and caring for children, whenever requested to do so by the judge of the juvenile court: Provided, the actual expenses of such board may be paid by the county commissioners when members thereof are requested to visit institutions outside of the county seat, and no member of the board shall be required to visit any institutions outside the county unless his actual traveling expenses shall be paid as aforesaid. Such visits shall be made by not less than two members of the board, who shall go together or make a joint report. The board of visitors shall report to the court from time to time the condition of children received by or in charge of such institutions, societies, associations, or individuals. It shall be the duty of every institution, society, or association, or individual receiving and caring for children to permit any member or members of the board of visitation to visit and inspect such institution, society, association or home where such child is kept, in all its departments, so that a full report may be made to the court. [L. '13, p. 531, § 18.]

CHAPTER VIII.

Limitation of Criminal Actions and Repeals.

§ 2005. Limitation on Criminal Actions Other Than Murder.—Prosecutions for the offenses of murder and arson, where death ensues, may be commenced at any period after the commission of the offense; for offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, within three years after their commission; and for all other offenses, within one year after their commission; Provided, that any length of time during which the party charged was not usually and publicly resident within this state shall not be reckoned within the one and three years respectively: And further provided, that where an indictment has been found, or an information filed, within the time limited for the commencement of a criminal action, if the indictment or information be set aside, the time of limitation shall be computed from the setting aside of such indictment or information. [Cf. L. '54, p. 77, § 10; Cd. '81, § 779; L. '91, p. 46, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1188.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 436; 56 Wash. 385.

§ 2006. Repeal and Amendment of Criminal Statutes—Saving Clause Presumed.—No offense committed and no penalty or forfeiture incurred previous to the time when any statutory provision shall be repealed, whether such repeal be express or implied, shall be affected by such repeal, unless a contrary intention is expressly declared in the repealing act, and no prosecution for any offense, or for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture, pending at the time any statutory provision shall be repealed, whether such repeal be express or implied, shall be affected by such repeal, but the same shall proceed in all respects, as if such provision had not been repealed, unless a contrary intention is expressly declared in the repealing act. Whenever any criminal or penal statute shall be amended or repealed, all offenses committed, or penalties or forfeitures incurred while it was in force shall be punished or enforced as if it were in force, notwithstanding such amendment or repeal, unless a contrary intention is expressly declared in the amendatory or repealing act, and every such amendatory or repealing statute shall be so construed as to save all criminal and penal proceedings, and proceedings to recover forfeitures, pending at the time of its enactment, unless a contrary intention is expressly declared therein. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 13, § 1.]

CHAPTER IX.

Parties to Criminal Actions.

§ 2007. Distinctions Relating to Accessory Abolished.—No distinction shall exist between an accessory before the fact and a principal, or between principals in the first and second degree, and all persons concerned in the commission of an offense, whether they directly counsel the act constituting the offense, or counsel, aid and abet in its commission, though not present, shall hereafter be indicted, tried, and punished as principals. [L. '54, p. 98, § 125; Cd. '81, § 956; 2 H. C., § 1189.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 178, 179; 7 Wash. 340; 12 Wash. 350; 19 Wash. 467; 20 Wash. 502; 21 Wash. 356; 48 Wash. 262; 66 Wash. 467, 468; 82 Wash. 674; 86 Wash. 281.

§ 2008. Accessory After the Fact—Who may be.—Every person not standing in the relation of husband or wife, parent or grandparent, child or grandchild, brother or sister, by consanguinity or affinity, to the offender, who, after the commission of any felony, shall harbor, conceal, or maintain, or assist any principal felon or accessory before the fact, or shall give the offender any other aid, knowing that he had committed a felony, or had been accessory thereto before the fact, with intent that he shall avoid or escape from detection, arrest, trial, or punishment, shall be deemed accessory after the fact, and shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year, or be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. [L. '54, p. 98, § 126; Cd. '81, § 957; 2 H. C., § 1190.]

§ 2009. Accessory After Fact Tried Though Principal not.—Every person who shall become an accessory after the fact to any felony may be indicted, convicted, and punished, whether the principal felon shall or shall not have been convicted previously, or shall or shall not be amenable to justice by any court having jurisdiction to try the principal felon. [Cf. L. '54, p. 98, § 127; Cd. '91, § 958; L. '91, p. 65, § 97; 2 H. C., § 1376.]

§ 2010. Who may be Tried and Punished.—Every person, whether an inhabitant of this state, or of any other state, territory, or county, may be tried and punished under the laws of this state for an offense committed by him therein, except when such offense is cognizable exclusively in the courts of the United States. [L. '91, p. 47, § 3; 2 H. C., § 1191.]

§ 2011. Term "Person" Defined.—When the term "person" or other word is used to designate the party whose property is the subject of an offense, or against whom any act is done with intent to defraud or injure, the term may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any public or private corporation, as well as an individual. [L. '54, p. 99, § 134; Cd. '81, § 964.]

§ 2011-1. Corporation Charged With Crime.—Whenever an indictment or information shall be filed in any superior court against a corporation charging it with the commission of a crime, a summons shall be issued by the clerk of such court, signed by one of the judges thereof, commanding the sheriff forthwith to notify the accused thereof, and commanding it to appear before such court at such time as shall be specified in said summons. Such summons and a copy of the indictment or information shall be at once delivered by such clerk to said sheriff and by him forthwith served and returned in the manner provided for service of summons upon such corporation in a civil action. Whenever a complaint against a corporation, charging it with the commission of a crime, shall be made before any justice of the peace or municipal judge, a like summons, signed by such justice of the peace or municipal judge, shall be issued, which, together with a copy of said complaint, shall be delivered to the sheriff at once and by him forthwith served as herein provided. [L. '11, p. 106, § 1.]

§ 2011–2. Appearance by Corporation.—Upon such service being made such corporation shall appear at the time designated, by one of its officers or by counsel; and upon such appearance, and thereafter, the same course shall be pursued, as nearly as may be, as upon the appearance of an individual to indictment, information or complaint and warrant charging him with the same offense. Upon failure of the corporation to make such appearance said court shall cause to be entered a plea of "not guilty," and upon appearance made or plea entered the corporation shall be deemed forthwith continuously present in court until the case shall be finally disposed of. [L. '11, p. 106, § 2.]

§ 2011–3. Judgment Against Corporation.—If the corporation shall be found guilty and a fine imposed, it shall be entered and docketed by the clerk, or justice of the peace or municipal judge as a judgment against the corporation, and it shall be of the same force and effect and be enforced against such corporation in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. [L. '11, p. 106, § 3.]

CHAPTER X.

Venue of Criminal Actions.

§ 2012. Criminal Actions, Where Commenced.—Except as otherwise specially provided by statute, all criminal actions shall be commenced and tried in the county where the offense was committed. [Cf. L. '79, p. 75, § 10; Cd. '81, § 780; L. '91, p. 47, § 4; 2 H. C., § 1192.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 576; 15 Wash. 17.

§ 2013. Jurisdiction When Offense Committed in Two or More Counties.—When a public offense has been committed partly in one county and partly in another, or the act or effects constituting or requisite to the consummation of the offense occur in two or more counties, the jurisdiction is in either county. [L. '54, p. 99, § 129; Cd. '81, § 959; 2 H. C., § 1193.]

Cited in 26 Wash. 654.

§ 2014. Offenses Committed on County Boundaries.—Offenses committed on the boundary line of two counties, or within one hundred rods of the dividing line between them, may be alleged in the indictment or information to have been committed in either of them, and may be prosecuted and punished in either county. [Cf. L. '54, p. 99, § 130; Cd. '81, § 960; L. '91, p. 47, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1194.]

§ 2015. Venue of Stolen Property Taken into Another County.—When property taken in one county by burglary, robbery, larceny, or embezzlement has been brought into another county, the jurisdiction is in either county. [L. '54, p. 99, § 131; Cd. '81, § 961; 2 H. C., § 1195.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 553; 55 Wash. 589.

§ 2016. Jurisdiction of Homicide in Either County, When.—If any mortal wound is given or poison administered in one county, and death, by means thereof, ensue in another, the jurisdiction is in either. [L. '54, p. 99, § 132; Cd. '81, § 962; 2 H. C., § 1196.]

§ 2017. Venue of Action Against Accessory After the Fact.—An accessory after the fact to a felony may be tried either in the county in which he shall have become an accessory, or in the county in which the felony shall have been committed. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 958; L. '91, p. 47, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1197.]

See infra, § 2262, venue and trial of accessories.

§ 2018. Change of Venue, Proceedings to Obtain.—The defendant may show to the court, by affidavit, that he believes he cannot receive a fair trial in the county where the action is pending, owing to the prejudice of the judge, or to excitement or prejudice against the defendant in the county, or some part thereof, and may thereupon demand to be tried in another county. The application shall not be granted on the ground of excitement or prejudice other than prejudice of the judge, unless the affidavit of the defendant be supported by other evidence; nor in any case unless the judge is satisfied the ground upon which the application is made does exist. [L. '54, p. 117, § 98; Cd. '81, § 1072; 2 H. C., § 1198.]

See notes to § 209, supra.

§ 2019. Discretion of Court—Duty of Clerk.—When the affidavit is founded on prejudice of the judge, the court may, in its discretion, grant a change of venue to some other county, or may continue the cause until such time as it can be tried by another judge in the same county; if the affidavit is founded upon excitement or prejudice in the county against the defendant, the court may, in its discretion, grant a change of venue to the most convenient county. The clerk must, upon the granting of a change of the place of trial, make a transcript of the proceedings and order of court, and, having sealed up the same with the original papers, deliver them to the sheriff, who must without delay, deposit them in the clerk's office of the proper county, and make his return accordingly. [Cf. L. '54, p. 117, § 99; Cd. '81, § 1073; L. '91, p. 47, § 8; 2 H. C., § 1199.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 291; 65 Wash. 248.

§ 2020. Change upon Consent of Parties.—The court may, at its discretion, at any time, order a change of venue or place of trial to any county in the state, upon the written consent or agreement of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant. [L. '73, p. 235, § 237; Cd. '81, § 1075; 2 H. C., § 1200.]

§ 2021. Recognizance of Defendant and Witnesses on Change.—When a change of venue is ordered, if the offense be bailable, the court shall recognize the defendant, and in all cases the witnesses, to appear at the court to which the change of venue was granted. [Cf. L. '54, p. 117, § 100; Cd. '81, § 1076; L. '91, p. 48, § 9; 2 H. C., § 1201.]

CHAPTER XI.

Forms of Criminal Actions.

§ 2022. Pleadings—Forms Abolished.—All the forms of pleading in criminal actions heretofore existing are abolished; and hereafter, the forms of pleading, and the rules by which the sufficiency of pleadings is to be determined, are those prescribed herein. [L. '69, p. 240, § 180; Cd. '81, § 1002; 2 H. C., § 1202.]

See notes to Const., Art. I, § 25.
See infra, § 2050, manner of bringing information.
See infra, § 2053, duty of prosecuting attorney.

CHAPTER XII.

Indictments and Proceedings by Information.

§ 2025. Challenge to Panel of Grand Jurors.—Challenges to the panel of grand jurors shall be allowed to any person in custody or held to answer for an offense, when the clerk has not drawn from the jury-box the requisite number of ballots to constitute a grand jury, or when the drawing was not done in the presence of the proper officers; and such challenges shall be in writing and verified by affidavit, and proved to the satisfaction of the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 110, § 45; Cd. '81, § 977; L. '91, p. 48, § 11; 2 H. C., § 1205.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 290.

§ 2026. Challenge to Individual Grand Juror.—Challenges to individual grand jurors may be made by such person for reason of want of qualification to sit as such juror, and, when, in the opinion of the court, a state of mind exists in the juror, such as would render him unable to act impartially and without prejudice. [L. '54, p. 110, § 46; Cd. '81, § 978; 2 H. C., § 1206.]

§ 2027. Venire When Panel Discharged.—If a challenge to the panel be allowed, the panel shall be discharged, and the court may order the sheriff to summon from the bystanders and the body of the county a sufficient number of persons to act as grand jurors. [Cf. L. '54, p. 110, § 47; Cd. '81, § 979; L. '91, p. 48, § 12; 2 H. C., § 1207.]

See infra, § 2041, resummoning from county and from bystanders.

§ 2028. Discharge of Juror—Panel to be Filled.—If a challenge to an individual juror be allowed, he shall be discharged, and the panel filled. [L. '54, p. 110, § 48; Cd. '81, § 980; 2 H. C., § 1208.]

See supra, § 110, venire to fill vacancies and open venire.

"You, as grand jurors for the body of the county of ——, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire into and true presentment make of all such matters and things as shall come to your knowledge, according to your charge; the counsel of the state, your own counsel, and that of your fellows, you shall keep secret; you shall present no person through envy, hatred, or malice; neither will you leave any person unpresented through fear, favor, affection, or reward, or the hope thereof; but that you will present things truly as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding, and according to the laws of this state. So help you God." [Cf. L. '54, p. 110, § 49; Cd. '81, § 981; L. '91, p. 48, § 13; 2 H. C., § 1209.]

§ 2030. Foreman—Powers of—Clerk of Grand Jury.—A foreman of the grand jury shall be appointed by the court, who may remove him and appoint another at any time, and such foreman shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations to witnesses who shall appear before such grand jury, and the jury may appoint one of their number as clerk to keep a minute of their proceedings. [L. '54, p. 110, § 50; Cd. '81, § 982; 2 H. C., § 1210.]

Cited in 39 Wash. 695.

§ 2031. Grand Jury Charged by Court — Advice to.—The grand jury shall be charged by the court as to the nature of their duties, and may at any reasonable time ask the advice of the court as to any legal questions upon which they may desire information. [L. '54, p. 110, § 51; Cd. '81, § 983; 2 H. C., § 1211.]

§ 2032. Prosecuting Attorney to Attend, etc.—The prosecuting attorney shall attend on the grand jury for the purpose of examining witnesses and giving them such advice as they may ask. [Cf. L. '54, p. 110, § 52; Cd. '81, § 984; L. '91, p. 49, § 14; 2 H. C., § 1212.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 61; 39 Wash. 695; 52 Wash. 490.

See infra, § 3967, prosecuting attorney to attend, duties, etc.

§ 2034. Jurors to Communicate Personal Knowledge of Offenses. If a member of a grand jury knows, or has reason to believe, that a public offense, triable within the county, has been committed, he must declare the same to his fellow-jurors, who may thereupon investigate the same, if a majority so order. [Cd. '81, § 986; 2 H. C., § 1214.]

§ 2035. Complainant not to be Present, When.—No complainant who may institute a prosecution shall be competent to be present at the deliberations of a grand jury, or vote for the finding of an indictment. [L. '65, p. 19, § 1; Cd. '81, § 987; 2 H. C., § 1215.]

§ 2036. Malicious and Frivolous Prosecution — Costs.—Where a grand jury ignore a bill of indictment, they shall also find whether the prosecution is malicious and frivolous, and find whether the complainant or county shall pay the costs, which shall be returned with their proceedings into open court. [L. '65, p. 20, § 2; Cd. '81, § 988; 2 H. C., § 1216.]

§ 2038. Duty to Hear Evidence.—The grand jury are not bound to hear evidence for the defendant; but it is their duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to them, and when they have reason to believe that other evidence within their reach will explain away the charge, they should order such evidence to be produced, and for that purpose may cause process to issue for the witnesses. [L. '54, p. 111, § 54; Cd. '81, § 990; 2 H. C., § 1218.]

§ 2039. Fact of Indictment Found not to be Disclosed, When.—No grand jury shall disclose the fact that an indictment for a felony has been found against any person not in custody or under recognizance until such person has been arrested. [L. '54, p. 111, § 56; Cd. '81, § 991; 2 H. C., § 1219.]

See infra, § 2046, secrecy of indictment.
See infra, § 2378, penalty for violating secrecy.

§ 2040. Secrecy of Proceedings, Charge as to.—No grand juror shall be allowed to state or to testify in any court in what manner he or any member of the jury voted on any question before them, or what opinion was expressed by any juror in relation to such question, or what question was before them; and in charging the grand jury the court shall remind them of the provisions of this and the preceding sections. [L. '54, p. 111, § 57; Cd. '81, § 992; 2 H. C., § 1220.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 464.

§ 2041. Grand Jury may be Resummoned, When.—Whenever the grand jury shall have been dismissed, they may be summoned to attend again, if necessary; and if a full jury do not attend, the number may be completed from the bystanders. [L. '54, p. 111, § 58; Cd. '81, § 993; 2 H. C., § 1221.]

CHAPTER XIII.

Findings and Presentment of Indictments.

§ 2042. Twelve Jurors must Concur — Indorsement.—An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors, and when so found, it must be indorsed "a true bill," and such indorsement, signed by the foreman of the jury. [Cf. L.

'54, p. 111, §§ 55, 59; L. '69, p. 238, § 173; Cd. '81, § 994; 2 H. C., § 1223.]

§ 2043. Names of Witnesses Indorsed, Defendant Entitled to Copy.—When an indictment is found, the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury must be inserted at the foot of the indictment, or indorsed thereon, before it is presented to the court, and the clerk of the court must, within one day after demand made, furnish the defendant, or his counsel, a copy thereof without charge, or permit the defendant's counsel, or the clerk of such counsel, to take a copy. [Cf. L. '54, p. 111, § 59; L. '69, p. 239, § 174; Cd. '81, § 995; 2 H. C., § 1223.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 233; 67 Wash. 22.

§ 2044. Indictment at Instance of Private Prosecutor—Costs.—When an indictment is found at the instance of a private prosecutor, the following must be added to the indorsement required by the preceding section: "Found at the instance of" (here state the name of the person); and in such case, if the prosecution fails, the court trying the cause may award costs against the private prosecutor, if satisfied, from all circumstances, that the prosecution was malicious or without probable cause. [Cd. '81, § 996; 2 H. C., § 1224.]

See infra, § 2226, costs against complainant on frivolous or malicious accusation.

§ 2045. Custody and Inspection of.—An indictment, when found by the grand jury, must be presented by their foreman, in their presence, to the court and filed by the clerk, and remain in his office as a public record; but if the defendant has not been held to answer the charge, neither the indictment, nor any order or process in relation thereto, must be inspected by any person other than the judge of the court, or an officer thereof, in the discharge of a duty concerning the same, until after the arrest of the defendant. [L. '69, p. 239, § 175; Cd. '81, § 997; 2 H. C., § 1225.]

§ 2046. Secrecy as to Indictment.—No grand juror or officer of the court must disclose any fact concerning such indictment while it is not subject to public inspection; and a violation of this section or the foregoing section is punishable as a contempt. [L. '69, p. 239, § 176; Cd. '81, § 998; 2 H. C., § 1226.]

See supra, § 2039, grand jury not to disclose.
See infra, § 2378, penalty for violating secrecy.

§ 2047. Indictment Found "Not a True Bill," Filing, etc.—When a person has been held to answer a criminal charge, and the indictment in relation thereto is not found a "true bill," it must be indorsed "not a true bill," which indorsement must be signed by the foreman, and presented to the court and filed with the clerk, and remain a public record; but in the case of an indictment not found "a true bill," against a person not so held, the same, together with the minutes of the evidence in relation thereto, must be destroyed by the grand jury. [L. '69, p. 239, § 177; Cd. '81, § 999; 2 H. C., § 1227.]

§ 2048. Effect of Finding "Not a True Bill."—When an indictment indorsed "not a true bill" has been presented in court and filed, the effect thereof is to dismiss the charge; and the same cannot be again submitted to or inquired of by the grand jury, or made the cause of an information, unless the court so order. [Cf. L. '69, p. 239, § 178; Cd. '81, § 1000; L. '91, p. 49, § 16; 2 H. C., § 1228.]

§ 2050. Information, Filing, Indorsement, etc.—All informations shall be filed in the court having jurisdiction of the offense specified therein, by the prosecuting attorney of the proper county as informant; he shall subscribe his name thereto, and indorse thereon the names of the witnesses known to him at the time of filing the same, and at such time before the trial of any case as the court may, by rule or otherwise, prescribe he shall indorse thereon the names of such other witnesses as shall then be known to him; and said court shall possess and may exercise the same powers and jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine all such prosecutions upon information, to issue writs and process, and do all other acts therein, as it possesses and may exercise in cases of like prosecutions upon indictments. [L. '90, p. 101, § 2; 2 H. C., § 1230.]

§ 2051. Verification of Information.—All informations shall be verified by the oath of the prosecuting attorney, complainant, or some other person. [L. '91, p. 49, § 18; 2 H. C., § 1231.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 174; 6 Wash. 643; 20 Wash. 514; 66 Wash. 627.

§ 2052. Commitment or Recognizance of Defendant Held to Answer.—Any person who may according to law be committed to jail, or become recognized, or held to bail with sureties for his appearance in court to answer to any indictment, may in like manner so be committed to jail, or become recognized and held to bail for his appearance to answer to any information or indictment, as the case may be. [L. '90, p. 101, § 5; 2 H. C., § 1587.]

See supra, § 1957, recognizance, when and how taken.

§ 2053. Duty of Prosecuting Attorney Relating to Preliminary Examinations.—It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the proper county to inquire into and make full examination of all the facts and circumstances connected with any case of preliminary examination, as provided by law, touching the commission of any offense, wherein the offender shall be committed to jail, or become recognized or held to bail; and if the prosecuting attorney shall determine, in any such case, that an information ought not to be filed, he shall make, subscribe, and file with the clerk of the court a statement in writing containing his reasons, in fact and in law, for not filing an information in such case, and such statement shall be filed at and during the session of court at which the offender shall be held for his appearance: Provided, that in such case, such court may examine such statement, together with the evidence filed in the case, and if, upon such examination, the court shall not be satisfied with such statement, the prosecuting attorney shall be directed by the court to file the proper information, and bring the case to trial. [L. '90, p. 102, § 6; 2 H. C., § 1232.]

Cited in 43 Wash. 20.

CHAPTER XIV.

Requisites of Indictments and Informations.

§ 2054. First Pleading.—The first pleading on the part of the state is the indictment or information. [Cf. L. '69, p. 240, § 181; Cd. '81, § 1003; L. '90, p. 49, § 19; 2 H. C., § 1233.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 549.

§ 2055. Contents of Indictment or Information.—The indictment or information must contain,—

1. The title of the action, specifying the name of the court to which the indictment or information is presented, and the names of the parties;

2. A statement of the acts constituting the offense, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. [Cf. L. '69, p. 240, § 182; Cd. '81, § 1004; L. '91, p. 49, § 20; 2 H. C., § 1234.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 10, 97; 11 Wash. 418; 12 Wash. 353; 15 Wash. 7; 20 Wash. 249; 23 Wash. 549; 34 Wash. 600; 38 Wash. 272; 43 Wash. 121; 48 Wash. 263; 56 Wash. 303; 65 Wash. 598, 607; 75 Wash. 15.

§ 2056. Form of Indictment.—The indictment may be substantially in the following form:—

v.
A—— B——.
} Superior Court of the State of Washington, for the County of ——.

A B is accused by the grand jury of the ——, by this indictment, of the crime of (here insert the name of the crime, if it have one. such as treason, murder, arson, manslaughter, or the like; or if it be a crime having no general name, such as libel, assault and battery, and the like, insert a brief description of it as given by law), committed as follows:—

The said A B, on the —— day of ——, 18—, in the county of ——, aforesaid (here set forth the act charged as a crime).

Dated at——, in the county aforesaid, the —— day of ——, A. D., 18—.

(Signed) C D, Prosecuting Attorney.

(Indorsed) A true bill.

(Signed) E F, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

[Cf. L. '69, p. 240, § 183; Cd. '81, § 1005; L. '91, p. 50, § 21; 2 H. C., § 1235.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 98.

§ 2057. Indictment or Information must be Direct and Certain.—The indictment or information must be direct and certain, as it regards:—

1. The party charged;

2. The crime charged; and

3. The particular circumstances of the crime charged, when they are necessary to constitute a complete crime. [Cf. L. '54, p. 112, § 61; L. '69, p. 241, § 184; Cd. '81, § 1006; L. '91, p. 50, § 22; 2 H. C., § 1236.]

§ 2058. True Name Inserted, When.—When a defendant is designated in the indictment or information by a fictitious or erroneous name, and in any stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it may be inserted in the subsequent proceedings, referring to the fact of his being indicted or informed against by the name mentioned in the indictment or information. [Cf. L. '69, p. 241, § 185; Cd. '81, § 1007; L. '91, p. 50, § 23; 2 H. C., § 1237.]

§ 2059. One Crime to be Charged and in One Form Only.—The indictment or information must charge but one crime, and in one form only, except that where the crime may be committed by use of different means, the indictment or information may allege the means in the alternative. [Cf. L. '69, p. 241, § 186; Cd. '81, § 1008; L. '91, p. 50, § 24; 2 H. C., § 1238.]

§ 2060. Statement as to Time When Offense Committed.—The precise time at which the crime was committed need not be stated in the indictment or information; but it may be alleged to have been committed at any time before the finding of the indictment or the filing of the information, and within the time in which an action may be commenced therefor, except where the time is a material ingredient in the crime. [Cf. L. '69, p. 241, § 187; Cd. '81, § 1009; L. '91, p. 51, § 25; 2 H. C., § 1239.]

§ 2061. Statement as to Person Injured or Intended to be.—When the crime involves the commission of or an attempt to commit a private injury, and is described with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify the act, an erroneous allegation as to the person injured or intended to be injured is not material. [L. '69, p. 241, § 188; Cd. '81, § 1010; 2 H. C., § 1240.]

Cited in 35 Wash. 154; 67 Wash. 397.

§ 2062. Animal, What Description of Sufficient.—When the crime involves the taking of or injury to an animal, the indictment or information is sufficiently certain in that respect if it describes the animal by the common name of its class. [Cf. L. '69, p. 241, § 189; Cd. '81, § 1011; L. '91, p. 51, § 26; 2 H. C., § 1241.]

§ 2063. Construction of Words and Phrases.—The words used in an indictment or information must be construed in their usual acceptance, in common language, except words and phrases defined by law, which are to be construed according to their legal meaning. [Cf. L. '69, p. 241, § 190; Cd. '81, § 1012; L. '91, p. 51, § 27; 2 H. C., § 1242.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 549.

§ 2064. Words of the Statute Need not be Strictly Pursued.—Words used in a statute to define a crime need not be strictly pursued in the indictment or information, but other words, conveying the same meaning, may be used. [Cf. L. '69, p. 241, § 191; Cd. '81, § 1013; L. '91, p. 51, § 28; 2 H. C., § 1243.]

§ 2065. Requisites of Indictments, etc.—The indictment or information is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom,—

1. That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive;

2. That it was found by a grand jury of the county in which the court was held;

3. That the defendant is named, or if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with the statement that his real name is to the jury unknown;

4. That the crime was committed within the jurisdiction of the court, except where, as provided by law, the act, though done without the county in which the court is held, is triable therein;

5. That the crime was committed at some time previous to the finding of the indictment, or filing of the information, and within the time limited by law for the commencement of an action therefor;

6. That the act or omission charged as the crime is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended;

7. [That] the act or omission charged as the crime is stated with such a degree of certainty as to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon a conviction, according to the right of the case. [L. '69, p. 242, § 192; Cd. '81, § 1014; L. '91, p. 51, § 29; 2 H. C., § 1244.]

§ 2066. Former Defects or Imperfections, How Regarded.—No indictment or information is insufficient, nor can the trial, judgment, or other proceedings thereon be affected, by reason of any of the following matters, which were formerly deemed defects or imperfections:—

1. For want of an allegation of the time or place of any material fact, when the time and place have been once stated;

2. For the omission of any of the following allegations, namely: "With force and arms," "contrary to the form of the statute or the statutes," or "against the peace and dignity of the state";

3. For the omission to allege that the grand jury was impaneled, sworn, or charged;

4. For any surplusage or repugnant allegation, or for any repetition, when there is sufficient matter alleged to indicate clearly the offense and the person charged; nor

5. For any other matter which was formerly deemed a defect or imperfection, but which does not tend to the prejudice of the substantial rights of the defendant upon the merits. [Cf. L. '69, p. 242, § 193; Cd. '81, § 1015; L. '91, p. 52, § 30; 2 H. C., § 1245.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 99; 29 Wash. 373; 31 Wash. 248; 42 Wash. 674; 49 Wash. 294; 65 Wash. 598.

§ 2068. Judgment, How Pleaded.—In pleading a judgment or other determination of or proceeding before a court or officer of special jurisdiction, it is not necessary to state in the indictment or information the facts conferring jurisdiction; but the judgment, determination, or proceeding may be stated to have been duly given or made. The facts conferring jurisdiction, however, must be established on the trial. [Cf. L. '54, p. 112, § 65; L. '69, p. 242, § 195; Cd. '81, § 1017; L. '91, p. 52, § 32; 2 H. C., § 1247.]

§ 2070. Pleading in Indictment, etc., for Libel.—An indictment or information for libel need not set forth any extrinsic facts, for the purpose of showing the application to the party libeled, of the defamatory matter on which the indictment or information is founded; but it is sufficient to state generally that the same was published concerning him; and the fact that it was so published must be established on the trial. [Cf. L. '69, p. 243, § 197; Cd. '81, §§ 1019, 1232; L. '91, p. 53, § 34; 2 H. C., § 1249.]

§ 2071. Pleading in Forgery Where Instrument Destroyed or Withheld.—When an instrument which is the subject of an indictment or information for forgery has been destroyed or withheld by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of the destruction or withholding is alleged in the indictment or information, and established on the trial, the misdescription of the instrument is immaterial. [Cf. L. '54, p. 113, § 68; Cd. '81, § 1020; L. '91, p. 53, § 35; 2 H. C., § 1250.]

§ 2072. Pleadings in Indictment, etc., for Perjury.—In an indictment or information for perjury, or subornation of perjury, it is sufficient to set forth the substance of the controversy or matter in respect to which the crime was committed, and in what court or before whom the oath alleged to be false was taken, and that the court or person before whom it was taken had authority to administer it, with proper allegations of the falsity of the matter on which the perjury is assigned; but the indictment or information need not set forth the pleadings, record or proceedings with which the oath is connected, nor the commission or authority of the court or person before whom the perjury was committed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 112, § 67; L. '69, p. 243, § 199; Cd. '81, § 1021; L. '91, p. 53, § 36; 2 H. C., § 1251.]

Cited in 31 Wash. 12; 55 Wash. 304.

§ 2073. Against Several—Conviction or Acquittal Against One or More.—Upon an indictment or information against several defendants, any one or more may be convicted or acquitted. [Cf. L. '69, p. 243, § 200; Cd. '81, § 1022; L. '91, p. 53, § 37; 2 H. C., § 1252.]

§ 2074. Pleading in Indictment, etc., for Larceny or Embezzlement.—In an indictment or information for larceny or embezzlement of money, bank notes, certificates of stock, or valuable securities, or for a conspiracy to cheat or defraud a person of any such property, it is sufficient to allege the larceny or embezzlement, or the conspiracy to cheat and defraud, to be of money, bank notes, certificates of stock, or valuable securities, without specifying the coin, number, denomination, or kind thereof. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1023; L. '91, p. 53, § 38; 2 H. C., § 1253.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 117; 19 Wash. 54, 412; 20 Wash. 208; 27 Wash. 366.

§ 2075. Pleading in Indictment, etc., for Selling Obscene Literature.—An indictment or information for exhibiting, publishing, passing, selling, or offering to sell, or having in possession with such intent, any lewd or obscene book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, paper, or writing, need not set forth any portion of the language used or figures shown upon such book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, papers, or writing, but it is sufficient to state generally the fact of the lewdness or obscenity thereof. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1024; L. '91, p. 54, § 39; 2 H. C., § 1254.]

§ 2076. Ownership of Property, How Pleaded — Variance.—In prosecutions under the provisions of sections 2803, 2814, 3257, where the owner of the property is unknown, such property shall, for the purpose of this code, be deemed and held to be owned by the state of Washington; and in all cases where the indictment or information alleges the state to be the owner of such property, and the proof on the trial discloses the name of the actual owner, it shall not be deemed a variance, or failure of proof, unless the defendant is the actual owner. [Cd. '81, § 1025; L. '91, p. 54, § 40; 2 H. C., § 1255.]

Cited in 46 Wash. 495.

See infra, § 2156, variance as to ownership of property.

CHAPTER XV.

Proceedings Before Arraignment.

§ 2077. Warrant of Arrest to Issue, When.—When an indictment is found or an information filed, the court may direct the clerk to issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant, returnable forthwith; if no order is made, the clerk must issue a warrant within ten days after the indictment is returned into court, or the information filed. [Cf. L. '54, p. 113, § 70; Cd. '81, § 1026; L. '91, p. 54, § 41; 2 H. C., § 1256.]

§ 2079. Bail to be Indorsed on Warrant.—The court must, at the time of directing the clerk to issue the warrant, fix the amount in which persons charged by indictment are to be held to bail, and the clerk must indorse the amount on the warrant. If no order fixing the amount of bail has been made, the sheriff may present the warrant to the judge of the court, and such judge must thereon indorse the amount of bail to be required; or if there is no such judge in the county, the clerk may fix the amount of bail. [Cf. L. '54, p. 113, § 72; Cd. '81, § 1028; L. '91, p. 54, § 42; 2 H. C., § 1257.]

§ 2080. Service of Criminal Process.—All criminal process issuing out of the superior court shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which it is to be served, and be by him executed according to law. Where there is no sheriff of a county, or he is disqualified from any cause from discharging any particular duty, it shall be lawful for the officer or person commanding or desiring the discharge of that duty to appoint some suitable person, a citizen of the county, to execute the same: Provided, that final process shall in no case be executed by any other person than the legally authorized officer, or in case he is disqualified, some suitable person appointed by the court, or judge thereof, out of which the process issues, who shall make such appointment in writing, and before such appointment shall take effect, the person so appointed shall give surety to the party interested for the faithful performance of his duties, which bonds of suretyship shall be in writing and approved by the court or judge making the appointment, and be placed on file with the papers in the case. [Cf. L. '54, p. 113, § 71; L. '60, p. 146, § 214; Cd. '81, § 1027; 2 H. C., § 1258.]

§ 2081. Warrant of Arrest by Telegraph.—Whenever any person or persons shall have been indicted or accused on oath of any public offense, or thereof convicted, and a warrant of arrest shall have been issued, the magistrate issuing such warrant, or any judge of the supreme court, or of any superior court, may indorse thereon an order signed by him and authorizing the service thereof by telegraph, and thereupon such warrant and order may be sent by telegraph to any marshal, sheriff, constable, or policeman, and on the receipt of the telegraphic copy thereof by any such officer, he shall have the same authority and be under the same obligations to arrest, take into custody, and detain the said person or persons, as if the said original warrant of arrest, with the proper direction for the service thereof, duly indorsed thereon, had been placed in his hands, and the said telegraphic copy shall be entitled to full faith and credit, and have the same force and effect in all courts and places as the original; but prior to indictment and conviction, no such order shall be made by any officer, unless in his judgment there is probable cause to believe the said accused person or persons guilty of the offense charged: Provided, the making of such order, by any officer aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity thereof, and of all the proceedings prior thereto. The original warrant and order, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer making the order, shall be preserved in the telegraph office from which the same is sent, and in telegraphing the same the original or the said certified copy may be used. [L. '66, p. 75, § 16; Cd. '81, § 2357; 1 H. C., § 1557.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 488.

§ 2082. Officer may Break Door, etc., to Make Arrest.—To make an arrest in criminal actions, the officer may break open any outer or inner door or windows of a dwelling-house or other building, or any other inclosure, if, after notice of his office and purpose, he be refused admittance. [L. '54, p. 129, § 1179; Cd. '81, § 1170; 2 H. C., § 1379.]

§ 2083. Officer to Exhibit Warrant.—The officer making an arrest must inform the defendant that he acts under authority of a warrant, and must also show the warrant if required. [Cf. L. '54, p. 114, § 74; Cd. '81, § 1030; L. '91, p. 55, § 43; 2 H. C., § 1259.]

§ 2085. Pursuit of Prisoner, Assistance Commanded.—If a person arrested escape or be rescued, the person from whose custody he made his escape or was rescued may immediately pursue and retake him at any time and within any place in the state. To retake the person escaping or rescued, the person pursuing has the same power to command assistance as given in cases of arrest. [L. '54, p. 114, § 76; Cd. '81, § 1032; 2 H. C., § 1261.]

§ 2086. Taking and Entering Recognizance.—Recognizances in criminal proceedings may be taken in open court and entered on the order-book. [L. '54, p. 114, § 77; Cd. '81, § 1033; 2 H. C., § 1262.]

See supra, § 1957, recognizance, when and how taken.

§ 2088. Recognizance Certified and Recorded, Effect of.—Every recognizance taken by any peace officer must be certified by him forthwith to the clerk of the court to which the defendant is recognized. The clerk must thereupon record the recognizance in the order-book, and from the time of filing it has the same effect as if taken in open court. [L. '54, p. 114, § 79; Cd. '81, § 1035; 2 H. C., § 1264.]

§ 2089. Deposit of Money in Lieu of Bail.—The defendant may, in the place of giving bail, deposit with the clerk of the court to which he is held to answer the sum of money mentioned in the order; and upon delivering to the sheriff the certificate of deposit, he must be discharged from custody. [L. '54, p. 114, § 80; Cd. '81, § 1036; 2 H. C., § 1265.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 324.

§ 2090. Forfeiture of Bail.—If, without sufficient excuse, the defendant neglect to appear for trial or judgment, or upon any other occasion when his presence in court may be lawfully required, according to the condition of his recognizance, the court must direct the default to be entered upon its minutes, and the recognizance of bail, or money deposited as bail, as the case may be, is thereupon forfeited. [L. '54, p. 114, § 81; Cd. '81, § 1037; 2 H. C., § 1266.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 615.

§ 2091. Rights of Defendant in Capital Cases.—As soon as may be after the finding of an indictment or the filing of an information for a capital crime, the party charged shall be served with a copy thereof by the sheriff or his deputy, at least twenty-four hours before trial, and shall, on demand upon the clerk by himself or counsel, have a list of the petit jurors returned delivered to him at least twenty-four hours before trial, and shall also have process to summon such witnesses as are necessary to his defense, at the expense of the county. [Cf. L. '54, p. 114, § 82; Cd. '81, § 1038; L. '91, p. 55, § 44; 2 H. C., § 1267.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 509; 42 Wash. 542; 56 Wash. 297.

§ 2092. Rights of Defendant Charged With a Felony.—Every person indicted or informed against for an offense for which he may be imprisoned in the penitentiary, if he be under recognizance or in custody to answer for such offense, he or his attorney shall be furnished with a copy of the indictment or information, and of all indorsements thereof, without paying any fees therefor. [Cf. L. '54, p. 115, § 83; Cd. '81, § 1039; L. '91, p. 55, § 45; 2 H. C., § 1268.]

CHAPTER XVI.

Arraignment, Pleadings and Proceedings Thereon.

§ 2093. Arraignment of Defendant.—When the indictment or information has been filed the defendant, if he has been arrested, or as soon thereafter as he may be, shall be arraigned thereon before the court. [L. '91, p. 55, § 46; 2 H. C., § 1269.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 207; 5 Wash. 643; 36 Wash. 360; 44 Wash. 618.

§ 2094. Defendant may Appear by Counsel, When.—If the indictment or information be for a misdemeanor punishable by fine only, the defendant may appear upon arraignment by counsel. [Cf. L. '54, p. 116, § 92; Cd. '81, § 1066; L. '91, p. 55, § 47; 2 H. C., § 1270.]

§ 2095. Right to have Counsel.—If the defendant appear without counsel, he shall be informed by the court that it is his right to have counsel before being arraigned, and he shall be asked if he desire the aid of counsel, and if it appear that he is unable to employ counsel, by reason of poverty, counsel shall be assigned to him by the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 116, § 89; L. '55, p. 11; L. '60, p. 149, § 232; Cd. '81, § 1063; 2 H. C., § 1271.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 330, 643.

§ 2096. Defendant to Declare His True Name.—When the defendant is arraigned, he shall be interrogated; if the name by which he is indicted be not his true name, he shall then declare his true name, or be proceeded against by the name in the indictment or information. [Cf. L. '54, p. 116, § 90; L. '69, p. 248, § 221; Cd. '81, § 1064; L. '91, p. 55, § 48; 2 H. C., § 1272.]

§ 2097. Entry of True Name.—If he alleges that another name is his true name it must be entered in the minutes of the court, and the subsequent proceedings on the indictment or information may be had against him by that name, referring also to the name by which he is indicted or informed against. [Cf. L. '54, p. 116, § 91; Cd. '81, § 1065; L. '91, p. 56, § 49; 2 H. C., § 1273.]

§ 2098. Pleading on Arraignment—Time for Answer.—In answer to the arraignment, the defendant may move to set aside the indictment or information, or he may demur or plead to it, and is entitled to one day after arraignment in which to answer thereto if he demand it. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1045; L. '91, p. 56, § 50; 2 H. C., § 1274.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 119.

§ 2099. Grounds of Motion to Set Aside Indictment.—The motion to set aside the indictment can be made by the defendant on one or more of the following grounds, and must be sustained:—

1. When it is not indorsed "a true bill," and the indorsement signed by the foreman of the grand jury as prescribed by this code;

2. When the names of all the witnesses examined before the grand jury are not indorsed thereon;

3. When it has not been presented, and marked "filed," as prescribed by this code;

4. When any person, other than the grand jurors, was present before the grand jury when the question was taken upon the finding of the indictment, or when any person, other than the grand jurors, was present before the grand jury during the investigation of the charge, except as required or permitted by law;

5. That the grand jury were not selected, drawn, summoned, impaneled, or sworn as prescribed by law. [Cd. '81, § 1046; 2 H. C., § 1275.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 271; 22 Wash. 554; 67 Wash. 22; 82 Wash. 290.

§ 2100. Grounds not Allowed, When.—The ground of the motion to set aside the indictment mentioned in the fifth subdivision of the last section is not allowed to a defendant who has been held to answer before indictment. [Cd. '81, § 1047; 2 H. C., § 1275, last pt.]

§ 2101. Grounds of Motion to Set Aside Information.—A motion to set aside an information can be made by the defendant on one or more of the following grounds, and must be sustained:—

1. When it is not signed by the prosecuting attorney;

2. When it is not verified;

3. When it has not been marked "filed" by the clerk;

4. When the names of the witnesses are not indorsed upon it as required by section 2050. [L. '91, p. 56, § 51; 2 H. C., § 1276.]

Cited in 32 Wash. 11.

§ 2102. Must Demur or Plead on Denial of Motion.—If the motion to set aside the indictment [or information] be denied, the defendant must immediately answer the indictment or information, either by demurring or pleading thereto. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1048; L. '91, p. 56, § 52; 2 H. C., § 1277.]

§ 2103. Effect of Order for Resubmission.—If the court direct that the case be resubmitted, the defendant, if already in custody, must so remain, unless he be admitted to bail; or if already admitted to bail, or money has been deposited instead thereof, the bail or money is answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new indictment or information. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1049; L. '91, p. 56, § 52; 2 H. C., § 1278.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 420.

§ 2104. Order No Bar to Another Prosecution.—An order to set aside the indictment or information as provided in this chapter shall be no bar to a future prosecution for the same offense. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1050; L. '91, p. 56, § 54; 2 H. C., § 1279.]

§ 2105. Grounds of Demurrer.—The defendant may demur to the indictment or information when it appears upon its face either,—

1. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of this code;

2. [That] more than one crime is charged;

3. That the facts charged do not constitute a crime;

4. That the indictment or information contains any matter which if true would constitute a defense or other legal bar to the action. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1051; L. '91, p. 56, § 55; 2 H. C., § 1280.]

Cited in 42 Wash. 456; 56 Wash. 471; 72 Wash. 394.

§ 2106. Judgment on Demurrer Final, When.—If the demurrer is sustained because the indictment or information contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the action, the judgment shall be final, and the defendant must be discharged. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1052; L. '91, p. 57, § 56; 2 H. C., § 1281.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 420.

§ 2107. Effect of Failure to Plead After Demurrer Overruled.—If the demurrer is overruled, the defendant has a right to put in a plea. If he fails to do so, judgment may be rendered against him on the demurrer, and if necessary, a jury may be impaneled to inquire and ascertain the degree of the offense. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1053; 2 H. C., § 1282.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 115; 20 Wash. 560.

§ 2108. The Three Pleas of Defendant.—There are but three pleas to the indictment or information: A plea of,—

1. Guilty;

2. Not guilty;

3. A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1054; L. '91, p. 57, § 57; 2 H. C., § 1283.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 63.

See infra, § 2174, insanity, how pleaded.

§ 2109. Pleas, How Entered—Form of.—The plea may be entered on the record substantially in the following form:—

1. A plea of guilty: The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in the indictment (or information, as the case may be);

2. A plea of not guilty: The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment (or information, as the case may be);

3. A plea of former conviction or acquittal: The defendant pleads that he has formerly been convicted (or acquitted, as the case may be) of the offense charged in the indictment (or information, as the case may be), by the judgment of the court of (naming it), rendered on the —— day of ——, A. D. 18— (naming the time). [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1055; L. '91, p. 57, § 58; 2 H. C., § 1284.]

Cited in 31 Wash. 86; 84 Wash. 114.

§ 2110. Plea of Guilty must be Put in by Defendant.—The plea of guilty can only be put in by the defendant himself in open court. [Cd. '81, § 1056; 2 H. C., § 1285.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 618.

See supra, § 2094, appearance by counsel in misdemeanors.

§ 2111. Substitution of Plea.—At any time before judgment, the court may permit the plea of guilty to be withdrawn and other plea or pleas substituted. [Cd. '81, § 1057; 2 H. C., § 1286.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 270.

§ 2113. Conviction or Acquittal Operates as a Bar, When.—A conviction or acquittal by a judgment upon a verdict shall bar another prosecution for the same offense, notwithstanding a defect in form or substance in the indictment or information on which the conviction or acquittal took place. [Cf. Cd. '81, §§ 768, 1059; L. '91, p. 57, § 60; 2 H. C., §§ 1288, 1365.]

Compare infra, §§ 2271, 2272, 2316, former acquittal or conviction when a bar.

See Const. U. S., amendment 5; Const. Wash., Art. I, § 9, jeopardy.

§ 2114. Judgment on Demurrer No Bar—Exception.—The judgment for the defendant on a demurrer to the indictment or information, except where it is otherwise provided, or for an objection taken at the trial to its form or substance, or for variance between the indictment or information and the proof, shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1060; L. '91, p. 58, § 61; 2 H. C., § 1289.]

See supra, § 2106, judgment on demurrer, when final.

§ 2115. Refusal to Plead—Plea of not Guilty to be Entered.—If the defendant fail or refuse to answer the indictment or information by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty must be entered by the court. [Cf. L. '54, p. 116, § 88; Cd. '81, § 1061; L. '91, p. 58, § 62; 2 H. C., § 1290.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 115; 20 Wash. 560.

§ 2116. On Charge of Murder Jury must be Impaneled.—If, on the arraignment of any person, he shall plead guilty, if the offense charged be not murder, the court shall, in its discretion, hear testimony, and determine the amount and kind of punishment to be inflicted; but if the defendant plead guilty to a charge of murder, a jury shall be impaneled to hear testimony, and determine the degree of murder and the punishment therefor. [L. '54, p. 115, § 87; Cd. '81, § 1062; 2 H. C., § 1291.]

Cited in 35 Wash. 569.

§ 2118. Conviction Necessary Before Punishment.—No person charged with any offense against the law shall be punished for such offense unless he shall have been duly and legally convicted thereof in a court having competent jurisdiction of the case and of the person. [L. '54, p. 76, § 6; Cd. '81, § 770; 2 H. C., § 1367.]

§ 2126. Compromise of Misdemeanor, When.—When a defendant is prosecuted in a criminal action for a misdemeanor, for which the person injured by the act constituting the offense has a remedy by a civil action, the offense may be compromised as provided in the next section, except when it was committed,—

1. By or upon an officer while in the execution of the duties of his office;

2. Riotously; or

3. With an intent to commit a felony. [L. '54, p. 115, § 84; Cd. '81, § 1040; 2 H. C., § 1292.]

§ 2127. Compromising Criminal Actions, When and How.—In such case, if the party injured appear in the court in which the cause is pending at any time before the final judgment therein, and acknowledge in writing, that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the court may, in its discretion on payment of the costs incurred, order all proceedings to be discontinued and the defendant to be discharged. The reasons for making the order must be set forth therein and entered in the minutes. Such order is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense. [Cf. L. '54, p. 115, § 84; Cd. '81, §§ 1041, 1042; L. '91, p. 58, § 63; 2 H. C., § 1293.]

See infra, § 2866, compounding or concealing crime.

§ 2128. Offenses not to be Compromised Except as Herein Provided.—No offense can be compromised, nor can any proceedings for the prosecution or punishment thereof be stayed upon a compromise, except as provided in this chapter. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1043; L. '91, p. 58, § 64; 2 H. C., § 1294.]

§ 2129. Restoration of Stolen Property—Duty of Officer as to.—All property obtained by larceny, robbery, or burglary, shall be restored to the owner; and no sale, whether in good faith on the part of the purchaser or not, shall divest the owner of his rights to such property; and it shall be the duty of the officer who shall arrest any such person charged as principal or accessory in any robbery or larceny, to secure the property alleged to have been stolen, and he shall be answerable for the same, and shall annex a schedule thereof to his return of the warrant. [L. '54, p. 84, § 51; Cd. '81, § 851; 2 H. C., § 1380.]

§ 2130. Recompense for Securing and Keeping Stolen Property. Upon any conviction of burglary, robbery, or larceny, the court may order a suitable recompense to the prosecutor, and also to the officer who has secured and kept the stolen property, not exceeding their actual expenses, with a reasonable allowance for their time and trouble, to be paid by the county treasurer. [L. '54, p. 84, § 52; Cd. '81, § 852; 2 H. C., § 1381.]

CHAPTER XVII.

Trials and Verdicts in Criminal Actions.

§ 2134. Trial Docket.—The clerk shall, in preparing the docket of criminal cases, enumerate the indictments and informations pending according to the date of their filing, specifying opposite to the title of each action whether it be for a felony or misdemeanor, and whether the defendant be in custody or on bail; and shall, in like manner, enter therein all indictments and informations on which issues of fact are joined, all cases brought to the court on change of venue from other counties, and all cases pending upon appeal from inferior courts. [Cf. L. '54, p. 115, § 86; Cd. '81, § 1044; L. '91, p. 58, § 65; 2 H. C., § 1295.]

§ 2135. Continuance, When Granted.—A continuance may be granted in any case on the ground of the absence of evidence, on the motion of the defendant, supported by affidavit showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it, and also the name and place of residence of the witness or witnesses, and the substance of the evidence expected to be obtained; and if the prosecuting attorney admit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the continuance shall not be granted. [L. '77, p. 206, § 7; Cd. '81, § 1077; 2 H. C., § 1296.]

Cited in 29 Wash. 448.

§ 2136. Subpoena for State Witnesses—Continuance for State.—The clerk shall, at the time of issuing a warrant for the defendant, issue a subpoena for all the witnesses whose names are indorsed on the indictment, and any others required; but in no case shall a continuance be granted to the state on account of the absence of any witness whose name is not indorsed on the indictment. [Cd. '81, § 1068.]

The present force of this section is doubtful.

§ 2137. Issues to be Tried by Jury—Practice as in Civil Cases.—Except as otherwise specially provided, issues of fact joined upon an indictment or information shall be tried by a jury of twelve persons, and the law relating to the drawing, retaining, and selecting jurors, and trials by jury in civil cases, shall apply to criminal cases. [Cf. L. '54, p. 118, § 101; Cd. '81, § 1078; L. '91, p. 58, § 66; 2 H. C., § 1297.]

Cited in 8 Wash. 306; 17 Wash. 550; 22 Wash. 133; 83 Wash. 517.

§ 2138. Peremptory Challenges, Number Allowed Defendant.—In prosecution for capital offenses, the defendant may challenge peremptorily twelve jurors; in prosecution for offenses punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, six jurors; in all other prosecutions, three jurors. When several defendants are on trial together, they must join in their challenges. [L. '54, p. 118, § 102; Cd. '81, § 1079; 2 H. C., § 1298.]

Cited in 83 Wash. 2.

§ 2139. Peremptory Challenges Allowed State.—The prosecuting attorney, in capital cases, may challenge peremptorily six jurors; in all other cases, three jurors. [L. '54, p. 118, § 103; Cd. '81, § 1080; 2 H. C., § 1299.]

§ 2140. Challenges to Panel, When Allowed.—Challenges to the panel shall only be allowed for a material departure from the forms prescribed by law for the drawing and return of the jury, and shall be in writing, sworn to, and proved to the satisfaction of the court. [L. '54, p. 118, § 104; Cd. '81, § 1081; 2 H. C., § 1300.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 566; 29 Wash. 446; 61 Wash. 408.

§ 2141. Challenges for Cause.—Challenges for cause shall be allowed for such cause as the court may, in its discretion, deem sufficient, having reference to the causes of challenge prescribed in civil cases, as far as they may be applicable, and to the substantial rights of the defendant. [L. '54, p. 119, § 105; Cd. '81, § 1082; 2 H. C., § 1301.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 103, 104; 8 Wash. 14.

§ 2142. Conscientious Scruples of Juror as to Capital Punishment.—No person whose opinions are such as to preclude him from finding any defendant guilty of an offense punishable with death shall be compelled or allowed to serve as a juror on the trial of any indictment or information for such an offense. [Cf. L. '54, p. 119, § 106; Cd. '81, § 1083; L. '91, p. 59, § 67; 2 H. C., § 1302.]

§ 2143. Oath to Jury, Form of.—The jury shall be sworn or affirmed well and truly to try the issue between the state and defendant, according to the evidence; and in capital cases, to well and truly try, and true deliverance make between the state and the prisoner at the bar, whom they shall have in charge, according to the evidence. [Cf. L. '54, p. 119, § 107; Cd. '81, § 1084; L. '91, p. 59, § 68; 2 H. C., § 1303.]

Cited in 16 Wash. 426; 18 Wash. 144.

§ 2144. Jury may be Waived Except in Capital Cases.—The defendant and prosecuting attorney, with the assent of the court, may submit the trial to the court, except in capital cases. [L. '54, p. 119, § 108; Cd. '81, § 1085; 2 H. C., § 1304.]

§ 2145. Personal Presence of Defendant During Trial.—No person prosecuted for an offense punishable by death, or by confinement in the penitentiary or in the county jail, shall be tried unless personally present during the trial. [L. '54, p. 119, § 109; Cd. '81, § 1086; 2 H. C., § 1305.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 384, 385; 76 Wash. 308; 82 Wash. 367.

§ 2146. Trial in Defendant's Absence, When.—No person prosecuted for an offense punishable by a fine only shall be tried without being personally present, unless some responsible person, approved by the court, undertakes to be bail for stay of execution and payment of the fine and costs that may be assessed against the defendant. Such undertaking must be in writing, and is as effective as if entered into after judgment. [L. '54, p. 119, § 110; Cd. '81, § 1087; 2 H. C., § 1306.]

§ 2147. Competency of Witnesses—Exceptions.—Witnesses competent to testify in civil cases shall be competent in criminal prosecutions, but regular physicians or surgeons, clergymen or priests, shall be protected from testifying as to confessions, or information received from any defendant, by virtue of their profession and character; Indians shall be competent as witnesses hereinbefore provided, or in any prosecutions in which an Indian may be a defendant. [L. '54, p. 117, § 95; L. '73, p. 233, § 231; Cd. '81, § 1069.]

See infra, § 2290, convict as witness.

§ 2148. Compelling Attendance of Witnesses—Defendant as Witness—Failure to Testify.—Witnesses may be compelled to attend and testify before the grand jury; and witnesses on behalf of the state, or of the defendant, in a criminal prosecution, may be compelled to attend and testify in open court, if they have been subpoenaed, without their fees being first paid or tendered, unless otherwise provided by law; the court may, upon the motion of the prosecuting attorney, recognize witnesses, with or without sureties, to attend and testify at any hearing or trial in any criminal prosecution in any court of this state, or before the grand jury, and in default of such recognizance the court may direct that such witness shall be detained in the custody of the sheriff until the hearing or trial of the prosecution in which such testimony may be required: Provided, however, that each witness so detained by order of court pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be paid, in addition to witness fees for actual attendance in court, the sum of one dollar per day for time actually detained in custody, and shall be furnished food and lodging while so detained, and any person accused of any crime in this state, by indictment, information, or otherwise, may, in the examination or trial of the cause, offer himself, or herself, as a witness in his or her own behalf, and shall be allowed to testify as other witnesses in such case, and when accused shall so testify, he or she shall be subject to all the rules of law relating to cross-examination of other witnesses: Provided, that nothing in this code shall be construed to compel such accused person to offer himself or herself as a witness in such case: And provided further, that it shall be the duty of the court to instruct the jury that no inference of guilt shall arise against the accused if the accused shall fail or refuse to testify as a witness in his or her own behalf. [L. '15, p. 260, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 116, § 93; L. '71, p. 105, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1067; L. '91, p. 59, § 69; 2 H. C., § 1307.]

§ 2149. Immunity of Witnesses in Cases of Bribery, Grafting, etc.—Any person offending against any provisions of the common law or statutes of the state of Washington or any ordinances of any municipality thereof, relating to bribery, grafting or corrupt solicitation, shall be a competent witness against any other person so offending, and may be compelled to attend and testify upon any trial, hearing, proceeding or investigation in the same manner as any other person. But the testimony so given shall not be used in any prosecution or proceeding, civil or criminal, against the person so testifying. A person so testifying shall not thereafter be liable to indictment, information, prosecution, or punishment for such offense. [L. '07, p. 99, § 1.]

§ 2150. Not Applicable to Proceedings Before Committing Magistrate or Justice.—The provisions of section 2149 shall not be applicable to any prosecution or proceeding before a committing magistrate or justice of the peace. [L. '07, p. 99, § 2.]

§ 2151. Confession as Evidence.—The confession of a defendant made under inducement, with all the circumstances, may be given as evidence against him, except when made under the influence of fear produced by threats; but a confession made under inducement is not sufficient to warrant a conviction without corroborating testimony. [L. '54, p. 117, § 96; Cd. '81, § 1070; 2 H. C., § 1308.]

§ 2152. Rules of Evidence Same as in Civil Actions.—The rules of evidence in civil actions, so far as practicable, shall be applied to criminal prosecutions. [L. '54, p. 117, § 97; Cd. '81, § 1071; 2 H. C., § 1309.]

Cited in 15 Wash. 18; 83 Wash. 517.

§ 2154. Receiving Stolen Property—Averments and Proof Necessary.—In any prosecution for the offense of buying, receiving, or aiding in the concealment of stolen property, moneys, or goods, known to have been stolen, or for bringing or aiding in bringing into this state any such property, money or goods, known to have been stolen, it shall not be necessary to aver, nor on the trial thereof to prove, that the person who stole such property has been convicted, nor that the larceny of such property, nor that any conspiracy or agreement between the defendant and any other person or persons concerning the stealing, buying, receiving, concealing, or bringing of such stolen property, was committed or entered into within the jurisdiction of the court trying the case. [Cf. L. '54, p. 84, § 50; Cd. '81, § 850; L. '90, p. 129, § 1; 2 H. P. C., § 69.]

§ 2156. Variance as to Ownership of Property.—In the prosecution of any offense committed upon or in relation to or in any way affecting any real estate, or any offense committed in stealing, embezzling, destroying, injuring, or fraudulently receiving or concealing any money, goods, or other personal estate, it shall be sufficient, and shall not be deemed variance, if it be proved on trial that, at the time when such offense was committed, either the actual or constructive possession, or the general or special property, in the whole or any part of such real or personal estate, was in the person or community alleged in the indictment or other accusation to be the owner thereof. [L. '54, p. 99, § 133; Cd. '81, § 963; 2 H. C., § 1377.]

Cited in 6 Wash. 189; 35 Wash. 134.

See supra, § 2076, variance as to ownership of property, when.

§ 2158. Court to Decide Questions of Law, Rules of Practice.—The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of the trial, and the trial shall be conducted in the same manner as in civil actions. [Cf. L. '54, p. 119, § 111; Cd. '81, § 1088; L. '91, p. 60, § 70; 2 H. C., § 1310.]

Cited in 83 Wash. 517.

§ 2159. Custody of Jury.—Juries in criminal cases shall not be allowed to separate, except by consent of the defendant and the prosecuting attorney, but shall be kept together, without meat or drink, unless otherwise ordered by the court, to be furnished at the expense of the county. [L. '54, p. 119, § 114; Cd. '81, § 1089; 2 H. C., § 1311.]

§ 2160. Court may Order View of Place of Crime.—The court may order a view by any jury impaneled to try a criminal case. [L. '54, p. 120, § 115; Cd. '81, § 1090; 2 H. C., § 1312.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 674.

§ 2161. Separate Trial.—When two or more defendants are indicted or informed against jointly, any defendant requiring it shall be tried separately. [Cf. L. '54, p. 120, § 116; Cd. '81, § 1091; L. '91, p. 60, § 71; 2 H. C., § 1313.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 95; 48 Wash. 75; 66 Wash. 468, 589.

See supra, § 2175, trial of question of insanity.

§ 2162. Discharging One Defendant to Give Evidence—Effect of. When two or more persons are included in one prosecution, the court may, at any time before the defendant has gone into his defense, direct any defendant to be discharged, that he may be a witness for the state. A defendant may also, when there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, at any time before the evidence is closed, be discharged by the court, for the purpose of giving evidence for a codefendant. The order of discharge is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense. [L. '54, p. 120, § 117; Cd. '81, § 1092; 2 H. C., § 1314.]

Cited in 2 Wash. 294.

§ 2163. Mistake in Charge, Defendant to be Held, When.—When it appears, at any time before verdict or judgment, that a mistake has been made in charging the proper offense, the defendant shall not be discharged if there appear to be good cause to detain him in custody; but the court must recognize him to answer the offense shown, and if necessary, recognize the witnesses to appear and testify. [L. '54, p. 120, § 118; Cd. '81, § 1093; 2 H. C., § 1315.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 238; 14 Wash. 666.

§ 2164. Venue may be Corrected and Action Certified to Proper County.—When it appears, at any time before verdict or judgment, that the defendant is prosecuted in a county not having jurisdiction, the court may order the venue of the indictment or information to be corrected, and direct that all papers and proceedings be certified to the superior court of the proper county, and recognize the defendant and witnesses to appear at such court, on a day specified in the order, and the prosecution shall proceed in the latter court in the same manner as if it had been there commenced. [L. '54, p. 120, § 119; Cd. '81, § 1094; L. '91, p. 60, § 72; 2 H. C., § 1316.]

See supra, § 2012, to be tried in county where crime committed.

§ 2165. Discharge of Jury Without Prejudice to Further Prosecution.—When a jury has been impaneled in either case contemplated in the last two preceding sections, such jury may be discharged without prejudice to the prosecution. [L. '54, p. 120, § 120; Cd. '81, § 1095; L. '91, p. 60, § 73; 2 H. C., § 1317.]

§ 2166. When Conviction or Acquittal a Bar.—When the defendant has been convicted or acquitted upon an indictment or information of an offense consisting of different degrees, the conviction or acquittal shall be a bar to another indictment or information for the offense charged in the former, or for any lower degree of that offense, or for an offense necessarily included therein. [L. '54, p. 120, § 121; Cd. '81, § 1096; L. '91, p. 60, § 74; 2 H. C., § 1318.]

See supra, § 2113, conviction or acquittal a bar, when.
See infra, § 2316, same subject.

§ 2167. Jury may Find Any Degree of Offense.—Upon an indictment or information for an offense consisting of different degrees, the jury may find the defendant not guilty of the degree charged in the indictment or information, and guilty of any degree inferior thereto, or of an attempt to commit the offense. [L. '54, p. 120, § 122; Cd. '81, § 1097; L. '91, p. 60, § 75; 2 H. C., § 1319.]

§ 2168. In Other Cases Degree of Guilt.—In all other cases, the defendant may be found guilty of an offense the commission of which is necessarily included within that with which he is charged in the indictment or information. [Cf. L. '54, p. 120, § 123; Cd. '81, § 1098; L. '91, p. 61, § 76; 2 H. C., § 1320.]

§ 2169. Verdict as to One or More Where Several are Charged.—On an indictment or information against several, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment shall be entered accordingly. [Cf. L. '54, p. 120, § 124; Cd. '81, § 1099; L. '91, p. 61, § 77; 2 H. C., § 1321.]

§ 2170. Reconsideration Where Jury Mistakes the Law.—When there is a verdict of conviction in which it appears to the court that the jury have mistaken the law, the court may explain the reason for that opinion, and direct the jury to reconsider the verdict; and if after such reconsideration they return the same verdict, it must be entered, but it shall be good cause for new trial. When there is a verdict of acquittal, the court cannot require the jury to reconsider it. [Cf. L. '54, p. 121, § 125; Cd. '81, § 1100; L. '91, p. 61, § 78; 2 H. C., § 1322.]

§ 2171. Rendition of Verdict.—When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names must then be called, and if all appear, their verdict must be rendered in open court; and if all do not appear, the rest must be discharged without giving a verdict, and the cause must be tried again. [Cf. L. '54, p. 121, § 127; Cd. '81, § 1102; L. '91, p. 61, § 80; 2 H. C., § 1324.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 46.

See infra, § 2176, verdict on defense of insanity.

§ 2172. Form of Verdict, Punishment Fixed by Court.—When the defendant is found guilty, the court, and not the jury, shall fix the amount of fine and the punishment to be inflicted. The verdict of the jury may be substantially in the following form:—

"We, the jury, in the case of the state of Washington, plaintiff, against ——, defendant, find the defendant (guilty or not guilty, as the case may be).

(Signed) A. B. Foreman."

[Cf. L. '54, p. 121, § 128; L. '65, p. 101, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1103; 2 H. C., § 1335.]

See infra, § 2176, verdict on plea of insanity.

§ 2173. "Criminally Insane," Defined—Mental Irresponsibility.—Any person who shall have committed a crime while insane, or in a condition of mental irresponsibility, and in whom such insanity or mental irresponsibility continues to exist, shall be deemed criminally insane within the meaning of this act. No condition of mind induced by the voluntary act of a person charged with a crime shall be deemed mental irresponsibility within the meaning of this act. [L. '07, p. 33, § 1.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 487.

"Act," in this section, refers to §§ 2173–2176, and § 5974 et seq.

§ 2174. Insanity—How Pleaded.—When it is desired to interpose the defense of insanity or mental irresponsibility on behalf of one charged with a crime, the defendant, his counsel or other person authorized by law to appear and act for him, shall at the time of pleading to the information or indictment file a plea in writing in addition to the plea or pleas required or permitted by other laws than this, setting up (1) his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of the commission of the crime charged, and (2) whether the insanity or mental irresponsibility still exists, or (3) whether the defendant has become sane or mentally responsible between the time of the commission of the crime and the time of the trial. The plea may be interposed at any time thereafter, before the submission of the cause to the jury, if it be proven that the insanity or mental irresponsibility of the defendant at the time of the crime was not before known to any person authorized to interpose a plea. [L. '07, p. 33, § 2.]

§ 2175. Special Verdict on Acquittal, When Plea of Insanity Interposed.—If the plea of insanity or mental irresponsibility be interposed, and evidence upon that issue be given, the court shall instruct the jury when giving the charge, that in case a verdict of acquittal of the crime charged be returned, they shall also return special verdicts finding (1) whether the defendant committed the crime and if so, (2) whether they acquit him because of his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of its commission, (3) whether the insanity or mental irresponsibility continues and exists at the time of the trial, and (4) whether, if such condition of insanity or mental irresponsibility does not exist at the time of the trial, there is such likelihood of a relapse or recurrence of the insane or mental irresponsible condition, that the defendant is not a safe person to be at large. Forms for the return of the special verdicts shall be submitted to the jury with the forms for the general verdicts. [L. '07, p. 33, § 3.]

§ 2176. Verdict — Findings — Discharge or Commitment.—If the jury find by their special verdicts that the defendant committed the crime charged, that he is acquitted because of his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of its commission, and that before the trial he has become a sane or mentally responsible person, and is not liable to a relapse or recurrence of the insane or mentally irresponsible condition, and is a safe person to be at large, he shall be discharged. If the jury find that the defendant committed the crime charged, that he is acquitted because of his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of its commission, and that the insanity or mental irresponsibility still exists, or, if it does not exist, that he is so liable to a relapse or recurrence of the insane or mentally irresponsible condition as to be an unsafe person to be at large, the court shall enter judgment in accordance therewith, and shall order the defendant committed as a criminally insane person until such time as he shall be discharged as hereinafter provided. [L. '07, p. 34, § 4. Cf. L. '54, p. 121, § 126; Cd. '81, § 1101; L. '91, p. 61, § 79; 2 H. C., § 1323.]

CHAPTER XVIII.

New Trial and Arrest of Judgment.

§ 2181. When New Trial may be Granted.—An application for a new trial must be made before judgment, and may be granted for the following causes materially affecting a substantial right of the defendant:—

1. When the jury has received any evidence, paper, document, or book not allowed by the court;

2. Misconduct of the jury;

3. Newly discovered evidence material for the defendant, which he could not have discovered with reasonable diligence, and produced at the trial;

4. Accident or surprise;

5. Error of law occurring at the trial and excepted to by the defendant;

6. When the verdict is contrary to law and evidence; but not more than two new trials shall be granted for these causes alone. [Cf. L. '54, p. 121, § 130; Cd. '81, § 1105; L. '91, p. 61, § 81; 2 H. C., § 1326.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 415; 42 Wash. 61; 47 Wash. 6; 59 Wash. 311.

§ 2182. Application, How Made.—When the application is made for a cause mentioned in the first, second, third, and fourth subdivisions of the preceding section, the facts on which it is based shall be set out in an affidavit. [L. '54, p. 122, § 131; Cd. '81, § 1106; 2 H. C., § 1327.]

Cited in 42 Wash. 61; 25 Wash. 415; 59 Wash. 311.

§ 2183. Judgment may be Arrested, When.—Judgment may be arrested on the motion of the defendant for the following causes:—

1. No legal authority in the grand jury to inquire into the offense charged, by reason of its not being within the jurisdiction of the court;

2. That the facts as stated in the indictment or information do not constitute a crime or misdemeanor. [Cf. L. '54, p. 122, § 132; Cd. '81, § 1107; L. '91, p. 62, § 82; 2 H. C., § 1328.]

Cited in 22 Wash. 554; 53 Wash. 269; 72 Wash. 393; 79 Wash. 263.

§ 2184. Judgment Arrested Without Motion, When.—The court may also, on its views of any of these defects, arrest the judgment without motion. [L. '54, p. 122, § 133; Cd. '81, § 1108; 2 H. C., § 1329.]

§ 2185. Defendant may be Recommitted After Arrest of Judgment.—When judgment is arrested in any case, and there is reasonable ground to believe that the defendant can be convicted of an offense, properly charged, the court may order the defendant to be recommitted, or admitted to bail anew, to answer a new indictment [or information]. [L. '54, p. 122, § 134; Cd. '81, § 1109; 2 H. C., § 1330.]

§ 2186. Exceptions as in Civil Cases.—Exceptions may be taken by the defendant, as in civil cases, on any matter of law by which his substantial rights are prejudiced. [L. '54, p. 122, § 135; Cd. '81, § 1110; 2 H. C., § 1331.]

See supra, § 381 et seq., exceptions in civil cases, and notes.

CHAPTER XIX.

Judgment, and the Enforcement Thereof.

§ 2187. Judgment on Verdict.—When the defendant is found guilty, the court shall render judgment accordingly and the defendant shall be liable for all costs, unless the court or jury trying the cause expressly find otherwise. [L. '54, p. 121, § 129; Cd. '81, § 1104; 2 H. C., § 1332.]

See infra, § 8541, conviction to be certified to state auditor.

§ 2188. Judgment a Lien on Realty, When.—Judgments for fines in all criminal actions rendered are and may be made liens upon the real estate of the defendant in the same manner and with like effect as judgments in civil actions. [Cd. '81, § 1111; 2 H. C., § 1333.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 671.

See supra, § 445 et seq., judgment liens in civil cases.

§ 2189. Fines, Disposition—Penalty for Neglect to Pay Over.—All fines imposed on any person by the provisions of this code, where the same shall be collected, shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county where such conviction shall have been had, to go into the general county fund. The county treasurer shall give duplicate receipts therefor, one of which shall be filed with the county auditor; and all officers refusing or neglecting to pay over any fines within one month after they shall have been received shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in fourfold the amount of such fines so received. [L. '54, § 128; Cd. '81, § 1113; 2 H. C., § 1335.]

See supra, § 966, disposition of fines and forfeitures generally.
See infra, § 2230, costs and other moneys collected in criminal cases belong to county.

§ 2190. Judgment Pronounced, When.—After verdict of guilty or finding of the court against the defendant, if the judgment be not arrested or a new trial granted, the court must pronounce judgment. [L. '54, p. 123, § 136; Cd. '81, § 1114; 2 H. C., § 1336.]

See infra, § 2198, defendant to be informed of verdict.

§ 2194. Certain Criminals may be Sentenced to Reformatory.—All provisions of existing laws requiring the courts of this state to sentence male criminals between the ages of sixteen and thirty, convicted of any criminal offense, to the Washington penitentiary shall, from and after the turning over of the buildings of the Washington state reformatory to the board of managers as provided for in section 8591, of this code, apply to said Washington state reformatory, so far as to enable courts to sentence the class of prisoners mentioned in section 8585 of this code to the Washington state reformatory. [L. '07, p. 389, § 12.]

See infra, § 8585, certain criminals to be sentenced to reformatory.
See infra, § 8595, indefinite sentences not void.

§ 2195. Indeterminate Sentence to Reformatory.—Every sentence to the Washington state reformatory of a person hereinafter convicted of a felony, shall be a general sentence to imprisonment in the Washington state reformatory, giving the location thereof, and the courts of this state imposing such sentence shall not fix or limit the duration thereof. The term of such imprisonment of any prisoner so convicted and sentenced shall be terminated by the board of managers of the Washington state reformatory as authorized by this act, but such imprisonment shall not exceed the maximum provided by law for the crime for which the person was convicted nor be less than the minimum term provided by law for a felony; and a person sentenced to the Washington state reformatory shall, within thirty days after his sentence, unless the execution thereof be suspended, be conveyed to the Washington state reformatory by the state board of control in the manner prescribed in section 8955 of this code, and delivered into the custody of the superintendent of the Washington state reformatory, together with a certified copy of the sentence of the court, and there be safely kept until released by the board of managers of the Washington state reformatory, or until said prisoner be pardoned by the governor, and if the execution of the sentence be suspended, and the judgment be afterward affirmed, the defendant shall be conveyed to the Washington state reformatory within thirty days after the court directs the execution of the sentence. [L. '07, p. 390, § 13.]

See infra, § 2282, indeterminate sentence to reformatory.
See infra, § 8585, certain criminals to be sentenced to reformatory.

§ 2196. Presence of Defendant, When Necessary.—For the purpose of judgment, if the conviction be for an offense punishable by imprisonment, the defendant must be personally present; if for a fine only he must be personally present, or some responsible person must undertake for him to secure the payment of the judgment and costs; judgment may then be rendered in his absence. [L. '54, p. 123, § 137; Cd. '81, § 1115; 2 H. C., § 1337.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 384.
See supra, § 2145, presence at trial.

§ 2197. Warrant for Defendant, When.—If in any case the defendant is not present when his personal attendance is necessary, the court may order the clerk to issue a warrant for his arrest, which may be served in any county in this state, as a warrant of arrest in other cases. [L. '54, p. 123, § 138; Cd. '81, § 1116; 2 H. C., § 1338.]

§ 2199. Bench-warrant, Forfeiture of Bail, etc.—If the defendant have been discharged on bail, or have deposited money instead thereof, and do not appear for judgment when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench-warrant for his arrest. [L. '54, p. 123, § 140; Cd. '81, § 1118; 2 H. C., § 1340.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 671.

§ 2200. Commitment Until Fine and Costs Paid.—When the defendant is adjudged to pay a fine and costs, the court shall order him to be committed to the custody of the sheriff until the fine and costs are paid or secured as provided by law. [L. '54, p. 123, § 141; Cd. '81, § 1119; 2 H. C., § 1341.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 329.

See infra, § 2206, enforcement of judgment for fine and costs.
See infra, § 2209, fine and costs, how worked out.

§ 2201. Execution as in Civil Actions for Fine and Costs.—Upon a judgment for fine and costs, and for all adjudged costs, execution shall be issued against the property of the defendant, and returned in the same manner as in civil actions. [L. '54, p. 123, § 142; Cd. '81, § 1120; 2 H. C., § 1342.]

Cited in 23 Wash. 87; 82 Wash. 671.

See supra, § 510 et seq., execution in civil actions.

§ 2202. Recognizance to Keep the Peace — Exception. — Every court before whom any person shall be convicted upon an indictment or information for an offense not punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary may, in addition to the punishment prescribed by law, require such person to recognize with sufficient sureties in a reasonable sum to keep the peace, or to be of good behavior, or both, for any term not exceeding one year, and to stand committed until he shall so recognize. [Cf. L. '54, p. 123, § 143; Cd. '81, § 1121; L. '91, p. 62, § 83; 2 H. C., § 1343.]

§ 2203. Proceedings upon Breach of Bond.—In case of the breach of the conditions of any such recognizance the same proceedings shall be had that are by law prescribed in relation to recognizances to keep the peace. [L. '54, p. 123, § 144; Cd. '81, § 1122; 2 H. C., § 1344.]

See supra, § 1936 et seq., provisions relating to recognizances to keep the peace.

§ 2204. Stay upon Judgment Sixty Days. — Every defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered for fine and costs may stay the execution for the fine assessed and costs for sixty days from the rendition of the judgment, by procuring one or more sufficient sureties, to enter into a recognizance in open court, acknowledging themselves to be bail for such fine and costs. [L. '54, p. 124, § 145; Cd. '81, § 1123; 2 H. C., § 1345.]

§ 2205. Qualification and Liability of Sureties.—Such sureties shall be approved by the clerk, and the entry of the recognizance shall be written immediately following the judgment, and signed by the bail, and shall have the same effect as a judgment; and if the fine or costs be not paid at the expiration of the sixty days, a joint execution shall issue against the defendant and the bail, and an execution against the body of the defendant, who shall be committed to jail, to be released as provided in this code in committal for default to pay or secure the fine and costs. [L. '54, p. 124, § 146; Cd. '81, § 1124; 2 H. C., § 1346.]

§ 2206. Judgment of Fine and Costs, How Enforced.—If any person ordered into custody until the fine and costs adjudged against him be paid shall not, within five days pay or cause the payment of the same to be made, the clerk of the court shall issue a warrant to the sheriff commanding him to imprison such defendant in the county jail until such fine and costs are paid, or until he has been imprisoned in such jail one day for every three dollars of such fine and costs; but execution may at any time issue against the property of the defendant as in other cases. [Cf. L. '54, p. 124, § 147; Cd. '81, § 1125; L. '83, p. 38, § 1; L. '91, p. 62, § 84; 2 H. C., § 1347.]

See notes to § 2200, commitment until fine paid.
See infra, § 2209, fine and costs, how worked out.

§ 2207. Certified Transcript—Mittimus.—When any person shall be sentenced to be imprisoned in the penitentiary or county jail, the clerk of the court shall, as soon as may be, make out and deliver to the sheriff of the county, or his deputy, a transcript, from the minutes of the court, of such conviction and sentence, duly certified by such clerk, which shall be sufficient authority for such sheriff to execute the sentence, who shall execute it accordingly. [L. '54, p. 124, § 148; Cd. '81, § 1126; 2 H. C., § 1348.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 11, 12.

§ 2208. Form of Sentence to Penitentiary.—In every case where imprisonment in the penitentiary is awarded against any convict, the form of the sentence shall be, that he be punished by confinement at hard labor; and he may also be sentenced to solitary imprisonment for such term as the court shall direct, not exceeding twenty days at any one time; and in the execution of such punishment the solitary [imprisonment] shall precede the punishment by hard labor, unless the court shall otherwise order. [L. '54, p. 124, § 149; Cd. '81, § 1127; 2 H. C., § 1349.]

See § 2281, indeterminate sentence.
See infra, § 8505, solitary confinement.

§ 2209. Fine and Costs, How Worked Out.—When a defendant is committed to jail on failure to pay any fines and costs, he shall, under the order of the county commissioners, work out the amount of the fine and costs at the rate of two dollars per day; and in case he shall so work out the fine and costs, or in case he shall not be able to work, or the county commissioners fail to provide work, and he shall have been confined in the county jail one day for every two dollars of such fine and costs, no execution shall issue therefor. When any defendant is in the custody of the sheriff by virtue of a sentence of imprisonment in the county jail, and if there be no county jail in the county, he shall, under the order of the county commissioners, cause such person to work his unexpired term of imprisonment in such manner as said county commissioners may direct. [Cf. L. '54, p. 124, § 151; L. '77, p. 206, § 8; Cd. '81, § 1129; 2 H. C., § 1350.]

§ 2210. Death Warrant, Contents, Return.—When judgment of death is rendered following conviction and no appeal is taken, or the judgment has been affirmed on appeal, a death warrant shall be issued by the clerk of the trial court, which said warrant shall be signed by a judge of said court and attested by the clerk thereof under the seal of the court. Said warrant shall be directed to the superintendent of the state penitentiary of the state of Washington, and shall state the conviction of the person named therein and the judgment of the court, and appoint a day in which the judgment shall be executed by the superintendent of the state penitentiary, which shall not be less than thirty nor more than ninety days from the date of final judgment. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 17, § 1. Cf. L. '54, p. 125, § 152; L. '60, p. 159, § 291; Cd. '81, § 1130; 2 H. C., § 1351.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 272, 612.

This section does not apply to crimes committed prior to its taking effect, which are governed by the laws existing at the time of their commission: See infra, § 2221.

§ 2212. Death Penalty, How Executed. — The punishment of death prescribed by law must be inflicted by hanging by the neck. [L. '54, p. 125, § 153; Cd. '81, § 1131; 2 H. C., § 1352.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 349; 25 Wash. 273.

§ 2213. Order to Sheriff to Deliver to State Penitentiary.—At the time of the issuance of said death warrant an order shall be issued by the clerk of the court, which shall be signed by the judge and attested by the clerk under the seal of the court. Said order shall direct the sheriff to hold the person condemned to death, who shall be named therein, in safe custody and forthwith deliver said person, together with the death warrant, into the hands of the superintendent of the state penitentiary. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 18, § 2.]

§ 2214. Custody and Execution of Condemned at Penitentiary.—Upon delivery to him of said death warrant, and of the person therein named, the superintendent of the state penitentiary shall take the person condemned to be executed and keep said person in said custody within the said state penitentiary until the day appointed in the warrant for the execution, upon which appointed day he shall carry out the mandate contained in said warrant by executing said condemned person within the walls of the state penitentiary in the manner provided by law. And between the date of receiving such condemned person and the date fixed in such warrant for his execution, such superintendent shall not suffer or permit any person to visit, converse or communicate with such condemned person excepting the attendants in the state penitentiary, legal, spiritual and medical advisers, and the members of the immediate family of the condemned person, which visits and communications shall be under and subject to the rules and regulations of the state penitentiary. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 18, § 3.]

§ 2215. Record, of Death Warrant and Return, by Superintendent.—The superintendent of the state penitentiary shall keep in his office as part of the public records a book in which shall be entered a copy of the death warrant and his return made thereon, together with a complete statement of his acts in pursuance of said warrant. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 18, § 4.]

§ 2216. Return of Warrant to Clerk of Court.—Within twenty days after said execution the superintendent of the state penitentiary shall return said death warrant to the clerk of the court from which same was issued with his return thereon, showing all proceedings had by him thereunder. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 19, § 5.]

diately execute such order and return the same into court within twenty days after he has delivered the death warrant and the person named therein into the hands of the superintendent of the state penitentiary, with his return thereon showing all proceedings had by him thereunder. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 19, § 6.]

§ 2218. Clerk to File Returns. — The clerk of the court from which the death warrant and the order to the sheriff were issued shall, upon receipt of the returns from the superintendent of the state penitentiary and from the sheriff hereinbefore directed, file same with the records in the case and subjoin to the record of conviction and sentence a brief abstract of such returns. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 19, § 7. Cf. L. '54, p. 125, § 154; Cd. '81, § 1132; 2 H. C., § 1353; Bal. Code, § 6995.]

§ 2219. Sheriff to Keep Prisoner Pending Issuance of Warrant.— Pending the issuance of the death warrant, the sheriff shall hold the condemned person in safe custody. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 19, § 8.]

See supra, § 2214, sheriff to deliver to penitentiary.

§ 2220. Repeal—Exception.—All acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, except as hereinafter provided. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 19, § 9.]

§ 2221. Saving Clause.—The provisions of this act shall not apply to any act done or crime heretofore committed, and all acts and crimes heretofore done or committed shall be prosecuted and punished under the laws existing at the time of the commission of said acts or crimes in the same manner as if this act had not been enacted, and all such existing laws and especially sections 6993 and 6995 of Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington are hereby continued in force as to all such acts and crimes committed prior to the taking effect of this act. [L. '01, Ex. Sess., p. 19, § 10.]

See supra, § 2006, general saving clause.

"Act" in this and preceding section refers to § 2210 and §§ 2213–2221.

The Ballinger sections referred to are superseded (except as saved in this section) by §§ 2210, 2218, supra. They are as follows:

Bal. Code, § 6993: "When judgment of death is rendered, a warrant signed by the judge and attested by the clerk, under the seal of the court, shall be drawn and delivered to the sheriff; it shall state the conviction and judgment, and appoint a day in which the judgment shall be executed, which shall not be less than thirty nor more than ninety days from the time of judgment. And the sheriff or officer to whom said warrant was delivered shall return the same within twenty days after the time fixed for the execution."

Bal. Code, § 6995: "The sheriff shall return and file with the clerk the warrant, with a statement of his doings thereon, and the clerk shall subjoin a brief abstract of such statement to the record of conviction and sentence."

§ 2222. Proceedings on Failure to Execute Death Sentence.—Whenever the time appointed for the execution of a prisoner shall have passed, from any cause, the court by whom the time was fixed, or the judge or judges thereof, shall cause the prisoner to be brought immediately before the said court, judge or judges, and proceed to appoint a day for the carrying into effect the sentence of death. [L. '54, p. 125, § 155; Cd. '81, § 1133; 2 H. C., § 1354.]

§ 2223. Governor may Grant Pardons, etc.—Whenever a prisoner has been sentenced to death, the governor shall have power to commute such sentence to imprisonment for life at hard labor; and in all cases in which the governor is authorized to grant pardons or commute sentence of death, he may, upon the petition of the person convicted, commute a sentence or grant a pardon upon such conditions and with such restrictions and under such limitations as he may think proper; and he may issue his warrant to all proper officers to carry into effect such pardon or commutation, which warrant shall be obeyed and executed instead of the sentence, if any, which was originally given. The governor may also, on good cause shown, grant respites or reprieves, from time to time, as he may think proper. [L. '54, p. 128, § 174; Cd. '81, § 1136; 2 H. C., § 1356.]

§ 2224. Final Record Shall Contain What.—The clerk of the court shall make a final record of all the proceedings in a criminal prosecution within six months after the same shall have been decided, which shall contain a copy of the minutes of the challenge to the panel of the grand jury, the indictment or information, journal entries, pleadings, minutes of challenges to panel of petit jurors, judgment, orders, or decision, and bill of exceptions. [Cf. L. '54, p. 125, § 156; Cd. '81, § 1134; L. '91, p. 63, § 85; 2 H. C., § 1355.]

CHAPTER XX.

Costs in Criminal Cases.

§ 2225. Costs—How Taxed Where Complaint Unfounded or Malicious.—When any person shall be brought before a court, justice of the peace, or other committing magistrate of any county, city, or town in this state, having jurisdiction of the alleged offense, charged with the commission of a crime or misdemeanor, and such complaint upon examination shall appear to be unfounded, no costs shall be payable by such acquitted party, but the same shall be chargeable to the county, city, or town for or in which the said complaint is triable; but if the court, justice of the peace, or other magistrate trying said charge shall decide the complaint was frivolous or malicious, the judgment or verdict shall also designate who is the complainant, and may adjudge that said complainant pay the costs. In such cases a judgment shall thereupon be entered for the costs against said complainant, who shall stand committed until such costs be paid or discharged by due process of law. [L. '69, p. 418, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2103; 1 H. C., § 3050.]

§ 2226. Enforcing Costs Against Complainant.—When a grand jury, upon a complaint submitted to them for investigation, fail to find a bill of indictment for an offense against the laws of the state, they shall also inquire whether the complaint is frivolous or malicious, and decide whether the county or complainant shall pay the costs, and make return of their finding in open court. Any complainant adjudged by said grand jury as liable for the costs shall forthwith be brought into court, and sentenced to pay the same or stand committed until such judgment is satisfied or complied with. [L. '69, p. 418, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2104; 1 H. C., § 3051.]

§ 2227. Jury Fee to be Taxed to Defendant, When.—Every person convicted of a crime, or held to bail to keep the peace, shall be liable to all the costs of the proceedings against him, including, when tried by a jury in the superior court, twelve dollars for a jury fee, and when tried by a jury before a committing magistrate, six dollars for jury fee, for which judgment shall be rendered and collection had as in cases of fines. The jury fee, when collected for a case tried by the superior court, shall be paid to the clerk, to be by him applied as the jury fee in civil cases is applied. [L. '69, p. 418, § 3; Cd. '81, § 2105; 1 H. C., § 3052.]

§ 2228. Cost Bills, How Made and Certified.—In all convictions for felony, whether capital or punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the clerk of the superior court shall forthwith, after sentence, tax the costs in the case. The cost bill shall be made out in triplicate, and be examined by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the trial was had. After which the judge of the superior court shall allow and approve such bill or so much thereof as is allowable by law. The clerk of the superior court shall thereupon, under his hand, and under the seal of the court, certify said triplicate cost bills, and shall file one with the papers of the cause, and shall transmit one to the state auditor and one to the county auditor of the county in which said felony was committed. [Cd. '81, § 2106; L. '83, p. 35, § 1; 2 H. C., § 1382a.]

See supra, § 491, costs against state or county.

§ 2229. Payment of Amount Stated in Cost Bill.—Upon the receipt of the cost bill as provided for in the last preceding section, the county auditor shall draw warrants for the amounts due each person, as certified in said cost bill, which warrants shall be paid as other county warrants are paid. On receipt of the certified copy of said cost bill, the state auditor shall examine and audit said bill and allow the same or so much thereof as may be allowable against the state, and shall credit the amount so allowed to the county from whence the bill came as so much state tax paid. The state auditor shall immediately notify the state treasurer and county auditor, each of whom shall credit and charge accordingly. [Cd. '81, § 2107; L. '83, p. 35, § 1; 1 H. C., § 3053.]

CHAPTER XXI.

Forfeiture of Recognizances in Criminal Actions.

§ 2231. Forfeiture of Recognizance, Judgment, Execution.—In criminal cases where a recognizance for the appearance of any person, either as a witness or to appear and answer, shall have been taken and a default entered, the recognizance shall be declared forfeited by the court, and at the time of adjudging such forfeiture said court shall enter judgment against the principal and sureties named in such recognizance for the sum therein mentioned, and execution may issue thereon the same as upon other judgments. [L. '67, p. 103, § 1137; 2 H. C., § 1357.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 615.

§ 2232. Stay of Execution on Forfeited Recognizance.—The parties, or either of them, against whom such judgment may be entered in the superior or supreme courts, may stay said execution for sixty days by giving a bond, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned for the payment of such judgment at the expiration of sixty days, unless the same shall be vacated before the expiration of that time. [Cf. L. '67, p. 103, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1138; L. '91, p. 63, § 86; 2 H. C., § 1358.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 614, 616.

See supra, § 2204, stay on judgment for fines and costs.

§ 2233. Judgment Vacated on Defendant's Production, When.—If a bond be given and execution stayed, as provided in the last preceding section, and the person for whose appearance such recognizance was given shall be produced in court before the expiration of said period of sixty days, the judge may vacate such judgment upon such terms as may be just and equitable; otherwise execution shall forthwith issue as well against the sureties in the new bond as against the judgment debtors. [Cf. L. '67, p. 193, § 3; Cd. '81, § 1139; L. '91, p. 63, § 87; 2 H. C., § 1359.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 616; 76 Wash. 254.

§ 2234. Recognizances Before Magistrates, Forfeiture, Action.—All recognizances taken and forfeited before any justice of the peace or magistrate shall be forthwith certified to the clerk of the superior court of the county; and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to proceed at once by action against all the persons bound in such recognizances, and in all forfeited recognizances, whatever, or such of them as he may elect to proceed against. [L. '54, p. 128, § 175; Cd. '81, § 1166; 2 H. C., § 1360.]

§ 2235. Action on Recognizance not to be Barred, etc.—No action brought on any recognizance given in any criminal proceeding whatever shall be barred or defeated, nor shall judgment be arrested thereon, by reason of any neglect or omission to note or record the default of any principal or surety at the time when such default shall happen, or by reason of any defect in the form of the recognizance, if it sufficiently appear, from the tenor thereof, at what court or before what justice the party or witness was bound to appear, and that the court or magistrate before whom it was taken was authorized by law to require and take such recognizance; and a recognizance may be recorded after execution awarded. [Cf. L. '54, p. 129, § 176; Cd. '81, § 1167; L. '91, p. 63, § 88; 2 H. C., § 1361.]

of prosecution, shall be liable for any costs or fees of any officer, or for any charge of subsistence while he was in custody, but in every such case the fees of the defendant's witnesses, and of the officers for services rendered at the request of the defendant, and charges for subsistence of the defendant while in custody, shall be taxed and paid as other costs and charges in such cases. [Cf. L. '54, p. 129, § 177; L. '77, p. 207, § 10; Cd. '81, § 1168; 2 H. C., § 1382.]

CHAPTER XXII.

Search-warrants.

§ 2237. When Issued.—When complaint shall have been made on oath to any magistrate authorized to issue warrant in criminal cases that personal property has been stolen or embezzled, or obtained by false tokens or pretenses, and that the complainant believes that it is concealed in any particular house or place, the magistrate, if he be satisfied that there is a reasonable cause for such belief shall issue a warrant for such property. [L. '54, p. 100, § 1; Cd. '81, § 967; 2 H. C., § 1383.]

Cited in 43 Wash. 477; 69 Wash. 52.

§ 2238. Additional Grounds for Issuing Warrant. — Any such magistrate, when satisfied that there is reasonable cause, may also, upon like complaint made on oath, issue search-warrant in the following cases, to wit:—

1. To search for and seize any counterfeit or spurious coin, or forged instruments, or tools, machines, or materials prepared or provided for making either of them;

2. To search for and seize any gaming apparatus used or kept and to be used in any unlawful gaming-house, or in any building, apartment, or place resorted to for the purpose of unlawful gaming. [L. '54, p. 101, § 2; Cd. '81, § 968; 2 H. C., § 1384.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 337, 339.

§ 2239. To Whom Directed — Contents of.—All such warrants shall be directed to the sheriff of the county or his deputy, or to any constable of the county, commanding such officer to search the house or place where the stolen property or other things for which he is required to search are believed to be concealed, which place and property or things to be searched for shall be designated and described in the warrant, and to bring such stolen property or other things, when found, and the person in whose possession the same shall be found, before the magistrate, who shall issue the warrant, or before some other magistrate or court having cognizance of the case. [L. '54, p. 101, § 3; Cd. '81, § 969; 2 H. C., § 1385.]

Cited in 43 Wash. 477; 69 Wash. 53.

§ 2240. Execution of Warrant, Custody and Disposition of Property.—When any officer, in the execution of a search-warrant, shall find any stolen or embezzled property, or shall seize any other things for which a search is allowed by this chapter, all the property and things so seized shall be safely kept by the direction of the court or magistrate so long as shall be necessary for the purpose of being produced in evidence on any trial; and as soon as may be afterward, all such stolen and embezzled property shall be restored to the owner thereof, and all other things seized by virtue of such warrant shall be destroyed under direction of the court or magistrate. [L. '54, p. 101, § 4; Cd. '81, § 970; 2 H. C., § 1386.]

CHAPTER XXIII.

Proceedings Relating to Fugitives from Justice.

§ 2241. Governor's Agent to Demand Fugitive — Proceedings.—The governor of this state may appoint agents to demand of the executive authority of any state or territory any fugitive from justice, or any other person charged with felony or any other crime in this state; and whenever an application shall be made to the governor for that purpose, the prosecuting attorney, when required by the governor, shall forthwith investigate the ground of such application, and report to the governor all material circumstances which may come to his knowledge, with an abstract of the evidence and his opinion as to the expediency of the demand; but the governor may, in any case, appoint such agents without requiring the opinion of or any report from the prosecuting attorney, and the accounts of the agents appointed for such purposes shall in all cases be audited by the state auditor and paid from the state treasury. [Cf. L. '54, p. 102, § 5; Cd. '81, § 971; L. '91, p. 65, § 98; 2 H. C., § 1387.]

§ 2242. Demand on Governor — Proceedings.—When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the executive of any state or territory, in any case authorized by the Constitution and laws of the United States, for the delivery over of any person charged in such state or territory with treason, felony, or any other crime, the prosecuting attorney, or any other prosecuting officer, when required by the governor, shall forthwith investigate the ground of such demand, and report to the governor all material facts which may come to his knowledge as to the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, especially as to whether he is held in custody or is under recognizance to answer for any offense against the laws of this state or of the United States, or by force of any civil process, and also whether such demand is made according to law, so that such person ought to be delivered up; and if the governor be satisfied that such demand is conformable to law, and ought to be complied with, he shall issue his warrant, under the seal of the state, authorizing the agents who make such demand either forthwith, or at such time as shall be designated by the warrant, to take and transport such person to the line of the state at the expense of such agents, and shall also by such warrant require the civil officers within this state to afford all needful assistance in the execution thereof. [L. '54, p. 102, § 6; Cd. '81, § 972; 2 H. C., § 1388.]

§ 2243. Warrant for Fugitive, Issuance of.—Whenever any person shall be found within this state charged with an offense committed in any state or territory, and liable by the Constitution and laws of the United States to be delivered on the demand of the executive of such state or territory, any court or magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases may, upon complaint under oath setting forth the offense, and such other matters as are necessary to bring the offense within the provisions of law, issue a warrant to bring the person so charged before the same or some other court or magistrate so authorized within the state, to answer such complaint as in other cases. [L. '54, p. 102, § 7; Cd. '81, § 973; 2 H. C., § 1389.]

Cited in 40 Wash. 563.

§ 2244. Examination by Court or Magistrate.—If, upon the examination of the persons charged, it shall appear to the court or magistrate, by proof in addition to the oath of the complainant, that there is reasonable cause to believe that the complaint is true, and that such person may be lawfully demanded of the governor, he shall, if not charged with a capital crime, be required to recognize, with sufficient sureties, in a reasonable sum, to appear before such court or magistrate at a future day, allowing a reasonable time to obtain a warrant of the executive, and to abide the order of the court or magistrate; and if such person shall not so recognize, he shall be committed to prison, and there be detained until such day, in like manner as if the offense charged had been committed in this state; and if the person so recognizing shall fail to appear according to the conditions of his recognizance, he shall be defaulted, and the like proceedings shall be had as in the case of other recognizances entered into before such court or magistrate; but if such person be charged with a capital crime, he shall be committed to prison, and there be detained until the day so appointed for his appearance before the court or magistrate. [L. '54, p. 103, § 8; Cd. '81, § 974; 2 H. C., § 1390.]

§ 2245. Discharge, When.—If the person recognized or committed shall appear before the court or magistrate upon the day ordered, he shall be discharged, unless he be demanded by some persons authorized by the warrant of the executive to receive him, or unless the court or magistrate shall see cause to commit him, or require of him to recognize anew for his appearance at some other day; and if, when ordered, he shall not so recognize, he shall be committed and be detained as before provided. Whenever the person so appearing shall be recognized, committed, or discharged, any person authorized by the warrant of the executive may at all times take him into custody, and the same shall be a discharge of the recognizance, if any, and shall not be deemed an escape. [L. '54, p. 103, § 9; Cd. '81, § 975; 2 H. C., § 1391.]

§ 2246. Complainant Liable for Costs, When.—The complainant in such cases shall be answerable for the actual costs and charges, and for the support in prison of any person so committed, and shall advance to the jailer one week's board at the time of commitment, and so from week to week, so long as such person shall remain in jail; and if he fails to do so, the jailer may forthwith discharge the person from his custody. [L. '54, p. 103, § 10; Cd. '81, § 976; 2 H. C., § 1392.]

CHAPTER XXIV.

Rewards for the Apprehension of Fugitives.

§ 2247. Standing Rewards by Governor for Certain Offenses.—The governor shall offer a standing reward of two hundred dollars for the arrest of each person who shall place any obstruction on any railroad track, or who shall misplace any switch, rail, or ties on any such road, whereby the life of any person passing over said road may be endangered; and for the arrest of each person engaged in the robbing or attempting to rob any person upon, or having in charge, in whole or in part, any stage-coach, wagon, railroad train, or other conveyance engaged in carrying passengers, or any private conveyance within this state, the reward to be paid to the person making such arrest, out of any money in the [state] treasury not otherwise appropriated, immediately upon the conviction of the person so arrested; but no reward shall be paid except after such conviction. [L. '77, p. 283, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1290; 1 H. C., § 2941.]

See infra, § 8988, subd. 8, rewards for fugitives.

§ 2248. Auditor to Draw Warrant.—The auditor of state shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the amount of the reward, upon presentation to him of a certificate of the clerk of the court where the conviction was had, of such conviction, and the finding of the court that the satisfactory proof was made that the person claiming the reward is entitled thereto, under the provision of the preceding section. [L. '77, p. 284, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1291; 1 H. C., § 2942.]

§ 2249. Rewards by County Commissioners, When.—The county commissioners in the several counties of this state, when in their opinion the public good requires it, are hereby authorized to offer and pay a suitable reward, not to exceed five hundred dollars in any one case, to any person or persons who, in consequence of such offer, apprehends, brings back, and secures any person or persons convicted of or charged with any criminal offense, if the offense be a felony. [L. '86, p. 124, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2943.]

§ 2250. Payment of Rewards Offered by Commissioners.—Whenever any such reward has been offered by any board of county commissioners for the apprehension of any person or persons convicted of or charged with any criminal offense, if the offense be a felony, the person or persons who shall first apprehend, bring back, and secure such person or persons so charged shall be entitled to such reward, and the board of county commissioners who have offered such reward are authorized to draw a warrant or warrants on the county treasurer for the amount of such reward, who shall pay the amount of said warrant or warrants out of any money in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated. [L. '86, p. 124, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2944.]

§ 2251. Conflicting Claims for, How Determined.—When more than one claimant applies for the payment of any reward, offered by any board of county commissioners, such commissioners shall determine, in their respective counties, to whom the same shall be paid, and if to more than one person, in what proportion to each, and their determination shall be final and conclusive. [L. '86, p. 124, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2945.]

CHAPTER I.

General Provisions.

§ 2253. Classification of Crimes.—A crime is an act or omission forbidden by law and punishable upon conviction by death, imprisonment, fine, or other penal discipline. Every crime which may be punished by death or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary is a felony. Every crime punishable by a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than ninety days, is a misdemeanor. Every other crime is a gross misdemeanor. [L. '09, p. 890, § 1.]

Cited in 56 Wash. 406; 58 Wash. 422; 63 Wash. 298; 64 Wash. 124.

§ 2254. Persons Punishable. The following persons are liable to punishment:

1. A person who commits in the state any crime, in whole or in part.

2. A person who commits out of the state any act which, if after committed within it, would be larceny, and is afterward found in the state with any of the stolen property.

3. A person who, being out of the state, counsels, causes, procures, aids, or abets another to commit a crime in this state.

4. A person who, being out of the state, abducts or kidnaps, by force or fraud, any person, contrary to the laws of the place where the act is committed, and brings, sends or conveys such person into this state.

5. A person who commits an act without the state which affects persons or property within the state, or the public health, morals or decency of the state, which, if committed within the state, would be a crime. [L. '09, p. 890, § 2.]

See, also, § 2010.

§ 2255. Duress of Married Woman No Defense.—It is no defense for a married woman charged with the commission of a crime, that the alleged act committed by her was committed in the presence of her husband. [L. '09, p. 891, § 3.]

§ 2256. Duress as a Defense.—Whenever any crime, except murder, is committed or participated in by two or more persons, any one of whom participates only under compulsion by another engaged therein, who by threats creates a reasonable apprehension in the mind of such participator that in case of refusal he is liable to instant death or grievous bodily harm, such threats and apprehension constitute duress, which will excuse such participator from criminal prosecution. [L. '09, p. 891, § 4.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 541.

§ 2257. Responsibility of Children.—Children under the age of eight years are incapable of committing crime. Children of eight and under twelve years of age are presumed to be incapable of committing crime, but this presumption may be removed by proof that they have sufficient capacity to understand the act or neglect, and to know that it was wrong. Whenever in legal proceedings it becomes necessary to determine the age of a child, he may be produced for inspection, to enable the court or jury to determine the age thereby; and the court may also direct his examination by one or more physicians, whose opinion shall be competent evidence upon the question of his age. [L. '09, p. 891, § 5.]

§ 2258. Intoxication No Defense.—No act committed by a person while in a state of voluntary intoxication shall be deemed less criminal by reason of his condition, but whenever the actual existence of any particular purpose, motive or intent is a necessary element to constitute a particular species or degree of crime, the fact of his intoxication may be taken into consideration in determining such purpose, motive or intent. [L. '09, p. 891, § 6.]

§ 2260. Principal Defined.—Every person concerned in the commission of a felony, gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor, whether he directly commits the act constituting the offense, or aids or abets in its commission, and whether present or absent; and every person who directly or indirectly counsels, encourages, hires, commands, induces or otherwise procures another to commit a felony, gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor, is a principal, and shall be proceeded against and punished as such. The fact that the person aided, abetted, counseled, encouraged, hired, commanded, induced or procured, could not or did not entertain a criminal intent, shall not be a defense to any person aiding, abetting, counseling, encouraging, hiring, commanding, inducing or procuring him. [L. '09, p. 892, § 8.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 468; 80 Wash. 100; 82 Wash. 673, 674.
See, also, § 2008.

§ 2261. Accessory Defined.—Every person not standing in the relation of husband or wife, brother or sister, parent or grandparent, child or grandchild, to the offender, who after the commission of a felony shall harbor, conceal or aid such offender with intent that he may avoid or escape from arrest, trial, conviction or punishment, having knowledge that such offender has committed a felony or is liable to arrest, is an accessory to the felony. [L. '09, p. 892, § 9.]

§ 2262. Trial and Punishment of Accessories.—Every accessory to a felony may be indicted, tried and convicted either in the county where he became an accessory, or where the principal felony was committed; and whether the principal offender has or has not been convicted, or is or is not amenable to justice, or has been pardoned or otherwise discharged after conviction; and, except where a different punishment is specially provided by law, such accessory shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both. [L. '09, p. 892, § 10.]

See, also, supra, §§ 2009, 2010.

§ 2263. Conviction of Lesser Crime.—Upon the trial of an indictment or information, the defendant may be convicted of the crime charged therein, or of a lesser degree of the same crime, or of an attempt to commit the crime so charged, or of any attempt to commit a lesser degree of the same crime. Whenever the jury shall find a verdict of guilty against a person so charged, they shall in their verdict specify the degree or attempt of which the accused is guilty. [L. '09, p. 893, § 11.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 587.
See, also, supra, § 2167.

§ 2264. Attempts, How Punished.—An act done with intent to commit a crime, and tending but failing to accomplish it, is an attempt to commit that crime; and every person who attempts to commit a crime, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, shall be punished as follows:

(1.) If the crime attempted is punishable by death or life imprisonment, the person convicted of the attempt shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years.

(2.) In every other case he shall be punished by imprisonment in such manner as may be prescribed for the commission of the completed offense, for not more than half the longest term, or by a fine of not more than half the largest sum, prescribed upon conviction for the commission of the offense attempted, or by both such fine and imprisonment; but nothing herein shall protect a person who, in an unsuccessful attempt to commit one crime, does commit another and different one, from the punishment prescribed for the crime actually committed; and a person may be convicted of an attempt to commit a crime, although it appears on the trial that the crime was consummated, unless the court in its discretion shall discharge the jury and direct the defendant to be tried for the crime itself. See infra, § 2651, attempt to commit train robbery.

§ 2265. Punishment of Felony When not Fixed by Statute.—Every person convicted of a felony for which no punishment is specially prescribed by any statutory provision in force at the time of conviction and sentence, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both. [L. '09, p. 894, § 13.]

§ 2266. Punishment of Misdemeanor When not Fixed by Statute. Every person convicted of a misdemeanor for which no punishment is prescribed by any statute in force at the time of conviction and sentence, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days, or by a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty dollars. [L. '09, p. 894, § 14.]

Cited in 62 Wash. 246; 78 Wash. 588.

§ 2267. Punishment of Gross Misdemeanor When not Fixed by Statute.—Every person convicted of a gross misdemeanor for which no punishment is prescribed in any statute in force at the time of conviction and sentence, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both. [L. '09, p. 894, § 15.]

Cited in 72 Wash. 655; 74 Wash. 249; 80 Wash. 94.

§ 2268. Nonfeasance in Office.—Whenever any duty is enjoined by law upon any public officer or other person holding any public trust or employment, their willful neglect to perform such duty, except where otherwise specially provided for, shall be a misdemeanor. [L. 09, p. 894, § 16.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 535.

§ 2269. Prohibited Acts.—Whenever the performance of any act is prohibited by any statute, and no penalty for the violation of such statute is imposed, the committing of such act shall be a misdemeanor. [L. '09, p. 894, § 17.]

§ 2270. Acts Punishable Elsewhere.—An act or omission punishable as a crime in this state is not less so because it is also punishable under the laws of another state, government or country, unless the contrary is expressly declared in the law relating thereto. [L. '09, p. 894, § 18.]

§ 2271. Foreign Conviction or Acquittal.—Whenever, upon the trial of any person for a crime, it appears that the offense was committed in another state or country, under such circumstances that the courts of this state had jurisdiction thereof, and that the defendant has already been acquitted or convicted upon the merits, upon a criminal prosecution under the laws of such state or country, founded upon the act or omission with respect to which he is upon trial, such former acquittal or conviction is a sufficient defense. [L. '09, p. 895, § 19.]

§ 2272. Conviction or Acquittal in Other County.—Whenever, upon the trial of any person for a crime, it shall appear that the defendant has already been acquitted or convicted upon the merits, of the same crime, in a court having jurisdiction of such offense in another county of this state, such former acquittal or conviction is a sufficient defense. [L. '09, p. 895, § 20.]

See, also, supra, § 2113; infra, § 2316.

§ 2273. Punishment for Contempt.—A criminal act which at the same time constitutes contempt of court, and has been punished as such, may also be punished as a crime, but in such case the punishment for contempt may be considered in mitigation. [L. '09, p. 895, § 21.]

See, also, "Contempts."

§ 2274. Sending Letter, When Complete.—Whenever any statute makes the sending of a letter criminal, the offense shall be deemed complete from the time it is deposited in any postoffice or other place, or delivered to any person, with intent that it shall be forwarded; and the sender may be proceeded against in the county wherein it was so deposited or delivered, or in which it was received by the person to whom it was addressed. [L. '09, p. 895, § 22.]

§ 2275. Omission, When not Punishable.—No person shall be punished for an omission to perform an act when such act has been performed by another acting in his behalf, and competent to perform it. [L. '09, p. 895, § 23.]

§ 2276. Commitment to Washington State Training School.—Whenever any boy between the ages of eight and sixteen years, or any girl between the ages of eight and eighteen years, shall be found guilty of any crime, except murder or manslaughter, the court may, in its discretion, order such person committed to the Washington state training school to remain, in case of a boy, until he shall arrive at the age of eighteen years and, in case of a girl, until she shall arrive at the age of nineteen years, unless sooner paroled or legally discharged. [L. '09, p. 896, § 24.]

See supra, §§ 1933, 2209, fines, how worked out.
See infra, §§ 8493, 8494, prisoners sentenced to labor when.

§ 2280. Suspending Sentences.—Whenever any person under the age of twenty-one years shall be convicted of any crime except murder, burglary in the first degree, arson in the first degree, robbery, carnal knowledge of a female child under the age of ten years, or rape, the court may in its discretion, at the time of imposing sentence upon such person, direct that such sentence be stayed and suspended until otherwise ordered by such court. [L. '09, p. 896, § 28.]

Cited in 65 Wash. 289.

§ 2281. Indeterminate Sentences.—Whenever any person shall be convicted of any felony for which no fixed period of confinement is imposed by law, the court shall, in addition to any fine or forfeiture which he may impose, direct that such person be confined in the state penitentiary, or in the Washington state reformatory, as the case may be, for a term not less than the minimum nor greater than the maximum term of imprisonment prescribed by law for the offense of which such person shall be convicted; and where no minimum term of imprisonment is prescribed by law, the court shall fix the same in his discretion at not less than six months nor more than five years; and where no maximum term of imprisonment is prescribed by law, the court shall fix such maximum term of imprisonment. [L. '09, p. 897, § 29.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 184; 75 Wash. 287, 288.

See supra, § 2195, indeterminate sentence to reformatory not repealed.

§ 2282. The Board Having Control to Determine Period of Imprisonment.—The state board of control, acting in conjunction with the warden of the state penitentiary, or the board of managers of the Washington state reformatory, acting in conjunction with the superintendent of such reformatory, as the case may be, may at any time after the expiration of the minimum term of imprisonment for which such prisoner was committed thereto, direct that any prisoner confined in such institution shall be released on parole upon such terms and conditions as in their judgment they may prescribe in each case. § 2284. Removal of Insane Convict.—Whenever in the judgment of the state board of control the welfare of any person confined in any penal institution, or in any institution for the care of the insane, shall require that he be removed for treatment or confinement to another institution for the care of the insane, or to the insane ward of the state penitentiary, they shall be authorized to order such removal, but whenever a change is made in the location of any such inmate, a record open to the public shall be made and the relatives of such inmate shall be notified of the change. [L. '09, p. 898, § 32.]

§ 2285. Imprisonment on Two or More Convictions.—Whenever a person shall be convicted of two or more offenses before sentence

has been pronounced for either, the imprisonment to which he is sentenced upon the second or other subsequent conviction shall commence at the termination of the first or other prior term or terms of imprisonment to which he is sentenced; and whenever a person while under sentence of felony shall commit another felony and be sentenced to another term of imprisonment, such latter term shall not begin until the expiration of all prior terms. [L. '09, p. 898, § 33.]

§ 2286. Habitual Criminals.—Every person convicted in this state of any crime of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, or of petit larceny, or of any felony, who shall previously have been convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of any crime which under the laws of this state would amount to a felony, or who shall previously have been twice convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of petit larceny, or of any misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, shall be adjudged to be an habitual criminal and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than ten years.

Every person convicted in this state of any crime of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, or of petit larceny, or of any felony, who shall previously have been twice convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of any crime which under the laws of this state would amount to a felony, or who shall previously have been four times convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of petit larceny, or of any misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for life. [L. '09, p. 899, § 34.]

§ 2288. Convicts Protected—Forfeitures Abolished.—Every person sentenced to imprisonment in any penal institution shall be under the protection of the law, and any unauthorized injury to his person shall be punished in the same manner as if he were not so convicted or sentenced. A conviction of crime shall not work a forfeiture of any property, real or personal, or of any right or interest therein. All forfeitures in the nature of deodands, or in case of suicide or where a person flees from justice, are abolished. [L. '09, p. 899, § 36.]

§ 2289. Conviction of Public Officer Forfeits Office.—The conviction of a public officer of any felony or malfeasance in office shall entail, in addition to such other penalty as may be imposed, the forfeiture of his office, and shall disqualify him from ever afterward holding any public office in this state. [L. '09, p. 900, § 37.]

§ 2290. Convict as Witness.—Every person convicted of a crime shall be a competent witness in any civil or criminal proceeding, but his conviction may be proved for the purpose of affecting the weight of his testimony, either by the record thereof, or a copy of such record duly authenticated by the legal custodian thereof, or by other competent evidence, or by his cross-examination, upon which he shall answer any proper question relevant to that inquiry, and the party cross-examining shall not be concluded by his answer thereto. [L. '09, p. 900, § 38.]

§ 2295. Application to Existing Civil Rights.—Nothing in this act shall be deemed to affect any civil right or remedy existing at the time when it shall take effect, by virtue of the common law or of the provision of any statute. [L. '09, p. 901, § 43.]

§ 2296. Civil Remedies Preserved.—The omission to specify or affirm in this act any liability to any damages, penalty, forfeiture or other remedy, imposed by law, and allowed to be recovered or enforced in any civil action or proceeding, for any act or omission declared punishable herein, shall not affect any right to recover or enforce the same. [L. '09, p. 901, § 44.]

§ 2297. Proceedings to Impeach, etc., Preserved.—The omission to specify or affirm in this act any ground of forfeiture of a public office or other trust or special authority conferred by law, or any power conferred by law to impeach, remove, depose or suspend any public officer or other person holding any trust, appointment or other special authority conferred by law, shall not affect such forfeiture or power, or any proceeding authorized by law to carry into effect such impeachment, removal, deposition or suspension. [L. '09, p. 901, § 45.]

§ 2298. Rule of Construction.—Every provision of this act shall be construed according to the fair import of its terms. [L. '09, p. 902, § 46.]

§ 2299. Common Law to Supplement Statute.—The provisions of the common law relating to the commission of crime and the punishment thereof, in so far as not inconsistent with the institutions and statutes of this state, shall supplement all penal statutes of this state and all persons offending against the same shall be tried in the superior courts of this state. [L. '09, p. 902, § 47.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 534.

§ 2300. To be Construed as Continuation of Former Acts.—The provisions of this act, in so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutes, shall be construed as continuations thereof and not as new enactments. [L. '09, p. 902, § 48.]

Cited in 86 Wash. 463.

§ 2301. Act as Measure of Law.—No statute, law or rule is continued in force because it is consistent with the provisions of this act on the same subject; but in all cases provided for by this act, all statutes, laws and rules heretofore in force in this state, whether consistent or not with the provisions of this act, unless expressly continued in force by it, are repealed and abrogated. [L. '09, p. 902, § 49.]

Cited in 86 Wash. 463.

§ 2302. Repeal Does not Revive Former Law.—The repeal or abrogation by this act of any existing law shall not revive any former law heretofore repealed, nor affect any right already existing or accrued or any action or proceeding already taken, except as in this act provided; nor does it repeal any private statute or statutes affecting civil rights or liabilities not expressly repealed. [L. '09, p. 902, § 50.]

§ 2303. Definition of Terms.—In construing the provisions of this act, save when otherwise plainly declared or clearly apparent from the context, the following rules shall be observed:

(1.) Each of the words "neglect," "negligence," "negligent," and "negligently" shall import a want of such attention to the nature or probable consequences of an act or omission as an ordinarily prudent man usually exercises in his own business.

(2.) Each of the words "corrupt" and "corruptly" shall import a wrongful desire to acquire or cause some pecuniary or other advantage to himself or another, by the person to whom applicable.

(3.) "Malice" and "maliciously" shall import an evil intent, wish or design to vex, annoy or injure another person. Malice may be inferred from an act done in willful disregard of the rights of another, or an act wrongfully done without just cause or excuse, or an act or omission of duty betraying a willful disregard of social duty.

(4.) The word "knowingly" imports a knowledge that the facts exist which constitute the act or omission of a crime, and does not require knowledge of its unlawfulness; knowledge of any particular fact may be inferred from the knowledge of such other facts as should put an ordinarily prudent man upon inquiry.

(5.) Whenever an intent to defraud constitutes a part of a crime, it is not necessary to aver or prove an intent to defraud any particular person.

(6.) The word "boat" shall include ships, steamers and other structures adapted to navigation or movement from place to place by water.

(7.) The word "signature" shall include any memorandum, mark, or sign made with intent to authenticate any instrument or writing, or the subscription of any person thereto.

(8.) The word "writing" shall include printing.

(9.) The word "property" shall include both real and personal property.

(10.) The term "real property" shall include every estate, interest and right in lands, tenements and hereditaments, corporeal or incorporeal.

(11.) The term "personal property" shall include dogs and all domestic animals and birds, water, gas and electricity, all kinds or descriptions of money, chattels and effects, all instruments or writings completed and ready to be delivered or issued by the maker, whether actually delivered or issued or not, by which any claim, privilege, right, obligation or authority, or any right or title to property real or personal, is, or purports to be, or upon the happening of some future event may be evidenced, created, acknowledged, transferred, increased, diminished, encumbered, defeated, discharged or affected, and every right and interest therein.

(12.) The word "bond" shall include an undertaking.

(13.) Words in the present tense shall include the future tense; and in the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter genders; and in the singular shall include the plural; and in the plural shall include the singular.

(14.) The word "person" shall include a corporation or joint stock association; and whenever it is used to designate a party whose property may be the subject of the offense, it shall also include the state, or any other state, government or country which may lawfully own property within this state.

(15.) The term "judge" shall include every judicial officer authorized, alone or with others, to hold or preside over a court of record.

(16.) Any person shall be deemed an "owner" of any property who has a general or special property in the whole or any part thereof, or lawful possession thereof, either actual or constructive.

(17.) The words "dwelling-house" shall include every building or structure which shall have been usually occupied by a person lodging therein at night, and whenever it shall be so constructed as to consist of two or more parts or rooms occupied or intended to be occupied, whether permanently or temporarily, by different tenants separately by usually lodging therein at night, or for any other separate purpose, each part shall be deemed a separate dwelling-house of the tenant occupying the same.

(18.) The word "building" shall include every house, shed, boat, water craft, railway car, tent or booth, whether completed or not, suitable for affording shelter for any human being, or as a place where any property is or shall be kept for use, sale or deposit.

(19.) The word "night-time" shall include the period between sunset and sunrise; the word "daytime" the period between sunrise and sunset.

(20.) The word "break," when used in connection with the crime of burglary, shall include:

(a) Breaking or violently detaching any part, internal or external, of a building;

(b) Opening, for the purpose of entering therein, any outer door of a building or of any room, apartment or set of apartments therein separately used and occupied, or any window, shutter, scuttle or other thing used for covering or closing any opening thereto or therein, or which gives passage from one part thereof to another;

(c) Obtaining entrance into such building or apartment by any threat or artifice, used for that purpose, or by collusion with any person therein;

(d) Entering such building, room or apartment by or through any pipe, chimney or other opening, or by excavating or digging through or under a building or the walls or foundation thereof.
